THE LITERARY SOCIETIES.

ADD-RAN.

After a delightful program last Monay morning in the Add-Ran Literary Society its members were given a rare treat in the form of a talk from Professor Addison Clark Jr.

His subject was Texas. Following Prof. Clrrks criticism, Texas has so far produced but one poet. This is Mr. Leonard Douthy, a lawyer of West Texas.

Prof. Clark read three selections from Mr. Douthy's pen which the society unanimously declared to contain all the intricate elements of poetry. After adjournment the society proceede to a business meeting in whieh a committee was appointed to send Mr. Douthy an expression of our appreciation for the true merit of his poetry.

The business meeting then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing six weeks. The following were elected: President, Douglas Shirley; Vice President, E. K. Lavender; Secretary, Miss Grant; Cor. Secretary, Miss Stockton; Treasurer, Walter Bush; Sergeants at Arms, Mess. Smith and Rowe.

SHIRLEY.

The Shirley Society met at the usual time last Monday morning. Her new officers took their places; they are as follows: President, Mr. West Parker; Vice President, W. H. Shumate; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Pocahuntus Cockrell; Critic, Prof. C. D. Hall; Marshall, C. T. Moore.

A short but interesting program was rendered.

Since the last report from this society several new members have been added, the new Constitution and By Laws have been completed, new officers have been elected.

It being almost time for the open session of this Society (as booked in the catalogue,) a committee of one was appointed to see Dr. Zollars and have the time rearanged.

The Shirley Society has bright prospects. Someone has said, "I will donate fifty dollars to the Shirley Society, for the purpose of building up a library." The Society certainly appreciates this donation.

WALTON.

The Waltonians carried out an extraordinarily good program Monday morning. The election of officers was postponed until next Monday. They will soon get new window curtains and other furniture. Several were initiated into the Waltonian mysteries last meeting. The tender feet do not flinch as this society marches abreast with the Shirley and Add-Ran on the rugged road to invitable success.

GRANVILLE JONES.

The inimitable Granville Jones stood head and shoulders above us the first of the week. There are lots of Joneses, "one among whom Granville is which."

He has lately been ditching in Panola county. The county has gone dry. So many places go dry where he lectures on prohibition wouldn't it be well to call him a "dry" speaker? No. The T. C. U. students are always glad to have him baptize them in the molten silver of his eloquence.

Mr. Jones said in his talk in chapel Wednesday, that 102 counties in Texas are now dry. 48 have gone dry the last eighteen months. 45 of these have voted out whiskey since December of last year. Fifteen years ago Delta and Rockwall were the only two prohibition counties in Texas. In the state contest between antis and pros, the pros. were defeated by 90,000 majority. Fifteen years ago the state was canvassed in interest of prohibition. The subject was discussed in pulpit, in schoolroom, and in the home. An impression was made upon the boys and girls and these have grown into maturity. The right seed were sown into their hearts. This is the harvest time. His quotation from Ben Hur where the author tells where Ben Hur got his strength to hold the enraged Arabian horses and to stand in the leaping chariot was quite appropriate. The toil that you now undergo, the hard knocks you now recieve will in the future be as girdles bound about your loins for strength to do the work that is appointed unto you.

In the Skiff of Sept. 25th there appeared a short article concerning the advisability of earnest, enthusiastic society work. The article had little merit to distinguish it from the general run of such things, yet it seems to have created to a profound impression on the minds of the student body. Never before, to our knowledge, in the institution have had such enthusastic workers. This is as it should be. Yet there is a danger of becoming over enthusiastic, a danger of swinging now to the opposite extreme, a danger that the student may sacrifice even his honor that his society may take a leading position. When a boy or girl, or worse still, a society as a whole, deliberately plans the downfall of a rival society by means not altogether irreproachable and contrives for its personal gain, to entice members from the body with which they have affiliated themselves, that society is in imminent danger of dissolution. Death from the exuberance of its own virulence is inevitable.

We would not take one jot from innocent enthusiasm and harmless rivalry, yet we feel bound to discourage everything even tinged with a trace of foul play or dishonor. M.

With face in hands all day he sits with tilted chair against the wall. His knees drawn up to rest his arms,

A blank expression on his brow,
Nor think nor—stirs but merely is.
His mind not trained to comfort him,
Ambition dead, and want not near
To rouse him from his indolence.
No longing for a rich reward,
To him e'er comes, for him the hope
To conquer and to rule no charms
Can never have, can never rend
The thrill of asprations call—
To touch with fire his sluggishness.
Because he's never learned the joy
That labour brings and honest toil,
Nor yet was blessed with poverty. —P.

