THE SCHEDULE.

Southwestern and Baylor Furnish Closing Games.

Southwestern comes to Waco next Friday and Saturday for two games with 'Varsity.
Southwestern has a good team.
They are husky batters and fielders and have good pitching material also. It was by one score only that 'Varsity triumphed over them in each of the games played and they have perpetrated shutouts on both Austin College and Trinity since that time.
Then, as desert comes Baylor. Poor Old Baylor that is a good team but can't win.
The final victories over the local rivals are on the 24th and 25th inst., and everyone will want to see them.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Varsity Uniformly Victorious Thruout the Trip.

"Hardy's hard nine" returned Monday night from a triumphant trip throughout North Texas and into Arkansas.

Of the six games played five were won and throughout the trip the work was characterized by the swift, sensational fielding and the hard-hitting, strenuous offensive work that has given the team the undisputed championship of Texas and has earned for them a reputation throughout the South.

Arkansas, who was defeated twice on her own grounds—once by the kalsamine route—had just returned from a trip which included games with the strongest teams of the North and East—a trip on which but one game was lost.

And then, to have 'Varsity "take it out of them" on their own grounds shows the mettle of which our boys are made. The Arkansas coach is authority for the statement that the team could compete successfully with the fastest college teams in the East.
Also, they said that the Texas "circuit" is the hardest in the country to win games on. This, since they are in a position to judge, is quite a compliment to Texas baseball.

The first game was a close score affair—3 to 2—with sensational fielding and pitching on both sides and with hits enough to enliven the game and keep spectator's nerves on the ragged edge. 'Varsity scored first, getting two in the fourth and another in the fifth. Arkansas followed with one each in the sixth and seventh, but could not even up matters. On the other hand, neither could T. C. U.

THE TRACK MEET.

Won by Southwestern—State Association Formed.

The last track meet of the Southwestern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association was held on Carroll Field last Saturday. Although only one record was broken, the meet was interesting from start to finish. Especially did this interest center on the contest for supremacy between Henry of Southwestern and Gallagher of Oklahoma A. & M.—two of the greatest athletes ever on one track in the Southwest.

Henry at first glance does not look to be anything beyond the ordinary as an athlete, but closer observation shows him to be a bundle of steel springs, and this physical perfection, coupled with the determination reflected from his face, account for his victories. He has been practically unknown outside of West Texas college athletics until the past year, but during that time he has beaten everything in the state.

Gallagher was a sensation at Austin last year, winning first place in three events. But this time he was unable to win in any event, being evidently up against better men. "Big Jim" Ross, ex-Texas A. & M., was with the Oklahoma boys, and won first place in the hammer throw. This, and the mile and half-mile were the only events in which the out-of-thestate lads evinced any superiority.

The feature of the meet was the work of Southwestern's star trio, Henry, Sheffield and Headrick. These three winning a place in every event entered. Snipes, Hagler and Collins were all point winners.

A. & M. was only represented by a few men. Hooker created a sensation by heaving the shot some two feet further than the association record. McDonald did good work on the Entered at Waco Post Office as second class mail matter.

Next Saturday night, May 22, Messrs. Tomlinson and Frizzell represent us upon the platform at Southwestern University. They have given much time and thought to the preparation of their argument. They are men of experience in debating, quick to see the value of an argument and equally quick in planning a defense to any attack. Moreover, they have the side of the question—the negative—which has already won in two debates between Eastern universities. With all these things in their favor it is extremely probable that we will win. Anyway if they should not we can be consoled with the knowledge that they have done their best and have yielded—if fate decrees it that way—to superior argument alone.

But regardless of winning or losing, which cannot be decided in advance, we should do something this week to show these men that we have confidence in them and faith in their ability to reflect credit on the school. J. C. Welch went to the Prohibition Oratorical without encouragement of any sort. When the State Oratorical was held here no effort was made to learn special songs and yells for the occasion and in consequence our yelling was not as effective as it should have been. Now for once let's have a little of the enthusiasm that athletics engenders. It's "up to" the Oratorical Association and the entire student body to send these men to Southwestern tingling with knowledge of our belief in them.

wheel a "mile" up the road. There was a great commotion among the girls, but after awhile the wagon was fixed and we resumed the journey. Nothing happened until we were in the pasture where the springs were supposed to be—but could not be found. The way became too rough for the wagon, so we started out on foot to find the spring. After several hours walking we failed to find it, but found the wagon, which by skilful driving John had gotten down the hills. It remained for him to drive us to the spring, which he did within a short time.

It was a beautiful place and with the cool breeze and refreshing spring water we felt that we had found heaven. After a short rest we cooked dinner, which with pies, cakes, fruit and lemonade formed a feast. We then went to the river, where the wading was fine, with a few accidents, as the lost hosiery, barefooted, etc., the afternoon passed pleasantly. Mrs. Wimberly acted as photographer and many interesting pictures were taken.

