KERSHNER LECTURES ON RICHARD III.

First of Series of Six Studies On the Elizabethan Drama Given Under Auspices of Clarks.

Last Friday night in the University auditorium, President Frederick D. Kershner gave his lecture on King Richard the Third, which is the first of a series of six lectures to be given by him on the Elizabethan drama. This course of lectures is being arranged for by the Clark Literary Society. On the occasion of this first program Crawford B. Reeder, President of the Add-Ran Society, Miss Lena Brown, President of the Clark Society, and Mr. Randolph Clark, one of the founders of the University, and one of the two brothers for whom both the Add-Ran and the Clark Societies are named, accompanied the speaker of the evening to the platform.

In her address of introduction, Miss Brown quoted the opening lines of the play,

"Now is the winter of our discontent
Made glorious summer by this sun of York."

"Tonight," she said, "President Kershner is our sun of York."

The speaker was perfectly at home on the platform and thoroughly the master of his subject. In the outset the President dealt with Shakspeare the man. "Personality is the greatest thing in all the world," he said, "back of all any one writes is the man himself." "No production was ever greater than the man who wrote it." As he saw it, Shakspeare's life should be divided into four divisions. First, The Period of Apprenticeship which extended from 1564 to 1596. During this period the author showed many weaknesses and evidences of immaturity. It was then that he produced the Merchant of Venice. Second, the Period of Sunshine, which extended from 1596 to 1600, during which the dramatist attained his intellectual freedom. No sorrow had yet come into his life. He was happy and full of the glow of the mastery of self. It was at this period that he wrote the Midsummer Night's Dream, Much Ado About Nothing, and As You Like It. Third, the Period of Storm, which covered the time from 1600 to 1609, when the master artist was sick at heart. While in this state of mind he produced the great tragedies of his works, King Lear, Julius Caesar, and Macbeth. Fourth, the Period of Serenity, from 1600 to his death, in which he gained his ethical independence. It was in this period that he gave to the world the Winter's Tale, The Tempest, and Cymbeline.

Richard III was taken as an example of the first period of the author's life when he was passing through his period of apprenticeship and copying as faithfully as he could the style of Christopher Marlowe. Dr. Kershner showed the influence of Marlowe on Richard III as seen in the opening soliloquy, the structure of verse, and the immature crudities and exaggerations, especially the over-use of dramatic irony. "Richard was a Marlowe character, being a man of fire like the English Tamberlane. No one could mistake the imitation of the blank verse in its thundering cadence and exaggeration, but," he said, "Shakspeare surpassed the man he imitated."

Next the lecturer proceeded to give an analytic study of Richard himself. He pictured him as being one of the most hideous of characters, physically, who was ever portrayed. Naturally, he was a deformed, lame hunchback, shunned by all womenkind and despised by his mother and father. Both mind and body were developed abnormally and unsymmetrically in an atmosphere which fostered nothing but bitterness in the heart of the youth, who was on the other hand as brave as Hector and as keen in intellect as any character ever portrayed.

The climax of his career was reached when he uttered that sentence which has in it more concentrated bitterness than any other ever written, "I am determined to prove a villain and hate pleasure." "Richard was not an ideal villain," continued the President, "but a man of vigor who commits crime only when he has a cause or a specific object to gain, then he does so with an iron will crushing down on the victim of his schemes." Dr. Kershner declared that Richard had all the elements of greatness except his rebellion against God. In closing, the speaker quoted these famous lines of Lord Byron in tribute to greatness:

BIG DEBATE BETWEEN UNIVERSITIES TONIGHT

T. C. U. Goes to Southwestern and Trinity Comes to Fort Worth.

Tonight under the auspices of the Texas Debating League three debates will be held. Southwestern goes to Trinity, Trinity comes here, and T. C. U. goes to Southwestern. The question for debate is: "Resolved, That the United States should grant the Philippines their independence within the next fifteen years and aid them in establishing a free and independent government." The result last year was a tie, T. C. U. winning from Southwestern and losing to Trinity, Southwestern winning from Trinity.

C. B. Reeder, Arthur Lee Moore and C. M. Livsey will represent T. C. U. at Southwestern on the negative side of the question.

J. H. Monk, Jas. A. Crain and R. J. Cantrell will uphold the affirmative side of the question at home.

AVIATORS MEET AT DALLAS.

Every Type of Flying Machine Will Be Shown at National Corn Exposition.

The greatest exhibition of flying and flying machinery ever held in the South and Southwest will be given at Dallas during the National Corn Exposition, Feb. 10-24. A great bangar is being erected, 200 feet long and 23 feet wide, that will house ten machines. Monoplanes, biplanes, tractors, and every type of machine that has been successfully flown. Among the aviators of national and international reputation already contracted with are Walter Johnston of the Thomas Brothers Aeroplane Company of Bath, New York, who holds the American endurance record, flies the "65" horsepower Thomas biplane, has won all first prizes in ten, fifteen and twenty-five mile races, and first prize for accuracy in bomb dropping; Frank Terrill of Worcester, Massachusetts, flies a headless Curtis plane of "80" horsepower, has made over seven hundred exhibition flights, does the Ocean Wave, the Turkey Trot, and everything but loop the loop, one of the best known flyers in the United States. Captain Thomas Baldwin in his famous "Red Devil" is planning the most thrilling effects that have ever been seen in Texas. Captain Baldwin formerly came from McKinney, in Collin county, and is noted for his ability for a sensational flyer. Charles Foster of St. Louis will pilot the McCarrall plane, built in Dallas. Foster is a daring aviator, and flies a new type of plane with the wing warping balancing features. Dallas is especially proud to have an aeroplane invented and built in Dallas to enter in this feat. Katherine Stinson, the only successful woman aviator in the United States today, is the fifth of the great aggregation of flyers. Miss Stinson has been the headliner in a great many of the large aviation meets throughout the United States. She has made good in three different places in Texas as being the single attraction. The National Corn Exposition Department of the Chamber of Commerce feel that when five machines leave the ground at the same time at 2 o'clock every afternoon that there will be some sensation in flying effects. Every portion of the aviation meet is a free attraction at the Corn Exposition.

