THE BACKBONE OF THE SCHOOL

DR. LOCKHART PAYS TRIBUTE TO MR. GIBSON

Rarely does any college have a more faithful friend and trustee than T. C. U. had in the person of C. W. Gibson, who passed away last week. For more than fifteen years of crisis and solicitude, when debts outreached all apparent resources, when fire put the institution out of house and home and when change of location involved the university in almost every conceivable embarrassment, Mr. Gibson willingly accepted tasks of inconceivable responsibility and at great sacrifice to himself and his business, helped to bring the school through all its troubles to its present prosperity.

In 1906, when many supposed that the university's assets besides grounds, buildings and contents were sufficient to cancel its indebtedness, a careful audit of accounts showed its liabilities to exceed $63,000.00 and a large part of its resources to be worthless paper. In those days debts were hard to lift, and that was a discouraging hour. Mr. Gibson with a few others endangered their personal fortunes to secure loans and save the credit of the college.

By 1910, when the fire occurred, the debts had been reduced by more than half, but the fire insurance just barely paid it off. Then came the problem of rebuilding with virtually nothing in hand. It was then that the heroism and steadfastness of Mr. Gibson and his almost daily companion, Mr. Tomlinson, shone out. They almost forsook their business and their families to make scores of trips to Dallas and Fort Worth, during months of time, to find a location and secure means of reconstruction.

In the erection of new buildings, debts piled higher than ever, and nothing but faith in God and in the Christian people of Texas emboldened these men again to take great financial risks to keep the institution again off the rocks of disaster.

During all this Mr. Gibson kept himself familiar with the financial details of the university, and became the most trusted adviser in all its business policies. How much T. C. U. owes to the diligence and constancy of this man, can never be told.

His similar service for his state church paper, for the State Missionary Society, for his home church and other similar enterprises, may be written by others. Such a life ought to be a great example to the young people in T. C. U., and ought to mark a path to usefulness and honor to be followed by many a student in college today.

CLINTON LOCKHART.

Hard Luck.—Last week a farmer started to cross a street in Bonham. Just as he reached the middle of the street he noticed that he was about to be run over by four cars, all coming from different directions. To avoid the collision, he thought that he would jump straight up. But just over his head he heard an aeroplane. So he jerked off the lid of a manhole, jumped in, and was run over and killed by a subway.

SENIOR SHOW MADE BIG HIT FRIDAY NIGHT

(By Dewey Watson.)

On Friday evening in the auditorium, T. C. U. was favored with a vaudeville troupe of all-star cast hailing from one of our metropolises. The Majestic was under the auspices of the Senior Class and due appreciation is accorded Miss Gertrude Davies, Business Manager, and her assistants for making it such an enjoyable occasion. Mr. Uniacke, Musical Director, ably furnished the music. As is customary, peanut and popcorn vendors were on hand plying their trade. The large and appreciative audience called forth the greatest histrionic ability.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the curtain rose on "The 1920 Revue." There were a bevy of charming girls, who delighted us in song, story and dance. Osburne and McConnell, in "Jazzers' Jazz," proved themselves exponents of Jazzland. McConnell skillfully developed jazz from five different instruments, ably accompanied on the piano by Miss Osburne. From the realm of jazz we were transported to the esthetic in "A Dash of Harmony." Both Mlle. Bigham and M. Turner showed themselves masters of their art. Each was received with equal acclaim and figured successively in the limelight.

Prof. Van Camp in the "Lightning Artist Act," expertly caricatured familiar persons and current events. But, in closing his illustrated song, "Old Kentucky Home," introduced a note of pathos. Messrs. Dulin and Douglas in the clever playlet, "Pipe Dreams," established their fame as noted pseudo-tragedians. So effective was their acting that one sensed the tragedy of reality in their wild flights of imagination. The Waddell Twins in their "Tunes" presented an original act—especially favoring distinguished individuals here about school. Mary or Margaret, which-be-which, gave an excellent impersonation of Mme. Petrova. They also sang and gave a very dainty little dance, which was one of the most attractive features. Misses Maurine Reagan, Louise Wright, Leta Cheyney and Ella Norene O'Neill appeared creditably in a one-act comedy, "Joint Owners in Spain." The scene was laid in an Old Women's Home and had principally to do with two cantankerous old women who, confined to the same room, found themselves unable to get along until a line of chalk made a partition between their rooms. Red Dulin, a comedian of the first order, furnished "A Bit o' Nonsense" in a spicy act of jokes and fun. Something different was offered in "Moonbeams," in which Miss Beatrix Bibson appeared. The scene was laid in a forest where an Indian maid was seated by her campfire weaving a rug. She sang in her sweet soprano voice the Indian songs, "Moon Dear" and "Land of the Blue Sky Water."

