THE SUMMER NORMAL

SUMMER NORMAL

The purpose of the summer normal is to offer assistance to such persons as may wish to prepare to pass an examination for any grade of State certificate, or to raise any certificate to the next higher grade, or to such persons as may desire to make better preparation for teaching some particular branch or branches.

The Summer Normal Institute to be held at Texas Christian University this summer promises to be one of the best in the State. It will extend eight weeks, beginning June 4, and closing July 26. An opportunity will be given to take both series of examinations.

One of the first essentials for a successful normal school is a strong faculty and this we believe we have.

The conductor this year will be Dr. W. H. Batson, who holds a Ph. D. degree from Michigan University and has had a number of years experience as superintendent of public schools in Ohio. He is at present head of the Educational Department of Texas Christian University.

Another strong man on the summer faculty will be Superintendent G. T. Bludworth of Tarrant County. Mr. Bludworth has had a number of years experience in educational work from every point of view. He taught three years in the Fort Worth city schools, was three years superintendent of the schools of Italy, was six years president of Grapevine College, and two years president of Meridian College, and has been during the past three years one of the most successful county superintendents in the State.

A third teacher in the normal will be Superintendent A. V. Byrd of Mansfield. Mr. Byrd is a University of Texas man and has had fifteen years experience in teaching. He is well known in this part of the State as a very successful normal school teacher.

Another strong teacher will be Prof. Charles H. Roberts, who is at present Principal of the Academy of Texas Christian University. Mr. Roberts holds a master's degree and has had also a wide experience as a school man. He has been principal and superintendent of high schools, and for six years was professor of History in Central State Normal School of Oklahoma. His "History of Oklahoma" is now the adopted text-book in that State.

Prof. W. L. Russell of the Mathematics Department of Central High School, Fort Worth, will also have a place on the faculty. He has degrees of B. S. and A. B. from Baylor University, and has had a number of years successful experience. He was superintendent of Zenus, Joshua and Burleson for several years and during

NOTED LECTURER BROUGHT HERE BY ORATORICAL ASS'N

Head of Cumnock School of Oratory
Will Speak at T. C. U. Tuesday Evening.

Ralph Dennis, acting director of Northwestern University School of Oratory, and one of the most noted lecturers of the East, will appear in the T. C. U. Auditorium next Tuesday evening, March 13th, at 8 p. m.

Mr. Dennis is a man of unusual platform power, and has created a profound impression wherever he has lectured. This is his first visit to the South on a lecture tour, and Texas Christian University and Fort Worth are indeed fortunate in having such a man as Mr. Dennis to lecture here.

The lectures of this man are pronounced by leading critics to be both inspiring and highly entertaining. Professor Dennis has had experience as a teacher, business man, traveler, and student, and out of his wanderings, his unceasing observation and study, his association as boy and man with "just folks," has grown his excellent and intensely human lecture-recital. A glimpse of the ability of this man may be grasped from the fact that he is at present acting director of the School of Oratory of North-

GLEE CLUB SINGS AT TEXAS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Each Number Enthusiastically Encored; Club Was in Laughing Mood.

The Glee Club, Orchestra and Hawaiian quintet, quartet and accompanying soloists, gave a concert last Saturday evening in the Texas Woman's College Auditorium. The Glee Club gave a performance quite similar to the one they gave here in the T. C. U. Auditorium several weeks ago, which was somewhat in the nature of a comedy as well as artistic performance.

The crowd, when they left T. C. U., were feeling good, "rearing to go," so to speak, and after facing the falling snow, reached the college full of "pep." Private side-show performances on the wing of the stage before the concert put everybody in a good humor, and when the opening march was played everybody was smiling, and they kept smiling or laughing throughout the concert. The drummer, when he wasn't bass, otherwise withdrew to the side wing and went through a series of comic stunts which kept everyone in the club laughing. After the quartet sang six or eight times, they returned again for an encore song, and the four shook hands with each other, which created more

CONCERT BAND-STAND NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

Handsome Structure will be in Front of Main Building.

