First Game Saturday

T. C. U. and Polytechnic of Fort Worth Face Each Other Here Tomorrow

Tomorrow we play Polytechnic the first game of football on our schedule. Does that mean anything to you? Of course it does. Old student! it means the reappearance of those good old times and a coming back of those good old feelings. New student! it means the beginning of real college sport, the thing that you have heard so much about. Everybody ready and let's go. Not one misses the game tomorrow. You can't miss the game. The first game of the season right here on our campus and the first game that we are going to win! Think about it! We do not know what "Poly" is going to bring with her, but this one thing we do know, that we have a team that is going to beat them when the game opens. T. C. U. beat Polytechnic, why of course we will. Friend, student, when those yells begin to split the air, and that good old college feeling comes creeping up into your bones, you want to be there, to root and to yell for the eleven T. C. U. figures that will be moving around over that field looking for a hole in the wall of Polytechnic College. And they will find it and if you are not there to see it done you will regret it the longest day that remain in this University.

So come out tomorrow and see T. C. U. win from Polytechnic College.

Read in this issue about the boys that are going to take part in the game.

Learn those yells found in this same issue and come out and be ready to follow the yell leader to victorious shouts.

Be loyal to the team! Be loyal to the University!

OUR SQUAD

Mention of the good work of the football squads has been given in the former issues of the paper. In this number we attempt to give for the benefit of the many new students some idea of what good men we really have when considered individually. The members of the squad who were in the line-up of '08 deserve first mention because their prowess is enhanced by the fact that they have won victories for Varsity before.

Loy C. Wright, Captain and Right Tackle

"Pete," as he is familiarly known, is captain of the Varsity eleven. Pete has covered himself with glory many times by breaking the line of the opposing team and going down the field with fearful strides. Pete was elected captain because he knows the game and is going to play as well as he knows it. There is no man on the team that inspires more confidence in his fellow plungers than Pete. This is probably Pete's last year on Varsity as he graduates this year. But before he goes out he is going to add a few more laurels to his athletic career.

Marshall Baldwin, Right End

"Fuzzy" plays first base when it comes to base ball but he plays first class when it comes to the gridiron. He played good ball last year in both places and he is going to add much head work to the football squad for '09. He will "staid" some team out of a game before the season is over or the editor misses his guess.

William Massey, Center

Massey is now entering into his third year of successful punting. Last year he kicked the goal until it got to be a habit and he has not forgot how to turn the old trick. "Bill" will again elicit yell from the grandstand on account of his feats.

Charlie Fields, Left Tackle

Charlie has got the stuff that it takes to make a successful holder of the position that he plays. He has rounded into good form and is read to heave into the lines of any team that comes our way.

Paul Tyson, Half Back

We are glad that we have good familiar names to call all our players. It sounds better. "Ty" has the speed that would make any football player in Texas envious; not only that he has the weight and endurance combined with a good head, all of which well nigh makes him invincible. In scrimmaging around the campus during the last few days he has showed up some few traits that even our splendid coach did not know that he had. "Ty" will make it.

John Pyburn, Guard

Big John, as we know him, has the record of breaking up and mashing all to pieces what is known to the opposite side as "our line." Let John get roused up to a high pitch of loyalty and he can buck most any kind of line off the field. John had been working under a disadvantage of having a game leg, but he is fast getting round into form.

The following members are of the old reserve squad of last year, or played as subs, or else are new men trying out and making a showing worth mentioning. Many of them will make Varsity but as the team is yet in the making and as they prove good they will be given a place on Varsity.

That Are Portraits

We have the most attractive and up-to-date styles ever shown in the South. To be had only at

The Colman Studio

509 1/2 Austin St., Waco, Texas.

Prior Witt, Quarter Back

Witt is making a strong bid to succeed the famous "Cy" Perkins as quarter back. He is making a splendid try out and will no doubt make the position to which he is working. There are several others working at the same point and some one of them will make good. You will be given a chance at least to see Witt play the position in part of the games.

