MISS ANDREW'S BOOK

T. C. U. Librarian Edits and Compiles A Beautiful Gift Book.

IT IS JUST OFF THE PRESS

Entitled "To Our Mothers" the First of It's Kind

Students and other friends of Miss Nell Andrew, our librarian, will be pleased to know that she has edited and compiled a beautiful and useful little gift book which she has called "To Our Mothers." The book is unique and is the first to appear of its kind. Miss Nell publishes it to meet the growing demand for an appropriate gift book for our mothers. It is especially appropriate as a gift from son or daughter to mother on "Mothers' Day," which is the second Sunday in May of each year.

The Skiff joins Miss Nell's many friends in wishing that her book may meet with a wide appreciation, and, to use the editor's words, "May be the means of making them (our mothers) more precious to us."

WALTONS FEAST AND ELECT OFFICERS.

Saturday night to the Walton girls, new, the Walton girls, old, a feast was given in Walton stronghold.

The gay crowd assembled in the Walton Hall at 7:30, and after enjoying music and chattering for some time they prepared the sumptuous feast.

The menu was one which seemed so exactly suit our appetites. Toasts were given by Roberta Scott and Maurina Stiles, then yells filled the hall, praising the victory of the T. C. U. football team. After completing the last course, each expressed her social pleasure to have been delightful but the great feast even better.

Next, each chased down to the dining room with a load of dishes, then back to our "home" we went to break the good news.

At the business meeting Monday morning (14th), the Waltons elected new officers. Miss Stevens was elected president, Irene Carson vice president, Adeline Ferguson secretary, Leora Clanton treasurer, Elsie Martin first critic, and Fannie Farmer second critic.

We think we have cast our votes profitably and we are expecting good work from our new officers.

CLYDE KEITHLY AND MISS EUGENIA KELLY MARRIED.

News was recently received that Mr. Clyde Keithly and Miss Eugenia Kelly, both former T. C. U. students, were married last Sunday, October 13, at San Antonio. They are making their home in Dallas, where Keithly is in business.

These young people have many friends in T. C. U., who wish them well in their married life.

MEMBERS OF T. C. U. FACULTY AT CONVENTION.

Pres. F. D. Kershner, Profs. Colby D. Hall and wife and Edward Owers, all members of the faculty of T. C. U., are spending the week at the national convention of the Disciples of Christ at Louisville, Ky.

Dean W. B. Parks, Prof. E. R. Cockrell, H. T. Sutton and others of the faculty are attending to the class work as best they can in the absence of the faculty members.

MAKING PLANS FOR TRIP

Dallas Alumni are Busy Planning to Entertain the Student Body Next Thursday.

ROGERS ET AL. ARE WORKING HARD FOR US

Students Should Turn Out in Force and Show Their Appreciation and Make a Big Show for T. C. U.

Manager Parks of the football team has completed arrangements with the Interurban people for three special cars to carry the T. C. U. delegation to Dallas next Thursday for the football game with Austin College. Special street cars also have been engaged to carry the students from the campus to the city. The round trip fare to Dallas has been placed at 80c. With this arrangement and low rate practically every student should be able to make the trip, and in fact there will be very few left on the campus next Thursday, judging from the number who have already signified their intention of attending.

The students here appreciate the arrangements that have been made by the Dallas alumni for our comfort while we are in that city. The following letter from the president of the Alumni Association, Dan D. Rogers, who lives in Dallas, addressed to Prof. C. I. Alexander as chairman of the Athletic Association of T. C. U., is self explanatory. Only that portion of the letter concerning the arrangements which are being made in Dallas is given below:

We had a very enthusiastic meeting of the Alumni here and agreed that every effort should be put forth to get the entire student body over when we play Austin College. They are looking for 1,000 State students next Saturday, and all of the cadets will be here the following Saturday, and it is imperative that we make a good showing. Our arrangements thus far are as follows:

An automobile parade in the morning, to be followed by a visit to the State Fair, with lunch out there, and then the football game. We want the crowd to be over here by 9:30 a. m. The Oriental Hotel will be our headquarters, and just as soon as you arrive and get in shape, we will have the parade.

It is our intention to have some 75 or 100 autos, and we want your crowd there to fill them, with your colors, pennants, etc. Of course we are not attempting anything very elaborate, because it will not be possible for very many of us to get off the entire day. We feel we can make the day an enjoyable one.

I am expecting a number of old students and Alumni here, and it may be possible we can find time to have a good Alumni meeting.

Regardless of that, however, our one object is to let this city know we are on the map and to let Austin College realize that we have a football team that can cope with the best.

