Baylor U. Scores on 'Varsity Breaks Spell and Makes a Touchdown--Score 6 to 3

On last Thursday evening Baylor University was able to break the spell that T. C. U. has held over their football team during the present season and succeeded in winning the only game of the season from us by the tight score of 6 to 3. Baylor lost the local championship to T. C. U. both this season and last but as it is impossible for one team to win all the games we had to yield one of them to Baylor. If we were to beat them continually they would soon tire of playing us and we could not exit in local victories any more.

The game was intensely interesting from start to the last call of time. Both teams were splendid on the defensive and neither was excelling in offensive work. The game was played for the most part on T. C. U. territory but the splendid holding of the team prevented the Baylorites from obtaining but the one touchdown.

Massie for T. C. U. opened the score board by a splendid goal kick from the thirty yard line. This was done in seven minutes after the signal was given for the game to start. The stars for T. C. U. were Massie and Wright. Daniels and Brous were the great plungers from the back field, while Ashmore and Yates plunged for the line. Fields working with a crippled shoulder showed in his old time form, mowing down the opposing line like a reaper mows grass, at times when the crisis seemed at hand. Lamonica and Fuzzy feared and closely watched by Baylor could not get away on many sensational dashes. They were known too well to Baylor's squad and hence were closely watched. Tyson put out his speed at several points and made good gains. Our heady quarterback used his skill to good advantage at various crises in which the game was placed. "Tommie" is a good one and for head work he can not be beaten.

For Baylor let it be said that they played good ball and beat us fairly in the game. They had much at stake and the many thousands of visitors backing them gave them pep and they won the game. Robinson was in the game and that means much to their team. His punting put them out of danger many times. He failed at a goal kick from the 20 yard line. Lamonica scared him out of it by his quick dash at the ball. To his credit stands the touchdown and goal kick which netted Baylor all the score she made. Fouts and Hefley played pretty good game but unlike Robinson they were under the hoodoo of the last game.

This game closes the football season for Waco and for the two Universities. It has been a great season for the two Universities. T. C. U. has a much better record than has her city friends. Baylor has not won very many games during the season, while T. C. U. has lost only two games out of a schedule of eight. One to the University of Texas and the other to Baylor. T. C. U. has for her record a tie game with A. & M., who beat the State, two victories over Baylor, one each over Austin College, Polytechnic and Southwestern.

Baylor was defeated badly by A. & M., yet scored a great victory over the Haskell Indians. Take it all in all it has been a good season for college football. T. C. U. has an eviable record and Baylor should not have so much to regret since she was able to win one game from us. That was really more than she expected to get.

A little summary for the three games scheduled and played between T. C. U. and Baylor shows the following. Baylor in all the games made but one touchdown and one goal kick, netting her 6 points. T. C. U. has in the three games scored 23 points, including touchdowns, goal kicks and safeties.

The game in detail is as follows:

First Half
Robinson for Baylor kicks off 45 to Daniels with 25 return. Tom punts 35 to Willie who signals for fair catch. Baylor holds. Robinson makes 2 and then puts 20 outside. Thomas passes 22 to Baldwin and Braus bucks 4, Daniels 3. Tom passes 12 to Baldwin. Braus bucks 4 and Baldwin 2 on fake run. Massie makes place kick from 30 yard line. 7 minutes played.

Robinson kicks off 50 to Daniels who returns 15. Tyson fails but Wright takes 20 around left end. Daniels takes 2. Tom punts 30 to Willie, returning 10. Willie and Isbell each take 5. Rob-

A Summary in Football

The season has closed. Let it be said that it has been a most successful one. Out of a schedule of eight games we have only lost two, one to the State University and one to Baylor. Our gridiron heroes have been worthy and honorable ones. They have fought the battles of the University in the field of athletics fairly and fearlessly and have come off with the victor's wreath many times. Six times have they marched onto the campus with the victors shout. For this we thank them. They have made a reputation throughout the state for manliness of character and have not in a single instance stained the escutcheon of the University. We as students and a University ought to feel proud of the record they have made.

Our Loyal Captain Wright, the star in all games, has probably ended his career on the gridiron; if so, it is with the greatest degree of success that any gridironists could naturally hope for. Manager Thurman Allen has closed the season with as great a success from the financial side as has come from the battle side. He has brought the Association out of debt, provided well for the team's welfare, arranged in a most advantageous way the schedule and closed the books and records in fine shape.

