NEW PRESIDENT DONS INAUGURAL ROBES BEFORE LARGE CROWD

Dr. Waits Makes Splendid Address; Some of T. C. U.'s Staunchest Friends on the Program.

T. E. Tomlinson, President of Board, Speaks.

Before an audience last Tuesday morning that completely filled the University auditorium, President-elect E. M. Waits received the cap and gown, the insignia for the office of president of Texas Christian University. The ceremony was preceded by a masterful inaugural address and appropriate speeches by business and professional men of the city and state.

Rev. J. B. Williams of Southwest Baptist College, made the opening prayer.

Dr. Bacon Saunders, who presided, introduced Superintendent M. H. Moore of the city schools. Superintendent Moore said, "We are all engaged in a common enterprise. Our one thought is that the young people may be fitted with an education that will give them a start in life. The ideals of higher education are continually kept before the minds of the city school children. The college graduate shall come into his own in filling places of leadership." Mr. Moore expressed the good will of all those connected with the public schools.

The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs combined their voices in a very pleasing selection, a selection enjoyed by all.

Cheers greeted Randolph Clark, one of the founders of T. C. U., as he took his place on the platform.

Dr. Bacon Saunders next introduced Mr. T. E. Tomlinson, president of the board. Mr. Tomlinson said that he had been connected with T. C. U. and had been present on every occasion of importance for fourteen years, but that this was the most auspicious occasion of any he had witnessed. "We have passed many barriers that have been in our way," Mr. Tomlinson said, "and have surmounted many difficulties that have kept us from advancing as we should have. Forces that have builded and pre-

T. C. U. AND T. W. C. MAY HELP ENTERTAIN STATE TEACHERS' ASS'N.

Texas Christian University and Texas Woman's College may be called upon to help Fort Worth entertain the 5,000 delegates to the Texas teachers' convention. This convention will be held in this city for three days, beginning Thanksgiving, according to a statement Saturday by City School Superintendent Moore.

Fifty members of the faculty of the University of Texas will attend the convention and many of them will have prominent places on the programs during the meeting. Members of the T. C. U. faculty will also appear on the programs before the convention.

$5,000. CONTRIBUTED BY DR. SAUNDERS

Dr. Bacon Saunders and Dr. Roy Saunders showed that they firmly believed in the T. C. U. upbuilding by contributing $5,000. This was announced at the Thursday luncheon.

PRES. ACME LAUNDRY MAKES ADVANCE PLEDGE

C. A. Wheeler, president of the Acme Laundry, broke the ice in the big campaign with a liberal advance pledge of $1,000. Mr. Wheeler is owner and president of the largest and finest equipped laundry south of Saint Louis. He is a booster for Fort Worth, and feels that T. C. U. is a valuable part of the city and should be aided in its development by the citizens of Fort Worth.

W. C. STRIPLING GIVES ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS

At the luncheon Wednesday, the donation of $1,000 by W. C. Stripling was announced. The donor is the owner of the large department store of the city which bears his name.

Horned Frogs Leave On Hard Road Trip Will Play Two Games

Hard Game with Daniel Baker Saturday; Team Determined to Redeem Themselves After Friday's Defeat.

Our football squad, twenty strong, leaves Friday night for Brownwood, on the hardest road trip of the season. They will play the "Hill Billies" of Daniel Baker College Saturday, and then meet Howard Payne College Monday. Two games in three days is a severe test for a team, but Coach Daniel has been working the Horned Frogs in hard scrimmage and signal work this week, and the whole squad has rounded into a condition that forecasts a double victory for T. C. U.

The team will be greatly handicapped by the absence of "Bugs" Edens and "Ox" Konegay from their regular places. Ox will make the trip, but it is very unlikely that he will play, as Coach wants him in first-class condition for the Baylor game. Edens will not be able to play in either of the games, as his broken ribs are still far from being healed. Daniel is in hopes that he will be well by Thanksgiving. The rest of the backfield, "Keggie" Calvert, Bill Berry, "Chief" Myers, Frank Ogilvie, and Captain Nelson, are all in tip-top condition, and the entire line is "raring to go." "Froggie" Hawes will replace "Ox" at right tackle. Hawes is a good man and a hard fighter.

