THE SCHOOL CALLS YOU

The Game With Poly Will Require Our Best To Make It Creditable.

EVERY STUDENT IS NEEDED

East Side Men Have Strengthened Their Team.

This (Thursday) afternoon we play Poly. This game will be no walk-over as some few thought. Our opponents have been working hard and in the first place they had no team to be ashamed of. They have splendid material and have done some good football playing. They have made a number of important changes in their line-up which is calculated to materially strengthen their team. They are going with their usual pep and they are expecting to win, though they concede that the game will be close. It will take every bit of energy which we can put forth to make a creditable seowing in view of our past high record. If ever a student was needed, yea called, to show his loyalty and interest at a football game it is today.

One thing which we need in this game is to keep close together and do our best at yelling. T. C. U. is well known for her pep, but her yelling has not been of the best order this year which she is able to put up. The young men should stay in the grandstand and show as much pep as the young ladies in yelling, and they should seat themselves among the young ladies to offset the high tones of the girls. At times a number of boys want to be on the side lines and thus they fail to lend the support to the team that it deserves by failing to yell.

Two things, then, you should not fail to do, viz: to go and to yell your best.

LADIES ORGANIZE C. W. B. M. AUXILIARY

Mesdames Alexander, Hall and Williams Are Chosen As Leaders.

Friday afternoon, November 22nd, a number of ladies of the University Church, who are not identified with any missionary society, met in the parlors of Jarvis Hall, for the purpose of organizing a C. W. B. M. Auxiliary.

Mrs. Owers, State President, and Mrs. Terry King, Corresponding Secretary, were present and directed the work.

Nine ladies presented their names for membership and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. I. Alexander; Vice President, Mrs. Colby D. Hall; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. W. M. Williams.

The new auxiliary has planned to observe C. W. B. M. Day, which is the first Sunday in December. Their regular meetings will be held on the first Friday of each month.

WHAT THEY THINK OF OUR STUDENT BODY

Mrs. Haskins said to the editor: "I have been connected with universities for twenty-one years and I want to tell you that I never saw such a noble, highly cultured and well behaved student body in all my experience. You are highly respected by every one who knows you. The business men, and I have met a large majority of them in my work in Ft. Worth,—love T. C. U. and they never get tired praising your students. They were glad to be able to give a few things that could be used here and urged me not to hesitate to call upon them for our needs."

FRIENDS IN OUR NEED

Mesdames Haskins, Harris and Fishburn and Miss Fishburn In Campaign.

BIG THANKSGIVING OFFERING

Business Men and Friends Respond Heartily.

Tuesday Mesdames R. E. Haskins and B. L. Harris two close friends to the university sprung a very pleasant surprise on us by canvassing the city and securing several hundred dollars worth of gifts from friends and patrons, mostly business men, in the city and bringing it to us as a Thanksgiving offering for T. C. U. These ladies deserve the very highest praise for their work. They choose the most opportune time, that of Thanksgiving, and collected gifts which we were severely in need of. Moreover the business men and people who made the gifts deserve and have the best wishes and most hearty thanks from T. C. U. and her students and friends. They responded very liberally and were glad to give and in many instances Mrs. Haskins says, they asked her not to make that the last time we called on them for things which we needed. Both ladies spoke highly of the esteem in which the city people hold T. C. U. and her students and praised the business men highly.

Mrs. Fishburn and her daughter, Miss Lena Fay, came out in their new car to bring the first load of the gifts. Miss Lena Fay was very enthusiastic and cancelled a date to a party to be able to render this service to her school. Both Mrs. Fishburn and her daughter are assisting Mrs. Haskins and Mrs. Harris to complete the canvass.

