THE OLD MEN'S DECLAMATORY

Contest Takes Place Tonight. Much Interest is Being Shown by Both Societies

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the University auditorium the Old Men's Declamatory contest will be held under the auspices of the Add-Ran and Shirley Literary Societies. Six men from each society will contend for honors. Crawford Reeder, Amarillo; J. Lindley Wood, Merton; J. Allen Rawlins, Lancaster will represent the Add-Rans. E. Carl Tomlinson, Hillsboro; Horace Jones, Fort Worth; and Carroll McConnell, Palo Pinto will do service for the Shirleys.

This is the first regular society contest of the year. The Society debate and New Mens Declamatory contest coming in the spring term. Only men who have appeared in public contest in T. C. U. before are eligible to the contest to-night. There are three former first place men among those named above. The other three men have ranked high in one or more similar programs. Every indication points to one of the strongest and most evenly contests which has been held for years.

ALUMNI HAVE BANQUET IN DALLAS.

Last Friday at the Elite Cafe in Dallas about 30 T. C. U. Alumni and teachers sat around a banquet board. Bob Williams presided over the meeting. In the discussion which followed there were two questions brought up for consideration. First, the present conditions and outlook for athletics in T. C. U. Second, the mission and possibility of the T. C. U. Grad. The hope was expressed that the Grad be made the organ of all Alumni chapters of the association. The question of getting dates arranged for the next year's football games was considered. Among those who were asked to speak on the above subject were: Dean W. B. Parks, Bonner Frizzell, G. P. Brous, E. R. Cockrell, President Kershner, Colby D. Hall. Among others present were Joe Clark of the Sam Houston Normal; Prof. Holloway, Stephenville; Ebe Frizzell; Clifton Ferguson and wife; Katherine Ritter; and practically all of the Dallas chapter.

SOPHOMORES MAKE FOOTBALL CHALLENGE

Tuesday in the dining room a sophomore representative made a challenge to the other University classes for football games to decide the University championship.

T. C. U. ORCHESTRA PLAYS AT THE HIPPODROME.

Last Sunday at a meeting of men at the Hippodrome theatre which was addressed by Mr. L. A. Coulter, state committee-man of the Y. M. C. A. the T. C. U. Orchestra furnished music. At the conclusion of the program a unanimous vote of thanks was given the boys from T. C. U.

OPERATION FATAL TO MISS TOT ESTES

Goes Home For Minor Operation. Dies Without Recovering From Anaesthetic.

People about the University were shocked when on last Tuesday the message reached them that Miss Tot Estes was dead. She had left the University Saturday night for Midland where she expected to have the family doctor remove her tonsils. Every other way she was one of the healthiest and the happiest girls in the University. As far as the Skiff has been able to learn she had been given the anesthetic and her tonsils removed when the surgeon discovered that he had left a shred of one of the tonsils and made an effort to remove it but in doing so he cut an artery and in less than two minutes the patient had bled to death.

Miss Estes had entered the school in September but had made for herself a host of friends. Her genial way and happy disposition made her beloved by the student body as a whole, and when the sad news reached the university they were almost paralyzed with sorrow. An appropriate message was wired the family and a pretty floral offering sent in the name of the faculty and student body of the University. In chapel Saturday it was voted to send the following letter.

Nov. 29' 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Estes,
Midland, Texas.

Dear Friends:

We heard with sorrow the news of your recent bereavement in the loss of your beloved daughter—our friend and fellow student.

Accordingly, in a meeting of the entire faculty and student-body of Texas Christian University it was unanimously voted that we extend to you our sincere sympathy in this sad hour and invoke upon you the blessings of the great God of love.

That He may comfort your saddened hearts and give you strength, is the wish of

The Faculty and Student-Body of Texas Christian University.

