INDICATIONS POINT TO VICTORY WEDNESDAY OVER S.M.U. AT DALLAS

Captain Martin Will Be Greatly Missed. Most of Those on the Injured List Have Recovered.

The loss of Captain "Gish" Martin is a serious setback to the football team. However, a number of other good men who were on the injured list have recovered, and Coach Daniel confidently expects to take the game with Southern Methodist University next Wednesday. Kornegay, Hawes, and Shorty Vaughn are almost completely recovered, and will be in the best of shape by next week. Nelson, who only played a few minutes of the Austin College game on account of a broken hand, will probably be able to take his place at half in the S. M. U. game. Nelson is one of the best back-field men in the State. Berry and Calvert are in excellent shape, and can be counted on to do their share in the back-field. Stangl, Ogilvie and Hale all three showed up well in last Saturday's game; and, with Vaughn back in the game, Coach Daniel has four good ends to pick from. In the other line positions, Dan has no cause to worry, as Wright, Ox Kornegay, Smalley, Chambers, Hawes and others are all going good.

RALPH D. MARTIN CAPTAIN OF FOOTBALL UNDERGOES OPERATION

Ralph D. Martin, law student and captain of the T. C. U. football team, was operated on for appendicitis last Monday night. This was a most unexpected blow to the students of the University. Saturday "Gish" played the whole game against Austin College, and up until late Sunday evening was in good health. The attack first struck him in the night last Sunday and he suffered intensely all Monday. Dr. E. P. Hall performed the operation between eight-thirty and nine Monday night. Gish's chances for the first thirty-six hours were doubtful, and though slight improvement was in evidence Wednesday, his condition at this time (Thursday morning) is still critical. The doctors now have strong hopes for his recovery, however, and are depending upon his excellent physique and football training to pull him thru. "Gish" possesses a strong personality and is well liked by every one who knows him. He is one of the best football tackles in the Southwest, and was picked by prominent sport writers in 1915 as an all-State tackle. He is worth two good men to T. C. U.

ALL STUDENTS ATTEND S. M. U. GAME AT DALLAS FAIR NEXT WEDNESDAY

WEDNESDAY DECLARED HOLIDAY BY FACULTY. SPECIAL CARS PROVIDED TO ACCOMMODATE ENTIRE STUDENT-BODY. T. C. U. SECTION RESERVED IN GRANDSTAND.

Next Wednesday, at noon, T. C. U. will be the duller place this side of Hollow Creek! And why? Because on that day the students will leave the University in a body, and catch special interurban cars for Dallas. Where will they be going, you say? Why, to the State Fair, of course; incidentally to see the best Fair in the Southwest, but mainly to watch our football squad clean up on Southern Methodist University.

The faculty has not only declared Wednesday a holiday but will themselves be among the Purple and White rooters who will drown out S. M. U.'s cheering with old "Rip Ram" and "Boomer Sooner."

The whole student-body will leave the University early Wednesday morning, the exact time to be announced in Chapel Saturday by the President of the Students Association.

tion, W. McGregor. The expense for the trip will be light. The round trip ticket will cost eighty cents, entrance into the Fair Grounds twenty-five cents, and admission to the game fifty cents. T. C. U. students will occupy a reserved section in the grandstand. Yell leader Martin expects every loyal T. C. U. student to know the yells and songs.

The University band will accompany the rooters, and aid them during the game. Every student and faculty member is expected to wear the colors, not only to the game, but all during the day at the Fair. If possible, every person connected with T. C. U. should take this trip.

All other particulars will be announced in Chapel. The time to begin making arrangements to go is NOW!

T. C. U. ART DEPARTMENT WILL HAVE EXHIBIT AT DALLAS STATE FAIR

Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, head of the School of Painting, left for Dallas Monday to take some work from her department to the Dallas State Fair to place on exhibition.

Pupils of Mrs. Cockrell turned out drawings and tapestries last year that took the majority of prizes in the big art exhibits in Beaumont, Waco and Dallas; and several prizes were taken in Oklahoma. The department this year is exceptionally strong, and excellent progress is noted in the work of the new art students.

POLL TAX ADOPTED BY STUDENT ORGANIZATION OTHER MATTERS SETTLED

Insignia for Future Senior Classes Adopted; Money Problems Considered.

Several important matters were attended to last Wednesday morning at the student-body meeting. Willis McGregor, president, first brought up the question of finances to be settled, stating that back debts must be paid immediately and that money was needed to carry on the present student activities. A motion carried which assessed each member of the Students' Association fifty cents and which allows only those who pay this assessment to vote at the student elections held during the year. President McGregor appointed two committees, six men and six women, to collect the assessments. Chairmen of these committees are Gayle Scott and Abigail Willingham.

