

KEEN COMPETITION ON FOR PLACES IN VARSITY GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club has started off with much enthusiasm and it is thought that a large number of men will make a place on the club. It is under the direction of Frederick M. Cahoon, with Mr. Hamilton as accompanist.

Each man is doing his best to make good, for it has been said by those who know that T. C. U. has by far the best glee club in the state. Already several calls have been received for engagements by the Glee Club, and there is no doubt but that the organization will have more calls for engagements than it can meet this year.

The repertoire this year will consist of several new and high-class pieces of music, which will add much to the success of their programs. The orchestra, which has also improved a great deal over last year, will accompany the Glee Club. This will form an attractive feature of the programs.

Those trying out are: J. Martin, W. I. Stevenson, J. Luck, G. C. Hutton, first tenors; S. Sweeney, V. E. Arnsperger, B. Douglas, J. Edens, W. Stallings, L. Story, H. Latson, second tenor; H. Vaughn, T. P. Sweeney, L. Dutton, C. Tomlinson, W. B. Higgins, J. Keith, E. Williams, first bass; H. Tomlinson, H. Bradford, W. McGregor, J. W. Shockley, second bass.

14 SECOND TEAM MEN GO TO MINERAL WELLS FOR CONTEST SATURDAY

Manager Charles Christenberry has arranged a game between the second team and the Mineral Wells team for Saturday afternoon, Nov. 13, at Mineral Wells. The second team men will leave Saturday morning at 8 o'clock for Mineral Wells with Coach Daniel and Captain "Red" Willis in charge.

Georgetown Boys Put Up Scrappy Fight But Fail to Score Against Varsity

T. C. U. came back into her own Friday afternoon by winning over Southwestern University 21 to 0 on the local Y. M. C. A. field.

The game was hardfought and interesting from whistle to whistle. Even after many points were piled up against them, the boys from Georgetown fought gamely against a team that was always just a little too good for them.

T. C. U.'s first touchdown was made in the first of the second quarter on the thirteenth pass that the Christians attempted. Nobody seemed to mind the thirteenth, despite its unlucky number the pass was a beauty. Stangl, in the middle of four S. U. men, jumped high in the air and caught the oval that came like a shot from Edens.

As usual, the entire Christian team put up a nice game. The boys knew they had to fight to win, and they did all that was necessary.

The way Cox covered the ground was an inspiration; he had all of his "dime speed and aggressiveness. Time and again John P. would get around one of the ends for twenty or thirty yards.

"Judge" Ramsey was also much in evidence during the afternoon's pastime. His plunging and tackling and tackling were good; but as usual, his broken field running was the feature of his play. Moore, head linesman for the game, told the writer that he considered Ramsey the best man in Texas

Sowell, guards; Sanders and Lee, ends; Scott and S. Sweeney, line-man. Three medics who are members of the regular scrub team will be unable to get off from their classes for Saturday.

HERE'S WHY WE SHOULD BE BUBBLING OVER WITH PEP FOR BAYLOR GAME

Up to Friday afternoon Varsity had an even break in the number of games won and lost during this season. Her 21 to 0 victory over Southwestern puts her high in the running for T. I. A. A. honors. Now even second place is not impossible.

But one more Association game remains to be played: that with Baylor on the 25th of this month. A win over the strong Waco aggregation will put the Purple and White just below the orange and white of the University of Texas.

The comparative strength of T. C. U. will be evident to some extent from the results of the games which these two teams are to play against Oklahoma A. & M. More definite figures will be available after the game with Waco on November 25.

Let us change the slogan "On to Baylor" to "On Over Baylor."

Today, when it came to returning punts; and we are in agreement with him.

Freshman Edens deserves a world of credit for the way he handled the team. His play was good many times he carried the ball for long games. The way he passed and attempted for the large number of successful attempts at the forward pass on the part of T. C. U.

