FRIZZELL GETS RICE FELLOWSHIP; T.C.U.'S WORK RECOGNIZED

What is considered as an unmistakable stamp of approval on the bachelor's degree given by T. C. U. and a direct recognition of the high grade of work done in T. C. U. was the appointment this week of Tom Paul Frizzell, a member of the senior class, to a research fellowship in biology in Rice Institute at Houston.

Frizzell, who has been a major student under Prof. W. M. Winton, head of the biology department, will continue his investigations mainly along the lines he has pursued here, especially the nervous systems of animals. He will also do some tutoring and will assist in laboratory work.

This fellowship is one of the most sought after in the country; a number of candidates from all parts of the country competed for it. It carries with it a salary of $500, a generous allowance for books and instruments and a remittance of all fees. Frizzell declined an excellent position in one of the Oklahoma normals to accept it.

Prof. Huxley, head of the biology department at Rice, met Frizzell last summer and talked over the work that he desired to do.

VARSIITY TAKES TWO FROM SW. U.; VAUGHN IS ELECTED

BY FAN DARTER

The Christians marked the close of their 1916 baseball season with two triumphs over Southwestern University of Georgetown on the local diamond Friday and Saturday. The two battles were the prettiest fought here this season and Varsity deserves credit for taking the long end in each game.

Both teams played with their characteristic fire and energy, and the much longed-for pep and ginger from the grandstand was greatly in evidence. The score: first game, 5-4; second game, 1-0.

First Game.

Shorty Vaughn Will Captain 1917 Varsity Nine; Popular Athlete

Totals.....262 56 .221
Howard "Shorty" Vaughn was the choice of his teammates for 1917 baseball captain at a meeting of this year's 'varsity Monday evening.

Vaughn begins his third year in T. C. U. next September, having left Central High to enter T. C. U. in 1914. He was a star in both football and baseball for the High School for several years, and has continued his excellent athletic work during his college years. Vaughn was also center and captain of the basket-ball squad this season. "Shorty" covered first base in big-league style this year, and will either pitch or play first next season.

As soon as a manager is elected for next year the new captain will work with him in securing some new baseball stars for 1917. The team made a good record this year, not losing a single game on the home diamond. Practically every letter man will be back, and with one or two more good men, next spring will find a ball team that will be satisfied with nothing less than the State championship.

SHIRLEYS ELECT; SMISER GETS MEDAL FOR WORK

What was generally accorded to have been the best faculty take-off ever held by T. C. U. students was staged Tuesday night under the auspices of the Horned Frog. About forty of the professors and officials of the University were represented by various students, who imitated their mannerisms and eccentricities.

The audience was kept in continuous laughter by the acts and speeches depicting the peculiarities of their instructors. A number of the faculty members present also enjoyed the performance. Joe McNamara directed the burlesque.

Milton E. Daniel has been placed in charge of the game of baseball which is to be played between the city hall and the court house groups for the benefit of the Star-Telegram free milk and ice fund.

W. L. Thornton was elected senior class orator this week. He will make the speech presenting the senior gift to the University on class day.

of the school of oratory, will present Miss Mary Maude Keith in graduate recital Tuesday evening, May 30. This will be the last oratory recital of the season.

Miss Keith will read Booth Tarkington's "Monsieur Beaucaire."

Following is the program:

SCENE I.—Monsieur le Duc de Chateaurien.

SCENE II.—"Only—Roses."

SCENE III.—"A Sweet French Song of the Voyageur."

First Inning.—Matlock singled through second, was advanced a peg on Buford's sacrifice, but died there when McDaniel popped to Vaughn and Laws struck out.

McKee and Gunter flew out to right and second base, respectively. Nelson lived on McLarty's error, moved up on a passed ball and scored when Matlock fumbled Stangl's hot grounder. Baker walked, but Raley grounded out, McLarty to McDaniel.

Second Inning.—Brewer singled, was forced out at second by Walker. Smith was out, Raley to Vaughn, and Baker struck out.

Criss singled; Vaughn flew out to Walker; Lee was out, short to first, and Criss scored on McKee's drive to left. Gunter skied out to Smith.

Third Inning.—McLarty walked, Matlock scored him with a two-base wallop and was in turn scored by Buford's one-base knock. McDaniel singled and stole second. Buford was caught off third base in a chase, McDaniel advancing to third, and was scored by Walker's two-bagger. Smith flew out to Criss. This ended the Methodists' scoring.

Nelson flew out to Buford. Stangl was out, short to first, and Baker made Smith extend himself to grab his fly to right.

