FRIZZELL, CAPTAIN.

Varsity Elects Football Captain for Season of '06.

On Saturday morning the '06 Varsity men, who have returned, met and elected there captain for the present season. Five of the old men have returned and out of this number a captain was selected. Those who know Knight, Frizzell, Wright, Martin and Bloor, will know that there were five men any one of whom would have made a good captain and all of whom have served T. C. U. Varsity long and faithfully.

Coach Hyde called the meeting to order and Manager Hall was elected temporary chairman of the meeting. Nominations for Captain were called for. Bonner Frizzell was elected on first ballot.

This is the fourth year that Frizzell has played football and during that time he has played at end, guard and half-back. No one who has ever donned the mole skins at T. C. U. has a better reputation as a football player or as a man than "Fritz." He plays the game, the clean, hard game and we opine that there is many a man over the state who remembered "that gritty T. C. U. end," very vividly. There is no training too strenuous, no halves too long and no sacrifice too great for Frizzell and it is a credit to the other four men to say that they stand right alongside of their captain in these respects.

Varsity has a captain who has done long, hard service, who is always willing to subserve everything to the welfare of the team, who plays team ball, who has the respect of the team any everyone who knows him, and the admiration of strangers. "Fritz" will not play harder as captain than he did before, he couldn't, this is the best thing which we can say of him. He will make a good team and the team will make him a good Captain.

NEW TEACHERS.

Two New Additions to the Faculty of T. C. U. Arrive This Week.

We take great pleasure in introducing, to our readers, the teachers who had not arrived before our last issue.

Willis C. Turner comes here from Boston. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, one of the foremost conservatories of America. For the past six years he has been teaching in that institution, so that he comes to Texas Christian University with the ripest training which our country affords. He is master of the violin. Every music-loving person in the state should be glad that he is in Texas. Mr. Turner is a splendid pianist, but he will give his best effort to the teaching on the violin.

Mrs. Willis C. Turner is also a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music. She has been teaching in Wesleyan College, Canada, for some time and comes to T. C. U. with a splendid record as a teacher and with every advantage to be gotten from association with the best masters in the North and East. Mrs. Turner will teach piano. She has already many admirers and we are glad to predict her popularity.

The Skiff extends to these new teachers a hearty welcome and sincerely hopes that they may have exceptional success.

We have something now which will come as a pleasant surprise to T. C. U. enthusiasts: Dr. Ernest Boston, who is so well and popularly known to us and to all Wacoites, will have a chair in the College of Arts and Sciences. He will teach Physiology. His classes will meet twice each week, coming on Wednesdays and Fridays at 8 a. m.

Dr. Boston has been a friend, an extremely practical friend, to T. C. U. for a long time and we are happy that he is now something more, something in addition. We may call him "Fesser" now, as we do the other teachers.

GLEE CLUB.

Personnel and Plans of the T. C. U. Glee Club for '06-'07.

One of the many things which are an honor and a credit to Texas Christian University is the Male Glee Club. There is hardly nothing which is more a part of college life, which forms more lasting, endearing memories, which strikes such a responsive chord in the hearts of university students than a Glee Club.

It is as much a factor in the making and perpetuating of college spirit as is athletics. There is something in college songs which is long remembered, and which always keeps alive a love for the alma mater.

Last year's Glee Club needs no ecomium now. It spoke abundantly for itself, and people over the state will remember it with pleasure which is only exceeded by our pride of it. It was popular with the people of Waco, Dallas, Fort Worth and Hillsboro. The Glee Club of '05-'06, was as good, if not better, than any other in Texas, and we say this with no spirit of unwarranted braggadocio, but rather as a compliment to other like organizations.

The '06-'07 Glee Club was organized last week with the following officers: Howell G. Knight, President; Gordon B. Hall, Vice-president; W. O. Dallas, Secretary; J. B. Frizzell Treasurer. The Club at present consists of eight members as a nucleus and as material develops it will be added. Some of the present members were members last year; all of them are experienced singers. The Club is fortunate enough to have the directorship, again, of Prof. W. T. Hamner, who takes especial pride and interest in it and who is responsible for the splendid Glee Club music which we have had for several years past.