Music at the Sixth National Corn Exposition at Dallas.

Weber's Famous Concert Band of thirty-five pieces will play two free concerts daily during the Corn Exposition, February 10 to 24. John Weber of Cincinnati is one of the very best known band conductors in the United States, and his organization of thirty-five artists have played in the greatest expositions ever held. Dallas considers herself very fortunate in having been able to contract to bring Mr. Weber to Dallas for the National Corn Exposition.

In addition to this, the Dallas Concert Band of twenty-five pieces, under the direction of Paul Harris, will also play two concerts daily, and any one that is fond of music, and especially fine inspiring band music will find it in Dallas during the Corn Exposition. It is planned by the exposition management that every building shall have a band concert at least once a day. The Dallas Concert Band will play in a half dozen different buildings where the exposition is going on. Weber's Famous Band will play in the Coliseum twice daily.

At the close of the address an open Forum was conducted in which any one was privileged to ask questions concerning the play and its author. Many slides were used to show famous actors of the part of Richard III and scenes of interest connected with the drama.

THIS PREACHER HOLDS THREE JOBS

Waxahachie, Texas, Feb. 7.—There is one man in Waxahachie who is entitled to hang out his busy sign every day. He is Rev. A. C. Parker, pastor of the Main Street Christian Church. Besides preaching Sundays and officiating at funerals and weddings, Parker is secretary of the Waxahachie Commercial Club. His third job is demonstration agent for Ellis county for the United States Department of Agriculture.

Parker said his work as a mere preacher was too limited and he wanted to broaden his scope. He is now having his desires filled. He says his work during the week helps him to deliver better sermons on Sunday.—Star-Telegram.

A RECIPE FOR SANITY.

Are you worried in a fight? Laugh it off.
Are you cheated of your rights? Laugh it off.
Don't make tragedy of trifles, Laugh it off.
Don't shoot butterflies with rifles— Laugh it off.

Does your work get into kinks? Laugh it off.
Are you near all sorts of brinks? Laugh it off.
If it's sanity you're after, There's no recipe like laughter— Laugh it off.

STUDENT IS KILLED IN BASEBALL PRACTICE

Brownwood, Texas, Feb. 4.—Russell Bennett, 16 years old, a student in Howard Payne College, was killed this afternoon in baseball practice on the college diamond. Bennett was struck on the right side of the head by a batted ball and died within a few minutes. Willard Wooden, a long, lanky, right-handed pitcher, who was Howard Payne's star pitcher last year, was batting balls to the outfield, and Bennett was catching the balls returned.

Just as Bennett ran out to catch a ball, Wooden batted a terrific liner, and the ball struck the youth on the head. He staggered to the bench and told a companion that the blow had almost killed him. He seemed groggy and within a few minutes fell to the ground and died almost instantly. Examination showed concussion of the brain.

Bennett was an orphan and lived with his guardian, V. L. Jackson, in Comanche County. This was his first year in Howard Payne College, and although young he expected to make the College team. The tragedy has cast a gloom over college students, who have been looking forward to having one of the best college baseball teams in the State.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Intercollegiate Track Meet Will Be Held at National Corn Exposition at Dallas.

It has been arranged through the medium of Dr. Gumm, the president of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of the Southwest; Mr. Belmont of the Texas State University, and Professor Potts of Texas A. & M. College, to hold at Dallas the greatest Intercollegiate Track Meet ever held in Texas. Prizes, trophies, medals aggregating $1500 in cost are given by the Corn Exposition Department, Dallas Chamber of Commerce, for the championship contest in track work. While it is early in the season to hold an out-of-door track meet, the great live stock pavilion with its arena all under cover, seating 2000, will be the scene of holding track events if the weather does not permit it being held in front of the grand stand. To much attention has been given in college athletics to football and baseball, and too little attention, at least, given to gymnasium and track work. It is hoped that the offering of these prizes and the arrangements made with every college and university in the Southwest will provide the incentive for every athlete to immediately go into training, prepared to contend for his college in track honors February 23rd and 24th at Dallas.

Low Rates to Dallas.

The climate in Dallas is delightful in February. Home seekers' excursion rates will be in effect from Chicago and St. Louis. Low fares from all points in the United States have been made to the Sixth National Corn Exposition in February.

MERCHANDISE PREMIUMS.

$50,000 in Merchandise Prizes Will Be Distributed at National Corn Exposition in Dallas.

The National Corn Exposition to be held at Dallas, Feb. 10-24, under the auspices of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Industrial Congress, the Texas State Fair Association, and the National Corn Association, are completing the premium list already amounting to over $50,000 in merchandise premiums. Everything from a post hole digger to an automobile, all sorts of agricultural implements, the new and improved, tons and tons of high grade fertilizer, gasoline engines, pumping outfits, harvesting machinery, grain drills, cotton and corn planters—every conceivable tool or implement, or everything used in the farm and home, including magazine subscriptions, books, clothing, such an aggregation of premiums as has never been given before for any agricultural exposition anywhere in the world. The exhibition of these premiums alone will occupy the vehicle and implement building 54 feet wide and 200 feet long.

