COWBOYS WIN FIRST GAME BY 5 TO 4 COUNT

Simmons College of Abilene defeated Texas Christian University at Panther Park Monday afternoon by a score of 5 to 4. Both Donohue of T. C. U. and Middleton of Simmons were almost invincible in the early innings, but weakened in the middle of the game and were hit almost at will.

The Christians started the scoring in the fourth inning when Bradley let Douglas' fast bouncher get through him and Rutherford sent him across with a long hit to left. The Cowboys knotted the count in the fifth on a base on balls, an error and a hit, and then went wild in the sixth when Donohue ascended. An error, coupled with four clean hits, put four men over, giving them a lead which the Frogs were never able to overcome, although they threatened seriously in the seventh when four hits and a base on balls counted three runs. However, after this both Donohue and Middleton tightened up and the scoring ended for the day.

The same teams will meet again today, with Captain Rutherford twirling for the Frogs and Ward on the mound for the boys.

WEENIE ROAST.

At 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a care free and pleasure-loving host of Clark girls hiked to the river, where a weenie roast was enjoyed. Wading was the chief sport, and much fun was had from "kid" games. Those who escaped riding the goat Tuesday evening received their full dose, administered by the late candidates of Mr. Goat.

A Dutch lunch was served, including everything from "weenies" to "beer a la soda pop." At a late hour all returned, tired but bubbling over with Clark pep.

COMEDY GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF DRAMATIC CLUB

The very clever drama, All-of-a-Sudden Peggy, was presented in the chapel Wednesday, April 7. From the beginning to the close of the last scene the interest of the entire audience was held intense. The "suddenness" of Peggy, the stateliness of Lady Crackenthorp, the seriousness of Anthony, the complaisance of Jimmy, the earnestness of Major Archie, the sincerity of Millicent, the neighborliness of Mrs. Conchour, the conniving of Mrs. O'Mara, the friendliness of Jack Menzies, and the ease of Parker and Lucas could not have been better depicted than was done by the characters from our midst.

The play was given under the direction of Miss Lillian Sansom. To her untiring efforts is due the wonderful success of the play. Miss Sansom has been with us only this year, but in that short time she has proven her great ability and we students of T. C. U. are glad to have her with us.

The Footlights wish to make grateful acknowledgment to Fakes & Co. for the loan of the furniture for the stage.

ADD-RAN-CLARK ANNUAL AFFAIR

The annual Add-Ran-Clark spring reception was held at the home of Miss Dorothy Keeble Monday evening, April 12. It was a full dress affair, with ferns, cut flowers and Add-Ran and Clark pennants, together with T. C. U. pennants and pillars forming an effective background for the youthful figures.

The entertainment consisted of social chats, bits of harmony by the Clark string trio, Edwina Day, Margaret Crumly and Janice Maxwell. A number of selections were given by the Add-Ran Quartet: Rose McFarland, Martin Halsell, Lem Day and Billie Crunk.

A buffet luncheon was served and all enjoyed olives, sweet pickles, salad, Clark a la Add-Ran, grape frappe, tea biscuits and mints.

The affair was one of the most delightful of the year. B.V.S.

REWARD FOR STOLEN WATCH.

Stolen from my pocket some time during the track meet held at T. C. U. Thursday, April 1, one 21-jewel open-faced Elgin watch, with a gold football on the chain. $25.00 reward will be given for information leading to recovery of same. Alva McKnight, S. M. U., Dallas, Tex.

The Clark girls met in the Art Room on Tuesday at 6 for a wonderful surprise. Everyone enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. What did they do? Just ask the girls who had not been initiated and I am sure they can tell you. Pineapple ice and cakes were served. Everyone left just in time to go see the Camp Fire girls.

FROGS BREAK EVEN ON SOUTH TEXAS TRIP, LOSING TO STATE AND WINNING 2 FROM PIRATES

TEXAS WINS OVER FROGS IN FIRST GAME.

Texas University lucked out over the Horned Frogs in a hard-fought, exciting game. The game was resplendent throughout with brilliant plays, and excitement was at a high pitch throughout. The game started with Donahue pitching for the Frogs and Barry for the Longhorns. Both pitchers worked nicely, Donahue had the advantage throughout. The Frogs drew first blood in fourth inning when Heinie reached first on an error. McDaniels then sacrificed Heinie to second. Haire wet out to second. Berry then came through and singled, scoring Heinie for the first marker of the game. Fowler then brought the stands to their feet with a slashing two-base drive to left field, scoring Berry. McKown ended the inning by grounding to first.