Thursday afternoon, Coach put the men through a stiff scrimmage, and Friday he gave them only a light workout.

The game Saturday with Daniel Baker should not be underestimated. The Hill Billies have not lost a game this season, and among their victims is the Southwestern eleven. They are now the only undefeated team in the T. I. A. A.

Our team is smarting from the defeat at the hands of Southwestern last Friday, and determined to retrieve themselves on this trip. Last year Daniel Baker pulled the unexpected and beat the Purple and White, so nothing could please the students better than a victory Saturday.

Following the Howard Payne scrap next Monday, Coach will have ten days in which to whip his men into condition for the Baylorites. The "anti" Baylor spirit is already in the air, and the students are looking forward to a great game and a victory for the local squad. The defeat last Friday at Georgetown served to wake the boys up, and during the last week they have gone into the daily grind on the field with a snap and punch that wins games, and it is certain that no more games will be lost because of overconfidence.

Great Game Played By Citizen Teams

Not since the days of 1912 have the football fans of T. C. U. had an opportunity to see such star playing as was shown Saturday when Old Rip and Rock and Rye tied up for mortal battle.

The final score, 10 to 0, shows that Old Rip had the best team, but the game was close and exciting, and was featured by smashing line bucks and bewildering end runs. Stars of the game were Ligon, Rochester, Earl Jones, and Sam Jagoda. Arnsperger also did splendid work, in spite of his poor headwork.

Long punting was also one of the bright points of the game, some of the boots going 18 to 20 yards down the field. Radford Howard showed great skill in "backing" through the line for great losses. Forward passing by Herrington was interesting to watch, as he rarely ever failed to sling the pigskin into the wanting arms of one of his opponents.

These teams will meet again Saturday.

Texas Championship Of Football in Muddle

All Big Teams Have Been Defeated; T. C. U. Gets Another Chance Thanksgiving Day.

Never has Texas football been in such a muddle as it is now. Daniel Baker, at the time of the present writing, is the only T. I. A. A. team that has not been defeated, and their record will not justify them in claiming the championship. Texas has been defeated by Baylor, who in turn has been defeated by A. & M., who has been defeated by Rice, who has been defeated by Texas, and outplayed by T. C. U. But T. C. U. has been defeated by Southwestern, who has been wiped up by Baylor, Rice, and Daniel Baker. Even if A. & M. should beat Texas on Thanksgiving, the Farmers would not have a clear title to the State championship, for the ugly scratches given them by the Rice Owls would still remain.

It looks, from the above dope, that the championship will be claimed by many but will belong to none. Texas Christian University will have as good a claim to it as any team if she takes the Daniel Baker, the Howard Payne, and the Baylor games.

DECATUR WALKED ON BY T. C. U. SCRUBS

Baptists Thought They Were Playing Our First Team.

T. C. U.'s second squad ran roughshod over the Decatur Baptist College at Decatur last Saturday in a game full of sensational plays. The score, 9 to 0, does not by any means show the class of football played by the Purple and White boys, for the ball was kept in the opponents' territory the whole game.

The game was featured by line-plunging and open field work on the part of Dillar, Shady Hale, Dutton, and Clark. Dillar gained every time he was called upon. Clark, at quarter for T. C. U., ran his team well. The Baptists were helpless before the forward passing of Dillar, Clark, and Hale, who hauled the oval fourteen times to Deats, Parks, and Dutton, for long gains.

"Blondy" Deats and Ben Parks did good work at ends. Deats recovered six fumbles, and dumped interference well. Parks made several good tackles, and received forward passes in "Shorty Vaughn" style.

The lone touchdown of the day was made by Loraine Dutton, on a long end run for twenty yards. The other two points were made by Deats, who threw a Decatur man for a safety.

In spite of poor refereeing, our squad completely outclassed their opponents. The T. C. U. line allowed no gains through guard or tackle, and "Fatty" Bond, Smalley, and Chambers opened up wagon roads through the Decatur line. On account of the size of these three men, the Decatur rooters were certain that they were playing against T. C. U.'s first-string men.