Kindly write me by Friday morning, as we have a meeting Friday night to complete arrangements. If possible, estimate the number that you think will be on hand that day, and also suggest any plans that might have occurred to you that will make the day one long to be remembered.

Awaiting an early reply, I am, as ever, fraternally yours,

DAN D. ROGERS.

E. CARL TOMLINSON MADE ASSISTANT MANAGER OF THE HORNFROG FROM JUNIOR CLASS.

At a recent meeting of the Junior class Carl Tomlinson was elected assistant manager of the T. C. U. Annual from the Junior class. This practice of electing an assistant from the Junior class early in the season gives two distinct advantages; first of giving much experience to a member of the Junior class regarding the publication and its management which will be valuable to him and his class in the following year, and second of furnishing needed assistance to the members of the Senior class who have the management work in charge.

Tomlinson will make a valuable man in this position.

Washer Bros. will have a report of the Poly-Daniel Baker game at the T. C. U.-Baylor game at Marris Park Saturday

STEWART AND WARE LEAD AN ALL STAR TEAM

Cox Makes Three Touchdowns and Kicks Two Goals But The Team Work Is Classy-Everybody Stars.

At last T. C. U. has come into her own. There is an old saying that it takes defeats to make victories. This was exemplified Saturday when the Purple and White downed the mighty Gold and Black twenty to nothing. It was very evident from the time that we reached Georgetown until the end of the second half that Southwestern was confident of an easy victory. But when in the beginning of the second quarter they sent in the supposedly peerless McHenry and he failed to make first downs a single time they saw that it was a hopeless battle. Southwestern had a perfect right to think that they should win the game. They have a great record and there is no team in Texas that T. C. U. should feel more pride in defeating. They have in the last three years beaten Texas once; held them to a close score once; played the best team that Louisiana ever had to a 12 to 13 score on Louisiana's field, and last year tied Arkansas 6 to 6. T. C. U. held this team to a shut-out on their own field and Southwestern failed to make first downs except one time during the entire game.

Every member of the team was a star. The papers have told you what Cox, Bussey and Bassler did. They have not exaggerated it. Cox played a great game; Bussey ran the team well, and Bassler made the first score possible by a long end run. He handles punts like Tyrus Cobb does a fly ball. But let me add a few things that the paper did not say. The Southwestern tackles did not figure in a single play. Golston, Rattan, Osborn and Stewart had these men boxed out of every play. Rattan played the game of his life. There is a minus distance for the total around his end. Osborn and Golston did some fine work advancing the ball. Stiles' work at center was good. He has not made a bad pass in a game so far. G. Stewart, Overton and Lavender did good work at guard. Grover plunged through at the last and blocked a punt, recovering the ball on Southwestern's ten-yard line. Walton's work was exceptionally good on defense. E. Stewart played one of the best games at smashing interference that has ever been seen in this country. He is a man that seldom gets hurt, which makes him valuable at this position.

T. C. U. scored in the first, third and fourth quarters, Cox making all three touchdowns. Most of the gains were made through Southwestern's line. Ware has opened up holes against every team he has played against this season. He is a tower of strength on defense.

First Half.

Southwestern won the toss and chose the goal with a strong wind behind it. T. C. U. elected to kick-off. Southwestern failed to make first downs and punted. Bassler returned the punt about twenty yards. The first play netted fifteen yards through tackle, Cox carrying the ball. After a few gains through the line Cox carried the ball over on a twenty-yard run again through tackle for first touchdown. The whole game was a repetition of this. T. C. U. was never in danger. Not one time did Southwestern have the ball within our forty-yard line. Ray, who replaced Bussey at quarter, played a steady game and ran the team like an old head. After the first touchdown, T. C. U. received the kick and was marching right up the field for another touchdown when the first quarter ended.

The second quarter opened with Southwestern fighting hard in defense of their goal. Varsity advanced the ball right up the field by a series of line plunges and end runs till they were on Southwestern's ten-yard line. Here Southwestern held and Varsity failed to make the required gains in three touchdowns, and Bussey called for a place kick for the goal. A strong wind was blowing at the time, making the kick exceedingly difficult, and Cox failed. This gave the ball to Southwestern on their twenty-yard line, but they could not advance it only by kicking. Robbins, a southpaw punter, did good work for the local team, and booted the ball way down the field for safety. Bassler received the punt in good form, and T. C. U. came marching down the field, slowly but surely. The ball was in possession of T. C. U. on Southwestern's twenty-yard line when time was called for the second quarter to end. During the quarter Overton relieved Lavender at guard, and Hunter Gantt relieved Bassler at left half, who got a hard kick on the head and his neck severely wrenched, making him a little hazy for a time.

