WHAT OTHERS THINK OF OUR FOOTBALL TEAM

We feel that every student in the University is proud of the record that has been made this year by the football team. We think that we have a right to feel proud. Never in the history of the institution has any T. C. U. student body had better cause to have lots of pep and enthusiasm over the prospects for the Thanksgiving game than is the case this year. Out of the seven games that have been played this year, the Christians have won five. The first game to be lost by them was the game which was played with the Rice Owls, and which was played on the Rice field in Houston, which gave the Owls a decided advantage. In view of this fact, the T. C. U. boys still feel that they could beat the Rice team if the game were to be played on their own, or even on neutral territory. However, it was no disgrace to be beaten by the Rice team, in as much as this team is now well in the running for State championship.

The other game which was lost by the Christians was the battle between them and the undefeated Second Texas Infantry team. In this game, the Christians were playing against a team which has been undefeated during the last two years. Besides this, the Army team is made up of college and university stars, who were so much superior to the T. C. U. boys in weight that it looked like an impossibility for the Christians to even check them. However, the gritty little eleven showed the much touted army team things about football that they had not thought of in many a day. Everyone who witnessed the battle were ready to say that the doughboys were indeed lucky to come out with the heavy end of the 14-7 score.

The other teams which have been played by the Christians this year have all gone down in defeat before their speed and grit. These teams were Meridian College, 133rd Artillery team from Camp Bowie, Southern Methodist University, Southwestern University, and Trinity University.

Even though we are enthusiastic about the record which this team has made this year, we feel that its merit has not been overestimated. The different papers over the State speak of the T. C. U. team as the wonder eleven of the season, and say that Coach Daniel has worked a marvel in putting out such a team with absolutely new material.

The following excerpts are taken from the Houston Post, and will serve to let the students know what the people outside of the University think of our team.

Owls and Christians Have Sprung Wonder Work of Texas Gridiron Season—Three Teams After Title.
(By Grady Triplett)

For surprises in the Lone Star football circuit look to the Owls and the Christians. The Rice team is yet to be put out of the running for State honors, while the T. C. U. eleven seems sure of leading the second division clubs. Of course, there is the showing of Texas that might be taken as a surprise. But backward acts are the common thing this year. It is the up grade stuff that comes as a surprise in this year of football.

To be sure, the whole gridiron season in Texas might be taken as a surprise. It is much better than was expected. But the teams that have come to the front and just now stand out as the sensations are the Owls and the Christians.

Nothing but a defeat Thanksgiving-at the hands of the Aggies can put the Owls out of the running. The Rice team is nearer than ever before to a State championship. The Christians have no hope for a title. But it is the wonder team of the State. Milton Daniels has built a team with fewer veterans than any other team of the State.

Daniels Had Different Troubles at Fort Worth

While other coaches were using the nights of mid-September to make plans for using the few veterans the war had left to the cause of football, Milton Daniels, head coach of the Christians, was bothered with no such planning. Daniels had troubles entirely his own. There were no veterans in the Christian camp. That the Horned Frogs have come to the

FORMER T. C. U. MEN PLAY ON ALL-STAR CAMP TRAVIS FOOTBALL TEAM

Roy Wright Spends Short Time in T. C. U.—Bill Berry Has Broken Nose in Football Practice.

There are four men in the all-star football team which represents the Camp Travis Division of the army, who are former students of T. C. U. and who gained a large amount of their football experience in this institution. These men are:

Roy Wright, Bill Berry, Jack Childress and Harry Bradford.

This Division team was in Waco during the latter part of last week and the first of this week for the purpose of playing the picked team which represents the Division of the army encamped at Waco.

While they were in Waco, some of the boys took the opportunity to pay a visit to Fort Worth and to their old friends and schoolmates in T. C. U. Roy Wright was in Fort Worth all day Saturday, and after talking over old times with a number of the old students, Saturday morning he went out to Panther Park to see the game between the Christians and the Second Texas Infantry team. He was much pleased with the way the T. C. U. boys held the undefeated soldier team.

Roy reported that all the boys in his company, who are from T. C. U., are doing fine, and that they sent their best regards to all the old students, and also their congratulations for the wonderful success which is being had in all lines of activity this year, and especially in football circles.