Always, the organization stands for that in our university life which will develop a closer relationship among the students, and which will reflect credit upon our school. It is placed at the services of all societies and organizations and it is the purpose of its existence to be of service in furthering the interest in everything which pertains to the welfare of T. C. U.

A splendid program of college music is being prepared and Mr. Hamner is already being solicited for engagements; a trip is being planned. The Glee Club meets every Tuesday and Friday evening at 7:00 p. m. Following is the personnel:

Bass—Knight, Millican.
 Baritone—Collins, Buck.
 Second Tenor—Hall, Frizzell.
 First Tenor—Dallas, Hamner.

Prof. Hamner is organizing a boys' Glee Club which will draw recruits from the younger men who have not sufficient experience and development to sing with the Men's Glee Club. This is good, as it will not only afford pleasure for us and the boys but it will afford material to take the place in the Men's Glee Club, of those who drop out.

We have heard it rumored that the young ladies are forming a Glee Club. We are ready to extend our congratulations when we hear the rumor authenticated.

ENCOURAGING DEVELOPMENTS ON THE GRIDIRON.

The Number of Candidates Increasing. New Material Improving.

Since the first appearance of the football squad there has been a marked development in the work of a number of the men who will have to be counted on for the first defenders of the purple and white and this together with the addition of some very valuable men who have seen service elsewhere gives a bright outlook to the season's work. Suits, which could not at first be supplied were given out early in the week and a large squad has been busily engaged in practice preliminary to actual team work and scrimmaging.

From the number on the field Coach Hyde has selected three squads of men and excepting a few men just arrived the entire bunch of players has been picked over for members who will definitely constitute the first team.

The old men who have returned are retained in their positions and the new men showing to a peculiar advantage for a position will soon be finally chosen. Martin, at center, Dabbs and Pyburn, guards; Wright, right tackle; Bonner Frizzell, right end; Knight, left end will probably make up the line with the left tackle open. In the back field, Bloor will be looked to for fullback and competition is warm among Wallace, Tyson, Cartwright, Thomas, J. B. Frizzell, Harwood for the halfbacks. Collins is fastly developing into a good quarter. He is fast on feet and is heady, calling signals with a good variety of plays and always in the game. These men have been in school before this year with the exception of Thomas, who comes from Grayson College. He is a valuable addition to the squad and will doubtless develop into one of the fastest men on the field.

The second squad from all appearances will out-weigh and excel in every respect the reserves of last season. Much of the success of Varsity depends on these men and there need be no forebodings that this squad will not do their duty well. Perkins, Massey, Strong, Baldwin, Hall, Anderson, Barnard, Muse, Cole, Lytton, Robinson, Bevins, Herder, Bozeman, Nabors, Young and Walcott compose this squad.

Two men who will work out today arrived yesterday and it is expected that they will show up well. Edwards from Midland has had some experience in the back field and looks physically like a half. Peters is a heavy man and will be an addition to the strength of the line.

Sets of signals were given the two teams yesterday and work is now on in earnest. The prospect looms brighter every day and observers are confident of as strong a team as ever from T. C. U. Two weeks from today Varsity meets Fort Worth University, and then the true mettle of the new men will be plainly visible.

Art Reception.

A treat which has been looked forward to since school opened was given Thursday in the Studio of Fine Art, at 3:30 p. m. Several hundred students, and ladies and gentlemen of the city, were received and everyone was delighted with the decorations, refreshments and display of Fine Art.

At the scheduled time students and guests began to come and for an hour the Studio was crowded with admirers. The Rooms were very tastefully decorated with shrubbery and festoons of evergreen; Miss Jackson, with the assistance of some other ladies of the Art Department, presided charmingly over the refreshments. Mrs. Cockrell received many deserving compliments upon her work. The display included drawings from life, modelling, china-painting, portrait-painting and pyrography. Everyone who had the pleasure of attending the Reception, is strenuous in his praise of our Art teacher. We are all looking for splendid accomplishments in this department.

