

Later hours for dormitory girls may become a reality, as the Saturday night 12:45 o'clock rule was never repealed, just forgotten, according to Dean Elizabeth Shelburne. The rule will be discussed by the social calendar committee at its meeting today. Dean Shelburne seems more favorable to revising the rule, rather than repealing it.

Intramurals Start Prouse Active Sports for All Point System
By OLIN JONES
(Student Intramural Manager)

Intramural land is buzzing again! In the sporting parlance around the gym that lead on a story means Prof. Thomas Prouse has taken off his coat and started cranking his Intramural Machine.

In the three years Prouse has been here he has built up the most active and the most representative organization on the campus. With only a small amount of money, he has allotted awards that have made varsity athletes wish they were intramuralers. If the Student Council were one half as active and progressive as Prouse's program, then Byron Buckridge's dream could come true.

There are sports enough for every man in school and they have a range that is limited only by the lack of inventive genius to name another sport. Three years ago we had five sports. Since Mr. Prouse took over we have added 14 more and give the original five a shot of new fire.

The feature of the entire year and the climax in entertainment is, of course, the Intramural Open House. At the open house we present in review the championship basketball game, handball championship, the champion swimmers and divers perform for you; the fencers strive to win their medals. The introduction of badminton has another champion that is crowned that night. The "tops" for the evening however, is the "Silver Gloves" boxing matches, where these infuriated brutes wait to the strains of their favorites' smiles. It's a gala affair. And his a hint! Get a date now to avoid the rush.

We have received many requests for our point system used in making the awards at the end of the season and thanks to Paul Ridings we have this opportunity to give it to you. With the approval of Mr. Prouse and the intramural committee, participation points are given as:

Football 90, basketball 60, baseball 60, volleyball 30, handball singles per match 10, track event 10, golf per match 10, boxing per match 10, tennis, singles per match 10, soccer 15, badminton 5 per match, swimming 5 per event, diving 5, fencing 5 per match, tennis doubles 5 per round, handball doubles 5, rifle marksmanship 2 1/2, ping-pong 2 1/2, horseshoes 2 1/2, horseshoe doubles 1. For the winner of any event except a class championship, 10 extra points are allowed. Officials and scorers are allowed 10 points, provided they meet the test requirements.

The intramural system is built like an inverted pyramid with Prouse at the apex, and flanging upward are the intramural managers and team captains.

Like all good things, my prattle must cease sometime but how could an ex-yell leader finish anything without an appeal for more pep. Come on out to the intramural gridiron next Wednesday and get into the wheel of progress; let your pent up emotions out, either on the field or in cheering for your class team. This is our organization and it's up to you to make it bigger and better. Well, it's go, Froggies!

Voting in Chapel Will Determine Trip Destination

Three Possibilities on List for Student Body Journey.

Gents to Give Lunch

Centenary, Texas, Baylor, Offer Special Entertainment in Invitations.

The official student body trip will be voted on next Wednesday in chapel. Student Body President Byron Buckridge has announced.

Three schools are open as possible student body trips. They are Baylor at Waco, Texas at Austin and Centenary at Shreveport.

The Administration has made it a policy to have the students designate one trip as an official student body trip, and on this day an official holiday will be granted. The policy has been in effect since 1928.

Centenary and Texas, both "possibles" this year, are tied for runner-up honors, with two trips each. Texas A. & M., which was the official trip last year, is the favorite, having been selected four times. Rice has been chosen once.

The Shreveport school has extended an invitation to the 1937-38 student body to make the official trip there. They offer a free luncheon before the game, transportation and a dance that night. The Shreveport Chamber of Commerce has joined them in the invitation.

The railroad fare to Shreveport will be $3.40, if as many as 75 go. A special train will be organized if 200 go. This game will be Nov. 5. Texas University has also extended an invitation for the trip and will hold a script dance after the game. The fare to Austin will be $3. The Steers are played Nov. 13.

Although Baylor University has not extended an official invitation, it is certain that the student body, as in the past, will be entertained. The fare to Waco will be $1.35.

"Every student should consider all the facts and vote with care," President Buckridge has urged, "and all seniors interested should attend chapel."

General Motors Gives Work to 14 at T. C. U.

$15,000 Paid to Students During School Year—Some Get Jobs After Graduation.

If some T. C. U. professor should walk through the General Motors warehouse building on West Seventh street any afternoon he might pinch himself to determine whether he was actually in the warehouse or in the Administration Building of T. C. U.

He might see his favorite history student sweeping the floor, or the best English scholar pushing a huge truck of automobile parts around. This company employs 14 T. C. U. boys regularly, and gives extra work to many more during the school year. They are given hours so that they may work in the afternoon and attend classes in the morning. Once each week they attend a warehouse training course offered by the company.