Bill Berry is now laid up in the hospital for a short time with a broken nose, which he sustained while scrimmaging on the football team. It is thought that he will not be able to be in the game again this year. However, his condition is not serious, and he will probably be up and around as usual and as good as ever in a few days. The

POPULAR T. C. U. GRADUATES TO WED

There is to be a wedding on Monday night, November 20, which will make even the most unromantic person smile in quiet satisfaction and sympathy, because it is the termination of a very sweet romance. The marriage to be is that of Miss Monette Whaley of Wheatland and Mr. Homer Tomlinson of Hillsboro. T. C. U. feels that she has a very definite claim on both of them. In 1916 Miss Whaley was a piano graduate of Mr. Lewis Casperson; and in 1917 she was a post-graduate pupil of Carl Rupp Doering. Mr. Tomlinson received his A. B. in June, 1917, and has since then been connected with The Dallas Christian World, and The Fort Worth Tribune.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Claudia West, 3913 Rawlins Street, Dallas, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Colby D. Hall will officiate with the ring ceremony. The maid of honor will be Miss Elizabeth Martin of Dallas, who was Miss Whaley's room mate at Texas Presbyterian College. Mr. Horace Jones, a 1916 graduate of T. C. U., and a business partner of Mr. Tomlinson's, will be best man. The other attendants are Miss Ruby Douglas, Miss Anna Jo Pendleton, Mr. Roy Tomlinson and Mr. Loraine Dutton, all of T. C. U. Miss Hattie West of Cleburne will sing, accompanied by Miss Gladys Richards, who will also play the wedding march.

The color scheme is to be a very significant one. The bride will wear white georgette and silver, the maid of honor will also wear white; and Miss Douglas, Miss Richards and Miss Pendleton will wear purple.

Truly it is to be a beautiful occasion—this supreme reward of a true love, permeated with the atmosphere of our much loved purple and white, with which their romance is inseparably associated.

Texas Christian University wishes them all that they could possibly wish for themselves, and most of all that they may grow in their understanding of each other.

T. C. U. ELEVEN GIVE ALL-STAR ARMY TEAM HARD BATTLE

T. C. U. was defeated but by one of the best teams in the Southwest last Saturday afternoon at Panther Park when they met the all star team of the United States Army, the One Hundred and Forty-First Infantry.

This team was the undefeated Second Texas Infantry two years previous to this year. At the beginning of the game they were wholly confident of a 30-0 score in their favor, but they were rather surprised when they found out that T. C. U.'s back field could carry the ball a little better than they expected.

It was worth the price of admission alone to see Miller run with the ball. Every time he got it he usually went for a large gain. No one seemed to know how he got through so many tackles before he was downed, and before the game was over everyone realized that it took five or six men to stop him. T. C. U. is proud of their quarterback and is expecting him to figure largely in the Baylor game.

The other stars of the game were Lockman, Sharp, Myers, Pringing and Martin.

Twice during the first quarter T. C. U. came near scoring before the Sammys could realize what they had struck, but both times lost the ball on incomplete forward passes. Most of the forward passes were failures on the part of T. C. U., while the army boys could handle the ball with ease, and one of the touchdowns of the Sammys was made on a long forward pass.

It was not the over-confidence of the army men that came very near losing the game for them, but the good playing of the T. C. U. men and the superior coaching that the gray clad warriors had received.

This game, which was witnessed by a large crowd, proved that T. C. U. had one of the pluckiest teams in the Southwest and that they were

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SETS THE DATES FOR ORATORICAL CONTEST

The Executive Committee for the Oratorical Association met last Friday and set the dates for the different oratorical contests of the year.

The following is the report which this committee has to make to the T. C. U. students:

December 7, 1917, Old Men's Contest. First place receives $15 and second place receives $10.

January 25, 1918, Preliminary to the Triangular Debate, $15 each for the four best men who will be selected for the team.

February 28, New Men's Declamation Contest. First place $10, second place $5.

March 4, Preliminary to the Prohibition Contest. There is only one prize offered in this preliminary contest, and that is $10 to the winner of first place.

April 14, Preliminary to the State Oratorical Contest. Winner of first place receives $25 gold medal and $10 in cash, the second place receives $15 in cash.

May 5, Add-Ran-Shirley Debate, $25 to the winning team.

