Texas Christian University begins its Fiftieth Anniversary with this issue of THE SKIFF.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT OPENS TOMORROW

FROGS WHIPPING INTO CONDITION

Coach and Captain Checking the Dope

Coach McKnight gave over thirty candidates their initial football workout Friday afternoon on Clark field. McConnell, Ayres and others have reported since then. An abundance of promising material shows the possibility of starting the season with a lineup of experienced players in the back field. The comparative weak spot is the line, and McKnight will no doubt depend on Freshmen to fill the vacancies left by Carack Bishop, Fats Crowley, and Pete Falcher. Big Jim Cantrell will be moved to end and Blair Cherry will probably start the year in the back field.

'21 Frog "toters" who have returned to their Saturday evening post as Captain Judge Green, Hilliard Cump, Lindsay Jacks, Kit Carson, Homer Adams, Blair Cherry, Bill Hmey, Big Jim Cantrell, Alex Alexander, Cowboy Ogan, W. E. McConnell, Philip Ayres and Graham Estes. Walter Knox will be remembered from the 1920 club. Other old men coming out are Blundy Robinson, Froggie Lovvorn and "Wild Bill Shirley."

Two experienced back fielders who are showing fair are Noah Meads, half for Clarendon last year, and Dick Fender, two years fullback with Kemper. Other new men looking good are Nelson, Tommy and Hamilton from Mangum, Oklahoma; Stewart, from Strawn; Axtel, Anderson, McNaughton, Keith and Stangel from Central High; Phillips and Adams from Ozona; Trickey Ward, a prospective kicker, of Weatherford; and John Oakes, of Amarillo.

We have plenty of good material and more is expected to arrive this week. Although Coach McKnight says some of it is a bit green, by the middle of the season he should be able to work the men into a real football team free from individual stars. Coach is building a mighty machine, refuses to make predictions, and says there will be no alibi—nothing but straight football and straight football dope.

STUDENTS WILL AGAIN HAVE EVENING HOUR

On recommendation of the official board of which Dr. Clinton Lockhart is chairman, the University church has voted that all the Sunday evening services during the school year be turned over to the various young people's organizations, the young people to have complete charge and the entire church to be always welcome.

A committee from the church will work in connection with the student organization in arranging dates. The first service will be held in Brite College chapel Sunday, September 24 at 7:30 p. m. Jerome Moore, president, will be leader.

Last year the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Christian Endeavor society, and Girls' Circle furnished some of the most original and diversified programs that have been presented in the University church. It is in recognition of this faithful and successful work that they are to have complete charge of the evening services during the year.

As soon as the representatives of the church and the student organizations meet a program including all the services from now until June 1923 will be provided for.

If He Had a Million.

Joe Brown was the colored porter at a little bank in Southern Kansas. One fine spring day when nature was putting forth her best efforts to lure the world to the fishing pond, he rested on his broom and looking out, said: "Ge, Boss, I suttinly do witsht ah had a million dollahs!" "A million dollahs, Joe?" the cashier asked, smiling, "what would you do with a million dollahs?" "Ah'd buy me some pigs and make me some money."

DOCTOR OF MUSIC FROM CLARINET SCHOOL HEAD OF MUSIC DEPARTMENT

LUCILLE LEDBETTER AND RITA ZANE-CETTI TEACH PIANO AND KING HAS BAND.

The faculty of the school of Fine Arts has been materially strengthened by the addition of several new members. The Department of Music will be in charge of Dr. Henry De Guelich who is well-known in the middle and southern states for his musical activities in the colleges where he served as director of music.

Dr. Guelich, a native of New York City, obtained his literary and musical education at Adelphi College, Northwestern College, (A. B.), Virgil Clavier School, Grand Conservatory of Music, N. Y., (B. Mus.), and the University of the state of New York, (Mus. Doc.) Later he continued his studies in the theoretical branches at the University of Chicago and Harvard University, and in piano and pipe organ with eminent instructors in this country and abroad.

He served as Dean of the Music Department at the Kansas State Teachers College and also held for two years the presidency of the Kansas State Music Teachers Association. From there he was called to the directorship at Winthrop College, the largest state college for women in the South. As a tribute to his musicianship and executive ability, he was elected president of the South Carolina State Music Teachers Association.