In front of the main building, there is now being constructed a handsome and substantial concrete band stand. Mr. F. M. Cahoon, head of the Fine Arts Department, started taking pledges last summer to build this band stand in honor of Professor W. T. Hammer, a man who gave the better part of his life to unselfish service for T. C. U. Although only a part of the $500 necessary for this memorial has been pledged, Mr. Cahoon feels that former friends of Professor Hammer and the students of T. C. U. will appreciate the appropriateness of such a memorial, and realize the need of a band stand, and that they will contribute enough to cover the deficit. Professor Hammer was connected with T. C. U. for about eighteen years, and during that time took a great interest in musical activities of the University. He was director of the Glee Club and a member of the T. C. U. quartet for many years. Last year's Glee Club recognizes the work of this man by heading the subscription list with $75.

Several styles of memorials were considered; it was decided, however, that nothing could be more fitting,

LOCAL PRESS CLUB WILL BE HOSTS TO STATE ASSOCIATION AT ELABORATE BANQUET

Will be Biggest Social Affair of Year;
Three Delegates from Each College.

One of the most elaborate and exclusive social occasions of the year will take place in the Westbrook Hotel on the 7th of April, not quite a month from now. This is the Annual Texas Intercollegiate Press Association banquet.

T. C. U. has the privilege of entertaining this State Press Club only once in every seven years, and every effort will be made by the local Press Club and the authorities of the University to make this banquet equal—or even surpass—all previous banquets. This Texas Press Association is composed of seven of the leading colleges and universities of the State and each of these educational institutions will send representatives to T. C. U. They will be the guests of the local Press Club and of T. C. U. for two days, and it is the one big opportunity of the students and faculty to show the other colleges the real true hospitality of T. C. U. and of Fort Worth.

Preparations will begin at once for

LIBRARY.

During the past few years Texas Christian University has greatly increased its library facilities. The total number of books in the library to date is 12,941. More than 3,000 volumes were added last year. Ninety-five magazines and periodicals and five daily newspapers are received. The library will be open during the entire term for the use of summer school and summer normal students.

PRESIDENT OF TEXAS U. ADDRESSES STUDENT BODY.

President Vinson, of the University of Texas, held the students with an inspiring address last Saturday morning. The address was interesting, uplifting and educational, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the entire student body.

FINE ARTS

During the regular school year the College of Fine Arts is composed of the Conservatory of Music, the School of Oratory and the School of Painting and Drawing. It is esteemed no less important to provide an art atmosphere and to impart a culture in the arts than to give instruction in literature and science. The aim of this work is a real and earnest education rather than a mere commercial venture. Texas Christian University is not a private college, run for commercial gain, but a philanthropic effort to inspire and direct genius to noble endeavor and so to make a genuine contribution to the happiness of mankind. With such a purpose the University seeks to provide the best possible equipment and the most competent teachers available at the least possible cost to the student.—(From College Bulletin.)

This summer two of the regular teachers from the Conservatory of Music will offer work during the summer school.

The Piano Department will be under the direction of Miss Aline Wilson. Miss Wilson is a former pupil and assistant of the late Rafael Joseffy; her teaching experience has been both extended and successful. Especial attention will be given those desiring to make a profession of teaching and teachers wishing to do additional work.

C LARK SOCIETY
Pro and Con on Feminism

It will be remembered that the Woman's Peace Party, at a meeting in Washington in December, passed a resolution recommending that the next inaugural ceremony "instead of being a military pageant, represent the civic, social, educational, individual, artistic and religious interests of the country." It was Christ-like for the women to think of this, and maybe in four years more it can be accomplished. We are with the Woman's Peace Party for the high ideals which they are endeavoring to set up before the young people of our country.

Miss Jennie Shane, who has just reached 21 years of age, has been admitted to practice law in Massachusetts.

Girl Scouts wearing their military uniforms played an important part in the presidential inaugural parade.

"It is a long way from the early steamboat days when Umatilla was the distributing point for all inland points of Eastern Oregon and Idaho, and the days of the wild Indians and the cowboys, to the socalled 'petticoat government,' but we are here, nevertheless, so let us all pull together for the improvement of what is left of the once famous city.' Such was the closing statement in the inaugural address of Mrs. Laura J. Starcher, when she took her seat as Mayor of Umatilla, Oregon, with her women co-workers. Mrs. Starcher defeated her own husband for re-election as mayor and we understand they are still happily married.