Milton Daniels, Full Back

Milton is trying out for a good position and he is going to make a good man. He has not had as much training as many others of the boys, but he has a good build and has plenty of time to make good.

Grantland Anderson, Quarter Back

"Grits" is another trying out for quarter back. He has played on Varsity "subs" and has a good record for a young player. His head work is showing up to a good advantage and he will make some one hustle for the coveted place.

Ralph McCormick, Left End

"Happy" has a right to be happy over his prospects. He has made a good impression on all lookers-on as a good candidate for left end. "Happy" knows the art of football and all he needs is a chance to put it into practice.

Mullican, Left Guard

Mullican has the most powerful physique on the field. His weight and strength make him an enviable player. He has had considerable experience and will no doubt make a place on Varsity. He is a new man.

G. P. Brous, Right Half Back

Brous is another man with a good

physique and splendid showing. He has good shoulders and if he backs them up with the bravery that he has manifested on the practice field, somebody had better look out.

Clinton Swink, Full Back

Swink is another new man that has caused all students to stand up and take notice. His ability to stop everything that comes his way has characterized him as a probable star.

Orman Yates, Right Guard

"Sheriff" with his proper credentials of authority is out this year and making a remarkable record. Sheriff has weight and a good knowledge of the game. He came pretty near making Varsity last year and all this is to his credit this year. He played on the reserve squad last year with a good record.

Willie Rattan, Right End

"Blue" is a man that made a show-out last year that was encouraging. He did not get to stay and prove himself, but this year he is on the field with good speed and plenty of pluck. His speed is remarkable.

Aubel Riter, Quarter

Riter is another man making a good showing for succeeding Perkins. Riter plays quarter with a good head and will make the man who beats him out play perfect ball. Riter played the same position along with Anderson on the second team last year.

Ross Churchill, Right End

Churchill is another new man who has played football. He has played with a record that is excellent. He makes a good addition to the squad. When the coach goes to make up his team this man will have to be considered.

Jack Bush

Jack is a new man on T. C. U. campus but not a new man on the gridiron. He has been there before and he knows what it takes to play good football. He also shows up with a good knowledge of how it is done.

W. S. McFarland

"Mac" is a new man but has played considerable football in High School circles.

Elisha Wade, Center

Big Wade is playing center with good success on what is generally called the second team.

Gough is showing up with good speed. He knows how to make a good get away.

Edgar Bush, Half

Bush shows until this day the good training that he received last year. This stands him in good play for this year's try-out.

Cullen Graves, Full Back

Cullen has all the pep and energy that a good football man needs. He is showing up well in playing other positions, such as left end.

"Red Water" Anderson, End

"Red Water" says that he wants to play ball and do something beside lead the yells, so he is trying out for a position. We will have to use him to lead the yells to inspire the players.

B. B. Hulsey, Tackle

"Dorie" is engaged to the Skiff authorities to write up the games but for fear that Varsity would need him he went upon the field and is making good headway.

Noel C. Carr, Tackle

Carr is helping to swell the ranks of eligibles. His former track team work stands him in good play in the matter of speed and endurance.

Chas. Bussey, Tackle

Bussey has been making a good all round man playing wherever the coach needed him. He wants to play tackle and so he is working along nicely to that end.

Roy Tomlinson, Half

Roy Tomlinson who played splendid football on second team last year is out making a better record this year. He is small but very loud.

Jack Farmer, Robert Matthews and Dug Herring are helping to give the first team some good practice.

Grady Lavender, Tackle

Lavender is a new man on the squad and there is no new man showing up quite so well as he, considering his experience. He has good size and will doubtless make a good showing.