We came back to camp and had supper of fried chicken, bacon, potatoes, etc. Mr. Wimberly fell through a wire fence and in trying to pull the fence with him somewhat injured his fingers.

At 7 o'clock we reluctantly said goodbye to the place that had given us an ideal outing and after a delightful drive in the moon-light we once more came back to T. C. U., filling the air with college songs and cheers.

The Class gives a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Wimberly for one of the most enjoyable days ever spent in T. C. U.

SECOND TEAM TAKES TRIP.

Taking advantage of Varsity's absence the Second Team decided to try their skill in the baseball line, with the renowned city of Chilton. On arriving there they found the people of the town full of enthusiasm and hopes of winning. Notwithstanding the rumors of imported players of high reputation our boys went on the diamond "full up" with old-time prep.

Tyson showed his skill thoroughly, by the way he cut them down with his speed and benders. For the first six innings not a man reached first base, and if he had had good support no doubt that he would have given them a shut-out. As to individual work by players each did well. Brown and Tyson though should be given special mention on account of their good work together.

DeGraffenreidt, who is considered one of the best amateur pitchers of the state (also signed up with San Antonio, but did not report on account of an accident), worked well for Chilton, although our boys tapped him for nine safe ones.

The line-ups:

T. C. U. Second Team.

Anderson, cf; Riter, ss; Graves, 2b; Sowell, 2b; Brown, c; Parks, 1b; Turner, rf; Tomlinson, lf; Tyson, p.

Chilton.

Coleman, 3b; Brandon, lf; Brown, rf; Featherston, c; Jones, cf; Clark, 1b; Stuart, ss; Hudson, 2b; DeGraffenreidt, p.

Summary.

Hits—Anderson, Graves 2, Sowell, Brown, Parks, Turner, Tomlinson, Tyson 2. Strike-outs—By Tyson, 17; by DeGraffenreidt, 9. Bases on balls—0. Two-base hits—Sowell, Turner, Tomlinson. Time of game—1 hour and 50 minutes. Umpire—Geo. Green.

We feel that the write-up would be incomplete if we did not express our appreciation for the hospitality extended to us in Chilton. It came in the way of "swell dinners," "set-em-ups," "pretty girls" and the way we were treated on the field, there being no disputes, due both to the Chilton boys and the good umpiring of Geo. Green. We give to Chilton and its management our heartiest thanks and appreciation of the hospitality and kind treatment extended to us, and we feel sure that nothing would meet with as much approval by the Second Team as to hear, "We are going to Chilton again, boys." Here's to Chilton, may the best of success attend them during the entire season.

CHURCH NOTES.

The sermon Sunday morning was, "Why I Am a Christian," and at 8 p. m., "How is it Possible and How to Become a Christian." These were able discourses.

The "Red" and "Blue" contest closed with 274 present. Offering, $4.03. The Sunday school aims to yet reach the 300 mark before the close of school. The contest has been a healthy, vigorous one, which not only increased the attendance greatly, but closed with good feeling on both sides. The banquet has not been arranged for definitely, but will be announced later.

The Reds won. May, 9, Reds, 125; new Reds, 3; total, 751. Blues, 104; new Blues, 6; total, 682.

C. E. meeting, as usual, at 4 o'clock. In place of the regular topic there will be a special study of the Pledge. The service will be conducted by "The Lookout" committee, and promises to be one of profit to all interested in Christian Endeavor work.

As usual, handsome commencement books at Woulfe & Co.'s.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

alumni of the institution. Several things have been arranged more especially for the Alumni, and it is to be hoped that they will be here in large numbers. In fact an especial invitation is extended them to come—it being hoped that this commencement may be made a home-coming for those who worked and played here before our day.

Probably the one incident of the week upon which the most speculation rests is the Alumni-Senior baseball game. Captain L. C. Procter, of the "Grads" has his lineup completed and the same is practically true of the Seniors. These lineups are:

Alumni—Tyson, '08, c; L. C. Procter, '07, p; Williams, '07, 1b; Kinard, '06, 2b; Carpenter, '05, 3b; Clark, '06, ss; Carnes, '07, lf; W. Procter, '04, cf; Bradley, '02, rf.

Seniors—Bloor, c; Greene, p; Rogers, 1b; Collins, 2b; B. Frizzell, 3b; J. B. Frizzell, ss. Outfield uncertain.

The Alumni team, it will be noticed is made up of the men who played on the championship teams of old and if they are in condition will undoubtedly put up a splendid game.

The Seniors, however, also number good men. Bloor, Perkins and Frizzell are all Varsity men, and scarce a man is listed who at some time or other has not been a member of the Second Team.

