TWO AMENDMENTS TO HONOR SYSTEM CONSTITUTION WILL BE SUBMITTED TO STUDENT BODY BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Recommended That New Law School Have Representative on Council and Elections Deferred ORGANIZATION COMPLETED

According to Constitution Proposals Will Be Voted on Following Publication

Two amendments to the constitution establishing the honor system in T. C. U., which have been passed by the Student Council, will be presented within the next week to the student body for final ratification before going into effect.

Due to the delay experienced by some of the classes and departments of the university in organizing and electing their council representatives, the council was late in effecting its own organization this year. At the first meeting the matter of amending the constitution was proposed and measures adopted to have them presented to the Students' Association.

One proposed amendment provides that the law department of the university is supposed to have a delegate on the governing body, and since the law school is now a well founded part of the university, the students will be asked to allow it a member on the council.

The other amendment will change section III of the constitution so as to read as follows:

Each of the above groups shall, within one month after the opening of school, elect its apportionment of delegates. The Student Council shall be judge of the election of its members.

This shall not apply to the year 1915-16. The constitution as in force now is given below.

In order for these amendments to become effective, it is only necessary for the students' Association to ratify them by a simple majority. The council was unanimous in their recommendation.

Students who have taken their seats as members of the council are as follows:

Senior class—Raymond Fox and Horace Jones.

Freshman class—Lorraine Dutton.

Academy—Tom Taylor.

College of Fine Arts—Miss Cleo Self.

College of Bible—J. W. Shockley.

College of Business—Ernest Richardson.

The council was organized last Thursday with Horace Jones as president; Raymond Fox, vice president; Miss Ora Leveridge, clerk, and William Jones, sergeant.

The constitution adopted by the student body last year when the honor system was first installed in the university follows.

PREAMBLE

For the purpose of maintaining the highest codes of honor, We, the students of Texas Christian University, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution for that phase of Student Self-government known as the Honor System.

T. W. C. Girls Refused Permission to Attend T. C. U.-A. & M. Game

Students of Texas Woman's College were refused permission to attend the football game between T. C. U. and A. & M. last week by Dean E. J. Jennings. John Keith, at the request of Doctor Gumm and Business Manager Durrett, asked to be allowed to announce the game to the girls at chapel Friday morning and offer them admission at half price to a reserved section of the grandstand.

The dean refused to permit the game to be advertised or to allow the students to attend.

Pres. H. A. Boaz of the college expressed his willingness for the girls to see the game, but the dean's action cancelled all preparation on the part of the T. W. C. girls to come to the game and root for the purple and white.

CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY Y. M. C. A. FOR GETTING MEMBERS

First Meeting of Association Will Be Held Nov. 6; Active Work Starts

(By Christenberry)

A campaign will be inaugurated in the immediate future which we hope will make every young man of the University an active worker in the Young Men's Christian Association.

An able cabinet has already been selected, and the different committees have been appointed. However, the success of the Association depends upon the support given it by the young men of T. C. U. as a body. The President of this year's Y. M. C. A. realizes his inexperience, and the responsibility of the task, but feels confident that the earnest efforts of all will make 1915-16 a banner year.

Mistakes are made by the wisest of mortals. Let us forget the mistakes of the past and begin anew. When mistakes are made this year, just keep in mind that we are striving to do that which we believe to be right and best for the school.

Though a religious organization, the Young Men's Christian Association is not a Sunday School Class; its field is broader, and extends into all activities of University life. Its aim and purpose is not only to promote clean living, but "enjoyable" living. The social side of the students' life is studied, and efforts to provide interesting recreation for college men is one of the big duties of the organization. For it is a well established fact, that unless proper and wholesome means are furnished young men for recreation, they will invariably seek pleasure in less desirable, and often in immoral, places.

The principles championed this year will be only those that can be endorsed by every reasonable and right-thinking man in the University. The plans and purposes of the Association will be brought out more fully, Sunday, Nov. 7, when the Y. M. C. A. will give its initial program.

Students desiring information concerning Protection and Free-Trade can get free sample copies of The American Economist by sending a postal card request to 339 Broadway, New York.

AUSTIN COLLEGE DEFEATED BY VARSITY ELEVEN BEFORE 2000 FOOTBALL ENTHUSIASTS

STUDENTS ENJOY T. C. U. DAY AT FAIR; HOLIDAY

Many Former Students Also Present to See Football Game With A. C.

Following the granting of the petition which the students of T. C. U. presented to the faculty, asking for a holiday Tuesday, which was T. C. U. day at the Dallas fair, arrangements were made for special cars to take the crowd to Dallas at 8 a. m.