The collection of gifts consist chiefly of fixtures and furnishings for the dining room, such as glasses, large enameled dishpans, oil cloth, linen crash which Mrs. Haskins made into cup towels, cups, saucers, spoons, small cabinets for each waiter and complete fixtures for a special table which is to be reserved for the Board of Trustees to use when they are here. Bananas and cakes were also donated by generous hearted business men for our Thanksgiving dinner. The list is not yet altogether complete as the ladies have not completed the round which they expect to make. A complete list of the donors and their gifts will be published in the next Skiff.

DR. O. L. LYON CALLED TO ITALY THANKSGIVING DAY.

Dr. O. L. Lyon has been solicited to deliver an address to all the churches of Italy Thanksgiving day and is hence forced to be absent from our various activities at the university. He was especially sorry to have to miss the President's reception and the football game.

Japan is alleged to have no swear words. This may explain its failure to produce a first-class baseball team, which cannot be expected to flourish without language to hurl at the umpire.

CLARK LITERARY SOCIETY ENTERTAINS MEMBERS.

Miss Nell Andrews Offers a Prize for Best Essay. Officers Elected.

Friday evening after attending the Open Session of the Add-Rans, the Clarks immediately went to the parlors of Jarvis Hall where they entertained with a very informal reception in honor of Mrs. Lena Brack Hoover of Amarillo, a charter member of the Clark Literary Society. Our President, Miss Barnard, in a few well chosen words, delivered a hearty greeting to Mrs. Hoover from the society. Mrs. Hoover responded in her most charming way. She expressed herself as being more than pleased with the work and growth of the Society, and that she was glad of the opportunity of meeting the girls who are now members and giving to them words of appreciation.

During the evening Misses Henderson, Hackney and Barnard rendered piano readings, which all enjoyed. Misses Bradford and Kinsey amused us with some funny sketches, while Miss Lois Wilkes gave one of her popular vocal numbers. We also had the pleasure of hearing selections from one of our guests, Miss Jewel Carey. Miss Carey always delights with her vocal readings, and these were especially enjoyed by Mrs. Hoover, and she personally expressed her thanks to Miss Carey. The other guests were Mrs. Lucas, of Sherman, Miss McFarland, Mrs. McKinney our Lady Principal, and Gordon McFarland. We enjoyed having them with us, and hope they may honor us many times.

The refreshments consisted of hot chocolate and vanilla wafers. Mrs. McKinney's bell gave out warning as to the late hour, so all went to their rooms carrying with them in their hearts and minds pleasant thoughts for a good night's dream.

PRIZE FOR BEST ESSAY.

It has been the endeavor of the Clark Society, during its work this year, as well as previous times; to place a great deal of stress on their literary development. Excellent programs have been rendered each morning which has been devoted entirely to the study of the life and works of great literatuers. In order to encourage the efforts that have been put forth by many, and to foster more literary spirit, Miss Nell Andrews has offered to give five dollars to the one who will write the best essay in the Clark Society during the year. This incentive will add much to the encouragement of literary development.

Last Monday the Clarks made a study of the life and works of Shakespeare. Each number on program demonstrated that a great deal of time and study had been spent in preparing their respective parts. A special Thanksgiving program is to be rendered next Monday. Everybody invited to attend.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

At the regular business meeting of the Clarks the following officers were elected: President, Juanita Kinsey; Vice President, Pansy Bozeman; Secretary, Eloise Wagoner; Treasurer, Ola Peguise; Parliamentarian, Grace Hackney; Sargent-at-arms, Jane Barnard. The Society is destined to do good work under the direction of these new officers.

Lon Livsey, Clifton Ferguson, or Adeline Ferguson will receive your Skiff subscription.

DEBATERS SHOW UP WELL IN PRELIMINARY.

T. C. U. Can Well Be Proud of Her Team Chosen for Triangular Debate.

A good surprise was visited upon T. C. U. students Monday night when a number of new men in the school displayed rare ability and tact in debate and proved that the institution had much more talent in this line than it had known of. In the auditorium at this time was held the final preliminary for the triangular debate and a splendid array of argument was presented in an incredibly short time. Each speaker was allowed only seven minutes in which to present his argument and the judges were instructed to pass judgment upon the individual debaters with regard to the weight of their argument and the impressiveness of their speeches.

