MAYOR W. D. DAVIS TO LEAD CAMPAIGN TEAM

At the luncheon Thursday Chairman W. A. Hanger introduced Mayor-elect W. D. Davis as team captain of the great fund-raising campaign. Thursday's luncheon was the first place Mr. Davis visited since his election. When he arose to speak he was greeted with a round of applause and responded enthusiastically.

"What strength I have left," said Mr. Davis, "belongs to Fort Worth and to such causes as are represented by the men at this table. Texas Christian University is one of the city's most valuable assets educationally, morally and commercially and the city owes much to Texas Christian

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS DECORATE BUS. HOUSES WITH PURPLE AND WHITE

The call of Willis McGregor, president of the Student-body, for volunteers to decorate the business houses of the city with T. C. U. colors was responded to by forty students. These students have been divided into eight teams, and during the afternoons of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will convert the business district into a "Purple and White Carnival."

The vivid decorations will remain in the business sections during the ten days of the $150,000 campaign.

Wear Purple and White During Campaign!!

Campaign Opens In Earnest Monday

It is of interest to note the hearty enthusiasm the men and women of Fort Worth have in entering the big campaign for $150,000 for T. C. U. A glance over the list of workers to take part in the work shows the names of the most influential men in the city. The men are showing the pep, and already several challenges have been exchanged between the different teams. The women are not to be outdone by the men, however; and Mrs. Ida Jarvis, field marshal of the women's division even reported that she could hardly crowd the women eager to work into her five teams.

Robert W. Harrison and W. D. Davis, central figures in the recent political campaign, were guests of honor at the executive committee luncheon on Thursday. These two prominent figures have agreed to drop politics and to enter the campaign with their whole souls.

The Record notes that no civic

Wear Your Colors All Next Week

Everyone who owns or controls or who has a friend who owns or controls, a car, an automobile or a Ford, is expected to see to it, that the vehicle is decorated with T. C. U. colors and penants during the $150,000 fund campaign for the university. Fort Worth will be lined with purple and white colors and the hundreds of automobiles owned by friends of the university will add greatly to the display. The campaign will last ten days during this time in the city of Fort Worth, two colors only—purple and white—can be seen.

Every student is expected to wear an arm band or a pennant each time he goes to the city. Students who haven't arm bands or small penants to wear, will be furnished with them free at the office.

Every live business organization is rallying to the support of the university. Big business men, professional men, lawyers, doctors and merchants

The Inauguration program of Dr. E. M. Waits as president of Texas Christian University, will begin at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning in the University auditorium.

"Better Athletics" Is Motto—Five Hundred Expected to Attend Meeting Sunday—Ted Robinson Heads Club.

At the Metropolitan Hotel last Sunday morning, a crowd of the progressive business men of the city met and organized a "Boosters' Club." This club has as its purpose the promoting of better athletics in Fort Worth, and of especially backing and boosting Coach Daniel and his wonderful team in their present scrap for the State championship.

The business men are beginning to realize that such big teams as the Haskell Indians, Notre Dame, Texas University, and Missouri State might just as well be brought to the Panther City as to Houston, Austin, Dallas, and Waco. As Ted Robinson, president-elect of the "Boosters' Club," said: "When T. C. U. gets her $25,000 stadium and grandstand, and when our foremost citizens are thoroughly organized and get behind the movement, there is no reason on earth why Fort Worth cannot rank first in athletics."

The membership is not limited to any one class of people. On the contrary, all who are interested in the promotion of a higher class of sports in Fort Worth are cordially invited to be present at the Metropolitan next Sunday. There are no fees or dues of any kind. The only qualification attached is, that every member must be imbued with the "boosting spirit."

The officers elected last Sunday were as follows: Ted Robinson, president; A. C. Williams, vice president; Hub Diggs, treasurer; A. Reichstein, secretary. Ted Robinson, advertising manager of Washer Bros., is a staunch friend of T. C. U. A. C. Williams, secretary of the Cattle Raisers' Association, is an alumnus

Southwestern Upsets Dope Wins Over Horned Frogs

Southwestern played like a new team Friday afternoon, and won over T. C. U. by a 41 to 13 score. This is T. C. U.'s first defeat. The report from Georgetown attributed the defeat to overconfidence on the Christian's part in the first quarter, and the excellent work of Knickerbocker, who seemed able to gain thru the Purple and White line at will. Forward passing also figured in the scoring. Fumbles were also costly at critical places.

For T. C. U., Captain John Nelson was in the lime-light with his sensational brokenfield running and his gains off-tackle.

