COACH MOORE TAKES TWELVE VARSITY PLAYERS ON NINE-DAY BASEBALL TRIP; CHINESE GAME PREVENTED BY RAIN

Baseball Team to Play Hardest Games During Nine Days They Are Gone; Coach Moore Takes Three Pitchers

Threatening spring showers caused the cancellation of the game with the Chinese baseball team scheduled for April 7. The game was called off by mutual agreement on both sides.

Coach Moore and Manager Ledbetter departed Friday morning over the H. & T. C. with twelve baseball stars for a nine day road trip to play nine games. The first game will be played with Trinity University at Waxahachie, Friday afternoon. Saturday the Christians will play the Owls of Rice Institute a double-header.

The team will leave Houston Saturday night for Georgetown where they will spend Sunday, playing Southwestern University Monday and Tuesday. After playing the Methodists, the Christians will journey to Austin and play two games with Texas University, Wednesday and Thursday. The next games will be played with A. & M. at College Station Friday and Saturday. The team will leave College Station Saturday evening and get back home that night.

This trip is perhaps the hardest ever made by a T. C. U. team. Nine games will be played with only one day for rest. Besides this, only twelve men are taking the trip, and the games are so arranged as to keep the men traveling a great part of the time. The games are with the best college teams in the state and the outcome of the trip will largely decide T. C. U.'s standing in the T. I. A. A.

After the road trip the next games will be between T. C. U. and Texas and T. C. U. and A. & M. in Fort Worth April 26-27 and 28-29. After these games the Christians will rest two weeks and then make a western trip.

The men who made the trip are: Crotty, Miller, Christenberry, Wingo, Brewster, Nelson, Couch, Gunter, Strong, Shelburne and Vaughn.

Prof. Myatt will be with the team as faculty representative until Monday, when Prof. Cahoon will take his place.

Mid-Term Faculty Social Held at Miss Mason's

Miss Florama Mason entertained the university faculty at their mid-term social meeting at her home, 1110 Alston avenue, last Thursday a week ago.

The first part of the evening was taken up with an address by Dr. Gilmore on the "City Water Supply" and a discussion by Secretary Beck of the Chamber of Commerce on the financial side of the water problem of the city.

A large number of the medical faculty members, as well as members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences, attended the meeting. Refreshments in the way of purple and white ice cream, cake with the monogram, "T. C. U." on it and punch were served.

The social was one of the most enjoyable which the faculty has had this year, and every one who was present acknowledged Miss Mason a royal hostess.

SEVENTEEN GIRLS ARE IN CAST FOR WALTONS' COMEDY NEXT FRIDAY

Next Friday night, April 16, the Walton Literary Society will give the comedy "Mennemen Inn" as the program for their annual open session.

Seventeen members of the society will take part in the performance. The girls have been working on the play for five weeks and have shown remarkable development under the coaching of Miss Humphrey. It has cost the society about $30 to stage the play.

The entire scene is laid in a small summer town near New York City, time—the present. The play has a strong message besides many clever and humorous situations. As it is an open program, everyone is invited.

The cast of characters is as follows:

- Miss Braggs, the landlady.....
-Mary Grace Muse.
- Miss Cute Sweetbriar, her niece.....
-Monette Whaley.
- Helena Strong from Labrador, Maide.....
-Ruby Walker.
- Mrs. Strong, her aunt.....
-Vestal Tompkins.
- Viva De Lancy, a rich girl from New York City.....
-Masal Jeffers.
- Mrs. Carter, her chaperon.....
-Myrtle Goforth.
- Frances Morrison, fond of Dorothy.....
-Margaret Forsythe.
- Dorothy Morrison, bright, knowing and eager.....
-Anna McLendon.
- Mrs. Weatherbee, a gay widow.....
-Mary Hanan.
- Alicia Weatherbee, her daughter.....
-Gladys Richards.
- Betsy Bullson, butter and eggs girl.....
-Winnie Limbaugh.
- Marie Louise, the manicure girl.....
-Irene Carson.
- Pearl, an up to date waitress.....
-Minnie Proctor.
- Jennie, the chambermaid.....
-Frances Thompson.
- Fannie, the cook.....
-Anna Joe Pendleton.
- Nellie, Miss DeLancy's maid.....
-Mollie Jones.