Texas came in and tied the count when English started things off by singling. McCullough then doubled to right field, scoring English. Cannon went out, Tanlac to McDaniel, McCullough taking third on the play. A pass ball then allowed McCullough to score, knotting the count. Two all. The next man struck out. The count remained the same until the sixth, when the Frogs got to Barry and drove him to the showers. Haire and McDaniel singled the first thing, Haire walked, filling the bags. Berry flew out to second, Fowler got his second two-base hit, scoring Heinie and McDaniel, but Haire overran third and was caught off, finally getting out in a chase. McKown went out Hart to Falk, ending the score. Barry was relieved by Lissener right after Fowler hit.

Donohue had the State boys going his way from then until the ninth inning. McCullough went out Fowler to McDaniel, Fowler made a beautiful stop of the drive. Cannon was safe when Fowler juggled his slow roller. Falk singled. Then came the finish. Fitzgerald, the next man, parked the ball, ending the game. The game was hard fought throughout and Texas only won when, in the ninth inning, all the old balls mysteriously disappeared and some new ones were thrown in.

This was the dirtiest trick that has been pulled in a long time. Mr. Disch must get credit for this piece of work.

FROGS LOSE SECOND TO TEXAS, 3 TO 2.

State again won in a fast, snappy game by the close score of three to one. The Frogs scored first and kept the lead until the eighth, when they put two across. Rutherford, who pitched for the Frogs, had it all over Gillette, the star University slabman, but the breaks were all against him. Rutherford let the Longhorns down with three hits, while his teammates were touching Gillette for nine safeties.

The scores were made as follows:

FROGS WIN TWO FROM SOUTHWESTERN.

The Frogs won both games from Southwestern. The first was forfeited in the ninth with the count four to two in the Frogs' favor. The Southwestern team left the field after the Frogs had scored two in the ninth inning. The score was nine to nary one in favor of the Frogs.

Rutherford pitched the second game and won out three to one. Rutherford was never in trouble. The Pirates' lone run came as a result of a home run by Ostergood in the second round. The Frogs' first run came in the fourth, when, with two men down, Berry singled and Fowler brought him home with a three-base drive to left. The Frogs added another in the eighth on Berry's double and Fowler's single. The last marker was made in the ninth on Prinzing's single and Berry's three-base drive.

The game was a clean, hard-fought battle throughout. Rutherford let the Pirates down with four hits, while his teammates got to Robertson for twelve.

In the third the Frogs scored after Gans had outed. Rutherford rattled the boards in left fields for two bases. Douglass walked. Heinie then singled. Here the umpire made a decision that lost the game. The centerfielder called Douglass out at second with his back turned to the play. McCullough, the State second baseman, never even touched the bag, but his nibs the umps called Doug out on suspicion. McDaniel then doubled to right, scoring both Rutherford and Prinzing. Haire flew out to right field. This ended the Frogs' scoring. Texas made one in the third on Hart's walk and McCullough's three-base drive. The Texans made two more in the eighth when Harts strolled. Gillette hit for three bases and Fowler let one get away from him, McCullough scoring.

The Frogs went out in order in the ninth inning, all three men striking out.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS SCORE REAL HIT WITH NOVELTY

The novel program given by the Camp Fire Girls Tuesday night, April 13, was highly entertaining in every detail. Few programs have aroused such keen interest and hearty applause. The Ladies' Home Journal was pictured from cover to cover.

Miss Margaret Williams represented a young Ladies' Home Journal enthusiast. She appeared on the stage and expressed the hope that the postman would not fail to bring the Ladies' Home Journal. Almost immediately the postman's whistle announced the arrival of that personage with the coveted magazine. Lounging on a couch to the right of the stage she opened the Journal and proceeded to tell of its contents, having exclaimed delightedly over the cover, "This Simple Faith Has Made America Great."

On the stage was the tableau, a mother with her child kneeling in prayer. Dutch Cleanser, Jontee, Fiske by her chair.

Familiar figures in advertisements appeared then—Old Tire "ready to re-tire," the Gold Dust Twins; a Danderine girl; Baker's Chocolate Maid; Fairy Soap fairl.