It is said that J. P. Morgan will use his influence to keep President Roosevelt from being elected next term. Morgan is in favor of trusts, President Roosevelt is against them. hence the antagonism. Money talks and Mark Hanna don't love our strenuous President. Teddy, beware of Nov. 1904.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

Perhaps you did not know that you were expected to be in the grandstand and thus by your presence encourage our foot ball team. Some old students can take this as a hint as well as the new ones. Boys, come out and watch the team practice. They are at it good and strong. Our new coach is rapidly bringing them to a high standard of fast play. Our outlook is encouraging and more men are applicants now for positions than we have suits for. Our order for material has been delayed and may not get here for some days yet and the result is that some men can't come out that want to.

By not knowing what our course in foot ball would be we are handicapped in our schedule of games. Manager Shirley has matched two games with A. and M., one with Trinity and has been expected to fix a date for one with Baylor.

Seems like somebody has been up against it. Up there at Dallas. Out in the Fair grounds. Did you hear about "It?" Baylor went, Baylor got beat, and we were all surprised. Seems like there are to be several differences in the outcome this season.

Wright, who has been out of the game sometime on account of injuries, is back in his old place.

Carpenter is on the sick list for a few days.

Perhaps the game of the season is the game in Dallas, Friday. Sewanee and Texas are old rivals for football honors and each wants the game their way as any teams ever did.

Don't fail to subscribe for the football fund. S.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS.

The prospects for a winning football team at the Texas Christian University are unusually bright this season. There are more than two teams on the ground every afternoon and as soon as our new suits come a third team will be organized and a captian

SUPPLEMENT.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Polk Web is back.

Miss Lillie Furguson is keeping books at the First National Bank at Iowa Park.

Emmet Hunter is stenographer for the Cameron Lumber Co.

Jack Muse spent sunday at home. His Bro. James may soon take work in the Commercial department.

F. C. Davis met his brother in Dallas last Sunday.

R. R. Ruff, of Duster, Comanche Co. matriculated in the literary department this week. He is Roosevelts Rough Rider when it comes to playing football and Radways Ready Relief when it comes to soothing people with his songs.

Asa Draper, of Midland, is one of the new Commercial students.

Oliver Kirkpatrick works in the carpet department of Sanger Bros.' store each Monday. He is pleased to have his friends to call and see him.

E. J. Bradley went to Bastrop Sunday.

Bro. A. D. Rogers, the district evangelist in the Hillsboro district, was in the city this week. He reports several successful meetings this summer. He goes next to Gano, from there he goes to Dawson in Navarro county.

Tom Yarbrough is now in Indian Territory.

J. C. Mullins has been holding meetings in Oklahoma Territory this summer. He is now in the midst of the greatest revival ever held in Calumet. In spite of rain several have been added to the church and others are flocking in. This is the kind of men T. C. U. sends out.

J. B. Collins, of Rowlett, is one of the new literary students.

The young ladies will soon get their uniforms.

The boys look fine in their new uuiforms. The awkward squads are learning fast.

Miss Viola Henry, is now teaching music in Colorado City.

Read the Review. On sale at Hermoson post office.

Here is a chance for some young man to make $25. I will sell you eighty dollars worth of board for fifty-five dollars. At Mrs. Singletons. See me at once. ED S. MCKINNEY.

The Skiff and Review, we will send you for $1.25 a year.

H. P. Williams of Whitewright and W. C. Bernard of Cleburne arrived to-day. Still they come.

P. P. Boyd, of Longview, is visiting friends at the University.

Remember the first Sunday in November.—B. B. SANDERS.

The result of the football game at Dallas yesterday between Sewanee and Texas State 'Varsity was 11 to 0 in favor of the 'Varsity. Three cheers for the 'Varsity!

Pres. Zollars spoke again at the Y. M. C. A. hall last Sunday afternoon. The main assembly room, and all the adjoining rooms were packed full of eager listeners.

Mr. A. S. Henry and wife, friends and liberal supporters of T. C. U., were pleasant visitors this week. They now live at Colorado City. Mr. Henry was one time field agent for Add-Ran. Good work he did for her too.

Prof. Bruce McCully preached in the chapel last Sunday morning and evening. The university church has elected him temporary pastor. His clear, forceful sermons are weilding an influence among the student body.

Mrs. Ingalls, Miss McClintic, Prof. Schimmelpfennig and Prof. Parmenter, will give a recital in the T. C. U. chapel, Tues. Oct. 21. 8 p. m. Posters will be placed in the show windows in the city. The proceeds will go toward building the much needed sidewalk in front of the University. It is whispered that the rules will be suspended on that evening. This will be the event of the season. The Skiff will publish the program next week if possible.

A LIBERAL MAN

Dr. Ernest Boston, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, Rooms 73-74 Provident building, Waco, Texas, authorizes the Skiff to publish the following:

"I desire to help the young preachers of T. C. U. and as I am an old Add-Ran boy I take pleasure in doing so. I will treat all young preachers free of charge in my line of work."

The ministerial students extend their thanks to Dr. Boston for his kindness. And T. C. U. recognizes in him a friend. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Remembering the services of Mr. Henry, of Colorado, in behalf of the University, Col. Easley ordered a battallion parade for Friday evening. The battallion formed immediately in front of the grand stand where Mr. Henry, in a few well directed remarks, told us of the merits of drilling. He finished by paying a high tribute to Col. Easley and Maj. Shumate. Then followed the parade which, to say the least, was good to see.