DELEGATES GIVE VOTE OF THANKS TO NORMAL CLUB

Bruce Knight Wins Third Place in Press Club Poem Contest

Bruce Knight's short story entry won second place in the final State Press Club prize contest. This result was announced at the convention of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association at the North Texas State Normal last week.

Baylor won first place in the poem and short story contest, and the College of Industrial Arts won first place in the essay contest. $10 gold medals were presented the winners. By an amendment to the constitution, the winners in the future contests will receive cash prizes.

The two days of the convention at the Normal proved to be one continuous round of pleasure to the visiting delegates from the colleges represented in the convention. No efforts were spared by the members of the Normal and C. I. A. Press Clubs, both at Denton, to make the meeting the best that has

COLLEGES ALLOW SUMMER BASEBALL

T. I. A. A. Follows Lead of Southwestern Conference in Removing Restrictions

The Texas Interscholastic Athletic Association, in a meeting at Baylor, adopted a resolution allowing professional summer baseball. Previous to this, colleges belonging to the T. I. A. A. could not use players who had participated in professional baseball during the summer vacation.

Those present at the meeting were P. H. Arbuckle of Rice Institute, W. T. Mather of the University of Texas, George Newton of Trinity University, R. W. Tinsley of Southwestern University, A. C. Love of A. & M. college, S. R. Spencer and C. A. Gantt of Baylor University.

The meeting was called, and the resolution allowing summer professional ball adopted, on account of a conflict between rules of the T. I. A. A. and the Southwest Athletic Conference. The Southwest Athletic Conference, which was organized last November provided from the start that summer baseball should be allowed. The following colleges are members of the conference: Texas, Texas A. & M., Oklahoma A. & M. Arkansas, Baylor, Southwestern.

One of the first games played this season was between Texas and Southwestern, which schools are members of both the T. I. A. A. and the Southwest Conference. Dick Bailey pitched for Texas, and won the game after eleven innings. Bailey was recruit of Connie Mack's in 1913, and sat on the Athletic bench part of the season. Texas claimed he was eligible under the Southwest Athletic Conference rules. Southwestern University claimed he was ineligible under the T. I. A. A. rules. The meeting in Waco was called to make a decision covering this case and similar cases that might come up where colleges are members of both associations.

Alden Evans to Orate in State Contest April 16

Alden Evans will go to Austin College at Sherman Friday, April 16, to represent T. C. U. in the State Oratorical contest. John Keith will accompany him.

The contest this year promises to be a close one, as several of the colleges in state oratorical association are sending strong speakers to the meet. Crawford Reeder, who represented T. C. U. last year, is vice-president of the Association.

T. C. U. LAW SCHOOL TO OPEN IN FALL WITH ESTABLISHMENT OF 2-YEAR COURSE; DURRETT TO BECOME BUSINESS MANAGER

STUDENTS DECLARE FULL HOLIDAY TO CELEBRATE APRIL FOOL PROPERLY

The inmates of both Jarvis and Clark Halls met in the Auditorium on the cold morning of "All Fool's Day", and unanimously decided that the strenuous and nerve-racking examination week just passed through be followed by a day of rest and pleasure. It was decided after due deliberation that said pleasure would be taken in the form of a trip to the shores of the River Trinity.

At eight o'clock sharp, the happy crowd set out, leaving books and "chaperones" behind. On arriving at the river, the crowd divided itself into small groups, each group taking a different path. None of the pleasures afforded by Nature upon the bank of a beautiful stream were missed by these carefree students—except the swim. Hills were climbed and a hundred other enjoyable pranks were indulged in.

At dinner time (this time was judged by a "feeling of goneness" in the abdominal region) those who had thought to carry lunches sat down under the cool, refreshing shade of pecan and walnut trees and partook of their eats. Those who forgot to bring victuals begged a few morsels from the nearby farmhouses. After hunger had been somewhat appeased, Tarrant County's greatest river was further explored, until all were afflicted with a good healthy fatigue, and were ready to return homeward.

Every one who went on this excursion pronounced it one of the greatest pleasures of the whole year even if they were given demerits and zeros for cutting classes.