It was also decided that the executive committee might use part of the money collected toward providing Gish Martin with flowers, fruit, or anything considered appropriate and necessary.

The motion made by Mr. Smiser to adopt a gold signet ring as the permanent insignia for future T. C. U. senior classes, was unanimously carried.

OPENING GAME OF SEASON EASY VICTORY FOR T. C. U.

FOUR TOUCH-DOWNS MADE AGAINST "CHOCK" KELLEY'S TEAM FROM AUSTIN COLLEGE. T. C. U. LINE SHOWS UP STRONG. EDENS MAKES NINETY YARD RUN FOR INITIAL TOUCH-DOWN. CALVERT STARS IN LINE-PLUNGING; BERRY AND MYERS UNCOVER GOOD SPEED.

With the bleachers full and the sidelines overcrowded with T. C. U. supporters, college spirit ran riot under the leadership of the yell masters, as the Kangaroos went down in defeat for the third consecutive time in as many years. With the exception of the favorable score, the one thing that gladdened the hearts of every T. C. U. supporter was the whole-souled manifestation of college pep throughout the game. Spirit ran higher and more real enthusiasm was displayed Saturday than has been seen in T. C. U. circles in several years. After the Kangaroos were held for downs under the shade of our own goal posts, and after quarterback Edens raced thru the entire opposing aggregation for the first touchdown, there was no restraint for the T. C. U. pep.

For the home eleven "Keggy" Calvert was easily the star. Time after time he was called on to make the necessary few yards and each time he made it with a few extra for "safety first." Berry, Myers and Ogilvie were also in the limelight with repeated gains and spectacular runs. Captain Martin and Ox Kornegay—both with injuries—were always "in there" with the old time stuff. Every man played a fighting game and deserved the loyal support given them.

CO-ED BASKETEERS REPORT FOR PRACTICE

The first call for candidates for the 1916-17 girls' basketball squad was made last Tuesday afternoon by Coach M. L. Munday. Twenty young ladies responded, among them several high-school stars.

Coach Munday announced that the rules of the game and the method of playing each position will be studied before any games will be matched. The girls who reported for practice are enthusiastic over the prospects for a winning team, and all promised to be out regularly for practice. It is probable that several teams will be organized later on and home series played, the winners receiving a loving cup.

The regular T. C. U. schedule will not be arranged for some time. Most likely three of the teams played will be: Southwestern, Denton Normal, and Texas Woman's College.

The slogan adopted by the girls was: "Down With T. W. C." —On to Dallas—

As the whistle blew the first quarter started as Schow returned Stangl's kickoff one yard. Spencebaugh went thru the line for 4 yards. A fumble followed, A. C. recovering and McElroy made 4 yards thru the line and repeated with a 5 yard gain. G. Lowe made 5 around end. First down plunges by R. Lowe, H. McElroy, and Senebaugh gave them first down for the second time. The end runs and two plunges at the line failed and T. C. U. took the ball on the eight yard line. Calvert gained two thru the line and quarterback Edens with a ninety yard run crossed the goal line for the first touchdown. Stangl kicked goal; score 7 to 0.

Stangl kicked 50 yards to Senebaugh, who returns six yards. On the first down A. C. lost one yard on a fumble. G. Lowe made one yard and on the next down a punt was blocked and T. C. U. took the ball on A. C.'s 13 yard line. Calvert fumbled and lost three. Berry made 3. Calvert followed thru the line for seven and repeated for two, then plunged the line for the third time for the second touchdown. Stangl kicked goal, score 14 to 0.

Stangl kicked 55 yards to McElroy who returned 10. On first down McElroy lost one and was followed by

T. C. U. QUARTETT SINGS AT T. W. C. SOCIETY

The T. C. U. Quartette gave a complimentary program Thursday evening to the Korosophian Literary Society of Texas Women's College. After the program the four young men were informally entertained and were voted in as honorary members of the Society.

Our library has received several valuable donations and additions in the last few weeks.

Miss Lera Brown, '15, of Garland, sent three large boxes of magazines. These magazines were collected by Miss Brown with the aid of her Sunday School Class.

Miss Ruth McFadin donated a history of England, by Cross. This volume is especially valuable for reference work.

Other valuable additions are: two volumes of Robt. W. Service's poems and complete sets of Riley's and of Kipling's poems. Also $67 worth of new Latin and Greek books have arrived, including the L. C. Strange Memorial Fund.

FINE ARTS FACULTY GIVE VARIED PROGRAM BEFORE LARGE CROWD

The fine Arts faculty of T. C. U. gave a delightful program to a very large audience in the auditorium, Wednesday evening. Almost the entire student-body was present and a large number of people from the city.