The Athletic Council has been a serviceable one. Great honor and credit is due them for faithfulness.

Too much honor can not be given to the second team for their part in winning Varsity's victories. They have sacrificed time and tears, blood and brawn, to develop the squad that has won our victories. We will reward them next season by giving them a place on Varsity and that is honor enough.

The season of '09 is closed. Let it be said with pride inasmuch as we have acquitted ourselves nobly. We did not win the state championship but the team that did win could not beat us on their own territory. That is honor enough.

THE PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS

Annual Thanksgiving Reception in the President's Home

On Thursday night all students and friends of the University were invited to the home of President Lockhart and his estimable wife to a Thanksgiving reception. Over 200 guests were entertained during the evening. The students and friends were met at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Lockhart and escorted into the parlors where several hours of splendid entertainment were passed. The football team were guests of honor of course and the well fought game of the day gave them a conspicuous place in the evening's program.

A delightful feature of the evening's program was the cards passed around to all couples, containing the letters spelling Thanksgiving, written perpendicularly on the card and making the contest to consist of framing words beginning with the various letters found in the word Thanksgiving, all of them ending with such letters as would when finished spell out the same word inversely.

Delightful refreshments were served at close of contest and many hearts were made glad by the hospitality of the president's home and by the enjoyable companionship of the hour.

Miss Naomi, daughter of the president, assisted gracefully in the entertaining of the many guests. Miss George Proctor presided over the punch bowl with grace and elegance.

The Last Scrimmage

The last scrimmage of the football season of 1909 occurred Tuesday evening. The score was "thirty some odd" to nothing, contrawise to the "herays." It was a neat little fusillade of fifteen minutes; just a little "tapering off" from the heavy work that has been occurring every afternoon.

The "Herays" were unable to score, but they scared the first team one time. Six touchdowns were made, Fuzzy 2, Daniels 2, Tyson 1, and Pete 1.

Right here a word should be said to the credit of the scrubs. They have been a loyal bunch, sacrificing to give Varsity an opportunity to get practice and for this they are deserving of great praise. Capt. McCormick has taken out his bunch every afternoon and given Varsity all the rubs that they needed and oftimes made Varsity feel as if they were plying "foemen worthy of their steel." Any second team that will unflinchingly face Varsity five and six days out of every week for many weeks, just for the sake of giving Varsity practice, is deserving of honor.

BAYLOR'S CONDUCT AGAIN CALLED IN QUESTION

The last football game of the season has been played with Baylor. We have won the local championship and that is honor enough. Baylor won the Thanksgiving game fairly and squarely. I presume, from us and we have no kick coming from the game. We accept defeat on the gridiron as gracefully as any one and no hatred rankles in our heart toward those who are victorious over us. The first two games with Baylor were void of offense; we had no blue sweaters to compete with and withal Baylor seemed to try to redeem her reputation, on the gridiron.

But in winning the Thanksgiving game they were not content. Their long pent up ire was not drowned in a magnanimous spirit usually possessed by victors, but must show their old spirit, denounced again and again by college papers and teams in the state, by doing many things unsportsmanlike to the vanquished. We bore defeat honorably, not interfering with any homecoming features, their banners and bunting unmolested, and tried to act the part of an up to date student bunch.

The first charge against Baylor is their unsportsman conduct in assaulting the umpire, who was brought from Dallas to officiate at the game. Between halves a crowd of Baylor students went on the field and assaulted the umpire on account of a decision that he had honestly rendered. Not content with that they had the audacity and unfairness to brutally assault some of our men in suits who were on the way from the field to the cars.

The captain of the team was jumped upon, tired as he was after the long battle, by a band of ruffian students exemplifying the old Baylor spirit; and more another member of the squad was stabbed in the back of the head with a knife, inflicting a fearful wound.

This, my friends and readers over the state, is the conduct of a school toward a football team leaving Baylor's own field. Cruel hosts they were to attack a football player on his way to a car and then to stab another in the back with a knife.

This editorial, I think, merely echoes the sentiments of other colleges in the state who are engaged in athletics for other purposes than brutality and unfairness.

We denounce Baylor as unsportsmanlike.