BANQUET AT WESTBROOK OPENS BIG CAMPAIGN

Live Speeches Put Pep Into Teams; Big Brains of Fort Worth in Attendance.

Seated around thirty banquet tables in the Westbrook Hotel, the team captains and their enthusiastic followers listened last Monday evening to final instructions from their generals before throwing themselves into the big fund raising campaign.

Nearly 200 workers were present at the banquet, and every individual there seemed filled with the idea that success was certain. The student teams kept the enthusiasm going with college songs and yells, and several peppery marches were played by the T. C. U. orchestra. The T. C. U. quartet opened the program with some snappy college harmony, which was highly appreciated by all.

W. A. Hanger, chairman of the campaign, acted as toastmaster. In his opening remarks, Mr. Hanger briefly outlined the progress of T. C. U. in the five years she has been in Fort Worth. "Five years ago Texas Christian University was established here with a debt of $30,000 hanging over it. Today it has no debts to speak of and has $598,000 in property. This is not a $150,000 campaign. It is a quarter of a million dollar campaign." "Do you know that there has been $100,000 subscribed with the condition that $150,000 be contributed in Fort Worth?" he said. "Twenty-five thousand dollars of this money goes to a football field, and then I hope T. C. U. will have a football team that will beat Texas University. "Why, I would rather help to build that institution out there on the hill than to bring another packing house here. It means the making of men." Mr. Hanger then went on to show that the greatest advertisement in the world for Fort Worth was the graduates of T. C. U.

Dr. H. A. Boaz, president of Texas Woman's College, was the next speaker. Dr. Boaz said, "I would rather build character than anything else, and that's what the city of Fort Worth is doing. I congratulate the city for having T. C. U. located here."

"MARY JANE'S PA" TO BE HERE NIGHT BEFORE THANKSGIVING

T. C. U. Dramatic Club to Stage Play That Has Proved Popular in New York; Plot Includes Love, Hate, Humor and Pathos.

"Mary Jane's Pa" is the title of a popular modern drama written by Edith Ellis, and produced for the first time by Henry W. Savage at the Garden Theater, New York. It scored a great success, but unlike most of the hits of a theatrical season, Edith Ellis' play continues popular and is being revived every year by stock companies in different parts of the country. There are several reasons for this popularity. One is the striking American atmosphere pervading the work. Seldom has life been as faithfully portrayed. This you say as you read, is life as it is lived by the great majority of simple hearted genuine Americans. Told with humor and realism, Mary Jane's Pa is full of job and optimism.

The scene is laid in the little town of Gosport, Indiana, which is still outside those phases of social evolution which are now most absorbing, making it very disagreeable for one of culture and refined taste to be satisfied, unless they have that strength of soul that faith in life, which enable them to regard human foibles and faults with a smile. "Hiram Perkins" is a character that is thoroughly characteristic of this view of life. He is a scamp in many ways, but one of the most lovable scamps. One that only humor of the most exquisite kind can create, which emphasizes the fact that when opposed qualities enter into a character, it depends largely on external circumstances whether the good or the bad one shall be brought to the front.

This great achievement of human genius is to be staged in the auditorium of Texas Christian University under the auspices of the Dramatic Club of T. C. U. on the night before Thanksgiving Day. This is to be the initial play. This date shall hereafter be the one on which the annual big play of the year shall be given.

The play is being coached by Miss Leila Long Powell, head of the Department of Oratory in Texas Christian University, and assisted by Miss Tesse Mosey. This, along with the merit of the individuals that are taking part as characters in the play together with the hard work that is being done by the entire cast, insures its success.

When any great achievement is put before us we can become partners in it in a way by applauding it with something of the enthusiasm that went into its making. Let this sort of collaboration impel you to be present and enjoy a real royalty modern drama in three acts. The prices for the evening's feast will be 25 cents, 35 cents and 50 cents. Come and enjoy an evening of real entertainment.

The cast—
Portia, Miss Buena Lindsay.
Lucile Perkins, Miss Ruby Walker.
Mary Jane Perkins, Miss Roberta Scott.
Ivy Wilcox, Miss Masal Jeffers.
Miss Faxon, Miss Erskine Long.
Barrett Sheridan, Charles Christenberry.
Star Skinner, William Jones.
Joel Skinner, Floyd Sweet.
Claud Whitcomb, Rayford Hills.
Linc Watkins, Frank Ogilvie.

