

"GISH" MARTIN TO CAPTAIN FOOTBALL TEAM NEXT SEASON

Varsity football men were called on again to be the center of attention at a post-season affair given in their honor by Frederick M. Cahoon at his home Tuesday night. And true to their training, they answered the call with the same spirit that has characterized them during the entire season, displaying that team work which enables them to handle anything that is put before them.

The announced purpose of the meeting was to elect a captain for the 1916 football eleven, but as that question had been settled long before and Ralph (Gish) Martin had already been told to have a little speech ready, that matter was quickly disposed of. Only one vote stood against Martin, that being cast by himself.

With a clean record behind them, a full table before them and pretty girls beside them to look up to them as their idols not one of the men around the banquet table ever felt happier in all the glory of a football victory than he did at Cahoon's that night.

Heart-to-Heart Talks.

No after dinner speeches were made; just a few heart-to-heart talks between the men and their coaches. Milton E. Daniel, assistant coach, himself a former T. C. U. star, acted as toastmaster and called on Coach Freeland, Mr. Cahoon, Captain-Elect Martin, retiring Captain Cox and all of the men who have played their last year of football for T. C. U. to make talks.

Coach Freeland discussed the athletic situation in the University rather extensively, praising Cahoon and Daniel for their work and the team for their spirit and emphasizing the importance of co-operation between all and enthusiasm by all to accomplish a successful year.

Mr. Cahoon assured the banqueters that the faculty supported athletics more heartily than many students realized. He called particular attention to Dean W. B. Parks, acting president, who, he said, is cordially in accord with the student desire for clean athletics and does all in his power to aid in strengthening our standing.

It was a touching moment when

"SHORTY" VAUGHN ELECTED CAPTAIN BASKETBALL FIVE

At a meeting of the basketball men Friday afternoon Howard (Shorty) Vaughn was unanimously elected captain for this year.

Vaughn played on the Fort Worth Central High School team in '12 and '13 and on the Varsity team the last two years. Owing to the fact that no letters were given in track last year, Vaughn won only three letters: football, basketball and baseball. He is one of the best all-round athletes in T. C. U. and is a capable as well as a man for the basketball captaincy.

A dozen new suits arrived last Thursday, and the team is working hard under Coach Freeland. Manager Cox is arranging a schedule of games and the first T. I. A. A. contest will be played soon after the holidays.

FORMER T. C. U. PLAYERS MAKING GOOD AT T. U.

From the "Crimson Rambler," of Transylvania College, we see that Willis T. Stewart, once football mentor of T. C. U., was very successful with the team that he turned out at that college, this season. His many friends on the hill will be glad to know that he has made such a success with his coaching at Transylvania.

Hal Hunter, whom many people in T. C. U. will remember, played fullback on the Transylvania team. He had a great year, being mentioned by many of the papers of the section as an all-southern back.

CONTRACT FOR PRINTING HORNED FROG GIVEN EXLINE-REIMERS CO.

A contract has been signed by the managers of the Horned Frog with the Exline-Reimers Company of Fort Worth for the printing of the annual. The Southwestern Engraving Company of Fort Worth has the contract for the engraving work and the Greer Studio for all photographic work.

The placing of these contracts with Fort Worth firms means that at least $2,000 will be spent in the city by the Horned Frog.

SENIOR CLASS MEMBERS PLACE ORDERS FOR RINGS

Orders have been placed by members of the senior class for their rings. It is an established custom for those in the graduating class to have some emblem, which after graduation will betoken their alma mater.

The rings this year will have the figure of a Horned Frog in the center with the figure "16" on one side and the letters "A. B." on the other. They will cost $4.50 and $5.00.

KERSHNER BELIEVES T.C.U. HAS FUTURE OF GREAT PROMISE

That no other institution among the Disciples of Christ has as great a future before it as has T. C. U. is the belief of Dr. Frederick D. Kershner. He declares his unbounded faith in the great future before T. C. U. and expresses the firm belief that it will some day take the lead of all institutions of learning supported by the brotherhood. He also commends the board of trustees for their unselfish devotion to the University and its interests.

His views are given in a letter to Rev. A. E. Ewell, editor of the Christian Courier, which was published in last week's issue of the Courier.

Excerpt from Letter.

