"Mary Jane's Pa" Makes Hit; Real Talent Displayed

It was a satisfied crowd that left the T. C. U. auditorium last Wednesday evening, after witnessing the play, "Mary Jane's Pa." Nothing but praise was heard for the play in general and for the actors individually. Especial credit was given to the directors and coaches, Miss Lelia Long Powell and Miss Tesse Mosey, for their skill and foresight in picking the characters.

The play was one of unusual possibilities, and these were utilized to the greatest extent by the accomplished body of young actors representing the "Footlights," the dramatic club of T. C. U. It seemed to grip the audience throughout, and one could almost feel that he was in Gossport, with the same lively interest in its affairs as was displayed by the actors, such was the atmosphere of reality radiated from the production.

W. L. Thornton was easily the favorite of the entire evening. Mr. Thornton is naturally gifted in the art of expression, and the way in which he interpreted the difficult role of the extraordinary, but likeable, "Pa," showed study, talent, and feeling. His work alone would have raised the play above the plane of average college dramatic offerings, and supplemented by the excellent work of the other members of the cast, made the play decidedly a success.

Miss Beuna Lindsay, as Portia, the brave little mother, who, by persistent struggling with the world has won a place for herself and her children, makes the audience feel her part. Her devotion to duty and her sacrifices after her husband has deserted her, make a beautiful example of a mother's love.

When Miss Roberta Scott took the part of Mary Jane, she set back the record of time and became a lovable, attractive, little girl of ten. She so truly portrayed the little whims and simple faiths of a Gossport child that the audience forgot she was acting.

Miss Ruby Walker, the 16-year-old country belle, and C. W. Christenberry as Barrett Sheridan, the young actor out to see the world, furnish the thread of love so necessary to every successful drama. Miss Walker was exactly suited to the part of the sweet, unsophisticated little lady of a small town.

Alden Evans, as Rome Preston, and Floyd Sweet, as Joel Skinner, are political enemies, and one feels great elation, due to the splendid acting of both these gentlemen, over the victory of Rome Preston and the downfall of the scheming and unscrupulous Joel Skinner.

Miss Masel Jeffers as Ivy Wilcox, Erskine Long as Miss Faxan, and Mr. William Jones as Star Skinner brought out vividly three typical village characters.

The audience was afforded much real humor every time Lorraine Dutton and Rayford Hills appeared on the stage. Mr. Dutton took the part of the country bus driver and Mr. Hills made an admirable country loafer. Whipple, played by Frank Ogilvie, was a most typical rural politician.

Aubrey Leveridge as Eugene Merryfield and E. B. Sewell as Lewellyn Green were good stage printers, and by their loyalty to Mrs. Perkins completely won over the audience.

Excellent music was furnished by the T. C. U. orchestra.

It is hoped that in the future the Footlights will present other equally delightful plays.

T. C. U. Gives Baylor Stubborn Fight Before 6,000 People

HORNED FROGS FIGHT TO THE LAST AND SCORE MORE POINTS AGAINST THE BEARS THAN ALL OTHER TEXAS TEAMS HAVE IN LAST TWO YEARS.

Before the biggest crowd that ever witnessed a football game in Fort Worth, T. C. U. lost to the Baylor Bears. Lost ingloriously? No, but with more glory than she has ever lost to an opposing worthy opponent. Gloriously indeed, for she did what others have failed to do, what Southwestern failed to do; what S. M. U. failed to do; what Trinity failed to do; what Howard Payne failed to do; what A. & M. failed in, and even what Texas attempted and failed—crossed Baylor's goal line—not once but twice, thus scoring against the Bears over double the number of points registered by all the other Texas teams put together.

It is true Baylor scored 32 points to our 14, and it is true that a bunch of purple and white jerseys never fought harder for an institution than did our team on Turkey Day; yet we must hand it to Baylor and congratulate them for having in their midst a certain Mr. Theron Fouts and his running mate, J. Roach, who proved a disaster to our hopes for a claim to the State Championship in 1916. They won and they did it honorably and we have no kicks and are without alibis.