June 3, Reed Oratorical Contest. In this contest the winner of first place receives a $60 watch, which is presented by Mr. Reed of Beaumont.

Many of the men have been looking forward to this announcement of the dates for the different contests of the year. There also are many men in the University who will be glad to know some more of the particulars regarding eligibility for these contests. For the benefit of this last class the following explanations will be given. If there are other questions concerning the contests, they may be presented to Mr. Floyd Sweet, who is president of the Association for this year, and who will be in a position to answer any questions concerning the different contests.

SUBSCRIBE FOR YOUR HORNED FROG AT ONCE

The announcement was made in chapel a few days ago, regarding The Horned Frog. After Dr. Cockrell had placed the book before the new students, Mr. Floyd Sweet made an announcement in regard to the cost of the annual for the ensuing year. The price of this year's book is $2.50 for the picture work and the engraving. The last payment of $3.50 is the cost of the book, so if your picture does not occur in the book it will cost $3.50. This price of the book seems high at first thought, but if one will observe the raise in prices of everything else he can readily see the cause of the extra dollar. The Horned Frog is not a money making scheme. It is a book that is written by the Senior class representative of the student body, and the Seniors just hope to come out about even on it. For the last few years the Horned Frog has been put out at an actual loss to the Senior class. With a hundred per cent increase in the cost of leather, and a somewhat proportionate increase in the cost of printers ink, etc., it is very doubtful whether they will come out even this year or not.

The pictures for The Horned Frog will absolutely have to be made two weeks before Christmas so they can be turned in to the engraver. The class has a contract with the Bryant Studio, 507½ Main Street, to do all the photography work. So get your receipt now at the Business Office, from Judge Raley or Floyd Sweet, and have your picture in this year's Frog.

Everybody is able to buy this book the way the payments are divided. You can't afford to spend a year in college and then leave without a complete record of what you and your friends did there. Years after you wouldn't sell the book at any price. You will see the faces of your classroom acquaintances, your professors, and last of all, the faces of those brave and patriotic young men who have offered their services and their life to their country in this hour of her national peril. You will see John Nelson, Willis McGregor, Gayle Scott, Charles Christenberry, Tom Paul Sweeney, Gus Pattison, Herbert Bozeman, and many others of those old students. This book is going to be our war annual and it is up to the student body of Texas Christian University as to how big, and how good a year book we will be able to produce. So don't put it off any longer, but get immediately and get a receipt to have your picture made and which stands as the first payment on the Horned Frog.

BETA PHI CLUB INITIATES TWO NEW MEMBERS

Last Friday night, the Beta Phi Club introduced two new members into the presence of their membership. These two members, Mr. Howard S. Vaughn and Mr. Jewell N. Baldwin, were ushered into the club after having duly shown their desire to be a member of the organization by demonstrations of all kinds, which were suggested to them by the members of the club.

After being duly accepted into the club and after having received all the rights and privileges extended to them, as members, the two men were treated to an informal feast by the older members, in William Jones' room.

While all were being served with the splendid refreshments which had been provided by the older members, many things of interest to the members were discussed, and when it was time for the meeting to be adjourned all were ready to say that the time had been profitably spent and that the prospects for the future were very bright.

This club is planning to do a great many things this year which will not only be a pleasure to themselves but will be for the betterment of T. C. U.

Grace Douglas and Hallie McClung spent the week end at their homes in Cleburne.

Gladys Walker, June Rhodes and Sybil Black spent the week end at C. I. A. in Denton.

Nannie Carter spent the week end at T. W. C.

ABE AND GENE

Eugene E. Schmitz was the notorious mayor of the city of San Francisco ten years ago. He was elected by the votes of organized labor and the yet more notorious Abe Ruff was the power behind the Schmitz throne.

Then came the prosecution of the loud smelling San Francisco graft cases and the clean up of the city that boasted that it was the Paris of America.

Abe Ruff was sent to San Quentin for a term of years, became a penitent and a prison exhorter and won the sympathy of the maudlin people of California. They in turn won for the king of the grafters a pardon.

Schmitz did not go over the road. He won his case on an appeal to the State court of last resort. Then he subsided. On November 6 the former mayor was elected a member of the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco. He won by a sweeping majority. Now he is to be a candidate for mayor in the year 1919.