During the nine months' school period, General Motors pays to T. C. U. students $15,000. After finishing school, these boys are given better positions providing they show ability.

Those now on the payroll of this concern are: Bob Coon, Maurice Skaggs, Fouts White, Harold Woodard, Roy Blackmon, C. H. Taylor, Red Phares, Lacy McClanahan, Earnest Havellson, Kile Miser, Allyn Berry, J. B. Chapman, L. A. Barnes, Ned James.

Olin Jones Named Head of Trophy Case Group

Olin Jones has been appointed chairman of the committee on transferring the trophy case from the Gymnasium to the front hall of the Administration Building, Byron Buckridge has announced.

Future Minister, Actress, Executive, Head Class '41

A friendly sort of fellow who has a word of cheer for everyone he knows and a western smile for those he doesn't—that's Ed Brooke, president of the class of '41.

Ed graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School, Dallas, last June, and he enrolled in T. C. U. to prepare himself for full-time religious service.

He plays a jam-up game on the Frosh intramural football team, but says he "was never much good" at football in high school. He wanted to sing with the Men's Glee Club, but says he "just can't find time for it this year."

Ed is a blond, is 5 feet, 11 inches tall, and weighs 175 pounds.

George Dickinson, named vice-president of the freshman class, almost attended the U. S. Naval Academy instead of T. C. U. He was named first alternate following competitive examinations last summer, but the top boy accepted and so George became a member of the class of '41 at T. C. U.

Latin and tennis got most of George's interest back in high school at Longview. His father attended T. C. U. before the World War and won his "T" in tennis. One of the chief ambitions of the new freshman vice-president is to earn a letter as his father did.

George plans to major in business administration. He says he has no pet hates but—

"Just say that I very definitely like tennis and brunettes—especially the latter!"

Miss Florrie Buckingham, secretary-treasurer of the first-year class is definitely "stage struck," and intends to demonstrate her dramatic ability as a major in public speaking. Her favorite actress is Helen Hayes.

In her leisure hours, Miss Buckingham keeps scrapbooks of various sorts. She has a scrapbook on symphonies, one on the stage and one on football, the latter her favorite. It contains pictures and autographs of all-Americans and Southwest stars for the past three years.

This 5-foot-3 freshman is a first-class tennis player and also likes horseback riding and swimming.

Yes, of course, she has joined the Dramatic Club and the W. A. A. After graduation she hopes to do radio work.

Club Will Sing At Horse Show

The Men's Glee Club will make its first public appearance at the annual Horse Show in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum Monday evening Oct. 11.

The Club is singing upon an invitation extended by R. D. Evans, head of the Fort Worth Recreation Department.

The numbers selected by director W. J. Marsh for the concert will be "Old Faithful," "Another Mile," featuring John Crawford, baritone, and "Yellow Rose of Texas."

The Glee Club now has 62 members.

2 New T. C. U. Programs Presented Over KTAT

Dramatic Club Members Give Safety Play—Ridings Broadcasts Campus News.

Two new programs in the T. C. U. radio series over station KTAT were broadcast Wednesday afternoon from the studio on third floor of the Administration building.

From 5 to 5:15 o'clock members of the Dramatic Club presented the first in a series of 12 programs, entitled "Safety Musketeers." The programs are being presented under the direction of Miss Katherine Moore.

The play given Wednesday, "Public Enemy No. 1," dealt with safety education. Members of the cast were: Miss Jean Lipps, Harold Caylor, Bob Decker, Cleland Early, Bill Haworth, Louis Pitchford and Rufus Whitley.

At 5:15 o'clock, following the safety program, Paul Ridings, editor of The Skiff, presented a program of campus news. This was the first of his series entitled "Campus Notes."

Council Rejects Resignation Plan

Student Council members yesterday turned down a proposal to resign as a group the student body officers and present their differences as a group to the student body in a new election.

Dissension in the Council had been brought to a head Wednesday when an amendment to the constitution providing for a new representative set-up to go into effect immediately was presented for an election date.

Naming of the amendment election date was then postponed until Monday's regular meeting.

Yesterday's meeting was called to discuss possible solutions which would secure harmony in the student government.

"We can all recognize the fact that the present Council can not secure harmony," Student Body President

Byron Buckridge announced as he opened the meeting.

He pointed out the three possible solutions: the naming of an election date for the amendment which will, if passed, change not only the representatives but the manner of representation; the chance of going on with present policies and having to call on the Administration for guidance; or every member and officer resigning and submitting the matter to the student body in a new election.

Buckridge then pointed out that none of these suggestions was his and that they had all come from other members of the Council, but he wanted the question settled.

After a short discussion, W. A. Welsh, senior representative, moved that the Council adopt the first solu-

A. & M. Cadets Invited to Make Official Trip to T. C. U.

Reception Planned

New Orchestra Will Play for Dance—Elaborate Decorations to Be Used.

