Mr. Seward Sheldon,
The PRESS,
City.

Dear Seward:

Enclosed is copy for the story on the Will Rogers race meet. It is not a duplicate of ours; so if your boys wish to use it without rewriting they can do so. However, having long since passed the pride of authorship period, if they can make a better story, which they undoubtedly can, I shall be happy to see them do it.

We shall use it Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning.

Best wishes.

Yours very truly,

Dallas, Tex.

Dear Tom:

Enclosed are stories for the Times-Herald and the Dispatch regarding the Will Rogers race meet. If you will pass it on to the Dispatch, I shall appreciate it very much.

You will note that the quoted part is supposed to have emanated from the Dallas spokesman of the Will Rogers organization. I left a blank space for his name and the decision as to his identity with you.

Best wishes.