On schedule time two hundred students joyfully started on their invasion of the neighboring city. One of the faculty members likened the bunch to an army, and really what they lacked in numbers they made up for in noise which proceeded from various contraptions such as whistles, mouths and bands.

On arriving in Dallas the entire aggregation went immediately to the Fair Park and therefore had ample time to take in the different attractions before noon.

One of the displays which excited a great deal of interest was the T. C. U. art exhibit which won numerous prizes for Mrs. Cockrell and her students. The work was excellent and fully deserved the widespread interest shown it.

From the outside rumors which were circulated, T. C. U. was the popular contestant for gridiron honors which were to be bestowed in the afternoon. However, the Austin college boys were almost as confident of victory as their opponents.

Following a short work-out by both teams in the afternoon the game was called at 3:30 and the opposing elevens clashed with all the vim and spirit within them.

Between halves the boys of T. C. U. exhibited their overflowing joy by a snake dance which was ably led by John Keith, president of the student

Christians Outclass Sherman Boys in Every Department of Game and Smother Them 28 to 0

TEAM WORK IS EXCELLENT

Heavy Penalties Count Against A. C. But Kangaroos Put Up Good Fight

(By James McBride)

Playing true to form, T. C. U. defeated Austin College by a 28 to 0 score last Tuesday afternoon before 2000 football enthusiasts gathered at the Texas State Fair. This is one of a series of football games which the fair corporation is offering to its athletically inclined visitors this year.

Due to recent rains and to the fact that the space before the grandstand is used as a parade ground for the soldiers encamped at the fair, the field was very slow. Besides, the day was unusually warm, and this, along with the soft dirt, kept down the T. C. U. score.

The Christians outclassed the boys from Sherman in every angle of the game. This statement is not based on the personal opinion of the writer, but upon definite figures gleaned from the record of the afternoon's pastime.

A. C. kicked 12 times for a total of 335 yards, an average of 28 yards per kick; T. C. U. kicked 6 times for 245 yards, which makes each attempt average 41 yards. On straight football T. C. U. gained 182 yards to A. C.'s 154 yards. And on forward passes T. C. U. accumulated 264 yards, while A. C. gets credit for only one pass which went 17 yards.

Nor do the figures stop here. A. C. was penalized an even 100 yards during the game, mostly for holding; T. C. U. lost 59 yards in the same way. Evidently the red-sweatered clan thought they appeared to better advantage when the officials pushed them back than when T. C. U. was running over them. Either way, the procession was always toward the Austin College goal.

For the Sherman school Robinson, Wheat, Lowe and McCall played the best game.

With the Christians it is the same old story: the whole team played a great game of football. The defense was good, interference was good, and the spirit of the team was good, as the score plainly attests. But stars—even in the sky—are of unequal radiance, and each receives attention in proportion to the light that it sheds.

We give Ramsey, at left half, credit for playing the most brilliant football of any man on the T. C. U. team. His ability to return punts is wonderful. Time and again he would reel off three-quarters of the distance the ball had been kicked before he could be downed. Nor was this the only way he showed to advantage. Three times he got loose for long end runs that were the sensations of the game; and several times he took passes that netted the Christians many yards. Not considering forward passes, Ramsey gained more ground than any other man in the T. C. U. lineup.

As usual, Vaughn played a good, heady game. He caught several passes

Strong Appeal Made to Alumni at Banquet to Back T. C. U. Athletics

"Boost T. C. U. athletics and help the school grow" was the keynote of the speeches made by promoters of Varsity athletics at the banquet given in their honor by the Dallas chapter of the Alumni Association, Tuesday night following the victory over Austin college.

Enthusiastic over the outcome of the game with the Kangaroos, followers of the purple and white who feasted at the supper were in high spirits and every speech made was full of pep and loyalty.

Dan Rogers, a prominent member of the Dallas Alumni Chapter, presided as toastmaster. One by one he called on all the members of the Dallas chapter and introduced them to the squad of men who are defending

T. C. U. on the gridiron this season. Athletic Director Gumm, Coach Freeland and Assistant Coach Daniel were each called on for talks.

Dr. Gumm told the banqueters of the plans which had been outlined in regard to T. C. U.'s future in athletics. He said that every effort was being made by those in charge to build a strong foundation for future athletics. He paid a high tribute to Coach Freeland and his work.

Milton E. Daniel impressed on the Alumni present that their support and backing was necessary in order to put the University to the front in state athletics.

"The alumni make the athletics of any school," he said and proceeded to point out how some schools with no larger a student body than T. C. U. have always put out winning teams in every field of college sports, simply because the former students used their influence in bringing or sending strong players to their Alma Mater. He appealed to the former students of T. C. U. to get in behind T. C. U. athletics with earnestness and do their best to send men here to build up stronger teams in every department of athletics.