Captain Nelson and Bugs Edens, besides having the distinguished honor of being the only two men in the State to cross Baylor's goal line, repeatedly penetrated their line and made sweeping end runs which will cause no surprise in the realm of football when their name is mentioned on the All-State team. Gish Martin who was picked by several coaches last year for a place on the coveted eleven, and who suffered an operation early in the season, was a terror at guard, and both he and Abe Greines often broke through and downed Baylor's backs for a loss. Ox Kornegay and Willie at tackles, as well as the rest of the team, played a great game and too much praise cannot be given them for their work.

How It Was Done
T. C. U. won the choice and chose to defend the west goal. Baylor tried a fake kick which went out of bound, and on the second attempt, J. Roach kicked forty-five yards to Nelson who returned 20. On the first down, Nelson went 20 around end and failed thru line on next attempt. Edens made 10 but fumbled and Baylor recovered. On first down L. Roach made 9 around end and repeated making 12 after Short had failed at the line. Fouts made 3, and Wilson 3 at end, followed by a pass, Wilson to Roach, for 10 yards. On first down Fouts is downed for no gain, but Wilson made 10 around end. Roach made a long end run for no gain, Edens making the prettiest tackle of the game, knocking the runner out on tackle. Stangle broke up a line plunge, and after Wilson failed at end, Roach attempts a place kick and fails, giving T. C. U. the ball on their 20-yard line. Nelson and Berry made first down on two attempts. Calvert went seven thru the line, and Edens made 12 around end. Nelson made 5 at end and a pass to Nelson was broken up. Nelson swept the end for 17 yards. Berry fails thru the line and on the next play Wilson intercepted a forward pass and returned the ball 12 yards.

Reid on end around play fails, and Roach lost two yards on a fumble, and was tackled fiercely by Willie. On third down, Roach kicked 30 yards to Nelson, who fumbled and recovered and returned 5. Calvert made a thru line and two passes are broken up. Calvert kicked 20 yards to Wilson who returned 1, Stangle downed him. Baylor attempts a pass which is incomplete. Two attempts a line net as many yards when Roach 35 yards to Nelson who returns 12. Nelson made 4 on tackle brush play, followed by a 1-yard gain by Calvert. Calvert kicks 40 yards to Wilson who is downed in his tracks. Baylor makes 5 yards on pass to Reid. Roach made 7 yards at end and the quarter even up ended with the ball on T. C. U.'s 42-yard line.

When play was resumed on four attempts, Mr. Fouts placed the oval on T. C. U.'s 12-yard line. Roach made 4 at the line, and on three attempts Mr. Fouts made the first touchdown. Roach kicked goal; Baylor 7, T. C. U. 0.

Elliot received the kick-off and returned 10. Nelson made first down on three attempts. Edens stepped off 35 around end. Calvert and Nelson made 5 at the line, followed by a pass to Nelson for 7 yards. A Bear feined all-in and Baylor took the full time out. Edens failed at the line and a pass, Nelson to Edens, made 7. Edens made 7 more on a fake buck and placed the ball on Baylor's 1-yard line. Lots of excitement in the T. C. U. section. Nelson made the touchdown and Stangle kicked goal. Score, Baylor 7 T. C. U. 7.

Stangle kicked 45 yards to Wilson who fumbled and was downed by Martin. Wilson made 3 at end, and a disastrous pass of 45 yards to Reid, put the ball in dangerous territory. Three plunges at line net 45 yards and Mr. Fouts was downed on T. C. U.'s 8-yard line. In three bucks the said Mr. Theron Fouts makes the second count. Roach missed the goal. Score, Baylor 13, T. C. U. 7.

Edens received the 40-yard kick and returned the ball to mid field before being downed, Myers replaced Berry at half. Pass Edens to Nelson makes 5. Calvert followed with a 10-yard gain thru line. Two passes are broken up and Baylor holds T. C. U. for downs. On first

Woman From Canada Speaks Before Students

Mrs. Nellie McClung of Canada spoke to T. C. U. students in chapel Saturday morning. Her cause was that of suffrage for women and was impressively presented and attentively received.