T. C. U's second football team and Toby's team met on T. C. U's. gridiron Thursday afternoon, October 9th. Neither side made a touchdown or kicked a goal. The T. C. U. boys made the most points. When the game was called off they were five yards from the goal and were going through Toby's line three or four yards each buck.

Both teams did fine playing. Toby's boys did remarkably well not to have had but little practice. Several of our boys were initiated into the Pigskin Fraternity only a few days ago. But they take to the leather ellipse like a duck to water.

The University Sunday school is growing in interest and numbers. Prof. Cockrell the Supt.. Miss Miller, secretary, and a strong set of teachers; all veteran Sunday school workers, are bending every energy toward bringing this years record above the high-water mark of all other Sunday schools in the State. Subject of lesson Oct. 12, The Advent. Matt. 1:18-25; Luke 1: 26-56; 2:1-20; John 1:1-18. Be sure and come at 9:45 a. m.

The Christian Endeavor with R. H. Foster, for president; Miss Effie Jones, for secretary, and Miss Mary Taliaferro, for corresponding secretary; and with a large enthusiastic membership; has bright prospects for this session. Major W. H. Shumate led a most interesting meeting, last Sunday, almost every one took some part in the meeting. Miss Ava Martin is to lead Sunday Oct. 12. Subject, Fruitful or Fruitless. John 15:1-8; Mark 11:12-14. All are cordially invited. At 7 p. m.

elected. There are several of the old men of last year back and all of them are doing good work. among the new there is some excellent material. Their names are too numerous to make mention of them all in this issue. But some are doing such excellent work that we cannot refrain from mentioning their names.

Gallaher is doing excellent work at half and if he continues to improve will doubtles deserve position on the All-Southern-Team. Beall is strong and should make a good player in the line. Moulden, a perfectly developed man, strong and active is doing good work at end and if he continues to improve as he has so far it is supposed to conjecture that he will make a valuable man. Draper is quick on his feet, fearless in attack (when running with the ball) and tackles well. Wright is an old player at centre and is doing good work. Russel is a strong man and as soon as he becomes accustomed to handling the ball and learns to handle himself will make a good man in the line. Muse has been out a few days and we think with his strength he should develop into a good player. There are others whose names might be mentioned but in the next issue we hope to give a full account of the work of each man. So will let this suffice for this time. X.

GIRLS' HOME NOTES.

There are now fifty-one names on the roll of "The Home," and others are expected.

Miss Ava Martin spent a pleasant day Sunday with friends on Bell's Hill.

Mrs. Sallie Holmes, a sister of Mrs. Bynon, has just arrived and is comfortably situated in her room on the first floor.

Two of the young ladies called on Mrs. Lyle a few evenings ago, and she appreciating the fact that school girls are always hungry, treated them.

We regret to say that Mrs. Aline Bynon was very ill Sunday but glad that she has recovered and is ready for duty.

Mrs. Cockrell is very busy preparing her display for the art exhibit at the Bryan fair.

The girls have a new feature added to their evening exercises in the way of a physical culture drill led by Miss McClintic. This is enjoyable and profitable in developing ease and grace of movement.

Several of the girls have been complimented with treats from the young men, which they have enjoyed much. This reminds us of the quotation, "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind." A hungry boy knows how to compliment a hungry girl in an acceptible way.

Mrs. Ingalls came back Sunday from the Central church smiling because her choir sang so beautifully. She feels encouraged in her work there.

Mrs. Dimmitt left Tuesday for her home in Benjamin, after spending a month with her daughter, Miss LeNoir. Her presence is missed from our halls.

Miss Eunice Mun spent Sunday in the city as usual.

Some of the girls, with Mrs. Dimmitt, spent Sunday afternoon in the woods. They had a fine time even though one girl suffered with a sprained ankle, another with sun-stroke.

Several of the girls have been playing tennis before breakfast lately.

The girls who are over twenty-one, are greatly envied by the others. Sometimes they go to plays in the city.

Does Miss Selman's fruit come by express? Oh, no! By Galliher.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ted Beall, Spencer Taylor and Walter Bush attended the Dallas Fair a few days. They went up Friday and returned Monday.

Bro. John W. Marshall visited his home on College Heights Wednesday and Wednesday night. He leaves for the National convention at Omaha, Monday. He will hold meetings at Cameron, Honey Grove and Beeville between now and Xmas. Bro. Marshall though still a young man, is one of the strongest evangelists in Texas. He has won quite a reputation as church faction killer.

A thousand dollars worth of books will soon arrive for the library. The librarian, Miss Crosse, and the registrar, are making out a list of the books. They will use the Dewey system of classification.

Read the Review and keep up with the times. Copies for sale at Hermoson post office.
