VICTORIOUS SOUTHERN TRIP.

T. C. U. Takes Three Games Out of Four on Foreign Territory Against Strong Teams.

Manager Barnard and his bunch of bell tossers departed Thursday night via I. & G. N. for Austin, where they on Friday and Saturday "locked horns" with the Texans on the Clark Field. They left Waco with a clean record and an eye on the pennant and when they returned, their hopes were not frustrated to any extent since they took three contests out of the four. The first State contest was won without much effort, while the other one was lost by slow base running and poor hitting. At Georgetown where they encountered Arbuckle's stick wielders, they forced the Methodists to take the small end of the score in both games, although the second was hard fought, going eleven innings.

The First State Game.

The first game with the State was devoid of any features. In fact, it seemed as if T. C. U. was playing a bunch of country boys who had just received an introduction to a town lot than the representatives of a state institution. Everything known to baseball was "pulled off" on the Cap-itolites and the affair reached a climax in the eighth when the State rooters vacated the grand stands and lined up on the side lines to try and "bunco" and hurrah some one out of the game. It reminded one of a scene at a country picnic with home
"nine" determined to win at any cost.
Mr. Jones, who held the big mitt for the State on Friday was decidedly off on his throwing and eight bases were stolen on him. In the fifth Lamonica was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and third and home later, when Wakefield drew the throw to second.
Grosbeck, the "State's southpaw," was on the rubber in this contest and he did not pitch his ordinary game. Al-

STATE ORATORICAL TONIGHT

Leading Colleges of Texas Meet at Auditorium in the Forensic Event of the Year.

LARGE DELEGATIONS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS. T. C. U. THE HOST. OUR OPPORTUNITY.

For the past two years T. C. U.
has been eager for the time when the State Oratorical contest would be held within her own walls. Baylor won in
'07 in her own chapel, with T. C. U.
third. In '08 Austin College won first place at home, with T. C. U. second.
Now that the contest is home with
T. C. U. and since she has improved each year, there can be no answer to the situation but—T. C. U. must and will win. We simply cannot afford to lose at home. In Tomlinson we have a strong representative, an earnest and aggressive speaker. Behind him with the true loyal spirit will so excite the atmosphere that every object will cry out, "Victory for Tomlinson."

From latest reports we learn that the other schools are going to be well represented. From Fort Worth, a special car has been arranged for, and Polytechnic and Fort Worth Universities will bring one hundred and fifty supporters. Trinity expresses intentions of chartering a car. A ball game Friday between Austin College and T. C. U. will probably draw a larger crowd from Sherman. The State and Southwestern are always loyal and we expect many from those schools. But last of all Baylor is right here in our midst, and has almost the same advantage as T. C. U. From point of number of supporters she may exceed us, but T. C. U. has the lead, and with that spirit of "win till the last"

there can be no defeat to our side.

The Annual State Oratorical banquet will be held at State House,
Thursday, day before the contest.
There, the delegates from seven other schools, and a larger number of T.
C. U. students, will indulge in affairs of "taste and propriety" in various ways not granted a thousand times in one's life. Forgotten will be the dull cares of a long cloudy day, and all the old rivalry that might have once existed will be gone, for the crowd will be of a body of students that are willing to enter into everything for good and delight.

But the main question is—are you all going? It is almost foolish to ask such, but we merely want to impress

GREAT CONTEST.

The fifth Texas Intercollegiate Prohibition Oratorical Contest was held at Southwestern, Georgetown, Texas, April 9th. There were eight Texas colleges represented. It was, as a whole, a good, strong contest—every man doing credit to his school. The only sad thing was that somebody had to be beaten, because every man went into it with all his vim and vitality.
We only hope that this spirit and good work may go on and be improved
next year.

Southwestern University's boys entertained the delegates in the Mood hall. They are due our thanks for giving up rooms to visitors and staying with neighbors so as to accommodate their friends. While there was not much enthusiasm over the contest
the visitors feel that it was altogether the fault of the students interested in this work. But we enjoyed our stay at Southwestern University, and the good contest.

This field offers a greater scope for Oratory than any other college movement. We hope this may not be overlooked by the colleges of Texas.
All those who have had anything to do with the work know the association needs to be better organized. The present plan is best so far and must

the importance of your being there.
If one lags another might be influenced to create an excuse. We rather believe every one is really interested in Oratory, but should your inclinations be not so much that way do not say so. Get up, stir around, and go for policy's sake. You would not have T. C. U. lose; you would not come home saying, "Beaten on our own grounds." Yet, do you intend to sit still and have everything good and fortunate come right to you? Get out and learn the songs and yells, for that is one thing you can do. Then when you have done that much your interest will be too great to stay away.
Get into every thing that sounds like Oratorical contest and let's charm the elements with the cry "Tomlinson to Victory."

continue till a better one is suggested by some one. Everybody in the various colleges get busy and push this movement to greater success.
Don't be afraid to suggest new plans
to the state executive committee.

