"Now don't tell 'em I said so, but we're figurin' on taking that game with S. M. U. Saturday, 'jes like a Freshman takes the blues." "Of course anybody wouldn't betray the confidence of the Coach and that's why the Skiff can't just come right out and say what the best coach in the state thinks about the game Saturday. However, he gave the reporter permission to say that, as this was the first game of the season to be played at home he thought it was due the student body of T. C. U. and the citizens of Fort Worth to see a real sure enough football game with plenty of thrills and the right kind of an ending. "And I guess that's why we're going to give S. M. U. and Dallas fits from the time the whistle blows (3:30) at the old cow lot just in front of the campus until the villain of the side lines yells 'time out,' he said.

But if the coach refused to say much about how the game would come out the members of the team didn't mind telling just what they were sure would happen, that is with one exception—Gish Martin is a member of the humane society and refused to talk on account of "rules of the order." Preacher Higgins wouldn't punctuate his remarks with stong language but he asked the Lord of Hosts to be with 'em 'cause he couldn't! Every man who figures in the lines feels confident of a gritty fight, but they all feel perfectly able to deliver it and know that if they fight they'll win". "Fritzie" shook his head and fists in Indian war dance fashion when asked what he thought about the game and ominously declared "them fellers wouldn't come through center." And this is exactly how the student body feels about every position and every man. If an S. M. U. man comes through it won't be via Stangl's tackle, Kornegay's guard, Fritzie's center, Higgins guard, Gish's tackle, and we know they won't go round the ends that Cooper and Shorty watch!

The only thing that worries T. C. U. now is the fact that the most faithful old war-horse she ever had is sick. Captain Cox sustained an injury in scrimmage Wednesday and since has been in bed. The Skiff asked him how he felt and if he would be in the side lines instead of in the game

BUCKING THE LINE OF LIFE

Bill Jones had been the shining star upon his college team; His tackling was ferocious, his bucking was no dream. When husky William tucked the ball beneath his brawny arm The other school contending had good reason for alarm. Bill hit the line and ran the ends like some mad man amuck. The other line would shiver when they saw Bill start to buck, And when a rival tackler tried to block his dashing pace The first thought was a train of cars had waltzed across his face.

Bill had the speed, Bill had the weight, the nerve to never yield; From goal to goal he whizzed along, while fragments strewed the field. And there had been a standing bet—which no one tried to call— That Bill could make his distance through a ten-foot granite wall

When Bill wound up his college course, each student's heart was sore; They wept to think that husky Bill would buck the line no more. Not so with William: in his dreams he saw the field of fame Where he would buck to glory in the swirl of life's big game.

Sweet are the dreams of campus life. The world which lies beyond Gleams ever on our inmost gaze with visions fair and fond; We see our fondest hopes achieved, and on with striving soul We buck the line and run the ends until we reach the goal.

So with his sheepskin tucked beneath his brawny arm one day Bill put on steam and dashed into the thickest of the fray. With eyes ablaze he sprinted where the laurel highway led. When Bill woke up, his scalp hung loose and knots adorned his head.

He tried to run the ends of life, when lo, with vicious toss A bill collector tackled him and threw him for a loss; And when he switched his course again and crashed into the line, The massive guard named Failure did a two-step on his spine.

Bill tried to punt out of the rut, but ere he turned the trick Right-tackle Competition tumbled through and blocked the kick; And when he tackled at Success in one long vicious bound, The full-back Disappointment steered his features to the ground.

But one day when across the field of fame the goal seemed dim The wise old coach Experience came up and said to him: "Old boy," spoke he, "the main point now before you win your bout Is keep on bucking Failure till you've worn the lobster out. Cut out this work around the ends—go in there low and hard— Just put your eye upon the goal and start there yard by yard. And more than all, when you are thrown or tumbled with a crack, Don't lie there whining, hustle up and keep on coming back. Keep coming back for all they've got and take it with a grin. When Disappointment trips you up, or Failure barks your shin, Keep coming back and if at last you lose the game of right Let those who whipped you know they too have had a fight. You'll find the bread line hard to buck and fame's goal far away, 'Till it hard across each running play, U. here comes to write against your name attendance from the city.

T. C. U. was well represented in the style show by the art department. Although Mrs. Cockrell, head of the department, on account of the illness of her daughter, Dora Louise, could not superintend the decorations, the work was well done by her students under the direction of Miss Annie Mae Tanner, instructor in the department.

The entire front basement of the Chamber of Commerce building was granted to the T. C. U. artists. Among the pictures which added to the artistic decoration of the room were several done by Mrs. Cockrell while at the San Francisco Exposition.

A complete information concerning them the following extracts from constitutions, articles of agreement and other sources of information have been compiled.

There are three inter-society contest for which only members of the Ad-Ran and Shirley Societies are eligible:

Dec. 3. Old Men's Declamatory Contest. (All students who have spoken in some final contest in T. C. U. are old men).

Dec. 18. New Men's Declamatory Contest. (Students who have spoken in no final contest in T. C. U. are classed as new men).

April 28. The Inter-Society Debate. The contestants for the foregoing are usually selected in a preliminary held in each society a short time before the contest.

There are four contests for which any member of the Oratorical Association is eligible.