The whole bill was exceptionally good and all present pronounced it a huge success.

DR. COCKRELL, LAWS' FATHER, IS SOPH PROF

(By Everett Billingsley.)

Dr. Cockrell, Father of the Law Department at Texas Christian University. This title has certainly been well earned by Dr. Cockrell, because if it had not been for his perspective, his farsightedness and his initiative the T. C. U. Law Department would be unknown.

Through his ceaseless endeavors and his unquenchable faith in his project the Law Department has grown from a handful of students to a number nearly reaching one hundred.

Dr. Cockrell's goal has been to have as good, if not a better, law department as there is in the state. His hopes have now been realized. Last year Dr. Cockrell presented a bill to the legislature asking that the T. C. U. Law Department be put on an equal footing with the Law Department of Texas University. And needless to say, through the justness of the bill, his untiring efforts and his irresistible personality the bill was passed.

Dr. Cockrell is not only loved for what he has accomplished with the Law Department, but also for his ability as a teacher. If students taking courses under him attend classes regularly and listen to his patient and enlightening lectures, they cannot help but absorb a complete understanding of the course. Dr. Cockrell's prowess as a speaker is undisputed and the students are always glad to hear a word from him, whether it be on the chapel platform or elsewhere.

The Sophomore Class is indeed pleased with their selection of Dr. Cockrell as their class professor, and feel that they could not have selected a better liked or a more brilliant man.

MISS RUTH BENNETT, PRINCESS TO STOCK SHOW PAGEANT.

Last Thursday evening a meeting of the girls was called for the purpose of electing a Princess to the Pageant at the opening of the Stock Show, March 6th.

Miss Ruth Bennett of Decatur was elected to this honor. Ruth is one of the most popular young ladies of the University, and T. C. U. was proud of their representative. The Princess wore a short white satin frock, with heavy sequin trimmings, and long court train of rose metal cloth hanging from Elizabethan Court collar of white metal cloth.

She was accompanied by her Knight, Mr. Carl Slay.

This is the first time in several years T. C. U. has been represented in the Stock Show Kermis.

Did you know that we have a "widow" in our midst? Well, we have. Can you guess who it is?

ONE OF PROF. HALL'S EXAM. QUESTIONS.

What caused the trouble in the Garden of Eden?

Answer of a brilliant Fish: A "green pair."

FROGS BOUND TO DO THINGS IN BASEBALL

(By Parks Stovall.)

The baseball team at the present looks far better than last year's team, and as good as any T. C. U. ever had. The men are rounding into shape very fast now, as the time for the opening game approaches.

There have been several changes made, which we believe to be for the better. Douglass has been shifted to second base, leaving the bulk of the catching to Berry. McDaniel is holding down the initial sack in a very creditable manner. Douglass, Barger and Stovall are at second. Douglass is by far the best of the lot, being a cool, heady player, as well as a dangerous hitter. McKown, a last year's man, is snatching them over on the hot corner. He has no competition at all. Mc's hitting is better than it was last year. At short we have Fowler and McRae. Fowler, with a little more coaching, will make a wonderful infielder. His hitting lately has been mighty good. In the outfield we find three veterans in Prinzing, Haden and Haire. This will make the strongest combination of outfielders in the state both in hitting and fielding. Each of these men hit over .300 in the past year. This is their third year on the team. In the box we have a strong combination, four all told—Haire, Gans, Donahue and Rutherford. Haire will not pitch much unless in case of necessity, as he is needed in the outfield. Donahue and Rutherford will do most of the pitching. Gans is a good man, but a little young, and needs more developing. In another year he should be going great.

Last, but not least, our baseball club is coached by "Kid" Nance. Mr. Nance is a wonderful fellow. He knows baseball, and can tell it to you. Taking everything into consideration, we have the prospects of a great season.

PRESENTATION OF FOOTBALL SWEATERS.

The long delayed football sweaters have arrived and were presented to ten of the letter men Friday morning. Lots of "pep" and enthusiasm on the part of the student body was displayed.

The warriors marched up on the platform, and there Prof. McDiarmid, offering a few personal remarks of praise for each, presented Captain Acker, Bradford, Henry, Rutherford, Wilson, Mayo, Spiller, Ogan, Smithy and Fowler with beautiful white sweaters with a purple T and a purple woven stripe on the left sleeve for each year they have made the team.

Several were awarded sweaters who were not here at that time—Haden, Hoosier, Cunningham and Newman.