N. T. S. N. WIN SECOND VICTORY

Harriett Smith Easily Star for T. C. U., Score 24-28.

Last Monday afternoon in the city Y. M. C. A. gymnasium the girls from North Texas State Normal won the second basket ball game of the season from the locals. The Dentonites played a steady, consistent game from beginning to end. The free goal throwing of Miss Davidson for Denton was easily the stellar attraction of the game and the undoing of T. C. U.'s team. On the whole, the home team was not steady, but nervous, which is possibly directly traceable to tarrying too long at fudge parties and chafing dish suppers. Coach Bentley has tried to get his team to train but not to much avail. Social inclinations have been somewhat disastrous to practice.

Harriett Smith did better work for T. C. U. than she has done at any time during the year. Maude Keith went in at off-center in the last quarter and did good work, even if she could stand under the arm of her opponent. It is the opinion of some that if she had gone in sooner the result might have been different. Venice Luce and Katie Mae Cook worked hard and did their part toward getting the ball to the forwards but lacked somewhat of endurance. Minnie Proctor and Charlie Koch put forth a great effort and did some splendid work but were unable to get the little sphere to drop through the loop at the proper time. They made the worst percentage which has been made by the goal throwers this season. If the team had worked as hard the week previous by taking care of themselves as they did while playing this game there would have been a different story to tell.

Officials: Miller, Y. M. C. A. referee; Saam, Y. M. C. A. umpire.

500 STUDENTS FALL IN BLEACHER COLLAPSE

East Lansing, Mich., Feb. 4.—Several students of the Michigan Agricultural college were badly injured tonight when the collapse of bleacher seats at the college armory threw about 500 of them to the floor in a heap. The accident occurred at a basket ball game.

A few minutes after this accident a rope by which a bundle of chairs was being lowered from the balcony broke and the load fell upon a group of women students. Half a dozen of the women were slightly hurt.

UNIONS AID STUDENT WAITERS

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 4.—"The board of regents of the University of Wisconsin has thrown down the gauntlet to organized labor and the State Federation of Labor will give battle," said Frank J. Weber, when asked about the student waiters' strike at the University.

The union has 300 members who are earning their way through college. They clashed with the regents when twenty waiters were asked to quit, and 120 followed the mout. A letter was received by the Federated Trades council requesting help. Business Agent F. J. Weber will leave for Madison Thursday morning to investigate.

The waiters at a meeting decided to lay their case before the governor with the suggestion that the State Industrial Commission be asked to arbitrate the differences.

EDITORIALS

FROM THE T. C. U. GRAD.

"The Grad desires to express its appreciation of our college weekly, the SKIFF, which is edited by Mr. E. R. Bentley. We have kept in touch with the college papers during the last seven or eight years, and it is our opinion that this is one of the best edited and most readable college papers in the Southwest. It not only ranks high among the college journals, but is receiving favorable comment from many of our large Texas dailies. We think that more of our Alumni should be on the mailing list of this splendid paper, and keep actively in touch with the activities of college life in Fort Worth."—Grad.

We appreciate this compliment more than any which has been expressed since we took charge of the editorial policy of the students' college weekly. The last half of the editorial we commend to every member of the association and hope that they will take Editor Rogers at his word and get in line with the student activities of the university. At times we have felt that we were not receiving the sympathy and encouragement of the Alumni and such a feeling has pervaded the student body as a whole at different times. In turn there has not been that cordial and fraternal spirit existing within the present student body toward the Alumni which we crave. The interests of the school can best be conserved by the hearty and sympathetic co-operation of both former and present students. It is to be hoped that the home-coming this year will accomplish that salutary result. The SKIFF believes in the Alumni and their unselfish interest in the university.

INFORMATION WANTED.

To the Editor of the Skiff:
Inasmuch as the records of graduates in the College of Fine Arts, especially in the Music department, have been destroyed, the T. C. U. Home Coming Committee is very anxious to secure the names of all such graduate. Anyone who is himself or herself a Fine Arts graduate of T. C. U. or who knows of such a graduate will confer a great favor by furnishing the desired information. Please address Miss Nell Andrew, T. C. U., Fort Worth, Texas. Very Respectfully,

F. D. KERSHNER,
(Chairman of General Home Coming Committee).

ATHLETES BARRED

Athletes will be prevented from holding class offices at the University of Chicago as the result of the action taken yesterday by the student council. Members of the council said the action was taken "to prevent any student from being carried into an office through his popularity as an athlete."

TURNING THE SKIFF OUT IN THE COLD

A few days ago we were surprised and amused to receive through the mail a copy of the "Skiff" neatly wrapped and addressed to the editor of the Skiff. The wrapper bore the return address of one of our friends at Palacios. Today's mail brought us one of the cards issued by the United States postoffice with the word "refused" opposite one of our lady friends of Santa Anna, Texas. Now, we surmise the reason for these two reports. These people have been on the university's complimentary mailing list and hence have been getting the Skiff free of charge. However, the receivers imagined that some presuming publishing company was sending the papers and would afterwards try to collect for them. If this is not the allusion under which these friends of the university are laboring, College Press would like to have them "speak right out in meetin'" and tell wherein the Skiff offends. It is the organ of the student body of Texas Christian University, the finest set of folks imaginable, and they are pricked to the quick to think that their efforts are not only being wasted on deaf ears and blind eyes, but being scorned and refused by those from whom it takes not the coin of the realm to pay subscriptions, but only craves their good will. Forget it and read the Skiff, the live newspaper which hails from T. C. U.