S. F. Houchins, B. C. Feemster, E. R. Bentley, Basil Hayes, Grady Twyman, Dean LeMaster, M. M. Knight, R. A. Highsmith, J. W. Cockrill, E. L. Gregory and Clifton Ferguson entered the preliminary. The character of speeches was declared high and entirely worthy by those who heard the contest. E. R. Bently, who spoke for the negative of the Recall made easily the best speech of the occasion. Bentley is a new man and all those interested are glad he proved his ability so that we can make use of him. Other strong new men were M. M. Knight, who spoke for the affirmative of the Recall and also made a splendid rebuttal of a number of arguments of the negative, and Basil Hayes, who had the second speech of the affirmative upholding the theory of the Initiative and Referendum and showing the evils in the present system.

The decision of the judges gave the following men places on the final team: E. R. Bentley, Basil Hayes, J. W. Cockrill, M. M. Knight, R. A. Highsmith and Clifton Ferguson, with Dean LeMaster and Grady Twyman as alternates.

T. C. U. can well be proud of her debating teams as well as of her athletic teams and no doubt the former will add much to her glory this year. The affirmative team for T. C. U. will meet the negative team from Southwestern here at Ft. Worth the last Friday night in January while the same night our negative team will meet Trinity's affirmative team at Waxahachie on the subject, Resolved that the Initiative Referendum and Recall should be adopted in Texas." Before this time, however, those who are interested will have the opportunity of hearing our two teams tear holes in each others arguments, for it is the plan that they will hold set debates quite often between this and the time for the final debate. None of the men who were chosen for the teams will know for sometime which side they will uphold in the final debate.

ANNUAL OPEN PROGRAM

Add-Ran Society Entertains Large Audience of Students and Faculty Members.

MEN MAKE GOOD APPEARANCE

Former High Standard of The Society Upheld.

Friday evening the first of the annual open society programs was given by the Add-Ran Literary Society in the University auditorium. The program was well arranged as well as entertainingly rendered, and a large audience of students and faculty members attended.

The program was opened by the President's welcome address delivered by Louie E. Miller Jr. in clear tones and a well modulated voice and with a truly welcome air about him. An instructing and well written paper read by Roy Feemster on "The Spirit of the Balkans" followed. Wilbur Brown followed this with a well delivered declamation on "Education and Responsibility."

The reading of "The Raven" by Poe which was given by J. Lindley Wood was very impressive and Wood showed his usual skill at his art. Miss Elizabeth Henderson accompanied him on the piano.

The paper, "The Man of the Hour" dealt with the victory of the people in the election of Woodrow Wilson and was read by Roscoe Brinson.

One of the best readings which has been delivered on this platform by a student was that by Ernest Grissom, a monologue, "Pro and Con," representing a young man contemplating asking a young lady to marry him and after a long deliberation "pro and con" found that she was to be married to another at that very hour.

The vocal number, a solo by Edwin Ewell, was certainly a unique selection. Ewell has a splendid baritone voice and he made good use of it at this time.

The closing number, the journal, by John Lattimore created a deal of good side-bursting laughter and was artfully read.

Mae Hulsey and Vista Woods spent a few days in Arlington the latter part of the week.

Odessa Allison spent Friday in Jarvis Hall with Juanita Kinsey.

Ada Veale spent Monday in Dallas shopping.

Vera Clanton of Dallas visited her sister Aleora the latter part of the week.

THINGS OF INTEREST IN ORATORY DEPARTMENT.

This is a busy season in the Oratory Department. All are working hard on their text book work, some studying on new readings with which to surprise their home people Christmas, and others are working for the Triangular Debate between Trinity, Southwestern and T. C. U.