Second Half.

In the third quarter the teams changed goals and T. C. U. received the ball. Robbins, kicking for Southwestern, planted his toe well into the "apple," sending it sailing down to within a short distance of the goal line. Walton received the ball

T. C. U. AND THE KINGDOM.

Some people in this state have been prone to criticize Texas Christian University for its alleged lack of effectiveness in advancing the kingdom of God. It has been said that T. C. U. plays little part in a religious way in this state. Such a statement shows merely a lack of knowledge. The editor recently found by a little investigation that the number of conversions that are brought about each year by T. C. U. preachers runs high up into the hundreds. We mean by T. C. U. preachers either students in the University or faculty members who have preaching appointments. There are a large number of students and faculty members who preach regularly each week for churches in this part of Texas and in Oklahoma, not to mention those newer and less experienced students who have irregular appointments. Last year one single member of the faculty, viz., Dr. O. L. Lyon, head of the Department of English Literature, was able to bring 113 persons unto the feet of Jesus; this, too, during his first year in the state of Texas.

Some have suggested that it would be well to keep a careful record of all additions to the church secured under the influence of T. C. U. ministers. But it seems rather useless to take such a course unless some better use can be made of the data thus secured. Critics are not as a rule those who care to help.

Texas Christian University is a light set upon a hill. We are endeavoring to make that light shine as brightly as possible. True, at times it may grow a little dim and we could make improvement within our own walls as well as give help to the neighboring world. These things we are endeavoring to do. If your criticisms are friendly let them come, but also please send therewith your help in a substantial way.

Make the best of the new month before you. You who made poor grades the first month of school now have a chance to redeem yourselves. Get busy.

"Why, Ethel! You don't mean to tell me you want to marry that bald-headed Prof. Wiseman!" Ethel: "It is true he is bald, but think how many young men of today are bald on the inside of their heads."

THE GYMNASIUM WORK.

Every student now has gymnastic instructions at his or her command free of charge. Mr. Charles Frazee, the assistant physical director of the Y. M. C. A., of Fort Worth, has charge of the boys and Miss Valeda V. Hoebel directs the work of the girls. Watch the bulletin boards for announcements concerning class hours.

Absolutely no fees are charged either girls or boys.

Dr. Barton Wells, who was a student of T. C. U. in '08 and '08, now in the Chicago College of Medicine and Surgery, was visiting friends at the University Saturday.

OUR FOOTBALL TEAM.

Who said our team was not a winning one?

You did? Well, you have falsified, my son.

Why, boy, we have a team that can't be beat.

A team that plays the best right off their feet.

They have the grit and use the speed for fair.

What? Nerve and strength? Our whole big line is "there!"

Just look them over for yourself, old boy;

If you're a fan they'll fill your heart with joy.

The other day we gave a yell or two,

And Ware just showed us what his men could do.

He took them down to Georgetown, it is said,

And brought them back with laurels on their heads.

Now, that is not the last they're going to do.

The games we're going to win are not a few.

I tell you, friend, we have a team that's great—

They'll put their names on top of this year's slate.

—Reuben the Po 8.

INTERESTING PROGRAM RENDERED BY CLARK SOCIETY.

One of the most interesting and entertaining programs of this new year was given by the Clarks in their hall Monday morning. The order of the program was entirely unique, each number representing some flower, and it was indeed a "Message of the Flowers." Souvenirs were given consisting of a card on which was tied a beautiful violet, with a purple ribbon. Quite a number of visitors were present, the most distinguished of whom was Mrs. McKinney.

At the regular business meeting the following officers were elected: President, Jane Banard; vice president, Nell Andrew; secretary, Lorena Wright; treasurer, Lola McFarland; parliamentarian, Grace Hackney, and sergeant-at-arms, Willie Thetford. Under the direction of these new officers the Society can do nothing else but prosper. The Clark roll is still increasing, several new names were presented last Monday.

Next Monday's program will be devoted to the study of James Whitcomb Riley. Look for the posters in the hall, you will find an interesting program scheduled. Visitors are welcome and urged to come to hear this instructive program.

NEWS OF ORATORY DEPT.

Mrs. Dines Elected to Assist Miss Reeves.