In reply to the old adage, "The woman's place is the home," Mrs. McClung said that the influence of the home did not stop within its four walls.

"The causes of this readjustment we are undergoing," said Mrs. McClung, "occurred forty or fifty years ago. 'What was good enough for father and mother is good enough for me' is not a progressive thought. College men and women are debtors to the world in that they have so much more than the world has. That is why the world calls to them."

Mrs. McClung told of the present conditions in Canada due to the war. "Our universities are cleaned out. No where can you find a group of young men like this group before me. The colleges and universities are practically girls' schools." Mrs. McClung spoke of her son who is at the front. "Young men should so speak and conduct themselves and their attitude towards women should be so generous that war be made impossible," was one of Mrs. McClung's statements. She continued, "War is man's way of settling difficulties. If (Continued on page 4)

Executive Committee Will Continue the Big T. C. U. Campaign

RENEWED ENERGY WILL MARK THIS WEEK'S WORK.

Now that the Thanksgiving holidays are over, the workers in the campaign will start in again with renewed efforts to raise the total sum of $100,000 before the week's end. Several large gifts are now in sight, and other money strongholds will be attacked before the next luncheon.

W. A. Hangar, chairman, urges every worker to stick with their captains until the last dollar is raised. The students and faculty members who have been working will not be expected at the luncheons any more. The class schedule will revert back.

At Saturday's luncheon the total was $64,696.

ANOTHER OLD STUDENT DESERTS THE BACHELORS

Joe Murray, '12, known to all old T. C. U. students as "the ladies' man of the University," was married last Wednesday to Miss Grace Taylor of Dallas, Texas. The two had known each other only two months.

Mr. Murray is assistant pastor at the Central Christian Church of Dallas. T. C. U. alumni join in wishing these newlyweds a happy and "harmonious" married life.

down Myers broke up pass. Roach made 10 yards thru the line and the half was over. Score, Baylor 13, T. C. U. 7.

During the intermission both Baylor and T. C. U. make a snake dance around the field and gave yells for their team.

Stangle got two trials at at the kick-off, and failed to land the ball on the inside. Baylor took the ball on their 40-yard line. On two attempts, Roach made 8 yards and Fouts made first touchdown with a good margin. Roach and Fouts again made first down. Wilson made 2 on first down. Short went 4 and L. Roach paced 35 yards for touchdown, beautifully evading tackles and sidestepping. J. Roach missed the goal for the second time.

Myers received the 40-yard kick and returned 10. Calvert fails at the line. Edens made 9 around end. Myers failed at line. Calvert made a poor kick of 20 yards to Wilson who was downed without a gain. Fouts makes first down on two attempts. Wilson made 10 yards at end. Greines throws Wilson for a 4 yard loss. Martin broke thru and thru Wilson for a 7-yard loss. On third down, a pass to Short, made 26 yards. Wilson made 9 yards and the ball was on the 6-yard line. Wilson made first down and the ball was within 5 yards of T. C. U.'s 5-yard line with four downs to put it over. Fouts made the necessary, and Roach Roach kicked the goal. Score, Baylor 26, T. C. U. 7.

Myers received the 45-yard kick and returned 10 yards. Calvert plugged the line for 8, then lost one, and then kicked 40 yards to Short, who returns 10. Wilson made 35 yards around end. Nelson intercepts a pass for a touchback.

With the ball on his 20-yard line Edens made 9 around end and Myers made first down on cross buck. Nelson lost 2 and Myers failed at end.

A 40-yard pass to Stangle is broken up when a Baylor man knocks the ball from his hands after it was seemingly caught. Calvert kicked to Roach. Gish Martin has to leave game on account of injury. Chambers replaces him. On two bucks and a pass to Roach, who races 20 yards, Baylor made her last touchdown of the day. Roach missed goal. Baylor 32, T. C. U. 7.