All of the good work, however, was not done by the men back of the line. "Gish" Martin at left tackle showed all-star form. Often he broke through the interference and threw the man who carried the ball for a big loss.

Every T. C. U. man came out of the game in good shape; the team will be in excellent condition when we meet Oklahoma A. & M. next Tuesday, Nov. 16; and Christian supporters are expecting a victory. The game is to be played at the Y. M. C. A. Park.

ON TO BAYLOR IS THE SLOGAN; GET YOUR TICKET

The most conservative estimate says that 300 students, faculty members and friend of T. C. U. will join the special "On to Baylor" train, which will take our crowd to Waco Thanksgiving for the biggest and last game of the season. Large numbers of tickets have already been sold and a big demand is coming from the city for more.

Not only are all the students going but the alumni and old students of T. C. U. will be there in big numbers and with all the pep of the old Waco days. Hundreds of post cards with the schedule and an exhortative invitation to be at Waco on the eventful 25th of November have been sent out to all former students and favorable responses are pouring in, indicating that Baylor's homecoming is likely to be turned into a T. C. U. homecoming.

New yells for this special occasion have been learned, and if student body supports and pep can help win a football game, Varsity's chances are good.

The point now is—get your ticket —$1.25.

Boles' Eleven Victim of Teamwork By Christians, Who Make Four Touchdowns

By a 25 to 0 score Varsity whipped Trinity University on Saturday, Nov. 5, in Waxahachie. The game was devoid of spectacular plays. In the first period the light Trinity backs showed unexpected strength on the offense, advancing the ball to T. C. U.'s 10-yard line, only to lose it on an incomplete forward pass. After this Trinity never had a chance, although they fought hard to the last whistle.

The Christians made one touchdown in each quarter. Edens made the first by taking a pass from Cox that went 30 yards; Ramsey the second by a 5 yard run around right end; Vaughn the third by a 30 yard run after taking a pass from Edens; and Cox the fourth when he went through the line for 30 yards in the final period. A touchdown following a great broken-field run by "Judge" Ramsey was disallowed because a Christian forward was detected holding.

For Trinity McKinsey and King were the stars. King was forced out of the game in the second quarter on account of a broken shoulder; this cut down the strength of Boles' team considerably. McKinzie was the most consistent ground gainer on either team.

The entire purple and white combination played a good game. Spectators of the tussle say that little individual work was noticeable. Cox, Edens, R. Martin, Vaughn and Nelson showed the best form. Cox especially was a bright light, his plunging, and passing all appearing greatly to the Christian victors. An injury to his left eye kept him out of the game in the third quarter.

PROMISING BUNCH OF COEDS OUT FOR BASKETBALL TEAM

The girls' basketball practice began last week with four of the members of last year's team and about twenty other girls.

All the girls are showing up well in the practice being held daily. From the members of last year's team are: Vestal Tompkins, forward; Minnie Proctor, forward; Venice Luse, guard; and Irene Carson, center. From those who have reported for practice Coach Cahoon should be able to select a team that can beat anything in the state.

Practice games will be played with Central High and other high schools in the city. The season will probably open with a game with T. W. C. and about four games with other colleges of the T. I. A. A.

Last year T. C. U. won nine of the ten games played. The two games with T. W. C. were the hardest games of the season, and this year we hope to beat T. W. C. by a large score.

The girls are all enthusiastic over the prospects and want everybody in school to boost the girls' basketball team.

The captain has not been elected. Those who have reported for practice are Minnie Proctor, Vestal Tompkins, Irene Carson, Venice Luse, Alanette Wells, Minnie Mae King, Fannie Darter, Lela Bates, Ruby Jones, Elizabeth Bridgeman, Bennie Ruth Clements, Dessa Dreeben, Della Leveridge, Nerrine Neely, Margaret Bell, Lena Gilbert, Ahtha Harris, May Owens, Ireta Robinson, Ruth Trueblood and Lena Alexander.