WHAT WE STAND FOR.

Every journal, every individual has an influence, a control, a sway, a status. Just that thing for which a person stands should not be placarded, with attendant gesticulating and stamping of feet but should be written in every thought; ambition, deed. In the case of a journal it is slightly different, different in degree not in kind. A college paper must have the co-operation, support and inspiration of all its readers. One man, or ten men cannot edit a paper as it should be edited unless they are in complete sympathy, harmony, accord, with all of their readers. Therefore we intend to just hint at what we stand for, that we may all be moved by the same impulses and aspirations. This is incontestably necessary.

A college paper has for its main purposes the betterment of patrons—and we mean by this, students, faculty, directors, alumni and friends—and the promotion of college spirit. We stand for everything that is big and clean and good in the life of T. C. U. We are just as interested in Religious Activities as we are in athletics, in the Preps. as in the "Grads." This year T. C. U. will contest with other schools in many different events. Football is the paramount issue now, and we are going to talk football until after the game on Thanksgiving Day. Then there are the Basket Ball Girls—we are as proud of them as anything else—Religious conventions, Oratorical contests, Track work and Baseball. In everything let's get enthused, work together, make the welfare of T. C. U. a passion, and we will excel.

What of the "Frog."

It is by no means too soon to begin to talk "Horned Frog." In a work which requires so much of thought, preparation, endeavor, which takes so much time for publication, it is not too early to begin organization. After the "Frog" having been published by a number of classes in succession, we think that there will be some odium attached to the class who fails now. The '07 class has an abundance of talent and the T. C. U. public is looking for a first class annual.

Juniors Organize.

We congratulate the Juniors upon being the first class to effect an organization.

The class met Thursday and the following officers were elected: Bonner Frizzell, President; Alex Harwood Vice President; Lela Tomlinson, Secretary; Mollie Hunter, Treasurer.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Literary Society work is universally acknowledged to be of inestimable value to young men and women, in connection with a college course. It is a field where one may put into practice the theories of the class-room; where he may acquire a working knowledge of parliamentary law and where he may develop that grace and ease of conduct before an audience which is so essential to his success in after life. The Faculty of Texas Christian University is as interested in having good, thorough Literary Society work as in having good work in the class-room. Society work of T. C. U. has not been exceptionally good in the past and in order to make it stronger and of more value, the Faculty has seen fit to make some requests of the three societies in regard to admitting new members.

Heretofore we have had young ladies and men associated together in Literary Societies, but it is the opinion of leading educators—an opinion begotten of study and experience—that young ladies and young men do better society work where they have separate societies.

In order that the change in status might not be so sudden as to impair the plans of the societies, the Faculty requests that no young ladies be admitted to membership into the Add-Ran and the Shirley societies, and that no young men be admitted to membership into the Walton society. In time this will produce the desired result. The Faculty also gives permission to the young ladies of the Add-Ran and the Shirley societies and the young men of the Walton society to withdraw and form sister societies and a brother society.

Some of the societies took complimentary action in regard to the request of the faculty. All the societies met Monday morning and considerable enthusiasm was manifested. Conditions are favorable for better work than has ever been done here.

Society Notes.

The Add-Ran Society met in business session Monday morning at nine-thirty. Officers were elected to fill vacancies and other important business was transacted, the business meeting was followed by an excellent impromptu program.

The Walton Society met in business session and elected officers. A large attendance is reported. The Walton is destined to be a very popular society because of the ruling of the Faculty.

The Shirleyites, few but faithful, met in business session and report the best meeting that has occurred in several months.

The Staff.

We have endeavored to fulfill our announcement of last week in regard to a Reportorial Staff. We have taken time and pains in our endeavor to select those who are best fitted for the work and who will do it. We have entertained no other motive in the selection than ability. We hope you concur with us in our self-congratulations in securing such capable assistants and we hope that you will heartily co-operate with them.