Fourth Inning.—Baker fouled out to Vaughn. McLarty grounded out to Vaughn. Matlock flew out to Criss.

Raley flew out to Walker; Criss crashed a single to left, but Vaughn flew out to Buford, and Lee died, Brewer to McDaniel.

Fifth Inning.—Buford singled to center. McDaniel advanced him a base on a neat sacrifice, but Laws and Brewer both flew out to Criss in center.

McKee singled through short, but Gunter hit into a double play neatly executed, McLarty to Baker to McDaniel. Nelson struck out.

Sixth Inning.—Walker drove out a long double; Raley lived on Baker's error; Criss got his hit, scoring Baker and advancing Raley to third. Vaughn struck out while Criss was stealing second. Lee came through with the pinch swat, scoring both runners and putting the game on ice. McKee grounded out to McDaniel.

Seventh Inning.—Matlock flew out to Stangl; Buford safe on Vaughn's error, but Lee was forced out at second by McDaniel. Laws grounded out, Gunter to Vaughn.

Gunter fouled out to Laws. Nelson struck out again and Stangl flew out to Matlock.

Eighth Inning.—Brewer flew out to Criss; Walker out, Lee to Vaughn, and Smith out, Gunter to Vaughn.

Baker flew out to Smith, Raley popped out to short, and Criss struck out.

Ninth Inning.—Smith struck out; Foster, batting for Baker, struck out; McKinzie, batting for Watson, struck out.

Lee pitched his same good game, giving only one man his base on balls. He had his opponent (McLarty) beat in pitching and easily took the game from him. In the last inning he struck out two of their best pinch hitters. In the seventh inning Watson took McLarty's place and pitched well, not giving up a single hit. Lee's hit in the sixth

McKee and Baker Lead in Batting in Games Played Here

The following individual and team averages for all the home games, every one of which has been a victory for the Varsity nine, were compiled by Miss Fan Darter.

The three victories of last week gave T. C. U. the North Texas championship and boosted us to fourth place in the T. I. A. A. standing.

A campaign is on the secure gold baseballs for members of the team, Ted Robinson of Washer Bros. making the first subscription.

TAKE-OFF TAKES WITH STUDENTS AND FACULTY

New officers for the fall term of 1916 were chosen by the Shirley Literary Society at the Monday night meeting, the following being elected: B. S. Smiser, president; Charles Christenberry, vice president; M. L. Munday, secretary; Charles Butts, treasurer; J. H. Monk, chaplain; Paul Pirkle, sergeant, and William Jones, critic.

B. S. Smiser was awarded the T. E. Shirley medal given each year by Mr. T. E. Shirley of Hereford to the member adjudged to have made the best record for society work and class work during the session.

HORNED FROG OUT

Business Manager Joe McNamara has announced that the Horned Frog is off the press and ready for delivery. The book will not be released, however, until all subscribers have paid their assessment.

Committees have been appointed to collect the money due for the annuals, as follows: For the girls, Pansy Bozeman, Lola McFarland and Viola Coldwell; for the boys, Tom Paul Frizzell, Aubrey Cooper and Albert Martin.

Formal dedicatory exercises will be held in chapel next week, when it will be announced to whom the Frog is dedicated.

A large number of students attended the play, "Fair Betty," staged by the Rotary Club of Fort Worth this week. The plot was worked out as a love affair between a T. W. C. girl and a T. C. U. boy. The T. C. U. quartette sang during the Wednesday night performance.

The return tennis match scheduled with Denton Normal last week was put off on account of wet grounds.

CHRISTENBERRY AND TOMLINSON TO HAVE SKIFF COMING YEAR

Charles Christenberry, student in the law department, was elected editor-in-chief of the Skiff for the next session, at the faculty meeting Thursday. Homer Tomlinson was re-elected business manager.

These men were recommended to pilot the paper through next year by the faculty committee on publications, consisting of Prof. W. M. Winton, chairman; Prof. M. M. Knight and Mrs. M. L. Sargent.

Christenberry has been an active member of the Skiff staff for the past two years, and has taken a zealous interest in all phases of the work. Tomlinson has carried the paper through the most successful year it has ever experienced.

As a result of the keen interest manifested in The Skiff by the student body and the alumni and the hearty support given it by the business men of the city, Tomlinson will work out plans during the summer toward publishing either an eight-page weekly or a semi-weekly paper for T. C. U. next year.

Tomlinson will be connected with the Dallas Church World, of which his brother is publisher, during the summer.