In addition to this game, the concert by the Glee Club and Girls' Chorus will be a very interesting number, as will the graduating exercises of the Schools of Music and Oratory. The Mitchell Contest promises to display some of the most brilliant oratory a Commencement contest has ever brought forth. Another event of prominence will be the class exercises in dedicating the Senior arch, the erection of which marks another forward side in the beautifying of our campus.

Texas University and Austin College have closed their season and the last games between Texas colleges will be T. C. U. vs. Baylor.

The enormous lead Varsity has attained cinches the state championship, even though the four remaining games be lost. But they will not be. Varsity purposes to win them and establish a new record for Texas college teams.

FRESHMAN WALLOPED.

Senior Ball Team Makes Eleven Runs, Freshies Circle Twice.

As judiciously hinted at in the head lines the Freshman ball team was gently backed over the rugged cliff overhanging baseball oblivion on Monday afternoon and by the ensuing fall dashed to nothingness. But to return to the practical. From the start the Seniors sprung into notice by their stick-work. Singles followed two-base hits, three-baggers followed singles to such an extent that in the seven innings played nineteen juicy, rambunctious swats rent the tattered robe of pitching prowess which J. Turner and Santa Anna Green attempted to wear. Turner only pitched one inning, but in that round he was punctured for swats enough to drive four men merrily around the bases. While at bat in the same "sashay" he sustained a sprained ankle and Green undertook to hold Senior scores to the minimum. He succeeded tolerably well. Only seven scores were made off him in six innings, and in two of the six the Seniors failed to cross the pan at all. It must be confessed, however, that some of the nineteen swats, and eleven scores must be credited as "off the team instead of off the pitcher." For slow fielding converted several drives that should have been out into hits.

But the coincidence of "Greene vs. Green" in the box failed to "coincide" in hits and runs. First-class support prevented scoring, even though an occasional bender of Cloisy's assortment was solved correctly. The Freshmen's two scores came in the sixth inning. Two men were on bases, with two outs, when Senior Scott butted into the limelight by allowing a fly to hit the ground just in front of him. Scottie showed his mettle, however, by catching out the next man, who evidently thought he would repeat the trick.

Heilman, the Photographer, invites all T. C. U. students to call at his studio, 109½ South Fifth street, between Austin and Franklin streets.

SECOND TEAM, 4; CATHOLICS, 3.

Tyson again did good work for Second Team, and although the score was close, there was no fear of the game being lost at any stage. The game was a good exhibition with the exception of a few errors that caused St. Basil's to get their scores. "Ty" kept the "priests" under his arm throughout allowing them only one hit and one free pass.

Sowell and Graves of the infield deserve special mention for they accepted several hard chances and did them up in "Big League" fashion. The outfield also did good work. Another feature was the "awful" swatting of Brown, he getting three hits out of four times up.

At the close of the contest the Second Team had nine hits to their credit while St. Basil's had only one.

The line-ups:

T. C. U.

Anderson, cf; Riter, ss; Graves, 3b; Sowell, 2b; Brown, c; Gough, rf; Parks, 1b; Tomlinson, lf; Tyson, p.

St. Basil's.

Maloney, 3b; Douglas, cf; Costello, lf; James, 1b; Johnson, 2b; Henry, rf; Mays, ss; Plourde, c; Frank, p.

Summary.

Earned runs—T. C. U., 2. Hits—Brown 3, Graves 2, Parks 2, Riter, Plourde. Errors—T. C. U., 4; St. Basil's, 6. Runs—Brown 2, Riter, Graves, Plourde, Henry, Douglas. Time of game—1 hour and 45 minutes. Umpire—Unfaire.

MUSIC NOTES.

The Seniors have received their class pins.

Miss Mary Wilson favored us with a piano solo at the chapel hour Wednesday morning. The number was well played and very much enjoyed by all.

We also had the pleasure of hearing the Girls' Chorus, for the first time on Chapel program, Friday morning. The members showed the careful training of Mrs. Hunter, and earnest work of the girls. The Chorus always gives us one enjoyable programme, and we trust to hear them again soon.

Don't fail to hear the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Monday night, Carroll Chapel.

Must Be.

pole vault, but sustained a nasty fall, and the resulting bad ankle prevented his showing up more strongly in the 220 hurdles.

Considering the training not indulged in the showing of T. C. U. was very creditable. It is true that we failed to place except in the high jump, where Poole, with scarcely any practice, tied for second place. But in other events the boys showed much natural ability. The showing made by L. Gough in the 440-yard dash was especially creditable. With the showing made by our untrained entries we feel warranted in saying that a track team on a par with those of baseball and football could be put out. Prof. Long has made the statement that a special coach for basket ball and track work would be employed next year, and with the impetus this would give these sports should advance to their rightful place with major athletics.