R. A. Highsmith will deliver the baccalaureate address for Wayland Baptist College, the Baptist college of West Texas, located at Plainview. Congratulations Mr. Highsmith. We consider this school fortunate in securing your services.

VARSITY GLEE CLUB MAKING 3 DAY TOUR

Give Concerts at Waxahachie Hillsboro and Dallas Grapevine Monday

The T. C. U. Glee Club left Thursday morning for Hillsboro where they gave a concert Thursday night in the Christian church, under the auspices of the church choir. Mr. and Mrs. Cahoon are accompanying the Glee Club.

Following the program Thursday night, the Glee Club went to Waxahachie where they are to give a concert tonight at the Christian church there. This program will be given the night after the University of Texas Glee Club sings there. The T. C. U. Club has been well advertised, and a record at

Dacus Resigns as Manager; M.E. Daniel and Geo. Conner to Teach Law and Munday Academy Mathematics

Final plans are being made by Prof. E. R. Cockrell for the establishment of a modern law department in connection with the university, authorized by the board of trustees at their meeting Wednesday. A two-year course will be offered beginning next fall, modeled after that of the University of Texas.

The work to be given in the new department will be so arranged that at the end of two years, T. C. U. law students will be fully prepared to stand the examination for admittance to the bar. Those who desire a third year necessarily for a law degree will receive full credit at the University of Texas and at other schools for the work done here.

Milton E. Daniel, a former popular football star of T. C. U. who graduated here in 1912 and will take his law degree at the University of Texas next June, has been secured as one of the professors for the law school. Daniel had a reputation in T. C. U. of doing more work than any other student in school—a reputation which he has lived up to thoroughly at Austin. He was generally accorded the most popular student in the university during his senior year.

Geo. M. Conner, son of Judge Conner of the Court of Civil Appeals, will also be a member of the law faculty. Conner was an honor graduate of the law school of Tulane University and has had large experience both as a teacher and practicing attorney. He is at present a member of the Fort Worth bar. Other members of the law faculty have been elected.

H. M. Durrett was chosen successor to Prof. J. A. Dacus, who resigned as business manager of the institution effective at the opening of the next session. A resolution of thanks was passed by the trustees expressing their appreciation of his energetic work in behalf of the school and their confidence in his ability. Prof. Dacus was offered the principalship of the College of Business but has not yet accepted the position. The faculty for the Business College has not yet been selected.

M. S. Munday, professor of mathematics in the Blooming Grove High School, was elected teacher of mathematics in the academy. Prof. Munday is a graduate of the North Texas State Normal at Denton and has the highest recommendations for the position he was elected to fill. He is a good athlete and band man. It is expected that he will take great interest in these two phases of college activity.

The choice of music instructors in the music department was left to Pres. Kershner and Professor Cahoon.

An appropriation of $150 for instruments and equipment for the band and tuition for six men who play in the band were allowed by the trustees.

The appointment of John P. Cox as student laboratory assistant assures his presence in school next year as

BACKING UP THE TEAM.

The Varsity baseball team is now off on its ten day road trip. During these ten days they will play the majority of the games on this season's schedule. They will play without the presence of an enthusiastic student body to root for them and encourage them. They will have practically no support from the grandstand on the occasion of any of these games away from home. This will make these games much more difficult for them to win than if they were being played on the home diamond with the rousing yells of their fellow students to spur them on.

The students ought to show their interest in the success of the team on this tour of the colleges of the state by writing the men a letter or a card, telling them that we are behind them in spirit and want them to win.

It will not mean much trouble to the students here to do this, but it will mean a great deal to the fellows on the team to receive cards from all their friends to the effect that we are vitally interested in their progress. It will inspire them to play faster and better ball.

When you hear that an individual player has made a good play, write him your congratulations. When the team plays a game, let them know that we, back here at T. C. U. are looking to them to do good work for the sake of the purple and white.

WHY NOT BAND CONCERTS AT FOREST PARK?

T. C. U. students are fortunate in having so near the university the magnificent Forest Park. It affords a place where they can go at any time and enjoy a few hours' recreation and communion with nature. The park is open at all times to the various student organizations for picnics and camping trips.

