Two Game Series Leaves Frogs Tied With Baylor Bears

Buster Walker Downs Bears in First Con- ference Game.

WINNER STILL IN DOUBT

Longhorns and Farmers Look Good Against Celler Club— Texas Here Monday.

Splitting a two-game series Friday and Saturday of last week, the T. C. U. Horned Frogs and the Baylor Bears emerged from their first encounter in the conference with an average of .500. The first game was won by the Purple 7-2 when Ralph (Buster) Walker, sophomore pitcher, held the Bear batsmen helplessly after the first inning and the Frogs jumped on two Baylor hurlers for nine hits, many for extra bases.

Leo Buckley, another sophomore, was wild in the opening innings of the second game with the result that the Bears gathered 5 in the second and 6 in the third inning, to have a 11-1 lead on the Frogs at the jump. Rob Ell Cox and Jake Williams failed to turn the tide of the battle and the Bears, gathered 5 more runs in the eighth. The game ended 16-3.

Frog Infield Looks Good.

The snappy play of the Frog infield proved that Coach Dutch Meyers had just about solved the problem presented to him last week when Gene Turner, crack shortstop, broke his leg in practice. Buster Vaughn has been shifted to second. Peewee Lee going to short. The combination worked well against the Bears and it is probable that Dutch will keep it.

If the first few games of the Southwestern Conference can be taken as a criterion, there will be a wild scramble for the title this year.

The Aggies looked like a million dollars in their opening conference game, overwhelming the Rice Owls by a score of 12 to 1. Yet with the Owls at the foot of the conference ladder, with three defeats, perhaps the Aggies merely looked good by comparison.

Steers Have Disch Fight.

State also picked up a couple of games from the Owls, demonstrating that Joe Dobbs is apt to be one of the stars of the conference, but that Johnny Taitton, southpaw, may not live up to expectations. If he doesn't, then Uncle Billy Disch may have some trouble leading his nine to the usual title. The Longhorns have all the old fight, however, winning both games from Rice when their case appeared more or less hopeless.

The Frogs, in their first game with Baylor, looked like champions. Saturday was different, but that blowup Saturday was of sufficient proportions to last for the rest of the season. Let's hope we got it all out of our system at once—and at the cost of but one game. Certainly the Frogs are going to be in there as real contenders all the way, with a dandy chance to bring T. C. U. its first major conference championship.

The Longhorns will receive an acid test on Friday and Saturday when they play in Dallas, helping to open the conference season with S. M. U. The Ponies seem to have a great bunch. These games will do much toward telling which way the wind is blowing in the conference race.

The Steers come to T. C. U. for a pair of games Monday and Tuesday. After the Frogs have copped these two—well, it won't be long now!

Will Serve as Judges

Dr. Herbert L. Hughes and Dr. E. Barton Howe of the English department of Texas Christian University are to be judges in an interscholastic meet at Bowie Thursday and Friday.

The meet will include contests in oratory and declamation as well as athletic events. Several schools of the section will be entered.

Majority of '27 Class Training School--44 of 104 Turn Pedagogues

What becomes of the university graduate who each June occupies the limelight and has the world at his or her feet?

An investigation conducted at Texas Christian University as to the graduates of the class of 1927, makes it appear that school teaching calls nearly half of the graduates.

Of the 104 graduates of the class of '27 at T. C. U., 44 are teaching this year. Of these 20 are teaching in Fort Worth.

Ziegler Has Exhibit In Jarvis Parlors

Many Local Subjects Included in Land- scape Works.

Prof. Sam P. Ziegler, head of the art department at Texas Christian University, has on display an exhibition of landscape paintings in the parlors of Jarvis Hall on the T. C. U. campus.

The canvasses are all late works, the subjects including such local scenes as the prairies and valleys along the Trinity about Fort Worth. The seasons midsummer and winter are represented, including a vigorously painted snow scene. There are also a few canvasses from the series which Professor Ziegler did on a trip to the oil fields last summer.

Ziegler is holding the exhibition preliminary to the opening of his landscape painting classes, which begin April 10 and continue until the end of the school year.

The exhibition in Jarvis Hall is open to the public. It will close tomorrow.

Youth Convention Is Discussed in Forum

Committee Appointed to Select T.C.U. Delegates and Raise Trip Funds.

From 50 to 60 students meet every Tuesday night at Texas Christian University to hold a forum on the subjects that will be discussed at the Youth Convention to be held in Columbus, Ohio, April 18 to 23. This course has been carried on for the last six weeks.

