SUCCESSFUL RECITAL

Mr. Frank C. Agar Appears in First Music Recital
Of Season

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT

The Singers Rich Powerful
Voice Much Appreciated

T. C. U. students and faculty members are very proud indeed of the excellent program rendered by Mr. Frank Agar in his song recital last Thursday evening. A special car was required to accommodate the large number of visitors from the city, all of whom were much pleased as well as somewhat surprised at the excellent appearance which our voice instructor made. This was the opening recital of the season for the college of music.

Mr. Agar has a rich baritone voice, quite powerful and withal clear. He was able to hold the close attention of the audience throughout the program and without noticeable effort on the part of the singer. The program, too, included quite a number of very difficult and heavy compositions. In fact it was these big numbers which were most heartily applauded, for Mr. Agar's voice seems especially adapted to the singing of music of this more serious nature.

"In This Sepulchral Darkness" by Beethoven and "Honor In Arms", from Sampson, by Haendel were two of the

GAME LOST TO STATE

T. C. U. Plays Good Ball And Exhibits Splendid Team Work

GAME STUBBORNLY FOUGHT

All Indications Point To Successful Season

In a stubbornly contested game, from start to finish, the Longhorns at Austin were able to defeat our Varsity last Saturday, by a score of thirty to ten. The difference in score, however, does not show a just comparison of the strength of the two teams. As a matter of fact our team, though outweighed by almost ten pounds to the man, showed a better knowledge of the game and a more determined spirit at all times than their opponents were able to exhibit. Especially was this demonstrated in the second quarter when by a series of line plunging and brilliant end runs T. C. U. was able to carry the ball from almost one end of the field to the other, finally losing the ball on penalty after John P. carried it successfully across the goal line. The score then stood ten to three, in favor of Texas. But for this unfortunate decision by a Texas Official the score would have been tied. In fact two touch downs and the drop kick made by Pritchett from the twenty-five yard line, were the only earned points made by the Texas aggregation. On the other hand T. C. U. scored as a field goal by working the ball down, by end runs and the famous split-back, to Texas Twenty-five yard line, where Cox kicked the first field goal of the season.

If this game is to represent a type of the present day football because of the new rules, most of the spectators and supporters of the sport would favor the game as played last year or even before then. The two teams only punted twice each the whole game, the four downs making it easily possible for either team to make ten yards.

INDIVIDUAL PLAYERS.

As a whole, this, the first game of the season, is indicative of a most favorable outlook for the future. To pick the individual stars would be to pick the whole team. Although at several stages of the game there were flashes of individual playing this was occasioned only by successful interference and superior team work. Walton who had replaced "Bugs" Thannish at right half, the latter suffering a broken collar bone while playing a smashing half back position breaking up the

THE NEW STOCK FARM

T. C. U. The Proud Possessor Of A Fine Lot of Chickens and Pigs.

Another addition to the equipment at Texas Christian University is a fine lot of chickens. Manager Dacus has erected a high chicken proof lot on the university grounds near the power plant in which he has placed a number of chickens for future use. By buying the chickens in large numbers he was of course able to make a saving on them and further than this he is able to make a saving by fattening them on the vegetables and other wholesome food that comes from the dining tables and would otherwise be wasted.

A little bunch of hogs are also growing nicely in another pen to be found on the T. C. U. stock farm.

The little bunch of cows are slowly growing, and Manager Dacus reports that he is now better prepared to take care of them.

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS METHODS OF T. C. U.

One of the important changes which the present Business manager of Texas Christian University has made in the business methods is a checking system which prevents any leakage in the dining room provisions. Mr. Dacus calls this his "Commissary." He has placed one of the students, Mr. Claude Proctor in charge of this "university store."

Briefly the plan is this: Every article bought for the university dining room is checked from the delivery wagons by the invoice into the university "store" by store-keeper Proctor. Then the cook gives his order to Mr. Proctor just as if Mr. Proctor represented a firm in the city. A record is kept of this order and it is filled immediately, the goods being delivered from the storeroom into the kitchen. When the cook desires goods that are not in the store Mr. Proctor takes note of this and includes these items in his next order from the wholesale houses in the city. No article goes from the storeroom on to the dining table without record being made of it by the store-keeper.

By this system it is readily seen that any one can go to the books and tell exactly what and when goods were used in the dining room. In this way more accurate estimates can be made as to the amount of goods that will be needed for each day or each week. In fact the plan has all the advantages over the old method that scientific management has over unsystematized or haphazard business.