WALTON SOCIETY TO MEET ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

At a special meeting of the Walton Literary Society Tuesday it was decided that society meetings hereafter will be held on Monday afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock. This change was made to accommodate the members who live in the city.

Law Library Gets Start; Domestic Science Aided

A substantial foundation for a law library was secured last week when Judge R. H. Buck of Fort Worth presented the Law School with a complete set of the American and English Encyclopedia of Law.

These volumes are standard works and are valued at $200. Members of the Law Department are deeply appreciative of this gift by Judge Book and are encouraged to extend their efforts to build up a strong library for the department.

Four volumes of the civil statutes of Texas have already been purchased and added to the collection previously obtained.

Another new feature of the University library is the addition of a large number of books on domestic science and domestic art. Mrs. Ida V. Jarvis, founder of the Department of Domestic Economy, has given more than $50 worth of reference books relative to subjects taught in that department.

The following books have been added: Boyer—Paper-Bag Cookery. Gingles—Lessons in Garment Drafting.

Ronald—Luncheon.
Snyder—Human Foods and their Nutritive Value.

Hough & Williams—Human Mechanism; Physiology, Hygiene & Sanitation.

Hutchison—Food and Dietetics.

Hill—The Up-To-Date Waitress.

Kingland—The Book of Good Manners.

Lincoln—Carving and Serving.

Rorer—How to Use a Chafing Dish.

Rorer—Home Candy Making.

Holt—The Care and feeding of Children.

Conn—Bacteria, Yeasts and Molds in the home.

Complete set of Library of Home Economics—12 volumes: Bevier—The House; Elliott—Household Bacteriology; Elliott—Household Hygiene; Dodd—Chemistry of the Household; Barrows—Principles of Cookery; Norton—Food and Dietetics; Terrill—Household Management; Le Bosquet—Personal Hygiene; Pope—Home Care of the Sick; Watson—Textiles and Clothing; Washburne—Study of Child Life; Cotton—Care of the Children.

Miss Mary Lee Moore, head of the Domestic Science Department, will refer her classes to the library for assigned readings from these new and up-to-date books.

Dr. Kershner Intended to Return to T. C. U. Jan. 1

In a letter to The Skiff this week, Dr. F. D. Kershner, who has been in Washington, D. C., since last summer, says that his writing there has been chiefly devoted to material other than Sunday School literature.

"I have written some of the latter as I did at T. C. U., but the writing has been of an incidental character," he said.

Dr. Kershner also said that it had been his definite intention until within the last few weeks to return to T. C. U. on the 1st of January and resume his duties as president of the University. "My preparations were definitely made," he said, "to return on the 1st of January and I had no thought of doing anything else."

The circumstances which led up to his acceptance of the editorship of the Evangelist are given in his own statement, which follows:

"The publication of my election to the editorship of the Evangelist in the daily press was unauthorized and was deprecated by myself, as well as the other parties concerned. I had intended that the announcement should be made in the proper form and regret that such a garbled and premature statement was published. I have written a full and official review of the situation to President Tomlinson and have no doubt that he will make it public or such parts of it as he deems wise and proper whenever it appears to him to be best. I do not wish to anticipate any such statement by discussing the subject myself. Let it suffice to say that the editorial work was entirely unsolicited on my own part, and that I only gave it consideration at the urgent request of the leaders in my own church throughout the nation, and in view of a peculiar situation which those familiar with the journalism of the Disciples of Christ will readily understand.

"My interest in T. C. U. remains and will remain active and acute. I have the most abundant confidence in her future and feel sure that the dreams and aspirations for the future which have been mine and in which many others have shared will be fully realized. Whatever I can do personally toward realizing them will always be cheerfully and heartily done. It is a matter of the deepest regret to me that I shall be unable to give all my time and thought toward realizing them, as I had expected and hoped, but this fact will not interfere with my doing everything in my power to secure the end desired."