The contest next year will be held at Decatur, Texas. Let every one help make it a great contest. The following persons were elected at Southwestern University for the ensuing year:

President—Peoples, Decatur College.

Vice President—White, Trinity University.

Secretary—Moffitt, Baylor.
Corresponding Secretary—Peace,
Southwestern University.
Treasurer—Wade, T. C. U.
Southwestern University won first honors. Texas Holiness University was awarded second honors, and T.
C. U. third place. It is noteworthy that T. C. U. man got first place on manuscript.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

As far as can be ascertained this percentage table is correct. The eight leading college baseball teams are listed here. There may be some comment upon St. Ed's being among them as it has never been an association team. Both Texas and Austin College are out of the association,
however, and so we include them all.

	Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
T. C. U.	6	5	1	.833
Texas	7	5	2	.714
Austin College	7	5	2	.714
Baylor	5	2	3	.400
St. Edwards	8	3	5	.375
Southwestern	6	2	4	.333
A. & M.	6	2	4	.333
Trinity	5	1	4	.200

This table is doubly interesting
in connection with the schedule of T.
C. U. for the next week. This schedule is as follows:

Friday and Saturday, Austin College.

Monday and Tuesday, University of Texas.

Wednesday, Baylor.

With these games in mind, it has been remarked that the college championship for 1909 would be decided here during the next five days. Austin College and Texas University are the strongest contenders with the local team and if we can take these games it means almost certainly that the championship would come to us.
An even break would of course leave things still in a muddle, but T. C. U.
will still lead the list provided at least

CHURCH NOTES.

Both the Sunday school and church had special services Easter. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. Easter lilies, roses and violets with a background of green foliage. Mrs. Hunter's class gave a bouquet of roses. The violets were given and beautifully arranged by Miss McCulloh.

"Flowers, oh, beautiful flowers,
God's token of silent love
They speak no word, but the message is heard,
Like incense from heaven above."

The program for the morning was as follows:

Processional, No. 240, "Ten Thousand and Times Ten Thousand"—Dykes.
(Congregation standing).

Invocation.
Hymn No. 86, "Rise Glorious Leader, Rise"—Giardini.

Scripture Reading.
Prayer.
Response, "O Hear Our Prayer"—Lorenz.

Communion Hymn, No. 193, "Jesus Lover of My Soul"—Marsh.
The Lord's Supper.

Offering.
Announcements.

Anthem, "He is Risen"—Ashford.
Sermon, "The Four Resurrections"—Mr. Colby D. Hall.

Hymn of Invitation, No. 134, "Come, Said Jesus," Wartense.
Benediction.

Recessional, No. 84, "Golden Harps are Sounding"—Havergal.

The night service was more largely attended than the morning service as the evening was given over to the children. Their exercise was not only entertaining, but gave us many true and lovely lessons. We extend our appreciation to Misses Schafer, Sharp, Wortham and Shirley for this excellent program. Miss Riter told us of the work the Young People's Department of the C. W. B. M. was doing. Mrs. Lockhart told of the Texas work, making an earnest appeal in behalf of the Home for old people to be erected in Dallas in the near future by our brotherhood. An offering was taken by the children. This is a good work and we are always glad to have our part in it.

No one could have possibly lost their way, or failed to receive a welcome to Sunday school on Easter morning had they entered the front door of Main building and followed the signs as they were displayed. The first "Follow the signs to S. S. and Church." 2. "Easter Services Upstairs. Some up." 3. "This is the way to the Easter services." 4. "You are invited to the Easter services." 5. "There's the Chapel. Just across the hall." 6. "Glad to see you." 7. "Here it is. Come in."

Our Superintendent was not able to be with us Sunday, but was by no fault of his. He was confined to his room, but his untiring efforts in behalf of the Sunday School is to be commended.

Two hundred and thirty-seven were present with an offering of $4.51. The contest report at the present stands like this:

April 11—"Reds" present, 95.
April 11—"Blues" present, 101.
April 11—"Reds" new pupils, 25.
April 11—"Blues" new pupils, 15.
Total "reds," 242.
Total "Blues," 250.

So you see either side hasn't the other bested much. But all are working. The contest is just now on. Many are in North Waco who do not attend any S. S. work for them.

CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES.

