MANY STUDENTS AND ALUMNI OF T. C. U. ATTEND LECTURESHIP

McPherson, Lockhart and Hutton Are on Program

STUDENTS VISIT TRINITY U.

Friends of T. C. U. Defrays Expenses of the Brite College Delegation to Waxahachie

By Jas. A. Crain, Staff Correspondent.

T. C. U. had a splendid representation at the opening sessions of the 1914 Lectureship. Among those present were noted the following: Professors Chalmers McPherson and Clinton Lockhart; B. F. Smiser, Irvin Hefner, Glen Hutton, D. McCarroll, Willie Jones, Claude Grady, W. B. Higgins and wife, Claude Wingo, James A. Crain, M. H. Buhler, J. H. Monk, Ruth Musgrave, Dorothy Agee and Willis Stovall.

Among the Alumni were L. Guy Ament, Ennis; Clifton Ferguson, Athens; J. E. Evans, Odessa; Grover W. Stewart and wife, Dallas.

In the absence of Rev. M. M. Davis of Dallas, Prof. Chalmers McPherson was pressed into the service to lead the Bible study period on Tuesday morning.

The first address on the program Tuesday morning was the address of S. W. Hutton of Fort Worth, State Bible School Superintendent. Hutton is a member of the class of '12 and his rapid promotion in his chosen work reflects great credit upon his Alma Mater.

Waxahachie is the home of Trinity University, but T. C. U. also is well and favorably known here. At breakfast this morning I heard a former Trinity baseball coach tell of taking a team to Waco to play T. C. U. and having T. C. U. get three home runs off his pitcher while he was frantically signalling him from the side lines to come to the bench: yes, they know us.

J. H. Monk, Willie Jones and J. A. Crain visited Trinity Tuesday and were royally entertained by Boyce Farror, manager of the Trintonian, a loyal member of the Main street church.

L. Guy Ament is now in the midst of a church building enterprise at Ennis.

Many compliments were passed on the work of the Main street church choir, which furnished the music for the evening session. This choir is under the direction of Dr. Luther D. Parnell, a former T. C. U. student.

The large delegation from Brite College was made possible through the kindness of a number of friends of the institution who made a purse to defray the expenses of the students. The following sent checks to Mr. McPherson for that purpose:

- L. C. Brite, Marfa, S. N. Strange, Temple; J. D. Jackson, Alpine; S. M. Dunlap, Italy; L. L. Farr, San Angelo; Brown Douglas, Cleburne; George E. Dilley, Palestine; Millard Patterson, El Paso; J. A. Myers, Bryan; Leon P. Heard, Sabinal; V. O. Hildreth, Aledo; Mrs. Lizzie Barron, Paimer; Thomas S. Reed, Beaumont; Dr. S. D. Moore, Van Alstyne; Judge T. J. Brown, Austin; Mrs. Ida V. Jarvis, Mrs. E. A. Jackson, S. Bacon Saunders, Major K. M. Van Zandt, Fort Worth; Logan Martin for the church and Ladies' Aid society of Royce; Plummer Harris for the McKinney Sunday School; T. C. Morgan, N. N. Watson, of Longview; A. D. Milroy for himself and church at Brenham; J. A. Livsey for the Palestine church; A. O. Riall for J. D. Irons, Mrs. J. D. Irons, Mrs. D. W. Parish, Tyler.

The Skiff cordially invites every member of the student body and faculty and reader of the paper, who has not already done so, to call around and pay his subscription.

The manager thinks that it is much more polite and will be less embarrassing to you for him to invite you to call on him than for he might call at an inopportune time.

But we need some money and must have some at once to tide us over a temporary stringency. Please pay up and help the Skiff hold its rating with the credit association. Either the manager or the editor will be glad to take your dollar and put von on the list of those who are friends indeed, being friends in need.

CEMENT WALK TO PAVE THE WAY FROM WORTH HALL TO DORMITORIES

A new cement walk is being planned to extend from the south entrance of Worth Hall, past Clarke Hall to the front of Goode Hall, with a branch running aside to the north entrance to Clark Hall.

We are not sure how soon this privilege is to be enjoyed, but it will certainly be a much needed improvement.