Deacon Abe Ruff, since his liberation from San Quentin, has lived in a modest way as becometh a fallen chief who traveled the primrose path of dalliance, fell over the brink, saw that there was a chance for repentance at the eleventh hour played the game and won the friendship, or rather the pity, of those who insist "that to err is human, to forgive is divine."

He isn't seeking vindication. All he asks is to be let alone. By thrifty practices and financial shrewdness, he accumulated a snug fortune in the days of his wanton wickedness. This he planted, according to the newspapers of California, where robbers could not find it or rust disfigure the coin.

Now he is warning young men to beware of the pitfalls of politics, the strong arm methods of political stragglers, the corrupt methods of men higher up, the lure of the yellow metal, and—if a man happens to be poor, very poor and gingerly honest—the final fate that overtakes a patriot who floats with the tide of least resistance.

Ruff made his imprisonment a martyrdom. Then he used his stripes as a stepping stone to higher things.

Caesar divided Gaul into three parts. Ruff failed to divide Gaul when he was the invisible monarch of the Golden Gate city. He left it intact and christened it Schmitz.

CHRISTIANS LEAVE FOR SHERMAN FRIDAY MORNING

Purple and White Warriors Will Battle with Kangaroos Friday Afternoon

The only game remaining between the Christians and the Baylor Bears on Turkey Day, is the game with the Kangaroos, which will be played on the Kangaroo field, in Sherman, on Friday afternoon.

The T. C. U. team will leave the University early Friday morning for Sherman. The Purple and White men will go against the Sherman aggregation in a fairly good condition. Although several of the men sustained slight injuries in the game last Saturday with the Second Texas Infantry they will be in fairly good condition this week.

Lockman, who has been troubled with a bad ankle, will probably be totally well by that time and will be back in the game in old time form. Miller, the wizard quarterback, will be able to start the game and will be in first class condition. Prinzing, who has been suffering from the ankle which was sprained in the game last Saturday, will also be able to appear in the line up at his regular position. All the other men will be in first class shape to give the Sherman boys a good battle on their home lot.

As far as dope goes, there will be little comparison between the respective strength of the two teams. The Austin College team has had a very bad season, and have formed the habit of losing, while the Fort Worth boys have formed a decided habit in the other direction. However, Coach Daniel is not taking any chances with the Kangaroos, and is putting the boys through hard practice the same as if this were the hardest game of the season.

After this game Friday, there will be nothing between the Christians and the Baylor Bears. This game, which will be played in Fort Worth on Turkey Day, is the game toward which Coach Daniel has been working the whole year. The Bears won the State championship last year, and were deprived of that honor the year before only because they played some ineligible men, and not because they failed to win their games.

This year the Bears begun the season with more old men back in the line up than any other school in the State. They have lost only one game this season, A. & M. beating them by a score of 7-0.

MISS DEPLANTER SPEAKS ON FOOD CONSERVATION

Miss Deplanter Speaks to Students as a Representative of the Government

The students were treated to something out of the ordinary and also something that was both interesting and instructive, when Miss Deplanter, one of the Government representatives, spoke at the Friday morning chapel hour, on the conservation of food.

The address was out of the ordinary in that it came from a woman and was presented in a most forceful way, from the woman's standpoint as well as from the standpoint of those who sit down and figure these things out from a strictly mathematical point of view. The facts which were handled in a most interesting manner, were highly instructive.

In speaking of what the United States Government means by conservation of food, Miss Deplanter explained that conservation means simply saving, and does not mean that anyone is to be underfed, or that the Government wishes any of its citizens to deprive themselves of the absolute necessities of life. The Government is anxious at this time, above all other times, that the citizens and the people keep themselves in a physical state of preparedness. In order to do this, everyone must have the proper amount of food.

However, an over amount of food is as bad for the physical condition as an under amount.

In asking that the people of the United States conserve their food supplies, the Government is only asking that the people do not waste what they have, that they do not over eat, and that they make some substitutions in their regular diet.

There are some of the staple foods which can be shipped to our hungry neighbors much better than others. The Government is asking that the people substitute other foods for these as far as it is possible to do so, and leave a larger portion of this food to be shipped out to the places where they are needed most.