FORMER T. C. U. STUDENT WILL MARRY OCT. 15.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Edna Mae Potts, a former student of T. C. U., and Mr. Robert Wilson of Fort Worth. The date is set for October 15th. The couple will leave immediately after the wedding for Chicago, where they will make their future home.

Willis Stovall endeavored to start a conversation with a new student whom he found on the campus, and said: "Robert, how are you classified?" The jovial answer came promptly, "Oh, very well to-day sir."

Ft. Worth, Oct. 4, 1912.—Endowment Secretary, W. M. ## WORK ON T. C. U. ANNUAL

Staff Has Been Assigned Special Duties. Students Urged to Get Pictures Made.

The Horned Frog staff has decided to follow the plan which has been tried heretofore regarding the pictures for the Annual, that is to have one photographer to do all the work. This enables the pictures to all be made of the same shade of background and will thereby make the book much more attractive. Accordingly the Greer Studio has been given the contract to do all this work and Manager Bertrand H. Camp of the Frog Staff announces that it is now time to get your sittings for the annual. You will find the Greer Studio just about the middle of the 9th block on Main Street, just south of Washer Bros., 912 1-2 Main. It should be understood that the Horned Frog men have arranged this plan so that it will cost absolutely nothing to get these sittings for the annual. The student simply goes to the studio and sits for a picture, the Horned Frog men pay for the work. If the student should want some pictures developed for his or her private use this can be arranged with the photographer or with any other photographer, but cuts for the Horned Frog will only be made from sittings at the Greer Studio.

The Horned Frog staff under the leadership of Editor Bussey is making a special effort this early to get as much of the work done for the annual as possible done this early in the season in order that the Senior class will not be burdened with a rush of work toward the last of school. It is to the best interests of the students and faculty members to aid in this because then a better Frog can be published. Every faculty member and student will be expected to get NEW PICTURES FOR THIS YEAR'S ANNUAL. The editor can justly require this since it has been so arranged that the pictures do not cost a cent.

PRES. KERSHNER SELLS HIS HOME.

President Frederick D. Kershner recently closed a deal in which he sold his new home to Prof. Colby D. Hall. The consideration is private. The President will continue to occupy the house for about two months. The property consists of two lots just north of the university campus facing the East on which is built a modern residence with necessary out houses.

Unless a man works, he cannot find out what he can do.

THE CHURCH PROGRAM

Many Advantages Offered By Church Organized And Supported By Students

TO HAVE GOOD BIBLE SCHOOL

Will Attend City Churches For Morning Service

BY REV. COLBY D. HALL.

Every one in the university life, whether an out-spoken Christian or not will recognize the essential importance of the religious life within this circle. Everything that can be done must be done, to give the truest spiritual atmosphere for our life here, not only in order to be true to the ideals of our patrons and supporters, but for the sake of our training as students.

It will be well for us to appreciate the peculiar advantages afforded us by the advance steps taken in the University Church program.

First let it be observed that this is our own organization. Just like a number of Christians living in any community, we band ourselves together into a local church. There is no distinction as to professor and student, old or young. Indeed the majority of the officers are students. The church is not furnished or controlled by the school; but is a separate organization. The expenses, including pastor's salary, are paid by our contributions, and our leaders selected by us. It is true that we are not numerous enough to employ a pastor for full time yet but we are making such an advanced step;

AT UNIVERSITY CHURCH.

Rev. Colby D. Hall in his first sermon in his new capacity as pastor of the University Church choose for his theme "Attempting the Impossible." He called attention to the "Impossible things" which Jesus did while on earth and to the fact that this same Jesus said "Greater things than these shall they do when I go unto my Father." As an illustration of these "greater things," things more wonderful than miracles, he pointed to the transformation of the Sandwich Islands from the home of cannibals to a place where people live in houses and attend church on Sunday, a land of schools and of civilization. He reminded his hearers that God expects the "impossible" of us and urged that they make the faith of Paul which caused him to say, "I can do all things through Him that strengtheneth me," their own. It was a message that stirred the noblest and highest ambitions. It was just such a message as young people love and one that is most effective with them.

OUR APPRECIATION.

The Skiff receives among its exchanges each week a bulletin which calls itself "Welcome" gotten out by the Oak Cliff Christian Church. It is a neat little church paper. Copies will be shown by the Skiff editor to any of the student or teaching ministers. It may give you an idea that you can use in the near future.

The Skiff is glad to have it come to the exchange table.