HORNED FROG STAFF AT WORK ON ANNUAL PICTURES BEING TAKEN

$5 Prize for Best Kodak Scene—Students' Pictures Will Be Taken at University

Members of the Horned Frog staff have begun active preparations toward gathering material for this year's book. The photographer began taking pictures of the students Monday morning. Arrangements have been made by manager Reeder to have all of the pictures taken at the University. Those who pay a deposit of one dollar can have all the photographs necessary for the horned frog made, and the dollar will be applied on the price of the annual.

A prize of five dollars has been offered by Editor Bentley for the best kodak picture taken by a student and submitted for the Frog. He intends to put a large number of local kodak scenes of T. C. U. life in the Horned Frog.

Members of the men's Literary Societies must have one picture taken in a dress suit for the group picture of their society.

The staff has been completed and those engaged in editing the various sections are outlining their work. The staff consists of E. R. Bentley, editor-in-chief; Crawford B. Reeder, business manager; John P. Cox, organizations; Charles Hooper and Margaret Gibson, college year; Lera Brown, literary; Holly Clendenon, art; Aaron Griffing, athletics; Ewell McKnight, jokes; Bruce Knight, cartoons; Vista Woods, faculty; Amboline Tyson, classes; Daphne Helms and Vida Woods Cantrell, general.

OPEN HOUSE AT DEAN HALL'S ON THANKSGIVING

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

- Wednesday night—Art Reception
- Thursday 10 to 10:50 a. m.—Chapel Service
- 1 p. m.—Dinner in Main Dining Hall
- 3 p. m.—Football Game, T. C. U. vs. Trinity, Panther Park.
- 7:30 p. m.—Theatre Party
- 7:30 p. m.—Open House to all not otherwise engaged, at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Hall.
- Friday and Saturday—Regular School Work

Are you going home Thanksgiving? Or have you a Thanksgiving date?

Mr. and Mrs. Colby D. Hall invite all who haven't something else on hand to come to their open house at 7:30 P. M. Thanksgiving.

"We'll turn the house over to you to have a good time for the memory of your home folks," said Mrs. Hall.

Thanksgiving will be a busy day at T. C. U. Special chapel services will be held at 10 a. m. The turkey dinner will be served at 1 p. m. The football game in the afternoon will leave the halls deserted while the contest is in progress. Many of the girls have arranged for a theatre party that night. Those who do not have any other place to go will attend the open house at Professor and Mrs. Hall's home.

DEAN HALL SERIOUSLY ILL UNABLE TO MEET CLASSES

Dean Colby D. Hall is confined to his home with a severe case of tonsillitis. He has been unable to meet his classes this week, and is uncertain as to when he can return and take up his duties in the university.

At present Dean Hall is unable to talk or swallow food, but an improvement in his condition is expected soon.

The students of the university miss the Dean, especially at the chapel services, and it is hoped that he may soon be back with us. Professor Cockrell is presiding at chapel.

T.C.U. Eleven Takes One Game and Loses One at Brownwood

CHRISTIANS TIRED BY LONG JOURNEY LOSE FIRST GAME

T. C. U.'s football warriors met a crushing defeat by Daniel Baker last Saturday afternoon in Brownwood in a one sided game by a score of 33 to 0. The Christians were completely outplayed, and the fast work of the Presbyterians outclassed them in every respect. Throughout the game the men of the purple and white showed that they lacked the one big essential of football—pep: The one feature of the game was the tackling of the Daniel Baker men. The game, besides being one-sided, was marred by frequent fumbles.

Cox excelled his opponents in kicking, his punts averaging 40 yards. Brown featured in taking passes, two of his passes netting thirty yards each. Cox and Ramsay were especially good at returning punts. McNamara played a good game.

First Quarter. The first quarter seemed to indicate that it would be a nip and tuck fight, since each team was forced to punt the sphere several times.

After the Christians kicked out of bounds on the 50-yard line, Daniel Baker seemed to get more ginger into them, and went through the T. C. U. line for good gains. The remainder of this period the ball was kept in our territory.