Come Across With the $1.25

Isn't this new system of having season tickets to all the games a great relief compared to former experiences of being constantly pestered by some one wanting to sell you a ticket to one thing or another?

Surely everyone will admit that the establishment of an annual athletic-oratory fee has proven to be a good thing. And when it is remembered that the movement to have this fee was inaugurated by members of the student body and that they fought for it two years before they got it, it must also be admitted that some worthy and progressive activities can and often do originate in the student mind.

But to return to the subject—old students especially are delighted with the new system. This is the first year since they have been in T. C. U. that they are not afraid to venture into the halls for fear of meeting some gum-shoe ticket agent waiting to waylay them and embarrass them before their fellow students by asking them to buy a ticket. There has been a remarkable freedom from such annoyances this year.

But when it comes to a consideration of this trip to Baylor on Thanksgiving, every T. C. U. spirited citizen should feel a thrill of joy in blowing himself for the necessary $1.25. The season ticket will admit to the grounds.

Don't put off members of the student committee with some excuse when they call on you, but pull out the cash and prepare for the excursion.

An effort is being made to stir up more pep among the day students. They are especially urged to go on this trip and join in the Thanksgiving celebration.

Well-Taken Objection

Objections made by numbers of students to the examination blanks furnished by the business office are well taken. The tablets which we are now required to use are entirely unsatisfactory and it is nothing more than right that the students should request a change.

In the first place, the tablets are not worth what we pay for them. Secondly, the four sheets which comprise one of the examination blanks are not enough to hold the answers to most tests.

It is desirable that a more appropriate blank be furnished.

Student Opinion on Our Next President

Student opinion has spoken. There can be no doubt after the way student opinion expressed itself in public demonstration last week as to whom two-thirds of the student body want as the head of the University and their next president. As soon as the rumor became prevalent that Dr. Kershner would not return and it was apparent that a new president would have to be elected, it seemed that the same thought flashed spontaneously through the minds of a large number of students in regard to the most likely successor to the office.

Later discussion among the students tends to show that every one of them whose first thought was in favor of Professor Cockrell as the man for the place still holds that opinion to a man and that in many cases they believe still more strongly that he is the man for the position.

Elsewhere in this issue is printed an article by John Keith, member of the senior class and president of the Students' Association, which sets forth, from the students' viewpoint, some of the things which should be taken into consideration in contemplating the choice of a new president for T. C. U.

3 LIBERAL CASH PRIZES OFFERED BIBLE STUDENTS

A new class will begin next week under the direction of Chalmers McPherson. No lessons will be assigned, the instruction being by lectures. Forty-eight lectures will complete the course in twenty-four weeks. These will be free to T. C. U. students and their wives.

Students may enter the class either as "visiting members" or as "contestants." To the last named T. S. Reed of Beaumont offers $25 to the student making the highest grade upon final examination, next June, regularity, general deportment and examination papers being considered.

The class will meet twice a week at 3:30 p. m. Mr. McPherson will be glad to give desired information. Three of the classes offered rewards for efficient students of the Bible. The good in each class is the subject to the classes to which these offers are made are "Doctrines and Practices of the New Testament Church," and the new class, a Bible lecture course. These rewards have been offered by Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dunlap of Italy, Mrs. I. D. Getzen-daner of Waxahachie and Mr. T. S. Reed of Beaumont, and will be known as "Reward for Efficiency in Bible Study."

STUDENTS READ PAPERS AT MUSIC STUDY CLUB

The Music Study Club met Wednesday afternoon with the beginning of music and the Italian composers as the subject for discussion.

Papers were read by Frances Williams, Vestal Tompkins, Lucille Durrett, Hattie Hern and Inez Hudgins on the composers, while Miss Wilson gave a very interesting discussion of the beginning of music and musical instruments, concluding with two compositions from Scarlatti played in the very artistic manner so characteristic of Miss Wilson. This was decidedly the feature of the afternoon.

