DOZEN MEN TO ENTER PRELIMINARY CONTEST TO TRIANGULAR DEBATE

To Debate Six Year Term For President--Try-Out December 11

SIX MEN TO BE CHOSEN

Twelve men have given their names to E. R. Bentley, president of the Oratorical Association, as entrants to the preliminary tryout for the intercollegiate debates with Trinity and Southwestern Universities this year.

Those who have entered the contest are W. B. Higgins, John Freeman, Jas. A. Crain, Owen Jones, E. R. Bentley, C. B. Reeder, J. H. Monk, Jesse Martin, Albert Martin, Clyde Tomlinson, Homer Tomlinson and Alden Evans. These men drew lot to determine the order in which they should speak on the night of the preliminary contest which will be held in the university auditorium Friday night, December 11. Those who drew even numbers will debate the negative side of the question, and those who drew odd numbers will defend the affirmative side.

The question this year is: "Resolved, that the president of the United States should be elected for a term of six years and not be eligible for reelection."

Six debaters and two alternates will be selected at the preliminary contest, and these men will represent T. C. U. in the final intercollegiate debates.

The final contests of this triangular series will be held between T. C. U. and Southwestern at Georgetown and between T. C. U. and Trinity at Fort Worth. They will take place on the same night in February.

Three men who represented T. C. U. in these debates last year are trying out this year. They are Bentley, Reeder and Crain.

Girls Sell Hot Tamales at International Tea; Students Have Future Love Affairs Foretold

Brushes Dressed in Costumes of Many Nations Serve Appropriate Refreshments in the Beautifully Decorated Booths

Many students who attended the International Tea given by Mrs. Cockrell's art students on the fourth floor of Worth Hall Wednesday night had their fortune told by a palmist. Most of them found out who and when they were to marry and all about their future love affairs, joys and troubles.

Dressed in costumes representing several countries, the Brushes dispensed refreshments typical of those countries from beautifully decorated booths arranged in the various rooms. Different rooms were fixed up to characterize Mexico, America, France and Japan.

In the Mexico booth Senoritas Carrie Cassell and Ellen Hartgrove sold hot tamales to the eager guests. Their cries of "hot tamales" could be heard through the halls. Adjoining their booth was the fortune teller's tent which seemed to be the most popular of all. America was another popular place for there the punch was served. The Shirley-Walton hall was decorated to represent the homeland. Misses Ruby

T.C.U. To Play Trinity Monday Students Stand Behind Team Expecting Fight to The Finish

HORNED FROG CONTRACT LET TO EXLINE-REIMERS

The contract for the printing of the Horned Frog, the T. C. U. year book, has been let by the senior class to the Exline-Reimers company of Fort Worth. Bids were received from firms all over the country, but the offer of the Fort Worth concern was considered the best.

The photographic work for the annual is progressing rapidly. Many pictures have already been taken, and the management announces that all pictures for the book must be taken before the Christmas holidays begin. The photographer comes out to the university and takes pictures every Monday. He has established a studio under the skylight in the hall of the piano practice rooms on the fourth floor.

Before the pictures will be taken, each student must procure a receipt from the manager entitling him to all of the work necessary for the annual. The price of the receipt is $1.00; this amount will be counted in on the price of the Horned Frog when it is issued.

Quite a number of kodak scenes have been submitted to editor Bentley in the contest for the $5.00 prize which will be given for the best kodak picture of student life which is offered for the book.

CHANGE FOREST PARK CARS

According to a report the Forest Park line is to have double truck street cars soon. The cars which are at present in use in Oak Cliff are the ones which are to be transferred. The cars are without air-brakes but are double truck and will be a great improvement over the cars which are in use at present.

Team at First Opposed to Postponement. Trinity Made Proposal; Boles to Send Good Team Against Presbyterians--Odds in Favor of T. C. U.

Following the postponement of the game with Trinity until Monday, by Dr. C. C. Gumm, head of the Athletic Council, the football men met Friday and decided to play on that day. At first the sentiment of the squad and student body at large was strongly opposed to putting the game off.

The announcement made during Chapel exercises Thanksgiving morning that the game would not be played until Monday on account of rain, came as a complete surprise to the team, members of the athletic council and student body.

Members of the Athletic Council said they had no notice whatever of the proposal to call the Turkey day game off.

Dr. Gumm said Manager Pierce of Trinity had asked over long distance that the game be put off. After consulting Coach Boles, who agreed to the postponement, Dr. Gumm took the authority to move the game up until Monday.