Excerpts from the letter as printed in the Courier follow:

"It has never been my privilege to work with a body of men so thoroughly unselfish and so consistently loyal to the great work entrusted to them as is true of the board of trustees of that institution. Giving unstintingly of their time and means; never refusing to devote their utmost energies to the task facing without shrinking problems which might well dismay less heroic souls, they constitute a band of workers with whom it is an honor for any man to be associated. My own personal relations with them have been so uniformly and consistently harmonious that it has been the hardest task of my life to consent to leave them. Only the appeal of a worst which, in the unanimous judgment of my friends outside the state, widens imperative that nothing should be allowed to stand in the way of its taking it succeeded in gaining reluctant consent to relinquish a field of labor in Texas. HISTORY RECORDS DEFEAT OF MEDIC AT HANDS OF

That the Laws beat the corn 18 to 2, on the T. C. U. field, Saturday, in the first football game ever played between these departments of the University is fact already recorded in school history.

The Law Department was named in that it could claim a first-team man: Ralph Vaughn, and Jesse Martin. The Martins played a nice game for great lawyers; Vaughn was forced to vantage in the second quarter on account of a bad knee. The doctors had one first-team man in their line: Greines; he played well during the four quarters.

The individual star of the whole performance was Sanders, of the Law team. He made all three touchdowns, two coming as the result of forward passes from J. Martin, and the third one as the result of consistent gains through the Medi-

TWO SHIRLEYS TIE FOR FIRST PLACE IN OLD MEN'S CONTEST

BY ROY FEEMSTER.

The Old Men's Declamatory Contest, the first of the series of intersociety contests of the year, held Friday evening, December 3, resulted in a close victory for the Shirleys, the team grades being 264 to 261.

The first speaker of the evening was Willis McGregor, a Shirley, who tied with Tomlinson for first place by his power in presenting "The Prosecution in the Haywood Trial." McGregor has a stage presence and volume of voice which makes him effective as a speaker. He was one of the team which won the New Men's Contest for the Shirleys last year.

The rendering of the second speech, "Impeachment of Warren Hastings," by W. B. Higgins, an Add-Ran, showed the result of work and study on his part for he rose from a lower position in last year's New Men's Contest to second place in the Old Men's Contest this year.

The third speaker, B. S. Smiser, Shirley, delivered the difficult speech, "A Perfect Tribute," a tribute to Lincoln, with an art that showed that interest in oratory in T. C. U. is not decreasing.

"Texas Undivided and Indivisible" by Joseph W. Bailey, was spoken by James McBride in his usual effective manner. He has won places in T. C. U. oratorical events several times, having been on the team which won the intersociety debate for the Add-Rans last year.

The last Shirley speaker, Homer Tomlinson, upheld his reputation as a winner in declamation contests by the art and ease with which he rendered "The Unknown Speaker," dividing honors with McGregor for first place.

The last speaker, Joe McNamara, an Add-Ran, in spite of the fact that his voice was in bad condition, did himself honor in delivering Patrick Henry's "Speech Before the Convention of Delegates." His grades were so near those of Higgins that it was first reported that he had won second place, which he lost only by a point or two.

The contest was judged by three young Fort Worth lawyers, Messrs. Smith, Potter and Millican.

The winners of first and second places are to be awarded cash prizes by the Oratorical Association.

Rev. C. S. Weaver, endowment secretary, preached at the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church Sunday morning. Sunday night he went to Weatherford.

THREE TEAMS NOW IN RUNNING FOR FISHBURN TROPHY

Following the reorganization of the teams contesting for the Fishburn basketball trophy, renewed interest is being shown by the girls. Each game which separates them from the loving cup is played with more zest and effort than the one preceding.

The injury incurred by Miss Lela Bates, member of the Jarvis team, when she broke her arm during practice last week, resulted in the disbanding of that team and the reorganization of the others. Miss Bates' arm is improving rapidly.

The sextette which will represent T. C. U. in the intercollegiate games during the regular season will be chosen by Coach Cahoon from the coeds who are playing in the present series.

The results of last week's games are as follows: Tuesday the Jarvisites beat the Harrison, 4 to 2; the Cassels defeated the Mars by a score of 24 to 17. Thursday afternoon the Harrison won over the Mars by a 5 to 2 score and the Mars downed the Jarvisites, 31 to 9. Friday the Harrison defeated the Mars 9 to 4 and the Mars defeated the Cassels 27 to 3.

The three teams which are now in the contest lineup thus:

Mars: Proctor (captain) and Tompkins, forwards; Gilbert and Byrne, centers; McLendon and Keith, guards; Jones and Dreeben, substitutes.

Harrison: Clements and Wells, forwards; Baxter and Leveridge, centers; Luse (captain) and Neeley, guards; Craiger and Riley, substitutes.