The four "staples" which may be most conveniently shipped to Europe are wheat, meats, sugar and fats. There are many other foods which have the same nutriment and food value, but which cannot be shipped. These latter foods should be substituted by the American people, as much as possible, in order that the four "staples" may be shipped out to the European countries in larger quantities.

Miss Deplanter called the attention to the great need for these foods in the European countries, by telling of some of the conditions that exist there, and of the amount of each of these necessities, received by each of the French soldiers each day. She stated that the French soldier receives one-eighth of a pound of flour per day, one ounce of sugar per day, and meat only once every week, and sometimes not that often.

Again, the condition of these countries was vividly pictured when the French women were pictured as cultivating the fields, and furnishing not only the man power and woman power of the nation's affairs, but also the horse power, in order that the men might be at the front fighting their battles.

In the face of all of these facts, the request that the American people conserve their food supply, takes on a different aspect. It seems that that everyone should be willing to make some kind of a small sacrifice, in their own personal comfort, in order that those who are much more unfortunate than themselves may have the absolute necessities of life.

Miss Deplanter suggested to the students that there were a number of ways in which they might "do their bit" in helping in this movement. It was suggested that the habit of eating between meals might be curtailed to such an extent that it would not only be a great saving in food, but would improve the

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SET DATES FOR ORATORICAL CONTEST

The first contest of the year, The Old Men's Contest, is open to only those men who have participated in some kind of a final oratorical contest in T. C. U. in the past.

The second contest, The Triangular Debate, is open to all; any man in the University is eligible to enter this contest and make a fight for a place on the team. It matters not whether he has ever been in a contest in T. C. U. or anywhere else, the only thing that counts is that the contestant produce "the goods."

The third contest of the year, The New Men's Declamation Contest, is open to new men only. That is, no man who has ever participated in a final contest in the University will be eligible to enter. This makes it possible that the new men may be able to compete with those on an equal basis with themselves, as far as experience is concerned, in this University. In this contest the speeches, used by the contestants, will not be written by themselves, but will be selections from other orators. The grading will be on delivery alone.

The prohibition contest will be open to all students in the University, both young ladies and young men. The orations must be written by the contestants themselves, and the grading will be on both composition and thought, and delivery. The winner of this contest, which is only a preliminary contest, will be the one to represent the University in the Inter-Collegiate Prohibition Contest.

The Preliminary to the State Oratorical Contest will also be open to every member of the student body. In this contest the orations must be original and the contestant is judged on thought and delivery, although there will not be required to be submitted any manuscripts.

In the Add-Ran-Shirley Debate, only members of the two societies are eligible. The members on the two teams are selected by their respective societies.

The last contest of the year, the Reed Oratorical Contest, is open to all the students in the University. The orations must be original, and will be judged the same as in the Preliminary to the State Oratorical Contest.

This is quite a good oratorical schedule, and one which affords every member of the student body an opportunity to get some real experience in public speaking. There is a great deal of good material in school this year, among both the old and the new students, and it is expected that the contests will be on a very high plane.

In the last few years, T. C. U. has stood high in oratorical circles, in the State. We cannot afford to let this reputation be lessened by a single fraction this year.

The best way to insure that the University will be well represented is for every man who feels that he has the least bit of ability to come out for some of these contests. In so doing he will not only be doing his University a service, but he will get much real good out of the experience individually.

It matters not in what occupation or profession the University man expects to spend his life, he will be a better man in his profession, if he is able to express himself in public. Now is the time for these University men to get their experience. This is the object of these contests. Therefore let every man in the University consider these contests seriously, and when the time comes for these contests, be on hand, fighting for the honors and the prizes which are offered. In this way every contest will be a warm one and a better University spirit may be generated, to say nothing of the real material benefit to be derived.

might show a spirit of co-operation by refraining from making unnecessary complaints.

All the suggestions which were made were absolutely practical, and could not help having their weight in the minds and consequently the actions of everyone who heard them.

The people of this country are just now beginning to realize that we are really at war and that there is resting on everyone the duty of making some kind of sacrifices, in order to relieve the suffering of those who are bearing the brunt of the struggle.