For the editorial page Miss Pauline Allen, in mannish garb, delivered a "lecture" on woman's rights. "That Reminds Me" page was presented by several girls in a fudge party—during study hour. Jokes on our college friends made the audience join in their laughter.

Soon all were listening breathlessly to the thrilling story, "The Lamp Went Out"—listening when permitted by a lapse of the laughter aroused by the splendid illustrations on the stage. The mother "swept into the room" (with a broom). Evelyn turned a little pale (pail).

The grand climax was when after the rival lovers had parted friends and all had left the room, the lamp went out (at the door).

On the poetry page appeared Miss Elizabeth Petley in two entertaining songs. Also a colored woman with hoe in hand and read a poem with musical accompaniment.

Four colored celebrities entertained with music, jokes and jigs. This was the Joseph Hoffman page of our Journal.

Next Lettie Lane showed her two beautiful dolls and invited the audience to come and play dolls.

The fashion pages were represented by live models in Parisian shop, displaying fashionable finery to a prospective T. C. U. student and her mother.

"How to Care for the Nails, the Complexion and Hair" was illustrated by a beauty shop, where Madame instructed Ofttimes we hear the old questions asked, "What society do you belong to?" Ofttimes we answer "Add-Ran," or "Shirley," as the case may be, and we are prone to discuss the good qualities of OUR society and the bad qualities of YOUR society.

Now we admire the man who is behind his Literary Society because it shows that he is a man that stands for what he believes is right and a man that is a "sticker." If your society has lost a contest or an inter-society game, don't give up, but work all the harder. If I were a Shirley I would be a Shirley and I would be a 100 per cent Shirley, but as I am an Add-Ran I am a 100 per cent Add-Ran and I will back up my Literary Society in every undertaking that is in accordance with the rules of fair play and within the rules of the school, BUT:

I will not fight for my literary society when an issue is before me that means something to every student in school. I will not fight for an Add-Ran in some affair when I think that there is a Shirley that is a better man, that is, if the man to be selected is to represent the school. In the coming student body election we hope that the society spirit will not be an issue, and in fact in every event that is as vital to a Shirley as an Add-Ran let us first consider old T. C. U. Then, if society spirit is not contrary, then fight and fight with every thing that is in you. Make your society a better society, and by the way, represent your society in everything possible. To be at the baseball games would not be bad policy. Get into the game and FIGHT. An Add-Ran.

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF Y. W. C. A.

One of the sweetest and most impressive services of the year was held Thursday evening when the new cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. was installed. Both the old and new cabinet members were gowned in flowing surplices and, as the retiring officers filed into the darkened room each carrying a lighted candle they were followed by the new members, each bearing a candle to be lighted from their flames.

During the entire ceremony, Margaret Crumley played softly on the violin accompanied at the piano by Katherine Pickens. Sybil Black, the president, whose work has been untiring in furthering interest in the Y. W. C. A., read the purpose of the Association. She relinquished her office of Lorraine Sherley whose ability has been shown in her former Y. W. C. A. work.

Each new cabinet member lighted her candle as she took her oath of office. Miss Sherley in uttering the installation prayer asked that each girl recognize the responsibility of her office, think deeper, live better and love more.

This impressive ceremony was closed by a short prayer. The list of cabinet officers who assumed their responsibilities for the period of one year follows:

Lorraine Sherley, president.
Leona Crane, Vice-President.
Ethel Ellis, Assistant Vice-President.
Pauline Allen, Treasurer.
Dorene Gee, Secretary.
The committees chosen are:
Laura Dangleisen, Lottie Grey,
Elizabeth Pettey, Elizabeth Oberthier, Madeline Jones, Marlene Osborne, Edwina Day, Margaret Stuckert, Mary Lee Pinkerton, Nellie Moulden.

FAMOUS BARITONE TO SING IN FORT WORTH.

Charles W. Clark, one of the greatest and most eminent baritones of the United States, will be the next artist to appear in Fort Worth under the auspices of the Fort Worth Musical Bureau. Mr. Clark will sing at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium next Friday evening, April 9.

His coming here has created much favorable comment in musical circles, as Mr. Clark has a number of pupils in Texas and his concerts have been deemed nothing short of remarkable.

His voice speaks from the heart and his phrasing, shading and expression are perfect; in fact, seldom do we find such a combination of intellectual and dramatic gift and sheer purity of tone as possessed by Mr. Clark. His diction is excellent, his style polished, and his voice full and resonant.