Make your dates now, boys, for the entire Texas A. & M. cadet corps may be here next week-end.

An invitation to make T. C. U. the official corps trip was extended this week by Miss Ann Day Jarvis, secretary-treasurer of the student body.

Highlights of the proposed trip next Saturday will be the reception and parade downtown, a barbecue luncheon for the corps, the game, and the dance that night.

An out-of-town dance orchestra is being hired for the dance, and Truitt Kennedy, dance manager, has promised that the dance will reach a new high in entertainment at Frogland. The most elaborate decorations in history are just a part of the plans. Other details will be announced later.

Price of admission to the dance will be 40 cents per person and $1 per stag.

The corps luncheon will probably be held in the Basketball Gymnasium and will be sponsored by the school.

"Rooms, transportation and general good-will must be provided by the students as a whole," Student Body President Byron Buckridge announced. "Everybody must meet them at the train."

A copy of The Skiff will be given to every cadet at the luncheon.

Buckridge has appointed the following committee to arrange details of the program: Kennedy, chairman, Bob Belzner, Paul Ridings, Pete Becker, Charles Mosshart, Jack Murphy, John Stanley, Stanley Wilson, Adkins Gibbs, and Ed Brooke, and Misses Frances Buster, Helen Connor and Ann Day Jarvis.

Dictators Swing Tomorrow Night

Queen Alda Mibeck and Attendants to Be Honored Guests.

Queen Alda of the house of Mibeck and her attendants from Tulsa University, will be honor guests at the dance at 9 p. m. after the Tulsa game tomorrow night.

Kenneth Vaughan and his Dictators will play. Sixteen spotlights have been purchased to be used in decorating. The Tulsa colors of black and gold will predominate. Balloons will also be included in the decorations. Truitt Kennedy, dance manager, has announced.

The regular admission charge of 40 cents a couple will be made. Outsiders are required to obtain a written permit from the dean of women, Miss Elizabeth Shelburne.

Miss Frances Buster

Miss Frances Buster, Fort Worth sophomore and winner of a popularity page in the Horned Frog last year, who was today elected band sweetheart for 1937-38. Formal presentation of the new sweetheart will be made during the half at the Tulsa game tomorrow.

Horned Frog Band Begins Broadcast

Outstanding Feature to Be Arrangements by 'Bottle Brigade.'

The Horned Frog Band begins another series of broadcasts with an exclusive T. C. U. program on "College Nights," at 6:30 p. m. next Thursday over the Texas Quality Network.

The occasion is to be a broadcast and pep rally combined, and all students are urged by Don Gillis, band director, to be present and share in the fun that evening in the Basketball Gymnasium.

An outstanding feature of the broadcast is to be a rendition of "Sweet Sue" by the "Bottle Brigade." The brigade is composed of band members who play tunes by blowing across the top of partly filled bottles.

One of the band's newest numbers is a swing tune, an original composition by Wayne Dunlap, assistant director, and Jimmy Petty, first clarinet, entitled, "Everybody Likes to Swing." Included on the program will be "Cuban Pete," "Temptation," "T. C. U. Fight Song" and "Old Cotton Patch," a number composed by Gillis. Also included will be an arrangement of "My Little Buckaroo," by Dunlap, and "William Tell Swing," arranged by Kenneth Vaughan.

The T. C. U. Band last year won first prize for the best broadcasts on this same series.

Although this is the only exclusive broadcast T. C. U. will have, three later programs will be held jointly with other schools. They are: Saturday, Oct. 16, with Rice; and Saturday, Nov. 27, with S. M. U. All will be held here.

Nameless Club Forms to Fight Fender Creasing

There is a club on the campus that is looking for a name. It has been in existence for more than a year, without purpose, motto, or coat-of-arms.

Charter members of the organization are: Coleman Callaway, Jake Smith, Willis Lowe, and James Cogdell. They have added a sponsor this year—Miss Helen Ruth Verheyden.

The four boys joined together last year because of the continual "egging" of fenders in the parking space in the rear of the Administration Building.

Every day last year the boys parked their respective cars side by side. There was hardly a day passed that one of them did not go home with a new scar on the family car.

This year all the boys ride in the same car. Whether it was the families' suggestions or whether the students finally gave up in despair, is not known.

Band Boys Name Frances Buster New Sweetheart

Polytechnic Graduate Is T.C.U. Musicians' "First Lady."

Is Chemistry Major

Is Successor to Helen Moody, Who Held Position Four Successive Years.

Miss Frances Buster has been elected band sweetheart for 1937-38. Don Gillis, director, announced this morning. She will be formally presented at the half tomorrow.

