CHRISTOPHER DOUGLAS DIEBEL (Abilene)—Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree. Minister of the First Christian Church of Abilene since 1965. After service with the U.S. Navy, he earned a business administration degree from the University of Texas. While completing studies in Brite Divinity School, he was founding minister of the First Christian Church in Burnet and worked with the church in Rockwall. He headed ministerial alliances and was an active civic worker while minister of churches in both Luling and Cleburne. He was associated with the First Christian Church in Pecos in 1957-65 and served on the boards of that city's Rotary Club, Salvation Army and Black River Christian Retreat. In Abilene he has been active in such community organizations as the Chamber of Commerce, child welfare board and Red Cross. He is president of the West Central Texas Area of Christian Churches, past member and chairman of the resolutions committee of both the International Convention and Texas Assembly of Christian Churches.

A. M. AIKIN, JR. (Paris)—Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree. Dean of the Texas Senate since 1963. An alumnus of Paris Junior College who earned his law degree from Cumberland University, he was first elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1933 and the Texas Senate four years later. Long dedicated to the improvement of education, he has sponsored more than 120 bills related to all levels of education in the state. He co-authored the Gilmer-Aikin Act enacted in 1949, a landmark action which re-organized the state's public school system. He was also one of the original authors of the state's farm-to-market road legislation, sponsored the 1942 constitutional amendment that put Texas finances on a "pay as you go" basis, and is now in his 26th year on the Senate Financing Committee. Among his many honors have been the distinguished service award of the Texas State Teachers Assn. He is senior member of the Paris law firm of Aikin-Townsend and is associated with his brother in the men's wear business.

ALANN PECKHAM BEDFORD (Fort Worth)—Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree. Leader in community, state and national service organizations. Holder of two degrees from the University of California at Berkeley. Mrs. Bedford is former president of both the Fort Worth-Tarrant County and the National Council of Camp Fire Girls. She has headed the Fort Worth Literacy Council, Arlington Heights Chapter of American Field Service, the Mayor's Council on Youth Opportunity and divisions of the United Fund. She was the governor's delegate to the 1970 White House Conference on Children and Youth and is currently chairman of the Tarrant County Task Force on Aging. She heads Texas United Community Services, is on the boards of United Cerebral Palsy, United Fund and Community Council, Association for Graduate Research and Education in North Texas. Her tireless efforts in service organizations have brought high honors from Camp Fire Girls Inc. and the Tarrant County Community Council. The wife of Charles E. Bedford and mother of three daughters, she was named First Lady of Fort Worth in 1966 by the Altrusa Club. She is a member of the Episcopal Church.

LEO POTISHMAN (Fort Worth)—Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree. Businessman and industrialist. He founded the processed mineral-vitamin additive firm of Vit-A-Way Inc. and was its president until he sold the business last year. Formerly in the oil business and president of Santa Fe Grain Co., he has held memberships and offices in such organizations as the Chicago Board of Trade, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, Fort Worth Farm and Ranch Club. He has served on the board of Lena Pope Home for more than 40 years. Immediately following World War II he was on the executive committee of what later became Radio Free Europe. He has provided funds to Fort Worth's public schools for awards to exceptional music students. Some 15 years ago he began the Leo Potishman Fund to support TCU sociology publications. Eleven books were made possible through the fund, now a part of the TCU Press. The Potishman Fund founded the forerunner of the Journal of Health and Social Welfare, now the American Sociological Association's official publication. Another gift allowed construction of TCU's nine varsity-quality tennis courts. He is a member of Temple Beth-El and Ahavath Sholom congregations.

JOHN PAUL JONES (Hawkins)—Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree. President of Jarvis Christian College. Holder of a bachelor's degree from Texas College in his native Tyler, he earned his master's degree at the University of Chicago and did additional study at Columbia University. He was the chairman of the humanities divisions at both Texas College and Jarvis and headed the Language Project funded by the Endowment for the Humanities. Former adjunct professor of English at TCU, he served as assistant to the Jarvis president before assuming duties as acting president of the East Texas school founded in 1910 by the late Major and Mrs. J. J. Jarvis of Fort Worth. He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree by Phillips University last May.

CONGRATULATIONS, ALUMNUS:

The members of the TCU Alumni Association join me in congratulating you on the culmination of your academic effort in the University. The completion of one effort often heralds the beginning of another, and in this, your fellow alumni wish you well.

You and the members of your class are important to the Association and the Alma Mater we serve. We are proud of the financial support we have given that continues to grow each year. We are proud of the support we lend to help provide higher academic goals for tomorrow's students. Much that you have enjoyed here in both faculty and facilities has been made possible by the generous support of the graduates who have preceded you.

We encourage you to attend alumni activities such as Homecoming, class reunions, continuing education sessions and athletic events. Your presence and participation in these programs will afford you lasting friendships among classmates and other alumni.

You are the reason for the Association and we welcome you to the fellowship of alumni throughout the world.

Sincerely,

Betty Jean Stocker, '45
Director, Alumni Activities