He has been called, both in Europe and in the United States, "America's greatest baritone." He has sung and taught in Europe for years. He has proved himself an authoritative artist. His artistry is superbly finished and refined; he is a baritone with a rich, magnetic voice, held by an admirable technique.

Our own Mrs. Cahoon was a pupil of Mr. Clark, which fact will make the concert of more interest to every one. Tickets are on sale at Field-Lippman's Music Store.

If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too tired, nor talk too wise;

If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them, "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—not lose the common touch.

If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;

If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!

—Kipling.
Mamie had been naughty and her mother finally had recourse to the time honored remedy in such cases.

"Mamma," she sobbed, "did Gran'dma spank you when you was little?"

"Yes, dear," said her mother, "she did when I was naughty."

"And did her mother spank her?"

"Yes."

"And was she spanked, too, when she was bad?"

"Yes."

"Well, who started this blamed thing anyhow?"

Mr. Roberts: "Miss Willis, why should we be interested in the tariff bill?"

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTEST.

Mrs. Jennings' Sunday school class has just closed a spirited contest in which "The Purples" side won. The officers of this class are Leona Crane, president; Beulah Bell, vice president, and Hallie Strange, secretary and treasurer. It has always been a good class, but the division of the class into purple and white sides, with good live captains, has increased the attendance and offerings greatly. Each side has done splendid work and proved that the real college girl of today is far from being satisfied with those things which deal only with what they shall eat or what they shall drink or where-withal they shall be clothed.

The personnel of this group includes some of T. C. U.'s choicest and best, and the attendance will not decrease with the close of the contest, for they are a bunch who know how to put first things first. The officers for the purple side were Ethel Ellis, captain; Edith King, secretary; Leona Crain, treasurer. Those of the white side were Lorraine Shirley, captain; Christine Moore, secretary, and Bernice Anderson, treasurer.

MISTAKES.

When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake it's just what he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes a law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

When an electrician makes a mistake he blames it on the induction, nobody knows what that means.

But when an editor makes a mistake—good night!!!

The Walton Literary Society.

The Waltons had their regular meeting last Monday evening and a short but interesting program was rendered; after the program the society went into a business meeting and the following officers were installed:
President—Sybil Black.
Vice President—Nan Carter.
Secretary—Elizabeth Pettey.
Treasurers—Edith Bigham and Leslie Bush.

First Critic—Thelma Reagan.
Second Critic—Ruth Wiggins.

PERSONALS.

Jarvis Hall.

The Y. W. C. A. girls of North Texas were guests of our dormitory Friday and Saturday nights.

Miss Evelyn Lewis of Dallas spent the week-end with friends here.

Misses Mamie and Mattie Lois Roberts of Bonham, former students of T. C. U., were guests of their cousin, Miss Madeline Jones, this week-end.

Mrs. Una Stark Anderson, an old T. C. U. girl, spent the week-end in the city and made a "pop call" to the "hill."

Miss Genevieve Goff of Sherman and Miss Dorothy Barber of Beaumont, both well known in T. C. U., favored the institution with a visit the past weekend.

Miss Lois Quigley has "dropped by" to see us on her way home from Chicago, where she has been studying voice the past winter.

Christine Thurman visited friends in Dallas this week-end.

Little John McDiarmid has been sick this week with a severe attack of tonsilitis, but is gradually recovering. We all hope that he will soon be the same bright, happy little John again.

Laura Dangeleisen.

Miss Ray of Mumford is visiting her daughter, Lillie Bell, this week.

Miss Ione Rigney and Ellis Watkins spent the week-end at their home in Leonard.

Georgia Crosthwaite spent the week-end in Weatherford.

Mr. Norris' mother is now making Goode Hall her home.

Mrs. R. C. Carpenter of Breckenridge spent the day with her daughter, Louise Lakin.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong of Kansas City were visitors of the Connell sisters Sunday.

ADD-RANS AND CLARKS GIVE OPEN PROGRAM

THE SQUIRREL CAGE

By A. Gnutt.
There is a girl in our college
Who is wondrous wise
She never makes A's and B's
But is always making eyes.

He Was Convinced.
Distinguished Visitor: I see you are putting up several new buildings.

Polite Student (Proudly) Yes, new buildings are the only kind we put up.