In addition to his successful experience as a director of music, Dr. Guelich has the reputation of being a very competent teacher of piano and the theoretical branches, having many pupils who are now filling responsible positions. He is a pianist and composer of unusual ability and has been organist in some of the largest churches of Chicago during the summer months.

Mrs. Rita Zane-Cetti, a Fort Worth musician who has done extensive European study, instructs in piano. Mrs. Loy W. Ledbetter, better known as Miss Lucille Durrett, a graduate and later an instructor in the T. C. U. music conservatory, will continue to teach piano.

Miss Bernice Carleton of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, has just finished her second contract with Ouachita College and is now professor of violin and assistant in theory.

J. E. King, graduate from T. C. U. while it stood in Waco, is elected bandmaster and will begin his organization immediately. A large crowd of applicants can't "phase" him, for he's bandmaster of the Boys' Rotarian Band in Fort Worth, an aggregation of seventy-five young musicians.

Pandemonium.

A small girl asked her mother: "If I grow up will I have to marry a husband like papa?" "Yes, my dear," her mother replied. "And if I don't get married will I be an old maid like Aunt Susan?" "Yes." The little girl thought for a moment, put her hands to her head, and exclaimed: "Well, I am in a fix."

E. M. WAITS, PRESIDENT TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

A Message From President E. M. Waits to 1922-23 Co-Eds

This week an army of over a half million young men and women are mobilizing in the colleges and universities of America. They wear no uniform, they carry no weapons of destruction. They march toward the halls of these institutions with texts and note books, with minds open to receive impressions, with hearts bubbling over with enthusiasm, with souls alert and keyed to concert pitch. What are some of the returns that the college has to offer to young men and women for the investment of four of the most impressive and valuable years of their lives.

President Hyde of Bowdoin says it teaches you, "To be at home in all lands and ages; to count nature a familiar acquaintance and not an intimate friend; to carry the key to the world's library in your pocket and feel its resources behind you in whatever task you undertake; to make friends among men of your own age who are to be leaders in all walks of life; to lose oneself in generous enthusiasm and co-operate with others for common ends—to learn manners from students, who are gentlemen and form character under professors who are Christian. These are the returns of College for the four best years of your life.

There are three main objects that a student should have in a College Career. To gain knowledge, to find social adjustments and develop a spirit of cooperation. The first of these is the rubric the supreme aim of college life is to learn how to know, to do and to be. After all, the soul of culture is the culture of the soul. Education is constructive individuality. It is the gradual adjustment to the spiritual possessions of the race. The real question in the end is not what has the student learned, but what has the student become.

Again there are a number of by-products as well. The student has an opportunity to have a good time. The athletic field with its contests, the gridiron, the diamond, the tennis and basket ball courts, the swimming pool, all afford wholesome recreation as well as real tests of endurance. The ruddy warrior of the gridiron has already measured his strength in a strong co-operative and competitive way before he thrusts out into the arena of life. Then there is the class spirit, glee clubs, dramatic clubs, all affording the opportunity for a good time. There is no reason for ennu and nostalgia, GET IN THE GAME.

Moreover, the college has other by-products. What a place for the manifestation of the real spirit of democracy. There is no difference here. The son of the rich man and the boy who does the most menial task on the campus are free and equal. Student body and professor unite in saying, let the best man win, and too often the laurels fall to the man who has to contend for every inch of opportunity as against the man who starts with the world at his feet.

Loyalty is another characteristic of every genuine student. Be loyal to your college, be loyal and sincere with your professor and fellow student, be loyal to your college team. This is one of the basic principles of life, and there is no greater by-product of college training than this. The world is yours but not for the mere asking. You must win it. No young man or woman ever went victoriously into a task who did not go lovingly. Your chances for leadership in the world will be enhanced a thousand fold by your college training. Take 10,000 young men without such training, only one will rise to distinction. Take 40 men from college and one will rise to distinction. Will you be found among 40 or 1st among 10,000.

If Texas Christian University could speak the 100 languages in which the name of God is inscribed on old Akbar's tomb in every tongue and with varying dialect, it would speak its heartiest welcome on this its fiftieth anniversary.