AN OLD SKIFF EDITOR

Owing to ill health, H. G. Knight has severed his relationship with the Caller. During the two years he has served as City Editor, Mr. Knight has been an enthusiastic member of the force, punctilious in the performance of his duties, observant, cautious, dependable in emergencies. He will be sadly missed, but we hope for no great length of time. Such a man is always needed, always welcome home.—Corpus Christi Caller.

H. G. Knight was one of the early editors of the little bark which is still stemming the tide. College Press learns that Mr. Knight was forced to resign on account of failing health. The press states that he is going to San Antonio for a rest. The Caller force tendered him a farewell dinner upon the eve of his departure from their midst. We hope that Knight's health will soon be restored and that he will be found on the job again.

GOOD WISHES TO SAILORS

The Skiff is in receipt of a letter from L. A. Betcher, who lives at Childress, Texas. Brother Betcher is a good friend of the university and the Skiff. In closing he said "With best wishes to the Boat and all who sail it."

"TOMMIE" HEARD FROM

One friend who never forgets us is "Tommie," as he was familiarly dubbed by all who knew him while a student here. The Skiff is in receipt of the following card from him:

Hartley Hall,
Columbia University,
New York City, N. Y.

Dear Bentley:

My Skiff is coming just "dandy" now, last two issues arrived on the "dot." Keep them coming that way rest of year and I'll add another dollar, and send it to you, too, at the end of the season. I like 'em ALL and, hence, will be happy to offer your manager any extra inducement to get them, SEE? Suppose you received my letter and other dollar O K?

You are putting out the best Skiff T. C. U. ever had—except the one "Ferg" and "I" got out, of course. Congratulations. Give everybody my best regards, especially my best to all old "Shirleys." Yours,
ROY G. TOMLINSON.

A NEW FORUM

Last week the Megaphone came out with a new department, The Forum. We are glad to see the college papers forging to the head. Many of these little sheets would do credit to a town of some size and consequence. Gradually the college papers are adding all the departments which are to be found in the large dailies. The Skiff has been running a forum for several months. Such a department affords a splendid place for the students to air their opinions on the various questions which always come up in the college world. In other words, the forum is the students' editorial column. On with the good work.

THE PINE KNOT

The newest paper to come to our desk is the Pine Knot, published by the students and teachers of the Lufkin High School. This first issue is a four-column, six-page folio, ably edited, and generously patronized by the merchants of Lufkin. Congratulations.

JOHN L. LATTIMORE RETAINS HIS "B"

At a meeting of the Baylor "B" men Monday afternoon John L. Lattimore made formal apologies for his indiscretions at the basket ball game last Friday and the men voted to return his college letter, which had been surrendered at the demand of the football captain Saturday.—Baylor Lariat.

Now, we wonder what John has been into? Too much noise, we guess.

LIBRARY NOTES.

A. N. Ashmore of Rogers sent the library a collection of old "Skiffs," and catalogues and some general pamphlets. With such valuable help we hope to soon complete our file of the Skiffs.

Prof. Kinsey has subscribed for the "Record" for a week for the library. Mr. Cantrell has placed the February number of "Physical Culture" on the reading table.

After an interval of three years a copy of "Texas Libraries" is on our desk. It will now be issued quarterly instead of monthly. This issue contains "Library Laws of Texas," "News Notes from Libraries," besides other items of interest to librarians.

ALUMNI NOTES

The regular meeting of the Fort Worth Chapter of the T. C. U. Alumni has been postponed until further notice.

'95 Mr. Lee Clark of Austin recently resigned as Secretary of the Conference for Education in Texas and has moved to Midland and is now connected with Midland College interests.

'93 Rev. Randolph Clark, one of the most loved men of all Texas, was the guest of the Add Ran and Clark Literary Societies for the first Shakspeare Lecture, "Richard the Third," given by President Kershner.

Miss Esther Clark of Stephenville, daughter of Bro. Randolph Clark, visited in the University Friday. She is in the city for medical treatment under Dr. Gough.

'11 and '12 "Earl X" Gough and "Bo" Bozeman attended "Richard the Third" Friday evening. Mr. Gough is now on the editorial staff of the Fort Worth Record.

'08 Paul Tyson of Waco spent Sunday with us.

'90 F. G. Jones, President of Midland College, gave a very interesting chapel talk Tuesday.

ORATORY NOTES

Lera Brown, Mary Grace Muse, Mr. Higgins and Mr. Sharp, are now students in Oratory.

Dramatic Society is studying modern drama. The study so far has been of Maeterlinck. Excellent reviews and criticisms of "The Blue Bird" and "Sister Beatrice" have been presented by members of the Society.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY ORGANIZED

Officers elected: Club Manager (President), Myrtle Stringer; Coach, Miss Powell; Property Man (Secretary), Delfa Russell; Advertising Man (Treasurer), Clifford Sperling; Music Director, Roberta Scott.

SKIFF CHANGES PUBLISHERS

Bentley and Bevan have arranged to have the Skiff printed at the fine printing establishment of the Exline-Reuters Company. Heretofore it has been printed by the University Printer by student labor. But this week the students went on strike against the present shop management, making it impossible for the Skiff to be printed in the shop, which is almost at a standstill for want of workmen.

CLASS EDITIONS TO BE ISSUED

Beginning with week after next the first of the Class Editions of the Skiff will appear. The Junior Class will have charge of the first of these special issues. The other classes will follow in their regular order, except the Senior Class, which will come last at its own request.

TRUSTING IN RICHES AND TRUSTING IN GOD

International Sunday School lesson for March 1.

Lesson Text: Luke 12:13-34.