Committee:
Dean W. B. Parks
Mrs. Margaret L. Sargent
E. R. Bentley

HORACE JONES ELECTED BUSINESS MANAGER OF HORNED FROG

At a meeting of the Junior class Horace Jones of Ft. Worth was elected as Business Manager of 1915 Horned Frog. Mr. Jones will serve during this year as Assistant Manager to Carl Tomlinson of the 1914 Frog. The class plans to elect the editor-in-chief in the very near future so he can become familiar with the work by working with the present editorial staff.

MRS. DACUS' FATHER DEAD.

Mr. Frank Ogle, father of Mrs. J. A. Dacus, died Wednesday morning at 2:30, at his home in Oak Cliff, Dallas. Mr. Ogle was 69 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Dacus went to Dallas Thursday to be present at the funeral services. The Skiff extends sympathy to the family.

PRESIDENT KERSHNER GOES TO BALIMORE

Dr. Frederick D. Kershner president of Texas Christian University, left last night for Baltimore, Md., where the executive committee of the American Federation of Churches is in session.

Dr. Kershner is a member of the executive council. Representatives from every Protestant religious body in the United States are members of this council. The executive meeting is an annual one and one of the greatest importance, as it pertains to the business side of the great union religious conference held each year by the Protestant churches of America.

From Baltimore Dr. Kershner goes to New York City on an errand of business connected with Texas Christian University.

TEXAS STATE CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION

Met in Fort Worth. Patrick Henry On the Program

The Texas State Conference of Charities and Corrections met in Fort Worth at the First Methodist Church on Nov. 30, and continued through December 2. The object of this conference is thus, on their official program:

"The Texas Conference of Charities and Corrections is intended as a clearing house for charitable and correctional work in the State. It aims to unify all, to interfere with none, and to promote sane, conservative, healthy reform in all charitable and correctional methods."

Prof. Patrick Henry, Principal of T. C. U. College of business, delivered an address on Monday on the subject of "The State's Duty to the Delinquent Girl". The program shows quite an array of talent. Among the most prominent ones on the program were: Prof. C. S. Potts, State University; Dr. John A. Rice, Fort Worth; Dr. W. S. Lockhart, Houston; Supt. A. W. Evans, Gatesville; Prof. A. C. Ellis, State University; Rabbi George Fox, Fort Worth; Capt. Ben E. Cagle; Tom Finty, Jr., Dallas News.

COCKRILL-TOWNSEND NUPTIALS

The many readers of the Skiff will be glad to learn of the marriage of J. Willard Cockrill to Miss Clara Townsend at Gorman, Texas, Nov. 26. Mr. Cockrill, or J. Willard, as he was familiarly known in T.C.U., was a student in the University for three years graduating in '13, coming from Benton, Ill. While in the institution he made many friends by his congenial disposition, his loyalty to every phase of college activities, and his clean life. The bride is also well known to T. C. U. students having been in the institution for two years. Miss Townsend was friend to every one she knew and beloved by all. This high esteem could not have been better manifested than by the many beautiful presents that were given by her friends as a token of the high regard in which she was held.

The wedding party was made up almost entirely of T. C. U. students. Those present from T. C. U. were Misses Elizabeth Henderson, Fronie Clausell, Amboline Tyson, Minnie Proctor, Mr. Ray Camp, Robert Lines and R. A. Highsmith, the latter performing the ceremony.

The Skiff wishes to express its congratulations to both. May the romance begun in this institution bring to them many happy, prosperous days.

T. C. U. PANTHERS LOSE TURKEY GAME.

One Lone Touchdown by Dallas University Near End of Third Quarter.

The hardest game of the season was lost to Dallas U. last Thursday at Dallas by a score of 6 to 0. The one touchdown decided the game and it came as the result of a lucky recovery of a fumble by Gibbons of Dallas U. on T. C. U. 20 yard line, within 3 minutes of the end of 3rd quarter. T. C. U. played Dallas U. off her feet in the first and last quarters but was unable to cross their goal line. Dallas U. outplayed them at critical moments and won as a result of this advantage.