All readers will understand that the first team or Varsity squad has not been picked out and will not be for a while. The coach knows that he has plenty of men to depend on to play his games and that every man will be given a chance to make good. This article was written for the benefit of new students who are not familiar with the old players and also to give the new men who are on the field for the first time an introduction to the student body. The positions assigned to the players are not all permanent. They are just the positions that the athletic editor has seen them play with some degree of skill. No games have

Last week ye editor had somewhat to say about loafing across the street. It was in poetry. This time he speaks in prose. You should not loaf during class hours. It is not the proper thing to do. Your reputation will be made during the first term and it will cling to you for many years. Do not loaf across the street.

Tomorrow is the first football contest of the season. Let every student get his heart and lungs ready for the fray. "Poly" will be here and her warriors of the gridiron to give us battle. Our soldiers are bivouaced in the camps of confidence, but they expect every student to be behind them in the fight. Let everybody see the game, root and yell for your team. Be like the Irishman, "every man for his own country" tomorrow. The team will do their part and you must do yours.

One by one the great millionaires and monopolists of the twentieth century making are passing away. Gould is almost forgotten. Sage has gone to give an account for his savings. Harriman has been recently laid to rest. We may say of them "After life's fitful fever they sleep well." We do not know.

Another great product of American prosperity, John D. Rockefeller, is passing well up into the years and ere long the mighty pile of gold will pass to other hands. America made them all on account of her prodigality in her resources.

College loyalty is very much like patriotism. A patriot renders every defense of the fair name and the institutions of his country that he can. The student if he has the spirit of college loyalty will do the same to his school. In matters of defense to her name, in strict adherence to her rules, the student should be very zealous. Obey the regulations of the school like a patriot is subject to the laws of his country; defend her fair name like the patriot who draws his strong blade for national honor; be loyal to college teams, root and yell for them just as all true patriots crown their heroes with acclamations of praise and honor; lastly, take part in the workings of the University just as every good citizen exercises his sovereignty for the common good.

Oratory Notes

T. C. U. oratory students are always in demand. Miss Bess Rash, one of T. C. U.'s best readers, will give a recital at Holland on October 1st. Miss Mae Lyn Cox, pianist, and Miss Irene Brown, contralto, formerly T. C. U. students, will assist Miss Rash. It goes without saying that the people of Holland are to be given a highly talented entertainment.

We are glad to announce that Miss Smithen, Junior Oratory, will take special work in the Department of Oratory. She will come down once a week from her home in Walnut Springs and take special lessons. Miss Smithen is a star actor in the Dramatic Club.

Misses Jameson and Beaty, teachers in East Waco public schools, have recently enrolled in the oratory class.

We boast of having one of the best Dramatic Clubs in Texas. The club last year put on several plays and always demanded large and appreciative audiences. Plans are now being made by the club to give its first play this year about Thanksgiving.

A Welcome Visitor

We are always glad to welcome any one of the class of '09 back to a stay in our midst. In fact we would like to have them all back just another year. This week we are delighted to welcome back for a brief stay one of the talented members of that large class, Mr. H. G. Knight, for several years a student of this University and who was at all times of his study here He always took an active part in the school's interests. A loyal society worker and member of the Add-Ran Literary Society; a leading contributor to the college publications; a star member of the foot ball team and many times snatched victory from off the heads of our opponents on the gridiron; and to crown all these many achievements he was made, in his senior year, editor of the Horned Frog, the highest honor bestowed by the Senior Class. We are indeed glad to have Knight back with us for a few days' visit and how pleased all would be if he could only be persuaded to stay with us.

Splendors of Shirley Hall

The Shirley and Walton Literary Societies have recently sold all the old fixtures in their hall and purchased a new suite of fixtures which add much to the appearance of the hall. The new furniture is elaborate and the societies deserve much credit for taking such an interest in the improvements of their hall.

A new carpet, several dozen new chairs, speaker's chair and table are the articles recently put in the hall. The Shirleys have with the assistance of the Add-Rans arranged to carpet the stairways leading to the halls. This too will add much to the looks of the "Society Flats."