The Football Rules Committee met last Friday and Saturday at the Murray Hill Hotel, New York, and drew up the rules for 1909. With the exception of the change in the number of points which a goal from the field shall count, and a slight alteration in the method of putting the ball in play after a touchback, the changes were of minor importance.

No changes were made in the rules concerning the forward pass or inside kick. The two important changes were: (1) a field goal shall count three points instead of four; (2) a team making a touchback shall have the option of kicking out from behind the 25-yard line or putting the ball in play by a scrimmage on that line.

There were three minor changes in penalties: (1) instead of the ball's being put in play when the centre makes a false motion to snap the ball, the penalty shall be 5 yards; (2) the penalty for side-line coaching may be declined by the offended team; (3) in case of two penalties on one play, only the choice not the sum of the penalties shall be taken.

On account of the withdrawal of J. B. Fine of Princeton, and C. W. Savage of Oberlin, from the central board of officials, the committee appointed C. Blagden, Harvard, and P. Davis, Princeton, in their places. The central board now consists of J. A. Babbitt of Haverford, chairman, Walter Camp of Yale, L. M. Dennis of Cornell, C. Blagden, of Harvard, and P. Davis, of Princeton.

SECOND TEAM.

Defeats Baylor Second, But Fails on High School.

Taking advantage of Varsity's absence, the second division of the world beaters took on Baylor second Monday afternoon on the campus and defeated them handily by the score of 5 to 0. Aside from the opening inning Baylor had little chance for a score. Cherry contributed three walks and a wild pitch in that round and a stolen base and an error for Parks were thrown in for good measure. Three men smote the ozone, however, and nobody scored.

London pitched a fine game for second. Seven men fell victims to his wiles and but one hit was secured off his delivery—a three-bagger by Scarbrough that didn't count because of cutting first.

Second's hitting was the feature of the game. They hitting hard when hits meant runs. "Dooley's" impiring and Anderson's catch in the eighth inning also deserve mention.

Lineups—T. C. U., Anderson, cf; Riter, ss; Graves, 3b; Sorrell, 2b; Brown, c; Parks, 1b; Buck, lf; Turner, rf; London, p.

Baylor—Scarbrough, c; Hefley, 3b; Ward, ss; Harrold, 2b; Splewn, lf; Cole, 1b; Connor, cf; Lawson, rf; Hudson, p.

Tuesday High School refused for the second time to lose to the college boys. And in many respects the game was similar to the first one played. High School played poor ball at the first of the game. Second secured a lead early and then failed to hold it and High School hit hard and won in the last few innings and another thing, the supper bell rang and the dear girls left just before the town boys took the lead. Final score: was 6 to 3 in favor of High School.

My work is not the cheapest, but those who know, are willing to pay the difference and get the best. Thompson, the Photographer.

THE SOUTHWESTERN GAMES.

If anybody had said it was possible for Varsity to amass nine errors, or if anybody had said that with hits equal and making nine errors to their opponents two Varsity could win a ball game, the chances are that said individual would have promptly been dubbed Har. Albeit more poetic words might be employed, but that would express the meaning desired. But we can congratulate Varsity on this stunt. At least we can congratulate them on winning the game. As regards the other part of it a sacrifice to the god of horseshoes would be more appropriate.

Played in a sandstorm, the violence of which drove derby hats and other missiles before it, on a strange ground, Varsity seized the opportunity to work all surplus errors out of their system. Luckily, they worked a few hits out also, two of them extra base drives. Luckily, also the hits were divided three to an inning and the heavy taps came last. Otherwise there would be a different tale to tell. T. C. U. wielded the big stick without result for three innings. Meanwhile, one Vaughan three-bagger, one Kerr error, one Tyson error, one Perkins error, one long fly to the outfield and one McLain single were stirred together and that delicious sweetmeat, "Three Scores to the Good" were served to the Southwestern rooters.

For a few moments in the fourth Varsity secured the lead. Lamonica and Baldwin singled, Wakefield was safe on Vaughan's error and Fuzzy cleared the bases with a two-bagger, scoring later on a wild pitch.

"One thing at a time" then reigned supreme until the ninth, the team working with might and main to secure a bunch of errors that would make a corner lot team sick trying to excel.

Apparently Southwestern appreciated this assistance, for in their half of the fourth round they put three men across the plate without a hit. Then then proceeded to wrap up the game and hide it in their own private victory cache.

But as related before, Varsity kept their eyes open and one lucky hit uncovered victory's hiding place and T. C. U. took possession of the coveted prize. Not without more trouble however. Ayres hit for two bases and scored on Witts error. With two men on bases Stone failed to connect.