T. C. U. received the kick at the beginning of the game and defended the west goal. Stewart received the kick and returned 10 from the 20 yard line.

The first play, an attempted forward pass, Griffin to McNamara, was incomplete. On second down Parker went through for 4 yards; Stewart followed with 1, and McKown added 8.

On first down Griffin failed to gain and Parker was sent through for 5; McKown added 4, and Parker again made 3. Griffin then made 2, Parker 1 and Bivins 7. On first down Griffin fumbled and Waggoner recovered. Griffin then made 4 and sent McKown around left end for 12.

Parker on first down made 4; Griffin addeq 4, and Stewart 2, placing the ball on Dallas U.'s 8 yard line. On first down T. C. U. was offside and received a penalty of 5 yards. Second down Griffin lost 4; forward pass to Clarke failed on 3rd, and Reeder was called on for drop kick but failed.

The ball went over to Dallas U. on their 15 yard line. Rieger on first down gained 1 yard, Albrecht added another and Giegg fumbled, then recovered. Rieger again made 1; Albrecht failed and Gregg gained 1. Dallas U. then punted 25 yards to Griffin, who returned 5. T. C. U.'s ball in mid field.

Parker on first down went through for 4 and Stewart skirted right end for 6. Griffin then lost 1 and sent Bivins through for 3. Parker gained 4 through the line and Griffin punted 10. McConnell was downed in his tracks with no return. Rieger went around right end for 6 yards and the quarter ended with the ball in Dallas U.'s possession on her 25 yard line.

The second quarter began with second down for Dallas U. and 4 to make. Rieger failed to gain and Albrecht gained 1, and Rieger punted. A bad bound carried the ball past Griffin and he was downed on T. C. U.'s 1 yard line. First down, Parker gained 1 yard; Stewart failed, McKown 5, and Griffin punted out of bounds. Dallas U.'s ball on T. C. U.'s 25 yard line, Rieger went through for 3, Gregg 2, and Albrecht failed. On 4th down and 5 to make, Gibbons tried field goal and failed. T. C. U.'s ball on D. U. 15 yard line. First down, McKown lost 1; Parker gained 4 and Bivins 7. First down, Parker 3, McKown 5, Parker 2 and Bivins 3. First down, Griffin gained 1, McKown failed, and Dill intercepted an attempted forward pass to Clarke. First down, D. U., McConnell gains 11 around left end. First down, Rieger gains 3, Gregg 5, and Albrecht 2. First down, Gregg fails; Rieger 3; Albrecht fails; Clarke intercepts forward pass

EDITORIALS.

WE ARE FROM T. C. U.

Are we proud to say that we are from T. C. U? The Christmas holidays will soon be upon us and we will depart for our homes. Why not let people know where we are attending school? We suggest that there be prepared a thousand little buttons similar in size and design to the organized Bible School class pin but with the rim in purple and the letters T. C. U. in the white center. These buttons will cost but little and will be splendid advertisers and unobtrusive. The Skiff is willing to make a liberal donation towards buying these buttons. Let us have them.

OUR FOOTBALL TEAM.

The football season is closed. The record is a matter of history. What has it been? We were not permitted to play colleges of our own ranking but notwithstanding, we developed a respectable team which we believe compared favorably with that of Baylor, Trinity, Southwestern and A. and M. But, be that as it may, our team made a record of which we are proud. It was clean, absolutely clean. Every man on the team would have been eligible to intercollegiate membership had the school been in the association. We took the medicine prescribed by the T. I. A. A. like men and are proud to hold our 1913 record up for inspection.

It ought to be said that there has never been a team in the history of the University that deserves more praise for the work done than the team just disbanded. They have been faithful and loyal to the University and the student body. Day after day they reported to practice. Every sacrifice which a player must make was made by these fellows. All this loyalty was in the face of discouragement and obstacles. No reward could be held out to them. Very little honor or recognition could be gained by the individuals yet they worked as faithfully as they could have worked had we been in the largest college football association in the country. All honor to the gridiron warriors of 1913.