When first he came to see her, he showed a timid heart, and though the lights weren't very bright they sat like this far apart but when love grew warmer and his shyness began to miss. They knocked out all the space, and sat up close like this.

NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS.

It is not any of our business, and we know it, and we'll say so before somebody tells us that it isn't, but we will feel lots better if we can get this off our minds. Ofttimes we hear the old questions asked, "What society do you belong to?" Ofttimes we answer "Add-Ran," or "Shirley," as the case may be, and we are prone to discuss the good qualities of OUR society and the bad qualities of YOUR society. Now we admire the man who is behind his Literary Society because it shows that he is a man that stands for what he believes is right and a man that is a "sticker." If your society has lost a contest or an inter-society game, don't give up, but work all the harder. If I were a Shirley, I would be a Shirley and I would be a 100 per cent Shirley, but as I am an Add-Ran I am a 100 per cent Add-Ran and I will back up my Literary Society in every undertaking that is in accordance with the rules of fair play and within the rules of the school, BUT:

I will not fight for my literary society when an issue is before me that means something to every student in school. I will not fight for an Add-Ran in some affair when I think that there is a Shirley that is a better man, that is, if the man to be selected is to represent the school. In the coming student body election we hope that the society spirit will not be an issue, and in fact in every event that is as vital to a Shirley as an Add-Ran let us first consider old T. C. U. Then, if society spirit is not contrary, then fight and fight with every thing that is in you. Make your society a better society, and by the way, represent your society in everything possible. To be at the baseball games would not be bad policy. Get into the game and FIGHT.

An Add-Ran.

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF Y. W. C. A.

One of the sweetest and most impressive services of the year was held Thursday evening when the new cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. was installed. Both the old and new cabinet members were gowned in flowing surplices and, as the retiring officers filed into the darkened room each carrying a lighted candle they were followed by the new members, each bearing a candle to be lighted from their flames.

During the entire ceremony, Margaret Crumley played softly on the violin accompanied at the piano by Katherine Pickens. Sybil Black, the president, whose work has been untiring in furthering interest in the Y. W. C. A., read the purpose of the Association. She relinquished her office of Lorraine Sherley whose ability has been shown in her former Y. W. C. A. work.

Each new cabinet member lighted her candle as she took her oath of office. Miss Sherley in uttering the installation prayer asked that each girl recognize the responsibility of her office, think deeper, live better and love more.

This impressive ceremony was closed by a short prayer. The list of cabinet officers who assumed their responsibilities for the period of one year follows:

Lorraine Sherley, president.
Leona Crane, Vice-President.
Ethel Ellis, Assistant Vice-President.
Pauline Allen, Treasurer.
Dorene Gee, Secretary.
The committees chosen are:
Laura Dangleisen, Lottie Grey,
Elizabeth Pettry, Elizabeth Oberthier, Madeline Jones, Marjorie Osborne, Edwina Day, Margaret Stuckert, Mary Lee Pinkerton, Nellie Moulden.

Chap. VI. "Where in the Sam Hill is dinner?"

FAMOUS BARITONE TO SING IN FORT WORTH.

Charles W. Clark, one of the greatest and most eminent baritones of the United States, will be the next artist to appear in Fort Worth under the auspices of the Fort Worth Musical Bureau. Mr. Clark will sing at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium next Friday evening, April 9.

His coming here has created much favorable comment in musical circles, as Mr. Clark has a number of pupils in Texas and his concerts have been deemed nothing short of remarkable.

His voice speaks from the heart and his phrasing, shading and expression are perfect; in fact, seldom do we find such a combination of intellectual and dramatic gift and sheer purity of tone as possessed by Mr. Clark. His diction is excellent, his style polished, and his voice full and resonant.

He has been called, both in Europe and in the United States, "America's greatest baritone." He has sung and taught in Europe for years. He has proved himself an authoritative artist. His artistry is superbly finished and refined; he is a baritone with a rich, magnetic voice, held by an admirable technique.

Our own Mrs. Cahoon was a pupil of Mr. Clark, which fact will make the concert of more interest to every one. Tickets are on sale at Field-Lippman's Music Store.

If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,

Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,

Or being hated, don't give way to hating,

And yet don't look too tired, nor talk too wise;

If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,

And treat those two impostors just the same;

If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken

Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,

Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,

And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew

To serve your turn long after they are gone,

And so hold on when there is nothing in you

Except the Will which says to them, "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,

Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch.