Miss Buster, a Fort Worth sophomore, succeeds Miss Helen Moody, who graduated last year after serving four successive years as band sweetheart. Miss Moody has the distinction also of being the only girl ever reelected to the office.

The new sweetheart won one of the freshman popularity pages in the Horned Frog last year. She is planning to major in chemistry.

A graduate of Polytechnic High, Miss Buster was a yell-leader there. Her father, N. E. Buster is principal of Arlington Heights High School.

Tonight officers of the band will meet the Tulsa Band when it arrives at 9:30.

Tulsa University Will Send Queen

Visitors to Be Guests of Honor at Dance Following Game.

T. C. U. will not only greet the Golden Hurricane of Tulsa University tonight, but will also receive the visitors' queen and her attendants.

Headed by Student Body President Byron Buckridge, an official reception committee will greet the queen, her attendants, the team and the 50-piece band at 9:30 o'clock tonight.

The Biltmore Garage will provide its official chamber-of-commerce white car to the committee for the reception and will have it at the disposal of the Tulsa queen all day Saturday.

Besides the team and the band, several other Hurricane rooters will come in on the special and many more will drive. More than a 100 Oklahoma fans are expected.

Miss Alda Mibeck, the Oklahoma's official queen for the game, and her attendants, Misses Mary Elizabeth Rush and Dorothy Hall, will be the guests of honor at the dance tomorrow night, Byron Buckridge, student-body president, has announced.

Miss Mibeck and her attendants will occupy a box in the Tulsa section of the stadium during the game. The box will be decorated by members of the W. A. A.

Buckridge, who is in charge of the arrangements for the occasion, has announced that the Tulsa queen will present flowers to Capt. Russell McLane of the Hurricane and to Capt. Mason Mayne of the Frogs, just before the kick-off.

Committee to Uphold Campus Dance Rules

Organization Consists of Dean of Men, Cassidy, Becker, Brooks, J. Richards

A student responsibility committee before which violators of dance standards set by the Student Council will be brought was named at a meeting of the Council Wednesday.

The committee, which consists of two Council members, two "bouncers" and the dean of men, acting in an advisory capacity, was formed for the purpose of reporting any misconduct seen at T. C. U. dances.

The members of the committee are: George Cassidy and Walter Becker, from the Student Council; Jack Brooks and John Richards, acting as "bouncers"; and Dean Otto Nielsen.

"By disorderly conduct, we mean violation of those rules set by the Administration for the University," Nielsen said.

The Minority Rules

An election of any sort should speak the will of the people it concerns, but this is pure textbook theory at Frogland elections. Student-body and class ballots merely speak the mind of the voters, which in elections held thus far this year has been only about one-fourth of the students concerned.

Monday, 24 junior voters determined who was to be secretary-treasurer of a class of more than 155 students. A week ago, in the initial election of the fall, only 128 out of a possible 420 freshmen went to the polls to select their officers.

If you don't like the way student body or class affairs are being conducted, do not blame your officers, blame yourself. Each student is entitled to one vote.

Future questions — student body trip, queens, class officers, popularity candidates, etc.—will be constantly arising for the student body to decide.

Speak YOUR will!!

The Lions Club Scores

No matter who you are, even girls, you will be able to understand the happenings in the Stadium tomorrow afternoon better than ever before.

Three thousand dollars is what it cost and the Lions Club, staunch Horned Frog backers, made it possible for all the fans to know more about the football game.

All that is necessary is to look at the new scoreboard which has been erected at the south end of the Stadium. It will be in operation for the first time tomorrow afternoon.

The new scoreboard will answer all questions of interest to the casual observer and will aid the most experienced, even the coaches.

Thanks, the proverbial orchids and much praise should go to the Lions Club for this improvement for football at Frogland.

Find a Better Way

It has been decided that there is only one way to get to the bottom of this hazing situation, meaning of course the "inspection."

The said "inspection" which took place in Clark Hall following the Arkansas pep rally is the most ridiculous and uncalled for happening that has been propounded upon the students in many years.

The Skiff definitely takes a stand against promiscuous hazing, feels that eventually hazing can altogether be eliminated by student opinion, and should come about in this way. But at the same time a freshman must understand the unwritten responsibilities that are his.

Also, The Skiff realizes that the powers can end hazing by compulsion, but The Skiff believes that a mutual understanding between the powers and the students is the best solution and the logical one for college students.

As long as such things as the "inspection" are continued this mutual understanding can not be reached. This act was an insult to all students, even the freshmen themselves resented it. No act in recent years has stirred student resentment so much.

Let all concerned be sensible and open and above board, without peepers, stool-pigeons, etc., about the hazing situation and any others that arise.

Frogland Girls Greet Visitors At City Airport

Guiding planes in over the runways! Showing passengers and guests through the airport, directing others to planes, and greeting visitors! All this is in the line of duty of the T. C. U. girls who are acting as hostesses out at Meacham Field this week.