The T. C. U. student body is not discouraged, and still have as their motto, "Beat Baylor." Jo Edens, all-

State quarter, and "Ox" Kornegay, T. C. U.'s big tackle, were out of the game with injuries.

Southwestern: Lindsey, R. E.; Scoggins, R. T.; Tucker, R. G.; Lee, C.; Harris, L. G.; Edens, L. T.; Perrin, L. E.; Knickerbocker, Q. B.; Bode, R. H.; Betts, F. B.; Gillett, L. H.

Substitutions—T. C. U.: Edens for Ogilvie, Elliott for Vaughn, Ogilvie Elliott, Meyers for Berry, Bradford for Willie Childress for Grienes. Southwestern: Morgan for Perrin, Timmons for Edens.

T. C. U. CONTINUES TO WIN EASY GAME WITH TRINITY

Coach Daniel Gives His Reserves a Chance—Nelson-Vaughn Combination Proves Effective—Forward Pass Used by Both Sides; Line Looks Good.

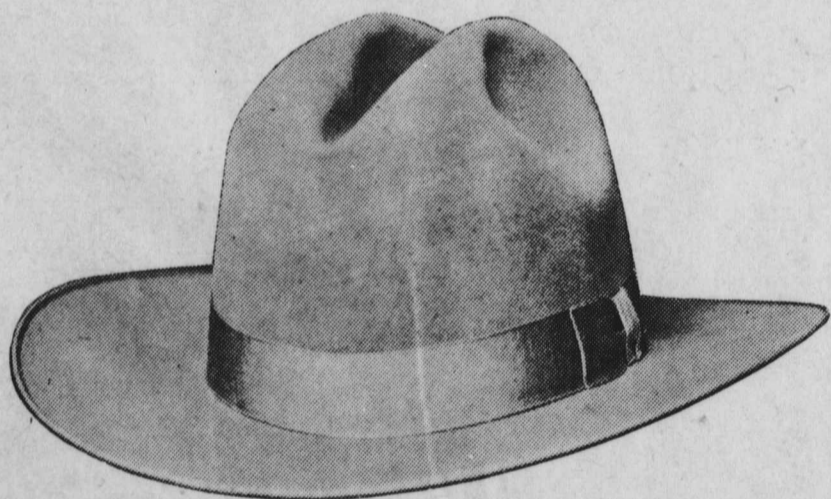

T. C. U. took another step towards the State championship last Monday, by easily defeating Trinity 35 to 0. In spite of a high wind, and the absence of Jo Edens from the line-up, the Nelson-Vaughn combination used the forward pass effectively. After T. C. U. had piled up a comfortable score, Coach Daniel began giving his reserve strength a chance, and when the game ended only two regulars—Ogilvie and Stangl—were in the line-up.

The team worked well behind Ogilvie, who filled Eden's shoes at quarter. Trinity outweighed the Purple and White men about four pounds to the man, yet the T. C. U. backs seemed to have little trouble in gaining through the line. Berry made several good gains on short end runs, and bucked the line ten times for a total of 78 yards. "Keggie" Calvert also lived up to his reputation of plowing the line; and his pass to Stangl in the 2nd quarter netted 15 yards.

Willie, Broadley, Kornegay, and Grienes stopped nearly every play attempted through the line, and forced the Trinitonians to resort to passing and end runs. Douglas, at center, was "in the game" and proved strong on offensive. He intercepted two forward passes, and recovered a fumble. When the game was on ice, Daniel sent in a new line, consisting of Criss Elliot for Shorty Vaughn, Wright for Willie, Chambers for Broadley, Hawes for "Ox" Kornegay, Bradford for Douglas, Smalley for Grienes. These men had no trouble in holding the Trinity backs, and with the exception of a few gains by Ferguson, the substitute line showed themselves to be just as effective as

The Horned Frog staff, the Skiff staff, and students directly interested in the progress of literary work in T. C. U. have joined the club.

The purpose of the club is to raise the standard of the college publications, to bring T. C. U. into prominence thru the State press, to discover and encourage latent ability for writing both short stories, news stories, editorials and poetry, and to create and foster in every possible way an interest in journalism.

Programs will consist of original short stories, news stories, and poems. These writings will be read and criticized before the Club. The permanent Skiff staff will be selected from the Club members. Short story contests will be held, prizes will be awarded to the winners, and their compositions will be published in the Skiff. The technical side of journalism will be studied. Talks from writers in the city will be included in the programs, and one or two periodicals on journalism will be subscribed to.