A word of appreciation should be said for Frederick Cahoon, who lent his time and energy in behalf of the team. He was employed to teach violin, and he does teach violin, but he took time on the side to coach football. Not only that, but he has been untiring in his efforts to build new tennis and basketball courts; to develop, in general, an all-round interest in athletic activities, and to put T. C. U. in her proper place and attitude before the people of Texas.

BAYLOR'S SHAME.

The morning papers on last Friday carried the following Associated Press report:

"Lieutenant E. D. Johnson, Third Cavalry, United States army, from Fort Sam Houston, was assaulted and badly beaten about the face today by students of Baylor University after the completion of a game with Southwestern University, and Charles V. Braun, of Waco, received a scalp wound.

"During the progress of the game Lieutenant Johnson, as referee, put J. S. Leach, player of Baylor (Baptist), out of the game for slugging and later put out two Southwestern (Methodists) players. When the game was over a large number of Baylor students closed in on Lieutenant Johnson and he was badly beaten up, and Braun, coming to the assistance of his fellow official, was also assaulted. Johnson was appointed to West Point from Oregon and was graduated in 1909."

The Waco Morning News says that the rowdyism of the Baylor students started during the forenoon when a large number of them marched through the streets and tried to interfere with street car traffic. They gathered in the center of the tracks in a bunch and halted the cars, making it necessary for the police to drive them from the tracks. After they were forced off the tracks, trolleys were pulled from the line, which resulted in the arrest of one of the students. The News further states that after the removal of Leach students on the side line showed a very ugly spirit, shouting at their players to "Kill 'em", "Twist his neck", "Slug him", etc.

This occurrence is not only a shame on Baylor, but upon all Texas. The purpose of this editorial is not to bring more discredit upon Baylor, but it is written with the hope that every college student-body in Texas may be brought to abhor conduct of this kind and thus create sentiment among the students which will make a recurrence of this disgraceful affair impossible. The great majority of Texas college students are opposed to such conduct now, but they are not outspoken enough to keep the minority always in subjection. The Baylor Coach expressed the feeling of the better class of college men when as he was leaving the scene of assault he was followed by the mob of about 200 students he turned and cried, "I'm ashamed of this. Think of it; a Baylor crowd goes onto the field after a game and beats up two officials. I want to tell you it is disgraceful; it's a disgrace to the school. Isn't it an honor; shouldn't a man be proud to be connected with a thing like this? I tell you that the referee was right."

In commenting editorially upon the occurrence the Megaphone published by the students of Southwestern University has the following to say:

"We deplore very much that such news should be spread over the country as coming from Texas. We are loyal to Southwestern, loyal to Baylor, loyal to Polytechnic, loyal to T. C. U., loyal to Texas and so on, individually, but everyone who lives within the shadow of the Lone Star Banner is a Texan at heart and anything that mars the escutcheon of Texas as a State hurts the pride of all. Would that it had not happened!"

But since it did it seems to us that Baylor should do everything possible to wipe out the stain. It seems to us that it should be done at once, too. Until one can learn what gentlemanly conduct is, the quicker and oftener he is reminded the better it is. We are not unfriendly to Baylor. The name of our State is very dear to us."

Let this serve as a lesson to Baylor and her sister institutions; teaching them that our intercollegiate athletics must be absolutely clean and that true sportsmanship demands that men conduct themselves like gentlemen in the hour of defeat as well as in the time of triumph.

WHAT BAYLOR NEEDED.

"Lieutenant Johnson, 3rd Cavalry, U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Sam Houston, was assaulted and badly beaten today by students of Baylor University after a football game which Johnson refereed."—Houston Post.

What Baylor needed was not just Lieutenant Johnson but the whole U. S. Army. Maybe Huerta could use these Baylor Hotbloods.

