ANNUAL FACULTY TAKEOFF IS SCREAMING HOWLING SUCCESS

Prof. Mocked to a Finish—Waits, Grubbs and McPherson Star.

Wednesday night the greatest comedy ever presented to T. C. U. students was staged by the Senior class. Those impersonating the various Profs. had studied their mannerisms for months and it is rumored that the majority of the Faculty will reform as a result of seeing themselves—(you know). The first act was a chapel exercise with the Faculty solemnly seated on the rostrum. President Waits announced a song and Shockley (Elliot) led "Pray for the Lights to Go Out," the Faculty joining in the chorus. After the song, Prexy Waits (Jones) introduced Hon. Grubbs (Thornton), who proposed several questions—"Why does grass make hair grow on a cow's back and feathers on a goose's back?" After an hour's discourse, the Prexy stopped the speaker and explained that the students were to have exams, the next hour, and it could not be encroached upon. The Prexy, poetically commented on the Grubbs speech. Bro. McPherson (Sturgeon) announced that this sermon building class would meet and that all students

D. O. A. MEDICS GATHER AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Prominent Physicians Are Principal Speakers at Feast.

Forty-five medics attended the Delta Omicron Alpha seven-course banquet at the Westbrook Wednesday night. Dr. R. H. Gough was toastmaster of the festivities.

Principal speakers and their topics were: Dr. G. W. Day, national president, "The Doctor and the Army;" Dr. C. P. Brewer, "Medical Education;" Dr. D. L. Lattimore.

A number of the Deltas from Dallas attended. Music was furnished by an orchestra under the direction of Harry Lattson, Medic.

PRESIDENT HAS LENGTHY ITENERARY.

President Waits has delivered commencement addresses to high schools at Milford, Seymour and Grandview, and will pursue the following itenary, delivering commencement addresses at each place:

Durant, 20th; Midland, 22nd; Decatur, 25th; Roxton, 27th; North Side, June 3rd; Mount Calvin, May 19.

It is good that so many young people can come in touch with our President and can hear these inspiring and uplifting addresses.

WEAVER DELIVERS ADDRESS.

Chancellor C. S. Weaver will deliver the commencement address of the Center High School Sunday.

MUSIC NOTES.

Miss Katherine Bailey of Dallas, a pianist of unusual distinction, is to appear in recital at the University Auditorium Monday evening, under the auspices of the Music Study Club for the benefit of the Hamner Memorial Band Stand. She is a successful young musician whose work has been favorably commented upon by critics from coast to coast. Her program follows:

Thirty-two Variations in C Minor—Beethoven.

MEN DRILL HARD AT LEON SPRINGS

Organization Complete and Uniformed Men Trolling.

Skiff correspondents at Leon Springs report plenty of work, grub and sleep. The first few days the men were in camp a heavy downpour was experienced, but almost all recruits, most of them still in citizens clothes, braved the rain and mud and bore the discomfort stolidly.

The full organization of the division has been completed. Between 2500 and 3000 men are being used in the daily maneuvers.

Ten hours a day is spent in good hard drilling, and if work will make a soldier these men will be veterans by the time the camp is over.

All those desiring to write the boys may reach them by addressing letters to Training Camp, Leon Springs, Texas.

LAWS TO TAKE STATE EXAMS. IN JULY

A class is being conducted by Prof. Rouer each night from 7:30 to 8:30 in which several Laws are being prepared to take the State exams for admission to the bar, which will be held in Fort Worth next July.

Those in the class are Judge Raley, Jesse Martin, Lee Willie, C. B. Gunter, J. E. Baldwin, L. L. Cronkite.

A deposit of ten dollars is required of those who take the test, which is composed of a series of fourteen examinations. It will require several days to complete the quiz.

GOODE HALL BOARDING CLUB DISCONTINUED

The Goode Hall Club has discontinued its operation after a period of four years of partial success. The failure of the club was due to the fact that there were five helpers employed and only five boarders.