OFFICIALS FAIR

The student body and football team of T. C. U. express their appreciation of the honest and efficient services of the officials in the Baylor-T. C. U. game. Referee Metzstein and Umpire Reaukoff were officials, gentlemanly, fair and honest in all their decisions. We praise such on the part of the officials.

The Thanksgiving number of the Collegian is out and presents a magazine of merit. The cover design is in the loyal colors, purple and white, and the composition and make-up draws forth favorable criticism.

The new editors and management are to be congratulated upon their work. Several short stories are found within quite readable, the product of the short story course now offered in the University. The department of Gingles is praiseworthy. The exchange department is well conducted, showing both the ability of the editor and the popularity of the magazine by its large exchange list.

The magazine continues to grow better. May it thrive.

THE MID-KNIGHTS OF THE BATH ROBE ORGANIZE

Hold Their First Secret Conclave on Tuesday Night

You have doubtless read in ancient folklore of the great hall-houses and banquets, where knights would leave the tables amid the toasts of friends and fare forth on expeditions of valor? If so, you are prepared to appreciate the deeds of the modern organization known as the "Mid-Knights of the Bath Robe."

This order was founded in a banquet room on fourth floor of our "Castle of Concern," conceived in the mind of Sir Barney Holbert and put into activity by a score of other illustrious knights. The first parade was scheduled for 11:45 p. m., instituted on time and ended 12:15 a. m., the same including the favorite hours of the doughty knights.

The "Castle of Despair" was approached with solemn concatenation, surrounded three times and left to darkness and to doom. The hiding place of a knight of ill renown was visited, but no results were forthcoming. Various rendezvous were visited and the long list of knights halted before the "Castle of Concern" at the exact moment of 12:15 a. m., and disappeared within the ramparts of the Castle.

A Magnificent Feast

Mr. John Bateman treated a number of his friends to a magnificent feast last Tuesday night. After study hours were over and the lights had said good-night, the band of invited guests repaired to the room of their genial host and there was spread before them an array of eatables, the like and name of which had almost left their vocabulary. After they had feasted their eyes and filled their mouths they toasted the health of their host, silently folded their tents and stole away.

The halfback told the fullback To go way back and sit down; The fullback got his back up And knocked the halfback down.

PRESS ASSOCIATION

The Officers and Members Announce the Birth of the Press Association of Texas Christian University

Thursday, November 18, 1909, the Press Association organized with fifteen members. These members, composing the staffs of the Skiff, Collegian and Horned Frog, are as follows: Grundy W. Stevenson, president; Earl K. Gough, vice president; Lucile Wolford, secretary; Ada Culpepper, treasurer; Mary Riter, press reporter; Robert Abernathy, sergeant-at-arms; Loy C. Wright; John Bateman; Elizabeth Higginbotham; Barney Holbert; Myrtle Tomlinson; Clarence Hall; Braxton Wade; Burrell Hulsey; Howard B. Dabbs.

This Association threatens to be the most wide-a-woke and enterprising body in school. The first meeting of course was quite dignified and businesslike. Altho Mr. Stevenson declared that he had "too many things," he was unanimously elected president of the Association. The Association found great difficulty in electing a sergeant-at-arms. As this office is considered the most important and trying of all, much thought and careful deliberation was necessary. It was the earnest desire of all that the office be filled by a competent young man or by a robust young lady. The nominees were:

Howard Bolliver Dabbs.
Aden Estina.
Robert Abernathy.
Mr. Pete.
John Bateman.
Barney Holbert, the gentleman from Ireland.
Mr. B. B. Wade.
Dorie Hulsey.
Clarence Hall.

After much discussion, and making and with drawing of motions, it was moved and carried that the candidates stand in a straight line and that the president choose the sergeant-at-arms by the "eny meny miny mo" plan. Mr. Dabbs had withdrawn from the room but his name was written in large letters on the board and the president was repeatedly reminded of that one's presence(?). The president kept saying over and over to himself:

"Eny, meny, miny, mo.
Catch a negro by his toe
If he hollers, let him go.
Eny, meny, miny, mo."

Finally being satisfied that he knew the formula, he began, and one after the other sat down. At last no one stood but Ada and Abernathy. The suspense at this point was unbearable. A deep breath was drawn, however, when the finale "mo" ended on Ader. Mr. Abernathy was applauded as sergeant-at-arms and all agreed that "nothing" was better than the sergeant-at-arms.