Feb. 25. Triangular Debate, between Trinity, Southwestern and T. C. U. Two teams of two men each

SQUAD STRENGTHENS DEFENSIVE PLAYING AFTER TEXAS GAME

Coach and Men Undiscouraged by Result of Game With Longhorns

(By Christenberry)

The Horned Frogs opened the foot ball season against the Texas Longhorns last Saturday at Austin. The score, 72 to nothing in favor of the University of Texas, does not by any means show the battle that took place. The game was a fight from start to finish. T. C. U. was fighting as hard in the last quarter as in the first, and displayed a gameness and grit that will undoubtedly make her a formidable opponent during the remainder of the season.

Neither Coach Freeland nor Daniels, nor any of the friends of T. C. U., are discouraged over the result, for all realize that our boys were opposed by men who, after three years of playing together, have become a foot ball machine—one that will no doubt be Southwestern champions. This is the first year our men have played together; in fact, the first for most of them in college football. However, much good material is on hand, and every day this week team work has steadily improved. It will be a different team that faces S. M. U. Saturday.

In Saturday's game Texae made her greatest gains by end runs, gaining 547 yards by this method of play. Line plunges were also used effectively, as the U. of T. men outweighed the T. C. men by about twenty pounds to the man.

The Purple and White showed special skill in breaking up forward passes.

Out of nineteen attempted passes only six were successful. Littlefield of the Longhorns is considered one of the most accurate passers in the South.

Out of five attempts to pass by T. C. U. one was successful, Edens to Cox, netting seven yards. John P. Cox played the best offensive game for T. C. U., making most of her gains. Nelson's defensive work was good. His backing the line, tackling and returning on kick-offs was very effective. "Shorty" Vaughn and Cooper, ends, played some real football, considering the weight and experience of the opponents.

In the third quarter Ramsey was sent in at right half for Nelson, who suffered a bad wrench of his leg. He was not able to practice the first part of this week, but will be in shape for the game with Southern Methodist University Saturday.

Opening the season against the strong Texas University had its advantages. By playing a team superior to our eleven Coach Freeland was better able to discern what changes and what new formations were needed to be made before the schedule proper was entered upon. In the defensive style of play our boys learned much. Most of the practice heretofore has dealt with offensive work.

This week was featured by hard consistent practice. The "scrubs", who have also improved in teamwork, fought hard in the scrimmages, but could do nothing with the 'varsity' squad. The first team is now "out for blood," and are fighting with a spirit that should take the majority of the remaining games. Although our line was pierced frequently by the U. of T. backfield,

TAKEN IN BY COLLEGE LITERARY SOCIETIES

Large Number Will be Accepted at Meetings Next Week

The college literary societies took in their first new members this week. New students are showing a lively interest in society work this fall, and indications are that more new members will be taken in this term than any previous term in a good many years. The rivalry between the various college organizations is exceedingly keen.

Actions---not Words

A great deal has been said during the past two years about the university recognizing the work done by the orators and debaters by granting them letters. But despite all that has been said, nothing has been done.

Those who know how things are accomplished around T. C. U. realize that words don't count for much when it comes to getting something from the board of trustees. All that needs to be done in order to have the board consent to rewarding the representatives of the university on the public platform is for some one to go to them and ask for it.

The Skiff suggests that the head of the oratory department, the head of the English department, in conjunction with members of the faculty committee, all of whom have influence in such matters, take the matter before the trustees at their next general meeting and have them pass on it. The fact that it will not cost the school anything ought to make it easier for the committee to get results at once. If any counsel is needed to present arguments before the board, there are plenty of debaters and speakers here who would be glad to present their side of the proposition to the authorities.

If the faculty doesn't care to take a hand in the matter, the only alternative left is for the Oratorical Association to go after the recognition that is due its members. It's action-not words that's needed.

Be There Strong

The day is here. We have been looking forward with great eagerness to the games which our team is to play at home. The first of these contests is to be staged Saturday afternoon between the Horned Frogs and the Dallas Methodists.

This game will give T. C. U. students their first opportunity to get in behind their team on the home gridiron and help spur the football men on to victory. This game will also be the first test of the pep which the student body is to display toward the team this year and it is to be hoped that every student in the university will be there and be there strong.

Your admittance is already paid. Come out and get in the game yourself by rooting for the men who represent you on the gridiron. Exercise your lungs.

Captain John P. Cox, sturdy hero, is himself a Methodist and he promises to give the S. M. U. boys a full Methodist measure when he meets them on the field Saturday in the first game of their history.

Here's Our Schedule

Out of the seven games which remain for T. C. U. to play this season, four are to be fought in Fort Worth.

Here is the schedule for this fall:
Oct. 9--Southern Methodist University at Fort Worth.

Oct. 15--Texas A. & M. at Fort Worth.

Oct. 19--Austin College at the Dallas State Fair.

Nov. 6--Trinity at Waxahachie.

Nov. 12--Southwestern at Fort Worth.

Nov. 25--Thanksgiving Day game with Baylor at Waco.

Big things are on foot in regard to stirring things up for these coming games. Not only do the student leaders intend for everybody to see the games on the local gridiron, but they are planning to arouse enough interest in the Austin College game to get two special cars to carry a bunch of rooters over to Dallas when T. C. U. meets the Sherman boys at the Fair on Oct. 19.

Another big movement which is being considered is to result in an effort being made to have 200 students go to Waco on Thanksgiving Day and wake the old town up with some real college pep when our men clash with the Baylor Bears.

When the call is issued for you to sign up for the trip, be ready.

Worth Keeping

In response to numerous requests from students who heard the verses quoted by Rev. Frank E. Gordon in his address before the student body last week, that The Skiff print the words, this issue carries the poem. It is worth keeping for the thought and the encouragement expressed in it, and everybody is urged to preserve a copy of it. The lines were written by an anonymous author.