From the coffee shop to the control tower, the hostesses, as well as the guests, observe the internal functioning of aviation.

To stimulate interest in Fort Worth aviation, various civic organizations have taken alternate weeks to have representatives present in the airport from 6 until 10:30 o'clock each night to greet visitors. At the invitation of the Optimists Club, T. C. U. girls are acting in the capacity of official greeters.

Dean Elizabeth Shelburne, who is in charge of selecting the four girls for each night, named the following: Monday night—Misses May Helen Ede, Ann Goodner, Edmonia Smith and Hazel Smith; Tuesday night—Misses Martha Murray, Virginia Simons, Emajean Haggard and Ruth Neal; Wednesday night—Misses Frances Chandler, Ruth Clark, Katharine Johnson and Mary Porter; Thursday night—Misses Vivian Bell, Berta Jane Henderson, Ann Parrott and Anna Laura Welhauser; Friday night—Misses Virginia Barkley, Ruthmary Conner, Lois Craddock and Lenora Salmon; Saturday night—Helen Marie Henley, Joy Michie, Joan Montgomery and Mary Evelyn Smith; Sunday night—Misses Florrie Buckingham, Eleanor Jennings, Adale Reiger and Betty Seaton.

Dear Editor:
The first home game of the season! Students! Let's all go down to the stadium tomorrow and prove to those "Fightin' Froggies" that we are all for 'em. For several years now, students have been accused of lacking that old fighting spirit. Let's make those accusers eat those words tomorrow. That is, the cast which he has worn for three months was removed Tuesday. Cotton, stellar Horned Frog for the past three years, was injured in an oil field accident this summer. The confining cast dates from that day.

He hasn't complained, but he feels that its removal can be compared to getting out of jail. With the cast off, Cotton will be more able to initiate the T. C. U. freshmen into the fundamentals of line play.

'Post' Mortality Mute Testimony Of Frog Polish

Will wonders never cease?

Mrs. J. E. Mothershead, librarian at the Mary Couts Burnett Library, reports that T. C. U. students have worn out three editions of Emily Post's book on etiquette, and that the fourth is practically in shreds!

Mrs. Mothershead says that some of the most frequent borrowers of the book are boys. In fact, the librarian has even been able to predict weddings and announcement parties, merely by noticing who borrows "Emily Post."

AUTO WRECK.

A crowd of youngsters in a car Whirling dizzily along,
Watching with gay exuberance The creeping needle of their speedometer
Mount higher, hit 70!—
An intersection!—another speeding demon!—
A shriek of outraged rubber,
A crash of shivering steel!—
And screams and shouts and agonized cries
And human bodies, quivering and inert,
Lying in grotesque positions all around . . .
And, later—
Mourning tears for lives snatched out;
Deep-torn soles for bodies never whole again;
Muttered imprecations and blaring news headlines—
Yet life goes on,
And tomorrow—ah! tomorrow
Some other rushing fools will meet Disaster and their sudden death . . .
Yet—life will still go on.
—Or, WILL it? . . .

Students May Talk But Only in Spanish

There is one class where students are not only advised but urged to talk as much as they wish. The catch to this situation is that all conversation must be in Spanish, as it happens to be a conversational Spanish class.

Miss Eula Lee Carter, instructor, has required the students to give speeches and present impromptu playlets during the classroom recitation.

Love's a Funny Thing

Long before Helen of Troy kidded the boys into thinking that her face was worth launching 1000 ships and a lengthy war, some gals made saps out of some guys.

It seems that a romantic Princeton freshman met a luscious lassie at a spring prom. Evidently his thoughts lightly turned, as nothing would do but for him to pen his newly found Juliet a Byronic-Keatonian billado.

But alack and alas! When time came to address his love he realized that he had failed to get her name and address. Undaunted, however, our hero sent the letter to "The Most Wonderful Girl in South Orange, N. J."

A few days later it was returned marked "C-o lost and found, to 'The Dumbest Boy at Princeton'."

Two versatile gentlemen of Texas University took lessons at a local department store and knitted themselves some orange and white swimming trunks.

This Kissing Game

Once upon a time a well meaning co-ed at the University of Utah decided the time had come for her to do a little scientific research.

So one day in lab she pressed a glass slide to her lips and placed the slide under the microscope. She screamed aloud when she saw millions of bacteria before her eyes. Soon the ghastly news got all around the campus and the females started a "kissing strike." Not to be outdone, the men started a "date strike."

Not many nights elapsed before the whole thing was called off and the story ends happily with a "kiss and make up." However, that is hardly fair, because in a situation like that it's the girl who gets the kiss and the boy the make-up . . . and

We might add in passing that a kiss cut offs 10 minutes of your life. Some of your best friends may be ghosts. Or maybe you are dead and don't know it.