A reception will be given for the Association in the near future. We advise every one to keep an eye on this Association for we are up and doing and intend to make these old college walls hum.

FIRST RECITAL

Of the Schools of Music and Oratory Score Magnificent Success

The first student recital of the departments of music and oratory was rendered in the chapel last Monday night. The program was a highly talented one and successful in every detail.

The evening's program consisted of seven splendid numbers, two piano, two vocals, two readings and string quartette.

The first number on the program was a piano number by Miss Leta Pitts of Palo Pinto. Miss Pitts is a musician of rare ability and her number was very highly appreciated.

A reading by Miss Una Jackson of Alpine constituted the second number and her splendid selection was only surpassed by her charming manner as a reader. "A Cutting from Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" was the selection with which she delighted her audience.

The third number in the perfect program was a string quartette consisting of first, second, third and fourth violin by Prof. W. C. Hunter, Miss Myrtle Tomlinson, Miss Elizabeth Higginbotham and Mr. Sam Frizzell respectively. This was a delightful exhibition of harmony and skill. Each of the violinists showed individual talent and the combination gave a marvelous result.

The vocal solo, "Over the Hills to Sunlight Town," by Miss Grace Hackney of Wortham, presented one of the sweetest voices ever heard in T. C. U. Miss Hackney is gifted with a sweet voice and her number was one of the most highly appreciated of the evening.

Miss Bess Rash, reader, of Crowell presenting "Love's Triumph" was the fifth number. Miss Rash is a reader of well known ability and her contribution to the evening's program was of rare merit. Miss Rash has given many recitals over Texas recently and her programs are increasing in demands. The vocal solo, "Beauty's Eyes," by Mr. Grantland Anderson, constituting the sixth number, was applauded many times in an effort to secure an encore. "Grits" has a voice of charming effect and his solos are always awaited with keenest interest. His selection for the evening showed the talented young singer at his best.

The last number is especially deserving of merit and mention, being a pianoforte impromptu in E, dedicated to Mr. Hunter by Prof. Fitzroy, played by Miss Mary Riter of Forney. Prof. Fitzroy is to be highly praised for the remarkable composition, but to Miss Riter is due the honor of presenting the number in such a talented manner. Her skill as a pianist was clearly shown in the rendition of the piece in which so many were interested.

The two departments acquitted themselves creditably in this their initial recital of the year. Never were these departments under better instructors and seldom have they ever had such talent with which to work. The instructors and directors are to be highly praised for their work.

Football Rally

One of the most rousing rallies ever held in T. C. U. in the interest of football occurred Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The entire squad had seats of honor on the platform and Prof. Long, president of Athletic Council, presided; Dr. Lockhart, Coach Langley, Manager Allen, L. C. Proctor and J. O. Wallace also were seated on the platform. An hour of the most rousing enthusiasm prevailed, magnified by spicy speeches, yells, songs, band music and everything tended to arouse the greatest amount of enthusiasm. Speeches were made by all men of the team who leave us this year and in addition thereto the many alumnae football players present in the audience made congratulatory and rousing talks. Bertram H. Bloor, '09, Alex Harwood, '08; Dr. Sharp, '97; Dr. Sypert, '97; Prof. Alexander, '97; Coach Hardy, D. A. Shirley and Dr. Lockhart made speeches.

After the heightened hour of enthusiasm was ended, Mr. Thomas presented on behalf of the football team, to Capt. L. C. Wright a beautiful gift, a token of their love and admiration for their splendid captain. Prof. Long of Athletic Council on behalf of the team presented Coach Langley with a splendid gift, a token of their appreciation of his splendid services as an efficient coach.

Gee whiz! what a fickle thing "our sheriff is;" He is hale and hearty and always full of biz; As a ladies' man no one can beat him for a minute. And for football "our sheriff" is strictly in it.