The questions under discussion are: "National Relationships," "Racial Relationships," "Industrial Relationships" and "Christian Unity."

A committee composed of Harvey Redford, Rothe Hilger and Prof. H. L. Pickering, has been appointed to select delegates and raise funds for the trip. However, anyone may go, provided he pays his own expenses.

The delegates from Texas will meet at St. Louis and from there go on a special train to Columbus.

Last year there were 500 young people at the convention. This year more than 1,000 are expected.

And in the other articles I have discussed the new and old dialects which are evident in Texas. This is, indeed, a wide and fertile field for research."

Dean Williams Is Journalist, Editor, Educator, Author

Organized First School of Journalism In World.

ACTIVE INTERNATIONALIST

Travels 3 Months in Orient in Interest of Pan-Pacific Journalism.

Because of a typographical error, the Skiff last week gave the wrong date for Dean Walter Williams' lecture. Dean Williams will speak in the T. C. U. auditorium on the evening of Thursday, April 12.

Journalist, author, lecturer, internationalist, educator, editor, printer—Dean Walter Williams, who will lecture at T. C. U. on the evening of April 12, is all of these!

Dean Williams started his newspaper career as a printer in Boonville, Mo. He became an editor before he could vote, and at the age of 23 was president of the Missouri Press Association—the youngest president that that organization has ever had.

Later he moved to Columbia, Mo., and became editor of the Missouri Herald. Under his direction this paper won national fame as a "model country weekly." After thus gaining national recognition, he was elected president of the National Editorial Association at the age of 31.

Wages International Career.

When the international Press Congress was held in Bern, Switzerland, in 1902, Williams was selected as the president for North America and it was then that he began his long period of service in international journalistic affairs.

To enumerate all the positions of international trust held by Dean Williams would make a list too long for our space. Let it suffice to mention the following: President of the World's Press Parliament, St. Louis, 1904; commissioner of Louisiana Purchase Exposition to the foreign press, 1902-04; fellow, Kahn Foundation for Foreign Travel of American Teachers, 1914-18; director International Press Congress of the World, San Francisco, 1915; first president Press Congress of the World, 1915-27; special mission to Japan, China and Siberia, 1918-19; president, Pan-American Press Con-

"Princess" and Maids Are Chosen For Annual T. C. U. Pageant May 12

Of the thirteen girls presented in chapel Monday morning as candidates for "Princess" of the Indian Pageant to be given by the girl's physical training classes on May 12, seven have been chosen by a vote of the student body. These seven are: Texora Pierce, Breckenridge; Pauline Richardson, Dallas; Jennie Louise Copeland, Cleburne; Dorothy Nel Brad, Brady; Doris Shaw, Fort Worth; Mae Morgan, Fort Worth; and Frances Fry, Fort Worth.

The one who received the highest number of votes will be the "Princess," the other six will act as maids. The identity of the royal person will be kept secret until the night of the pageant.

The pageant, which will be produced in the T. C. U. stadium, will be part of the school's contribution to Fort Worth's annual Music Week. It will also be given in honor of the visiting mothers on Mother's Day.

Every girl who is taking gymnasium work for credit will take part. About 350 are expected to participate. Mrs. Helen Murphy, director of physical education for girls, is directing the pageant. She is also its author.

Former T.C.U. Teacher To Be Presented by Faculty Women.

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, soprano, will be presented in concert in the school auditorium by the Texas Christian University Faculty Women's Club on Tuesday evening April 10.

Mrs. Cahoon possesses a "coloratura voice of unusually high character," according to many of the musical critics in the North and East, where she had appeared in numerous recitals, oratorios and concerts.

Mrs. Cahoon has studied with Max Heinrich and Walter S. Young in New York City, and has served as a member of the faculty of the National Academy of Music in New York City. For two years she was teacher of piano and voice at Friends University at Wichita, Kan. and for three years was soloist at St. Andrew's Church in New York City, and piano accompanist in concert work.

Mrs. Cahoon formerly lived in Fort Worth and will be remembered in music circles as a singer of ability. She was a teacher in the voice department of T. C. U. from 1913 to 1919 and was director of the music department of the school in 1918.

Close Race Makes Recount Necessary In Song Election

Officers Busy Tuesday Rechecking Votes; Results Soon.

BOOK TO BE PUBLISHED

President Fears Possibility of "Voting in" Song for Use as School Tune.