The Skiff editor is in receipt of the following invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave R. Martin invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Neta to Mr. Grantland N. Anderson Tuesday evening, October the fifteenth Nineteen hundred and twelve at eight o'clock Christian Church Arlington, Texas.

Both, Mr. Anderson and Miss Martin are graduates from this institution and have many friends here among the students and faculty who wish them a pleasant wedding and a happy future. Quite a number from T. C. U. will attend the wedding next Tuesday.

Ministerial Department

Ten pulpits were supplied from T. C. U. last Sunday, Oct. 6th.

The Secretary has secured regular preaching for one of the ministerial students at Baccus.

The following extract of a letter from an officer of a church, conveys its own lesson.

"A thorough Bible School man appeals to me, our Supt. has let the organized work go to pieces, and the minister has no talent along that line—these are good people and with a minister of executive ability the Bible School would go up hill."

Mr. Frank Agar, head of the voice department in T. C. U., sang at the Shirley society Monday.

TO YOUNG MEN

When we say that "Adler Rochester" and Kirchbaum guaranteed clothes for young men are better than others, we believe it to be true—and if it is you ought to buy them. Make comparisons, you can find out. You'll find they have proper styling, they keep their shape, they fit you properly and cost less than others.

ALUMNI COLUMN.

A Letter From the Alumni Editor States That We May Expect News Matter.

The editor recently received a letter from Mr. Bonner Frizzell, instructor in the department of English in the A. & M. College of Texas, in which he states that he will be able shortly to furnish the Skiff items of interest from the Alumni. Mr. Frizzell is the man whom the President, Mr. Dan D. Rogers, of the Alumni Association, has asked to take charge of the "Alumni Column" of the Skiff. Mr. Frizzell states that on account of heavy work which naturally comes with the opening of the school and the additional work which he has been doing as publicity agent for the school has prevented him from doing much in this line yet. It seems too that letters concerning this matter were delayed in reaching him.

In any event we are glad to hear from the Alumni Editor and to know that "the smoke has about cleared away" as he states it so that he can give us something of interest.

MISS JOHNSON IS ILL.

Miss Adeline Johnson is quite sick this week. She has been removed from Jarvis Hall to the hospital in the city. The Walton Literary Society girls sent her a nice bouquet of flowers Tuesday. Some of the girls have also been thoughtful enough to visit Miss Johnson including Misses Grace Mason and Libbie Wade. At last reports she was slowly improving.

MADE HIMSELF USEFUL.

Reuben, the Po8 recently betook his highness to his uncles ranch for a few days visit. But he found cattle diseased and the ranch in a very busy stir. As is Reuben's custom he immediately set about to make himself useful and made a cowboy of himself for three days. He returned Monday night ready to buck Varsity again.

Col. Miller, a member of the T. C. U. board of trustees, was out at the university talking with friends and looking after the interests of the university last Friday.

Mrs. Sargent, head of the modern language department, has secured a number of German newspapers for the use of her students. These papers will be found in the library. The editor of the Ft. Worth German newspaper was kind enough to donate a copy of his paper to the university every week, and Mrs. Sargent places her own home paper in the library.

Have Appleton & Echols clean your Sweater.

Library Notes

Dr. T. C. Woodman of the old alumni, has recently sent the library five interesting and instructive bulletins, publications of the "Royal Society of Literature" of London. Four numbers constitute Vol. 30 of the "Transactions of the Royal Society of Literature" and will be sent to the bindery with our next lot of magazines. Through Dr. Woodman's kindness we had collected a number before the fire, but these are the first we have received since then. He also sent a copy of the "Pall Mall Pictures of 1912" which the Art Department is very glad to receive.

MAGAZINE DONATIONS.

The young men are so anxious to complete for the bindery, the current volume of "The Saturday Evening Post" that each week they vie with each other in supplying the late copy for the Reading Table. Perry Johnson and Buford Isaacs are in the lead at present. We have two bound volumes already.

MR. C. C. FRAZEE.

Mr. C. C. Frazee of the city and a student of T. C. U. has donated a year's subscription to "Physical Culture" and has supplied the back numbers in order that the present volume will be complete for the bindery. We thank Mr. Frazee and are glad to add this magazine to our current file.

FRONT RANK.

Samples in book form, of the Front Rank House has been secured thru Mr. Owers for the library. The book is put out by the Standard Publishing Company of Cincinnati. It contains samples of Cradle Rolls, Diplomas, Pennants, Pictures Quarterlies, etc. You will find these in the Magazine Rack for your inspection.