I—The Modern Sin

This lesson is peculiarly applicable to the modern age. Most of the sins of today are due to sins of covetousness. Monopoly, capitalism, the industrial warfare of our time, are all caused by the love of money. The right use of wealth is the most needed lesson for people to learn. The bible does not approve waste or thriftlessness any more than it approves covetousness. The man who is thriftless becomes a burden on society. The man who is covetous becomes a society oppressor. Between the two lies the safe ground of Christian industry and service.

II—The Definition of a Fool

The Bible distinguishes clearly between the fool and the knave as regards money matters. The man who robs others to get his wealth and oppresses others by means of his wealth is a knave. The Pharisees and lawyers in the lesson before the last belonged to this class. The man who is pictured in this lesson is simply a fool. What constituted his folly is made sufficiently clear. He insisted on centering his attention on things that were not worth while to the neglect of other things that were worth while. Note the reasons why this man was a fool.

(1) Only a small amount of his possessions could minister to his own needs—all the rest was simply useless so far as he was concerned. Still he insisted on heaping up this useless burden.

(2) He thought he knew how long he would live to use his gains. "Much good for many years." The man who pretends to dictate how long he will live in this mundane sphere of accidents, diseases, wrecks and murders can only be adequately characterized as a fool.

(3) The one enjoyment he had been able to find in the world was purely sensual. "Eat, drink and be merry," comprised his philosophy. He succeeded in doing no one of them very long. History has proven that the man who can see nothing higher or worthier than material pleasures is infallibly a fool.

(4) His whole attitude toward life was selfish. He makes no mention of others at all. One might think from reading his story that he was the only man in existence. He was the incarnation of the personal and the possessive pronouns. My goods, my houses, my barns. The man who sees only himself in the world is and must be most egregiously a fool.

(5) He ended after the fashion of a fool. After toiling until he was worn out gathering crops and building barns, he died suddenly and some spendthrift heir devoured his substance. How many rich people of the modern ages do the same thing?

(6) Mental intelligence often goes with moral folly. This man was probably shrewd enough in his own way. A smart man may be, in the biblical sense, a fool. The determining factor is not mental acuteness, but a correct perspective. The essential thing is to have the right point of view. It is no use to be able to shoot straight unless you have something worth while at which to aim. Essentially the fool is always the man who throws his energies into something not worth the trouble of seeking.

III—The True Riches

"Rich toward God"—What does it mean? Most Sunday School children know better, perhaps, than many of their parents. Unselfishness, kindness, service, helpfulness, courtesy, love. To be rich in these things costs some metallic substances such as gold and silver at times, but the exchange is a good bargain. Only the man who is rich in the real things has indeed "much goods laid up for many years." Read Saxe's poem on "What I Have Is Not," and Henry VanDyke's story entitled "The Mansion." Perhaps one of the best ways to teach this lesson would be to read or tell the last named story in class.

A REMEDY.

He—Darling, I am afraid you find this life monotonous.
She—It wouldn't be, dear, if you could let me have a little more change in my pocket.

SUGGESTION.

"Jim told me he had an option on the saloon property at the corner."
"I hope it isn't a local option."

NATIONAL CORN EXPOSITION.

Special Day for Women February 20th
Complete Exhibit of Woman's Welfare Work Arranged.

How many excellent Southern housekeepers could pick out the best loaf of bread from twelve loaves of fair appearance and tell why the one loaf was best?

They will have a chance to try on Woman's Day, February 20th, at the Sixth National Corn Exposition, Dallas, Texas, where Michigan will have on display, a dozen loaves of bread made from different types of wheat. The demonstrator in charge will tell why we have bread flour, pastry flour, red dog, graham and a lot of other kinds of flour from the same samples of wheat.

Colonel Joe Allison will show the Southern Sunshine Cotton Seed Flour, from which the most delicious bread, rolls, pancakes, biscuits, cakes and puddings can be made.

Of special interest will be the state and government new methods and new food demonstrations of milo-maize and kaffir corn grains ground up to make nutritious breakfast foods, as well as fairly good bread.

Home canning to reduce the high cost of living will be demonstrated at the Domestic Science exhibits of the various colleges, along with other home economics and conveniences. Here the housewife can learn how to detect adulterated foods and whether the milk she buys for the family is handed in a cleanly or a filthy manner.

The women of the state who want to do individual or club work that counts for something, should attend the Exposition on Public Health Day, February 13th, and also Country Life and Rural Welfare Day, February 18th, when all problems that affect the country home and housewife will be discussed.

The opening day of the Exposition, February 10th, will be Children's Day, and there will be plenty of things on the grounds to interest and amuse the little folks.

Mrs. Edgar L. Flippen, Dallas, Texas, chairman of Committee on Woman's Welfare, has charge of the program for Woman's Day, February 20th. Dr. Anna Shaw, noted suffrage leader and lecturer of New York City; Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Texas, president of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs, and Mrs. Julia C. Lathrop, head of the Children's Bureau at Washington, D. C., will speak on Woman's Day.

Glories of Ancient Buildings.

The famous Temple of Diana, at Ephesus, was 420 feet to the support of the roof; it was a hundred years in building. The largest of the Pyramids is 481 feet in height and 835 feet on the side. The base covered 11 acres. The stones are about 60 feet in length, and the layers are 208. It employed 350,000 men in building. The labyrinth of Egypt contains 330 chambers and 12 halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles around, and contained 350,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves. The Temple of Delphos was so rich in donations that it was plundered of $50,000,000, and the Emperor Nero carried away from it 200 statues. The walls of ancient Rome were 13 miles around.

Dog Caused Boy's Death.