Second Southwestern Game.

In contrast to the set-to of the preceding day the second day's contest with Southwestern was one of the cleanest, fastest and best games ever played on Southwestern grounds. A balmy spring day, with just enough breeze to please the spectators, with the warm sun and not enough wind to bother making an ideal day for the players it is not to be wondered that with good teams the game should be in keeping with the day.

And just here it might be stated that Southwestern has a good team. No team that played the game they did Tuesday can have any other name. For only fielding of the most sensational kind prolonged the game.

Hits would have scored a man in the third, fourth and sixth innings and in the eighth two phenomenal catches by Stone were all that kept at least two runs from crossing the plate.

Southwestern, by means of a single and a batter hit put two men on in the third. Two strikeouts were sandwiched in between, however, so they died on the first two stations. In the seventh three hits in succession filled the bases, but the squeeze did not work and Vaughan went out at the plate. A fly to right field and a grounder to Witt disposed of the next two men.

In the eleventh Mr. Baldwin was safe on Moody's error and Kerr's timely double put the one run of the game to the credit of T. C. U.

though he yielded but four hits, he hit five men and walked two and his two errors contributed to the run getting. He has seven strikeouts to his credit. Morton, the invincible southpaw for T. C. U., who has not lost a contest this year was master of the situation at all times. He allowed six hits to the mighty State and did not walk a man. On a whole he pitched a decidedly better game than his opponent and was never in danger of defeat except in the seventh when two were down. T. Johnson and Terrell bingled and R. Johnson was hit but Grosbeck spoiled Texas' chance to score by a fly to Fuzz.

How the Runs Were Made.

T. C. U. got busy in the first, when after two were down Wake got on through the kindness of Hughes, and went to second on Jones' error, and scored on Drucke's hit through second. Fuzz was walked, but Daniels flew out to Terrell, ending the score getting for that inning. In the second "Cy" was hit, Witt sacrificed him to second and he scored on Morton's single to right field. Dague and Star struck out. The State was handed another dose in the fifth, when Dague was hit, and Wakefield walked and scored later on Drucke's beautiful three bagger. Texas scored her lone runs in the fourth. Stacey led off with a hit, Hughes hit one to Morton who fumbled it and did not recover in time to catch him at first. Terrell struck out and hit one for three cushions, scoring Stacey and Hughes. Robertson and Johnson were unable to connect successfully with the sphere and the side was retired. The final score was 5-2. Mr. Arbuckle of Southwestern, umpired the game and gave complete satisfaction.

choice and then Jones hit one down the third base line. Witte attempted to field the ball about five feet out of the line and then didn't go after it. He was surprised when the ump called it fair, but the ball was not recovered until third and second bases were filled with runners. R. Johnson now determined to win his own game and drove out a three-bagger scoring both runners. T. C. U. tied the score in her half of the ninth, but should have made several more as some dumb baserunning was pulled off and three men were thrown out at the plate. Here is how it happened: Lamonica led off with a two-bagger to the left field fence, Starr was given life on Hughes' error, Dague going to third, Starr now attempted to steal second but Lamonica was caught trying to make home. Kerr, batting for Wakefield, was hit. Drucke got on because of T. Johnson's error and Starr was thrown out trying to score on the play. Fuzz now hit a fast one to short and Kerr scored, Drucke was thrown out at the plate a moment later when Fuzz drew the throw to first base. Texas won the game in their last trip to the bat. Daniels misjudged Terrell's fly and he was given life. Terrell stole second (the only stolen base for Texas in the two games). Jones hit one to Drucke, who threw to Fuzz. Baldwin, while tagging the runner dropped the ball, and Terrell came in with the winning run and the game. Drucke caught a good game while the fielding of Perkins and M. Baldwin deserves mention. A slight incident tended to mar the game in the seventh, when Oscar Drucke hit one to Robertson, who fielded it and then tried to "spill" the little one by giving him a lunge with the elbow.

T. C. U. plays the State here Monday and Tuesday when we will return the courteous treatment we were accorded at Austin.

three of the five games are won. Of course, if we lost the majority of them—but there's no use considering that. The team that can invade the enemy's territory and win three pitched battles out of four on foreign fields can win at home with proper work.

But to return to the discussion. If we beat Austin College that drops them away down the percentage column. If we win from State both games, it does the same for them. If they should beat us, it means that the team so doing will go into first place:

As for Baylor, when we say that winning the next game gives us the local championship that is enough.

It is the most momentous week of the season in College baseball and it's up to us to be there and inspire Varsity with the strength of your confidence and support.