Cassels: King and Carson (captain), forwards; Bridgeman and Alexander, centers; Darter and Wingo, guards; Nelson, substitute.

No. of Grades 1254.

Girls out of dormitory: A's 40.3 per cent, B's 35.0 per cent, C's 15.9 per cent, D's 5.6 per cent, E's 3.2 per cent, D's plus E's 8.8 per cent; No. of Grades 838.

Dormitory Students Slack.

These figures show that the boys out of the dormitories did better than the boys in the dormitories both in respect to the higher grades and the unsatisfactory grades. They have 3.5 per cent more A's and 2.5 per cent less D's and E's. The girls out of the dormitories made a higher per cent of A's than did the girls in the dormitories but they also made a larger per cent of D's and E's, that is 8.8 per cent as against 5.5 per cent. However it is well to note here that 5.3 per cent of the 8.8 marked unsatisfactory against the girls outside was made by the irregular girls, while only 3.5 per cent of unsatisfactory grades were made by the four regular classes of the outside college girls. If this explanation is allowed proper weight, it appears that both the boys and the girls outside of the dormi-

DEBATING CLASS STARTED FOR TRIANGULAR ENTRIES

Besides receiving substantial cash prizes the men who win places on the triangular debating teams henceforth will be given credit by the faculty for their work.

A debating class consisting of those who intend to enter the debate preliminaries has been organized with Prof. E. R. Cockrell as director. The class now has twelve members. Following the preliminary contest next Friday night, it will be cut down to the six men who make places on two teams that will represent T. C. U. against Trinity and Southern. These six men will receive one credit each for their participation in the class.

The following men have signified their intention of trying out in the next Friday night in the tournament: Willis M. McGregor, W. Sweet, Carroll McConnell, Denmark, John Keith, Jesse W. L. Thornton, Roy Feemster, James McBride, W. B. Higgins, Homer Tomlinson.

The class will meet again Tuesday night at 7:30.

THE STUDY CLUB WILL HAVE ONE MORE MEETING BEFORE XMAS

Due to the illness of the president, Miss Vestal Tompkins, vice-president, presided at the regular meeting of the Music Study Club Tuesday afternoon.

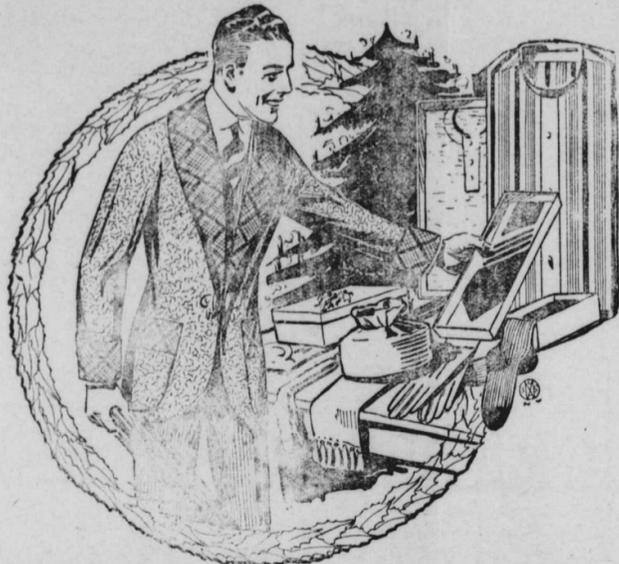

The meeting was answered by a curatorial event, after which a parade on Gluck, Weber, and the beginnings of oratorio opera. Mr. Hamilton gave a selection from the opera, "The Barber of Seville."

Miss Y. Freeland and Miss Ruby were admitted to membership. The next and the last meeting before the holidays will be held on December 15. All members are urged to be present.

THE LAW DEPARTMENT AFTER MONEY TO BUY LIBRARY

Plans are being worked out by members of the Law Department to raise money for the purpose of purchasing the law library of Judge McKinsey of Weatherford. He has offered his entire law library, which is very complete, to T. C. U. Law School for $400. Judge McKinsey is a special lecturer in the Law Department.

A committee consisting of Charles Christenberry, Jesse Martin and W. B. Baldwin has been appointed to raise the money. Students, members of the University and attorneys of the city will be asked to subscribe to a fund toward realizing the object.