T. C. U. is proud of her 1919 team and is glad to award them for their loyalty and fine sportsmanship with gold footballs and sweaters.

George Ashworth of Eddy visited in Waxahachie via Fort Worth last week.

FIRST TRACK ENCOUNTER TO BE SATURDAY

(By Edwin Kane)

The Relay Meet with Baylor University at the Stock Show Saturday, March 13, at 4 P. M., will open the track season for T. C. U. for 1920. This meet will consist of three major events—the mile relay, the two-mile relay and the four-mile relay—and several minor events such as the shot put, the high and broad jumps, and possibly the pole vault. These latter events are here termed minor inasmuch as they will not count in this particular meet, which is strictly for relay events.

This Relay Meet will introduce the second track season that T. C. U. has ever managed. Last year a small number of track enthusiasts determined to organize a team which might arouse greater interest in track and field events, and this year promises to insure the permanency of track athletics in T. C. U. Beginning with a small nucleus from last year's team, the number of track candidates has increased astonishingly. Not only are the prospects good for success in the middle and long distance runs, but the present try-outs seem to offer fine material for strengthening the track team where it was weakest last year, namely in the dashes and hurdles. The field events, consisting of the shot put, the discus, the javelin, the broad and high jumps, and the vault are attracting much very promising material, some letter men of last year and some new men.

For the past few weeks track men have been chasing around the newly ploughed quarter-mile course without any direct supervision, but at a meeting of the track team Tuesday, March 2, Mr. McDiarmid, Chairman of the Athletic Council, announced that Mr. Will V. Norris, formerly a member of the fast relay team of William Jewell College in the Missouri Valley Conference, would become Coach of Track. This announcement met with hearty response from the track team and on each evening since a good crew has reported daily at 4:30 P. M. on the athletic field. Coach Norris feels that if the men now coming out will workout regularly each afternoon, diet themselves properly, sleep sufficiently and otherwise behave themselves, as good students and athletes, T. C. U. can put out a team that will win many honors during this season.

The first test for the track team will be at the Stock Show Relay Meet, where it will be decided as to whom the beautiful silver loving cup, now in our possession, will be awarded. Last year T. C. U. won the cup by taking two of the three major events. This year Baylor will try to take the cup from us. Whether they do this or not will depend upon whether or not the T. C. U. student body will furnish two things: first, athletics who will train as Coach Norris directs; second, loyal supporters, both girls and boys, who will lend their encouragement to the team during practice periods, who will help the men

NEW DEBATES ARE AROUSING KEEN INTEREST

Much interest has been manifested in the two new debates which are to be held with Simmons and S. M. U. The T. C. U. debaters will meet the Simmons team on their rostrum on the night of April 30, and another team will meet S. M. U. at Dallas on the night of March 7.

Twenty-five men remained after chapel on Friday morning to draw for places in the preliminaries. Among this number there were five letter men in debating; McCutcheon, Martin, Hamlin, Blaylock, and Sentell, and numerous others who have good debating records behind them such as Carruth, Donald, Randolph and others. Preliminaries will be held about April 1 for the Simmons contest and about April 7 for the S. M. U. debate.

T. C. U. has never had better debating prospects. She has better debating material this year than she has had in a good many years. Her coaching cannot be equaled. With Dr. Cockrell to coach the argumentation and Prof. Biggs to coach the delivery we have the best debating prospects in the history of the school. It is rumored that some of the new men are going to spring a surprise in the coming preliminaries.

The two men who are chosen to represent the school in each contest will receive ten dollars, and the coveted "T" ring. In addition they will receive two college credits and will become members of the "T" Fraternity, an association of all men who have received their letter in oratorical events.

The question for the Simmons debate is, "Resolved, That the U. S. should prohibit all foreign immigration to this country for a period of five years." T. C. U. is to debate the negative side of this question. The question for the S. M. U. debate is, "Resolved, That all organized strikes shall be subject to compulsory arbitration." T. C. U. has the choice of sides, but so far this matter has not been passed upon by the Oratorical Association.

GYMNASIUM PLANS SUBMITTED.

The final plans for the $100,000 gymnasium were submitted in Dallas Thursday by President Waits. This gymnasium is to be the most modern and completely equipped. There is to be a swimming pool, basket ball court, indoor track, club rooms and everything which an institution as Texas Christian University needs. Moreover it will not be the exclusive property of the boys. President Waits assures us that the girls will be able to enjoy it as well as the boys. The plans will soon be on exhibition here at the University.

keep training rules and who will express the great optimism and exhibit the liveliest "pep." These are but reasonable demands for a victorious track season. You, Reader, will do your part, won't you? Then, T. C. U. will win and continue to win.