RESOLUTION ON MRS. PARKS' DEATH PASSED

The following resolution, lamenting the death of Dean Parks' mother last week, was passed by the faculty at their meeting Thursday and entered in the minutes.

Dean W. B. Parks:
We, your associates in labor, desire to express to you our fellowship in the hour of your grief. When mother has passed from our immediate presence we are conscious that no other souls can be substituted for hers, and there is much to recompense us in precious memories from her life the holy influences which ever link with us.

While we sympathize with you, rejoice because of that sacredness which will ever hallow your own life. Sincerely your friends,
The faculty.
Committee: C. M. McPherson, Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, C. I. Alexander.

GO TO CIRCUS.

Students in the College of Business were given a holiday Tuesday in order that they might go to the circus. A large number of students from T. C. U. attended the big show.

Doyle Wilson, one of the C. O. B. students is having trouble with his eyes and has been compelled to discontinue his work for two weeks to have them treated.

William Jones wonders why he is receiving so much literature from the college of Industrial Arts, a girl's school, addressed to Miss Willie Jones. He has been getting catalogues and bulletins telling him why he should become a student at C. I. A. It's a case of mistaken identity, he says.

Rev. Arthur Santmeirer gave a pictorial lecture at Magnolia Christian Church last Sunday evening, concerning work of the missionaries around Lake Winnipeg. He showed a picture of Willis Stovall in the act of rowing a provision boat. Stovall was a missionary to the Canadian Indians last year.

NEW BRUSHES INITIATED INTO ORGANIZATION BY A HEN FRUIT SHAMPOO

Five Girls Taken into Artists' Association; Fake Banquet Feature

On last Thursday night the Brushes held their annual initiation, although most of those initiated were new members, some were those who joined the club late last year and thus had their torture postponed.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Alice Long, president of the Brushes. After testing the mental capacity of the new members with a "hen fruit" shampoo they were served with a delightful course consisting mainly of Quinined Mashmallows. Those favored with this choice bit of entertainment were Misses Esther Moore, Ruby Jones, Alice Long, Georgia Hirt and Annah Jo Pendleton.

After the fake banquet was over an ample repast of fried chickens and all that goes with it was brought out.

Another important feature of the initiation was a spirited oration by Miss "Billie" Wells.

Among the old members who were present and helped make the initiation a real success were Misses Anna Mae Tanner, Annie Lee Harris, Velma Armstrong, Faye Wilcox, Carrie Cassell, Ruby Douglass and Lola McFarland.

Cellist Gives Program

Frederick Doten, accomplished cellist, gave an entertaining solo program before the students and faculty in chapel Tuesday morning. He was accompanied by Guy R. Pitner of the university music faculty.

Professor Doten is interested in forming a class among T. C. U. students.

T. C. U. TENNIS PLAYERS DEFEAT SEMINARY MEN

Pirkle, Pettus, Cahoon and Tomlinson Use Racquet Effectively

Last Friday afternoon T. C. U. won a tennis match from the Baptist Seminary. The courts were in bad condition, which would ordinarily make the play slow. However the match between Pirkle and Pettus, and Witherspoon and Williams, was especially fast for the Seminary Hill men as they had difficulty in handling Pettus' fast ball. Pirkle was off form, while Pettus was easily the best man on the court. Witherspoon played a consistent game. The score was 6-1, 6-3.

Tomlinson, the T. C. U. champion, beat Witherspoon in straight sets 6-3, 6-4. While Pirkle was defeating Williams 6-3, 6-0, Cahoon and Tomlinson played Knight and Bates 6-4, 0-6, 4-2. The last set while in favor of the Seminary men, 4-2, was called on account of darkness.

Virgil Payne played Bates of the Seminary to a standstill losing 6-3, 0-6, 6-4, on account of lack of practice.

The match was as follows: T. C. U. one doubles, two singles; Seminary one doubles, one singles. T. C. U. winning by one singles match.

Faculty Regulation Explains Term "Passing"

The faculty regulation interpreting the term "passing" as used to express class standing has been clearly explained by a resolution adopted by the faculty recently.

The resolution states that "When a student is reported as 'passing,' the report covers the work of the term to the date named."

PHOTOGRAPHIC WORK FOR HORNED FROG WILL BE DONE AT GREER'S

Contract Let to Fort Worth Studio; to Begin Pictures Next Week

O. C. Greer, proprietor of Greer's photographic studio, 912 1-2 Main, has been awarded the contract to do all the picture work for the 1916 Horned Frog. Raymond E. Fox, editor-in-chief, and Joe McNamara, manager, closed the proposition with Mr. Greer last week.

The management announces that the work of taking sittings of members of the student body will begin next week. The plan is to get all the photographic work done as soon as possible in order to insure that the annual will come out on time and in a finished condition.

The new system of paying for the Frog which will be put in operation this year will cut out a great deal of misunderstanding in regard to assessments for pictures, said Manager McNamara Wednesday. The book will cost $5 complete this year, payable on the installment plan of $2 the fall and winter terms and $1 the spring term. This amount pays for the Frog in full and no societies or organizations will need to worry about paying for their cuts or displays.

Magnolia Philatheas Entertained by Teacher

Twelve girls who are members of the philathea class of the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church attended a reception given in their honor by Mrs. O. F. Carlson, teacher of the class, at her home on East Weatherford street, Saturday afternoon.