The program consisted of single groups from each member of the faculty and was interesting and varied. New names on the faculty this year are Miss Anna McLendon and Mr. Carl Doering. Special interest was centered in the appearance of Mr. Doering in as much as he is new not only to the University but to the city, and comes to us after several years' residence in Leipzig. Mr. Doering played a Schumann Allegro, and in response to the insistent demand for an encore he rendered a composition from Karpor which was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Doering and his wife Antoinette von Eggers Doering, who supplied most artistic accompaniment to the violin and vocal numbers, bring to their work not only talent and adequate musicianship but most engaging personalities that make their presence among us most welcome.

Helen Fouts Cahoon, who has been coaching with Sidney Homer and studying with Walter Young in New York during the summer, sang a group by Mozart, Handel and Carey and demonstrated that the summer's work has enabled her to attain new heights of artistry.

Miss Powell's exquisite work in the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" was representative of her unusual ability as an interpreter of Shakespearean roles.

The other members of the faculty were up to their usual high standard and were without exception warmly received.

REPRESENTATIVES ELECTED TO HONOR COUNCIL COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

The representatives from the different classes to the Honor Council met Tuesday at one o'clock. The organization was completed, and the following officers were elected:

William Jones, president; Gayle Scott, vice-president; Charles Butts, sergeant-at-arms; Ora Leveridge, secretary.

A committee of three, J. H. Monk, Floyd Sweet and Miss Cleo Self were appointed to revise the constitution. These revisions will be submitted to the student body for consideration at the next student body meeting.

THE T. C. U. vs. AUSTIN COLLEGE GAME "FROM THE SIDE LINE"

By TED ROBINSON, Advertising Manager, WASHER BROTHERS

As I have stated before in these columns, the success of the University depended upon the kind of athletics that it has; this was clearly demonstrated last Saturday in the game between T. C. U. and Austin College. First, by the number of citizens of the city that turned out, and second by the comment of the different people down town in which they boosted T. C. U., talked about what a fine school she had and that she was coming back into her own in an athletic way. In fact, they talked about "dear old T. C. U." in a way that they have never done before.

I also wish to impress upon you the articles that I had in last week's issue, in which I commented upon Coach Cahoon and Daniel, and beg that you will remember what I said, as every statement made came to pass in the game that we just played. I told you of Coach Cahoon's untiring efforts in selecting the best men in the State to represent us and of the hard times we had in securing these men. They are the very ones that showed up to the best advantage.

Again, I say we owe "dear old Coach Cahoon" a debt that we can never repay. Also, told you that Coach Daniel's knowledge of the game, and ability to handle the players would place "Old T. C. U." back where she rightfully belongs, and if any one doubts these few lines, we will point with pride to the team that is now representing us and the score we piled up against Tricky Chock Kelly. Dan is a "wise old bird" and had some of the followers, especially down town, afraid that we would be beaten, as some of our best men were crippled.

However, after the first few minutes of playing in the first quarter, there was never a doubt in the spectators' minds as to the outcome of the game. This game, as well as several more that we will play between now and "Turkey Day" is only a preliminary or side show to the big event, and the faculty, student-body, coaches, team and good citizens of Fort Worth will turn out tenfold on Thanksgiving Day to see the "old Purple and White" put the steam roller to the Baylorites. If we improve in the future as we have in the past, there should not be a question in any one's mind as to the outcome of this game.

GAME IN DETAIL.

There were a few surprised people when Coach Daniel sent his team on the field, as he crossed the dope, and used some men that we did not look for. However, he showed his good judgment as he always has.

Stangl kicked off for T. C. U. and Austin College carried the ball on line plunges down to our 15-yard line, where we held for downs. After two line plunges by Barry and Calvert, our brainy quarter back pulled the unexpected and went around the left end through the broken field for a 90-yard run and touchdown. Stangl kicked goal. Joe deserves great credit for this play and good run, but the fact must not be overlooked that the "old T. C. U. line" held and that our men got "theirs" to give Joe this chance.

After several line plunges an end play and forward pass that Myers received, brought the ball to within a few yards of Austin's goal and Calvert made a second touchdown of the game. Stangl kicked goal again, making the score to the first quarter 14-0.

As they started second quarter, our gritty Center, Douglass, was knocked out, and Bradley replaced him, playing a good game. Immediately after that, following a misunderstanding, in which our quarter back forgot himself for a moment—and no one can blame him for that—he was taken from the game and Coach Daniel shifted Ogilvie to quarter, and Hale to Ogilvie's place at the end.