CAMPAIGN MOVING SMOOTHLY ENCOURAGING REPORT FRIDAY

W. A. Hanger Predicts Certain Success; Van Zandt Gives Four Thousand Dollars; Mars Donates One Thousand Dollars.

Enthusiasm marked the Friday luncheon at the Westbrook, as Chairman Hanger called for the reports of the different teams. The total for the day was $9,363.25, and this added to the amount previously raised made $20,420.50 in all, or about one-seventh of the entire amount. Dr. Richardson's team of the doctors' division won the banner, with a sum of $655. Of the student teams, Shorty Vaughn's energetic bunch led for the day, with Shirley Sweeney's team running a close second.

BIG SUMS GIVEN.
Several big donations were made. W. W. Mars, well known cattleman of Fort Worth, gave $1,000. Van Zandt Jarvis presented the large sum of $4,000.

Other gifts were: John P. King, $100; Mayor-elect W. D. (Bill) Davis, $100; Edward Burns, $100; W. A. Hanger, $250; William Monnig, $300.

The next luncheon will be Monday at 12:30.
Chairman Hanger said, in closing the gathering: "The day's work shows the campaign is certain to succeed."

The T. C. U. faculty team was well represented. Chairman Hall in his report, stated that "their next report would be decidedly better."
The down town windows and stores are decorated in Purple and White, and the entire citizenship is awakening to the bigness of the campaign.

SHIRLEYS WILL HOLD OLD MEN'S PRELIM NEXT MONDAY EVENING

Every Member Expected to Be Present.

The Shirley Literary Society will hold their preliminary to the Old Men's Declamatory contest next Monday evening, Nov. 20, at 8 o'clock. President Smiser urges every member of the society to be present. The three men selected at this tryout will meet three Add-Ran declaimers on the 8th of December. This is one of the most important society contests of the year. The Oratorical association offers cash prizes to the winners of first and second places.

Art Dept. Will Give Carnival Sat. Evening

The Brushes will give their first social affair on Saturday evening, November 18th. It will be in the form of a Carnival, with the nations France, Holland, Japan, Mexico and America represented. A fortune teller will be present and refreshments of various kinds will be served. Tickets are on sale in the Art Room for 15 cents. A large crowd is expected, as these Art socials are always interesting.

A. F. Winston, last year's Vernon High coach, visited the Vernon boys this week, and saw his old proteges play in the Trinity game. Winston is coach at the San Marcos Military Academy.

Wear Purple and White During Campaign!!

WHAT WE THINK OF OUR ORCHESTRA

We have the greatest school orchestra in the state! Numerous competent critics have declared this to be true so often that now we no longer doubt it.

The playing of our orchestra in chapel every day is, to many, like a bright spot amid the comparatively dull duties of our class-room recitations. The students always show their approval by the most enthusiastic applause. It undoubtedly adds life to chapel, and even chapel needs life.

To Frederick M. Cahoon is due the majority of the credit for this live and popular organization; because without his constant work and encouragement, the orchestra would be far from its present high degree of excellence, if it existed at all.

Lately, the student body has been delighted by selections from such great operas as "Il Trovatore," "Rigoletto" and "Aida." These are very acceptable, the more so because of the recent Grand Opera revival in Fort Worth. The enthusiasm with which these famous compositions are received, shows that the student body as a whole has a high sense of appreciation for the better things in music.

Still the orchestra does not play classical music exclusively; on the proper occasion it can play as lively and peppery a "rag" as ever caused a staid faculty member to pat his foot in sympathy.

Many of the members of the orchestra also belong to the University Band, which is very much in evidence at all football games. There is no doubt but that the band has played an important part in the winning of some of our football victories.