Change in Base Ball Team

Marshall Baldwin has resigned the captaincy of the base ball team to accept the position of manager of the same. This is done because the managership has more immediate responsibility than the captaincy. "Fuzzy" has done this for the good of the team as a man is needed right now who knows the baseball men of the state probably better than anyone else. He can secure for us some good men. This meets with the hearty approval of Coach Hardy.

Literary Rules and Regulations

(Please pin a copy of this up in your room.)

1. The library and reading room are open to the use of the professors and students of the University and to others, upon the payment of $3.00 per annum.

2. No books or periodicals shall be removed from the library room without being charged by the librarian, and when returned they must always be placed in the librarian's hands.

3. Books of reference can only be loaned at night and must be returned promptly at 8:30 the next morning. Fiction and some other works that are not needed so much during the time of opening may be drawn for a week, at the end of which time they may be renewed for one week.

4. Persons retaining books beyond the expiration of time limit shall be subject to a fine of five cents per book for each day the book is so retained.

5. Persons drawing books shall be held responsible for any loss or damage. Such loss or damage shall be charged to the person in whose name the book is drawn.

6. The table at our right as you enter the library is for the girls, the left for the boys. Each are required to sit at their respective places.

7. What talking is done, or what is necessary, must be in a low whisper.

8. When necessary for a boy or girl to engage in conversation, permission to do so must be obtained from the librarian.

9. When a student becomes too noisy, the tap of a pencil, or a look cast in your direction, from the librarian, we hope, will be all that one needs to again become orderly. In case no heed is given to this, nothing will be said, but your name handed to the Discipline Committee.

10. No loud laughing, talking or "spooning" will be tolerated in the hall.

11. The library hours are from 8:30 to 5 p. m. It is opened every day in the week, except Sundays, and Monday mornings.

The above rules are given, because so many requests have been made by the new students concerning them, and as the librarian can not explain to each separately, we request that each secure a copy of "The Skiff" and read them over carefully. You have a glad welcome to the library, and the librarian is always ready to assist you in any way that she can.

MIDLAND LYCEUM COURSE

Five Number Lyceum Course to Be Given Under Auspices of T. C. U. Woman's Club in the Chapel of T. C. U.

The T. C. U. Woman's Club have arranged for a splendid course of entertainment consisting of five numbers. These will occur at intervals during the lyceum season, one about each month. The first number will appear October 22nd and will be The Rachel Steinway Concert Company. This will be followed by the four other numbers, Eureka Glee Club, The Great Sam Jones Lectures by Denton C. Crowl; Shungopavi, the Wonder Worker, and Thomas McClary, the famous humorist. This program or course presents a wide and interesting variety of talent. Music, art and humor portrayed by their best masters ought to enlist the attention and support of every student. All these numbers will be given in the University chapel.

Remember the first number, October 22nd, Rachel Steinway Concert Company. This first number is presented by three artists headed by Rachel Steinway, who is well known to the music loving public. She is a violinist of rare power, who by her remarkable technique, added to a charming temperament plays her way into the hearts of her delighted audiences.

Her support in giving the concert is exceptional. Miss Constance Veitch, pianist, and Mr. Earl E. Winters, 'cello, are as well entertainers of the highest type. Remember the date, October 22nd.

The Freshman's Creed

"Aunt Tut."
I believe in Lockhart, the president, all reminding maker of rules and regulations, and in Prof. Faris, the never-forgotten disciplinarian, who was deceived by the town girls, born of everlasting wisdom, suffered under the riotous boys, was accused but never falsified. He arose early every morn, ascended into chapel and sitteth at the right hand of Hamner, the singer all unearthly. From thence he arose again to judge the silent and indignant. I believe in the strict matron, the ever watchful chaperon, the meetings of the faculty, the suspensions for the students, the admittance of cupid, and the nonmending of hearts ever afterwards. A MAN.