Coach Freeland said that he was building and looking toward the future. He expressed hopes of greater success in the years to come.

Following the banquet, Fort Worth visitors were loud in their praise of Dan Rogers for his enterprise and enthusiasm in advertising the game throughout the city. Besides planning the banquet Tuesday night, he had slides run in the moving picture shows advertising the game with the Sherman boys, had posters distributed over the city and displays put on numerous automobiles.

Keeping T. C. U. on an Honor Basis

For the benefit of the new students and in the interest of keeping T. C. U. on the honor basis, it might not be out of order to review what the honor system stands for in the university and what it means to the students.

When the student body voted to adopt the honor system last year, practically every student in the university signified that he would support the proposition by rising to his feet when the affirmative vote was taken.

That meant that the students put themselves on record as wanting the honor system made a permanent part of their college life. In declaring for the constitution which established this phase of self-government in T. C. U., every student obligated himself to help in stamping dishonest, dishonorable, thoughtless and careless acts out of the student life of the university. He made it his duty as a citizen of T. C. U. to enforce the ideals set forth in the honor system by reporting to the Student Council every case of cheating and stealing which came to his notice.

One thing is absolutely essential to the continued success of the honor system in T. C. U. That is that every student support it. No one can deny that it was admirable success last year. Earnest co-operation on the part of the entire student body will assure a continuance of this success.

Ten students, representatives on the Student Council, have been elected by the students to administer the provisions of the honor system. They are but the servants of the student body, carrying out its requests. If any one of them fails to stand flat-footed and four-square against dishonesty, he will be branded at once as a hypocrite. For the same reason, the student who does not stand by his convictions in this matter is a hypocrite.

The Student Council sits as a jury on all cases which come up for infringement of the honor system. Their responsibility is a great one; if, in their judgment, a student is guilty of cheating, they cannot but punish him, regardless of how much they may like him or sympathize with him.

The members of the council desire, as do all patriotic citizens of T. C. U., to raise the standard of class work and student life in the university. That is the purpose of the honor system. They were elected to enforce it, and by accepting the office of student representative, they pledged themselves to do so to the best of their ability.

The first thing necessary for the new student to do is to rid his mind of the idea, if he has it, that reporting a case of cribbing or stealing to the council is harmful to himself or the man he reports. It is evident that cheating is against the common good. By reporting a case of cribbing, a student not only benefits the individual by giving the council an opportunity to start him on the right track again, but he also improves the common good.

The honor system is working success in hundreds of schools and colleges over the country. The ideals of honor of the students in T. C. U. are just as high as they are in these other schools. The student body stands almost as a unit in support of the honor system. The students have pledged their support to the movement, are on their honor to support it and will support it.

The Amendments

The Students' Association is to be asked to ratify two amendments to the honor system constitution. One is to allow the law department representation on the Student Council, and the other gives the various classes and departments more time in which to elect their delegates.

The proposal of these changes by members of the council was made in order to keep up with the progress being made by T. C. U. and to guarantee a better and more representative body for the administration of the honor system.

Although only started this fall, the new law school is now a firmly established part of the university, and it is nothing but right that the Laws should be represented, as are all other departments, on the council.

In regard to the second amendment which is to be submitted to the student body, it has been found impossible for the classmen, especially members of the lower classes, to organize and become well enough acquainted with each other in a week or two to be able to choose a safe man for the responsible position of council representative. It was in order to remedy this difficulty that the second change was presented. The only difference from the former provision is an extension of the time within which delegates must be elected.

The clause "This shall not apply to the year 1915-16" was inserted to excuse the delay occasioned in organizing the council this year.

These amendments deserve to be made a part of the constitution.

Well-Deserved Appreciation

Dr. Gumm's public announcement of our appreciation and thanks for the splendid backing given the university by the sporting editors of the Record and Star-Telegram this fall was heartily endorsed by the student body in chapel last week.

Mr. Keisker of the Star-Telegram and Mr. Evans of the Record deserved the personal mention which they got for the treatment they have accorded T. C. U. in the past and are giving her at the present. Also, the city editors, Mr. Shields of the Record and Mr. Archer of the Star-Telegram, have won a high place in the regard of the students and have made their papers popular with the university people by the manner in which they recognize T. C. U. news.

Keep a File

Files of The Skiff for the past five or six years are to be found on the shelves of the college library. Students might find it interesting to look over some of the old papers and see how T. C. U. has progressed since then. The present management invites critical comparison of this year's paper with any of the old editions.