Choir Practice.

Under the leadership of the popular and strenuous Vocal Teacher, Miss Harnish, the choir is doing splendid work. The singers meet every Saturday night, for practice, at 7:30.

The Collegian.

Aside from this weekly paper we have a monthly one, the Collegian. It also is published under the auspices of the student body of Texas Christian University. But the two are different. The Skiff is intended primarily to register, record, catalogue the actions of the university; the Collegian is intended to do the same for the thought of our school. This paper publishes locals, the Collegian publishes essays. You may not apply the same adjectives to both; for instance, you may say that The Skiff is good and breezy; and the Collegian is excellent, splendid.

The Collegian is as necessary to the student body as is The Skiff, because, although this paper is something of a quidmunc and gives you the news; the Collegian is a means of publishing and preserving the best literature of the university—that literature which is the product of training, of culture, of thought. You should take the Collegian even though you already take the Skiff, for neither covers, hardly overlaps, the field of the other. The Collegian is well edited this year and will speak abundantly well for itself when it makes its appearance.

Among the Colleges.

"The State" is claiming scalps too soon.

Football has opened unofficially at Chicago. Walter Eckersall is captain of the Maroons this season.

Notre Dame began practice on the 17th.

Yale opens with with practice on 17th. Tripp and Jones are again in line.

Illinois began practice Monday.

Old Students and Alumni.

Mr. Russel Muse, '06 is superintendent of schools at Blueridge.

A. C. Barnard and T. C. Honea, '05, are studying medicine in Chicago.

Hardy Grissom is having splendid success in business at Haskell.

"Doc" Brannin is studying medicine at Ft. Worth.

E. M. Haile and Ora Haile are taking work at Chicago University.

Shirley ("Father") Graves is in Chicago University.

Captain Jack Muse is gentleman of leisure at Aberdeen.

Miss Lillyan Green is teaching* at Lampasas.

J. W. ("Peck") Royall is practicing law at Athens.

Miss Myra Bengel, oratory, '05, is teaching at Seymour.

Captain Pierce Bailey is superintendent of schools at Moody.

Erle Milroy is assimilating the law department of the State University at Austin.

The Wild.

I went far into the Wild,
Through gorges rock-ribbed and deep;
Like thrusts of a giant sabre
Got in a war of the worlds.

I passed over vast, red deserts,
Titanic blood-shot eyes
Which glared, sullen, inimical, aggressive,
And looked deep into my soul.

I climbed granitic, white-topped mountains,
Immobile shoulders of earth,
And watched the high-piled clouds
Rolling, like caissons across the sky.

The Wild is luring me, calling:
I'll go back for it's big, fine, clean and good.

1.
Now when yu want to write a line,
Don't rack your brain or waste your time—
The spelling book yu may eschew—
Just spell it as it sounds to yu.

2.
Sunday School Superintendent—
Fighting again, William Baker How many times have I told you, when struck on the cheek to turn the other cheek to the striker?
William—Please, sir, 'e 'it me on the nose, and I've only got one.

3.
You'd save enough in time and ink
To buy a house and lot, I think—
If you should write a book or two
And spell words as they sound to yu.

Mistress—Well, why don't you boil the eggs?
Cook—Sure, I've no clock in the kitchen to go by.
Mistress—Why, yes, Bridget, there's a clock in the kitchen.
Cook—Pwhat good it ut? It's tin mints fast.—Cleveland Leader.

Country Justice—You fellers air find

B. B. Sanders Dead.

Everyone will be shocked to hear of the death of B. B. Sanders. He was one of the best known preachers of the Christian Brotherhood and was widely known, not only for his services to the Church but for his big, manly heart, and brotherly kindness to everybody. Brother Sanders was forty-seven years of age when he began the Ministry and although his career was not as long, few men have made a better record as a Minister. We deeply feel his loss.

Hymeneal.