Nelson let Roach's 65-yard kick-off fall behind the line and took the ball on his 20-yard line. A pass to Stangle made 20 yards. Wilson intercepts a pass and returns 16 yards. Short made 2 at the line and the quarter ended.

Crossland replaced Fouts at quarter and Fouts went to fullback. Line holds and T. C. U. received the ball. A pass to Stangle fails; Roach intercepts a pass. Crossland fails and Stangle breaks up a place kick and returns the ball 20 yards. Edens failed at end and Myers made 15 on a pass. Four passes in a row fails, and the ball goes over. Fouts made 12. MISS OPHELIA LAMBERT BACK IN UNIVERSITY

Friends of Miss Ophelia Lambert, senior, who underwent a serious operation last month, will be glad to hear that she is now back in her place among the student-body. Miss Lambert has recovered completely and is rapidly making up the time she has missed.

EDITOR HORACE JONES VISITS THE UNIVERSITY

Horace Jones, '16, last year's editor of The Skiff and at present editor of the Dallas Church World, visited old haunts during Thanksgiving and brightened things with his cheery smile and optimistic words. Jones is enthusiastic over the newspaper game, and is making success as editor of the World.

Visitor: I suppose they ask a lot for the rent of this studio?

Artist: Yes, they asked me seven times for it last week.

COLLISION DELAYS FOOTBALL SPECIALS

Several hundred people who rode street cars from T. C. U. field Thursday after the football game were from one hour and a half to two hours getting to town.

Lack of power was the cause. Some of the first cars reached the city on time, but others were marooned. Eight cars consumed one hour and a half in getting to Eighth and Pennsylvania avenues, and there they found a Summit car and a football special had collided.

The Summit avenue car was thrown across the tracks by the collision. The front ends of both cars were smashed in, but no one was injured. Twenty cars were held up here until the wreck was cleared.

Karl Broadley left Friday morning for College Station as a delegate to the Texas Older Boys' Conference which continues through until Monday. He is a delegate from the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church.

T. C. U. Vs. Baylor—From the Side Lines

By TED ROBINSON, Ad Man at Washer Bros.

I use the heading "A Great Victory" for several reasons. First—everyone connected with the school should be proud of the fact that T. C. U. scored two touchdowns against our old rivals. This feat alone is the first time that Baylor's goal line has been crossed by a Texas school in two years, and Messrs. Fouts and others had their hearts set on making the two years complete without a touchdown against them. We should be proud of our boys for accomplishing this and for holding them to as close a score as they did.

Second—We had the largest crowd that ever attended a football game in the history of Fort Worth. They were out on the T. C. U. Campus and could see what a wonderful institution we have, and we all know that the school will be greatly benefited by the advertising it derived by the number of visitors present.

Not one student should say a word against the coaches or the team for losing this game, but should look back at the glorious victories we have achieved this season and the good work done by every member of the team, and our loyal coaches. Look how long Yale worked and struggled to get a team to beat Harvard, and after years of bitter defeat at the hands of their rivals, they accomplished what they had started out to do. Let us do the same as Yale and commence at once to build our team for next year with one aim in view—to beat Baylor. With the material that Coach Daniel has on hand now, his knowledge of the game and ability to handle the players, we know that he can give T. C. U. a team next year that will crumple all opponents and come through with a glorious record.

Coach Daniel has given us a better team this year than we have had for several years and this fact should be pointed to with pride by the entire institution. Therefore, this defeat at the hands of Baylor should only be a stimulant for T. C. U. and encourage their players to look forward to next year's victories.

The thing most important to us all now is to keep "Dear Old Dan" for our coach next season and the faculty, as well as every member of the student body, should insist that he stay with us, giving us another winning team next year. I for one, as well as many more of the loyal supporters of the T. C. U. down town are with you Dan, "stronger than ever before" and are looking forward to your next year's team which we feel confident will be the champion of the state.

Mr. Cahoon should be congratulated on the condition he had the grounds and stands in, and the able manner that he handled so large a crowd. We should congratulate Mr. Higgins in selling so many tickets in advance of the game.