Immediately after that Myers received the second forward pass for 25-yard gain. We then lost the ball after this and Austin College made several attempts to gain through our line, but they were forced to kick. Myers received the ball under the goal, but in turning, fell, and the ball went over Austin College line and scored a safety against us. If it had not been for this misfortune, Austin College would have been shut out. However, Myers redeemed himself time and again by end runs and a good gain through the line.

Berry made a spectacular play when he picked the ball off the ground and made a run around left end for 40 yards for a touchdown, but Austin College claimed that they were not ready for the play and after some discussion, the play was called over.

A line plunge by Berry and three line plunges by Calvert, in which the "human corkscrew" worked his way through their line to within three yards of Austin College's goal, and the line plunge by Myers, we made the third touchdown, Stangl kicking goal.

In the last quarter, after several good plays were made, Calvert made some of the greatest plays through the line and carried the ball at will through Austin College line for the fourth touchdown. Stangl kicked goal and again Austin College said they were not ready and he had to kick over, which he did. Somebody should buy Stangl a pair of shoes, because the poor boy only kicked five goals out of four attempts.

The game clearly demonstrates that we have just as good men on the side line as were in the game, because time and again Coach Daniel shifted his men and there with the punch in a pinch.

"ON TO DALLAS."

Dean Parks announced the Dallas trip in Chapel this morning as if we were having a holiday Wednesday to go to a funeral. And he did perfectly right. We ARE going to a funeral, and it is to be that of Southern Methodist University! Dean also said: "I hope we will have a good representation in Dallas Wednesday." Of course we will have a good representation there. He should have said: "I hope a few of you will stay here to look after the University while we are gone."

And why are we going to Dallas? Because a good representation at the Fair means splendid advertising for T. C. U. Because the Dallas State Fair is one of the most elaborate and interesting exhibitions ever held in the Southwest. Because the day excursion on special T. C. U. cars means a jolly time for all of us. And lastly, and most important, because our football men clash with S. M. U. of the hated city of Dallas, and it is up to us to aid them in a big victory.

THE HORNEFROG.

Do we as a student-body want "The Horned Frog," our University Annual, to be one of the best in the State of Texas? If so, let us begin by standing behind the editor, Shirley Sweeney, and the business manager, Willis McGregor, and aid them in every way possible.

Each organization and individual should make it a point to pay the first installment as soon as called upon to do so, and also have their pictures made at the time set. The Horned Frog is a permanent monument to T. C. U. and her student-body. It contains the history and pictures of every organization, club, and society in the University. It is a mirror of college life, and in after years allows the graduate to again enjoy the traditions and associations of long-passed college days. The Annual is an elaborate and artistic "scrap-book" of college and university life, and the student rarely ever thinks of doing without it.

Putting out such a volume as this carries with it hard work and great responsibility. Juniors and Seniors, let us "set the pace" for the under classmen, and pay the first three dollars as soon as possible. McGregor and Sweeney cannot work without funds. They are not asking for fees or donations. They only want the classes and organizations to pay three dollars now, and the remaining two dollars next spring, when the books are completed. The Annual this year will cost to each student only five dollars.

These two men expect no compensation for their labor. They are doing the task for the Senior Class, for T. C. U., for the student-body. They do expect, however, co-operation from the students. Are they not fair?

WE WANT—

Every T. C. U. student to take advantage of the convenient location of our store, its gratitude, Courtesy and its continued attention to student's wants.

T. C. U. QUARTETT SINGS AT MAJESTIC

Clad in Football Togs, University Four Make Big Hit

The T. C. U. quartet, dressed in football suits, was one of the headliners at the Majestic Theater Friday night. This act, put on by home talent, proved an enjoyable surprise for Friday's theater goers, and many pronounced it on a par with the best in vaudeville. "At the Ball" and "Maybe" took especially well, and it was easy to see that a good crowd of T. C. U. rooters were in the audience.

This act was put on in order to advertise the opening of the 1916-17 football season of T. C. U.

These four young men, W. McGregor, J. Martin, T. P. Sweeney and S. Sweeney, make up a most excellent quartet, doubtless the best in the State.

and the loss of him as a player and captain will be keenly felt.

This was not the first attack Gish has had, but was by far the most serious. He was in no way injured in football.

His University friends are anxiously awaiting the time when they will be allowed to visit the hospital. At a meeting of the student-body a committee was appointed to provide Martin with anything he might want or need.

Bradley
KNIT WEAR
"Cum Laude" Sweaters

Funny how ubiquitous a sweater is. From matriculation to graduation its uses are multitudinous, its paths devious. And how nomadic, too. The athlete's luxurious shaker, proudly alphabetized, migrates from "stude" to co-ed, from frat house to girl's dorm. If it's a Bradley, it abides there. Ask for them at the best shops. Write for the Bradley Style Booklet.