DR. WM. MARTIN

REARRANGEMENT MADE IN SPEAKING STAFF

Several changes have been effected in the Oratory Department this year. Because of the sickness of Miss Erskine Long, head of the department, she will not be able to teach this fall but expects to be back in January for the winter term. Miss Long taught and studied in the University of Colorado this summer, but became ill and was forced to undergo a very serious operation. The entire student body sincerely regret that she is unable to return and wishes for her a speedy and pleasant recovery.

To fill the vacancy thus made T. C. U. has been fortunate in securing the services of Dr. W. M. Martin, formerly of Texas Woman's College. Dr. Martin is a man to be written very superior public speaker, an authority and lecturer on the subject of health, and biologist. Dr. Martin has the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Glasgow, Scotland, is a world traveler and one of the most learned men in the state. He will have charge of public speaking classes, will teach Parliamentary Law, and coach the debating teams.

Mrs. Lera Brown Crossman, of Dallas, will take charge of Miss Long's classes in the Spoken Word department. She will be remembered as the one who read the Passion Play here last season. Mrs. Crossman took the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Oratory in Texas Christian University several years ago. She has traveled and studied abroad and is very competent in her teaching as well as very delightful to hear.

two summer sessions of the college at Lake Geneva, specializing in swimming and tumbling. While in Chicago he won prominence as a wrestler in college circles and hopes to arouse quite an interest in wrestling and boxing among the boys this year. As a swimmer and as a swimming instructor Mr. Roberts is in the professional class and under his tutelage T. C. U. should turn out a winning tank team next spring.

Roberts Is New Physical Training Instructor.

John C. Roberts who is to have charge of all men's gymnasium work this year is a native of Texas and a former student of T. C. U. and will be remembered by many of the old students for his work with

JOHN BALLARD IS ACCOUNTANT

Chamber of Commerce Gives Its Support

Texas Christian university has brought to Fort Worth as the head of its department of business administration John W. Ballard, a graduate of the New York university and holding its degree of B. B. A. He comes here from Queen's university at Kingston, Ontario, where he has been teaching several years.

Classes will meet tomorrow at periods decided upon by Mr. Ballard, whose office will be in room 214. At least sixty students are expected to have enrolled for work in the department by late this afternoon. Business men are to lecture to the regular classes in order to present the practical end of the courses studied, which will be in elements of accounting, salesmanship, advertising, business arithmetic and commercial law. The accounting courses are open to those who have not had bookkeeping as well as to those who have.

In addition to the work at the university for degrees, night classes are to be conducted three times each week at the First Christian church for the young bankers and business men who wish to fit themselves for advancement in their several fields. These classes will probably not begin until next week.

There are certain courses in this new department that can be taught by present members of the faculty, so the commercial training department starts out under exceptional advantages. Professor John Lord will conduct classes in government, economics, banking and business law; Professor R. E. Sheppard will have charge of courses in business and social problems; professor A. J. Hargett of statistics, graphics, business mathematics, and Professor E. W. McDiarmid of applied psychology. A professor of accounting will be supplied.

Accounting is Mr. Ballard's special field. He is author of "A Course of Accounting and Auditing" for the Canadian Bankers Association, and wrote "A Course in Accounting Principles and Practice" for the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario. Undoubtedly his largest classes were in the A. E. F. university at Cote d'Or, France, where he had charge of 1550 students. Mr. Ballard was with the University of North Dakota before going to Queen's College.

Realization that many of the T. C. U. students were demanding this commercial course impelled the faculty to add it to the curriculum. Funds being insufficient to make it as serviceable as it was felt it must be, the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce was appealed to, with the result that the chamber is giving substantial financial aid, thus assuring the success of the commercial department by putting it from the beginning on the proper basis.

GARY L. COOK NOTABLE BIBLE WORKER HERE

Chair of Religious Education will be occupied by Gary L. Cook of Indianapolis, Indiana, during the absence of F. E. Billington, who is on leave. Mr. Cook has had extensive experience in this field. He is being relieved for six months from the superintendency of the Central Regional Sunday School District which includes Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan in order to come here. In addition to his other duties he has volunteered to act as Sunday School executive for the University church.