In recognition of her wonderful work in connection with a field hospital at Verdun, Miss Girard-Mangin has been made a colonel in the French army.

Miss Jeanette Rankin, "The Lady from Montana," who is the first woman to be elected to Congress, has engaged as her private secretary Miss Jane Fligelman. Miss Fligelman, who is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, was her campaign manager and probably did more than any one else to bring about her election.

An overwhelming majority of the bar council voted in London January 18 against admitting women to practice in the English law courts.

A blanket tax, providing free admission to athletic and oratorical contests and a subscription to the Lariat, will probably be adopted.

The Fish president was stolen early in the evening of the Freshman reception, taken to Moody, escaped during the street carnival, and drove 20 miles at breakneck speed, joining his classmates for the closing moments of the social evening.

The Press Club voted to send at least one delegate to the T. I. P. A. meet at T. C. U. in April.

The newly organized Choral Club of 80 voices is working on the Commencement program. Prof. Eggert is directing.

Simmons.

The basketball season was closed by taking two straights from Baylor.

Five members were admitted to the Press Club at a recent meeting.

Students celebrated their Baylor victory by "pulling" a shirt-tail parade. They were guests of the Gem and Queen Theaters and were given free transportation back to the campus by the Street Railway Company.

Rice Institute. President Dabney of the U. of Cincinnati, spoke Friday.

Rice students enjoyed a holiday Washington's Birthday.

Emil Della Valle, of Bridgeport, Conn., husky guard of this year's Cagers, was unanimously chosen to head the team next year.

S. M. U.

An inter-class basketball tournament is being arranged. The Fish are the strongest bidders.

This year's basketball team has only one defeat to its credit. Among the teams taken into camp was Oklahoma.

Domestic Science, by a vote of the faculty, has been fully accredited.

Chicago. A Tau Kappa Epsilon charter has been secured for a local frat. chapter.

Texas. The Fish-Soph pushball contest was unusual in that no bones were broken.

The committee was unable to secure a rope strong and long enough for the Fish-Soph tug-of-war.

Gillis Johnson, Fort Worth boy, friend of many T. C. U. students, referred the Pushball contest. "Pig" umpired.

The basketball used in the last game has been placed in Director Bellmont's office, a championship relic.

WALTONS.

The Waltons enjoyed an educational program Monday evening. Papers on the West Indies were read by Ora Leveridge, Mary Melton and Pauline Allen. The program closed with a reading by Gertrude Davies.

The following officers were elected: Mary Strange, president; Bernice Ruth Clements, vice president; Mary Melton, secretary; Elizabeth Sheeburne, treasurer; Mary Hull, first critic; Nina Phillips, second critic.

C. U. S. S. E. S.

Many moons ago, C. U. S. S. E. S. were entertained with a studio party by Mr. "Ham." Soft Hawaiian music and low lights added to the pleasure of each "Cuss," which pleasure reached the climax when Mr. "Ham," ably assisted by Mr. Doering, "masculinely" served a dainty, three-course supper. Miss Christine Naylor was the guest of honor.

western University. This is probably the greatest school of oratory in the United States, and for the last few decades has been directed by the great orator and teacher, Dr. Robert Cumnock. Dr. Cumnock is the compiler of the text-book in oratory now used in T. C. U. and many other universities of the country. Our own oratory instructors, Miss Leila Long Powell and Miss Tessie Ferne Mosey, are both graduates of this school of oratory. They have heard Mr. Dennis, and have been active in bringing him here.

This accomplished speaker is being brought to T. C. U. by the Oratorical Association, who feel that the bigness of the man and the fitness of his message justifies the Association in spending quite a large sum in order that the students of T. C. U. and the citizens of Fort Worth might hear and enjoy him. His subject will probably be, "The Heroic in Common Lives." Dr. Cumnock says of him, "His material is new and impressive—always alive—and this, coupled with his impelling personality and a keen dramatic instinct, makes him a powerful reader and speaker." Of the above lecture, Ernest Wray O'Neal of Chicago, says, "He reverses the old proverb, and shows us that much that does not glitter is really gold. We are held under his spell from the beginning to the end."

T. C. U. students will be admitted by their season tickets. Citizens of Fort Worth may enjoy the lecture for fifty cents, and students of Central High, North High, and Bryant School will be admitted for thirty-five cents. Texas Woman's College students are also invited to take advantage of the student rate.