After Boles' men held the Presbyterians for downs and recovered the ball on their own 25-yard line they were forced to punt. Daniel Baker returned the ball to the T. C. U. 41-yard line. M. Prentice went eleven, Turner got a pass for twenty five yards and Phillips carried the pigskin over for the first touchdown, a distance of five yards.

T. C. U. received the kick on the 8-yard line and Cox returned it twenty.

Boles' men punted to Daniel Baker's 28-yard mark. Anderson returned the punt twenty, Turner through line nine, M. Prentice around end eight. Anderson received pass for eighteen yards and two through line, placed the sphere four yards from the goal. A penalty drawn by our men and Gibbs through the line, is the story of the second touchdown. The goal failed; score 13 to 0.

Second Quarter. After the Christians received and were promptly held for downs, Daniel Baker rapidly brought the ball back upfield. Phillips took a pass for thirty-two yards and Prentice plunged through the line the line for the third touch-

PURPLE AND WHITE EASILY OUTCLASSES HOWARD PAYNE

Claude Miller Shows Old Form and Stars in Spectacular Game—Men Full of Pepper

T. C. U. defeated Howard Payne, 14-0, in Brownwood last Monday afternoon. Both teams showed lots of pep and fought hard throughout the four periods. The game was intensely interesting and at times exciting. Both teams fumbled several times and both drew frequent penalties due to over-anxiousness.

Miller was shifted to left tackle and played a star game. Claude deserves special mention for being in almost every play, going through the opposing line a number of times and throwing the Howard Payne men for losses.

Brown, Cox, Nash and Ramsay were the best ground gainers. Ramsay got away with a fifteen yard pass and Martin played good defensive ball. Midget Wallace was a tower of strength in the line, opening up several big holes.

The journey to Brownwood was Jesse Martin's maiden football trip. He was put in the game and allowed to stay two minutes. During this time he played like a veteran.

First Half. During the first half the sphere was booted back and forth frequently, but the Baptists were forced to do most of it. During this part of the contest T. C. U. made four successful passes and ten first downs, while Henry's men made three first downs and no passes.

In the second quarter Madden gained seventeen yards around the end. Allen made fifteen yards on a fake tackle-through-tackle and Ruffner gained ten yards through the line for Howard Payne. The first half ended with a first down, Howard Payne's ball, on their own 25-yard line.

Second Half. In the third period each team made first downs twice, with no successful passes. Madden gained nine yards, the best run of the period. The quarter ended with the ball in Howard Payne's possession on their own 35-yard line.

After two plays in the last quarter, the Christians got the ball on Howard Payne's 42-yard line and started for their first touchdown when Cox went around right end for fifty yards, passed to Nash for fifteen yards and Ramsey went through the line for a touchdown. Cox kicked goal. Howard received the kick-off, but was held for downs, and Madden punted twenty-five yards. Cox went around the left end for fifteen yards. Brown made a first down on a fake play through the line. McNamara

HONESTY vs. HYPOCRISY

When the student body voted to adopt the honor system in T.C.U., practically every student in the university signified that he would support the proposition by rising to his feet when the affirmative vote was taken on the question.

This means that the students put themselves on record as wanting the honor system made a permanent part of their college life. In declaring for the constitution which established this phase of self-government in T. C. U., every student obligated himself to help in stamping dishonest, dishonorable, thoughtless and careless acts out of student life in the university. He made it his duty as a citizen of T.C.U. to help enforce the ideals set forth in the honor system by reporting to the Student Council every case of cheating and stealing which came to his notice. The success of the plan depends on the earnest cooperation of the entire student body.

Ten students, representatives on the Student Council, have been elected by the students to administer the provisions of the honor system. They are but the servants of the student body, carrying out their requests. If any one of them fails to stand flat-footed and four-square against dishonesty and meanly-mouthed untruthfulness, he will be branded at once as a shamming hypocrite.

For the same reason, the student who does not have the backbone to stand by his convictions in this matter is a hypocrite. A man who does not practice what he preaches is a hypocrite. A student who votes for the honor system and promises to support it, and then cheats in class, is a hypocrite.

The Student Council sits as a jury on all cases which come up for consideration. Their responsibility is a great one; if, in their judgment, a student is guilty of cheating, they cannot but punish that student.