Texas Sunday Schools have pledged $30,000 for the support of a Religious Education Chair, and $19,575 of this is already paid. It is their intention, to make this department permanent by adding to the endowment until the interest is sufficient to meet all expenses in connection with it.

THE SKIFF

A newspaper published every Tuesday afternoon by the Students of Texas Christian University. Devoted to the art of broadcasting the common message while it is still news. Pledged to the support of high ideals. Committed to a true reflection of the progress of the University in such a way that the people inside and outside of its walls may know that T. C. U. is a center of real and broadening culture.

BOY, HOWDY!

Are you getting into the Varsity spirit. Gee, we are, and we want to know all of you so badly that we're taking this opportunity of introducing ourselves. It's just like this, fellows—to come to T. C. U. is to feel at home, and we've got a regular newspaper here that's going to keep the home folks informed—yes, we'll say, and even the world. The Skiff is, in fact, the greatest and only newspaper published in T. C. U. If you are going to be a loyal supporter of things proper, an athletic enthusiast, a student full of pep, who will make the teachers love you because you are keeping up with the world—then, you've got to have the Skiff. We've told you who we are. We have the news and we're going to print it. It's your move next. We not only want to know your name, but your address. And by the way, the Skiff is only a dollar a year.

GOOD AFTERNOON.

This is the first issue of the Golden Jubilee volume of The Skiff, a newspaper. The Skiff is to have a policy, it is to have reporters, it is to have an editorial staff; it is a newspaper. You will receive this issue free of charge. We want you to have it. You will not receive the next issue free of charge. We want you to have it. You will probably, be called upon tonight for your subscription, the price of which is only a dollar.

If you appreciate THE SKIFF as a newspaper we want your support. The Office of The Skiff is next to the Book Store. You are always welcome. It may be of interest to you to know that the editor is now searching for prospective reporters and staff members.

"BEANS AND FLAPPERS"

We can hang our thumbs through our suspenders and truly say that we need no such miracles as Dr. W. B. Bizzel describes to the Central Texas teachers' institute when he says: "The age of miracles certainly has not passed if school teachers of today will make useful men and women out of the jelly beans and flappers which are attending the schools." It has been observed more than once by persons of just opinions that girls on this hill use their heads for the same purpose for which they were originally intended. Jelly beans exist only in the weak clinging variety which have for the past year or two been running on the other side of the fence.

Add-Ran-Clark

Greetings, fellow students. The Add-Ran Clark Literary societies welcome you. Old students, we are glad to see you back. New students, we are glad to see such a promising freshman class. When the records are handed down at the end of this year we hope that your class will have been one to make T. C. U. proud of you.

Shirley-Walton Notes

Shirleys will be glad to know that a meeting of the society has been called for Tuesday evening, September 19, with everybody invited to attend. The ideals and standards for which the Shirleys stand will be pointed out and discussed by such men as Judge Green, Melvin Bishop, and Bill Shirley, in a short program. Because Mr. Chapter will not be here to assume his position as president, Vice-President Slater will call the meeting to order.

The ginger and pep that always accentuates school activities at the beginning of the year have struck the Shirleys harder than ever. Early birds are already poking heads together in earnest discussion of the possibilities of the coming year, and frequent outbursts of oratory are becoming frequent in the halls.

Men, we have the staff and we are going to put it over, stronger this year than ever before! We are going to get right in there and fight with a spirit that stands for the best man. We are going to win! Remember that we cannot get more out of a machine than we put into it—and the Shirley Literary society is our he-man's machine. We expect a great deal from it. We must put a great deal into it. Let us make the programs mean a lot to you. Observe and profit by everything that is said and done. Stand behind your officers and back your society as a whole. We want everything to which we belong to have a weight and influence—so, Shirleys let's show the new gang who's who in America.

Varsity Shop.

To make the community more completely collegiate, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and daughter, Ruth, conceived the idea of a T. C. U. Varsity Shop. Their living quarters are now upstairs and all of the lower floor of the Davis home opposite Jarvis hall will be opened to T. C. U. students, who will be served in either of the reception rooms, on the tea porch, veranda or lawns, at tables, in the swing, or on the grass. One room has been equipped for the development of pictures. Opening of the Varsity Shop will be as soon as final details are complete. Light lunches, refreshments, kodak pictures and photographs will be specialties, and other service will be added as desired.