GRADUATE RECITALS PAST WEEK MARKED BY BRILLIANT WORK

The graduating recitals which were given during the past week continued to draw large audiences. The interest and enthusiasm displayed in the excellent musical programs seems to be increasing with each additional recital.

Miss Vestal Tompkins, graduate of the voice department, gave her program last Friday evening. She sang a varied, well arranged program, consisting of songs in English, French, German and Italian, with beauty of tone, clearness of diction and the poise of a true artist. She was ably supported by Mr. Lewis Casperson as accompanist.

Miss Tompkins' friends predict a brilliant future for her.

MISS MORRIS IN RECITAL.

Miss Gertrude Morris, graduate pupil of Mr. Pitner, appeared in her recital Saturday evening, upholding the standard of work which has been presented by the Fine Arts pupils and showing that she is an accomplished pianist.

Miss McLendon in Piano Recital

Miss Anna McLendon, post-graduate in piano under Mr. Casperson, gave a brilliant and well-received program Monday night. Her clearness and beauty of tone were prominent features of every number, and her composure was that of an experienced performer.

Miss McLendon's numbers were difficult, but well rendered. The group by Brahms and the Paradies "Toccatto" were perhaps the most difficult. The Chopin etudes were played with much quality of tone.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the recital were Dr. and Mrs. McLendon, Mr. and Mrs. George L. McLendon of Dallas, Mrs. Robert Massie of Handley and Mrs. Mary Clifford Garrett of Dallas.

Miss Whaley in Piano Recital.

Miss Monette Whaley appeared in her graduate recital in piano Wednesday

Second Game.

First Inning.—Matlock singled, Buford sacrificed him to second, but McDaniel struck out and Laws popped to McKee.

McKee went out, third to first; Gunter out, Watson to McDaniel, and Nelson out to McDaniel, unassisted.

Second Inning.—Brewer struck out, Walker drew a pass and Smith singled, but Baker hit a liner at McKee, who made a beautiful stop and touched second, completing a double play, unassisted.

Criss out, Baker to McDaniel. Baker out, short to first. Stangl flew out to Walker.

Third Inning.—Watson out, Willis to Vaughn. Matlock out to Vaughn. Buford walked and stole second. McDaniel struck out. Raley out, second to first. Vaughn sent a two-bagger to left. Willis struck out and McKee went out to McDaniel.

Fourth Inning.—Laws flew out to Baker and Brewer and Walker grounded out, Willis to Vaughn.

Gunter struck out. Nelson flew out to Brewer and Criss skied out to Walker.

Fifth Inning.—Smith singled and stole second, while Baker fanned. Watson was morgued, McKee to Vaughn, and Matlock was thrown out at first by Willis.

Baker sent a long two-bagger to right, Stangl advanced him a base on his out and Raley scored Baker on a perfect squeeze, Raley being thrown out, Watson to McDaniel. Vaughn died, catcher to first.

Sixth Inning.—Buford fanned; McDaniel fouled out to Nelson; Laws singled but Brewer lined out to McKee.

Willis and McKee both fanned and Gunter was out, third to first.

Seventh Inning.—Walker popped to Nelson; Smith out, Willis to Vaughn; Baker out in same way.

Nelson and Criss were morgued, Baker to McDaniel. Baker struck out.

Eighth Inning.—Watson fanned; Matlock walked and stole second. Buford lived on Stangl's error and Matlock moved to third, Buford stealing second, but both died on base when McDaniel popped to Nelson and Baker made a pretty catch of Laws' liner.

Stangl out, second to first; Raley singled; Vaughn out on Brewer's error and Willis took first on Watson's error, but hopes for a more decisive victory were shattered when McKee flew out to Buford and Gunter rolled to Watson.

Ninth Inning.—Brewer walked and stole second. Walker sent him to third on an out, third to first. The squeeze was attempted, but Smith popped to Willis, who easily doubled Brewer off third, ending the game.

This was the prettiest game played on the Christian diamond in a long time. The game was a pitchers' battle between Willis and Watson and was hard fought all the way through. Watson had a shade on Willis, but his error of omission in the fourth cost him the game. Willis pitched consistent ball, however, and deserved to win. Baker was the star with his two-bagger that ended in the run of the game and his two brilliant catches in right field. It is a source of gratification that he has three more seasons with T. C. U. McDaniel played a good game for the losers.

Bowman umpired the game and gave general satisfaction.

TOMLINSON HOLDS CUP

Clyde Tomlinson, winner of the Anderson tennis trophy for the past two years, vindicated his right to retain the cup for good Thursday afternoon when he won the last game of a close fight he has had with Paul Pirkle in the finals. Tomlinson won two out of three Wednesday afternoon, and by winning another match Thursday afternoon settled the contest.