When a jury is trying a man for stealing a horse, if they are convinced that he is guilty before the law it is their duty to assess a punishment on the man. No matter how much they may sympathize with the man; no matter if the offense is his first one; no matter if he has a wife and several children to support, the law must take its course.

The same principle applies to the Student Council in T. C. U. The members of the Council desire, as do all patriotic T. C. U. citizens, to raise the standard of class work and student life in the university. That is the purpose of the honor system. They were elected to enforce it, and by accepting the office of student representative, they pledged themselves to do so to the best of their ability.

It would be wise for T. C. U. students to think this thing through.

It would also be wise for those students—or rather those pupils—who have been in the habit of sitting on the back row and reading the lesson from the book, held open behind another man's back, to leave the book in his room and avoid the temptation.

It would also be wise for those students who are accustomed to using an outline of the lesson for reference in class, to stop the practice.

It is dangerous to play with fire. Its better to be safe than sorry.

Be above-board in all of your actions. Be honest.

Live up to your duties as a citizen of our college community.

Back the honor council in making life in T. C. U. what it ought to be.

Be a Christian university man.

LETTERS FOR ORATORS

The men who have represented T. C. U. on the public platform in the past as debaters and orators have never been recognized or given one particle of credit in an official way for the service they have rendered the university. It seems to us that it is time the faculty should wake up to the good that these men do for T. C. U. and acknowledge the labor in some tangible and concrete manner.

In all phases of athletics, the men who make the teams are granted letters to show that they have represented the university on the athletic field.

Why shouldn't the faculty grant the men who represent T. C. U. in the debates with Trinity and Southwestern Universities letters as well as the men who represent the university against these same schools on the gridiron?

Why shouldn't the faculty grant a letter to the man who represents T. C. U. in the State Prohibition Contest?

Why shouldn't the faculty grant a letter to the man who represents T. C. U. in the State Oratorical Contest?

These men deserve some recognition for their services and for their efforts. They work hard, sometimes for months and months, they train, they think deeply and investigate every aspect of the question which they propose to discuss. They deserve a reward for the effort they put forth as much as do the football heroes.

The preliminary contest to decide who shall be the six men to defend T. C. U. in the triangular debates is to be held Dec. 11. Many of the men are already at work; more ought to be at work. If the faculty should pass a resolution, granting the men, who win out in this contest and buck up against the other schools in a heated forensic contest, a pin or some appropriate emblem, indicating that their efforts are appreciated and commended, how much more life and interest would be added to the contest.

Heretofore neither the student body nor the faculty as a whole have shown an active interest in oratory and debating in T. C. U. That may be one reason why T. C. U. has not won a contest in oratory in modern times. It is time that this important phase of our college life were being encouraged and popularized.

Action on the part of the faculty is the first move.

Those who burned the Clark Hall walk to celebrate a football game sold their heritage for a mess of pottage.

We hear a lot in Chapel about "catching a vision." We don't know much about this process, but if we see any visions lurking around we'll try putting salt on their tails.

Angell says that during a fire, if the three processes of reasoning fail, there is a breakdown, followed by a motor explosion. This sounds more like an automobile accident than psychology.

Blessed are the young, for they can be honest with impunity!

When a liar is ashamed of himself, there is still a chance for him; but when he gets to believing his own lies, it's all off.

Some men think more of their jobs than they do of principle. These may be divided into two classes: (1) Those who have a low estimate of principle and (2) those who have a high evaluation of their jobs.

When Socrates was vainly trying to establish the honor system in Greece, it always got his goat to hear the following: "Now I don't believe they ought to shoot craps in the Parthenon nor get drunk at Delphi, and I promise not to do it; but if I see Skinimedes or Crookimander doing these things I'll not tell on them. It would cause them to become my enemies, and I need all the crap shooters and drunkards possible for my friends."

five yards on one down. Men are sprawling everywhere. Oh-h-h! Listen at the grandstand yell! It is a pretty picture. This player has flunked for two months, but he passed one week. Therefore we let him fight for our honor. Without him we fear we would be hard up for glory. The puzzle is to find the scholarship.

Cynic: Did you say a 'prophet' or a 'prof'?

Can't somebody alleviate the misery at one of the dining room tables. There is an Aiken at the head and a Payne at the foot.