The following program will be given Wednesday, Nov. 17:

German composers—
Bach, by Monette Whaley; Handel, by Masal Jeffers; Beethoven, by Marguerite Riter; Mozart, by Beulah Bell; The Troubadours and Minnesingers, by Anna McLendon.
Italian composers—
Donizetti, by Nannie Lou Andrews; Verdi, by Artie Bell Cummings.

Monette Whaleo, Ruby Douglas and Sue Cole spent last week end with Gladys Richards at her home in Italy.

PRESIDENT OUGHT TO BE LOCAL MAN

By John Keith

In selecting a man to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of our last president, it seems to me that the light of our experience in the past with reference to a northern or an eastern man should be allowed to act as a searchlight. What has been the result in practically every case? What became of Presidents Buxton, Zollars and Kershner? Have we not found that in the majority of the cases such men have only remained in Texas for a year or so? Does experience not justify us in saying that men of this kind invariably remain just long enough to become only partially acquainted with the people to whom they must look for the school's support? And after all, is this not the natural thing to expect? How can the Board think that a stranger from the North will fall into the general plan as harmoniously, as energetically, or as intelligently as a man who has grown up with the school, who, by association, has grown to love it with all sincerity, and who does not look upon it as a mere stepping stone in the realization of his own personal schemes and ambitions?

And T. C. U. is not the only Texas college that is beginning to learn by bitter experience. Why is it that Baylor, Trinity, Southwestern, Southern Methodist University, Texas Woman's College, and Denton Normal have already decided in favor of a local man? Why have these colleges seen fit to place at their heads either native Texans or men who, by long residence, have won the right to be called such? It is simply because they have been thoroughly awake, because they have been quicker to learn the lessons taught by the past.

The next question is, "Have these men been successful?" In practically every instance the answer comes in the affirmative. Who can deny that Brooks of Baylor, for example, has been any less successful? Who can deny that Dr. Boaz is doing for Trinity? Why is it that he is so successful in connection with such success in his campaign for the college president? It is simply because he is a local man, a Texas man, a man with whom the citizens of Fort Worth and of Texas are intimately acquainted, and with whose plans they are readily sympathetic.

T. C. U.'s present financial condition is demanding that the Board of Trustees act wisely in this matter. It is demanding that they choose a man who can do for us what Boaz is doing for T. W. C., what Brooks has done for Baylor. We have come to a crisis in the history of the school, and the present election is largely going to determine whether T. C. U. shall grow and prosper or whether she shall continue to be a weakling financially, and as far as general progress is concerned.

When Hill M. Bell, an Iowa man, was chosen president of Drake University, those few who opposed a local man were at first skeptical as to his ability. But Bell's love for the old school and the energy with which he pushed things has made of him the best president that Drake ever had. The same is true with reference to Crossfield, president of Transylvania—a local Iowa man; the same is true of Butler, president of Columbia—a local New York man.

As far as the local man in our case is concerned, there can be no possible doubt as to the man preeminently fitted to be president of Texas Christian University. Who is it who has stood for the broadest and most progressive principles ever since his connection with T. C. U. began? Who is it whose energy, activity, scholarship, and general popularity undoubtedly stamp him as the man for the place? For whom have the student body and the alumni spontaneously petitioned? With whom are the citizens of Fort Worth and the people of Texas most intimately and most favorably acquainted?

WE ARE ONLY ASKING THE BOARD TO INVESTIGATE WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

SENIORS TO HAVE PARTY

The senior class is planning to give a party at the home of their professor, Prof. C. I. Alexander, next week. The reception will be a sort of get acquainted meeting and part of the evening will be taken up with a discussion of plans for the Horned Frog. Raymond Fox, editor-in-chief, and Joe McNamara, business manager, will outline their work for the year.

Miss Olive Peak of West Fifth Street visited the University Tuesday and brought a bundle of magazines for the library. She also presented a year's subscription to "Home and State."