PATRICK, THE PILOT

A copy of the Skiff, a paper published in Fort Worth, in the interest of the Texas Christian University, has been received at the Sun office with request that we suggest any change we thought best to improve the publication, as they are studying journalism and gladly receive advice. We have no suggestions to make since it seems to be sailing smoothly, and should they run into a gale, all they will have to do is to call in Patrick Henry, who can pilot them through any storm. May the Skiff always have easy sailing.—Grand Saline Sun.

THE WORLD DO MOVE.

"We don't know where we are going but we are on our way." The Oregon legislature enacted a statute prohibiting the sale of snuff. A dealer ignored the law and was arrested and fined. He appealed the case and received a rude jolt. The supreme court of the state sustained the constitutionality of the law and affirmed the case.—Ft. Worth Record.

Shame on the Oregon legislature. It has ruthlessly murdered our idol, "Personal Liberty." Jake Wolters should tie himself off to Salem and demand that the Oregon legislature and supreme court be abolished.

A NEW DAILY BY JOE MURRAY.

Sulphur Springs, Nov. 28.—The Morning Telegram, a new daily paper, made its appearance in Sulphur Springs yesterday. Messrs. Joe J. Murray and John G. Flowers are the owners, editors and business managers and the Gazette of this city has the contract to do the mechanical work. The first issue carries six pages of good, snappy reading matter and neatly displayed "ads," reflecting credit upon the editors and putting Sulphur Springs forward as a live, progressive little city.—Ft. Worth Record.

Joe J. Murray is a graduate of T. C. U. College Press congratulates Joe and Sulphur Springs. We wish for the Telegram a long and useful career.

EDITORIAL TROUBLES.

State Press of the Dallas News copies a recent editorial from the Skiff in which we lamented the typographical condition of a previous issue of the paper. He has the following to say:

"The stream of journalism runs not more smoothly than the course of true love. There be thorns under the editorial roses and flies in the publisher's ointment. Many err and are ignored. The editor errs and the world quarrels with him or scoffs at him or sues him for damages. The only way on earth to avoid typographical errors is to avoid type. But, say, isn't it comfortable sometimes to be able to lay one's mistakes on the printer or the proofreader, who is always supposed not to care a ding one way or another?"

THE GRACE CLUB.

Since the time of the ancients the number of graces has been multiplied by two for now there are six in our university. Still they go in pairs and the ancient three is only doubled. The modern Euphiases are Mary Grace Muse and Grace Stovall; Thalias new representative, Grace Brown and Grace Jones; Aglaia has as follows: Charlie Grace Koch and Grace Mason.

These blithe and bright hearted daughters of the sun always assemble on Mount Olympus. The Feast of Charitesia is their favorite passtime. The members have chosen Spencer as their club poet. They know the sentiment of their motto but have not yet found its appropriate expression.

The officers of the club are: Grace Mason, president; Mary Grace Muse, vice-president; Grace Brown, Secretary.

I am old and have had many troubles, but most of them never happened.—Anonymous.

Lesson Comment by
PRES. F. D. KERSHNER

Christmas Lesson
John 1: 1-18

Few verses are more puzzling to the ordinary reader than the first few verses of the Gospel of John. Students of Philosophy, of course, find them intelligible enough, but most students of the Bible are not pedantic philosophers. Nor is it conceivable that the Gospel of John was written for a closed circle of scholastic wits.

The Greek word Logos has a profounder meaning than is associated with our Anglo-Saxon term and to the ordinary Greek the passage was therefore sufficiently clear. "Logos" to a Greek meant an embodied idea—a spiritual thing, so to speak, putting on its clothes. First the thought, then the thought clothed in a word; then embattled words in oratory, poetry, science, or philosophy, acting upon and moving the world. An idea unclothed, that is to say a wordless idea, could never affect anyone and therefore could accomplish nothing.