So close is the vote in the school song election, a recount will be necessary before the winner can be announced, according to Jerome Smiser, president of the student body. Election officials were busy Tuesday going through the ballots again and the results will be posted sometime this week.

Everett Shipp, editor of the Horned Frog, has advanced the proposition that the identity of the winners be withheld until the Frog is published in May. This plan, however, is not favored according to Smiser. The sooner the song is determined and being used by the student body, the better, is the opinion of a great number of students interviewed on the question.

In the Alma Mater class, two of the songs are running so close that it is probable that only a few votes will separate them. There is also a hot race in the athletic song contest.

Songs entered in the contest will be printed in a T. C. U. song book for the use of the school in future years. Not only the songs now being voted on, but all songs submitted will be included. This plan, advocated by President Waits, has already been put into effect.

The songs now being voted on are: Alma Mater class, "Sunlit Alma Mater," by Miss Rebecca Smith and Bill Balch; "Alma Mater" by Glenn Cantfield; and "Alma Mater" by George Merrill. In the athletic class, "Horned Frogs We're All for You" by Prof. Claude Sammis and "For T. C. U." by George Merrill.

In a speech before chapel last Friday, President Waits warned against attempting to pick a school song by a vote of a single student body at a given time. "A school song to be a school song must stand the test of many years and many student bodies" said the president in part. He refuted the idea that we had used the old school song "for the last time."

Frosh Take Track Meet From Junior Aggregation 93-24

Cyrus Leland Runs 100 Yard Dash in 9.9 Seconds.

The Freshmen took the second intramural track meet from the Junior team Monday afternoon to the tune of 93-24. The Freshmen were superior in every department and after the first few events the winner was never in doubt.

One of the outstanding features of the meet was the running of the 100-yard dash by Cyrus Leland, Frosh speedster, in 9.9. Leland was running with the wind to his back, but despite this advantage, his time is quite exceptional. He was also high point man for the evening making 20 1/4 points.

Clyde Roberson was second in points with 18. Gerald Long was third with 13 1/2 and Ralph Sanders fourth with 12 1/2. Sanders is the only Junior in the group.

The results leave the seniors tied with the freshmen. In the first meet the last year men downed the sophs 95 1/2 to 42 1/2. Bob Alexander was high point man with 21 1/4, Fred Braested was second with 15 1/4, Elmo Milling with Earl Maisel tied for third with 13 1/4 each.

Prof. Graham Estes reports that "there is yet plenty of room on all the squads for any who wish to participate. The senior, junior, sophomore and freshman managers are respectively: Earl Maisel, Wade Hawkins and Pat Sullivan, Elmo Milling and Gordon Copeland.

Four ribbons will be awarded in each event, after the last meet. The awards will be based upon an individual's total number of accumulated points in any particular event. First place ribbons are blue, second red, third white, and fourth yellow.

He will deliver an address Friday morning at 10:30 in Baylor chapel on "Journalism and the Future American Civilization." George B. Dealey, editor of the Dallas News, will follow Dean Williams.

New Plan at Harvard

Student "Vagabonding" From Class to Class Tried.

(By New Student Service.)

NEW YORK—Harvard's plan of educational "vagabonding" has been winning enthusiastic receptions in other colleges, with consequent attempts by many college editors to bring about similar arrangements in their own institutions. The "vagabonding" is simply a matter of attending interesting lectures in classes besides those in which the student is registered.

To enable the students to choose, the Harvard Crimson each day publishes a directory of worth while lectures, from which the students make their choice. Harvard students had long followed this program, but their daily has crystallized the practice into an extra-curricular activity.

President C. C. Little, of the University of Michigan, while recognizing the excellent scholastic motives behind vagabonding, predicts that "it is likely to have disastrous effects if carried to the extreme." If not permitted to interfere with regular class work, he views it as legitimate.

ment Day comes April 11. "Facts vs. Fiction in Modern Journalism," by Frank Baldwin, editor of the Waco News Tribune, will be the opening address for this day at 9 o'clock. A round table discussion of the problems of reporters will follow. At 10:30 W. V. Crawford, Waco department store manager and formerly Associated Press man with Roosevelt, will speak on "President Roosevelt and His Attitude Toward Newspapers." Richard McCarty of the Albany News is on the program at 1:30, and Richard C. Bush, telegraph editor of the Waco Times-Herald, will talk at 2 o'clock on "The Scope and Methods of News Management," with a general discussion of the status of Texas papers at 2:30.