It Was Rope Instead of Memory

Prof. Kinsey: "Young people, memory is one of the greatest things. When anything gets imprinted on the mind it is a task to ever get it off." Mr. Brown was building a bridge, and looking up he said to the workmen above him: "Let fall the ropes." The workmen did not hear him, and he intended repeating the same words. But when he had said "Let fall the—" an iron wedge fell, hitting Mr. Brown on the head, knocking him unconscious. When he had regained consciousness, his first word was rope. Now, class, what was that?"
Miss Carpenter: "Oh! Why, that was rope."

A Test in Memory

Prof. Kinsey, lecturing in Education: "It is always a good idea to train a student's memory. In fact, for any one to make a success he must train his memory."
Mr. Pyburn: "Mr. Kinsey, may I ask a question?"
Prof. Kinsey: "Why, certainly."
Mr. Pyburn: "Well, some one has told me that you helped to make the schedule of recitations for the fall term. Can you repeat all of the schedule now?"

State Sunday School Institute

The State Sunday School Institute will convene in Waco October 10th, 11th and 12th. It will be held in the Central Christian Church of Waco and delegates from all over the state will be present. T. C. U. has arranged to send her delegates and will be expected to take a part in the work of the Institute. The Harvard plan of entertainment will be used. In lieu of this T. C. U. will entertain about fifteen delegates and thus all of us will be able to come in contact with the workings of this Institute.

Waco's Mounted Police!

Last Saturday a part of the mounted police force of the city of Waco appeared very suddenly upon the University campus. They had hardly had time to reach the front steps of the main building until every Freshman was in his room with doors locked and barred. The cause of all the excitement was simply that a "bovine bum" which being translated means a stray cow, had strolled onto the campus with sophomore strides and the management called out a part of the police force to rid the campus of the intruder.

The short address delivered by Robert L. Marquis in the chapel last Monday morning will not soon be forgotten for it dealt with a subject near to every true student's heart. He made a scholarly apology for being engaged in teaching school. He showed wherein students might get the most abundant life to live. Dr. Marquis is an alumnus of T. C. U. and is president of Midland College.

I will be glad To C U at any time. Thompson, the photographer.

Thomas Will Return

Coach Langley gave out the report Thursday that Manly Thomas will return in a few days. Many will herald the news with delight. Thomas, until a week or two ago, was our only hope for a quarter back. But since we have manufactured three good ones. But Thomas will be welcomed back. The more good players the better for our team. We have been used to having the best quarter back in the state and we may yet hold that honor.

Personal Notes

Earl Odell arrived at T. C. U. last Friday and decided to remain here rather than go to State University.

Mr. J. G. Crawford of Alpine visited Mr. Ferguson last Sunday. Mr. Crawford will proceed to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will enter school.

Miss Dora Lindley of Peerless, Texas, matriculated Saturday.

Dr. Robert L. Marquis, alumni of T. C. U., visited his alma mater several days last week. Dr. Marquis has recently been elected president of Midland College, at Midland, Texas.

Mr. John Barnard, brother of "Nap" Barnard, matriculated the first of the week.

Mr. W. K. Mulligan's mother visited him at T. C. U. last Saturday.

Howell G. Knight, '09, is a welcome visitor of the week. Mr. Knight is located in Dallas and engaged in journalistic work.

Miss Mae Hardin of Palestine was called home this week on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Julia Hall of Belton is a new matriculate.

Lena Burford, an old student, who is at present studying at the State University, visited friends here last week. John Crawford of Alpine was a well-

Mr. Robinson of Lubbock, Texas, visited his daughter, Hattie, Sunday.

Misses Pauline Taylor and Collie Wright are on the sick list this week.

Miss Willie Ben Irby has enrolled for studies in the University.

Miss Tyler Wilkerson visited the University Sunday.

Miss Walton of McGregor entered school Monday.

See Thompson, the Photographer.