MR. AND MRS. OWERS.

These friends each week donate several magazines and Bible School papers. We especially appreciate "The Christian-Evangelist" as we were recently notified that we could no longer be placed on the complimentary list, but that we would have to subscribe. As we do not feel able to do so at the present, we are grateful to Mr. Owers for supplying us with his numbers. Through their kindness we have just completed a volume of "Collier's Weekly" for the bindery.

HON. P. H. CLEMENTS.

Hon. P. H. Clements of Goldthwaite, a former Representative from Texas, sent the library a beautifully bound copy of "Constitution, Manual, and Digest," Rules and Practice, House of Representatives. It bears the name of Hon. Clements on a raised, leather pad, with gold lettering. This edition could not be secured otherwise than as a personal gift from our friend and all the reason we value it all the more. It was given our university because of Alvin Street, one of our best students being here, he being one of Hon. Clements "special boys." May we hope that he may pay us a visit in the near future and deliver us a chapel address.

MRS. JNO. C. STREET.

Mrs. Jno. C. Street of Goldthwaite, mother of our Alvin, donated the following books:

Complete set Shakespeare.
Trent-History of American Literature.
Rachel Sylvestre—Pounds (Fiction).
Self-Help—Smiles.
Character—Smiles.
The Great Crisis in the Life of Christ—Scott.
The Golden Legend—Longfellow.
In all there were twelve volumes, also a large stack of magazines. We thank Mrs. Street very much for it is a helpful collection.

COUNT THE COST.

The United States spent in 1911 for intoxicating liquors $1,750,000,000, for flour $435,000,000 and for public education $310,000,000.

IMPROVED CAR SERVICE.

The first of the through street cars from the junction of seventh and main streets to T. C. U. was run Monday morning at eleven o'clock. The "Forest Park" car, which is the official T. C. U. car, now runs from the Forest Park car track on the Summit Avenue Car track, and thus gives us connection with a large number of lines to any part of the city at the head of Magnolia Street and also enables us to ride straight to the city without transferring to a crowded car. This improvement in car service is much appreciated by those interested.

What College Shall Be Chosen?

This important question confronts every parent and prospective student interested in sending to, or attending college. There are the Christian and state colleges; and the question is to which of these should the student go. And it is indeed an important question especially to the younger college students. But the church school, Christian college should be chosen, except in cases desiring special technical training not usually offered in such schools, because it, as a rule, offers more than other colleges have to offer. Its courses are as good as those offered by other schools, and the Christian college knows that, WHILE KNOWLEDGE IS POWER, KNOWLEDGE DOES NOT NECESSARILY BRING VIRTUE. The Christian college aims at efficiency, but realizes that for the EFFICIENT MAN TO BE USEFUL HE MUST ALSO BE MORAL. It is here that the Christian college is superior to other colleges. It affords the moral support for instruction as well as the facilities for it. On this point Walter T. Davis has well said, "It places the personal, experimental knowledge of God as the highest knowledge attainable by man, and then furnishes the encouragement and opportunity for it. In doing these things the Christian college rises above all other institutions of learning and should have first consideration. The Christian college has the highest ideals known to man. Its ideals are the ideals of the world's greatest teacher, Jesus the Son of God. Both by precept and example these ideals are kept before the student in the Christian college. This fact is all-important; for ideals make character, and character determine destiny. And the significant thing about it is that CHARACTER CRYSTALLIZES DURING COLLEGE DAYS, AND AROUND THE IDEALS OF THE INSTITUTION WHERE ONE IS EDUCATED. It is estimated by expert Christian workers among the students of the American colleges that not more than five per cent of the graduates ever change their ideals of life after graduation. This fact is the silent flinger of God pointing young men and women to our Christian colleges for their education."

The Church Program

let us take time to grow.
THE PRESENT PROGRAM
The present program includes two strong services on Sunday; A Bible School at 9:15 a. m. which aims to be the best in Texas, and a preaching service in the evening which will be devotional, inspirational and full of religious fervor. Let us observe how we can get the most out of this plan, and make it the best that could be arranged by using it aright.

Having two services on the campus, leaves every soul without excuse for cutting religious services, if it is inconvenient to go town here is church close at hand.