BEUTEL GIVES BOX PARTY FOR FINE ARTS FACULTY

Carl Beutel and Frank C. Agar, former members of the fine arts faculty of the University, gave a joint recital at Byer's Opera House Wednesday evening. A box party was given to the fine arts faculty of T. C. U. by Mr. Beutel.

George Hirt spent several days the first of the week at her home in Cleburne.

Miss Ruby Parks of Lancaster, niece of Dean Parks, was the guest of Miss Annie Lee Harris several days this week. Miss Parks was a student in the University last year.

Scrubs Put Up Strong Fight Against Heavy Team From City

Outweighed 20 Pounds to Man, Second Team Men Lose to Aggregation of Ex-Stars Representing City Y. M. C. A.

Outweighed twenty pounds to the man, the Scrubs heroically went down before a strong combination of ex-football stars representing the Y. M. C. A. of the city Saturday afternoon on the University gridiron.

The winning aggregation was made up to Southwestern, Poly, T. C. U. and Vanderbilt men with the addition of a few spiced marvels from the city. It was a matter of mass, old heads, and consistency versus youngsters, inexperience and eagerness.

Time after time the Y. M. C. A. team was baffled by being thrown for five or ten yard losses by the hard hitting, lightning-like action of the Scrubs. End runs would gain the city men nothing; however, they seldom failed to gain through the line, and this was their dependable mode of assault.

The Scrubs won the toss and received. Moore's thirty yard kick was returned seven yards. After a couple of fumbles and a failure to gain Clark kicked twenty yards. Y. M. C. A. made first down and was held for downs the second time. The Scrubs were forced to punt again. By a series of line bucks and a long pass to Moore the ball was put on T. C. U.'s ten yard line. Three times the Scrubs held, but on the fourth down, Moore caught a successful pass behind the goal line.

The "Y" failed to kick goal.

At the beginning of the second quarter Y. M. C. A. had the ball in midfield. Line plunges and a successful pass put the ball on T. C. U.'s five yard line. At this time line bucks failed and on fourth down the association was thrown for a five yard loss. The Scrubs attempted an end run and Christenberry was thrown for a ten yard loss and a safety for Miller's eleven. The rest of the quarter was played without further scoring. Score at the end of the second quarter: Y. M. C. A., 8; T. C. U., 0.

Dutton started the second half by kicking thirty yards. The Y men carried the ball to T. C. U.'s five yard line but were penalized for pushing and lost the ball on fourth down. Clark kicked out of danger and the quarter was finished without either side scoring.

In the fourth quarter Willis opened up with several successful passes and carried the ball within scoring distance of the goal and nothing but the shortness of the quarter saved the Y. M. C. A. men from being scored on.

This was the first real hard game the Scrubs have had, and it may be truly said that they fought like Varsity men against a heavier and more experienced team. Every man played a star game.

PLACES ANNOUNCED FOR 6 STUDENTS ON LIBERTY BELL FLOAT

Committees are hard at work completing decorations for the floats which are to represent the University as a whole and the school in the pageant which will be held Thursday, Nov. 18, in celebration of the visit of the famous Liberty Bell to Fort Worth.

The T. C. U. float will follow immediately behind the car on which the Liberty Bell will be drawn up and down Main Street. According to the plan outlined by Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, who designed the decoration for the float, a large raised platform will be built on the truck with a large pedestal in the center. On the pedestal and at either end of the float will be placed huge bells covered with paper flowers. The pedestal will be decorated with T. C. U. pennants and purple and white colors; the other part of the float will be covered with red, white and blue.

At the front end of the float Miss Una Stark and Willis M. McGregor, as typical college students, will sit, one on each side of the bell. On the rear end of the float Miss Pansy Bozeman and W. L. Thornton, representing an old colonial couple, will sit. John Nelson, a college football player, and Charles Butts, representative of the minute-men of the Revolution, will have places in the center by the pedestal.