MARY ELIZABETH WAITS IN HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

The Central High School Seniors are rehearsing Edith Ellis' comedy, "Contrary Mary." Mary Elizabeth Waits, daughter of our own President Waits, interprets one of the leading character roles. The play is under the direction of Miss Powell, the principal of our Oratory Department, and will be presented at the Majestic Theater Tuesday evening, June 5th.

GLENN HUTTON APPEARS IN SPLENDID RECITAL

Large Audience Demands Many Encores from Gifted Tenor.

Mr. Glen Hutton, tenor, pupil of Helen Fouts Cahoon, gave a program of unusual attractiveness Tuesday night at the University Auditorium. Mr. Hutton possesses a tenor voice of much beauty and good range, and was heard in songs that were of an appealing character. After each group he was compelled to respond to encores and at the close of the program he was paid the remarkable compliment of an audience that made no move to leave the building until still another encore was added. That he was able to present such a program in so finished a way speaks volumes for Mrs. Cahoon, with whom he has studied during the past two years. Much of the success of the evening was also due to Guy Richardson Pitner, the accompanist, who is recognized widely as being one of the ranking accompanists of the Southwest. One of Mr. Pitner's songs, "Two Roses," was on the program, and its repetition was demanded.

Mr. Hutton has really set a mark to which later pupils in the institution may attain only by superior talent and strenuous training. In shading, enunciation and reposefulness, he exceeds the usual standard for undergraduate recitals.

CLINTON LOCKHART HEADS NEW FACULTY

Several New Names Appear on Roll. Some Profs. Away on Leaves of Absence.

Professor Clinton Lockhart will succeed W. B. Parks as dean of the Faculty of T. C. U., according to the new catalogue.

Among the new names that appear are those of Jno. R. McClung, chemistry; Walter Bryson, English; Miss Annie Nunn, history; Miss Vesta Buford, domestic science; Miss Lucile Coffman, academy Latin and Math.

Mrs. Hortense F. Winton is the instructor in household biology.

Professors Crain and Cantrell will take charge of Carr-Burdette College.

ORATORY RECITALS CLOSE AT HAND

Programs of Universal Merit Close School Year.

A large crowd attended the first of a series of oratory commencement recitals Friday evening, May 18, when Miss Leila Long Powell, principal of the School of Oratory, presented three Seniors—Misses Erskine Lonfi, Masal Jeffries and Ruby Walker.

Miss Long gave her audience an impulse, "I Am Master of My Fate; I Am Captain of My Soul," in her reading of "O'Brien's Kite," an inspirational selection by Anne Story Allen.

Miss Jeffers exhibited unusual power of characterization in her interpretation of the broad humor of "The Parson's Conversion," by W. H. H. Murray.

Miss Walker touched the heart strings of her hearers with Richard Harding Davis' "An Unfinished Story." Friday evening, May 25th, Misses Roberta Scott and Mollie Montgomery and Mr. W. L. Thornton will appear.

Mr. Alden Evans, a graduate, will not be heard, since he is attending the Officers Training Camp at Leon Springs.

Saturday evening, June 2nd, Miss Buena Lindsay, a post-graduate, will give her interpretation of Charles Rann Kennedy's "The Servant in the House."

INEZ HUDGINS IN GRADUATE RECITAL

Gifted Young Pianist Delights Large Audience.

Inez Hudgins, graduating in piano under the tutelage of Carl Doering, played her program last Friday night. Miss Hudgins has already achieved an enviable reputation in the University as a pianist and accompanist of unusual facility and talent, so it was to be expected that her graduating recital would be of more than ordinary merit. Miss Hudgins has two assets not always found in one pianist, namely, strength and dexterity, and these, with her sensitive feeling for fine distinctions in tone quality, well fit her to interpret such a representative program as she undertook—a program, by the way, which might well strike terror to the heart of a much more routine player than herself, ending as it did with the ambitious Theme and Variations of Glazounow.