OPPORTUNITIES GIVEN BY CITY CHURCHES
Using the down town churches for our morning service gives opportunity for three things that are of great value to students. First, an opportunity to get away from the sameness of the every day scenes and people, and to save the life from having a feeling of monotony second, to get the touch with the good people of the city through which comes wider culture, and larger horizons, to say nothing of the reminds we get of the old home churches with their mixed multitudes of folks; and third, a thing we must not neglect, a chance to show to the Ft. Worth friends our appreciation of their good influence and helpful support of the University. Ft. Worth counts T. C. U. as a good asset to the city's life, religiously as well as financially, socially not to mention athletically. We, as individuals, have few enough opportunities to make T. C. U. answer this expectation. This is one of them. Lets use it, we ought to have a big crowd going to town every Sunday morning.

With respect to having a part in the church life at the University, and going to the city churches let us be reminded of the stubborn truth, that if we expect to find it natural and easy to be a part of the life of the world after we get with it, we must be, now, a part of the life, and have our part now in the world in which we live.
Let's be citizens—and Christian citizens.

LOUIE MILLER IS CALLED HOME.

Louie Miller has recently been called home on account of the illness of his mother. It is said that Mrs. Miller is very seriously ill and at last reports was not improving as rapidly as could be hoped. Louie lives at Goldthwaite. His many friends here sincerely hope that his mother will improve in health and that Louie will soon be able to resume his work with us.

FOR THE BEGINNER.

Note:—
The following are taken from a little book written especially for college men entitled "Not in the Curriculum" and will be found of much interest as well as profitable.

There is much in college life for you to learn; keep your eyes open and your mouth shut.

Have carefully thought-out ideas of right and wrong and stand by them. Do not condemn others who have entirely different ideas.

Gold is found in the bed of the stream, not floating along with the ripples of its surface.

Don't be too generous with the history of your past.

Do not overthrow all existing standards until the college has had time to find out that you are in it. Most of these standards are the result of a long process of evolution and it is often rather dangerous for a freshman to undertake to change them.

You are but one among many; yet realize that one man by quiet, sensible, persistent striving can change the whole tone of a class or university.
Do something and do that something well.

Make Use of "Hot Air."

Mrs. Sargent was endeavoring to get her German class to speak correctly. She said to one of the class, "In this connection I would use 'hat er.'" When the class appeared to be much amused she remarked, "Oh, I don't mean for you to use 'hot air,' for we are not in the real estate business.

Successful Recital

heavy numbers which were highly enjoyed. A well rendered number and one which displayed the tender and more mellow tones of the singer was "Meet Me By Moonlight Alone", by Wade, of the last group. "Songs My Mother Taught Me", by Dvorak, in the first group was of a similar nature and very fittingly followed a heavy Beethoven number, the climax of the recital however, was not reached until the very last number, "King Charles" by White. This brought out a rich dramatic quality of Mr. Agar's voice and it was loudly applauded.

The program arrangement was as follows:

- Caesars Lament (Scipio) Haendel
- Sapphic Ode Brahms
- In This Sepulchral Darkness-Beethoven
- Songs My Mother Taught Me. Dvorak
- Mia sposo sara la mia bandiera. Rotoli
- Csra Mio Ben Giordani
- Infelice (Ernani) Verdi
- Honor and Arms (Sampson) Haendel
- Till I Wake Fiden
- When I Gaze Manney
- A Banjo Song Homer
- Meet me by moonlight alone Wade
- King Charles White

interference on end runs that the end might tackle the man, made the most spectacular play of the game by taking the ball around Texas right end for sixty-five yards, running off and leaving the entire State team, Cox kicking goal. Bussey at quarter played a consistent game at all times and his generalship showed a marked improvement even over his good work of last season. Captain Ware's work on the defense especially, was a tower of strength to the team. Bun was seemingly always at the right place at the right time and more than once brought joy to the many T. C. U. sympathizers by his fierce tackling and breaking up of State's plays before they were materialized. John P., filling Dan's old position, played Full even better than he played Half last year. His work on breaking up runs and making passes was especially good. The work of Bassler on Left Half was at all times bordering on the sensational and his broken field running cannot be excelled by any half in the state. The two Tackles, Golson and Osborn had two giants to play against but held their own throughout the game and when called on for tackle around, nearly always made the necessary gain. Stratton and Ed. Stewart on ends were two of the fastest men on the field and always got down the field on punts and passes. Grover Stewart at guard played a good game until replaced by Wallace, because of injuries. Last but not least, Cecil Stiles at center played the best game of his football career and held the two hundred pound State Center to a standstill.

Without straining our eyes we can see into the future far enough to see the T. C. U. team well started into a successful season. With this week's practice the team will have a good chance to win in Saturday's game with Southwestern.