RIDINGS RITINGS

BY PAUL (SCOOP) RIDINGS.

Bears are more worried about the Purple than they are the Hogs—whom incidentally the Bears meet tomorrow.

Speaking of Arkansas, here's a bouquet to Miss Esther Turner, Miss Sybil Lavy and Clyde Gibbs, Kent Coale, Puss Erwin, Leon Pickett, and Bob Decker, who followed the Frogs up to the Ozarks. The Purple had more support than it has ever had in the Hills of Arkansas, what with the people that drove up, those who made it a stop coming back from Columbus, and the bunch over from the baseball game in Little Rock.

It's a sure thing that any of the students who made the trip will tell you that it's the student body's misfortune that they did not get to make the Arkansas the official trip. Never have people been so royally received and entertained as we were at Arkansas—perhaps it's because before the game they were confident of beating the Frogs.

Just in case you are in doubt as to what Tulsa University is, besides being the team that the Frogs play tomorrow, here are a few facts: The total enrollment is 658—411 boys and 247 women. . . the football team is coached by Vic Hurt, assistant coach of the Rose Bowl Mustangs. . . last season they won five games and lost two. . . they have been members of the Missouri Valley Conference since 1934 and co-champions in football in 1935 and 1936. . . their teams are called the Golden Hurricane. . . and their colors are black and gold.

Already this season the Hurricane has a record which makes them a team to be feared. In their first two games, they defeated Oklahoma University 19 to 7 and Central Oklahoma Teachers 42 to 6. Something of the strength that this indicates can be seen when it is realized that last week Oklahoma beat Rice 6 to 0.

In a way, the game tomorrow will be "Old Home Week" for the Tulsa team. Four former Texas high school stars will be in the Hurricane starting line-up and a fifth Texas boy is slated to see a lot of action. The four Texas starters announced are Richard Castello, 200-pound center from San Angelo; Forest Gregory, 185, guard from Tyler; James Hays, 185, end from San Angelo; and Morris White, 160, half from White Deer, who played with Lubbock High.

Tossing Tommy Thompson, forward passer de luxe and former star at Paschal High, Fort Worth, will be at a halfback position much of the game, although he is not slated to start.

The Frogs have only one Oklahoma boy on their squad—Mac Best, sophomore fullback from Sand Springs. He will not start but may break into the line-up during the afternoon's play.

Incidentally, Best never did crash the line-up at Arkansas, as you might have heard over the radio or read in the newspaper, although an unknown "56" came into the game at fullback. Some scribes jumped at the conclusion it was Best, but it was Lacy McClanahan, who had discarded his "26" for the new number, because of a rip in the jersey.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Crabb, ardent Frog supporters, finds it impossible for both to leave home and follow the Frogs, so have arrived at a 50-50 arrangement. Dr. Crabb went to Columbus, while Mrs. Crabb stayed home. Last week the procedure was reversed and Mrs. Crabb went to Arkansas. Wonder who will win the New York honors?

Another Texas-Oklahoma battle will be taking place just 35 miles east of the Frog conflict, as the University of Texas and the University of Oklahoma meet in their annual battle. The series dates back to 1900, with Texas holding 21 victories, Oklahoma 9 and one tie. Indications are that the Sooners have a chance to win their first since 1933.

Purple and White To Meet Champs Missouri Valley

Tulsa Eleven Lighter but Faster Than '36 Edition.

GameTime 3 o'Clock

Christians Lead Hurricane by 4-to-2 Margin in Total Games Played.

By BILL HAWORTH
Tomorrow at 3 p. m. on the beautiful green floor of the T. C. U. stadium the Frogs meet a football team that for the past two years has ranked as co-champion of the Missouri Valley Conference, that has no less than 20 lettermen on its present squad, and that has won its first two games this year handily.

The 1937 edition of the Tulsa University Golden Hurricane is lighter than last season's eleven but faster, more versatile and more spectacular. The 1936 team lost only two games, one to the Southwest Conference champs, Arkansas, 23 to 13, and the other to the Frogs, 10 to 7.

Tulsa to Have 'Aerial Circus'

The Hurricane this year is undoubtedly hurt by the losses of such stars from last year's team as the great Ham Harmon, center and captain, "Red" Chapman, husky tackle, halfback Justin Enoch and Co-Captain Russell McLane, half. But ready to step into their places are capable reserves and willing sophomores.

Vic Hurt, in his second year as head coach at Tulsa, will still rely upon what he calls the "flexible flanker" system, which is in other words the "aerial circus."

The brunt of the Tulsans offensive burden will be carried by the 160-pound, triple-threat half, Morris White, who hails from White Deer, Texas. Coach Hurt believes the lad is a potential all-American. Last year White gained 802 yards in lugging the leather 143 times, for an average of 5.6 yards per carry.