Those who attended the party were Misses Anna McClendon, Elizabeth Beck, Ruby Jones, Minnie King, Della Leveridge, Leota Sherrill, Bennie Ruth Clements, Lilla Bates, Floy Agnew, Ireta Robinson, Florentyne Gibbon and Beula Beck.

DEAN PARKS' FAMILY SENDS APPRECIATION

As an acknowledgement of their appreciation of the words of sympathy sent by the student body and faculty on the occasion of the death of Mrs. Parks, Dean W. B. Parks and family have addressed this note to the students and members of the faculty of the university:

To the faculty and students of Texas Christian University:

We desire to give assurances of our sincere appreciation of your kind words and other expressions of sympathy occasioned by the death of our mother. Her weekly message, which has rarely failed us for more than a quarter of a century, will be missed, yet the encouragement and love contained in these messages will ever abide.

balcony had been roped off for the university people, but the crowd that clamored for admittance when the doors opened at 7:30 was so great that it was impossible to keep them from filling every seat in the house in a few minutes. Hundreds were turned away. Only standing room was available when the university people arrived.

The fact that it was T. C. U. night was well advertised by numerous pennants which the models for the clothing and dry goods stores carried and by the varsity yells which the students gave during the evening. Practically every Fort Worth store showed its appreciation of T. C. U. by having the models carry pennants and purple and white ribbons. The Fair had one girl dressed entirely in T. C. U. colors.

Interspersed throughout the evening's program members of T. C. U. rendered numbers. Mr. Hamilton gave a vocal solo, Miss Sophia Bahan read and Mr. Cahoon played a violin solo. Mr. Casperson played the accompaniments.

John Keith, president of the Students' Association, announced the football game between T. C. U. and S. M. U. here Saturday and urged a large attendance from the city.

T. C. U. was well represented in the style show by the art department. Although Mrs. Cockrell, head of the department, on account of the illness of her daughter, Dura Louise, could not superintend the decorations, the work was well done by her students under the direction of Miss Annie Mae Tanner, instructor in the department.

The entire front basement of the Chamber of Commerce building was granted to the T. C. U. artists. Among the pictures which added to the artistic peccoration of the room were several done by Mrs. Cockrell while at the San Francisco Exposition and others by Misses Faye Wilcox, Margaret Littlejohn, Floramai Mason, Annie Mae Tanner and Mrs. Garth.

There was also a china exhibit selected from the work of different students, among whom were Misses Annie Lee Harris, Carrie Cassel and Ina Williams.

Each afternoon of the style show a number of T. C. U. girls were hostesses at a reception for visitors. Pretty hand painted favors were given those who attended.

T. C. U.—the University of Fort Worth

T. C. U. is gradually taking her place as the university for the people of Fort Worth.

It has taken the school a number of years to get established and to settle the numerous local problems which presented themselves during the first few years that the university has been here. But now that most of these difficulties are pretty well in hand, a wider sphere of activity and service—embracing not only the needs of the students in the classroom, but including the entire citizenship of Fort Worth—has been inaugurated. T. C. U. has seen the needs of Fort Worth in a social and educational way and is rapidly spreading out her wings to cover as many of these wants as is possible.

As they have come into closer touch with the people of the city and have themselves become better known, the heads of the various departments of the university have broadened the scope of their work so as to offer work, help and advice to all who come within their reach. This work is fruitful in its results to the citizens of Fort Worth and more of it is to be taken up as fast as opportunity develops.

Among the first to recognize the fact that T. C. U. has a larger duty to perform toward the people of the city in which it lives was Prof. E. R. Cockrell. He has always held himself ready to aid, by any means in his power, his fellow citizens. When Fort Worth becomes the law center of North Texas as a result of the establishment of the T. C. U. Law School, Professor Cockrell is the man who, as founder of the school, will be regarded in the light of a patriotic citizen who has accomplished a deed of untold value to his city.

In the field of education T. C. U. has been of great benefit to the public school teachers of the city and through them to the future citizens. Besides the summer work which is offered especially for them, Dr. Batson is now teaching a special class, in which are enrolled the superintendent of schools, several principals of city schools and a large number of teachers. Dr. Batson, who has taken up his work as head of the department of education, is eager to extend his work so as to reach a greater number of teachers, and is planning some new movements looking toward that end.

Our music faculty, under the direction of Mr. Cahoon, is also accomplishing much for the school and for the city by its work. With a reputation of having the strongest fine arts faculty in Texas, T. C. U. has brought to

Fort Worth a valuable group of musicians who are always glad to entertain.

The new department of domestic economy will offer one of the best means of bringing T. C. U. nearer to the homes and hearts of the women of the city than anything else. Miss Moore has already started a course for downtown married women and will begin other courses as the need arises.

Dr. C. C. Gumm, director of athletics, with a wide acquaintance and influence with the leading business and professional men of the city, has done a great deal to give the university a better standing in the city.

Business Manager Durrett has aided in making T. C. U. a more integral part of the city during the short time he has had charge of the business management.

John Keith, president of the Students' Association, with more T. C. U. pep than any other student on the hill, is also working to show the people of Fort Worth that T. C. U. is their school and has as much interest in city affairs as they themselves have.

The day is coming and coming soon when the city must realize that T. C. U. is not a school set on a hill for the sole benefit of those within its walls, but that it is the university of Fort Worth and for Fort Worth as well as for Texas.

In Time of Peace Prepare for War

Preparedness is the demand of the hour in our nation. From all sections of the country come appeals for the nation to prepare itself for defense.