The Press Club of T. C. U. is a unit of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association, of which nearly every college and university of the State are members. Alden A. Evans, of

"FREEDOM OF THE PRESS"

Do you think this or that condition in the University should be remedied? Do you have in mind plans that you believe would tend to create a greater interest in the literary societies or that would make the chapel period more interesting, or that would give us better street car service?

If so, take your pencil and express yourself freely, and then drop the article in the library Skiff box. Beginning next week the Skiff will open a column called "Lapsus Calami," in which any student may express himself on any subject he wishes. It will be a column exclusively for the voice of the students.

These articles must be short, never over 300 words in length.

Under no circumstances will letters be published that might in any manner hurt the University. All articles for this column will be passed upon by a committee from the Press Club; and where there are more than can be used, only the best ones will be published. These articles must be signed when handed in. The writer's name, however, will not be published unless desired.

Feel at perfect liberty to treat your subject freely, keeping in mind at the same time that you are a booster and not a knocker.

ATTENTION, STAFF

In Writing for Skiff:—

- Write so printer will have no trouble in reading it.
- Write only on one side of paper.
- Leave space between lines for corrections.
- Do not try to be conventional, yet employ your knowledge of English.

the local Club, is President of the State Association. It falls to the lot of T. C. U. to entertain the Texas Press Association this year, and committees will be appointed in the near future to make arrangements for a banquet, to be given in April. At this banquet, representatives from all over the State will be the guests of the T. C. U. Press Club.

Officers elected Wednesday at the initial meeting were: C. W. Christenberry, president; Shirley Sweeney, vice-president; Miss Ora Leveridge, secretary.

A committee of five, consisting of the three officers and Alden Evans, and J. H. Monk, was appointed to revise the constitution. The time of meeting, the maximum number allowed in the club, and other points will be announced as soon as this committee reports.

K. K.'S. AND FRIENDS TAKE TRIP TO PARK

Leaving the university before sunrise, walking down to Forest Park, cooking breakfast in the woods, taking pictures and enjoying the morning outing as much as a crowd ever enjoyed one, was Wednesday's programme of the K. K.'s and their friends. The party left the campus at 6:30 and when the last link in the chain came dragging in, it was time for 9 o'clock classes.

McGregor, of course, was late but arrived at the camp in time to finish smoking his cigar before breakfast. Bradford, Shirley and Scottie built the fires, Ava Maud Wester and Beulah fried the bacon and eggs and Alden Evans and Miss Tyler made the coffee. Nell Andrews made herself useful helping at every turn and Margaret Riter watched attentively.

Arnsperger was the camp boss and was free with his orders to everybody, which nobody heeded. Ruth McFadden and Christine Kendricks stood by and gave expert advice, especially to the coffee makers, while Dema Clark, Ruby Parks and Beulah Bell toasted the bread at the ends of long forked sticks over the blazing fires.

Genevieve attended to McGregor, kept him from being burned or scratched by the brush and saw to it that the smoke didn't get in his eyes. Jones for the most part remained an innocent bystander, willing to help but keeping quiet until he caught Prof. Smith toasting acorns by holding them over the fire with Jones' cane. The English professor then received a rebuke in an English fashion.

A plate to a couple, the breakfast of scrambled eggs, breakfast bacon, light bread and graham bread, no, buttered toast and fruit was hidden in due time, and the campfire coffee tasted good.

A number of pictures of the crowd in different groups were taken before the party, two by two, meandered across the prairie toward Jarvis Hall.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR HOLDS CHAPEL EXERCISES

The Christian Endeavor Society of the University conducted the chapel exercises Saturday morning. The following were seated on the platform: Claude Wingo, Earnest Ligon, C. W. Elliot, Ben Hearn, Chas. Butts.

Following is the program given: Hymn, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Prayer, led by Claude Wingo. Scripture Reading, by Ben Hearn. "The Pledge," C. W. Elliot.

Mr. Elliot emphasized the fact that these pledges required an Endeavor to pray and read the Bible daily.

Charles Butts gave a brief history of the Christian Endeavor Society. Rev. Francis E. Clark organized the first society in the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Portland, Oregon.

There are now over 4,000,000 Endeavors over the world. Earnest Ligon stated some of the benefits derived from work in a society.

Importance of the Campaign

Do you realize that we are now launching a movement that will have as its result a school on this Hill that will be second to none in the state? Do you realize that this campaign will make Dr. Wait's dream of a million dollars endowment a practical certainty? Do you realize that it means an athletic field on our campus that will surpass anything in the southwest? Do you realize that it means taking a leap in progress that has never before been approached in the entire history of the University? Do you realize that all this is for you? If you do, do you not think it is worth your time, energy and support?