Dr. Gumm gave as his reason for calling the game off, that continuous rain had made the gridiron soggy and that he was afraid the men would take pneumonia if they were to play in the rain.

At the meeting of the first team men John P. Cox, fullback, one of the men most strongly opposed to postponing the game, was appointed as a committee of one to talk to Dr. Gumm about the action he had taken. Cox waited upon Dr. Gumm at once, who admitted he acted too hasty, but that he thought that the decision would be well met by the popular conscience of the university.

Although the players at first opposed postponing the game longer than Saturday, on the statement of Manager Hooper that it would mean more to the Athletic Association, financially to wait until Monday, they agreed to it.

Many alumni and old students who came to Fort Worth to witness the big Thanksgiving game were disappointed at not being able to see T. C. U. play. Some came from as far as Brownwood to attend the game. Among those who were here on Thanksgiving were: E. C. Tomlinson, president of the Board of Trustees, Carl Tomlinson, Roy Tomlinson, Alvin Street, Winfield Stirman, Lindly Wood, Louis Wright; Misses Lela Tomlinson, Joe Cannon, Bettie Hart and May Rose.

Every Turkey Day Game between teams in the T. I. A. A. except the T. C. U.-Trinity game, was played as scheduled. Even the High School teams throughout the state did not stop on account of the weather.

The game will be played Monday—rain or shine, hot or cold, in Panther Park at three o'clock. Trinity has chartered a special car and will be here a hundred strong.

Everybody is behind the team to the utmost. Never has there been more anxiety, pep, and enthusiasm than is now being manifested by the student body. It seems as if postponing the game has made the students more anxious than ever for the big battle and has filled them with more of the old time spirit and a greater determination than ever to roll old Trinity in the mud.

The last and biggest football pep meeting for this year will be held Monday.

$65 IN PRIZES WON BY ART STUDENTS

Mrs. Cockrell's Students Swamp Dallas Fair, Bringing Back 33 Prizes

Thirty-three prizes amounting to sixty-five dollars were won by T. C. U. art students under Mrs. E. R. Cockrell at the Dallas Fair this year. Besides these prizes have been won in Oklahoma and at several county fairs in Texas.

Mrs. Cockrell is proud of the showing made by her students; many beautiful exhibits have been offered to the public.

The amounts won by the T. C. U. students are as follows: Dura Louise Cockrell, $15; Mary Sue Darter, 13; Ethel Edwards, $9; Ruby Lee Vance, 6; Charles Ford, $2; Annie Mae Tanner, $2; Alice Long, $2; Velma Armstrong, $2; Aubrey Fletcher, $2; Floramai Mason, $9; Lottie Martin, $1.75 and Grace Mason, $1.

Floramai Mason won four prizes at the Waco Cotton Palace Exhibition. Bonnie Williams received two prizes in the exhibition of the Oklahoma State Fair. Ethel Brown won several prizes in a West Texas county fair.

T. C. U. CHURCH COOPERATES IN UNION REVIVAL MEETING

By resolution of the Church Board, the T. C. U. Christian Church will not hold services during the McConnell Union meeting, other than the Bible school and Lord's Supper. This step was taken after mature deliberation, and voices the desire of the church officers to cooperate most heartily in the union services now in progress.

GO-ED BASKETBALL SEXTETTE LOOKS LIKE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Beat Central High School in Practice Game 41 to 1.

PROCTER THROWS 14 GOALS

Once again our goal-tossers brought home the bacon. Friday afternoon, when they crushed in cruelty the skirt-wearers from Central High School. One of the sweetest things of the game took place when Miss Eva Sweet got away with enough sweetness to ring up a fowl for the High girls. This measly little point kept Central from being burdened with the product of a goose. Unmercifully the Christians trampled the Central lasses in the sod; the score alone, 41 to 1, stands out enough to let us know we have a championship team.

At the sound of the shrill whistle of the referee, Coach Cahoon, the bombarding of the Christians began. The High School half dozen was attacked from all sides by the T. C. U. infantry. Completely surrounded, there was no chance to escape. There after the smoke of battle had cleared away, stood six pair of bloomers and in them were six representatives from Central High who left the field with "Cannon to the right of them, cannon to the left of them, roared and thundered," flashing through their weary brain.

Minnie Procter was guilty of throwing fourteen field goals from angles of various degrees. Next to her was Vestal Tompkins. Central did not run good interference, their line was weak and they failed to hit low.