T. C. U. has in her orchestra and band some of the best student musicians in the southwest. From last year's orchestra, we have: T. P. Sweeney, who has studied for several years under Mr. Cahoon, and who has been warmly received by the student body in recital; W. E. Stallings, who is recognized as an accomplished cornetist in Oklahoma, Arkansas, and North Texas; Shirley Sweeney, whose clarinet is indispensable in the big numbers; Harry Bradford, who is one of the best alto players ever in T. C. U.; and last but not least, Annie McLendon, piano, who helps as much by the rhythmic swaying of her body as by her matches playing.

Mary Sue (Dick) Darter is conducting a very successful Art Department at Midland College this year. She was a prominent member of the Brushes during her T. C. U. days and she has organized a P. S. club in Midland College, the Paint Slingers, which we feel sure will do credit to its parent organization.

Judge—"Do you need a lawyer?"
Defendant—"No, I'm going to tell the truth."

APSUS CALAM

(STUDENTS' COLUMN)

ONE GOOD CHAPEL TALK.

It is seldom that the students are given a treat at the chapel hour, except by the orchestra. But one day last week a speaker, a speaker with an interesting message and a thoughtful message, and a member of the faculty by the way, gave us a genuine treat. The speaker was Prof. T. V. Smith, a new teacher, who holds the chair of English in the University.

Prof. Smith is a man any university may well be proud of. He is one of the members of the faculty who respect the student body enough to prepare a real message and deliver it when he is asked to speak in chapel. It is pleasing to notice and to know that the new teacher is broad enough to see both sides of a question and thoughtful enough to realize that when he talks to a crowd of students he should have something helpful to say. It is refreshing to know that in Prof. Smith we have a man who is capable of thinking and willing to think and has conviction enough to say what he thinks. His speech the other morning on gambling was one of the best delivered by a chapel speaker on our platform in a good while.

For the sake of the student body, Prof. Smith, come again, come often. Your speech received more comment and more praise than any we have heard in a long time. When we hear such a message in chapel, attending chapel becomes a privilege and a pleasure. If we knew we would hear something as interesting and instructive every now and then as your talk was there would be no absentees from the morning exercises, no desire to cut chapel, and we would have something enjoyable to look forward to at the chapel hour besides the music of the orchestra.

Scraps From The Colleges

May we take the liberty to point out to the "Star Telegram" that the "Daily Texan" is in the same class with the "Record" when it comes to election returns.

Phillips—We notice that the Slate has taken a step toward arousing newspaper. Their bi-monthly publication has changed from magazine form to a peppy news sheet.

We notice from C. I. A. and Texas that walking is popular with the girls. Walking clubs have been organized, and long hikes are taken every week.

Transylvania—Tom Barbee, giant end, sustained injuries in practice last week that will prevent him from entering any more games. The loss comes just at the time that Coach Owens was figuring strongly on the Kentucky championship.

Simmons—In the "Brand," a new college paper has made an appearance. The Simmonites are to be congratulated upon turning out such a good paper.

Southwestern—The seniors have adopted the cap and gown as their official "distinction." The cap and gown will be worn at frequent intervals during the year to cultivate a more academic college spirit.

S. M. U.—S. M. U. voices her need for a vociferous, but musical brass band. Really we cannot see just why. The Baylor bank is so easy to borrow. (Remember the S. M. U.-T. C. U. game.)

JARVIS HALL NOTES

Rev. Shelbourne from Dallas visited his daughter, Elizabeth, during the inauguration.

Mrs. Edgar from Weatherford is visiting her daughter, Marjorie.

Mrs. Owers and little son are spending a few days in Jarvis hall.

Christine Kendrick has returned from a visit with her home folks.

Joan Neil has been on the sick list this week.

Roy Parke, brother of Ruby, was here for a visit the first of the week.

Mrs. Goff left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit at her home in Sherman.

Dema Clark has been to her home at Archer City for a visit.

Beth Overmier was seen on the campus this week in her usual gay spirits.

Mary Strange returned Wednesday from a week's visit at her home in Waco. (Mary is a last year's Baylor girl, but she is stronger for T. C. U.)

Mrs. Baxter from Brownwood is spending a week with her daughters, Elva and Elsie.

Bernice Holmes' father, Rev. Holmes of Galveston, is here during the lectureship.

The Varnell sisters, Celeste and Varine, have returned from a highly enjoyable week's visit to their home in Hillsboro.