As a student body let us put our shoulders to the wheel and push this campaign to the utmost. The people of Fort Worth are now fully awake to the fact that we may have a greater school. Let us show them that we are the liveliest bunch of students in the State by putting nothing before the campaign until the goal is reached. Do not stand back and wait for someone to ask you to do something; but if you see that it needs to be done, offer your services; if you do not see anything to do, ask someone who can point it out.

The main idea is to GET THE PEP and GET TO WORK. Let's see if we cannot do something big for T. C. U.

T. W. C. GIRLS ROOT FOR T. C. U. MONDAY

A small but loyal group of T. W. C. girls were in the grandstand last Monday rooting for the Purple and White. They were recognized by Yell Leader Martin, who immediately led the T. C. U. students in a yell for our fair neighbors.

of T. C. U., having graduated from the University over fifteen years ago. Hub Diggs is a prominent business man of the city, and has always been a booster for progressive movements in Fort Worth.

"Five hundred new members by Sunday" is now the slogan of the club. Membership blanks have been printed, and may be secured from Secretary C. A. Reichstein at the Worth Segar Store.

A. M. Keisker, sporting editor of the Star-Telegram, Ben E. Keith, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. C. C. Gumm, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, believe the club to be a great thing for the city and are enthusiastic members.

The club members appreciate the successful effort Daniel is making to put Fort Worth on the map in athletics this year, and expect to back every team that represents T. C. U., both in baseball and football. By Thanksgiving over a thousand members will no doubt have joined the Boosters' Club, and will turn out to the Baylor-T. C. U. game in a body. President Robinson reports that already a number of old Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Texas U., and even A. & M. have taken membership in the club.

who have never been interested in a personal way in an educational campaign before, have willingly and freely lined up for to work for T. C. U. Never before since Fort Worth was named, has such interest been manifested in any similar undertaking. The campaign will be one of the greatest ever made in the state and the successful outcome of it certain.

The teams of the T. C. U. students are also willing workers. Several captains are planning to see to it that their team surpasses all other student teams. Classes will be neglected for the campaign. Work on all things in the regular courses will be subordinated to the privilege and duty of helping to make a grander and greater university, one which will be second to none in the state of Texas and one which will have but few equals in the country.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Edens could hardly stand to watch the game from the sidelines Monday. He stormed and bucked like a wild mustang. His two broken ribs are healing nicely, and "Bugs" was able to practice Tuesday and Wednesday, and left with the team Thursday morning for Southwestern. However, he is not likely to be able to get in the game.

The team showed Monday that even the loss of a player like Edens did not affect their fight and punch. Ogilvie handled the team well at quarter.

In both the Rice and the Trinity games, Coach Daniel proved that he had not neglected his reserves. An entirely new team last Monday showed themselves thoroughly capable to hold their own against the heavy Trinity team.

the city and from over the State to appear on the program.

Preparations are being made to accommodate a large crowd from Fort Worth. These exercises will be of the nature of a mammoth rally preceding the opening of the big campaign. The bonds between Dr. Waits and the University will be formally joined and the spirit of co-operation between the new president, the faculty, the students, and the citizens of Fort Worth will be increased ten-fold.

Dr. Williams of the Baptist Theological Seminary will open the program with a prayer of invocation. Short, rousing talks will follow, in which Superintendent Moore will represent the High Schools of Tarrant county; Dr. S. Smith will represent the manufacturing concerns of the city; Hon. T. E. Tomlinson, president of the board of trustees, will represent the University, and make prophecies for her future; W. A. Hanger, prominent north Texas lawyer will express the attitude of the citizens of Fort Worth toward educational improvements in general; Dr. Hugh McClellan of San Antonio, will represent the Christian churches of Texas; and lastly, President Waits will respond with the principal address of the occasion.

H. M. Durrett, business manager, is making plans to serve refreshments to the visiting crowd in the form of a luncheon. College songs, "pep" speeches, and music by the band and orchestra will enlighten the day's program.

the big regulars. On the tackle round tackle play, in last quarter, "Froggie" Hawes ripped off 13 yards and almost went for a touch-down. Criss Elliot caused much comment on the sidelines by his effective tackling.

The outstanding star of the game was Captain Nelson, with "Shorty" Vaughn and Eddie Stangl running a close second. Nelson carried the ball with dazzling speed around the ends, and also bucked through tackle for two touch-downs. He also passed the ball in great style; and his great broken-field return of a kick-off in the second quarter was the real feature of the game.

Vaughn grabbed Nelson's passes from the hard wind with uncanny sureness, making 18 of T. C. U.'s 35 points. Shorty has improved wonderfully in offensive work. His tackle of Ferguson in the third quarter was hard and sure, and probably saved T. C. U. from being scored on.