Since "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," some means must be found to satisfy the spring fancies of young college students. This turning of the fancy, combined with spring fever, sometimes becomes so strong as to lead students entirely away from the serious consideration of their work to day dreaming and idleness.

Students must overcome this tendency toward all play and no work in springtime if they hope to reach the end of the term without disappointment. The happiest student is he who combines the two in right proportion. If students would make it a habit to spend some of the recreation time at the park where they receive the benefit of the open air and sunshine, they could do much better work in their classes.

Forest Park affords the chief place of diversion for the people of Fort Worth on Sunday afternoon, and several thousand are there each week. The pleasure and enjoyment of their visit to the park could be increased many times if band concerts were provided for their entertainment on Sunday afternoon. This plan of offering free band music would furnish the people of the city and of the university with a form of amusement which would prove both entertaining and uplifting.

The T. C. U. band is thoroughly able to give such concerts and could do it at a very small cost. With the addition of a few more players from the city, our band would be strong enough to give just as good concerts as any that could be secured. While it would mean something in the way of an advertisement to T. C. U., it would mean much more in giving the people who visit Forest Park a form of clean and wholesome entertainment on Sunday afternoon.

COLLEGE PRESS

The Freshman edition of the A. and M. Battalion was issued last week, sixteen pages strong, and every page replete with the things the "Fish" have done and are going to do for A. and M. Says one of the editorials of the "Fish" editor:

Since no one will toot our horn for us, we will toot it ourselves. Throughout this issue of the Battalion you shall read about the greatness of the "fish." No one seemed inclined to let the world know of the greatness of our class so we take advantage of this issue of the "Bat" to boast of our classmates to the "Old Boys," and to the outside readers of the "Bat."

Last week's issue of the LASS-O, the weekly of the College of Industrial Arts and the only college paper in the South edited and managed by girls, was given over almost entirely to the doings of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association at Denton, April 1 and 2. The Lass-O force was on the ground from the first and scored a scoop on other papers by giving the first complete story report of the activities of the press delegates.

One remarkable improvement in the press club edition of the Lass-O was the removal of the ads from the front page. This gives it a much more news-papery appearance. Although the news and editorial side of the paper is always subservient to the business side, the front page should be one page reserved solely for the news staff to fill up. The Lass-O should make this improvement permanent.

If it were not such a long, long way to Tipperary, some of these awful rotten singers around here might go there and relieve us of their racuous discords.

When we used to get licked, down in the grades, we at least had the consolation of hearing the teacher say it hurt him worse than it did us; but our logic teacher puts up his test questions with a smile of undisguised and brazen malice, and then reads a magazine while we flunk.

PERSONALS and LOCALS

Registrar "Hebe" Frizzell was called to his home in Athens last week on account of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Carl Farrell (Frankie Frizzell) who graduated in music at T. C. U. in '09. When he returned to the university Monday, his sister was reported out of danger.

Ellen Hartgrove was called to Dublin last Saturday to attend the funeral of her grandmother.

Ruth Carson, of Uvalde, has returned to school for the spring term.

Miss Ivy Lay, of Bonham, has entered school for the spring term.

Monette Whaley spent several days at her home in Dallas the first of the week.

Gladys Richards visited her home-folks in Italy Sunday and Monday.

Ruby Douglass spent the Easter holiday at her home in Cleburne.

John Moffat of Kansas University spent the Easter holiday with Miss Venice Luce. Mr. Moffat is a graduate of T. C. U. 1913 class. Last year he entered the law department of Kansas State where he is now Junior Law.

Lecture on Sculpture

(By College Press.)

C. I. A. April 5, 1915. Mr. Loreda Taft of Chicago, the greatest American sculptor, will give a lecture at the college auditorium Saturday evening April 10. The subject of the lecture will be "American Sculpture and Sculptors".

"A shorthand student" says, "you must overcome your weaknesses before you can master shorthand." Probably he means that you must "come one over them."

A favorite stunt with irate Fish who have been turned in for a misdemeanor is daring the monitor down to their rooms. This is a bum way for them to vindicate their valor. When the noble King of Beasts wants something to soothe his savage maw, he does not dare a sheep to his den.

These flowing veils which the coeds are wearing on their hats are undoubtedly a keen idea. They correspond to the mountain haze which lends enchantment to the view.