With the exception of a few minor and almost unnoticeable lapses of memory, she maintained a high standard of performance throughout the evening. Her playing of the Variations mentioned above really requires special mention. They are among the most beautiful as well as most difficult of modern variations, and were played in a manner that reflects much credit on her instructor as well as on herself. The usual floral offerings were much in evidence.

Ruth Martin, Jewell Lindley and Carrie Crisp attended the Doctors' Association in Dallas last week.

CERTIFICATION WORK AT TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

BARBER PLEASSED WITH BUSINESS PROSPECTS

Universities Are Logical Places for Schools of Business.

My association as principal of T. C. U. College of Business for nearly one school year has been one of my happiest years, both socially and in a business way. During this time I have learned, in a general way, a great deal of the work being done by each department of the University; but, most of all, I trust that I have gotten the institution's perspective. With a clear view of the University's line of direction, and a fair understanding of the forces that are molding its policies and its ideals, I can better appreciate its resplendent future and its historic past. Its flag floats over the most loyal student body that has ever breathed a college air.

It is my purpose in these few lines to speak of the College of Business. For many years the University has had a business college department. From it have graduated some of the most progressive business men of the South. There are a very few of the leading universities but what have their schols of commerce. These departments are demanded by the fact that more than 60% of the students engage in business after leaving the school.

The present management of the College of Business is reorganizing the courses of study and outlining a new and more progressive policy for its future. Its curriculum will be more comprehensive, consistent with new and improved methods, offering a unit of training that will command attractive rewards in the world of commerce and industry.

Business training courses have been discontinued by many secondary business colleges attempting to guarantee positions, graduating their students within so many weeks, selling unlimited scholarships, etc. These three things T. C. U. College of Business denounces as being inconsistent with a dignified school policy.

The universities of our land are the logical places for our schools of business. It is there only that the future business men of our country can go and prepare themselves for business careers, and, at the same time, breathe that wholesome atmosphere of university life. Such men, when they go out into the business world, will have a broader vision of the future, and will give more generously to endow higher educational institutions.

The young men and young women who desire through business training, and who want to receive, upon graduation, diplomas that can always be looked to with increasing pride, let them enroll with some of our higher institutions of learning that have schools of business, where they are given not only superior academic training in business, but where they can mix and mingle with hundreds of college students and take advantage of the opportunities offered by other departments.

To those expecting to enter business schools next September, T. C. U. College of Business offers a course of training not excelled anywhere in the South. A circular giving a synopsis of all courses of study will be furnished upon application.

Respectfully,
H. L. BARBER,
Principal T. C. U. College of Business.

PROSPECTS FOR SUMMER SCHOOL PROMISING

Judging from present indications, the prospects are that this summer will show the largest attendance at T. C. U. that it has had in its history. Last summer there were almost two hundred and fifty enrolled in the regular work. With the addition of the Normal students it is likely that the summer attendance will be double what it was last year. The number of requests for information and bulletins are more than double what they were at this time last year. All those who are planning to take work this summer will find an excellent corps of teachers and plenty of people to make things interesting.

Unusual Advantages Offered in Securing Certificates of All Grades.

The increasing insistence on the part of superintendents and school boards that teachers improve or raise their certificates has recently led to many inquiries as to the methods by which certificates may be raised.

Texas Christian University offers opportunities for all classes of certification work and a few words as to how the various State certificates may be obtained seems peculiarly apropos at this time.

The normal school to be held this summer from June 4th to July 12th or July 26th, will accord an opportunity to work for either the second grade, first grade, permanent primary or permanent certificate. The second grade certificate may be obtained by passing examination in the following subjects: Spelling, reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography, Texas history, elementary physiology and hygiene, school management and methods of teaching, United States history and elementary agriculture.

Those holding a second grade certificate may build to a first grade certificate by passing the examination in

WILSON SUBMITS RESEARCH QUESTIONS

All Students Asked to Answer Research Questions.