Preparedness is also the urgent and insistent demand of the hour in T. C. U. In its local application the appeal is for the university to prepare itself both for defensive and offensive fighting. Several big contests are to be pulled off not so very far in the future, and unless the men who are to uphold the honor of T. C. U. begin to get ready for the fray, all hope is lost.

The big battles in which we are to take part this year and in preparation for which we should begin to busy ourselves are to be wars of words.

Last week The Skiff published a list of dates for the oratorical and debating contests of the session and the qualifications of the men who are eligible to enter these public speaking events.

None of these dates is so far off but that preparation for them must begin at once in order to assure success for us. T. C. U. has never established a very brilliant reputation in the field of oratory in Texas, but with the material which is in evidence this year, it looks as if this year would be a splendid time for us to found a reputation by putting our school on the oratorical and debating map.

The call is issued to every man in the university who has ability and interest in such matters to begin work, either on the triangular debate question or the state contests. Especially the new men urged to try out. Public speaking offers a better way to fame than any other path open to the college student. The old men can't do it all alone. If T. C. U. is to win her debates this year, the new men must help do it.

Time was when our debaters spoke to empty seats on the occasion of such contests, but it will not be so this year. The Oratorical Association is on a sound financial basis now, every student has his admission to all oratorical events paid in advance and the chances are that they will all be there.

T. C. U. must beat Trinity and Southwestern in the triangular debates. T. C. U. must win the state oratorical contest. Will you help do it?

McPherson to Preach

Brother Chalmers McPherson will preach to the university audience at the Brite Bible College Sunday night.

SENIOR FINE ARTS FORM ORGANIZATION

Last week the seniors of the fine arts department met and organized a regular senior class. This is the first time that the fine arts department have ever had an organized class.

The fine art seniors desire to set a precedent for those to follow who in the years to come will become seniors in the different departments of fine arts. This class includes those graduating in oratory, music and art.

There was much enthusiasm shown at the meeting. It is the desire of the class and seems to be also the wish of the seniors in the regular academic department and the student body as a whole that they be recognized an essential part of the university and that they be accepted as equivalent to the seniors in medicine, law, or any other department of the university.

At the meeting the following officers for the senior fine arts of T. C. U. for 1915-16 were elected: Clyde Grissom, president; Monette Whaley, vice president, and George Hirt, secretary-treasurer.

A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions and a petition to the faculty.

floats depicting colonial scenes.

The plan he advanced for the T. C. U. float was to have a stairway of thirteen steps and on each step a student dressed in costume and representing one of the thirteen states; at the top of the stairway he suggested that a student standing for woman suffrage overlook the entire scene.

The enthusiasm with which President Keith impressed on the mayor and the committee the loyalty and the interest of the university made a lasting impression.

Arrangements with regard to the float which is to represent T. C. U. will be made later under the direction of Mrs. Cockrell and a committee of students which she will select.

FULLY PREPARED WIVES-TO-BE MISS MOORE'S IDEAL

By lectures and assignments, students in domestic art get many useful suggestions pertaining to such matters as wedding invitations and announcements, etiquette of calling, afternoon tea, introducing debutantes, luncheons, breakfasts, dinners, suppers, balls and dances, chaperones, engagements, day of wedding, musicals, theatricals and parties, entertaining a house party, duties of a guest, women's dress, men's dress and deportment, conversation and social correspondence, table manners, behavior in public, sporting etiquette, courtesy and good manners in the home, children's etiquette, family table, christenings, wedding anniversaries, funerals.

Graduates of T. C. U.'s domestic economy department will doubtless be in great demand as wives. Miss Moore's students take her as their model and are delighted with the courses as she gives them.

PREPS TO TAKE PART IN MORE EVENTS; ORGANIZE

Organization of the students of the Academy was effected Thursday, Oct. 7, when called together by Professor M. C. Munday. Heretofore the Academy students have been shy and afraid to let the people know they existed, but, through the fire and pep of Mr. Munday they have inspired to rise up and let the college know they are here, and here to stay.

The Academy students do not want to interfere with the time-honored custom of having the junior president preside over the first meeting of the freshmen, but they do want to be able to take up the work of the class organization after a goat or negro janitor has been elected president. They think this organization will train them to be loyal, peppery college students.

The student body desires to be represented in the inter-collegiate debating contest if such arrangements can be made. They desire, also, to compete with the high schools in athletics.

The officers elected were: President, Lon L. Smith; vice-president, Gerald Hunter; secretary, Miss Frances Williams; temporary manager, boys' athletics, C. F. Chambers; temporary manager, girls' athletics, Miss Della Leveridge, and representative on Student Council, Tom Taylor.

Oratorical Association to Have Constitution

Two weeks ago the boys of the College of Business met for the purpose of organizing a Debating Club to discuss subjects of interest to business men. The matter was put before the faculty and was passed upon.

Officers elected were as follows: W. L. Cook, president; Jackson Massie, vice-president and Albert Scherz, secretary-treasurer.

The society had a preliminary meeting Tuesday night at 7:30, and arranged for a program for next Wednesday night. The society will meet each Tuesday night.

Will Organize Quartette to Further Chamber Music

A trio composed of Lewis Casperson, pianist; Frederick M. Cahoon, violinist; and Frederick L. Doten, violoncellist, has been organized in T. C. U. These musicians will practice compositions for a few weeks together, and will admit another musician into the organization later on.