The Oratory Department is still growing—several new students have enrolled in the last few days. Among them are Misses Shirley, Rutledge, O'Keefe and Mr. Stewart. We are glad to say that all these people and others who desire to study oratory may now be accommodated, for an assistant, Mrs. Dines, has been secured. Mrs. Dines is a graduate of Emerson College and has had several years' experience in teaching oratory. We are highly pleased to know that such a good teacher has been secured, and feel certain that she will be successful, and prove a great help to the department.

Many of the old oratory graduates are teaching this year. Gladys Hudson, graduate in '08, writes that she is enjoying her work in Carr-Burdette. Gladys is "making good," as we always knew she would.

Willie Glenn, '12, is teaching in Van Alstyne. She is also coaching a play for the Culture Club there. She has a large oratory class, and seems to be enjoying the work.

Miss Queen Mars, '08, taught at Hubbard City last year. This year she is coaching plays. She has just given two successful ones at Wortham, Texas.

Mrs. L. D. Parnell, formerly Miss Jeffie Britton, a graduate in '10, is now coaching a play in Waxahachie. Mrs. Parnell spent a few days with Miss Naomi Lockhart this week and all her old friends were glad to see her once more.

The Wednesday Club of Fort Worth has engaged Miss Reeves for a series of three programs for the club year. In December she will read Ibsen's play, "Peer Gynt," the Greig music being played by Mr. Guy Pitner of the city. In January she will read Frances Hodgson Burnett's story, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow." In February, Longfellow's "Hiawatha," Mr. Pitner playing the Coe musical setting.

Ask Catherine Riter, Grace Hackney, Grace Mason, Lela Odel, Catherine Dodd and Jack Baldwin when their "invitations" are to be out.

Mrs. Roberts of Big Springs is visiting her daughter, Eloise, this week.

Mildred Anderson, who is attending Carr-Burdette College, is visiting friends in Jarvis Hall this week.

NEWS BREVITIES.

Mrs. S. E. Marshal of White-wright visited her granddaughters, Mary Lee and Hazel Benedict, a few days the first of the week.

What about a gymnasium for T. C. U.? Talk it up.

Mrs. Veal is visiting her daughter, Ada, this week.

Miss Grace Jones has entered the field of journalism and contributed the write-up of the Walton feast and election of officers found in another column.

Question of the hour: "How many T. C. U. couples did you say married this week?"

Lela Odell and Willie Thetford journeyed to the city last Saturday in search of "A Lost Word" and found a luncheonette at the Johnson-Puckett Pharmacy.

Don't ask the girls to run too fast up the steps. Some of them are not yet over the gymnastic experiences which Miss Hoebel gave them at the last "gym" meeting.

Much improvement is noticed in the yelling as a result of the daily pep meetings.

It is noised about that T. C. U. is going to have a gymnasium. Do not be surprised if you notice in the next issue of the Skiff definite announcements about the gymnasium.

The Shirley and Walton Society members will be glad to learn that Miss Bess McNeill, a member of the 12 graduating class and a staunch Walton, writes for a Shirley pen. She is at Meridian and sends her best wishes to the Shirleys.

Earl Rogers visited home folks again Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Miss Oliver visited home folks at Cleburne at the close of the past week.

Elmore Ethridge spent the weekend out of the city.

Ola Piques' mother visited her Wednesday and Thursday.

The Shirley trophy cup was taken to the Louisville convention by President Kershner for exhibition.

Mrs. Veal is visiting her daughter, Ada, at Jarvis Hall, this week.

Master George Sutton has presented the studio with a mounted hawk that is truly a work of art. His studies of bird life are unusually clever and we hope that his work in this chosen line will be more and more appreciated.

Messrs. Leveridge and Luther did the chalk talk at Sunday school last Sunday morning. A feminine representative of the department will exchange the brush for the crayon next Sunday.

Homer Wallace, the giant guard, went home last week to be present at his brother's wedding. He was missed at the Southwestern game but will be strong against Baylor Saturday.

Miss Maurine Miller visited friends in the city Sunday.

MUSIC ITEMS.

Prof. Agar will give a song recital at the First Christian Church on Thursday night of this week. All who have heard Prof. Agar in previous performances will be anxious to avail themselves of another concert.

The Harmony Class now numbers about twenty-five young ladies. It is a two-hour per week course and is doing very substantial work. You may hear "harmony" floating on the air 'most any time during the week at Jarvis Hall.

MODERN MARY.