T. C. U. has seemed rather dead at times this year, but the spirit of our old institutions has never been killed in any sense of the word. It is true that it was pretty badly damaged and to a great extent suppressed at the very beginning of school, but we repeat it is not dead, by any means, as has been recently demonstrated.

We want to congratulate our class and our Fish understudies for the completely successful manner in which they captured and held the toastmaster of our smart upper classmen's banquet. Again do we wish to congratulate our Fish friends on the majestic party given in our honor. No one can deny that it was a huge success.

Such happenings as these are a manifestation of school pep and spirit worthy of the greatest universities.

TENNIS SEASON IS ALMOST HERE.

Warm weather is here, and with it comes the longing of the tennis lovers to "get into action." There has been a little tennis playing prior to this, but on account of the wind and cold weather, little has been accomplished. The courts are in good condition, and T. C. U. plans to have a winning team. Last season we had a good team, but owing to hard luck, we lost to our rivals, S. M. U. However, we had several players go into the semi-finals of the city tournament. Easley, captain of the team, and Wood are the only members of last year's team who are back; but there are a number of new men who have had experience and who will make places on the team. If you have the least idea that you can play tennis, get you a racket and get out there.

"T" FRATERNITY WILL HAVE NEW ELIGIBLES

The "T" Fraternity, an honorary fraternity composed of all men who have won the coveted "T" ring by representing the University in oratorical contests, will have a few new eligibles for membership this year. The first man to earn this honor this year was J. E. Sentell, who represented the University in debate against Trinity University.

Another man who will soon be eligible is M. A. Buhler, who is to represent in debate against Phillips University. A banquet will be held before the end of the school year, at which time all new eligibles will be accepted.

Willis McGregor is the president of the organization and the membership is as follows: Jesse E. Martin, William Jones, W. B. Higgins, Willis McGregor, W. L. Thornton, Ben M. Edwards, B. S. Smiser, Forrest McCutcheon, John Sturgeon, Harry Martin, Paul Boynton, Cedric G. Hamlin, Richard Bailey, Bryan B. Blaylock and J. E. Sentell.

Annie Lou: Abernathy, it surely is cold in here.

Abe: Yes, but it sure is light.

S. M. U. FISH. PRESIDENT VISITS T. C. U.—MAKES A VERY ABRUPT DEPARTURE.

We were honored last Friday with a visit from his excellency, The Fish President of S. M. U. This honor would not have been paid us had it not been for the kind assistance of the S. M. U. Sophomores. Accompanied by a special bodyguard of Sophomores, he was ushered up to our doors in a Cadillac Eight. Now these Sophomores having very urgent social obligations to attend to and not wishing to leave this distinguished guest without some one to see that he enjoyed his visit, detailed a rather diminutive one of their number to show him around.

Now it seems that his Excellency did not quite fancy T. C. U., and decided to make a rather abrupt departure without having thanked anyone for the kind treatment he received while in our midst. When last seen he was witnessing the practice on the baseball diamond, but at last account neither he nor the Sophomore could be located.

Luck to you, Fish., and come back to see us when you have longer to stay.

WALTON SOCIETY.

The Waltons are now in the midst of a very interesting and instructive series of programs on the Modern Drama. Last Monday night two popular dramas by Ibsen were studied. Miss Sybil Black discussed, "Ghosts"; Miss Cleo Bradley, "Pillars of Society." The program was made more interesting by Miss Lorraine Shirley's piano solo, and the Misses Reagans' vocal duet.

There were several visitors present at the last meeting. These were welcome, indeed, and it is the wish of every Walton that visitors will continue to find their programs interesting.

"YOU KNOW ME, AL!"

It's an old tale, but perhaps you haven't heard it yet.

A baseball game had been started in France during the war. The team was made up of all classes of foreigners and when the umpire called a man to bat, a Turk stepped up. He rubbed his hands, extended them upwards, and called up to the heavens, "Allah, Allah, be good to me!" The Turk swatted a homerun.

An Irishman from New York was the next man up. He was visibly impressed by the system the Turk used in making a hit. So spitting on his hands, as American ball players are wont to do, and rubbing them together, the Irishman stepped up to the plate. Looking up at the heavens, as he had seen the Turk do, Pat exclaimed: "Hey, Al, you know me!"

I should not, if I might;
Yet if I should, I would,
And, shoulding, I should

I can, and still I must;
But, ah! I cannot—nay,
To must I may not, just!

If I may, can, shall—still
I might, could, would or should!"