DR. BATSON COMPARES GRADES OF STUDENTS

Classes Compared.
A comparison of the grades of the different classes shows the following results:

Seniors: A's 40.1 per cent, B's 39.7 per cent, C's 14.6 per cent, D's 3.4 per cent, E's .2 per cent, D's plus E's 3.6 per cent; No. of Grades 589.

Juniors: A's 34.9 per cent, B's 40.3 per cent, C's 14.4 per cent, D's 4.1 per cent, E's 6.2 per cent, D's plus E's 10.3 per cent; No. of Grades 774.

Sophomores: A's 25.3 per cent, B's 41.0 per cent, C's 21.0 per cent, D's 8.4 per cent, E's 4.3 per cent, D's plus E's 12.6 per cent; No. of Grades 572.

Freshmen: A's 29.1 per cent, B's 40.8 per cent, C's 21.3 per cent, D's 6.3 per cent, E's 2.5 per cent, D's plus E's 8.8 per cent; No. of Grades 1948.

Irregulars: A's 24.4 per cent, B's 32.2 per cent, C's 24.4 per cent, D's 12.1 per cent, E's 6.9 per cent, D's plus E's 19.0 per cent; No. of Grades 1292.

There are several points to note in connection with these figures. The three upper classes show a marked improvement both in respect to the highest grade and in respect to the unsatisfactory grades from the lower to the higher classes.

It will be noted that relatively few of the seniors fail. This may mean one of two things, either by the time they reach the last year they are more impressed with the importance of passing and consequently do a better grade of work or it may mean that the members of the faculty hesitate to condition or fail a senior.

Freshmen Exception.

The grades of the freshmen seem to be an exception. They succeeded in making a better showing than the sophomores and so far as the unsatisfactory grades are concerned than did the juniors. One possible explanation for this is that the larger part of the regular freshmen come from good high schools and that the scholastic requirements there are relatively higher than what is demanded in college. Another is that the instructors are relatively lenient with the first year students. Whatever may be the explanation the figures seem to be contrary to the general opinion that relatively a large proportion of the freshman class will fail to do satisfactory work.

The group marked irregulars includes the unclassified students, and the students in the college of business and in the fine arts department in so far as they do work in the college of arts and sciences. This group has much the lowest record and taken as a whole it does not appear that the irregular students are much inclined to seek scholastic honors.

Societies Compared.

A comparison of the different literary societies and also those outside of the literary societies shows the following results:

Add-Ran (Boys): A's 20.8 per cent, B's 45.9 per cent, C's 24.5 per cent, D's 5.0 per cent, E's 3.8 per cent, D's plus E's 8.8 per cent; No. of Grades 420.

Shirley (Boys): A's 34.2 per cent, B's 35.9 per cent, C's 19.0 per cent, D's 5.5 per cent, E's 5.4 per cent, D's plus E's 10.9 per cent; No. of Grades 1056.

Clark (Girls): A's 35.5 per cent, B's 43.1 per cent, C's 14.7 per cent, D's 4.4 per cent, E's 2.3 per cent, D's plus E's 6.7 per cent; No. of Grades 564.

Waltons (Girls): A's 37.2 per cent, B's 43.9 per cent, C's 14.2 per cent, D's 2.8 per cent, E's 1.9 per cent, D's plus E's 4.7 per cent; No. of Grades 789.

Non-Society (Boys): A's 18.6 per cent, B's 37.0 per cent, C's 26.1 per cent, D's 12.4 per cent, E's 5.9 per cent, D's plus E's 18.3 per cent; No. of Grades 1607.

Non-Society (Girls): A's 39.9 per cent, B's 33.7 per cent, C's 17.3 per

ALUMNI AND EX-STUDENTS BANQUET AT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.

In response to a request from The Skiff, E. R. Bentley, former editor, now superintendent of public schools at Alpine, has reported the names of the following alumni and ex-students of T. C. U. who attended a banquet, at which he presided Thanksgiving night, held during the meeting of the State Teachers' Association at Corpus Christi:

Randolph Clark, joint founder of the University; Lee Clark, son of Randolph Clark and superintendent of public schools at Wichita Falls; J. E. Proctor, principal Temple High School; O. A. Smith, pastor of the Christian Church at Portland; Miss Winifred Vickery, instructor in English in the Sinton Public Schools; Fred Horn, instructor in Latin in the Navasota High School; and Mr. Sturgeon, instructor in Science at the Waco High School.

Mr. Tom Clark, brother of Randolph Clark, and Mrs. Rogers, his sister, were across the bay at Portland and intended to be present but were prevented by an unexpected call for Mr. Rogers, who is in the government service, to go to the Mexican border.