Miss Irene Brown of Dallas is visiting friends this week. We are sorry that Irene can not be back this year.

Polytechnic will be down Saturday.

You will be pleased with you photo if Hellman takes it. Studio 109 1/2 South Fourth street.

Readers will please note the fatality of changes in dining room. Checkers is the game.

The Prohibition League was called to order Wednesday night by Acting President Twyman and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Braxton B. Wade, President; H. G. Twyman, Vice President; Earl Gough, Secretary. This League plans to do some special work this year. It is a worthy League with a worthy purpose.

The Platform Club held a call session Wednesday. Plans were launched to secure some great speakers to come before them. Senator Culberson is being sought, also Judson Harmon of Ohio, to appear before the club. The first number to appear under their auspices will be Prof. Egbert R. Cockrell who will deliver his lecture on "Pioneer Life."

A new student stood outside the class room five minutes after the class had assembled. He asked a passerby whether to go in or not. "Certainly," said the old student. "Go in." "Well," queried the new student, "I hate to go walking in before all those people. Must I go in and shake hands with all of them, or just take a seat?"

A T. C. U. student down town accidentally fell in with a new student in Baylor and neither knew that the other was a student in the other school. The Baylor boy, unconscious of any wrongdoing, was boasting of the plays that his football team could pull off and thereby defeat any team in the state. "Why," he says, "we have got that forward pass over to the left and a forward pass over to the right and there isn't a team in the state that knows anything about such a play and how to block it." "Why," he continued, "you fellows will be lost and won't know what to do when we pull all that on you."

"That's right," said the T. C. U. student, "we heard that you all had a famous team." The one went away wiser (?) and the other thought that he had scared the athletic world into spasms.

If you want the Photos, you will go to Thompson's.

First Game Saturday

yet been played and hence no one can be given credit for special skill.

Coach Langley treated his boys to a nice little game consisting of ten minutes halves last Wednesday evening. The first squad played against the second. Knight refereed. The first half was vigorously used in line bucking and close scrimmaging. Only one run and gaining play was made and that was gotten by "Ty" on a twenty-yard dash. A spectacular play was pulled off by Hulsey when he secured the ball and dashed off down field in the wrong direction. Daniels pushed over the lines fairly well and had he been able to keep his feet he would have carried the first squad to victory. Rattan for the reserves did good work in breaking over and covering ball in enemy's territory. First half no score.

In the second half the first team suffered much from the onslaughts of second team. Witt tried his men on their best practice plays but was unable to score on the reserves. The second team of course consisted of men who will in all probability make Varsity and the Coach had them in this practice play pretty evenly divided. It seemed very much like a real game, however, as there were many girls visiting and they were yelling for their favorites. Swink and Bush made several splendid tackles. Pete went over the line whenever he wanted to.

The superior coaching of Mr. Langley is fast bringing new men out, who formerly knew nothing of football. The old players are highly pleased with his training. They are all feeling confident.

The Bulletin Board in Error

The bulletin board down in the corridor of the main building held, for a brief space Sunday night, the startling news of the wreck of an automobile on Fifth street in which the following casualties were sustained: Wm. Massie, ankle punctured. "Tramp," hurt in upper regions. "Redwater," left ear fractured. L. Gough, big toe sprained beyond recognition. Jack Bush, thumb dislocated. Clarence Hall, all teeth knocked out. "Grits," eye punctured. At last report all these gentlemen were improving and probably no death will occur among the whole wrecked crew. The "London Times" printed the account first and attributed the fatality to the recklessness of college boys and commented at length on the spirit of the modern college boy when turned loose upon the commons. All car drivers should take notice and fight shy of a reckless crowd in a wreckless car.