With such men as Mr. Daniel and Mr. Cahoon to lead our team next year, and the loyal spirit of the entire student body, I predict the most successful year for T. C. U. in athletics that she has ever had.—Advt.

THE PULPIT

Occupied by J. H. MONK

Editor "Kris" has asked that I fill this berth. It shall not be understood that I am to exercise all the many privileges of the regular pulpit. It shall be within the range of my caliber to point out—well, in just any field where folks are in the habit of ranging, just any old thing that will be refreshing to the minds of us "college-bred" boys and girls.

Perhaps you have already heard about the conversation between the old man and his college son. I refer to the old fellow who defined "college-bred" as a "four-year's" loaf. This is to remind you that you are not to expect wholly original stuff in this corner, nor wholly new stuff, either.

That further reminds me that there are no originals walking around these days. We all borrow more or less, and usually more, from the other fellow.

This should not be practiced, however (I am speaking seriously now), on examination days. Some have found, recently, by so doing, that there is an Honor System in "dear old T. C. U."

And the Honor Council has found—well, being new in this column, I had, perhaps, better not tell too many tales out of—of—the Council.

Meanness is composed of three things—vulgarity, profanity and filth. He only is mean who harbors this trio. I mean, who knows he is vulgar; who knows he is profane; who knows he is filthy, and who intends to remain so. He is a mean person.

Mankind regards all women as straight until they prove themselves to be crooks. This same mankind regards all men as crooks until they prove themselves to be straight. I am telling you IS, not WHY it is.

It is not so much what you do as what you START. Franklin started the electric dynamo and its powers with a kite and key. The cave-man started the super-dreadnaught with a hollow log. Someone started the bankruptcy of a dozen nations by killing a single worthless man. Believe me, it is not so much what you DO, as what you START.

Wherever I go over this state I find old T. C. U. students. And I have the first one yet to find where I am not more than welcome in his home, not because it is I, but because it is T. C. U.

DISCOVERIES

The Italian city of Milan has changed from gas street lighting to electricity, generating its current by Alpine waterfalls, nearly 100 miles away.

An increase in parasitical diseases among poultry and game birds in England is attributed to the distribution of dust through the air by automobiles.

A California inventor has patented a front wheel brake for automobiles that can be used without interfering with the operation of a car in any way.

Investigators have found that electricity applied to soil that has been dampened with salt water will destroy insects without injury to growing crops.

DISPLACED.

Pat, who was left-handed, was being sworn in as a witness in the West Side court of Denver, Colo.

"Hold up your right hand," said the Judge.

Up went Pat's left hand.

"Hold up your right hand," commanded the Judge, sternly.

"Shure, and I am, yer honor," declared Pat. "Me right hand's on me left side."

A TRIBUTE

Yes, we were beaten. It was not, however, a loss to be ashamed of. We met a team that had already cleaned up on State, gave them a hard fight, showed 4,000 people that we had a real team, and did something that no other team in Texas has been able to do for the last two years—cross Baylor's goal line. We not only did it once, but twice.

Our huskies were fighting for the Purple and White, and tho' defeated, they made more points against the Bears than all the rest of the T. I. A. A. teams put together.

Let us, as a student-body, give credit where credit is due. Coach Daniel has shown skill in developing and handling his men beyond all expectations, and his team has made an excellent record. The men that made up the squad not only possessed natural football ability, but also showed a willingness to fight for their 'Varsity to the last. Only two games were lost; and if the men will stick together until next year, T. C. U. is practically assured of a championship team. Ours may not be champions of the Sate, but they suit us, and here's to them.

FORT WORTH BOOSTERS

The way Fort Worth turned out Thanksgiving for the T. C. U.-Baylor battle was a credit to the city and a compliment to the University. Of the 3,500 citizens who attended the game, there were many who had never visited T. C. U. before, and these expressed themselves as being agreeably surprised at the handsome buildings and live student-body.