The C. I. A. girls have issued a paper which they call the "Lass-O". Why don't they call it the "Oldmaid-Ouch!"?

Certain Prof: "Things are getting mighty dull around here. Its enough to drive a fellow to matrimony." Surely some less drastic remedy could be found.

It is reported that Prof. Hamner has been hauled up before the highbrows for gambling. He played "Poker der Concert" Sunday night on his player piano.

Some of the good brethren, despairing of Christian Union in this generation, are praying that their children will be broad-minded enough to understand it. We suggest that the Freshmen try this system on their mathematics lesson.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM OVERWHELMS POLY HIGH

T. C. U. defeated Poly High School last Saturday afternoon on the Poly High court by the overwhelming score of 62 to 17. If the game had been on a good court, no telling what the score might have been. The T. C. U. men kept the ball almost all of the time, and seemed to let the Poly boys have it only once in a while to let them practice throwing goals. T. C. U. outplayed Poly High in every stage of the game except for a very few minutes in the first part of the second half. It seemed that Poly men were only allowed to make a score once in a while to encourage them so they would keep on playing.

Every T. C. U. man showed up to a great advantage and proved that T. C. U. would not be last in the T. I. A. A.

Strong, Hayes and Shelburne showed to better advantage than the rest on account of their goal throwing. These men could make any team in the state. Shelburne and Hayes each threw 10 field goals. Strong threw 11 and Pirkle one. Cooper and Pirkle replaced Tudor and Geiger in the second half. Both men played good ball.

N. Allison played the best game for the High School.

ALUMNI AND OLD STUDENTS

'95--Rev. George H. Morrison and wife visited the university a short time ago. They have recently moved from Cleburne to Coleman, Texas.

'99--Friends who were in Waco will remember "Mother Schaper" who was just like another to many of our boys; and they will also be grieved to learn of her sudden death which occurred at her home recently. Miss Mamie E. Chaper was a member of this class and we desire her to know that our sincere sympathy is hereby extended her on the loss of her dear mother.

'10--Who will ever forget "Ada Estina"! A card came from her at Waco telling us that a second Ada Estina is in existence, and she promises us that she will be all the first Ada is and more. The young lady in question is Miss Ada McGill, daughter of Mrs. A. B. McGill of Betram, better known to her class of '11 and friends as Clara Moses. Congratulations! We shall trust her in Ada's care. Miss Culpepper also writes that she attended the Baylor-T. C. U. game and that it looked good to see T. C. U. in Waco.

'13--Mr. J. Edward Evans stopped over Monday on his way to Waxahachie to attend the lectureship. He brought us happy greetings from our West Texas friends, who were Misses Ethel and Eula Brown and Miss Aubrey Fletcher.

'13--Miss Frankie Miller was seen about the halls Saturday.

Mr. M. Edwards, minister of the Central Christian Church visited the library Monday. He was Waxahachie bound. He brought his "Church Bulletins" along with him for us.

"The Perspective" an original and unique church bulletin which is issued weekly by the Jacksonville, Texas, Sunday School, of which our T. J. Dean Jr., of the 1913 class is pastor, is making visits regularly to our library table. Miss Juanita Taylor is chairman of the publishing committee. She attended T. C. U. in 1911. This bulletin differs from the others that we have received in that it is typewritten, while the covering contains the "Church Home" entirely surrounded by the famous Dean flowers and vines. Good work "parson."

"The Transylvanian" a monthly magazine published by the Transylvania University at Lexington, Kentucky, contains several news notes of interest to T. C. U. Mr. P. H. Barnes, better known to T. C. U. as "Pat", the never-tire-tennis man of the 1913 Transylvania class is with W. E. Shearer, writing insurance for the Northwestern Mutual Life, in that city.

Another news item concerning Miss Stewart, another of our students, which says: "Miss Stewart is Coach Stewart's sister, arrived in Lexington on October 6, for a two weeks' visit. She has been visiting in Virginia and is on her way to Fort Worth, Texas. They say here "All good things come from Texas", and she is no exception. Will be glad to see her again. She is a graduate of the Texas Presbyterian College." Mr. Hal Hunter, Coach Stewart and Joe Hunter are representing Texas in Transylvania.