A boy was drowned by a dog he had on a leash jumping into the water and dragging him and his brother, walking with him, after it. The boys and a companion were walking along the towing path of the canal, at Rochdale, Lancashire, England, and had passed the lock, before the accident happened. An alarm was at once raised, and one of the brothers was speedily rescued by some boys who were playing near. An elder brother of the boys came on the scene and plunged into the canal. He succeeded in finding the other body, but artificial respiration proved unavailing.

Trooper Had Good Reason for Allowing Horse to Go Without Regular Equipment.

There were few horses left in the livery stable of a certain middle Jersey town when the local cavalry company went out for maneuvers. In fact, a number of cabmen had gone out of business for the time being in order that the cavalrymen might have mounts.

Trooper Bright was on a steed which readily captured the prize for the most gaunt, tired-looking, and moth-eaten creature ever seen on a parade ground.

"Say, Bright," said a companion, after he had recovered from the first shock, "what is that you're on?"

"That's a horse," said Bright not at all brightly.

"Well, I'll take your word for it," replied the other. "Did you know that he'd cast a shoe?"

"Yep."

"Why didn't you stop off at the garage and get him shod?"

"Would have, but I didn't think he could carry more than three shoes."

AMUSEMENTS ARE EXTRA ATTRACTIVE

For Sixth National Corn Exposition at Dallas!

TO BE UNUSUALLY GOOD

Aiber's Eight Polar Bears to Be Seen in the Circus Royal—Greatest Amusement Feature Ever Shown in the Southwest Will Thrill and Entertain.

Program already arranged gives promise of unusual attractions. The special feature different from those ever given before in Dallas is the Circus Royal, comprising the biggest and grandest circus acts secured from all of the large circuses. A partial list of the features are as follows: Aiber's Eight Polar Bears, which proves to be the biggest and most talked of sensational novelty ever seen in the South. Aiber's eight full grown Polar bears are monsters that will be seen in astounding performances. These wonderful animals, while they may seem to the public ungainly and awkward, and while it is generally conceived that Polar bears are, as he is, ferocious and dangerous, nevertheless, they perform with a dexterity in skill the most difficult tricks, forming pyramids, throwing and balancing brands and balls of fire, doing acrobatic stunts, roller skatink and comedy tricks that are almost human. Under the direction of Professor Aiber they are, without doubt, the most remarkable trained animals in the world. Coming direct to Dallas from the great Hagenbeck & Wallace Animal Show. The Riding Crandalls, America's premier equestrians, perform somersaults on galloping horses, vaulting from the ground to the backs of their beautiful thoroughbreds. The men riders performing marvelous acts. They are aided by Marsells, who introduces his high-class circus clowning as ring master.

The famous Aerial Lameys are stars of the circus arena, performing incredible feats of athletic and aerial achievements, filling the air with flying forms and flashing like meteors through space they present a bewildering spectacle.

Stiletta Brothers and Mora, the famous triple comedy bar experts, present a wonderful panoramic exposition of madcap fun and frolic intermingled with comedy and wonderful dexterity of flying from bar to bar, makes this feature startling as well as extremely funny. Burns & Kohl, dog, pony and monkey circus is in a class all by itself. These wonderful animals do everything but talk. Numerous tricks performed by these intelligent creatures are almost human and will prove to be a real treat to both old and young.

The Four Lamys are acrobatic marvels, and execute difficult and high lofty sensational tumbling, with triple and double backward and forward somersaults to and from the ground to shoulders. They are a startling acrobatic novelty, unusually attractive as a circus stunt.

Murray, Ward and Marsel, the three famous circus clowns, will be seen every day during the entire circus burlesquing each and every act, and will show the people of the Southwest brand new frolic and comedy that will be one of the very entertaining features of the Circus Royal. Mademoiselle Crandell, known as one of the youngest and prettiest bareback riders, will appear daily as one of the features of the Circus Royal. Mademoiselle Crandell is known and recognized for her fearlessness as a bareback performer, as no other woman has heretofore attempted the feats performed by her.

$12,500 in Solid Silver Cups and Trophies Will Be Given for Exhibits at National Corn Exposition at Dallas.

Among the valuable and interesting trophies to be given during the Corn Exposition at Dallas, February 10-24, is the Indiana Corn Trophy, valued at $1000, which is offered for the best ten ears of corn in the world's classes; the Kellogg Corn Trophy, valued at $1000, offered by the W. K. Kellogg Company for the best single ear of corn; the Colorado International Oat Trophy, made of Colorado mine silver, valued at $1500, offered for the best peck of oats exhibited. These are but a few of the valuable trophies in cups, medals, etc., to be given as prizes during the Corn Exposition.

BRONCHO-BREAKING CONTEST.

Riding Wild Horses in Contest for the Championship of the Southwest at National Corn Exposition.

A revival of the old sport in riding wild horses will be held at Dallas during the Corn Exposition. On February 19th and 20th there will be a unique and unusual competition. The Dallas Chamber of Commerce is offering a $300 for the wildest, unbroken, meanest outlaw horse that is brought to Dallas and entered in this contest. There is no expense whatever in regard to the entry. Anyone can ship a horse to compete for this prize. It is expected that at least 200 horses, the pick of the toughest and wildest that has ever been anywhere in the Southwest. Some real sport will be provided when it is understood that there is offered as a prize a $750 silver-mounted saddle, bridle and spurs to the champion rider, together with the championship belt, which will cost $200; be embossed in solid gold. It will be a trophy entirely worth while, and is to be given to the champion rider of the United States. An invitation is extended to every man who thinks he can ride to horse, to send in his name at once to the Chamber of Commerce, and he will be listed as one of the contestants, and arrangements made for him to take part. We usually find that broncho-breaking as shown in the wild west shows consist of a very time horse trained to buck whenever he is told to do so, and there is no real sport in it. Dallas plans to have, during the Corn Exposition, and on the two special days, February 19th and 20th, a real riding contest, in which the horses as well as the men compete. No detail of formality is necessary, either, for the entry of the horse or the man, but previous to February 1st, it is expected that every man that wants to enter in this riding contest, or who wants to enter a horse, will notify the Chamber of Commerce by letter and full details and information will be forwarded to him.