Finding His Limit.
 With a sentimental leaning toward the days of his youth, a certain business man sent his son to the college where he had been educated. On arriving at the place of "much knowledge," the young man began to make inquiries.
 "I should like to see my father's record," said the new Freshie to the head of the institution, "He was here in 1890."
 "I shall be very pleased to show you the record," was the reply, "but have you any special reason for consulting it?"
 "Well," replied the youth frankly, "when I left home Dad told me not to disgrace his record, and I only want to see how far I can go."

MRS. COCKRELL LEADS ARTISTS

Mrs. W. B. Owen to Have China Painting.

Mrs. Dura-Brokaw Cockrell, professor of Art, is lighting the fires and warming the kilns. Her first activity this season was the celebration on Friday, September 1, of the fiftieth anniversary of T. C. U., and also the annual party given by "The Brushes," an organization of the art classes. Open house was held all day for present and former pupils of Mrs. Cockrell who now live in Fort Worth, of whom it is estimated there are over two hundred. On tables spread down the full length of third floor hall in the administration building a buffet luncheon was served at noon to about sixty guests. Many others called during the afternoon and evening.

President Waits spoke, and Mrs. Cockrell introduced Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, instructor in voice in T. C. U. until 1920, Mrs. Mary Coates Plangman, who rendered a piano solo, Mrs. Ida Fred Simon, whom she designated her "oldest" pupil, and Miss Mary Bishop, who responded to a toast and also read. After the tables were sufficiently relieved of edibles, children of former pupils were placed thereon for a general inspection. Little Frances Loraine, daughter of Annie Mae Tanner Grenon, was spokeswoman for the little tots, and made her speech to both young and younger. Decorations were with flowers gathered from the campus.

Among the guests at luncheon were: Misses Minnette Simon, Virginia Bryson, Mary A. Bishop, Winifred Yates, Marjorie Yates, Vera Lewis, Buena Foster, Mary Myers, Rosa Fred, Mary Jane McLean, Laura Van Tuyl, Bertha Jackson, Fayne Allen, Julia M. Pierce, Elizabeth Lewellyn, Lottie Martin, Bertie A. Pearson, Lila Ruth Owens, Charlotte Maurita Smith, Madelon Flynn, Adele Cahoon, Ella L. Peacock, Alice Strother, Dorothy McGonagill, Euphrates Smith, Rosaleen Smith, Neil Hanger, Blanche Ratliff, Virginia Stewart, Hattie Smotherman, Emile Guidrog; Meses. W. B. Owen, W. P. Luck, D. D. Davidson and children, Rowena and Drenkin; E. Edward Jurja, Earl Buchanan, C. Lockhart, Arthur Simon, P. M. Scardino, Helen Fouts Cahoon, Bart Guidrog, Claude L. Drennan, Irvin Owens, R. C. Smith, Mary Coates Plangman, Sydney Smith, Water Ratliff, Charles B. Stewart, Dr. E. M. Waits and Ernest Shover.

Keramic Club Meets.
Mr. Titz came down from St. Paul last spring and gave a series of special lessons in china decoration. At that time the Fort Worth Ceramic Club was organized and Mrs. Cockrell was elected president. Last Tuesday afternoon Misses Rosa Fred, Paddie East and Frances Luck were hostesses to those attending the first fall assembly, which was held in the T. C. U. studios. There were twenty five members present who outlined plans for the coming season. Meetings will be held regularly on second Tuesday afternoons of each month.

PETE WRIGHT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR HORNED FROGS

A most dependable ground gainer and perfect defensive player gave "Pete" Wright a name that was feared all over footballdom. He made a reputation on the T. C. U. team back in Waco for his ability in playing well at any position except quarterback. Yes, "Pete" was captain during his fourth year, and in a talk to his team before the last game of the season coined that now trite expression. "Boys, you want to hit 'em so hard that it will jar their ancestors four generations back."

Now he's resigned an excellent position with the Southwest National Bank of Dallas to come over and succeed W. L. Driver as Athletic Director for his Alma Mater. He is an advocate of fair and clean sportsmanship, and deserves nothing short of T. C. U. support at its best in everything he brings forward in athletics.