Stangl's defensive playing was away above the average. He broke up practically every play around his end, and kicked goal after every touch-down. In the third quarter, after Nelson had made thirty-four yards around end, and then passed to Vaughn twenty yards for a touch-down, Stangl kicked a difficult goal from the side of the field. He also received several passes from Nelson for gains of 30 yards, 12 yards, and 10 yards, respectively.

In the last quarter, Shady Hale went in for Nelson, Childress for Calvert, and Myers and Woods each took a turn in Bill Berry's place at left half.

Contrary to usual custom, T. C. U. started off with a rush. Douglas recovered a blocked kick, and the ball was T. C. U.'s on 15-yard line. Berry gained 10 yards around right end; Nelson hit the line with terrific force for 10 more, which put the ball only 4 yards from Trinity's goal line. Here the Maroon and White line tightened up, and in three line plunges T. C. U. was only able to advance 3 yards, and the ball went over on Trinity's one yard line. Ferguson punted out of danger. Again T. C. U. in this quarter rushed the ball near the goal line, only to be held once more for downs. The first quarter ended with both teams fighting hard.

In the second quarter the Horned Frogs began to play real football. Shorty Vaughn and Eddie Stangl broke through Trinity's strong line and threw Moore and Ferguson for two losses, five yards each. Trinity then punted poorly to Keggie. Berry goes around end for long gain, and would have made a touch-down had he not been forced out of bounds. Nelson, in a short end run, stiff-armed two men and raced for the first touch-down.

Trinity had her best opportunity to score at this stage. Fincher, quarter for Trinity, began using the forward pass, netting 30 yards in two plays, and putting the ball on T. C. U.'s 14-yard line. A Trinity back fumbled, however, and Vaughn recovered the ball, thus ruining Trinity's chance to break their goose egg.

Berry was hurt in the second quarter, but stayed in the game, and continued to gain. Ogilvie mixed open play and straight football during the last of the second quarter, with good results. Berry, Keggie, and Nelson pushed down field on end runs and off-tackle plays. Then a pass failed over Trinity's line, and the ball went to the visitors on their 20-yard line. Broadley broke through and stopped Estes, who fumbled, and Douglas recovered. A long pass by Nelson to Vaughn counted six more for T. C. U. Stangl kicked goal.

Trinity then kicked off to Nelson, who made a brilliant return down the field for sixty yards. On the next play, he passed 35 yards to Shorty Vaughn, who plucked the oval from over the head of a Trinity man, and went for his second touch-down. Stangl, as usual, kicked goal. This touch-down was made in only thirty-nine seconds of play. The half ended soon after, with the score 21 to 0.

SECOND HALF.

The third quarter was featured by the playing of Stangl, Grienes, Vaughn and Nelson. Nelson made another long broken field run, gaining forty-five yards. The Nelson-Vaughn combination were again called on by Ogilvie, and they again "delivered the goods." A twenty-yard pass by Nellie to Shorty resulted in another touch-down. It was here that Stangl pulled the impossible by kicking a long goal from one side of the field on the 28-yard line, with the wind blowing a strong gale. The ball rose high in the air, and floated directly between the goal posts, making the score 28 to 0.

This ended the scoring for the third quarter. Coach Daniel began trying his second string men out, and neither side showed any great advantage.

In the last quarter Nelson returned to his old place at right half for a short time. Steady gains by Nelson, Childress, Berry, and Hawes put the ball on Trinity's six-yard line. Nelson then hit the line for the fifth and last touch-down. Stangl kicked goal, and the score was 35 to 0. Berry and Douglas returned to the game during the last few minutes of play.

Ferguson was the best on Trinity's squad. He is a hard tackler and a good ground-gainer. King, Anderson and Fincher also showed up well on defence.

The line-up:

movement in Fort Worth has caused so much interest as has this campaign. The busiest men of the city are dropping work to devote their energies to T. C. U. This can mean only that Fort Worth is awake to great civic movements and that she is behind T. C. U. strong.

On next Monday the campaign begins in earnest. At noon every member of the teams are to meet at the Westbrook for the first luncheon of the whole body of workers. Final instructions will be given to the captains, and work will begin immediately. A large electric sign has been planned to be erected on the Flat Iron building to let the people of Fort Worth know of the progress of the campaign. On one side of the sign is the figure of a nurse to represent the medical division of T. C. U., and on the other a college girl will represent the college itself.

Final plans have been made by the student captains and now everything is in readiness to make things hum for ten days.