The Culture Club of Van Alstyne has just given a play "The Union Station." Miss Willie Glenn, an oratory graduate, of '12, coached the play and took one of the parts. The play was a success in every way, and Miss Glenn is given great praise by the newspapers and people of Van Alstyne for her excellent work.

Two of the oratory students, J. Lindley Wood and Ernest Grissom, appeared on the program in the Add-Ran Literary Society open session. Mr. Wood read "The Raven" by Poe, and Mr. Grissom read "Pro and Con." Both showed talent and the numbers were well rendered.

Miss Reeves will soon begin coaching a play for the Senior class, given to help in the edition of the '13 Horned Frog.

A foreign prince says that American girls are the prettiest in the world. And most of them admit it graciously.

They have had incubators in Egypt since the dawn of history. Tush! They never used the vacuum for a dog's fleas, any way.

"Remember, my son, that beauty is only skin deep," warned the sage. "That's deep enough for me," replied the young man. "I'm no cannibal."—The Daedalian Monthly.

According to many millionaires, any man can become rich. But after looking at some of them, who wants to?

POINTED OBSERVATIONS ON STUDENT LIFE.

Girls and Their Dresses.

I wish that some of our young ladies could appreciate the wisdom of dressing plainly and neatly, not gaudily. Now lest some one anxious to raise a kick get excited and think here is another chance, let me say that conditions are not really bad and so far as I know no one is wearing $500.00 dresses. But some of our girls seem to think they should dress to the very limit of their means and flaunt their costly frills and gew-gaws and "imported" materials to make the best appearance in the eyes of the young men. But let me say, as a member of that sex, that the valuable young man is not to be impressed in any such way.

As a real Thanksgiving for the splendid opportunities of school life and of cultured associations it seems that it would be well to leave off those costlier and more gaudy apparels from this day forth. You will make the girls who cannot afford to wear costly clothes feel much better and will raise your own standard in the eyes of those worthy of your consideration.

It has been well said in the past that the girls in T. C. U. act toward each other as sisters and that they dress sanely and neatly. Let that continue to be said and said truly.

UNKNOWN.

A "NEW" GIRL'S LETTER TO HER FRIEND AT HOME

REUBEN THE POS

You know that I told you I was coming here For an adventure in a school so rough. I came just to civilize the savage queer. I heard through "Unknown" that all the boys were tough: The girls that were here were foolish and silly, too— Make noise in chapel was all that the crowd could do.

I boarded the car at Main and Seventh Streets. I expected to stand, breathe smoke, smell feet and such; But lo! twenty boys did offer me their seats. I looked, but in vain, for feet talked of so much. Believe me, that the boys were nice and the girls were queens. "Unknown" has much wronged them all by his street car scenes.

I stopped at Main Hall and expected to meet A girl with a ton of furs and bales of rats, With wax on her cheeks and peanut shells on her feet. And then yards of junk all made into a hat. Not so, for the girls that I see are nice and neat; 'Tis strange that "Unknown" with others should meet.

Inside of Main Hall I looked for smoke so thick— Expected there to see all boys with pipe in blaze. In vain I did snuff for odors that make you sick, In vain I did look for clouds of bluish haze; But things all in peace and order to me they did seem. Me thinks that "Unknown" himself has had a pipe dream.

I found that our chapel was not what I had heard; Gum chewers, peanut crackers and such are seldom seen. I sat in the rear and listened and heard every word; I found that poor speakers were few and far between. I think that "Unknown" is wrong in his view "on life;" Our school seems to him, not us, to be discord and strife.

Dear friend, I didn't find the school that I had thought, My spirit of adventure is changed to duty now, And true a life interest I have bought. I feel that I was misled some way, some how. For strange it is just how "Unknown" can't see These things as they are to others and to me.

They used to say that football was an awfully rough game before politics got to be so unladylike.

Man in Baltimore demands a divorce because his wife is deaf and dumb. Casting pearls, as it were.