THE BRUSHES ENTERTAINED

Prof. and Mrs. Cockrell's New Bungalow Scene of Delightful Social Event

The beautiful new bungalow of Prof. and Mrs. Cockrell was the scene of a delightful social event last Monday evening, the occasion being a reception to "The Brushes." The event further served as a sort of "house warming" for the elegant home built during the summer vacation and which is manifestly the most attractive edifice in this section of the city, not only from an exterior view but also from the architectural beauty and convenient interior facilities.

The program of entertainment for the evening was unique. After all the guests had been introduced, cards containing duplicate numbers and an incomplete verse of poetry were distributed and each person was requested to find among those present the corresponding number and the remainder of the couplet. Couples thus having been formed, it was announced that hand painted souvenirs marked with the numbers on the cards had been hidden in various places and that they were to be located.

Each person having found the proper souvenir, it was next announced that in one of the many closets of the house was to be found the usual "family skeleton" and that a valuable prize awaited the finder thereof. The search was begun with a zest and the house was ransacked from cellar to garret. In a dark and obscure nook the uncanny remains were found by Mr. Marshall Baldwin, accompanied by Miss Gladys Hudson. The guests were assembled in the library and a reward for his diligence Mr. Baldwin was presented with a beautiful hand painted picture of a buffalo clover field. He accepted the prize in a few well chosen words and with true Chesterfieldian grace and courtesy then presented it to Miss Hudson.

The feature that provoked the greatest interest, however, was a drawing contest in which each "Brush" brought to bear the skill and training of previous courses. A card containing a circle was given to each guest with the explanation that the outlines of a face were to be drawn within the circle and that seven strokes of the brush would be allowed for the completion of the work. The drawings were collected and submitted to judges who, after mature deliberation, awarded first prize to Mr. Eldredge Scales, whose artistic temperament had produced a caricature of a "heathen Chinese" with curling queue and oblique eyes. The booby prize was awarded to Miss Strange.

Refreshments were served, Misses Eula McNeill and Jamie Strange presiding with grace and ease at the punch bowl.

At a late hour the guests reluctantly departed, expressing themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening and passing many parting compliments upon the elegance, beauty and arrangement of Prof. and Mrs. Cockrell's new home.

The guests of the evening were: Mesdames Lockhart, Alexander, Cruzan, Obenchain; Misses McNeill, Hudson, Strange, Moore, Scales, Foster, Miller, Bean, Bird, Ramsey; Messrs. Lockhart, Alexander, Langley, M. Baldwin, Murray, Cruzan, B. Frizzell, Dabbs, Obenchain.

Second Meeting of the Student Body

The second session of the Student Body was called last week for the purpose of electing captains and managers for the various athletic games.

M. Baldwin, Prior Witt, T. J. Allen and Edgar Bush were put in nomination as captain for the base ball team. Joe Murray, Oscar Wise and Leroy Gough were nominated for manager of the track team.

Cullen Graves, Milton Daniels and Abuel Riter were named by the students for the position of captain of the basket ball team.

Holbert, Stevenson, Abernathy, Hall and Dabbs were nominated for manager of tennis tournament.

Ernest Anderson was unanimously nominated for yell leader.

All the above nominations went before the faculty committee for confirmation and the following were elected: Marshall Baldwin, Captain of Base Ball Team.

Oscar Wise, Captain of Track Team. Cullen Graves, Captain of Basket Ball Team.

R. E. Abernathy, Manager of Tennis. Ernest Anderson, Yell Leader.

The faculty members chosen to sit with the representatives chosen from each of the four classes in the college department to compose the Athletic Council are Profs. Long, Alexander and Hart. The new mode of government for the control of athletics is in many ways superior to the old athletic association.

Prof. Long attended a meeting of the representatives from all colleges in the athletic association which met in Waco last Saturday. Many changes were made in the regulations and much business transacted for benefit of good and clean athletics in the state.

The training table for the foot ball boys was prepared Monday and henceforth they will be given a fare suitable to their needs. The boys who work out and fit themselves to win our victories need all this and more. May they thrive.