Sue Webb of Mart, an art graduate of '11, and post graduate of '12, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here. Sue will teach near Arlington this year.

Venice Luse spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week at the Cotton Palace in Waco.

David Tudor's father spent a short time with him last week.

Joe Strong, of Denton visited his brother Will, and Loy Ledbetter, Sunday and Monday.

It develops that Henry Hagemier had more than one reason for quitting school last week when it was learned that he had married the day after he had quit. Hagemier withdrew from T. C. U. to accept the full time pastorate of the First Christian church at Denton, and it was not known by his friends in the university that he was intending to do the unexpected so soon.

His bride was Miss Katherine Rathgeber of Fort Worth. They will be at home at Denton after Nov. 20.

When Hagemier's former fellow students heard of his marriage, some of them called him up over long distance and congratulated him—at his expense.

Many T. C. U. Students Attend Lyceum Numbers

Nearly a hundred T. C. U. students attended the third Lyceum concert at the Chamber of Commerce last Friday night. Mme. Evelyn Scotney, famous soprano of the Boston Opera company, was assisted in entertaining the audience by three other musicians.

The next number of the course will be senator Robert M. LaFollette, who will appear Nov. 27. Dr. W. H. Batson has charge of the tickets at T. C. U. and is making special rates for all students who desire to attend the lecture. Only a limited number of seats are left.

OLD T. C. U. FRIEND DIES

Word was received at T. C. U. last week of the death of Mrs. Shaper, mother of Miss Mamie Shaper, a member of the 1899 graduating class. Mrs. Shaper conducted a boarding house near the university campus at Waco and was a popular friend of the students. She was always a staunch supporter of T. C. U.

THREE T. C. U. ALUMNI VISIT SHIRLEY SOCIETY

Three alumni of T. C. U. who were out to visit the university last Monday, visited the Shirley Literary Society and made short speeches to the members of the society.

W. Clyde Hackney, '11, a former Add-Ran, complimented the Shirleys on their spirit and told them something of the inspiration he gained from literary society work. He is now district manager of the life insurance company which he represents. His headquarters are in Fort Worth.

Mr. Edwards of Vernon, Texas, also made a short talk, telling of his experience as a member of the Shirley Literary Society when the young ladies were included in its membership at Waco. He married Miss Hazel Brown, who was the last co-ed in T. C. U. to be a Shirley. Mr. Edwards is a preacher.

J. Edward Evans, '13, a pastor at Odessa, shook hands with many of his old friends around the university and came up to look at the Gough trophy which he helped to win for the Shirley Literary Society.

Mattie Harrell and Fay Yates spent a pleasant week end with Bethany Overmier at her home in Aledo.

Virginia Maloney spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in the city.

Vestal Tompkins visited relatives in Aledo the first of the week.

WITH THE FINE ARTS

Anna Joe Pendleton has recently entered the art department.

Bethany Overmier, special, has returned from school for awhile on account of illness.

Sue Webb, '13, of Mart, was a welcome visitor in the art room Saturday.

Grace Mason, '14, of Dallas, visited the voice department last Tuesday and made arrangements for the Glee Club and Orchestra to give a concert in Forney sometime in February. Another date for this organization is to be filled at Arlington as soon as their programs are ready.

On Wednesday evening Clare Richards entertained several friends with a "feast" honoring Miss Florama Mason, head of the china painting department.

The girls' chorus will sing on the first Sunday in December at the Chamber of Commerce where the services of the First Christian church are being held.

On Wednesday evening, a tea party, honoring Miss Leila Powell, was given by a score of her admirers among the girls. "The second course" was a great bouquet of chrysanthemums presented to her as a "Birthday Eve" greeting.

Mrs. A. J. Busch of Dallas is spending several days in Jarvis Hall with her daughter, Mrs. Boggess.

Monette Whaley and Anna Joe Pendleton were guests of Ruby Douglass at her home in Cleburne last Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Wilkenson is visiting in Jarvis Hall for a few days.

Miss Minnie Lackey, assistant librarian, was called to her home in Fayetteville, Ark., last week on account of the death of her sister. Everyone sympathizes and will be glad to see her return again Saturday.