The teams lined up as follows: T. C. U.—Procter, Carson, Tompkins, forwards; McLarry, Luse, Maloney, guards; Baxter, Leveridge, Simmons, centers. Central—Sweet, Smith, centers; Shankle, Reed, guards, Strain, Celley, forwards. Coach Cahoon officiated.

T. C. U. Freshmen and Sophs Play 6 to 6 Tie in Exciting Football Game on Campus Gridiron

Burgher and Cooper Make Touchdowns; Rooters Watch Underclassmen Rush Pigskin from One End of Field to Other

The Sophs and Fish battled to a 6 to 6 tie Monday morning, in one of the hardest fought games ever played on the university gridiron. The game was spirited, peppery and at times spectacular and intensely interesting. The ball swayed up and down the field for the first three quarters before either team scored. The odds were about even, but the ball was in Sophomore territory a little more than it was in the Fish district. Finally, the Freshmen, after a series of line bucks, sent Burger thru the line across the Sophomore goal. The Sophomores made their touchdown when Cooper received a punt and ran the length of the field for a touchdown.

Both teams kept up the fighting spirit throughout the four quarters. The Fish showed they had more practice than the Sophs and the Fish team, as a machine, worked a little better than that of their opponents. The Freshmen outweighed the Sophomores about six pounds to the man.

FIRST HALF

The Sophs won the toss and chose to receive. Shelburne caught the punt and advanced ten yards. The Sophs made their downs three times and then lost the ball on a forward pass. Strong missed a forward pass with a clear

THE PRINCE ALBERT WORM

Yes, there it is again. Last summer the preacher boys were warned not to isolate themselves from the rest of the students, to plunge into the college spirit, and not to show the preacher tendency too much. Some of the boys determined to profit by the suggestion, it would seem. They hit the gridiron. Some of them stuck. But here comes a bundle of nerves with growing pains that the "Prince Albert worm" is making inroads into T. C. U. athletics. Oh, gosh! Flitter! Shoot! Pshaw! Some folks would die if they didn't have something to poke their long hawk nails into. PREACHER

FORT WORTH IS TO HAVE MUNICIPAL ATHLETIC PARK

According to plans being formulated by a group of business men of Fort Worth, the city is to have a large municipal Athletic Park. The park will be located on the T. & P. Reservation, and will include a gridiron, diamond, track and tennis courts. A grandstand with a seating capacity of several thousand will be built. This is a great thing for Fort Worth and will mean much for T. C. U. Let every student help by boosting for the new Municipal Athletic Field.

Ministerial Association Thanks Friends for Help

At a called meeting of the Ministerial Association just after chapel on Wednesday morning, the following resolution was presented by James Crain, and unanimously adopted by that body. Be it resolved: That we, the ministerial students of Texas Christian University, through our Ministerial Association, hereby take this opportunity to state our deep appreciation and heartfelt gratitude for the funds which were so cheerfully contributed to enable us to attend the Lectureship at Waxahachie in a body. To our beloved brother and instructor, Chalmers McPherson, in whose great heart this service of love originated, we extend the same token of thanks.

Our experiences there gave us an enlarged vision of the glory of preaching the gospel of Christ, and we believe our usefulness in the vineyard of the Master has been increased by its fellowship. May our lives be fruitful in service of Christ, and thus yield returns upon such investments of faith. Further, it is the will of this body that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Association, a copy sent to the Skiff and another to the Christian Courier for publication.

PROF. COCKRELL GIVES THIRD CHAPEL TALK ON "WAR"

Several interesting phases of the European War from the standpoint of International Law were discussed by Prof. E. R. Cockrell last Saturday in the third of his series of chapel talks, on questions concerning the conflict which are suggested by newspaper stories. Prof. Cockrell outlined the principles of neutrality and neutral ships and gave some interesting facts in regard to the way in which those principles had been interpreted. He also gave the rules governing mine-laying and other modern means of warfare.

German Professor Answers "Scholarly Address"
 of History Professor on Belgian Neutrality

The probability of our becoming involved in the terrible world war becomes daily more apparent. That T. C. U. is to enjoy the signal triumph of being chiefly instrumental in the outbreak of hostilities is imminent. The ominous incident in chapel last week, when the professors of History and German engaged in immortal intellectual combat regarding Belgian neutrality is enough to convince even the most incredulous.