PLAY GIVEN IN SPANISH—DR. CASE'S SPANISH STUDENTS PRESENT EL INDIANO.

The Spanish play, "El Indiano," presented in the University auditorium last Tuesday evening by the Spanish Society was witnessed by one of the largest and appreciative audiences seen in the auditorium this year. The leading lady's part was skillfully acted by Miss Elkin, and Miss Pierce acted the part of the heroine's mother in an accomplished manner. Mr. Street, the hotel porter, amused the audience throughout the evening by answering the summons of the guests so promptly he even arrived before they called him at times. Mr. McNamara, the soldier brother, displayed much skill as an amateur actor. The parts of El Indiano, Victor, and El Marques del Chopa were well played by Messrs. Holt, Murray and Parker.

Through the kindness of Mr. Cahoon and the orchestra music was furnished for the occasion.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS
The regular session of the Missionary Society met with Mrs. Hall Friday, the 6th. The following program was rendered:

Paper—"What Consecrated Money Will Do."—Miss Williams.
Song Trio—Misses Luse, Lipscomb and McLendon.
Benediction.

Quite a delightful social hour was enjoyed after the program was rendered, and a dainty salad course was offered.

BASKET BALL GIRLS AGAIN FALL VICTIMS

Last Tuesday evening on the local court the T. C. U. basket ball team met defeat at the hands of the fast team from Diamond Hill. The game was somewhat lifeless from beginning to the end. The local team had had a hard game in the Y. M. C. A. gym the day before and were not in a condition to play. The score stood 15 to 23 in favor of the visitors.

MIDLOTHIAN COMING

Miss Tyson, the manager of the girl's basket ball team, has made arrangements to bring the Midlothian High School team here on Saturday of this week. A close game is expected. T. C. U. defeated them on their own court some time ago by a close score.

ADD-RANS SELECT CONTESTANTS

The Add-Rans met in regular session Monday morning, February 9, and after roll call proceeded with the preliminary to the New Man's Declamatory Contest. Those in the preliminary were McBride, Holt, Sharp, Grissom, Lines, McNamara, and Higgins. Each man had a good and well prepared speech, but it was quite impossible for all of them to get first place, consequently, when the decision was handed in, Grissom, Sharp and McBride were chosen to represent their society. Each of these young men did good work on good speeches, and it is expected that they will do extraordinarily well in the coming contest.

Misses Nannie Cave and Sarah McSpadden, teachers of the Van Alstyne High School, were guests of Misses Koch and Carnahan the early part of this week and attended the recital given by Paderewski's concert Monday night.

NOT SATISFIED YET

The girl's basket ball team will go to Denton next Monday to try to get revenge for the two defeats which has been administered by the Denton goal tappers. The girls will not accept defeat but are determined to stay with their victors until the standing is reversed.

DEBATERS HOLD OPEN DEBATE

On Wednesday night the debating teams held an open practice debate in the university auditorium. The men spoke in their regular places and to their regular time just as they will in the final contest Friday night. The Southwestern team leaves for Georgetown Thursday night on the six o'clock train.

Ernestine Robbins was out to the Shakespearean lecture last Friday.

SHIRLEY'S SELECT DECLAIMERS

At the regular meeting of the Shirley Society Monday morning the program was given over to the preliminary contest to select the new men's declamatory team. Much interest was shown. The following entered the contest: Clyde Tomlinson, Homer Tomlinson, Allen Freeman, Riley Akin, John Keith, and Ray Murray. Freeman, H. Tomlinson, and Keith made the team with Akin as alternate. The judges for the contest were B. A. Hayes, Bentley, Horace Jones, Hawkins, and M. M. Knight.

Miss Venice Luse was the guest of Misses McLendon and Lipscomb at Jarvis Hall Friday night.

Lena B. Reeder, Myrtle Hart, and Katie Mae Cook spent Saturday night in the city with Annie Mae Tanner.

SENIORS SISTERS ROYAL ENTERTAINERS—THE SENIOR BOYS RECEIVED THE TREAT OF THEIR LIVES AT HOME OF THE DEAN

Last Saturday night the Six Senior Sisters entertained their Senior Brothers in the home of Dean and Mrs. W. B. Parks. The boys had speculated much as to what the evening's program would be, but the girls kept their secret well; indeed, it was not until 8:20 when the large door was pushed back revealing the long dinner table that the boys had any idea of what was to happen.

The room was decorated in purple and white; a large purple "14" was on each window curtain. In the center of the table stood a cut-glass vase holding six Killarney roses. The place cards were very different from the ordinary and will be kept as one of his treasures by each boy; they were made by the girls by pasting a group picture of the Six Sisters on round pointed gilt-edged cards.

Then the Sisters came in, from the kitchen, to welcome the boys. Each was dressed in a party frock but had added a dainty apron, which was very effective. Mr. Greer then took two flash-light pictures of both boys and girls, and one of the boys after they had been seated.

The girls did not eat with their guests, probably realizing that they would be kept busy bringing in the feast, of which there was a generous supply. The first course was tomato soup. Parker and Highsmith were first through and ate almonds and bon-bons while the others finished. Then the meal proper was served—fried chicken, creamed potatoes, hot biscuit, English peas, fruit salad, and coffee. Fresh strawberries, cream and cake, as refreshments, finished the feast.