II.—THE INCARNATION.

Following out the thought suggested above, John likens the embodiment of the Father in a human form—that is the Christ, to the Greek idea of the Logos. God as a Spirit, unclothed with a material body, could never affect the world. It was only when God became Christ (when the Idea became the Logos in the Greek phraseology) that men were drawn irresistibly to the Universal Father. Men cavil sometimes at the divinity of Christ because Christ to all external appearances was simply a man. Such men forget that only through a being both human and divine could the human element ever find a medium through which to interpret and understand the super-human. Otherwise the two circles must remain forever closed to each other. Only through Christ can humanity understand and appreciate God. Only through union with God can the fleeting form of mortality become immortal and endure.

When Phillip wanted to see God, Jesus replied at once that whoever had seen the Son had seen also the Father. There is in fact no other possible way in which to see Him. The abstract God of the metaphysician is a lifeless spectre of thought; the God embodied in Christ is a living Force which sways the world.

III. LESSONS FROM THE INCARNATION.

(1) God is Love. Jesus was the image of compassion. He healed the sick, comforted the afflicted, was kind to the poor, and rejoiced in deeds of unselfish ministration. There was neither cruelty nor revenge in his character. He was pure and spotless, but there was no harsh or critical coloring about his goodness. He was not a policeman or a detective. His idea of sinful humanity was followed closely by men like St. Francis, Tolstoi, "Golden Rule" Jones and Ben B. Lindsay. Stern fanatics like Loyola, Alfa, and in a sense, Calvin, missed the point entirely. To such men God was anything and everything but love.

(2) The Lowliest of Earth Have Divine Possibilities.

Jesus was born in a manger. His father was a proletariat. His mother was very poor. He himself worked with his hands for a living. Buddha the Hindu Christ was a prince. Jesus the divine Christ was a carpenter. The religion of the princely deity has produced child marriage and the degradations of present day India; the religion of the peasant deity has produced the triumphs of Christian civilization.

(3) God Seeks Man.

The heathen religions pictured man as seeking the gods. The deities themselves existed only to be placated and appeased. Jesus taught the world that the "Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost". Again and again he reiterated the idea. The Lost Sheep, the Ninety and Nine, the Prodigal Son—are wonderful illustrations of that central truth which the whole life of the Nazarene embodied. God is grieved when men do not love Him. It is probable that all the sorrows of the great suffering mass of humanity are only a part of the sorrows of God. God is not a king, condemning his subjects to prison or execution. He is rather a loving Father seeking again and again His erring and disobedient children.

IV. LAWS VERSUS IDEALS.

The Law was given by Moses. It was intended for the childhood of humanity. Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ. They are intended for grown men and women. Children obey laws, men and women follow ideals. The three fundamental ideals of Jesus were:

- (a) Personal Righteousness (The Good Life).
- (b) Service. (The Social Goal of Humanity.)
- (c) Freedom. (The evidence of the Divine in the Soul.)

There will be a recital of the oratory students in the Shirley Walton Hall on Wednesday at 4:30. This occasion needs no advertising because everyone knows that Miss Powell's students are fully equipped to entertain.

Miss Powell has moved her studio to the room that was formerly occupied by the shorthand department. The room is just between the china room and Prof. Henry's office. Miss Powell has turned the room into a cozy little studio. She will continue to use the old studio for class work.

Miss Roberta Scott has been offered a position as oratory teacher in the Crowley High School. Miss Scott is one of the most accomplished young women in T. C. U. The students are indeed glad to hear of her success.

Preparation for Christmas have begun in the art room. All kinds of pretty things are being made.

The annual Thanksgiving art exhibit is now open for visitors. This exhibit consists of all the work that has been done by the students. It is a good display of amateur work and contains many really credible pieces of work. The exhibit will last until shortly before Christmas.

Miss Ethel Brown has been visiting in Oklahoma for the past several days. She reports a pleasant Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Nannett Mc Cletoch is visiting in the Art rooms this week. Miss Mc Cletoch was with the Art department nearly all of last year.