California man committed suicide because he was deserted by his wife. Excessive joy often causes insanity.

$668,684 was wasted on the "Bull Moose" campaign. I wonder if Teddy doesn't really feel down deep in his heart that he could have done better by the "dear people" by contributing this to colleges. T. C. U. could have made use of some of this in her endowment fund.

LATEST SUBSCRIBERS TO CLARK HALL FUND

On account of being in attendance upon the Lectureship in Longview this week I have given little time to soliciting funds for Clark Hall. Last Lord's Day Dr. Kershner preached at McKinney both morning and evening where he was well received and made a fine impression. In fact he makes good everywhere, and is rapidly bringing the churches in closer and more vital touch with T. C. U. by his plan of preaching to the various congregations just as fast as he can get to them—and he preaches to one, and sometimes two churches, each Sunday. Next Sunday he is to preach at Abilene at the morning hour, and at Sweetwater in the evening. I preached for Pastor Hugh McClellan at Melissa last Lord's Day and enjoyed the fellowship of him and his good people.

One ship drives east, and another we set With the self-same winds that blow; 'Tis the set of the sails And not the gales, Which decides the way to go. Do not fail to go to the Thanksgiving football game.

"The Slate" of the Phillips University, formerly known as Oklahoma University, considered our Skiff article written by "UNKNOWN" on "Feet, Just Feet" so good and so applicable to conditions in that school that it printed a complete copy of the same.

As a mark of courtesy and respect to our worthy opponents do not forget to cheer them before leaving the grand stand after we defeat them to-day. (Thursday)

Poly is working hard and has been ever since we defeated them so badly to get in splendid shape for the Thanksgiving game. It will be no walk over. You should by all means go out and support the team.

Watch for announcements regarding the Poly game this afternoon. Special cars will carry the students.

MINISTERIAL BUREAU.

OUR BOY PASTOR.

The following are extracts from a letter received a few days ago from Baccus, by Bro. Owers, the writer says: "I am writing to thank you for making the selection you did. Brother Stovall preached his first sermon on Saturday night, I think he did real well for a beginner. Every one I have heard express themselves are very much pleased with our boy preacher. Of course we did not expect him to do as well as one who had years of experience, for we knew he was a student, so he did better than we expected. I believe that he will sometime be a great preacher and leader in our cause."

Henry Hagermire has accepted a unanimous call to the pastorate of Riverside church, he takes charge of this new work next Sunday.

Logan Martin visited Windom last Sunday, he has been invited to return.

William Jones preached at Kieburg last Saturday night and Sunday. He is considering a proposition to this congregation once a month.

Edward Owers preached for the congregation at Ennis, last Sunday. There were two additions, one by letter and one by confession and baptism. He also addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m.

After all the kind of world one carries about in one's self is the important thing, and the world outside takes all its grace, color and value from that.
—James Russell Lowell.

Be noble; and the nobleness that lies in other men, sleeping, but never dead, Will rise in majesty to meet thine own; Then shalt thou see it gleam in many eyes,
Then will pure light about thy way be shed,
And thou wilt nevermore be sad and lone.
—James Russell Lowell.

Father, we thank Thee for the day just ending, for the beauty in thy world, for the goodness in life and for the love of all our brothers. May we carry into the quiet rest of the night the benediction of this day. May all our dreams be pure and hopeful. Protect the hidden man of the heart in sleep that no fears may come to disturb or evil imaginings to stain, the soul. On the morrow give us the courage to face our tasks without fret or strain, and the vision to see only the best in everybody and in everything. Amen.—Samuel V. V. Holmes.

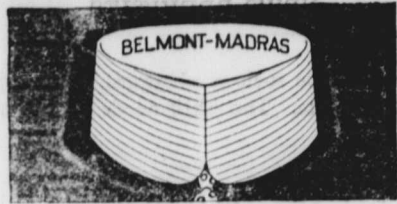

TRUE BELIEF.