Sybil Black's uncle, Mr. Stockes, from Beckenridge, visited her Thursday.

Mrs. Wirtz will leave Saturday for a visit with Frieda at Waco. Frieda is teaching school there.

Mr. Mason from Post City visited Willie Lou Jenkins Tuesday.

Mr. Stark from Gainesville and nephew, Vern Stark, visited Una Tuesday.

Inex Hudgins' father, mother and little brother, came over from Forney Sunday to spend the day.

Mrs. J. L. Scott and daughter, Dorothy, of Sherman, visited their sister, Mrs. Goff, last week.

sion department of A. & M., was next introduced as the "greatest editorial writer in the South." Mr. Ousley said in part, "This is the college man's day. An educated man is regarded as efficient and valuable to society, and the untrained mind as a monstrosity."

President-elect E. M. Waits was then introduced by Chairman Hanger. Dr. Waits was brimful of the "do or die" campaign spirit. "As I gather something of this enthusiasm of this crowd I feel as if they could take Gibraltar," he commenced. He was optimistic over the outcome of the "battle," but warned the workers that success would come only after hard toil.

Rabbi George Fox followed with a speech full of sincere life and energy. He quoted statistics showing the commercial importance and value of the University to the city. Speaking of the campaign, he concluded his talk thus, "May the God of the Jew and the Gentile crown it with success."

Malcolm H. Reed of Austin, one of the University's most faithful friends made a few remarks, in which he expressed the greatest confidence in the success of the campaign.

Miss Donna Roberts, director of the fund raising, concluded the program by explaining the methods of procedure. Only 8,000 citizens are to be approached for donations. Miss Roberts impressed upon the members of the teams the importance of regular attendance at the daily luncheons at the Westbrook.

DOM. SCIENCE STUDENTS WAKE UP AND ORGANIZE

The students of Domestic Science met last Wednesday, organized and elected officers.

Mrs. Uelle Doyle was chosen president and representative to the honor council. Miss Beth Coombs was elected secretary-treasurer.

This organization will have regular meetings throughout the year for the purpose of studying home economic problems.

Splendid work is being done in this department this year. Miss Moore, head of the department is well pleased with the progress of her classes, and is preparing for many new students next term.

CLARK LITERARY SOCIETY DOING GOOD WORK

On Wednesday, Nov. 5, the Clarks had their regular weekly meeting and the following program was rendered: Reading, selected, Beuna Lindsey.

"What Has Produced Them," Marguerite Riter.

"Themism," What Is It? Ava Lee Mars.

"The Doll's House," Miss Lambert. Striking lines from "The Doll's House," Bernice Holmes.

Vocal solo, Una Stark.

"Brand," Mrs. Gardner.

Every number on the program was enjoyed very much and as a whole it was one of the best programs given this year.

After the program a business meeting was held in which Mrs. Gardner was elected parliamentarian. Two new names were presented to the society, those of Miss Margery Edgar and Miss Bobby Brown. The new officers who were elected at the meeting previous were installed. They are:

President, Bernice Holmes.
Vice President, Mary Biggerstaff.
Secretary, Ava Maud Wester.
Treasurer, Thelma Smith.
Sargeant at Arms, Una Stark.

The program for the next meeting, Nov. 24, is as follows:

Music, Lillian Randall.
Bernard Shaw's Conception of Right Living, Gladys Parker.
"Message of Arms and Man," May Owen.
Vocal solo, Grace Bailey.
"The Doctor's Dillema," Miss Lambert.
Criticism of Shaw, Mary Louise Foster.

WALTONS HONOR HAROLD BELL WRIGHT

A Harold Bell Wright program consisting of the following numbers was given by the Walton Literary Society in the Shirley-Walton hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 15.

Comments on Harold Bell Wright, Mollie Jones.

"When a Man's a Man," Bennie Ruth Clements.

Vocal solo, Mrs. Hulsey.

Book review, Mrs. Crain.

Piano solo, Lallah De Stivers.

At the business meeting which followed shortly afterward, Misses Black, Perry, Combes, Fancher and Harris were admitted into the society making a total of 73 active members and 13 honorary members, a record not known to have ever been surpassed by the society.