Ex-Paschal Star to See Action

Tommy Thompson, 185-pound half who formerly starred as a member of Paschal High grid teams here, is one of the passing aces of the Hurricane, and although only a sophomore he is sure to see action tomorrow.

In their initial performance this season, Tulsa defeated the Oklahoma University Sooners 19 to 7, and last week they ran roughshod over Oklahoma Central State Teachers College, 42 to 6.

In last week's tilt with Arkansas the Frogs showed vast improvement over the Ohio State game in tying 7 to 7 with the Porkers and roundly outplaying them.

Pratt, Blackmon to Play
New faces will be seen in the starting Purple lineup tomorrow. Don Looney, soph end who played a bang-up game at Fayetteville, will probably be back at his wing post. Jimmy Pratt, also a first-year man, will get his first taste of big-time football when he takes over Davey (Oaken Knot) O'Brien's signal-calling position against the Hurricane, and Linnon Blackmon is scheduled to start at fullback.

The all-time record between the Frogs and Tulsa is as follows:

1921 Tulsa 0	T. C. U. 16
1922 Tulsa 21	T. C. U. 0
1931 Tulsa 13	T. C. U. 0

This Texan Throws Tulsa Tosses

Tulsa's throwing Texan, "Tossing" Tommy Thompson, will be making his home town debut along with the Frogs tomorrow afternoon. Only a sophomore, this former Paschal High star, has become the most noted player on the Hurricane squad. The soph slinger in his opening game threw five out of nine completed passes, two of them good for touchdowns.

Polliwogs Show Power In 19-0 Victory Debut

By BILL HAWORTH

Displaying a fancy passing attack and a potent ground game, the Polliwogs made their 1937 debut by crushing the Weatherford Junior College Coyotes 19 to 0 at the Frog stadium yesterday afternoon.

Led by rangy Jack Odle, quarterback from McKinney, who is a "ringer" for Sam Baugh, the Wogs unleashed their overhead game early in the first period and promptly scored. Odle passed to Ray Stanley, Wog end, for 18 yards and the touchdown. Clarence (Lefty) Alexander, big center, added the extra point with a beautiful place kick.

Second Goal Missed

The Wogs' second score resulted from a pass from Charley Hill, fleet half, to Halfback Jack Herring. The play was good for eight yards. Herring's plunge for conversion was short.

In the third quarter big Connie Sparks, 195 pounder, made a beautiful catch of one of Odle's long heaves on the Coyote 6 yard line and plowed over the pay line, dragging three Weatherford players with him. The pass was good for 39 yards. Alexander kicked wide in trying for the extra point.

The visitor's only serious scoring threat came when Mutt McCauley, chief Coyote groundgainer of the afternoon, broke through the frosh line on an off-tackle play and weaved his way through the entire team for 54 yards before he was nailed by Hill who showed speed to burn in overtaking him.

Tight defensive play by the Wogs killed the threat.

Shook Stars at Center

Several freshmen players turned in great games at their respective positions. Fred Shook, all-state pivot man from North Side High, was a moving terror on defense, jarring enemy ballcarriers many times with vicious tackles.

M. B. Short, former Dallas Tech star, Paul Smith, hard-driving lad, Hilland Jack Hampton all picked up yards and yards in rushing.

In the line Stanley and A. P. Lowe, right wing, both proved adept as pass receivers. Lowe snagged three of Hill's tosses for gains of five, nine and 12 yards. Virgil Cloer, tail

Razorbacks Tie Christian Team In Aerial Circus

Initial Draw Between Purple and Arkansas Eleven.

Hogs, TCU Split 7-7

Horned Frogs Outplay Porkers by Completing 10 Out of 31 Forward Passes.

By PAUL RIDINGS.

RAZORBACK STADIUM, FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., Oct. 2.—The Horned Frogs beat themselves today. No, they did not lose, but they did not win, for the final score was Arkansas 7, T. C. U. 7.

This was the first tie game in history between the Frogs and the Razorbacks.

Clearly the superior team, statistically and every other way, the Meyermen failed to win a deserved victory simply because they could not cash-in on scoring opportunities. Throughout the first quarter, the Purple knocked at the Hog goal line.

Frog Touchdown Called Back.

Then, too, the Frogs had one touchdown called back because of holding. In the third quarter, using a screen play, the Meyermen got Don Looney into the open deep and Davey O'Brien tossed him a long pass which was good for 53 yards and a score, but it was called back.

The tilt was truly an aerial battle, with 60 passes floating through the ether. But even in this department, as in all others, the Purple outplayed Arkansas, "supposedly the passing-est team in the country."