The purpose of the quartette will be to further the appreciation for chamber music in this section. The members hope to have one of the best string quartettes in the state after a few weeks.

Frederick L. Doten is a graduate of the New England Conservatory and has been in this city only a short time, coming from Boston here.

John Keith Addresses Mothers' Club of City

Following a peppery speech which John Keith, president of the Students' Association, made before the committee in charge of the pageant for the Liberty Bell celebration at the city hall Monday, several of the ladies present, members of the Mothers' Club of Fort Worth, invited him to speak before their meeting Monday afternoon at the Central High School building.

Keith discussed the relation of T. C. U. to Fort Worth and told the mothers that the university would be delighted to aid in furthering the work of the club in any way possible.

Prof. E. R. Cockrell will speak before the Mothers' Club at a future meeting.

Charge of Sight Sing-

On Monday at 10:00 A. M., the students in piano, voice, and violin met in Chapel for the purpose of organizing a club for the purpose of raising the artistic standard in Texas Christian University. Miss Anna McLendon, an artist graduate of last year, was elected the very proficient president. Miss Vestal Tompkins, a senior in voice, was made vice-president, while Miss Erskine Long will preside over the secretary and treasurer's office. This new organization will be ably conducted by Miss Aleen Wilson, she having had quite a deal of experience along this line. Suggestions were made by Mrs. Cahoon and Mr. Casperson which enabled the students to understand more fully the line upon which the club will be conducted. Every student in the university, who is interested in this kind of study, will be welcome at the weekly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 in the Shirley-Walton Hall.

Current events will be the subject of discussion.

Those present were: Mamie Watson, Lucile Durrett, Alice Long, Masal Jeffers, Dessa Dreeben, Inez Hudgins, Marguerite Riter, Ida Jarvis Hendricks, Hattilu West, Norine Nealey, Hattie Hern, Gwendolyn Chambers, Johniell Rylie, Fay Yates, Ruth Trueblood, Jacqueline Norwood, Bernice Lamberson, Artie Bell Cummings, Anna McLendon, Anna Mae Miles, Vestal Tompkins, Erskine Long, Beulah Bell.

MISS HARRIET SMITH TALKS TO LOCAL Y.W.C.A.

Last Thursday morning during the regular chapel hour, the local Y. W. C. A. had the privilege of having as a guest, Miss Harriet Smith, who is a national secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Smith has charge of the Association work in China and is now in this country on a furlow.

The message which she brought to the young ladies was a splendid and appreciated one, in which she presented the life, training and ideals of the girls in China. The Y. W. C. A. is one of the most potent factors today in that country in the training and molding of the lives of the Chinese girls. The realization of the fact that the Association here is a link in the great chain of Associations throughout the world, and that each link serves to hold together that chain, was a feature of Miss Smith's talk.

Turrentine Says:

ORDERLY PROCEDURE MARKS BONA FIDE FRESHMAN ELECTION

Without a single hitch or break to mar its orderly procedure, the freshmen class finally effected organization at a meeting called by the president of the junior class Tuesday.

No lack of good men for the various offices developed, several students being nominated for every place. Paul Pirkle, who has been in T. C. U. several years, and is a 1915 graduate of the academy, was chosen president.

Other officers elected to lead the nineteeners this year are: Joe Edens, vice-president; Grace Bailey, secretary; Lorraine Dutton, representative on the Student Council, and John Pettus, representative on the Athletics Council.

A sergeant-at-arms and a class professor will be elected at a later meeting.

Great interest is being shown by the freshmen in the coming football game between their class and the Sopomores, which is one of the big annual pre-Thanksgiving events. The freshmen will choose a captain in the near future and begin practice.

Artists Express Thanks

Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, head of the art department, and the Brushes have expressed their most grateful thanks to Hugh Jamieson, manager of the Style Show, and Walter Beck of the Chamber of Commerce for the many courtesies which they extended the young ladies of T. C. U. during the afternoon receptions they gave during Style Show week.

Hugh Jamieson, formerly of Jamieson-Diggs Company and manager of the Style Show, was elected light commissioner of Fort Worth last week. Jamieson has numerous friends among the students and faculty of T. C. U. who are glad to hear of his success.

NUMBER 6

TWO AMENDMENTS TO HONOR SYSTEM CONSTITUTION WILL BE SUBMITTED TO STUDENT BODY BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Recommended That New Law School Have Representative on Council and Elections Deferred

ORGANIZATION COMPLETED

According to Constitution Proposals Will Be Voted on Following Publication

Two amendments to the constitution establishing the honor system in T. C. U., which have been passed by the Student Council, will be presented within the next week to the student body for final ratification before going into effect.

Due to the delay experienced by some of the classes and departments of the university in organizing and electing their council representatives, the council was late in effecting its own organization this year. At the first meeting the matter of amending the constitution was proposed and measures adopted to have them presented to the Students' Association.

One proposed amendment provides that the law department of the university is supposed to have a delegate on the governing body, and since the law school is now a well founded part of the university, the students will be asked to allow it a member on the council.

The other amendment will change section III of the constitution so as to read as follows:

Each of the above groups shall, within one month after the opening of school, elect its apportionment of delegates. The Student Council shall be judge of the election of its members.

This shall not apply to the year 1915-16. The constitution as in force now is given below.

In order for these amendments to become effective, it is only necessary for the students' Association to ratify them by a simple majority. The council was unanimous in their recommendation.

Students who have taken their seats as members of the council are as follows:

Senior class—Raymond Fox and Horace Jones.