The results of the present investigation are of such importance as to enlist the co-operation of all students and teachers, and can only be obtained by the help of all. Only when a large number of reports have been tabulated will the results be of great value as a scientific work. All students and teachers are earnestly requested to take a few minutes of time and write out your answers to the questions below and hand to your teacher or to the undersigned. Do this at once, before you forget it. Call the attention of others to it also:

1. State your sex if you do not give your name. What was your early religious environment, in home, Sunday School, church, etc? Give age at that time.

2. Do you remember any child interest in religion, such as "playing" church, Sunday School, etc? Give age at that time.

3. Describe any early religious experiences, such as profession in a revival, or desire to join the church before you did. Give age at that time.

4. Describe the circumstances, influences, motives, etc., of your "conversion," profession, confirmation, or joining the church. Was it in a revival? Give age at that time.

5. What changes resulted from your conversion or joining the church, such as change of habits, church activities, etc?

6. Was there later any decline of religious interest or activity, or "backsliding" in your experience? Give circumstances and age.

7. Are you now a member of the church? Is your membership active?

8. If not a member of the church, could you give any hindrances or difficulties that stood in the way.

Uncle Sam complied with our suggestion of last week concerning the curtailing of the supply of grain used in the making of intoxicating liquors. We felt sure that this was only a question of time, and it was a noble stroke that cut grain, molasses, etc., out of the booze menu. America is awake.

The little white slaver has done devilish work among us this year. We have waged perpetual warfare against the cigarette, and will continue to do so. We wonder just what part the little slaver will play at Leon Springs. It will find many new recruits and will lose very few old ones from its ranks. We are hoping that our boys will play the game clean, for there are more football games, basketball contests, and track meets, ahead of us, and our life should be one continuous period of training. Leave 'em alone, boys.

Now is the time to plan for next year. Begin now to play those football games, deliver orations, lead Y meetings, and pass in your courses, and keep it up all summer, and you will come back with the battle half won next fall.

Are you a chosen one who has not paid his or her Skiff subscription yet? We hear enough conscription and no subscription these days. Please see the editor and hand him that dollar, as there are some obligations we must meet before the end of the school year. Thank you!

J. H. Leveridge left Saturday night for the Officers Reserve Training Camp at Leon Springs. Heywood was a late applicant and was one of those eliminated on account of insufficient quarters, though since new provisions have been made he has been recalled.

Mr. Stevenson of Lorraine, Texas, while on his way to the Officers Reserve Training Camp at Leon Springs, visited Miss Elsie Carson Sunday.

EXCEPTIONAL WORK AT TEXAS CH. UNIVERSITY

English composition, civil government, algebra, physical geography, elements of geometry and general history.

Those holding a second grade certificate may build to a permanent primary certificate by passing the examination in civil government, English composition, physical geography, history of education, elementary psychology, English and American literature.

Those holding a permanent primary certificate may build to a State permanent certificate by passing the examination in algebra, physics, elementary geometry, general history, chemistry, solid geometry, plane trigonometry, elementary double-entry bookkeeping.

Those holding a State first grade certificate may build to State permanent primary certificate by passing the examination in the history of education, elementary psychology, English and American literature.

Those holding a first grade certificate may build to a State permanent certificate by passing the examination in history of education, psychology, English and American literature, chemistry, solid geometry, physics, plane trigonometry, elementary double entry bookkeeping.

There will be two Normal school examinations, the first series will be held on July 9, 10, 11 and 12; the second series on July 23, 24, 25 and 26th.

In addition to the opportunities for obtaining and improving certificates through the Normal school process it is possible to obtain a first grade certificate by completing four regular courses in the College of Arts and Sciences and one course in the Department of Education. A course is defined by the Department of Education as one hundred and eight recitation hours, which being interpreted, means three hours a week for thirty-six weeks, or its equivalent.

The permanent certificate may be obtained by completing the work for an A. B. degree, including in this work four regular courses in the Department of Education.

The summer school, which will be in session at the same time as the Normal school, will offer an opportunity for those who wish to improve their certificates by regular college work to do so.