A great deal of the interest stirred up in the city was due to the Boosters' Club of Fort Worth, the organization of which was explained in a former issue of The Skiff. A few of these "live wires" who did everything in their power to boost T. C. U. and help make the Thanksgiving game a big success were: Ted Robinson, Turrin-tine, Hub Diggs, Reichenstein, Hopwood, Jure, Keisker, and Dr. Gumm. To these men, and many others, T. C. U. owes a debt of gratitude.

A FISH SPLUTTERS.

(With Apologies to "Zeke" in the Daily Texan.)

I'm the greenest of the fresh,
The freshest of the green;
There is nothing I don't know,
No sight I have not seen.

I've bought tickets for the play,
I've voted for an athletic field;
I've been to call on Dean
And I've heard Prof. Wilson speak.

I've gone twice to Jarvis hall,
To see the co-eds fair;
I've been to several parties,
And dragged some ladies there.

I've busted in all my courses,
I've been to all the shows,
And where my kale has gone to,
The good Lord only knows.

I've been robbed at the office,
And starved at the Caf;
I've weekly read the "Skiff,"
And rightly cursed the staff.

I've taken what was coming,
I've gotten what was due,
And now I hope I'm fit for
A student of T. C. U.

"PEACE ON EARTH"

The cornfields are ripe and the apples are red,
Full are the barn and the bin;
The herds on the prairies a numberless head,
The harvest is now gathered in.

The forest paid tribute the shop and the mine
Have gladdened the grateful heart;
The looms have been clacking, the weaving is fine,
And voices are loud in the mart.

The children are laughing and running to school,
Everywhere is the Spirit call,
Fair Science is straining to widen her rule,
The earth, sea and air to enthral.

A moment of silence—a rapturous thrill—
Let's give our thanksgiving to God,
For all these good gifts of His bounteous will
Are poured on America's soil.

But the songs fall short; tongues falter and halt.
The music is just off the key,
The harvest is wondrous, so where is the fault—
What lacks in our jubilee?

Then the soul breaks forth of that worshiping host
In Te Deum that shall not cease,
"We thank Thee, Lord, for the harvest rich, but most
For our harvest of peace."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES.

Last Sunday was the best yet. In fact, each succeeding one is the best yet. We are growing, glowing, and going, for a certainty. Such programs as the one last Sunday are enough to make everyone who comes determined to come again. We are working to win every student in the University into this society and if you are not already in you might as well join now and save yourself from being one of the last.

The topic last Sunday was "The Grace of Gratitude." Mr. Jas. Wright, our honorable postmaster was the leader.

There is a good bit of talk of an expert class lately, both among the Seniors and Intermediates. If you want in on this you had better consult the Efficiency Chairman at once. This will be a fine thing for those that have not already become experts.

In an Inner Circle, of the life-work recruits of this city, T. C. U. furnishes more than half of the members. If you are intending to do life-work of some sort for Christ, enroll now and join the class that we are organizing. It will be fine for you.

A New York broker made love to a girl and in his love letters he called her "Boo'ful Baby." His marriage to his "Boo'ful Baby" didn't materialize and she sued him for $40,000. The court gave her $25,000, all because he called her the pet name in writing. Here is a lesson for young Romeos. Be careful what you write. Better still, use the 'phone.

Library Notes

"Watch your step"—December 4-9 is GOOD BOOK WEEK. Observe the poster in T. C. U. Library.

Miss Aline Wilson, member of the Music Faculty, has donated a copy of "Cabbages and Kings" by "O. Henry," well known author and admired in Texas. It is especially appropriate that the gift should come at the time so much is being said in our newspapers and periodicals about the life of Mr. Porter. Miss Wilson averages one or more books each year for T. C. U. Library.

Prof. Crain's history classes has placed an order for the first four bound volumes of "Current History" at $2.25 per volume. We are indeed grateful for this donation, as those magazines will advance many times this price after the close of the war, if it ever does end, and perhaps then it would not be possible to purchase them.

The Oratorical Association has purchased $10 worth of books, these being material for the debate which is to be very soon. Many pertain to the Monroe Doctrine. A complete list of the books will be given later.

Dr. R. H. Gough has made his annual gift to the endowed Oratorical Library. Watch for an account of this later.