Another step forward which the society has made has been the election of an enthusiastic parliamentarian who will begin active drill in parliamentary procedure at the next meeting.

ALL-SOUTHERN TACKLE VISITS UNIVERSITY

John W. Pyburn of Mt. Calm, for four years tackle on T. C. U.'s football team, was on the rostrum in chapel Tuesday. The big fellow played on the same team with Coach Daniel in 1908-9, and was all-southern tackle for two years. He was especially pleased with the team now representing his old school, and predicted defeat for Baylor on Thanksgiving.

CLARK HALL LOCALS

(Harry Bradford)

Mrs. Williams of Athens is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Sweeney.

Mrs. Hills is visiting her two sons.

Caton and Coke had charge of the decorating of Clark hall Tuesday for the inauguration of Dr. Waits. They made a nice job of it.

Criss Elliot stopped of at Temple, his home town, for a day on his way back from Southwestern.

Mrs. Reid of Pecos, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Childress, left for her home last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks of Mount Pleasant recently visited their son, Sam.

Rev. R. A. Highsmith, '14, of Mineral Wells, was a visitor at the University this week.

Guy Tittle, a sophomore of T. C. U. last year, enjoyed a few hours' stay at his old school Tuesday.

The Clark hall matrons, Mrs. Page and Mrs. Childress, complimented the boys on the first floor for their well kept rooms.

The sport that attracts the most attention of the second and third floor boys is bowling. The halls of the two floors make ideal bowling alleys, and Bulgarian buttermilk bottles are used as ten pins. The bottles are easily broken, however, and the expense of buying new ones has become so great that it is feared the game will have to be discontinued.

with many downtown friends of the institution. On the platform were business and professional men as well as prominent Texas educators.

The entrance to the auditorium was beautifully decorated in purple and white. In the auditorium proper, pennants were hung tastefully along the sides, with a large banner at the back of the rostrum. The stage was banked with ferns and flowers among which were mingled the purple and white.

served this institution till now will continue to be loyal, the trustees, the faculty, the friends, the student body. We have been a long time building. This work, to succeed, requires consecration. The hand of God is in it all."

Dr. Forest Smith of the Broadway Baptist church of Fort Worth, spoke in behalf of the ministers of the city as follows: "I congratulate President-elect Waits as he is installed as president of this University. No man has a greater opportunity for Christian service than one who is at the head of a Christian institution.

We find that out of 100 boys only one gets a college education. Out of that 1 per cent, however, come all of our justices of the supreme court, all of our cabinet members, one-half of our senators, and one-half of our presidents. The contribution of the Christian College to every walk of life is great. In "Who's Who in America" we find three out of every four men are products of a Christian college.

Dr. Frank M. Jewett of the Bible College of Texas University, spoke in behalf of the Christian brotherhood of Texas. He made the statement that all churches realized that this was the age of progressive living and of striving for knowledge. "This generation," he said, "is the young man's and woman's. There never was a time when we appreciated the reality and personality of Jesus Christ as we do today."

A letter from former President F. D. Kershner was read, in which Dr. Kershner expressed his sincere wishes for a successful administration to Dr. Waits.

President Waits' inaugural address was a picturesque portrayal of his hopes and plans for T. C. U. He spoke of the controlling of a Christian university as "an enterprise of stupendous concern, a regal performance." "Let him not boast, who puts the armor on, as him, who takes it off, the battle done," he quoted. "There is pleasure and profit in dreaming. The world's greatest benefactors are the greatest dreamers. It is worth while to be an optimist for the pleasure it gives ones self."

"Young men and women shall go out of this institution with visions and ideas of service. The program of this University must be one of co-operation. Co-operation between the institution and the city, friends and faculty, faculty and student body, Texas and T. C. U."

The cap and gown was bestowed by Dr. Bacon Saunders, after which President Waits, speaking in regard to his new insignia of authority, said, "All the great work of man has been done in his shirt sleeves and we shall lay aside this cap and gown, plunging into the work of this campaign in our shirt sleeves."

Handshaking was the order of the day for some time after the ceremony.

The University band rendered several selections. The auditorium was filled with enthusiastic students and