Mr. J. Lindley Wood, class president, then proposed a toast to the Sisters and the host and hostess, to which every one responded, though all really felt too full for utterance.

Then a general good time of singing was had, every one taking part, so that even Doyle forgot that he had on a full-dress suit.

Soon, too soon, it was time to leave and the boys sang "Good Night Ladies," and other appropriate songs, and "went their way rejoicing." With proud and happy hearts they went, proud that they have such Sisters, happy because they are called brothers.

One of the Six Sisters, Miss Katherine Roberts, could not be present on account of illness. Those present were Misses Jane Barnard, Grace Mason, Jack Baldwin, Elsie Martin, and Johnnie Agnew. The boys were Dr. Batson, class professor, J. Lindley Wood, Alvin Street, Carl Tomlinson, Doyle Cole, R. A. Highsmith, Chalmers Livsey, John Allen Rawlins, Cecil Bevan, Allen Freeman, Luther Parker and Ray Camp.

ENDEAVORERS ENTERTAINED BY PATRICK HENRY

The University and First Church Endeavorers enjoyed the pleasing hospitality of Prof. Henry's home on Saturday evening of last week. The entertainment consisted of an athletic meet, refreshments and select readings.

All of the sports were represented in the meet and many stars were in attendance. Albert C. Martin was undoubtedly the hero of the evening. His achievement in the standing broad grin was unrivaled by any other contestant. Jo Camp and Miss Fay Eason gave evidence of much practice by their team work in the blindfold contest.

After the strenuous efforts of these contests the delicious refreshments were served and it is needless to say that every one proved efficient in this game and was refreshed for the feast of readings which was to follow. The readings were short and witty, and were read with a charm which delighted everyone. The following persons appeared on the program: Misses Roberta Scott, Nellie Elkin, Maud Keith, Fay King, and Mr. Williams.

After such a pleasant evening Mr. Knight tendered Prof. and Mrs. Henry a unanimous vote of thanks for the delightful hour which had passed only too rapidly.

Miss Venice Luse had as her house guests during part of the past week Misses Gertrude Hoffman, Deana Luther, Verdie Lipscomb and Anne McLendon of Jarvis Hall, and Miss Gladys Chaise of Dallas. Sunday she honored her guests with an informal dinner party.

Esther Ray spent Sunday night in Jarvis Hall with friends.

Lola McFarland and Lera Brown visited Faye Sargent Saturday night.

Winnie London spent the week-end with home folks.

Marguerite Fisher visited friends in the Girl's Home Friday night.

Jack Baldwin visited friends in the city Thursday night.

Elsie Martin spent Saturday night with Grace Mason and Jane Barnard.

Lucille Durrett spent Tuesday night in Jarvis Hall with Jack Baldwin.

BETTER THAN GREAT FORTUNE

Knowledge That One Always Played the Game Fairly is a Comforting Thing to Have.

A contributor to the American Magazine says:

"When you get up in the morning take a look in the glass. How do you look to yourself?"

"If you can look yourself right in the eye and not be ashamed of anything you've done, you are far better off than many a man with lots more money than you.

"Of course, it is nice to be successful, to have money. No matter what the game is—whether it's marbles or business—it is nicer to win than to lose. Success brings happiness, but it must be real success. If you've cheated to win, you've destroyed the pleasure. There is no satisfaction in being ahead of the other fellow if down in your heart of hearts you know he is rightfully entitled to be ahead of you.

"Win if you can win fairly. The knowledge that there isn't a page in your past to which you dare not turn, that there isn't a man in the world can put his finger on any crooked thing you've done, the feeling that whatever happens you have played the game straight, is worth more than all the money and all the power and all the position in the world.

"If you are in business, no matter what the other fellow does, be content with smaller profits and a square deal. Clean money pays best. Crooked dividends bring wrinkles and worries with them.

"A good test of a business is what you are going to think of yourself afterward."

LITTLE SHORT OF MARVELOUS

Series of Miraculous Escapes From What Would Seem to Be Inevitable Death.

At Geneva recently a professional acrobat who performs on a trapeze attached to a balloon fell into the Lake of Zurich, a distance of 1,500 feet. He swam unhurt to the shore, just missing death by a few yards, for had he not sprung from his seat when within 50 feet of the lake he would have been dashed to pieces on the rocks.

Several instances of people falling from incredible heights and surviving to tell the tale can be quoted. At Brighton quite recently an actor known as Lieutenant Daring, who was playing the part of a naval officer who is attacked by brigands in a cinematograph play, and who was supposed to slip over the cliff—in reality, however, to stand on a plank which had been placed below the edge to make the illusion complete—missed his footing and fell 90 feet below into the sea, escaping with a sprained wrist.

An even more miraculous escape after a fall over a cliff was that of a seven-year-old child who had been gathering flowers on Culver cliff, near Sandown, Isle of Wight, who slipped and fell 200 feet. She was only slightly injured, a bottle which she carried being unbroken.

Got His Answer.

When the Rev. John McNeil was holding revival services at Cardiff a young man one night, thinking to perplex the preacher, sent up a note to the platform with the request that the following question be publicly answered:

"Dear Mr. McNeil: If you are seeking to enlighten young men kindly tell me who was Cain's wife."

Mr. McNeil read the note, and then, amid breathless silence, said:

"I love young men—inquirers for truth especially—and should like to give this young man a word of advice. It is this: Don't lose your soul's salvation looking after other people's wives."
