THIRD HOMECOMING CHAPEL PROGRAM

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

In the chapel Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock the graduating class of 1914 presented its final program. A large audience was present and heard with evident pleasure the rendition of the various numbers. The first was an oration by the class president, J. Lindley Wood, who gave a parting message to his classmates, student body, faculty and alumni. He presented his well chosen words with force and conviction. This was followed by a piano solo by Miss Jane Barnard. Miss Barnard has been a student in Piano for several years and rendered her selection in such a manner as to win hearty applause from the audience.

Ray Camp read the class prophecy. He has ever been proficient in literary lines and especially in prophetic insight. He went out of the broken paths by prophesying a future of great promise to each Senior, rather than giving the usual form.

R. A. Highsmith then presented the gift of the class to the University. This gift consisted of 78 volumes from nine of the world's greatest authors. "High" presented the gift in true "Highsmithsonian" style, and that's "nuf" said.

Cecil Bevan and Miss Grace Mason sang a duet which was enjoyed by all their auditors. This was not Miss Mason's first appearance as a singer, but Cecil surprised his friends with a rich, mellow voice that hitherto he had kept to himself.

The center of interest, however, surrounded the gifts presented to each member of the Senior class by John Allen Rawlins. John effectually answered that slander of his joking ability by presenting to each of his classmates an appropriate gift. His well chosen remarks and trinkets more than once raised a storm of applause from the audience.

$5.00 PREMIUM.

The management of next year's Frog will give $5.00 for the best Kodak picture presented to them before next Christmas. Local pictures are preferable and home-coming scenes desired. Only amateur photographers are eligible.

ALUMNI BANQUET AT WESTBROOK

After a short but very enjoyable social time in the mezzanine parlors of the Westbrook last night, a company of about two hundred alumni, ex-students and friends of T. C. U. descended to the main dining room to enjoy a very informal five course dinner. The T. C. U. orchestra played and were afterwards served.

Mr. Dan Rogers, the president for 1913-14 of the T. C. U. Alumni Association, presided during the evening. Those who have attended many T. C. U. banquets say that rarely have they been present at one where everybody seemed to so fully enjoy themselves.

After the courses, some old-time peppery toasts delighted the guests. It must be given up that the "bunch" of home-comers have proved to be the most loyal, the most enthusiastic crowd that T. C. U. has seen in many a day. It is to be hoped that their pepper will be catching, but perhaps Dean Park hopes that the class rush fever will not spread.

Mrs. Colby D. Hall spoke in her own charming way about "The Spirit That Brings Us Here." Prof. E. R. Cockrell convinced any doubtful ones that "The Grad" shall be continued. Mr. John N. Harris gave a good sample of "College Enthusiasm."

President F. D. Kershner, speaking to the theme, "Shall Her Name Be Changed?" revealed some interesting data, not only concerning this much agitated question but concerning the future of T. C. U. One of the latter group was the announcement that a separate college devoted to the highest type of ministerial training will be opened next September. He told what had given rise to talk of the change of name. It was a report of the business men's commission of the Men and Millions movement, which recommended that the names of all Christian universities be changed, where they are in reality not universities but mere colleges.

He then told of a reply of the general education board to the request of T. C. U. for an endowment, stating that the request could not be granted because that school made a practice of teaching theological branches, which should be reserved for the special theological colleges.

"The only solution to the problem that appeared to me was one that would be twofold in its results," said President Kershner. "It was to separate the theological department from the other branches and make a separate college of it. This would do away with the objection against the endowment, and at the same time start our institution well on its way toward becoming a true university, by making it a combination of colleges."

"We intend with the passing years to approach the Oxford ideal of a university by adding different colleges from time to time so we can bear the title of 'university' with honesty and pride."

Mr. Wesley Ammerman, prosecuting attorney in the criminal court of this county, toasted "Our Undergraduates" most delightfully.

After the toasts the company went into business session under the officers of the passing year. Besides the president, these are: Earl X. Gough, first vice-president; Joe Jack Murray, second vice-president; Miss Grace Hackney, secretary; L. C. Wright, treasurer.

Three hundred dollars were raised by subscription in a few minutes to liquidate a debt of the athletic association of the university which the alumni had taken over. A resolution was passed providing for the continuance of "The Grad," which will be the official organ of the alumni and former students and will be published by the Dallas chapter, who originated it, under the auspices of the alumni association. The resolution also provided for a vote of thanks to originators of the publication.