Prof. Molina is quoted as saying that "you can't cuss in Spanish." This was probably meant as an admonition to ministerial students of Spanish, and not as a dogmatic statement of fact.

Prof. Dabbs has a Victrola record in which a minstrel cracks an ultra-putrid joke and then almost dies laughing at it himself. After this record has been listened to daily for a couple of weeks or so, it will in some degree approximate the unique effect of a chapel joke.

Heard in 1:30 History class (which comes after "dinner"):

Prof. Knight-James, what is the Triple Alliance?

James (with a weak voice)—I don't know, but I think it is Dacus, Faris and Ford.

T. C. U. overwhelmed the Denver Railroad baseball nine last Saturday afternoon, 11 to 3, on the university diamond. The Christians had the railroad men outclassed from start to finish. Our infield worked splendidly and the outfield showed marked improvement over the work done in the last practice game.

Coach Moore tried out almost all of the new members of the pitching staff and gave both of the catchers a chance to work out. Chambers was first to go into the box. He was supplanted by Vaughn, then Shelburne took his place. Christenberry and Miller both caught well and their pegging was first rate. Judging from the way the Varsity men have been showing up in the practice games, they will be ready for their road trip and will be prepared to hold their own with the other strong college teams they will meet.

BAYLOR MAN WINS FIRST PLACE IN PROHIBIT CONTEST

F. A. Godsoe, representing Baylor University, won first place in the annual oratorical contest of the Texas Intercollegiate Prohibition Association held at Southwestern University last Friday night. Godsoe received a cash purse of $50 and a solid gold medal valued at $50. The subject of his oration was "Men Wanted." He will represent Texas in the interstate contest this spring.

Second honors went to O. W. Moerner of Southwestern University and third place in the finals to Boyce Farrar of Trinity University. Silwell Melton representing T. C. U., won third place in delivery but lost out in his manuscript.

President G. J. Roseau presided over the meeting. Friday night the Southwestern University League entertained the visiting speakers and delegates with a banquet.

Officers for the new year elected as follows: Fred Rogers of Trinity, president; F. A. Godsoe of Baylor, vice-president; Miss Mae Cage of Baylor, secretary; and J. L. Lyons of Southwestern, treasurer. Next year's meeting of the association will be held at Trinity University at Waco, Texas.

Delegates from Baylor were Misses Jewell Ingram, Louise Kuykendall, Beryl Buckner, Tony Kuykendall, Mae Cagle, Johnnie Corner; Messrs. F. A. Godsoe, G. J. Roseau. Delegates for Southwestern were Misses Gladdis Gregory, Mildred Smith, Willie Cason, Willie Maud Woodruff; Messrs. J. L. Lyons, K. E. Barnhart, M. E. Moerner, Harrison Baker, H. B. Simpson, O. W. Moerner. Boyce Farrar and Fred Rogers attended from Trinity.

KELLERMAN TO APPEAR IN CHAPEL SATURDAY

A large attendance is expected tonight at the performance of Marcus A. Kellerman, noted dramatic baritone, who appears under the auspices of the Senior Class. Kellerman will be accompanied by Sarah Gurovitch, violinist, and William Alexis Parson, pianist.

This is one of the best performances that has been secured for T. C. U. in a long while for Marcus Kellerman is a singer of remarkable ability. Since he has been in this country he has toured with the New York Symphony Orchestra under Walter Damrosch, the Minneapolis Symphony under Emil Oberhoffer, The St. Paul Symphony under Walter Rothwell, and his appearance with the Boston and the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestras, as well as the most prominent musical organizations of this country in recital, concert and oratorio have gained for him universal commendation.

BASEBALL PLAYERS GET CLASSY NEW UNIFORMS

Manager Loy Ledbetter and Coach Fred Moore gave new suits to the following men Monday afternoon. Crotty, Miller, Vaughn, Wingo, Brewster, Nelson, Couch, Gunter, Strong, Shelburne, and Vaughn. Another new suit is in Manager Ledbetter's possession waiting for somebody to claim it. Several men have about equal claim on it, and Coach Moore has not yet stated who will get the odd suit.