Where You Should Have Your Suits Made

STYLISH TAILORMADE SUITS OR TROUSERS

when they are made to fit are a credit to the wearer as well as to the tailor who made them. Anyone who has ever worn a genuine tailormade suit can tell at the first glance if your suit is made by hand or in a factory. I am doing a tailoring business and employ the best workmen and cannot afford to have flashing ads everywhere, but try to make my work do the advertising for me. It will justify you to invest a few dollars more and wear a suit made by MIKE ADAM. He has a large, well assorted stock of the latest designs in woollens to select from. Girls Basket Ball

More interest is being shown in basket ball each day. At the present we have three teams, Cardinals, Ravens and Ramblers. Tuesday afternoon the first match game of the season was played, Cardinals vs. Ravens.

The line-up was as follows:

Cardinals.	Ravens.
Starkey	Allison
Shirley	Center.
Pitts	Forward.
Heath	Allison (Odessa)
Chilton and Moses.	Guard.
	Tyson
	Gorman

The game was quite interesting throughout the whole time. Misses Shirley, Pitts and Odessa Allison starred as forwards of the afternoon, each time the ball went through the goal guided by these skilled hands. Misses Mary Heath and Clara Moses proved themselves to be good guards. Miss

RELIGIOUS NOTES

The Church and Missions

Miss Nona Bozeman, '08, missionary at Mahoba, India, sends us the printed report of the twenty-seventh year of the India Mission of the Disciples of Christ. This is put in the library with love to all the T. C. U. family.

Those who hope for the unity of Christians will be glad to note this from page 19 of the report "Just as our missionary year closed seven missionary societies, our own among the number, and representing more than that number of religious bodies, met at Jubbulpore, C. P., and took the initial steps in forming a federate union to be known as 'The Federation of Christian Churches in India.'" The indications are that this will mark another long step toward the unity for which Christ prayed.

The Rochester Convention

"The possibilities of the student volunteer convention to be held at Rochester, New York, from December 29, 1909, to January 2, 1910, are boundless, because of the absolutely unique situation which confronts the church throughout the world, and because of the limitless resources of the living Christ, it is essential, therefore, that believing Christians unite from day to day in intercession characterized by reality, recognition of the character of God and achieving faith such co-operation 'avalleth much in its working.'" * * * * *

Brothers Allen and Henson, who are touring the Southwest with stereopticon views and lectures on mission work in foreign lands, gave their program in the University chapel last Tuesday night. It was very instructive and touching to see views and hear the narratives concerning the wretched condition in pagan lands that need the gospel.

The Sunday school had a good record last Sunday, with the increase specially due to the young men's classes. Brother Hall's class have furthered their organization by adopting a name, the Baracas. Profs. Long and Fitzroy have furthered their new class by a goodly increase to 17 members, and the name of Athletes. Surely this will make it a winner in T. C. U.

The primary department came back to its regular numbers last Sunday, having been reduced by various causes.

The singing on Sunday evening by the big choir was simply great. The good hymns, with such sweet and enthusiastic leading as the choir gave inspired the congregation to join, so that there was singing of the kind that does the soul good.

Church Announcements Nov. 28

Preaching by the pastor, Colby D. Hall, morning: "The Lord's Day," a sermon teaching the meaning of this day. Evening, An evangelistic service with the large choir leading in a thirty minute song service. Hearty invitation to every one.

The Sunday school continues its good work, with classes well organized and interest fine. Every student in the University and every resident on the heights is invited to come and join.

The Christian Endeavor societies will have a joint meeting in the chapel at 4 o'clock for the special purpose of graduating some of the Juniors and Intermediates into the next higher rank. Everybody invited.

Address to the graduates by Mrs. Alexander.
Address to the society by the pastor, Colby D. Hall.

A T. C. U. Missionary

The November page of the Y. M. C. A. calendar contains a picture of Miss Boegeman, the only Texas representative of the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church in India. She is yet engaged in language work and preparation in the orphanage at Mahoba.

The Moody Convention

The Hillsboro district of C. E.'s have their annual convention at Moody Nov. 26, 27 and 28. The University society and Y. M. C. A. send representatives. For the C. E., Pres. William Stevenson, Ruth Rayburn and Earl Calloway will go. For the Y. M. C., Pres. Howard, B. Dabbs.

The F. D. D.' Organize

The F. D. D.'s organized Friday, October 29, with the following members: Tim, Tat, Ted and Tot. This is a breezy little club of only four members with a most reasonable motto and aim. Their motto, "Not to study before or after meals." Aim: "To be as cute as each other."