Gayle Scott; Secretary-treasurer, Nigle Outlaw; Sargeant-at-arms, Noel Bran-ton; Class reporter, Lester Sowell.
There were twenty-eight at the meeting and under Mr. Dabbs the choir expects soon to have fifty or more members.

Special music for the occasion was furnished by Annie McLendon and Sam Frizzell.

The charter members of the choir are Felton Camp, Ray Skaggs, Robert Weaver, Robert Overton, Aubrey Lev-eridge, Russell Anderson, Guy Tittle, Howard Walker, Roy Jones, Fred Harrel, Grenville Compton, Pete Wingo, Guy Rozar, Howard Lowery, Heywood

T. C. U. LOSES TO DANIEL BAKER

down. The goal was kicked; score 20 to 0.

Third Quarter

Boles' new men failed to stop the rapid work, and the Presbyterians made the fourth touchdown within two minutes of play. Turner recovered a fumble on the T. C. U. 26-yard line. A pass to Gibbs failed and then Phillips made the most spectacular play of the game by bounding into the air and catching a pass for seventeen yards and going across. The goal failed;
score 26 to 0.

After the Christians received they made fifteen yards on a pass to Brov n.
Nelson lost three and T. C. U. kicked out of bounds. By a series of fake plays and other open work by Daniel Baker the ball was promptly advanced to within one yard of the goal. Thomas got one pass in this bunch for 36 yards.
On the one yard line the Christians kicked thirty, and Phillips returned sixteen. Third quarter over, Presbyterians' ball twelve yards from goal.
Score 26 to 0.

Fourth Quarter

At the opening of the fourth quarter McNamara took a pass for 18 yards and Brown for 32 yards. Reeder intercepted one of Prentice's passes on the 40-yard line. Two passes failed. Daniel Baker punted. Cox was thrown for for a loss. T. C. U. punted forty yards.
Anderson gained six yards on an end run. Phillips got two passes for thirty and ten yards and Anderson went through the line for a touchdown.
Prentice kicked goal. Score 33 to 0.
T. C. U. received, was held for downs and punted to the fifty-yard line.
Gibbs went through the line six yards, Turner twenty yards. McNamara intercepted pass on his own twenty-five yard line, when the game was ended.

Girls to Auction Pies to Boys

A unique stunt to be pulled off by the Endeavor Society of the Magnolia avenue Christian church in the form of a pie social, when luscious pies, baked by the young ladies of the Society, will be auctioned off to the young men present.

T. C. U. students are especially invited, and many have signified their intention of being among the bidders.

The social will take place Saturday,
Nov. 28, at the Magnolia church.

STUDENTS UNDER MISS POWELL GIVE RECITALS

Miss Leila Powell, head of the Oratory Department of T. C. U., is presented her students in a series of recitals which are held every Friday at 4:30 p. m. in the Shirley-Walton Hall.
Three students appear on each program.

Last Friday Dick Darter, Sophia Bahan and Myrtice Stringer read. This week, Masal Jeffers, Erskine Long and Mattie Harrell, new students, will read.

Miss Powell hopes that these programs will help the speakers by giving them an opportunity to observe others recite. The recitals will continue throughout the year. All persons in the university are invited to attend the programs.

Tennis Game Called Off

The intercollegiate tennis contest, scheduled to be played at Waco Saturday between T. C. U. and Baylor, was called off. The T. C. U. representatives were tied up in the wreck on the Fort Worth-Dallas interurban early Saturday morning and could not make connection.

Surprise Party

Saturday night Misses Margaret Gibson and Vista Woods were surprised by a bold invasion. About twelve girls had planned a little surprise party in honor of Miss Gibson's guest, Miss Sue Webb of Mart, a former T. C. U. student. Three tables of players participated in forty-two, the game of the evening. At the winking of the lights a feast was spread and the usual
"after-dinner" conversation was indulged in. Those present were: Misses Sue Webb, Margaret Gibson, Vista Woods, Katherine Durrett, Sarah Durrett, Minnie Proctor, Amboline Tyson, Ruby Frances, Helen Walker, Mabel McLary, Mora Moore, Daphne Helms, Lola McFarland and Mary Grace Muss.