"Mr. Homer Tomlinson,
"Business Manager of the Skiff.
"Dear Sir:

"Please allow me to thank you in behalf of the library, and also of its readers for your courtesy in furnishing The Skiff on your exchange list, thus affording us in exchange three prominent religious weeklies of Texas in which many of our readers in the library will be interested, namely, "The Texas Christian Advocate," "The Firm Foundation," and the "Baptist Standard." This is an indication of the public spirit of The Skiff and will be appreciated by all.

"Yours sincerely,
"COLBY D. HALL,
"Chairman Library Cominttee."

These papers will be on file in the library along with a number of other religious weeklies, and magazines that are already coming to our tables.

Y. M. C. A. LEADS SERVICES

The Y. M. C. A. furnished the services at the Brite Bible College last Sunday night. The principal speakers of the evening were Edwin Elliott, a student of T. C. U., and an earnest worker in the city Y. M. C. A., and Prof. M. M. Knight, of the history department. Mr. Elliott made an interesting speech on "The Needs of a College Y. M. C. A." Prof. Knight made an able talk on "How to Reach the College Man." He gave much valuable advice as to how to make the Y. M. C. A. a live organization.

Next week a president will be elected for the coming year, and plans will be made for a strong association.

PERSONALS and LOCALS

The girls of the domestic science department had an enjoyable picnic at Forest Park Thursday afternoon.

George Hirt and Hattilu West spent the week-end at their homes in Cleburne. Mrs. West returned to T. C. U. with Hattilu.

Misses Mary Johnson and Elliott Britt, students of C. I. A., stopped with Mary and Ethel Biggerstaff Saturday on their way home.

W. E. Chalmers, superintendent of schools at Justin, will be in the summer school as a student of Latin under Prof. R. J. Cantrell.

Douglas Shirley, an alumni of T. C. U., and former assistant business manager, was a welcome visitor the first of the week.

Miss Graham, county field secretary of the Y. W. C. A., gave an address on May 14 to the girls on the subject of "The Eight Weeks' Club." Her talk was an inspiration to all present.

As next Sunday closes the Y. W. C. A. sessions for this year, every member is urged to attend, and visitors are cordially invited. The service will be conducted by the senior girls.

D. W. Freeland of Turnersville, father of Coach Ewing Freeland, and Dr. C. F. Freeland and Homer Freeland, brothers of the coach, have been visiting him this week.

The latest wrinkle in the commencement week plans is a proposed baseball game between the Add-Ran and Shirley Literary Societies at 4 p. m. Thursday, June 8.

Nominations have been received for the positions of student manager for the athletic teams for next year, and the Athletic Council will act on them and make known their choice by next week.

The Varsity band made another hit Saturday evening by giving a concert on the campus just after supper. The pieces played by the band, among which were several new ones, were highly enjoyed by everyone on the hill.

Milton E. Daniel, instructor in law, was chosen by the athletes of the Bryant Training School of the city to make a talk on the "Ethics of Athletics" at a banquet given to the seniors at the Metropolitan Thursday night. Several of the Bryant men will enter T. C. U. in the fall.

GRADUATE RECITALS PAST WEEK MARKED BY BRILLANT WORK

day evening. Her playing was full of tone-color and quality, and her composure surpassed by few. She had the real artist's touch.

Among the out-of-town people who attended her program were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Whaley of Dallas; Miss Ethel Roye of Arlington, Elizabeth Martin, Nell Whaley and Mrs. Claudia West, of Dallas.

All of the young ladies who gave recitals received numerous bouquets and baskets of flowers. The stage was made a veritable flower garden at each of the programs.

Grissom Reads From Play.

Clyde Grissom, graduate in oratory, read three scenes from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" Thursday night before a good audience. Grissom has made a reputation in oratorical circles during his stay in T. C. U., being president of the Oratorical Association this year and having been representative in the state prohibition contest. He did some of his best work in his last appearance on the platform this year.

T. C. U. MEN WIN FROM BAPTISTS

All but one set of the tennis tournament held with the Baptist Seminary this week were won by T. C. U. men. Following are the results of the tourney: Cahoon and Pettus won from Williams and Witherspoon, 6-1, 6-2; Pirkle and Tomlinson won from Knight and Bates, 6-3, 7-5; Kirk Parks won from Williams, 6-1, 6-3; Ben Parks beat Winston, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2; Witherspoon beat Pirkle 7-5, 6-4.