In our bereavement column we place the loss of R. A. Brown, a second year man who has decided to begin the study of animal husbandry in Texas A. and M.

now the telephone and mails are being used to get in touch with ex-art students who have not contemplated a return to Varsity in many years.

EVANGELIST MAKING MANY APPOINTMENTS

W. H. FRAME

Twenty-five preaching appointments have been made for T. C. U. ministerial students by Rev. W. Howard Payne, engaged in the field work of visiting churches over the state and making appointments for Brite College students. Sunday there were more calls from vacant pulpits than could be supplied, but with the matriculation of many additional men today and tomorrow it is estimated the supply will soon meet the demand.

"To help the students in any way that I possibly can, to obtain preaching places, and to make needed suggestions, is my purpose here, and to do this I must have as full and hearty co-operation from the students as I have had from the administration," are the words in which the evangelist expresses his function.

A great factor in the success of Rev. Frame is his understanding of the capacity of youth. He has found that churches are benefitted in many ways by calling young

PROFESSOR OF PHYSICS ALSO TEACHES SOME CHEM

The election of W. Arthur to the professorship of physics is a step further in the rapid progress of our scientific departments. He will teach, in addition to Physics 27, the analytical chemistry classes. When Mr. Arthur and F. Woodall Hogan got their heads together in the chemistry department there is no doubt that all of our science courses will become as highly standardized as those which have created such an enviable reputation in the hands of Mr. W. M. Winton and his biological and geological staffs.

Mr. Arthur comes to T. C. U. with a record of achievement, having been chief chemist and metallurgist for the Haines Automobile Company at Kokomo, Indiana, for the past two years; was chief chemist at the Frankfort Arsenal for two years ministers who are full of enthusiasm and college ideas. It is his desire to early become acquainted with all students, and he will be glad to advise with and help them in any way that he can.

Rev. Frame has had a career of fifteen years as a daily newspaper editor, but for the past few years has been making his headquarters at Brownsville as pastor evangelist along the Mexican border and in the lower part of the state. He is now doing a work long needed in T. C. U. and this section of Texas.

Dean Elliott's Welcome to Men

Congratulations upon your return to the old school. This year should be your best one, and it is my earnest hope that it will be. While we are glad to be back and thinking of the good things ahead of us, let us also look about for something worth while to set our hands to.

For every old man who is back for his second, third, or fourth year, there is a new man here who is wondering what the first year holds for him. To him the year is one of the cross roads in his life. It is so because he must choose again his associates; he will form again certain ideals and practice new habits. habits we may help form are ones that will make stronger and better men.

Now if we as old men want a task that is worth while and one that will bring results a hundred fold, let us do the square and the manly thing by our recent friends and see that every influence is one that will shape their new ideals into true ones, and let us see also that the

The new man's impression of T. C. U. and his idea of college life will be made from what he sees our old men do and from what he hears them say. In short, our old men will have a definite part in moulding the career of our new men, so let us be sure that our efforts will be at all times for the best interest of the one who is spending his first year with us, and let him have us to thank for a proper beginning of his college career.

NEW STUDENTS AND OLD

We are just beginning our fifteenth year of service to T. C. U. Students. We most cordially invite you to visit us. Just north of campus.

This Store Extends You
a Hearty Welcome

The Seniors returning need no introduction to this store, and perhaps likewise the newcomers, for as a rule they follow the dictates of the elder students. We therefore feel reasonably sure that all T. C. U. people will find their way to Stripling's Store.

But we feel that a special invitation is due the newcomers. Come—feel the friendly welcome and appreciation of your visit. Catch the College slogan:

"Meet Me at Stripling's"

SHEPPARD FROM VANDY
ELECTED NEW LINGUIST

Vanderbilt University and T. C. U. share southern honors in the coming of Mr. R. E. Sheppard to the department of Sociology and Economics in T. C. U. Mr. Sheppard holds his A. B. and A. M. degrees from Vanderbilt, where he has been an instructor while completing work leading to B. D. degree. Some of the courses in the department of Business Administration will be under his direction.

R. E. SHEPPARD

Hanson McLean, Boy Scout camp director who had charge of the largest number of boys ever attending Camp Leroy Sherman on the shores of Lake Worth, will return to T. C. U. and resume a definite course in Boy Scout work as a profession. This is his Sophomore year.