If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,

If all men count with you, but none too much;

If you can fill the unforgiving minute

With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,

Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,

And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!

—Kipling.

Mamie had been naughty and her mother finally had recourse to the time honored remedy in such cases.

"Mamma," she sobbed, "did Gran'dma spank you when you was little?"

"Yes, dear," said her mother, "she did when I was naughty."

"And did her mother spank her?"

"Yes."

"And was she spanked, too, when she was bad?"

"Yes."

"Well, who started this blamed thing anyhow?"

Mr. Roberts: "Miss Willis, why should we be interested in the tariff bill?"

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTEST.

Mrs. Jennings' Sunday school class has just closed a spirited contest in which "The Purples" side won. The officers of this class are Leona Crane, president; Beulah Bell, vice president, and Hallie Strange, secretary and treasurer. It has always been a good class, but the division of the class into purple and white sides, with good live captains, has increased the attendance and offerings greatly. Each side has done splendid work and proved that the real college girl of today is far from being satisfied with those things which deal only with what they shall eat or what they shall drink or where-withal they shall be clothed.

The personnel of this group includes some of T. C. U.'s choicest and best, and the attendance will not decrease with the close of the contest, for they are a bunch who know how to put first things first. The officers for the purple side were Ethel Ellis, captain; Edith King, secretary; Leona Crain, treasurer. Those of the white side were Lorraine Shirley, captain; Christine Moore, secretary, and Bernice Anderson, treasurer.

MISTAKES.

When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake it's just what he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes a law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

When an electrician makes a mistake he blames it on the induction, nobody knows what that means.

But when an editor makes a mistake—good night!!!

CLARKS DONATE TO LIBRARY.

The Clarks have donated "King John," which is just from the press and represents volume 19 of the Variorum Edition of Shakespeare, edited by Furness. This is the first volume published since our gift to the T. C. U. Library in 1914. At that time eighteen volumes, valued at $72, were given. To quote from the "Year Book" of the Clark Literary Society issued in 1914:

"As a special honor to Dr. Kershner for his very valuable service to the University and Clark Society, this department in the University Library will be known as the "Kershner Shakespere Library," and has and each year will find new books from the Clarks."

Under the auspices of the Clarks, Dr. Kershner delivered six Shakespearian lectures.

This edition would be incomplete without mentioning the name of Prof. C. I. Alexander, who was for years an active member of the Add-Ran Society and later an honorary member. All Add-Rans feel deeply that we have lost a true friend.

HORNED FROGS WIN FROM DALLAS, 3-4.

The Horned Frogs won over the Dallas Marines of the Texas League Friday, April 2, in a hotly contested game. Donahue, who pitched for the Frogs, was master throughout the game until the ninth inning, when the Marines scored two of their three runs and got two of the four hits.

The game was a good exhibition of baseball throughout. The Frogs drew first blood in the fifth. McKoun was safe. Bailey walked. Donahue hit safely, filling the bases. Prinzing hit to deep short, McKoun scoring, and Bailey was fanned at third. McDaniel then cracked in a screaming two-base blow, scoring Donahue and Prinzing. The Marines came back in their half with one run. The Frogs scored another in the fourth. This ended the scoring until the ninth. However, the scores were prevented by gilt edge fielding for both clubs. In the seventh inning McKoun made one of the most dazzling plays seen in a long time. With one man down and a man on third, the batter knocked one down third-base line like a shot. The runner thought that it was a hit and struck out for home. McKoun snared the ball with one hand and then beat the runner to the bag, completing a double play, unassisted. Donahue was going nicely until the ninth. He was hit by a pitched ball the first of the ninth, and he walked the two first Marines up. The next man hit to McKoun, who got the man coming to third. The next two men hit safely, scoring two men and leaving one on first and second. The next man hit to Fowler, who got the man at first. The hard-hitting first baseman for Dallas then leaned on one, and it looked good for three bases. But Haire got on his horse and made a beautiful catch, thus ending the game. Douglas and McDaniel also played good ball for the Frogs, Douglas getting two hits and making some good stops. McDaniel scored two men with his two-bagger. The Frogs are going good now and are going to be hard to stop.

The Y. W. C. A. pins are to be ordered soon. All girls desiring these please give your name to Miss Dorene Gee within the following week.