Miss Nona Bogeman has presented the Library with a Rand-McNally Atlas of the World. It was given on the day the heat was off and several were found studying it wondering where they could travel to where they could be "much heat;" another young man offered the information that there was a sale at "Woolworth's" on the said Atlases, at which one could be purchased for fifteen cents. We are glad, however, to announce that you will find this one correct.

Dr. Batson's classes have donated four copies of Kirkpatrick—"Fundamentals of Child Study"—valued at the regular price of $6. The class value is far above this amount as they are so much in demand.

Cameos are in fashion. We are showing exquisite examples of real merit and distinction at very attractive prices. Cameo Brooches from $5.00 Upwards

Jarvis Hall Notes

There are no broken hearts in Jarvis Hall over the outcome of the game. The girls are still peppy and back of the boys who have made such a splendid record of taking every game except two.

The Hall is crowded with visitors. It almost seems like two or three or four years back to go down the halls and see so many familiar faces.

Mrs. Tompkins, from Granite, Okla., arrived Tuesday for a visit with Vestal.

Mrs. Leveridge and little son from East Bernard are visiting all the Levridges.

Mrs. Clemants and daughter from Milford visited Bennie Ruth Thursday.

Doyle Tindel, from Our Lady of Victory, guest of the Callans.

Miss Kate Jackson, from Houston, guest of Miss Wilkenson.

Beatrice Rabe's brother, Mr. Rabe and little son from Galveston, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibson, from Waxahachie.

First Lawyer: You know Smithers, who was reputed so rich? Well, he died the other day and the only thing he left was a hall clock.

Second Lawyer: Well, it won't take long to wind up his estate.

and Calvert intercepts a pass and makes 1. On two complete passes to Edens, Bugs makes the second touch-down. Stangl kicks goal. Score, Baylor 32, T. C. U. 14.

Stangl kicked 40 yards to Crossland who returned 12. Roach made 32 at end. Fouts made 12 on first down. On a fumble Stangl recovers. Baylor draws the only penalty of the game for interfering with Stangl, receiving a pass, it drew 15 yards. Fouts and Crossland made first down on 3 attempts. Fouts fails to make first down on 3 attempts, and Roach kicks 40 yards to Edens who fumbles and recovers.

Edens takes a pass for 20 yards and repeats Nelson to Edens 25 yards. Wilson intercepts a pass and is downed. Roach fumbles and recovers for no gain, but makes 25 yards around end. On next play, Crossland makes 20 more. Crossland and Fouts make one each, and Crossland misses a drop kick. T. C. U. taks ball on 20-yard line, Stangl receives pass for 12 and makes 12. Pass to Wilson fails, and a second attempt to Nelson fails and time is out and the game is over. Score, Baylor 32, T. C. U. 14.

CENTRAL HIGH GIRLS GUESTS OF MISS HOLMES.

Eight girls from Central High were the guests of Bernice Holmes last Saturday night, Nov. 25. They were Misses Lois Jenkins, Amanda Davis, Evelyn Graham, Lucy Stevens, Elizabeth Jahns, Grace Fuller, Mary Edelbrock and Francis Kuykendall, all members of her class at Magnolia Avenue Sunday school. Miss Elsie McCarroll was also present. The girls seemed to enjoy meeting the students quite as much as the Kangaroo Court or the candy making, and expressed great delight over T. C. U. in general.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining them by Hope Harden, Marjorie Edgar, Elsie Baxter, Ireta Robinson and Annie McLendon. The hospitality of the dining room "management" was also much appreciated.

KANGAROO COURT IN JARVIS HALL.

Eye witnesses confessed the prisoner broke the lavatory when she sat upon it. After the prosecuting attorney made her final plea, all eyes were turned to the prisoner. The silence of the court room was broken only by an occasional sob of the mother, Gertrude Davis.

The prisoner was—but at this point Mary Hull rushed into the court room and confessed that she broke the lavatory of room 220 on the said date, Nov. 11.

Judge Tyler Wilkenson adjourned court.