The Service of an Electrical Research Laboratory

The research facilities of the General Electric Company are an asset of world-wide importance, as recent war work has so clearly demonstrated. Their advantages in pursuits of peace made them of inestimable value in time of war.

A most interesting story tells of the devices evolved which substantially aided in solving one of the most pressing problems of the war—the submarine menace. Fanciful, but no less real, were the results attained in radio communication which enabled an aviator to control a fleet of flying battleships, and made possible the sending, without a wire, history-making messages and orders to ships at sea. Scarcely less important was the X-ray tube, specially designed for field hospital use and a notable contribution to the military surgical service. And many other products, for both combatant and industrial use, did their full share in securing the victory.

In the laboratories are employed highly trained physicists, chemists, metallurgists and engineers, some of whom are experts of international reputation. These men are working not only to convert the resources of Nature to be of service to man, but to increase the usefulness of electricity in every line of endeavor. Their achievements benefit every individual wherever electricity is used.

Scientific research works hand in hand with the development of new devices, more efficient apparatus and processes of manufacture. It results in the discovery of better and more useful materials and ultimately in making happier and more livable the life of all mankind.

Booklet, Y-863, describing the company's plants, will be mailed upon request. Address Desk 37

Mr. Erhart, of Dallas, State Student Secretary of the Y. M. C. Elliott, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. was not content to raise such a small sum as his quota, and accordingly set the goal at two hundred and fifty dollars. Some quiet personal work among the boys in Clark Hall and among the faculty resulted in raising a fund of three hundred and fifty dollars in a short time.

HORNED FROG ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN.

Mr. W. W. Blume, Business Manager of the Horned Frog, divided the Senior class into four divisions with Mrs. Joe Stack, Misses Annie Lou Jones, Dorothy Keeble and Beulah Bell as division leaders in the one-week preliminary campaign. There was a spirit of contest between the divisions and Miss Bell's division secured more advertisements than the total of the other three divisions.

Over half of the space in the Horned Frog was sold, and prospects are bright for selling the remaining space. If any of your friends are expecting to get an ad in this year's annual, tell them to hurry.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AND LUNCHEON FOR MISS THELMA ROUTH

Miss Ava Maude Wester entertained Friday afternoon with a very pretty luncheon favoring Miss Thelma Routh. The table was beautifully decorated. In the center was a cake containing a ring, thimble, button, etc., which told the futures of those happening to get the lucky or unlucky prizes. Miss Routh blew out the lighted candles, four being left burning; but we all believe our part about four years more for "T."

The guests were: Misses Suda Willis, Ruth Myers, Elizabeth Oberthier, Mabel Hellums, Christine Thurmond, Ruth Bennett, Goldon Gennemur, Elizabeth Shelburne, Dorothy Bear, Bertha Hensley, Leslie Bush and Mrs. Allen.

CLARKS.

Since Christmas the Clarks have been making a study of the modern short story. These studies have been proving very entertaining as well as beneficial. A brief sketch of the author's life is given with his characteristics especially noted. This is followed by a representative story which is read and discussed as to its style and content. The regular meeting is Monday evening in the Add-Ran and Clark Hall at 7 o'clock. Visitors are always cordially welcomed.

LECTURES ON AMERICAN CHRISTIANIZATION BEGAN.

Friday morning in Chapel, Dean Hall, Dr. Cockrell, Miss Sybil Black, representing the Y. W. C. A., Mr. Edwin Elliott, representing the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Earl Dudney, the Christian Endeavor each made a short but forceful talk on the lectures on Christian Americanization which are to be given each Monday morning from 10 o'clock to 10:30, in chapel. This is a stupendous problem which must be confronted and solved, and we, as modern students, cannot ignore it.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET ENTER-TAINED.

Miss Sybil Black entertained the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet last Tuesday afternoon with a picnic in the park. The girls left at 2 o'clock loaded with all kinds of good eats. The day was just warm enough for the walk to be enjoyed. When a desirable spot was found, all sat around while a discussion was had, and plans made for future work. The feast was spread, and coffee was made. Such eats there never was!

Those who enjoyed Sybil's delightful picnic were: Beth Coombes, Christine Moore, Dorothy Keeble, Cobby de Stivers, Hallie Strange, Lola Bridges, Dorene Gee, Ava Maude Wester, Leona Crain, Lorraine Sherley, Elizabeth Shelburne and Nan Carter.

T. C. U. did not have the pleasure of seeing Miss Ava Maude Wester very much this past week, as she spent part of the week in Dallas with her parents, and the remaining part in Cleburne as a guest of Misses Ruby and Grace Douglass.