The uniforms are grey with a blue pinstripe in them. The caps match the suits and the stockings are dark-brown. The monogram, T. C. U. is worked on the left side of the shirt bosom.

The suits will be paid for by small contributions from members of the student body. The students are interested in the team and the games matched, and are readily responding to meet the need.

CAHOON TO TAKE CHARGE MAGNOLIA CHURCH CHOIR

Prof. Frederick M. Cahoon, director of the university Glee Club, will take charge of the music services at the Magnolia Christian Church next Sunday, becoming leader of the choir.

Prof. Cahoon has made a marked success as a leader of both choirs and orchestras, and the Magnolia church considers itself fortunate in securing his services.

T. C. U. Law School to Open in Fall

captain of the football team.
The six-day-a-week plan for classes has not been finally approved by the board. The proposed plan has been left in the hands of the executive committee.

The announcement that first and second year law courses will be added next September means that quite a number of academic students now in T. C. U., who are intending to study law will remain, and that many new students will come in next year to take up the study of law.

The establishment of the Law Department is the first step towards Prof. Cockrell's ideal of a separate and completely equipped law school with its own building and library in connection with Texas Christian University. He hopes within several years to have a complete school of this nature.

Prof. Cockrell has outlined the following courses for the department in addition to those now being offered:—elementary common law, American common law, contracts, use of law books, civil government of the United States, torts, criminal law, contracts, pleading, civil government of England, sales, criminal procedure, civil government of continental Europe, bailments and carriers, agency, practice, partnership, insurance, damages, evidence, real property, suretyship, commercial paper, domestic relations. Other courses will be added later.

The faculty of the T. C. U. Medical College was completed at the meeting Wednesday.

New Matriculates

RECEPTION IS GIVEN AFTER NAVAS RECITAL

One of the most artistic and most appreciated musical recitals given in Texas Christian University this year was that of Rafad Navas, a Spanish pianist of nation-wide renown, on Monday evening. His audience was entertained with a well-performed programme of varied selections, and his exceeding skill and splendid technique was remarked upon by the representative gathering of music lovers.

Following the recital in the auditorium a reception in the studios on fourth floor was tendered him, and the many Fort Worth musicians who came out to hear him, Mr. and Mrs. Cahoon and the music and voice students were glad to welcome the visitors. The studios and halls were decorated beautifully. Refreshing punch was served throughout the evening.

Delegates Give Vote of Thanks to Normal Club

ever been held by the association.

Resolutions of thanks and appreciation of the royal welcome and treatment accorded them by the Normal students were unanimously passed by the visitors at the final business meeting Friday afternoon.

One of the features of the occasion was an automobile trip to the College of Industrial Arts by courtesy of the Denton Chamber of Commerce. Members of the C. I. A. Press Club were hosts at the reception for the delegates at which they served punch. Souvenir copies of the Lass-O were given each of the visitors.

Two of the T. C. U. representatives were honored by an invitation from the editor of the Daedalion and the inter-collegiate editor of the Lass-O to take dinner at the College of Industrial Arts Friday. Although they were the only men among several hundred young ladies in the dining hall, they report that they felt just as much at home as if they had been in the T. C. U. dining hall.

The convention closed with a banquet at the Normal Friday night attended by about fifty couples. W. B. Ferguson, president, was toastmaster. Since the association meets next year with Simmons College at Abilene, A. C. Miller, a member of the Simmons Press Club, was elected president for the coming year.

The T. C. U. delegation, composed of Miss Lera Brown, Loy Ledbetter, E. R. Bentley, Alden Evans and Horace Jones, in expressing the result of the trip say that they will remember it as one of the most enjoyable and entertaining experiences of their college life.

University Glee Club is Making Three-day Tour

tendance is assured.

Saturday night the Glee Clubbers will be at the Oak Cliff Christian church for the final program of this trip. This concert will be given at the invitation of the Christian Endeavor Society. The singers will return to Fort Worth Saturday night.

Monday night the club will go to Grapevine in automobiles to give a concert program there. They will return the same night.

J. W. Shockley, manager for the Glee Club, has made arrangements for the appearance of the T. C. U. singers at these places and has other performances scheduled for later dates. Shockley will remain in Dallas and preach at one of the churches Sunday.