The art work for the Horned Frog is progressing nicely and promises to be the best ever.

Emmanuel and Jesus Tanega, of Hidalgo, Texas, recently from Metamoras, Mexico, have taken up work in the College of Business.

Many new students are being reached by letters from the C. O. B. These letters mean new students, new students mean a better T. C. U. If you are interested in a larger and better T. C. U. you can help by giving Prof. Henry the names of prospective students for the College of Business.

Geo. L. Stewart was chosen as C. O. B. representative on T. C. U. Athletic Council.

The C. O. B. has organized a Commercial Society. This society is for the benefit of C. O. B. students in their commercial work. It will meet once each week. The program will be arranged to give the members a keener insight into the commercial world and prepare them better for the active problems of business life. At certain intervals business men from the city will lecture to the members. This is another addition to T. C. U. and the C. O. B. that both are and should be proud of. The new organization promises to be a success.

THE "LIVE WIRES."

The "Live Wires" met in room 9, floor 2, last Saturday night for organization. "Let us then be up and doing" was adopted as the motto, the purpose being to "raise a racket." The club was divided into three sections:

1. Short Wires—Inez Isaacks, Live Cook; Roberta Scott, Live Eats.
2. Cross Wires—Mary Haven, Live Beau-Catcher; Golda Wilhite, Live Peace-Maker.
3. Long Wires—Viola Caldwell, Live Stitcher; Susie Tudor, Live Scrapper.

"THE OWLS."

The Owls met last Saturday night in tree No. 2, second limb, for the purpose of initiating two new members, Katie Mae Cook and Lena B. Reeder. After the initiations a feast was prepared. Adeline Ferguson, the chief cook, took the cooking in charge, while all the other owls obeyed orders, given by Wise Owl, Johnnie Agnew, to prepare the table. The one prepared seemed to be exactly what each owl wanted. After an hour or more of laughter and fun the bunch adjourned to meet again when President Wise Owl thinks it necessary.

A track team is to be organized soon. There is plenty of good material. All that is needed is a gym and a cinder track, and T. C. U. will put out a team that will compare well with any in the state.

T. C. U. PANTHERS LOSE TURKEY GAME

1; first down, Clarke 0, Stewart 3. Time was called with the ball in T. C. U.'s possession on Dallas U's 20 yard line.

Both teams put up a strong fight and every man at some time featured. Stewart, Bivins, McKown and Parker were best ground gainers for T. C. U. and McConnell for Dallas. Clarke, McNamara and Parker did brilliant defensive work; tackling many times under difficult conditions for losses. Waggoner also played a good game in the line tackling the quarterback twice before he passed the ball and blocking play after play through the line. Parker prevented the score of another touchdown by brilliant tackling. At one time Gregg had an open field and interference, when Parker overtook him and dived through the interference for a tackle. He did excellent work on both offensive and defensive.

A good crowd witnessed the game and despite the loss of the game T. C. U. returned home in good spirits, feeling that they had not lost to an underserving team.

A good set of lockers are being set up in the engine house, and will be ready for the basketball, track and baseball seasons.

COLD PHILOSOPHY

Each chilly dawn I quake and yawn
And pine for words to tell
My frigid dread when from my bed
I hear that breakfast bell;
From my warm bed I raise my head
And ask in mute despair,
"What's that darn radiator for?"
Because there's no heat there.
I rise to dress and freeze to death,
But smile and let it pass,
Because they say it's just a way
They have of saving gas.

At six o'clock it's far too cold
For any engineer
To light a fire and get up steam;
Moreover, listen here:
The cold keeps most of us in bed,—
By which economy
Forsooth both gas and breakfast bills
Are minimized, you see.
Yet would I pray: when north winds play
And winter comes again
With snow and sleet, let's have some heat
By breakfast time—Amen