It is a worth while habit for all subscribers of The Skiff to keep a file of the paper for themselves. It will furnish them at the end of the session a complete record of the college year and its events. Quite a number of students who have kept files of The Skiff in the past would not take anything for them now.

IN MEMORIAM

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father, in his infinite wisdom, to take from our midst, our beloved friend and classmate, Odessa Allison, be it,

Resolved: that, while in humble submission, and ever mindful of his benign goodness, we bow to His Divine will, yet the departure of such a beautiful character indelibly stamped on Memory's wall, must cause us to realize our irreparable loss.

Resolved further, that even as we thought of her in the classroom and on the campus, so we do think now, as we pause to say the last "good-bye," that, though further removed from out the bourne of time, she has left for us an example of truth, purity of mind, and honesty of character, indeed worthy of emulation. We shall miss our pleasant associations with her, which meant always an everlasting uplift, and our own lives shall be better for having known her.

Resolved also, that while it is impossible for friends to bear alike the burdens of grief, we do hereby extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family, and may our Heavenly Father, who is able to share our lot and lighten our sorrows, be with you in double portion.

Resolved then, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished The Skiff for publication, a copy to the bereaved family, and that a copy be spread on the minutes of our class records.

Respectfully submitted, that were almost impossible of completion. Quarterback Edens was a tower of strength. His kicking, tackling and plunging were all good.

Captain Cox at fullback was the man on whom T. C. U. depended when she had to make her distance. He was on both the hurling and receiving end of many long passes. Nelson, at right half, was just as good as ever, and that is saying a whole lot, as followers of the game at T. C. U. know.

First Quarter

T. C. U. won the toss and Capt. Cox chose the north goal. Austin C. kicked. McCall sent the ball 45 yards to Nelson, who returned 20 yards. On bucks, Nelson made 3, Cox 3, Ramsey 2, 0, and Nelson 2 yards. A pass Edens to Cox was good for 15 yards. Edens went through for 5 yards. Nelson fumbled and A. C. recovered. Henderson failed. Lowe made 1 yard. Wheat failed. On fourth down Wheat kicked 25 yards to Edens. Ramsey did not gain. Cox went 25 yards for a first down. Ramsey made 4 yards. Nelson no gain. Henderson 1-2 and Lowe 1 yard. Austin College was penalized 15 yards for holding. Wheat kicked 30 yards to Ramsey, who returned 8 yards. Nelson made 5 yards. A pass, Edens to Ramsey, two yards. Cox through for 5 yards. Pass, Edens to Nelson, no gain. Pass, Edens to Nelson, made 15 yards. Nelson went 6 and 5 yards. Cox, no gain. Nelson made 5 yards and the first touchdown of the game. Robinson gained 3 yards. Austin penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness. Lowe no gain, Walling fumbled. Wheat kicked 40 yards to Ramsey, who returned 30 yards by a great broken field run. body. Another unique feature was the representation of the student body of the T. C. U. Medical college, whose yells strengthened the already strong spirit of "never get beat" which was preeminent.

Before and immediately after the game Art Smith demonstrated his superior ability as an aviator by the dare-devil stunts which were performed at an altitude of several hundred feet.

At 7 o'clock the bunch left Dallas for home and arrived safely at 9:30, tired of body, but very much alive in spirit and hoping that history will repeat itself next year.

A large number of former students and friends of T. C. U. also attended the fair on T. C. U. day and witnessed the football game.

SPANISH SOCIETY

HAS RECEPTION AT MISS GOFORTH'S

The Spanish Society held its first reception of the year last Wednesday evening Oct. 13, at the home of Miss Myrtle Goforth. The reception was given for only those who were members of the society; however there were some who for various reasons could not be present.

One of the things most enjoyed was music furnished by the Victrola. Various games were also enjoyed during the evening, the most prominent of which was the Dutch wedding in which Professor Dabbs became especially noticeable. At a late hour coffee and sandwiches were served after which all departed with no regret for having attended.

Those present were: Misses Case, Lewellen, Johnson, Teddie, Alexander Willingham, and Messrs. Dabbs, Feemster, Taylor, Cooper, Nelson and Skaggs.

Oratorical Association to Have Constitution

At a meeting of the Oratorical Association Friday at noon a committee was elected to draw up a constitution for the association. Those elected were: Horace Jones, Willis McGregor, and Alden Evans.

Another matter which was brought before the association was that of a debt contracted last year by the State Inter-collegiate Oratorical Association. The secretary-treasurer had written to the president of our Oratorical Association asking that we pay a part of the debt. The president and secretary were instructed to arrange the matter.

Turrentine Says:

It is a pleasure to see the boys play as they have shown in the last two games, and it shows what Freeland can do.