This chance to hear a really big lecturer from the East is a rare treat, and no student of T. C. U. should allow it to slip by without taking advantage of it.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
WELL REPRESENTED IN THE HIGH SCHOOLS.

A bulletin recently issued by the State Department of Education shows that Texas Christian University is well represented in the High Schools of the State. There are at present sixty-six of the ex-students or graduates of T. C. U. teaching in these schools, some of them holding very responsible positions.

An analysis of these positions shows that there are eleven superintendents, twelve principals, eight history, seven foreign language, six mathematics and six science teachers. The others have other subjects or teach a combination of subjects.

The range of salary for these teachers is from $3,500 to $560, with an average of $1,116.

This of course represents only a small part of the work that T. C. U. is doing as a teacher-training institution. A much larger number of our students are teaching in the elementary schools, many of them being ward principals and supervisors of instruction.

COURSE IN PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC.

A course in Public School Music will be offered by Mr. Hamilton. It will be taught in class, meeting twice a week for hour lessons. This course will be designed to give practical preparation for those who expect to supervise music in Texas grades and high schools. It will embrace the fundamental notation, harmony, ear-training, sight-singing, and the principles of interpretation. A minimum of six applicants will be necessary to ensure this course being given. Mr. Hamilton will also offer courses in private harmony and voice, giving two private half-hour lessons a week. Terms for these courses will be announced in the summer school bulletin. Mr. Hamilton has had extensive preparation for his work, being not only a college graduate but also having finished collegiate courses in both piano and voice at the Monmouth College Conservatory, and having spent five summers in graduate work under private teachers in Chicago. He has had six years of experience in teaching these subjects. Mr. Hamilton is expecting to continue his studies in New York next year, specializing in musical composition at Columbia University, with the intention of taking the Master's Degree with that subject as a major, so these summer courses are the last he will offer in T. C. U. for the present, at least.

There is still one regular teacher to be selected and several strong superintendents are under consideration.

The teacher of Primary Methods this year will be Miss Inna Kuykendall of Fort Worth. Miss Kuykendall obtained her training in Kenyon Normal where she was under the direction of a Columbia University graduate. She has since taken work in Chicago University. Those who take this work under Miss Kuykendall may feel sure they are getting the best obtainable along this line.

The above corps of teachers for a Normal Institute will not be excelled anywhere in the State and those who plan to do this work this year in Texas Christian University may assure themselves that their time and money will be well spent.

the banquet. Big newspaper men of the city will be invited to appear on the program, and a most entertaining and beneficial program will be arranged.

The time for the young men of the Press Club to make their dates is here. Some of the prettiest young ladies will be reserved for the young men from the other colleges. The officers of the local Press Club feel certain that each and every student of T. C. U. will gladly co-operate to make these visitors enjoy their visit, and leave after the Convention and banquet with a good taste for T. C. U. in their mouths. Due to the fact that there will be quite a number of out-of-town guests, only a limited number may attend the banquet from here. However, arrangements will be made for the membership of the Press Club and also representatives from the different departments of the University.

Although the affair will be formal, the cost of the plates and flowers is to be limited to a very reasonable amount.

CYRIL MAUDE IN "GRUMPY."

At the Majestic theater on next Monday, matinee and night, Cyril Maude, one of the foremost actors of the English stage and now securely fixed in the regard of the theater patrons of this country, will be seen for the first time in this city. He will appear in the title role of the four-act play "Grumpy," which has proven the chiefest success of his notable career and one that is probably the most talked about now before the American public. The comedy was written by Chicago, where he did the piece for Horace Hodges and T. Wigley Perceval and has to its credit an entire star and play have the unusual distinction of having scored a second London success, at the New Theater, that even the unsettled conditions that marked the commencement of the European war, could not interfere with, for "Grumpy" played to capacity business all through the first months of the conflict, and was not withdrawn until it was time for Mr. Maude to sail for America to fill his contracts in Boston and New York triumph, last year, at the Empire Theater.

Following the engagement here Monday night and Tuesday, Cyril Maude will be in Dallas at the Opera House. The entire lower floor of 700 seats has been taken by the students of Dallas University.