Miss Deplanter is only one of a large number of speakers, who have been employed by the Government to speak to audiences all over the country in behalf of this conservation movement. These speakers are doing a great good and are making the people feel, as individuals, their responsibility in this movement. This is the only effective method of obtaining this end, and is also the most expedient.

We feel sure that all who heard Miss Deplanter have at least given this question some deep thought since then and many have begun to practice food conservation.

BETA PHI CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH CHICKEN SUPPER

The Beta Phi Club added another enjoyable affair to their list when they entertained some of the co-eds from Jarvis Hall, Monday night, with a fried chicken supper.

The entire party left the University about 6 o'clock and hiked to the river, where fuel had been gathered by the boys in preparation for the big bonfire they were to have while they were to enjoy the repast.

The entire lunch had been planned by the members of the Beta Phi Club, and the girls were not allowed to even have a hand in the making of the excellent camp-fire coffee which was a surprise to all, because of its excellent flavor.

Every members of the club was responsible for some part of the "feed." Shorty Vaughn made himself famous by telling the young ladies that he had cooked a cake, and then producing one of the best angel food cakes that has ever been seen in captivity within the confines of T. C. U. The two chickens which had been fried by the joint efforts of Jesse Martin, Jewell Baldwin and John Sturgeon, were sufficient to make the most efficient cook turn green with envy.

William Jones, who took charge of the serving of the meal, proved himself to be equal to the occasion in more ways than one.

After having fully observed the rules of food conservation and food preservation by cleaning up the last particle of food, and after letting the large campfire burn low, the party returned to the University by way of Ford's store, this being the last stopping place before returning the girls to Jarvis Hall.

The guests of the club were: Misses Ruby Douglas, Carrie Crisp, Lena Stafford, Ruby Parks and Lucile Routh.

Mary Strange and Elizabeth Elliott spent several days at Waco.

Ruth Martin spent the week end at Jacksboro.

Avondell Bacon spent several days last week at her home in Abilene.

SENIOR BOYS WEAR SWAGGER STICKS

It has been a custom for many years in T. C. U. that the members of the Senior Class shall wear something that shall distinguish them, in appearance, from the other students in the University. Last year the thing that was adopted as the distinguishing mark for the Senior was a walking cane. This year it was felt that a swagger stick might better indicate the standing of the Senior than the more clumsy walking cane. Another thing that was taken into consideration was the fact that the swagger stick was a little later fad than the walking cane and therefore might be a little more appropriate than the oddity of last year.

The young men in the Senior Class made their first appearance, in public, with their swagger sticks, last Saturday afternoon, when the T. C. U. football team matched its speed and grit against the weight and brawn of the much touted Second Texas Infantry team.

There are sixteen men in the Senior Class, and it is needless to say that they make quite a splendid appearance when they wear the swaggers in a body.

There have already been found many uses for these little swaggers. Some use them for pointers, others lend them to their girls, and still others find them very convenient in furnishing something to do for their hands when they find themselves in an embarrassing situation.

When it is remembered that these men have not had their new possessions but one week, it may be readily seen that they are doing right well. Another virtue of the Seniors' custom is that it makes the underclassmen look forward to the time when they may be able to do something of this kind.

This is a custom in almost all universities. Almost every univer-

WHAT OTHERS THINK OF OUR FOOTBALL TEAM

front and defeated the Pirates, the Mustangs and the Tigers is enough to put the Christian team out as another surprise of the year.

Daniels lost his first game to the Owls, a team that certainly had the call to win. But a look at the line-up that day showed that the war game had hit the Christian camp harder than any other in the State. Not a star of last year remained. Only one man, Jesse Martin, could be called a first string man from the Christians of the previous year.

Gone were Edens and Nelson, whom the State had no better pair of backs a year ago. Both Stangl and Vaughn were missing. It is doubtful if any team was better equipped with ends. Certainly Stangl was the best man of the Texas elevens. He came near to being a universal choice for the mythical all-State eleven. Veterans of the line were likewise gone.

One day convinced Daniels that he must build a new team. He has done it. That he lost to the Owls is no discredit. In fact the green Christian team put up a more than creditable showing against the team that has come to furnish the surprise at the top of the list, as the Christians are a notch lower.

The schedule should give the Christians but one more test, and that will be with Baylor Thanksgiving. It will be too much to hope for a victory over the strong Bear tribe. But it may come as another surprise that the Christians will make a showing much better than the hope would have it.