The third day of the session will be given over to college journalism. At 9 o'clock Prof. Cecil Horne of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, will discuss news from the college point of view, while Prof. W. H. Harnody, publicity director of Texas University, is to speak at 9:30. Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald, editorial and political writer for numerous Texas papers, speaks at 10:30 on "Politics and Journalism." At 1:30 Dr. Dan Russell, now professor at Texas A. and M. will tell of social conditions in Chicago and their relationship to newspapers. Dr. J. M. McConnell, editor of the Baptist Standard, will discuss "Religious Journalism and the New Social Order" at 2 o'clock. The round table discussion of this day will be taken by college editors.

J. D. Suggs, editor of the Pampa Times, speaks first on the last day of Journalism Week, to be known as Metropolitan Journalism Day. Mrs. Lee R. Roundtree, vice president of the National Editorial Association and editor of the Bryan Eagle, speaks on "Modern Women and Journalism" at 9:30. Following the addresses by Dean Williams and Mr. Dealey, Prof. Eric O. Schroeder of C. I. A. and J. W. Riddings, professor of Journalism at T. C. U., Fort Worth, share the 1:30 hour. The Southern Journalism Congress in the afternoon and the banquet at 7:45 conclude the four-day session.

Netmen To Meet All S.W.C. Teams Except Baylor, T.U.

Jinx Forces Atkinson,

DENTON HERE SATURDAY
Conference Meet in Houston
May 17-19—Frogs Play
4 Teams Here.

Horned Frog netmen will have matches this year with all conference teams with the exception of Baylor and the University. These two schools will probably be encountered in the final conference meet at Rice which closes the season's play. The same jinx which has followed the Horned Frog track team seems to be hovering over the tennis team also. J. D. Tomlinson, who is a veteran of two years' experience, will probably be forced out of the squad because of an overcrowded program of study. Tomlinson is for his hard, sizzling drives, and noted throughout the conference will be sorely needed by the Frog netmen.

Another experienced tournament player who will be unable to play for the same reason is Bill Atkinson. The loss of these two men will leave the No. 3 and No. 4 places on the squad to be filled with men who have had no experience in conference play. William Ewell and Weir McDiarmid are No. 1 and No. 2 men, respectively.

The schedule for the Frog netmen is as follows:

March 31, Denton Teachers in Denton.
April 7, Denton Teachers in Fort

Too Many Studes in College Says Mencken--Benefits Are Social

ITHACA, N. Y.—"I am thoroughly convinced that too many young Americans are now going to college and that their presence is greatly impeding the work of the colleges. Certainly it should be possible to devise some scheme to weed out the unfit." Thus spoke Henry L. Mencken to a reporter for the Cornell Sun, in one of several interviews recently granted to college papers.

Mr. Mencken, we are told, "is opposed to the college for the purposes of intellectual education. With Nathan he holds that its greatest benefits are social."

Of compulsory military training, the editor of the Mercury, said: "The military training idea seems to me absurd. I see no reason why the college student should be conscripted and not the young man outside."

And of the lecture system: "The American system, it seems to me, is better for Americans than the Oxford system. It is obviously more in accord with the habits of mind of our people."

And of fraternities: "Regarding fraternities, I know nothing. It is commonly alleged that they foster snobbery. But I see no objection to snobbery per se; all rational men are snobs in some way or another. That the fraternities exalt fifth-raters and overlook men of merit may be true, but the accusation might be leveled against any other human institution."

Mr. Mencken urges all who feel the urge to write, first to obtain steady employment. Until recently he suggested bootlegging, but the strength of competition has led to advocacy of taxi driving and similar occupations.

DEAN WILLIAMS IS JOURNALIST, EDITOR EDUCATOR, AUTHOR

gress, 1926; president Pan-Pacific Press Congress, 1927; exchange professor National University of Mexico, 1925.

First School of Journalism.
However, in spite of the multiplicity of honors, it is as the organizer of the first school of journalism in the world that Dean Williams is best known. He was active in the founding of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri in 1908, and has been head of the school ever since.

Last fall Dean Williams traveled for three months in the Orient in the interests of Pan-Pacific Journalism. So he is peculiarly qualified to speak on the subject, "The New Far East" which will be his topic at T. C. U.

Tickets for Dean Williams' lecture are now on sale. The price is 50 cents, and they may be obtained from any member of the Dana Press Club, or from Professor Ridings in the Journalism Office.