We have a surprise for the many friends of Miss Laura O'Brien in the announcement of her nuptials. She was united in marriage this week with Mr. Fred Emerson of McKinney. The Skiff joins her other friends in extending congratulations.

Old students will be pleased to hear of the nuptials of Miss Helen Horne, and C. W. Graves of Hillsboro. The bride is an old student of T. C. U. We offer congratulations.

Correction.

Last week in the write-up of the Faculty there was a typographical error in the instances of Miss McClintic and O. W. Long. We regret these errors and take pleasure in making this correction. These teachers are so well and favorably known that the errors were detected by everyone.

John W. Milton.

Mr. John W. Milton will be at T. C. U. on next Tuesday in the interest of Prohibition. Mr. Milton is by no means a stranger to the T. C. U. public as we have had the pleasure of hearing him speak before. He is a graduate of Baylor University and is one of the best Prohibition Orators in the South. It will be worth your while to hear him.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES.

Items of Interest Concerning Religious Matters of T. C. U.

Thursday night of this week the Y. W. C. A. held its first meeting in the parlors of the Girls' Home. Several new names were presented, and the outlook for the year is very favorable.

The Students' Volunteer Band meets regularly in Prof. Faris' room, from 3:30 to 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoons.

Mr. Stairs, the chaplain of the University, called a meeting of the church board, and the presidents of the various organizations after church last Sunday night to discuss the outlook for the year. Mr. Stairs seems not only to be a thoroughly consecrated Christian, but also seems to be an "all-round" business man, and we have every reason to believe that in a very short time he will have everything pertaining to church work in smooth running order.

Every Wednesday night after prayer meeting, from 7:45 to 8:30, Mr. Faris will give a lecture on Missions—for this term at least, lecturing on his own experiences in Africa. This class is a regular college class and one credit will be given to those desiring to take up the course, with the understanding that they do the assigned reading and writing along with it. A hearty welcome will be given those who wish to hear the lectures, but do not care to do the work necessary for credits.

Thursday of last week, the day of the opening of school, the Y. W. C. A. gave its first social of the year, in the form of an introductory social. All the girls who were present claimed to have had a most delightful time, and everybody felt better acquainted—and therefore less homesick than they were before.

The Endeavor is starting out with better prospects than ever before.

The Y. M. C. A. is perfecting plans to do more, better and effective work than has ever been done by that organization before. An enthusiastic meeting was held last Sunday evening and a great deal of interest was manifested. We are looking for great things from the Y. M. C. A. as well as from the Y. W.'s.

MET.

Met a girl
With a curl
And a bit of archness.
Mouth sweet,
Little feet,
My heart's a trifle restless.

Met again,
In a glen:
She has picked some roses;
Has lost her way,
Petite dismay,
Her embarrassment exposes:

I doffed my hat,
Told her that,—
I'd with her to the road go;
With air refined,
Her head inclined,
To signify she'd follow.

Now we meet,
Joy replete,
In the door-way of a love-cot:
And we—well
I'll not tell,
Another "single" jot.

Sight-Singing.

Our progressive vocal teacher, Miss Harnish has organized a sight-singing class. She reports a large and enthusiastic attendance. This offers a good opportunity for those who are deficient in reading music, to become skillful in it. There are times in every person's life when he would give a king's ransom to be able to read music. Now is the time to learn.

Oratorical Schedule.

The College of Oratory, now that the rush of matriculation is over, is doing its characteristic good work. Miss McClintic reports a large and promising enrollment and under her capable direction, a very interesting program is arranged for the year. The following is the outline of the program:

Inter-society Declamatory contest, to take place the first week in December.

Preliminary Prohibition contest, first week in February.

The Preliminary State Oratorical Contest is scheduled for the second week in March.

The Granville Jones Contest is to take place in the fourth week of May.

These are only a few of the good things which will come from the Oratorical Department; announcements will be made from time to time.

Dr. Ernest Boston will treat all those students, who are working their way through school, at one half of his regular remuneration. We wish to express the thanks of all the students for this kindness and generosity.