All of the students of the Law Department will ride on the float which they have entered in the pageant. They will probably present a tableau of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Numbers of small flags have been sold to help pay for the expenses incurred by the general committee of arrangements for the pageant.

ADD-RAN SPEAKERS CHOSEN FOR OLD MEN'S CONTEST

W. B. Higgins, Joe McNamara and James McBride were chosen Monday night to represent the Add-Ran Literary Society in the Old Men's Declamatory Contest which will be held in December. Roy Feemster is alternate.

Three members of the society acted as judges in the preliminary contest at which the speakers were selected.

MRS. CAHOON AND MR. PITNER ON PROGRAM BEFORE WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, head of the voice department of the University, and Guy R. Pitner of the piano department left Wednesday morning for Brownwood, where they appeared on the fine arts program at the state meeting of the Federated Women's Clubs.

They are the only Fort Worth artists to appear on the program.

The fine arts program was given Thursday. Mrs. Cahoon, by special request of Miss Pace, state chairman of the Federated Clubs of Texas, sang two arios from the "Magic Flute," "Queen of the Night" and the "Istaccato Ario." The latter one is the highest song written. Both are several tones above high "C," which Mrs. Cahoon sings brilliantly.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Cahoon sang the Texas prize song and also one of Mr. Pitner's compositions.

Mr. Pitner appeared as piano soloist, playing "Shubert's Lizsts" and "Du Bist Die Ruh." He also accompanied Mrs. Cahoon.

Moulders' Beauty Contest

It is believed that Fort Worth is neutral. It would be manifestly unjust to assert that her men would fight at the drop of a hat, after dropping the hat themselves, if nothing important was at stake. It is also believed that they are generous, and unprejudiced—in some matters. Let us say, for instance, a great company of mixed nationalities have foregathered at a certain local photoplay house. On the screen before them appears the living likeness of a charming young French woman. As a matter of act, if it be permitted to tell tales out of school, a young woman of that nationality has submitted her photograph to the Moulders' fraternal order that intends to present a moving picture of fifteen of the city's most beautiful women. In her shy, modest way, she is fully upholding the honor of France. Further, let it be added that she confers an honor upon your Uncle Sam by claiming him as her relative also.

This young woman appears up the shadow stage. She smiles at the assemblage, and permits her eyes to look straight out at you, before lowering them in an unaccountable and delicious confusion. You are a Frenchman.

Well, then, let us say that the next picture is a lovely granddaughter of some fierce old Prussian. Her smiling eyes remind you of the Blue Danube and moon-light on Mary Pickford's hair. There is a picture like that. The favored few who have seen it, remark: "What a pretty little German girl!" You see her on the screen. You are a German.

Now, the point is this: To demonstrate Fort Worth's absolute neutrality, it is expected that you, the Frenchman, shall vote for the dainty German girl (after all the photographs have been sent in, and the moving picture taken); and that you, the German, shall reciprocate by voting for the beautiful young French girl.

Will you do it?

LET US PROVE IT

The Skiff knows there are more beautiful girls in T. C. U. than all the rest of the town. Let us enter fifteen of our girls and capture all the prizes.

Is Your Girl Pretty?

If she is tell her so and see that her picture is entered in the Moulders' Beauty Contest. This Contest is being conducted on the very highest plane. Many of Fort Worth's favorite society belles have already entered this contest and many more are having their photographs taken for this purpose.

Don't give those T. W. C. girls a "look-in." Remember the proceeds derived by the Moulders are used to help educate girls less fortunate than you.

Y.M.C.A. CONDUCTS SERVICE
An interesting program was given by the Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening before an appreciative audience at the Brite College. The service was opened with a scripture reading, followed by a short talk by Charles Christenberry, president of the association on "The Aims and Purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association."

T. C. U. BEATS TRINITY 25 to 0
Cox was the only man on the T. C. U. team who was injured in any way, and in his case the hurt was not serious. The entire squad is in excellent condition for the Southwestern game, which is to be played in Fort Worth Nov. 12.