A mere acceptance of the fact of Love, Of God above,
Of all the vast Omnipotence Of Him, our Maker and Defence,
Is not believing; but to fight Aggressively to spread His light,
To strive for Him incessantly, without relief,
Unyielding in the Right!
—John Kendrick Bangs.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL RECEPTION GIVEN

Halls and Parlors Beautifully Decorated in Vari-Colored Autumn Leaves.

PROMINENT GUESTS ATTEND

Members of T. C. U. Musical Faculty Help Entertain.

One of the most successful events of the year was held last Wednesday night in the parlors of Jarvis Hall when President F. D. Kershner and the faculty gave their annual reception. Some three hundred guests were present and every one looked and acted like they were happy and knew we could win the game to be played the following day. A feature of the occasion and one which lent dignity to it was the appearance of a number of the senior boys in full evening dress.

Mrs. McKinney, matron of Jarvis Hall, received the guests at the door in her genial manner and ushered them down the reception line consisting of the members of the faculty and some distinguished members of the board and friends of the board and other friends and patrons of the school who were present. The reception line was headed by the pleasant president of the institution, Prof. Kershner.

After meeting the members of the faculty the guests easily found the punch bowl which was a veritable fountain of delicious fruit punch that seemed never to run dry.

If not before the guests by this time gradually lost themselves in the crowds or chatted as they walked the long halls always and everywhere meeting with happy friends and often finding former students of the institution who had just come in from the train. The reception hall, the two parlors and the long hall connecting the South and the North entrances of the building were all beautifully decorated with the rich-colored autumn leaves which the Forest Park and neighboring woods furnish so abundantly. The decorations were arranged the day before by a number of students under the supervision of Miss W. I. Birge.

During the evening a short musical program was rendered consisting of a solo and an encore by Mr. Frank C. Agar, director of voice in T. C. U.; a piano solo by musical director F. Arthur Johnson, and a violin solo by Miss Lucy Ault, violin director with Mr. Techau instructor in piano as accompanist.

A large number of the medical students were present and entered heartily into the festivities. Among the other distinguished guests were, trustees C. W. Gibson of Waxahachie, J. L. Cassell, of Ft. Worth, Major J. J. Jarvis, and wife, of Ft. Worth, Dr. Woodard of this city and Mr. Rogers, a prominent real estate man of this city with his wife, together with a large number of alumni and former students.

MISS THETFORD ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

Miss Lena Carrell of Godley was here Thursday and Friday visiting Miss Willie Thetford at the home of Prof. and Mrs. C. I. Alexander. Miss Thetford entertained Thursday evening in honor of her with what she meant for a forty-two party, but the guests became so much interested in telling stories, listening to piano and vocal music and cracking pecans that the game of forty-two did not materialize.

CAPT. "BLUE" RATTAN TROPHY IS PRESENTED

Star End Unanimously Chosen to Lead T. C. U. Warriors Next Year.

COACH MAKES TALK TO TEAM

Compliments Team and Urges Them to Keep up Athletics.

Following the last game of the season with Poly Thanksgiving at a meeting of the entire Varsity squad in the lobby of the Natatorium hotel, presided over by Coach Willis Stewart, "Blue" Rattan, sometimes called "Rabian," was elected as captain of the football team for 1913. Every member of the squad who had played in an association game was allowed to vote. No nominations were made, but after a few remarks by the coach in which he complimented the team on its selection of "Bun" Ware as Captain of the team for this year saying he was sure that any man that the team might select to lead them next year would be worthy and capable of the position, that each man was to use his own opinion in voting and he believed they would cast it for the man whom, in their judgment, they thought to be the best man for captain of the State Champion football team for the coming year. As a result of the first ballot, Rattan was declared elected captain of the team for 1913.