The professor of History, with profuse assurance of his intended fairness and impartiality, even to the professor of German (which he did not say but evidently meant), explained how the French troops had not mobilized near Belgium and had thereby fallen into grievous error, not dreaming that the Germans would have the unadulterated gall to violate Belgian neutrality. This course of action, he went on to say, was not only a direct antithesis of their solemn promise but was very imprudent as it would precipitate both Belgium and England upon her, same being fine scrappers, and thereby consummate her sorely beleaguered condition. The professor of History concluded his "scholarly address" with other remarks, mostly neutral in character.

The professor of German now took the floor. She made it plain that French mobilization near Alsace-Lorraine was due to the desire for bloody r-r-r-revenge on Germany. The ire of the French had got the better of their judgment, which was not strange, their ire being large and their judgment small. The Germans went through Belgium because they knew if they did not, the French and English would, a palpable frameup to do this having been discovered by the eternal vigilance of German spies. Hence Germany was only following der Kaiser's Golden Rule: "Do unto others as they would like to do unto you, and do it first."

Meanwhile the students reared back in their seats and enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Be it known that the T. C. U. students have the true characteristics of the scholar, and if there is anything they relish it is the unprejudiced presentation of both sides of an interesting question. Some are certain that this is only the harbinger of war with Germany. Others are willing to submit it to the Hague Tribunal as soon as authorities can determine whether it is a question of history or German.

OLD POLY STUDENTS FORM CLUB IN T.C.U.

16 Charter Members--Contented Under Purple and White Banner

"The memories of old Polytechnic days shall never die." This is a resolution which was unanimously adopted at the organization meeting of the "Poly Club" last Friday. Sixteen former Poly students were present, all of them anxious to renew the old spirit and get close together for the sake of old times.

Last year it was decided that young men would no longer be allowed to grace (or disgrace) the halls of Polytechnic College. The name was even changed and Poly apparently lived no more. But it was only apparently, for she still lives in the memory of the boys she disowned.

As the summer passed, it became necessary for the Poly orphans to select a new educational home. They wished to continue their studies in a college or university of the same excellent standing as the one they had left. They chose Texas Christian University.

When a student changes from one school to another he usually finds it hard to transfer his loyalty also. With T. C. U. it has been different. Old Poly students no longer feel like outcasts; they are contented under the banner of the "Purple and White."

However, it is impossible to let the memories of the "old college" die out. Therefore the "Poly Club" has been formed. Judging by the results of the first meeting a pleasant and successful year is ahead of them.

The charter members are as follows: Aiden Evans, president; Claude Miller, vice-president; Jesse Martin, secretary-treasurer; Garland Ellis, Owen Jones, Harvey Latson, Roy Jones, Albert Martin, Fred Harold, Dee Beakley, Wilbur Wingo, Doc Howard, Ernest Richardson, Claude Kornegay, Charles Christenberry, Miss Mina White, Miss Margaret Pritchett.

Special Car Leaves Rail

Friday night at 7:30 a Forest Park special car left the track on the first curve north of T. C. U., injuring several and shaking up all of the passengers. Dr. Lockhart sustained minor cuts about the face. The car was crowded with students on the way to the LaFollette lecture, and it narrowly missed rolling down a 20 foot embankment.

James A. Crain brought in a cap and ball pistol for the Museum which was taken from the battlefield of the Alamo and given to him by a friend. We are trying to learn more about the history of the old relic.

Besides the snow shoes brought from Canada by Willis Stovall, he also has given us several other relics for the Museum. One is a bone scraper which is used to remove hair and meat from Moose hide. It is used by the Canadian Indians. The other is an "Evil Spirit" flag with tobacco incense tied to it to keep off all evil spirits. These flags are hidden in the highest branches possible. It was from one of these hidden places this one was taken by Mr. Stovall.

Through J. H. Monk a book—"Beaumont and Fletcher's Dramatic Works," volume 2—was secured from Hon. Cunningham of Ravenna, Texas, who is now serving his second term in the Texas State Legislature. The book was published in London in 1839 and is of the George Darley edition. We thank our friend for the gift and are sure the library has a permanent friend in Hon. Cunningham. It arrived just in time for use in the Elizabethan Drama course.

SIX SPEAKERS CHOSEN FOR OLD MEN'S CONTEST

Final selections have been made by the Shirley and Add-Ran Literary Societies of their representatives for the Old Men's Declamatory Contest, which will be held in the university auditorium next Friday night, Dec. 4, at 8 p. m.

The men elected to declaim for the Add-Rans are Crawford B. Reeder, Birge Holt, and Clyde Grissom. The men selected by the Shirleys in their preliminary contest last Monday are John Keith, Horace Jones, and Homer Tomlinson. These men have all appeared in contests before, and are considered to be the best old men which the societies have to put forth to defend them on the rostrum.