FORMER T. C. U. MEN PLAY ON ALL-STAR CAMP TRAVIS FOOTBALL TEAM

only thing that will be denied him is the pleasure of getting back in the game this season.

While Roy Wright was here in the University he told of some very interesting things concerning his work as a member of the Ambulance Corps, and of the many odd and funny things that were done by some of the men when they first arrived in camp. It is a real regret that it is impossible to publish here just how some of their actions were described. They were extremely ludicrous and would have put to shame many of the funny tales of the actions of the far-famed "Fish" in the University. These things show one of the sides of the soldier's life and proves that while there is a great deal of the unpleasant that falls to his lot, he has his share of fun, pretty much the same as a student in one of our universities.

going to show up in great form in the future.

The stars for the army were Edens, Clark and Gray. Edens, who was an old T. C. U. man last year, and the best quarterback that T. C. U. ever had, with one exception, made some wonderful gains and was the cause of the two touchdowns that the army boys made. He ploughed the line almost at will until the T. C. U. boys braced up and stopped the slaughter.

The game opened promptly at 3:15. Army chose to kick and booted the ball to T. C. U.'s fifteen yard line. After carrying the ball out of dangerous territory, T. C. U. was unable to gain and punted thirty yards. It looked like for a while that the army boys were going to score but were finally held and punted to Miller who returned fifteen. Here T. C. U. tightened up and carried the ball for some large gains. Graves goes three yards through the center and Miller goes ten yards around right end. The next down Miller dropped the ball and lost eleven yards, but at the same time army was penalized ten yards. Miller goes to quarterback and Lockman goes to fullback. Lockman tries several line plunges but fails to gain any territory. The ball goes over to army who made fifteen yards before they could be stopped, but were finally forced to give up the ball. At the first down Lockman went ten yards. Miller goes through the line for five yards. Lockman lost eight yards and was disabled, but got back into the game. T. C. U. lost the ball on an uncompleted forward pass, on army's ten yard line. Here the army boys began their terrific line plunges and marched down the field, one, nine, seven, two, three, six and eight yards before they could be stopped. Haley goes in at fullback in place of Gray. Here a forward pass was tried but it fell into the waiting arms of Graves of T. C. U. who carried it back eight yards.

Second Quarter

Again it looked like T. C. U. was going to score. Lockman went five yards, Miller went four. A pass to Myers. Miller went eight, Lockman nine, Martin eight. Another pass failed and after losing five yards T. C. U. punted and downed an army man on army's twenty yard line. This time they were not so successful in their line plunges and were forced to punt. Miller got the ball and returned five yards. Graves goes three, and Miller loses three. Another pass fell into the arms of an army man. Here the ball traded hands three successive times because of fumbles, but finally the ball was in T. C. U.'s possession. Twice again passes fail and T. C. U. punts twenty yards to an army man who returns twenty. Army was held for downs and punted forty yards to Miller, who returned twenty. For the first time T. C. U. completed a forward pass. T. C. U. was held for downs and punted, but recovered the ball.

Third Quarter

T. C. U. kicks to army. Again the army boys started off down the field in consecutive runs of eight, four, three, two, eight, three, seven, two, five, eight, two and three yards. These gains put the ball on T. C. U. two yard line. Edens goes through the line for a touchdown. Kendrick's kicks goal. Army kicks forty yards to Lockman, who drops the ball. Once more the Sammies started down the field but a forward pass fell into the hands of a T. C. U. man. T. C. U. failed to make the necessary gains and the army boys started off once more. A forward pass to Kendrick for twenty yards gave them another touchdown.

Army kicks to Lockman, who returns ten yards. Here Miller made a twenty yard run. Lockman goes two and a pass to Miller, who ran 20 yards, netted T. C. U. its first touchdown. During the remainder of the third quarter the ball was in the center of the field. Once when army punted forty yards Miller returned forty-five.

Fourth Quarter

In the first part of this quarter the ball stayed very near the center of the field, but during the last part army started off with their drives once more, but were unable to score before the quarter ended. During this quarter Martin was knocked out and was unable to play the whole game.

The game ended with the ball in army's possession on T. C. U.'s two yard line.