In response to a call for a speech, the newly elected Captain arose and declared that he was not a speaker and hoped to show his appreciation of the honor bestowed upon him in his efforts to hold up the standard set by the present captain by leading a winning varsity upon the football gridiron next year. He said he realized, however, how impossible it would be to do this by himself; how necessary it was for him to have help, and that he hoped that every member of this year's squad would remain in school throughout this year and return next fall with the intention of making a place on the champion team of the Southwest for 1913. "And by all means fellows," he said, "if you know or hear of a good player, or someone that might make a good player, use your influence in trying to get him in school next year, and let me have his name and address so I can write to him."

The Coach then briefly addressed the team for the last time, saying in part: "Fellows, I am going to catch a train for Nashville at 6:36 and so it will be impossible for me to attend the banquet Prof. Dacus has provided for you, and I want to say a one last word to you before we separate. I can't tell you how I have enjoyed being associated with you fellows these three

CHAPEL PROGRAM FEATURE

"Bingo" Parks Receives Cup in Behalf of the Team.

In chapel Saturday an interesting and important feature of the program was the presentation of the beautiful silver trophy to Manager "Bingo" Parks of one of the most successful football teams which has ever represented the university. The award was made with a very appropriate and brief talk by Grantland Anderson, a graduate from T. C. U. with the class of '11. Mr. Anderson is now an enterprising young business man in the city of Ft. Worth and it was as a representative of his firm, Sprinkle, Anderson and Glenn, a shoe firm at 705, Houston Street, that he made this award. He very aptly expressed his confidence in his alma mater and in her representatives on the gridiron and stated that he was glad to have the honor of making this little gift for his firm as a recognition of their splendid work.

Manager Parks gracefully accepted the gift and expressed the gratitude of the team and the school which he represented for the interest and support which the firm of Sprinkle, Anderson and Glenn have given to athletics and to Texas Christian University.

At the first of the year it was announced at this university and at Polytechnic College that this firm would give a silver trophy to the school whose team won the Thanksgiving game. Consequently as the winners of this game the award was made to T. C. U. Everyone connected with the university and especially the student body and the team which represents them is very grateful to this enterprising firm.

C. W. B. M. CONDUCTS CHURCH SERVICE.

The ladies of the local auxiliary of the Christian Women's Board of Missions conducted the church service Sunday night at University church. Mrs. Nye read from the 14th chapter of Mark and the Y. W. C. A. quartette furnished special music.

Brother Hall's sermon showed the excellent work of the C. W. B. M., taking for his text 'the words, "She hath done what she could."

POLY AGAIN OVERWHELMED

T. C. U. Wallops Her Rivals in a Hard Fought Game Winning by Score of 21 to 7.

WARE'S MEN FIGHT HARD PLAYING GLASSY BALL

At Times the Poly Warriors Show Real Football Ability Finally Pushing Over a Lone Touchdown.

The expected happened. Poly went down in defeat in her last vigorous struggle. The story of the fight she put up is told in the score; 21 to 7. This single score was made by Poly in the last quarter, after a long and vigorous effort to push the ball over our goal line. At last Poly secured the ball at a point within a few yards of our goal and the sturdy purple and white were unable to strengthen the line as they had done so many times this year, and the ball went over after some good line plunging on Poly's part and splendid defense in T. C. U.'s line.

The three goals made by the T. C. U. warriors, however, were thoroughly satisfactory to the hundreds of spectators and our boys were rightly adjudged a team of first rank. Two of our scores were made in the second quarter by Cox and Bassler; and the third in the last quarter by Rattan with a spectacular 70 yard run.

Cox, our all-star fullback, was easily one of the stars of the game. Rattan, who has made a remarkable showing during the year as end and in one game as quarterback, was also a stellar player. Bassler, one of Cox's sturdy associates in the back field, made splendid and sure gains throughout the game as he has done through the entire season. Miller, Poly's fullback was easily the star for the red and black.