Southwestern University took first place, score 55 1-3 points; Oklahoma A. and M. second, score 40 points; Texas A. and M. third, score 20 1-3 points.

State Association Formed.

Saturday night at the Metropole, representatives from the various schools in Texas met and formed a State association to supercede the old, loose Southwestern Association. An all night session was "indulged in" and a constitution roughly drafted. This will be ready for publication in a few weeks. The organization will have charge of all divisions of college athletics and rumor has it that eligibility rules have been made much more stringent.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

In the second game Morton held Arkansas safe at all times. In only three innings did the Travelers get started on the circuit, and only in the last one did they have a chance to score. In that inning hits put two men on bases with only one down, but the other batters could not drive them around.

For T. C. U. Kerr opened the second with a two-bagger and scored on an infield out and a passed ball. Lamonica's double, "Starr's" sacrifice and Wakefield's single added an earned run in the sixth, and two more crossed the plate in the seventh round.

Leaving Fayetteville Saturday night the team arrived in Waxahachie Sunday night and secured a good night's rest before the opening game with Trinity. Trinity had failed to take advantage of Drucke's wildness in the opening game with them, and although eleven men had drawn free passes, they were unable to win the game. This time, they did better, but not enough to win. Varsity in the first three innings totaled up six runs to one for the Presbyterians. But in the fifth three hits and a tangled bunch of errors and free passes put four men across the counting station. At this juncture, only one run ahead and with two men on bases, Morton went in and solved the problem by striking out the last men. With "Runt" as commander-in-chief, no further excitement bobbed up until the last round when a fast double (which the umpire allowed) cut off Trinity's hopes. The wherefore is this: With one down Rockett walked; Lamonica errored on Karner's drive and Hamilton walked, filling the sacks. Tucker hit to Kerr, who forced Rockett at the plate, O. Drucke lined the ball to Witt, and Karner, who had over-run third was tagged.

Arriving home that night on the Flyer, Varsity was met by the band and an enthusiastic crowd of students. These had gone to town about 10:30 and "demonstrated" for a short time, finally marching double file to the depot. After the team had been "gathered in" the march was taken back to town.

Arriving at the University a short reception to the team was held at the home of President Lockhart. Dr. Lockhart in a few appropriate words expressed our pleasure in having the team back with us and the pride we all felt with them.

Following this the entire team, Captain Perkins "leading off" told of the trip and the teams they had encountered and also expressed satisfaction at being back with Mary Jane or Della or Sue, as the case might be. Prof. Long and Bonner Frizzell then informed the wanderers of what had happened at home during their absence and Frizzell enlivened the affair with a burst of impromptu poetry. Refreshments having been served by Mrs. Lockhart, Misses Naomi Lockhart and Jeffie Britton, the assembly dispersed.

THE JUNIOR-SOPH "MARATHON."

more Class, alias the second team, let it be known in an indirect way to the Juniors that "we choose you." And the Juniors anxious to retrieve lost ground, promptly accepted the challenge.

And in the progress of the ensuing melee it came to pass that one Pyburn won for himself a fame beyond compare, although Braus was a close contestant for honors. Pyburn won in the last lap, however, and is now proudly able to display a fielding average of .271, his opponent's best efforts to miss them could not quite equal this record, although .283 is not beaten bad. From all of which one with perspicacity and a knowledge of baseball may deduce the fact that it was not a case of miss one every once in a while with these star backstops, but catching one every once in a while was what caused their downfall.

The Juniors led off in the first inning by pounding Baldwin for an earned run. In the next inning Pyburn started in pursuit of records and five men counted in the second and four in the third, making a total of ten. Sowell relieved Pyburn in the fourth, however, and thenceforth until the eighth the Juniors were blanked.

The lead attained lasted for several innings, but Braus' hands went to the bad and passed ball after passed ball added to the Sophomore's score, until the seventh found it tied.

Parks relieved Braus in that inning and his two-bagger scored two men. The Sophs could not even up matters and the game was over.

Church Announcements for May 16.

"College Friendships and Other Friendships" will be the theme of the sermon by the pastor of the University church at the morning service. It is a good time for those who do not usually come to church to come out.

The evening hour will be given to a Centennial Rally, presenting the movement among the Disciples of Christ for celebrating the Centennial of the Reformation, as seen in the various Centennial activities of the church, and to culminate in the great convention in Pittsburg next fall. The program will consist of short talks by the representatives of the various departments of the church life, and will be full of instruction as well as inspiration. Appropriate mottoes and special music will be a feature also.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra of sixty members will appear in concert in Baylor Chapel Monday, May 17. This is one of the highest class musical organizations in the country and it is to be hoped that many of the students can attend.