Freshman class—Lorraine Dutton.

Academy—Tom Taylor.

College of Fine Arts—Miss Cleo Self.

College of Bible—J. W. Shockley.

College of Business—Ernest Richardson.

The council was organized last Thursday with Horace Jones as president; Raymond Fox, vice president; Miss Ora Leveridge, clerk, and William Jones, sergeant.

The constitution adopted by the student body last year when the honor system was first installed in the university follows.

PREAMBLE

For the purpose of maintaining the highest codes of honor, We, the students of Texas Christian University, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution for that phase of Student Self-government known as the Honor System.

T. W. C. Girls Refused Permission to Attend T. C. U.-A. & M. Game

Students of Texas Woman's College were refused permission to attend the football game between T. C. U. and A. & M. last week by Dean E. J. Jennings. John Keith, at the request of Doctor Gumm and Business Manager Durrett, asked to be allowed to announce the game to the girls at chapel Friday morning and offer them admission at half price to a reserved section of the grandstand.

The dean refused to permit the game to be advertised or to allow the students to attend.

Pres. H. A. Boaz of the college expressed his willingness for the girls to see the game, but the dean's action cancelled all preparation on the part of the T. W. C. girls to come to the game and root for the purple and white.

Strong Appeal Made to Alumni at Banquet to Back T. C. U. Athletics

"Boost T. C. U. athletics and help the school grow" was the keynote of the speeches made by promoters of Varsity athletics at the banquet given in their honor by the Dallas chapter of the Alumni Association, Tuesday night following the victory over Austin college.

Enthusiastic over the outcome of the game with the Kangaroos, followers of the purple and white who feasted at the supper were in high spirits and every speech made was full of pep and loyalty.

Dan Rogers, a prominent member of the Dallas Alumni Chapter, presided as toastmaster. One by one he called on all the members of the Dallas chapter and introduced them to the squad of men who are defending

CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY Y. M. C. A. FOR GETTING MEMBERS

First Meeting of Association Will Be Held Nov. 6; Active Work Starts

(By Christenberry)

A campaign will be inaugurated in the immediate future which we hope will make every young man of the University an active worker in the Young Men's Christian Association.

An able cabinet has already been selected, and the different committees have been appointed. However, the success of the Association depends upon the support given it by the young men of T. C. U. as a body. The President of this year's Y. M. C. A. realizes his inexperience, and the responsibility of the task, but feels confident that the earnest efforts of all will make 1915-16 a banner year.

Mistakes are made by the wisest of mortals. Let us forget the mistakes of the past and begin anew. When mistakes are made this year, just keep in mind that we are striving to do that which we believe to be right and best for the school.

Though a religious organization, the Young Men's Christian Association is not a Sunday School Class; its field is broader, and extends into all activities of University life. Its aim and purpose is not only to promote clean living, but "enjoyable" living. The social side of the students' life is studied, and efforts to provide interesting recreation for college men is one of the big duties of the organization. For it is a well established fact, that unless proper and wholesome means are furnished young men for recreation, they will invariably seek pleasure in less desirable—and often in immoral—places.

The principles championed this year will be only those that can be endorsed by every reasonable and right-thinking man in the University. The plans and purposes of the Association will be brought out more fully, Sunday, Nov. 7, when the Y. M. C. A. will give its initial program.

Students desiring information concerning Protection and Free-Trade can get free sample copies of The American Economist by sending a postal card request to 339 Broadway, New York.

AUSTIN COLLEGE DEFEATED BY VARSITY ELEVEN BEFORE 2000 FOOTBALL ENTHUSIASTS

STUDENTS ENJOY T. C. U. DAY AT FAIR; HOLIDAY

Many Former Students Also Present to See Football Game With A. C.

Following the granting of the petition which the students of T. C. U. presented to the faculty, asking for a holiday Tuesday, which was T. C. U. day at the Dallas fair, arrangements were made for special cars to take the crowd to Dallas at 8 a. m.

On schedule time two hundred students joyfully started on their invasion of the neighboring city. One of the faculty members likened the bunch to an army, and really what they lacked in numbers they made up for in noise which proceeded from various contraptions such as whistles, mouths and bands.

On arriving in Dallas the entire aggregation went immediately to the Fair Park and therefore had ample time to take in the different attractions before noon.

One of the displays which excited a great deal of interest was the T. C. U. art exhibit which won numerous prizes for Mrs. Cockrell and her students. The work was excellent and fully deserved the widespread interest shown it.

From the outside rumors which were circulated, T. C. U. was the popular contestant for gridiron honors which were to be bestowed in the afternoon. However, the Austin college boys were almost as confident of victory as their opponents.

Following a short work-out by both teams in the afternoon the game was called at 3:30 and the opposing elevens clashed with all the vim and spirit within them.

Between halves the boys of T. C. U. exhibited their overflowing joy by a snake dance which was ably led by John Keith, president of the student

Christians Outclass Sherman Boys in Every Department of Game and Smother Them 28 to 0

TEAM WORK IS EXCELLENT

Heavy Penalties Count Against A. C. But Kangaroos Put Up Good Fight

(By James McBride)

Playing true to form, T. C. U. defeated Austin College by a 28 to 0 score last Tuesday afternoon before 2000 football enthusiasts gathered at the Texas State Fair. This is one of a series of football games which the fair corporation is offering to its athletically inclined visitors this year.

Due to recent rains and to the fact that the space before the grandstand is used as a parade ground for the soldiers encamped at the fair, the field was very slow. Besides, the day was unusually warm, and this, along with the soft dirt, kept down the T. C. U. score.