The meeting was profitable and pleasant. Those who attended are determined that a movement shall be put on foot early enough next year to have a much larger attendance. They now expect the association to meet in Fort Worth.

OWL SEEKS ENTRANCE TO ARCHIVES OF KNOWLEDGE

Seemingly with the hope and intention of absorbing enough wisdom to become a "wise old owl," a young screech owl found its way into the halls of the main building Monday. It was discovered on the transom of the library door apparently awaiting admittance to the archives of knowledge when Miss Nell Andrew opened the door early Monday morning.

The young owl is now pursuing a special course in the biology department. It was caught by Denton Limbaugh and turned over to Professor Winton of the biology department.

These figures show that the society boys have a marked advantage over the non-society boys in respect to the grades obtained. The non-society girls obtained a slightly higher per cent of A's than did either of the girls' societies but they also had a larger per cent of unsatisfactory grades. It may also be noted that the two girls' societies both obtained a higher per cent of the A's and B's as a group than did the non-society girls.

STUDENTS INVITED TO INSPECT KING'S PLANT.

Next Tuesday afternoon a great many students will accept the invitation of the King Candy Company to visit and inspect their factory.

The King plant is the largest candy factory in the South and employs upwards of 300 people. There the students will see how the striped sticks they use to crave are made; they can see the process of making the chocolates which bear King's name.

The trip through the factory is very instructive from a point of business organization and efficiency, and modern factory equipment.

FREE-FOR-ALL LAUGH AT RECENT INITIATION OF NEW SOCIETY MEMBERS

The Clarks met in a regular "free-for-all laugh" session last Saturday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Alexander. About twenty-five new members, although much beneath their dignity and much to their own disapproval, furnished exceeding fun and merriment for the "old heads."

The initiation ceremony was composed of numerous pranks, the character of which must not be revealed, but each of which was a fitting as well as a trying test of the faith and endurance of the new Clarks.

Lena Alexander spent several days the first of the week at her home in Garland.

John P. Cox, the "grand old man" of the student body, who is known to have put every ounce of energy he possessed into every game he has ever played for T. C. U., arose to make what was probably the last talk he will ever make to a Varsity football squad. Realization that they had answered the last signal to circle ends or buck the line for T. C. U. and that they would never again be able to appear on the gridiron to fight for the purple and white, was enough to bring tears to the eye of any of the sturdy football heroes who are not to return next year.

Martin, All-Round Man.

"Gish" Martin, who was the unanimous choice of the letter men for the captain's berth, is one of the best all-round football players T. C. U. has ever had. He has just finished his second year on the Varsity team and has been mentioned favorably as all-state material. Martin was a member of the championship teams put out by Central High School in 1912 and 1913 and was elected captain of the 1914 High team, but turned down the place to enter T. C. U. He is now a student in the Law Department.

Letters have not yet been presented to the first string men. This action has been postponed until the gold footballs which are to be given the men as watch fobs have arrived. They are expected to come next week and will be presented to the men in chapel. The gold footballs will have the initials of the player on one side and "T. C. U., 1915" on the other side.

Those who attended the banquet Tuesday night were:

Misses May Lee Moore, Cleo Self, Vestal Tompkins, Anna McLendon, George Hirt, Marion Baugh, Margaret Kennedy, Florence Young, Bennie Ruth Clements, Lola McFarland, Gladys Richards and Viola Coldwell. Messrs. M. E. Daniel, John Nelson, Edgar Stangl, Ralph Martin, Jesse Martin, David Tudor, Joe McNamara, Jo Edens, Otis Ramsey, Ox Kornegay, George Herd, John P. Cox, Aubrey Cooper and Tom Paul Frizzell; Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cahoon.

Miss Mary Wilmarth of Dallas spent the week-end with Miss Mary Hefner.

Anna McLendon spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Dallas.

DR. KERSHNER BELIEVES T. C. U. HAS BIG FUTURE

tution will eventually become the largest and most flourishing school among the Disciples of Christ. Much, however, will necessarily depend upon the manner in which our Texas brotherhood handles the situation during the next four or five years. The board of trustees alone cannot do it; the president and faculty cannot do it; our ministry in the state cannot do it. It will require the sacrificial interest of every Disciple in Texas in order to fully reach the goal; but the prize is worth it a thousandfold. No other institution among the Disciples has such an opportunity as has T. C. U. today. Texas cannot afford to throw away this opportunity."

Mrs. D. McCarroll is back on the hill.