Miss May Kemp has the distinctive honor of being valedictorian of the senior class at Bryan high school in Dallas. She begins her class work in T. C. U. as a life work recruit tomorrow. She is a sister of Miss Ethel Kemp, a Junior.

GEO. D. DAVIDSON

Mr. George D. Davidson, who becomes head of the Spanish department, is fully equipped both with preparation and experience for the work which he is to undertake. He has a speaking knowledge of French, Spanish, German, Italian and Portuguese. Much of his thoroughness and understanding of the learner of foreign languages was gained while he was several years instructor of French in the University of Virginia and professor of French and Spanish at Millsaps College. The last two years he has been connected with Simmons College, Abilene, Texas. It is enough to say that Mr. Davidson has his Ph.D. degree from Johns Hopkins University, and will take his place in T. C. U. with those men who so distinctly stand out as being of that degree.

T. C. U. COUPLE MARRIED
LIVING ON ROGERS AVE.

W. J. Hammond, pastor of the Ross Avenue Christian church, and Miss Margaret Forsythe of McKinney, were married Monday evening, September 3, at the bride's home, Chalmers McPherson performing the ceremony. The marriage resulted from a romance started several years ago while both were boarding students at Goode Hall. T. C. U. friends present were: Horace Jones, once editor of the Skiff, and his wife, of Dallas; J. W. Boultinghouse, president of the Student Body Association in 1920-21, and Miss Mary Melton of Allen.

Mrs. Hammond received her A. B. degree with the class of 1919, taught in the Academy until it was abolished in 1921, and became a teacher in the McKinney high school last season.

The newlyweds will make their home on Rogers Avenue near the University. Mr. Hammond will complete his work for an A. B. degree this spring, at the same time continuing his ministry at Ross Avenue Christian church in Dallas. Mrs. Hammond expects to enter the department of religious education and receive her M. A. in the spring graduation.

Dry Poetry.

When a brother meets a brother,
And a brother's dry;
Then each brother greets each other
With a Prohib. sigh.
Then they both drink ice cream so-der
For there is no rye;
Heckuva way to treat a brother—
When a brother's dry.

MARCH MERRILL

Mr. March Merrill will head the department of French in Texas Christian University. His work has been most pleasant in the past; his personality and earnestness insure a similar environment while here.

Receiving his bachelor's degree from William's College, one of the most historic institutions in America, and a Master's degree from the University of California, and completing his work for a doctor's degree in Johns Hopkins University, Mr. Merrill went to France where he talked and lived the French language for five years, attending La Sorbonne University in Paris from 1909 until 1914. He has been head of the department of Romance Languages in the University of Tennessee, instructor of Russian languages in the University of Wisconsin, instructor in the department of Romance Languages in Johns Hopkins and Cornell Universities. He has spent three years in the University of California. One of his abilities is to speak French and Spanish as well as English, and read Italian, German and Russian. Welcome, Mr. Merrill, to T. C. U.

His Name Wasn't Dennis.

An Englishman who had just come over was having some trouble about the delivery of his "Skiff." He telephoned the editor and the latter, not being able to understand the name, asked that it be spelled.

"Ow do you spell it?" the Englishman asked. "Spell it with a hoe and a hen anda he and a hi and two hells."

College Men's Clothes

AROUND the campus young fellows look at clothes differently. Part of the time they slouch around in any old thing. But when they do dress up it has to be real stuff. Clothes with even the slightest short-coming wont do.

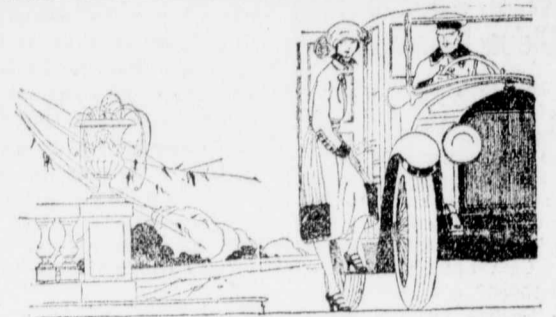

We make certain that our college men's suits are the "last word" in every detail, and see to it that every garment has the swing that undergraduates always want in things they wear.