This is the last game of this season, as the Haskel Indian game has been called off. T. C. U. holds a splendid record of high scores and has only lost one game out of the eleven played this season.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

T. C. U. losing the toss to Poly elects to receive at west goal. Cox kicks off for T. C. U. and Miller returns twenty-five before he is downed. Darnell begins his attack on T. C. U. line by sending Neil through for two but is tackled so hard that he drops the ball and T. C. U. falls on it. Bussey follows Darnell's tactics by calling Ed Stewart back and sending him straight through for three, then two and Cox follows with ten. Walton tries for one and then Bussey fails. Poly's line holds and Ed Stewart makes no gain over tackle. Cox tries the shift formation, with which he has made so long gains but Poly has at last solved the trick of breaking it up and John P. makes no gain, and the ball returns to Poly. Young tries tackle around for three. Fullback Miller tries to plough Grover but is thrown for a loss. Darnell attempts right end for two but Golson and Ware ruin his chances. Darnell punts fifteen to Bassler. Walton fails around left end and Bassler takes fifteen around right end. Walton tries again for fifteen and Cox takes three over guard. Bussey finds that Poly's ends are playing too close in and sends Bassler around for twenty. Walton no gain. Cox gets three but is called back and a penalty of five

T. C. U. GETS TEXAS CHRISTIAN LECTURESHIP.

Students Cheer at Announcement of Faculty's Success in Securing this Event

Saturday President Kershner made the announcement at chapel that the Texas Christian Lectureship had accepted the invitation of the faculty to hold the Lectureship at the university next year and was greeted by an enthusiastic cheer from the student body. A number of cities were working for the lectureship, it was said, and it was after no little discussion that it was decided to bring this event to this institution, although in reality this seems to be the logical place for it to be held, for the school is naturally the place for such an educational program and furthermore it is centrally located for our brotherhood.

Let's make our visitors welcome when they come next year.

MINISTERIAL BUREAU.

OUR BOY PASTOR.

The following are extracts from a letter received a few days ago from Baccus, by Bro. Owers, the writer says: "I am writing to thank you for making the selection you did. Brother Stovall preached his first sermon on Saturday night, I think he did real well for a beginner. . . . Every one I have heard express themselves are very much pleased with our boy preacher. Of course we did not expect him to do as well as one who had years of experience, for we knew he was a student, so he did better than we expected. I believe that he will sometime be a great preacher and leader in our cause."

Henry Hagermire has accepted a unanimous call to the pastorate of Riverside church, he takes charge of this new work next Sunday.

Logan Martin visited Windom last Sunday, he has been invited to return.

William Jones preached at Kleburg last Saturday night and Sunday. He is considering a proposition to this congregation once a month.

Edward Owers preached for the congregation at Ennis, last Sunday. There were two additions, one by letter and one by confession and baptism. He also addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m.

After all the kind of world one carries about in one's self is the important thing, and the world outside takes all its grace, color and value from that.

—James Russell Lowell.

Be noble; and the nobleness that lies in other men, sleeping, but never dead, Will rise in majesty to meet thine own; Then shalt thou see it gleam in many eyes,

Then will pure light about thy way be shed,
And thou wilt nevermore be sad and lone.

—James Russell Lowell.

Father, we thank Thee for the day just ending, for the beauty in thy world, for the goodness in life and for the love of all our brothers. May we carry into the quiet rest of the night the benediction of this day. May all our dreams be pure and hopeful. Protect the hidden man of the heart in sleep that no fears may come to disturb or evil imaginings to stain, the soul. On the morrow give us the courage to face our tasks without fret or strain, and the vision to see only the best in everybody and in everything. Amen.—Samuel V. V. Holmes.

TRUE BELIEF.

A mere acceptance of the fact of Love, Of God above,
Of all the vast Omnipotence Of Him, our Maker and Defence,
Is not believing; but to fight Aggressively to spread His light,
To strive for Him incessantly, without relief,
Unyielding in the Right!

—John Kendrick Bangs.