The Christians outclassed the boys from Sherman in every angle of the game. This statement is not based on the personal opinion of the writer, but upon definite figures gleaned from the record of the afternoon's pastime.

A. C. kicked 12 times for a total of 335 yards, an average of 28 yards per kick; T. C. U. kicked 6 times for 245 yards, which makes each attempt average 41 yards. On straight football T. C. U. gained 182 yards to A. C.'s 154 yards. And on forward passes T. C. U. accumulated 264 yards, while A. C. gets credit for only one pass which went 17 yards.

Nor do the figures stop here. A. C. was penalized an even 100 yards during the game, mostly for holding; T. C. U. lost 59 yards in the same way. Evidently the red-sweatered clan thought they appeared to better advantage when the officials pushed them back than when T. C. U. was running over them. Either way, the procession was always toward the Austin College goal.

For the Sherman school Robinson, Wheat, Lowe and McCall played the best game.

With the Christians it is the same old story: the whole team played a great game of football. The defense was good, interference was good, and the spirit of the team was good, as the score plainly attests. But stars—even in the sky—are of unequal radiance, and each receives attention in proportion to the light that it sheds.

We give Ramsey, at left half, credit for playing the most brilliant football of any man on the T. C. U. team. His ability to return punts is wonderful. Time and again he would reel off three-quarters of the distance the ball had been kicked before he could be downed. Nor was this the only way he showed to advantage. Three times he got loose for long end runs that were the sensations of the game; and several times he took passes that netted the Christians many yards. Not considering forward passes, Ramsey gained more ground than any other man in the T. C. U. lineup.

As usual, Vaughn played a good, heady game. He caught several passes

HARMONY CLUB FORMED BY MUSIC STUDENTS

Anna McLendon Will Have Charge of Sight Singing Class

On Monday at 10:00 A. M., the students in piano, voice, and violin met in Chapel for the purpose of organizing a club to raise the artistic standard in Texas Christian University. Miss Anna McLendon, an artist graduate of last year, was made vice-president, while Miss Erskine Long will preside over the secretary and treasurer's office. This new organization will be ably conducted by Miss Aleen Wilson, she having had quite a deal of experience along this line. Suggestions were made by Mrs.
Cahoon and Mr. Casperson which enabled the students to understand more fully the line upon which the club will be conducted. Every student in the university, who is interested in this kind of study, will be welcome at the weekly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 in the Shirley-Walton Hall.

Current events will be the subject of discussion.

Those present were: Mamie Watson, Lucile Durrett, Alice Long, Masal Jeffers, Dessa Dreeben, Inez Hudgins,
Marguerite Riter, Ida Jarvis Hendricks, Hattilu West, Norine Nealey, Hattie
Hern, Gwendolyn Chambers, Johniell

MISS HARRIET SMITH TALKS TO LOCAL Y.W.C.A.

Last Thursday morning during the regular chapel hour, the local Y. W. C.
A. had the privilege of having as a guest, Miss Harriet Smith, who is a national secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Smith has charge of the Association work in China and is now in this country on a furlow.

The message which she brought to the young ladies was a splendid and appreciated one, in which she presented the life, training and ideals of the girls in China. The Y. W. C. A. is one of the most potent factors today in that country in the training and molding of the lives of the Chinese girls. The realization of the fact that the Association here is a link in the great chain of Associations throughout the world, and that each link serves to hold together that chain, was a feature of Miss Smith's talk.

Turrentine Says:

Here is hoping that we are as successful Friday as last Saturday. I want to say the article of football the boys play and the spirit that goes with it compares well with the clothes I make for college men, and I am with you all the time, at my Tailoring Store and on the gridiron.

Prof. Alexander Resigns As Faculty Secretary

The resignation of Prof. C. I. Alexander as secretary of the faculty was accepted at the last regular meeting of the faculty. His large classes necessitated the action. He was succeeded by Prof. M. M. Knight.

torium of Brite College last Sunday night.

ance is to be demonstrated in the fu-creasing attendance.]

ORDERLY PROCEDURE MARKS BONA FIDE FRESHMAN ELECTION

Without a single hitch or break to mar its orderly procedure, the freshmen class finally effected organization at a meeting called by the president of the junior class Tuesday.

No lack of good men for the various offices developed, several students being nominated for every place. Paul Pirkle, who has been in T. C. U. several years, and is a 1915 graduate of the academy, was chosen president.

Other officers elected to lead the nineteeners this year are: Joe Edens, vice-president; Grace Bailey, secretary and treasurer; Lorraine Dutton, representative on the Student Council, and John Pettus, representative on the Athletics Council.

A sergeant-at-arms and a class professor will be elected at a later meeting.

Great interest is being shown by the freshies in the coming football game between their class and the Sopomores, which is one of the big annual pre-Thanksgiving events. The freshmen will choose a captain in the near future and begin practice.

Artists Express Thanks

Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, head of the art department, and the Brushes have expressed their most grateful thanks to Hugh Jamieson, manager of the Style Show, and Walter Beck of the Chamber of Commerce for the many courtesies which they extended the young ladies of T. C. U. during the afternoon receptions they gave during Style Show week.

Hugh Jamieson, formerly of Jamieson-Diggs Company and manager of the Style Show, was elected light commissioner of Fort Worth last week.
Jamieson has numerous friends among the students and faculty of T. C. U.
who are glad to hear of his success.