To guide the affairs of the alumni for the next year the following officers were unanimously elected: President, Bonner Frizzell; first vice-president, Grantland Anderson, Sherman; second vice-president, John Bateman, Fort Worth; secretary, J. B. Frizzell, Fort Worth; treasurer, Miss Kathleen Munn, Houston.

AONTER BUILDING FOR T.C.U.

Bible College Founded and Endowed by L. C. Bright of Marfa.

The T. C. U. Bible Department will soon have a new building on the campus and an endowment sufficient to maintain that department of the university. Bro. Bright reported this at graduating exercises this morning and that the building will be completed in time for next year's work.

Allen Freeman, his mother and little sister returned this morning from Santa Anna, and will leave tomorrow for Mississippi, where they will visit friends and relatives.

ALUMNI TEAMS STAGE GAME

PURPLES DEFEAT WHITES,
9 TO 3.

In one of the liveliest games of the season the Purples defeated the Whites yesterday on the local campus. Hebe Frizzell, manager of the Whites, started with John Harrison and Ben Moulden, while Bateman, in a similar capacity for the Purples, sent Bingo Parks to the mound and "Dago" Lamonica behind the bat.

For three innings the Purples were held scoreless, while the Whites circled the sacks for three. Muse then relieved Harrison and the scoring began. Nine runs and as many hits were garnered off his delivery while Bassler, who relieved Parks, was holding the Whites scoreless.

When all the substitutes had been consumed and the peace officer had exerted his post, Dug Shirley, official umpire, lowered the curtain and declared the game finished with the score of 9 to 3 in favor of the Purples.

Following was the line-up:

Purples—Lamonica, catcher; Ben Parks, pitcher and third base; Will McFarland, second base; W. V. Rattan, shortstop; Quinn Curby, second base; H. W. Shoemaker, left field; Hopkins, third base and catcher; Fred Cahoon, first base; Charles Bassler, pitcher.

Whites—Cullen Graves, shortstop; Dan Rogers, center field; Franklin Kinnard, second base; Ben Moulder and O. T. Osborn, catchers; Grantland Anderson and Will Massie, left field; Carl Shirley, first base; Walter Bush, third base; Bob Williams, right field and pitcher; John Harris, pitcher; Carin Muse, pitcher; Will Massie, pitcher.

ART RECEPTION.

Wednesday afternoon an art reception was held in the parlors of the Art Department, of which Mrs. E. R.
Cockrell is head. This reception is an annual feature of commencement week and is looked forward to with much pleasure. The parlors were tastily decorated and light refreshments were served.

The baseball game between two picked teams of former university stars of the diamond was also held in the afternoon. Aside from being a good exhibition of the national sport the game was more interesting because of the fact that in the line-ups were some of the most famous athletes the university ever turned out.

With the arrival of Hon. Alf A.
Taylor of Tennessee, who is to deliver the commencement address Thursday, all is in readiness for the graduation exercises, which will be held at the university Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Hazel Williams is visiting her sister Mrs. E. R. Bentley. She will attend summer school while here.

F. G. Jones, president of Midland
College, attended the home-coming.

Miss Hazel Willis, of Betts, is here for the Summer School.

Misses Powell and Mosey left yesterday for Chicago, where they will take summer work in Chicago University.

J. Willard Cockrill and wife are greeting old friends among the students and home-comers.

ment of Clark Hall.

Bingo Parks, '13, played the usual peppery game with the Purples yesterday.

Freeman & Frizzell will appreciate your patronage. Let them press your suit. Shop in basement of Clark Hall.

Dago Lamonica came to participate in yesterday's baseball game and was accompanied by his late acquisition, a wife.

Clifford Ferguson and wife remembered the home-coming. Glad to have them back.

Astounding news: We learned about a week ago that Dean Parks one time changed his mind. He had decided not to attend Commencement.

We are glad to have W. Boyd Wilson, of '12, with us again. He reports an optimistic outlook in his work.

Frederick D. Kershner, President

Bro. Randolph Clark left yesterday for his home at Stephenville. It is always with a feeling of regret that we allow him to leave T. C. U. Why couldn't we have him here with the school at all times? The influence of his personality would be immeasurable among the students.

Ellen Parker returned last night and will attend Summer School.

Bro. T. M. Clark returned to Portland this morning after a pleasant stay at his old and changed home. Bro. Clark taught 21 years in T. C. U. and left a name behind him that will not be forgotten. We are delighted always to have the Clarks with us.

Mrs. Scott Mack of Ballinger, Texas, a friend of our dear mother Mrs. Scott, came for the reunion.