Plans are also being made for next year to accommodate the teachers who wish to prepare to take an examination in any of the subjects required for a permanent certificate. When the number of teachers is sufficient to justify it, classes will be organized and given at such times as will meet the convenience of those desiring the work. Thus those who commence the work in the summer may be able to continue their work during the regular school year while they are teaching. In this way, in a short while, teachers will be able to do the work that would otherwise require them to take a year off.

For announcement of the Summer Normal and Summer School, address W. H. Batson, Texas Christian University.

should bring hammers and saws for good construction work. Dr. Cockrell (Jesse Martin) announced the triangular debate and Crain (Arnsperger) urged all students to pay up their flag subscriptions. Wilson (Stallings) lamented on the Store evil, and Prof. Winton (Dutton) made bold to correct an author who stated that a cat had four legs.

Mr. Durrett (Ben Edwards) asked that all lights in Clark Hall be out by 9:30, and chapel ended.

The second act was a Faculty meet. The first question raised was the one of graduating the Seniors that they might go to Leon Springs. Prof. Winton (Dutton) was in favor of the resolution as the Seniors were not needed around T. C. U. anyway and also that they would live only 28 days in service and therefore their deficiencies would never be known to the world in general. Crain (Arnsperger) gesticulating wildly, said that he knew Seniors were leaving in order to get their degrees and that there were some in his classes who could not possibly make their courses.

The conduct of Clark Hall inmates was discussed and Dean Parks (Higgins) expressed himself as being in favor of canning the whole bunch of varmint, who had treated him disrespectfully. Proctor Anthony (E. B. Sewell) said he could not explain the motives of the boys, as he knew they all loved him.

More privileges for the Fish and Sophs were discussed. Miss Tyler (Inez Hudgins) was opposed to granting any, but Mrs. Johnson (Elsie Baxter) was in favor of it. Dean Parks was opposed, as was McPherson, who stated that he knew 95%

Just as soon as we get the vote.

Tinkle for the suffragette,
And you bet that we will get
Votes for women pretty soon—
We are striving for that boon.

"Votes for Women" is our cry,
In the "wet" and in the "dry;"
Women's rights will win the day,
And all the men will vote our way.
—E. M. B.

LIBRARY NOTES.

The Modern Poetry Class, under Prof. T. V. Smith, has donated several copies of the works of the following poets: Masfield, Yeats and Noyes. All are new volumes and total $16.75. For which we sincerely thank both Mr. Smith and his class.
The remainder of the magazines sent to the bindery are now on the shelves. More than 200 volumes have been bound since September, 1916. We now have access to more than 800 bound volumes.

"The last four volumes of "The New International Encyclopedia," which completes the set for the Second Edition, have been received, and can be used in Brite Bible College Library.
Broughton, The British Empire Builder at War, London, 1916, is our latest War book.
"The Information Annual," 1916, bound volume, is now in the reference section. For current events of 1916 this volume can well supply your need.

The library is in need of several copies of this year's catalog—1916-1917.
Mr. Reeder has kindly offered his very beautiful geranium for library use. He said it was a case of selfishness for one man to enjoy all those lovely blooms. We are also indebted to Mrs. Sargent for the lovely cut flowers placed so often on the library desk.
Mr. Karl Broadley has been bringing many papers to the library this week. Among them "Houston Post,"

"Collier's Weekly," etc. We always appreciate any paper, magazine or pamphlet, for some use can be found for them.

Texas Christian University Library has been recently mentioned in "The Library Journal" of New York, and "Texas Libraries," our own State publication.

We have now 13,160 volumes in the library; 6,659 are exclusive government publications; 381 volumes have been added since January.

The Girls' Glee Club sang in chapel Wednesday morning, making what is probably their last appearance for the year. They sang a group consisting of Woodman's "Ashes of Roses," Shelley's "Coppah Moon," and "One I Love," from "Bluebeard." They were enthusiastically received.