Mary had a little skirt
Tied tightly in a bow,
And everywhere that Mary went
She simply couldn't go.

and advanced it twenty yards. Then on and on it came, first with a line plunge, then an end run, or vice versa, until the ball was well into Southwestern's territory. Bussey then opened up with some forward passes. One or two worked very well, but Southwestern recovered the ball on an attempted pass on their twenty-yard line and punted it down the field into our territory. But back again it came until Cox had placed it over the goal line and kicked goal. Southwestern kicked again that quarter to T. C. U., who advanced it to their thirty-yard line when time was called for the third quarter.

The fourth quarter opened up with no lack of fight on the part of either team. Southwestern was defending their honor and reputation; T. C. U. had tasted blood, which only made them eager for more, and they went into the game with the warcry, "Let's have another, boys!" and another they did have. At the conclusion of a series of line bucks and end runs, which placed the ball on Southwestern's twenty-yard line, Cox went through the line for his sensational twenty-yard run for the third touchdown. He fell on his head and shoulders when tackled in such a way that caused the coach to take him out and run Bussey at full and Ray at quarter. Hunter in returning a punt in this quarter received a bruise on his leg which necessitated sending Bassler back into the game to relieve him, and the coach sent G. Stewart in to relieve Overton at left guard after T. C. U. had received the ball from the kick-off by Southwestern for the last time. Southwestern was fighting hard, which forced T. C. U. to kick. Osborne downed the man who received the punt in his tracks and Southwestern failed to advance for three downs when they tried to punt. Stewart was off with the snap of the ball and blocked the ball as it left the toe of Robbins, recovering it on Southwestern's ten-yard line, just as time was called ending the game.

Features of Game and Line-Up.

One feature of the game was the absence of penalties imposed on either team. Each team was penalized only twice during the entire game, although Monnig at left end on Southwestern's team was put out of the game for "ruffing." There was also a dearth of forward passes during the game. T. C. U. worked it successfully for three times and failed once; Southwestern failed twice and worked it once, but with a loss in yards to go.

The line-up of the teams were as follows:

T. C. U.—Stiles, center; Ware, right guard; Lavender, Overton, G. Stewart, left guard; Osborne, left tackle; Golsen, right tackle; Rattan, right end; E. Stewart, left end; Bussey, Ray, quarterback; Walton, right halfback; Bassler, left halfback; Cox, Bussey, fullback.

The time of the quarter was 12½ minutes. Referee was Fouts of Baylor. Umpire, Leonard of Texas.

T. C. U. plays their old rival, Baylor University, at Morris Park, Saturday, October 19. The students have been holding vigorous "pep" meetings already and the team is insured of the entire and hearty support of the students when they go against the hated green and gold.

Mrs. Edward Owers is at Austin while her husband is away attending the convention.

Have Sold Good Clothes For Thirty Years

NOTES FROM THE BRUSHERS.

If you are interested in good pictures or care to learn to appreciate good art, come to the art room and study the still life by Miss Littlejohn. These studies have recently been hung in the exhibit room and are well worth your attention. Miss Littlejohn was a student of Wm. Chase, the greatest American teacher of art, who excels particularly in still life, and her work is most creditable to him as a teacher. The beauty that she sees and portrays in common things is a revelation. The vegetables, and pots, and pans, and even the china that we use in the T. C. U. dining room are seen through the artist's eye and become things of beauty. It is really a privilege for the T. C. U. students to have this work before them.

President Kershner took some examples of the work of the Art Department to the Louisville convention, where T. C. U. will be represented by a special booth.

Fine Arts Day at the Dallas Fair was Wednesday. Our department is not represented this year as usual because Mrs. Cockrell has had all she could do in getting the Art Department here in running order again. Mr. Cuprien's work will also be missed, but the art display at the Fair is always the best of its kind and should be visited and studied by all art lovers.

MINISTERIAL DUREAU.

A word to preachers from Dr. Jowett:

"It is imperative," said the great preacher, "that a man begin his ministry with a reverent and almost awful sense of his vocation. Flippancy and superficiality are the very minister's death. The Christian ministry to me is not a profession, but a calling, and the summons is from the great White Throne. We are not in quest of money, we are in quest of souls. If we are flippant, shallow, artificial, we shall be like a withering blast upon the vineyard. Try to realize soberly the tremendous issues that wait upon your ministry."

Dr. Jowett calls Horace Bushnell "an exceedingly masculine saint." Bushnell confessed that on entering the ministry he did not expect to remain long in it, but thought that a professorship of moral philosophy would be more worthy of his powers. He came to see that all other employments were petty and dry compared to the ministry of Jesus Christ.

"The bee that gets the honey, doesn't loaf around the hive."

"The man who has the courage to make mistakes is he who makes good in the battle of life."

"Lose one hour in the morning and you will be all day hunting it."