The season tickets which the Oratorical Association has sold to many of the students will admit the holders to this contest. It is the first of the three annual inter-society contests between the Add-Rann and the Shirley Societies.

Faint notes of a nightingale,

All these, and a fairy sigh,

I think I hear still more refined

field in front of him that perhaps kept the first year men from scoring. A series of forward passes after a complete failure on the part of the Fish to penetrate the line of their opponents, brought the ball within three yards of the Soph goal. Here the quarter ended:

The Sophs held the Fish for downs on the three yard line. Shelburne punted out of danger. The Fish tried a little bit of everything but lost the ball. The Sophs took the ball to the fifteen yard line, but a bonehead signal lost their chance to score. Shelburne on a fake pass play instead of faking passed the ball on the third down. The ball was caught by Shirley Sweeney, Fish, across the goal. It was a touchback, and the ball was given to the Fish on the twenty yard line. End of first half, score 0-0.

SECOND HALF

Making one successful pass and two unsuccessful passes, together with a lot of fumbles, is a good description of the third quarter, the Sophs doing most of it. Biggers saved the day for the Fish once this period when he intercepted a forward pass on his 15-yard line.

Forward passing featured the fourth quarter also. A pass to Burger hit him and bounced into Baugh's arms before it touched the ground. Baugh carried the pigskin to the 5-yard line on this fluke. Repeated line bucks brought the ball within a foot of the Soph goal when Burger was sent across; he failed to kick goal. Cooper received the freshman punt on the 20-yard line. Stiffarming several Fish and outrunning several more, he went the rest of the distance across the goal for a touch-down. Cooper missed the try for goal. The rest of the game was nip and tuck.

The Sophs kept the ball most of the time, and completed several good forward passes. The game ended with the ball on the Fish 15-yard line.

Burger was the one bright star in the Fish lineup; he is one of the best back field men in T. C. U. He would have been a regular first team man if he had not sustained a fractured ankle in the first game of the season. This was the first game he has been able to play in since then. Broadley, one of the best linemen in school, who was kept from playing in the big games on account of sickness, starred repeatedly. Biggers played good ball.

David Tudor went into the game with a knee twice its normal size, a bad hip, a bruised hand a thumb out of place. He was knocked out during the first kickoff. As soon as he got his breath he hobbled back into his place at half-back, received five forward passes and played star ball. He was knocked out again in the third quarter and was supanted by Bradford, who played a good game.

Cooper on end played a first class game. On taking forward passes he was a comet. Frizzell made some good gains and did some good tackling.

The lineup:

Fish	Position	Sophs
Stovall	Center	Burger
O. Hayes	Right Guard	Melton
Broadley	Right Tackle	Bradford
Strong	Right End	Cooper
T. P. Sweeney	Left End	Keith
Baugh	Right Half	T. P. Frizzell
S. Sweeney	Left Half	Tudor
Biggers	Full Back	Shelburne
Brewster	Quarter	Alden Evans

Subs: Fish, Burger for Strong; Bilingsly for Scott. Sophs: Aiken took Bradford's place in line; Bradford took Tudor's place at half.

Coach Cahoon, Referee; Coach Boles, Umpire.

SHOCKLEY ADDRESSES

TRINITY U. Y. M. C. A.

J. W. Shockley, president of the T. C. U. Y. M. C. A., addressed the Y. M. C. A. of Trinity university last Friday night. The subject of his talk was "The Call Within the Call." The audience was composed of the men of the student body and faculty of Trinity.

The Trinity men were well pleased with the talk and invited Shockley to address them again. The Y. M. C. A. sent greetings to the T. C. U. "Y", and it is thought that arrangements will soon be made to bring Jasper Manton, president of the Trinity Y. M. C. A. to T. C. U. to speak before the association here.

Shockley stated that the Trinitonians were very jubilant on the eve of the game, and were planning to invade Fort Worth in large numbers on Turkey Day.

Freshman Has Hero Medal

By College Press.

University of Texas, Nov. 18.—Miss Pauline McKinney, a freshman in the University, holds the unique distinction of having a Carnegie medal. She received the medal for rescuing her baby cousin from being run over by a passenger train.

Slang Cut Out of Yells

By College Press.

University of Texas, Nov. 18.—A movement has been started here this year to cut out all forms of slang in the college yells and songs. The yell leaders have refused to lead yells containing slang, and the editor of the Texan has denounced such through the prerogative of his office.