The Frogs completed 10 out of 31 and Arkansas 8 out of 29. The Purple also rolled up 230 yards against the Hog's 196, and 13 first downs to 9.

However, the Razorbacks scored first and on a pass. Early in the second quarter Jack Robbins on his own 25 tossed a pass to Jim Benton on the 47 and he lateraled to Raymond Hamilton who ran the remaining 53 yards for a touchdown. B. A. Owens kicked goal.

O'Brien Scores.

But the Frogs were undaunted and, receiving the kickoff, never relinquished the ball until they had scored. The drive took 16 plays and began on the Arkansas nine. O'Brien carried the ball over, to climax the drive, and kicked the extra point.

The outstanding feature of the game was the new Purple power, and the spearhead of this attack was John "Indian" Hall. Johnny carried the ball eight times for a total of 90 yards, to rank as the Frogs' best ground gainer.

The entire line played well, so well that the Hogs gave up their running game, trying runs only 19 times for 57 yards.

All in all, it was the Meyermen's afternoon in every way but the score.

And we are pulling for Jimmy to do as good a job succeeding "Slingin' Sam" at Quarterback as he does succeeding Sam as Stripling's representative. It's a cinch he'll have an easier job doing the latter for the new and greater Stripling's is nearing completion making it a better place to shop than ever before!

New Scoreboard Answers Queries Of All Frog Fans

What down is it? How many yards to go? What's the score? How many minutes to play?

All of these questions will be answered for the fans in the T. C. U. Stadium by a new electric scoreboard, to be used for the first time in the Tulsa contest tomorrow.

The new scoreboard cost $5000 and is the gift of the members of the Fort Worth Lions Club, ardent Horned Frog boosters through the years. The board is 28 by 51 feet, and has a time clock eight feet in diameter, controlled by the timekeeper on the playing field. Nearly 300 light bulbs are used in giving the information which the board will carry. More than a mile of wire was used in the maze of connections required.

Are you losing your grip with the ladies?

If such be the problem of any T. C. U. male student he may sign up with the diving class that has been added to the fall physical program, and be prepared for the next swim season.

The class meets at 10 TTS. The instructors are Jack Fry and Lee Duvivant.

English Graduates Will Meet Tonight

The discussion will be directed by various members of the English faculty.

Graduate students of English are: Mrs. Alma Bailey, Mrs. Jean Shelley Henry, Mrs. Frances Yates, Mrs. Marian Lee, Mrs. Cara Stewart Williams and Everett Gillis.

Juniors Maintain Intramural Lead

Third Year Men Defeat Sophomores 31-14—Seniors Win over Frosh.

INTRAMURAL STANDINGS
	Won	Lost	Pct.
Juniors	3	0	1.000
Seniors	2	1	.667
Frosh	1	2	.333
Sophs	0	3	.000

The Juniors kept their undefeated record in the intramural football race Wednesday afternoon by trouncing the Sophs 31 to 14.

John Grimland, Don McLeland, Bill Ewell and Frances Mimms stood out for the victors, while John Estill, Tom Keplinger and W. F. Rankin played well for the Sophs. Estill scored both tallies for the Sophs by passes respectively from Keplinger and Rankin.

The Seniors, led by Willie Lowe, Brad Snodgrass, Jay Smith, Ben Dyess and Charles Mossart, conquered the Frosh by a score of 35 to 27.

The first score, made by the Seniors, came after the Frosh fumbled a punt behind their goal line. Lowe scored two touchdowns, while Dyess, Mossart and Snodgrass made one each. The Seniors also made a safety when H. A. Withers was caught behind his own goal.

The Frosh tallies were made by Rex Howard, Jack Reedy, Bob Roberts and Ed Brooke, who played fine games.

All who are interested in intramural tennis and horseshoes are asked to sign up now in the gymnasium according to Olin Jones, intramural manager.

"A forfeit of 5 cents will be charged for each default in tennis," Jones reports.

Gals Shorter Skirt Styles Shock Some Stronger Sex

By FRANCES TAYLOR

The time has come, the walrus said, to talk of many things; of football dances, floating balloons (and cabbages and kings).

The dance after the Tulsa game tomorrow will feature the new "permanent" decorations and a balloon stunt, for both the Tulsa-ites, their Queen of the game, and the reformed, and hereafter undestructive students. More than a thousand balloons will be used, Truett Kennedy, dance manager, has stated.

Kenneth Vaughan and the Dictators, bigger and better than ever, will furnish the music. Since a number of the Dictators played in big-name orchestras this summer during vacation-time, persons who are dancing to the synopation of Paul Whiteman will have nothing on us—tomorrow night. We prefer not to take our rhythm straight.

Slumgullion: Dear Coed; The raising of skirts almost to the "flapper era" length has been taken up with enthusiasm by most of you feminine T. C. U.'ers. This department thought you might like to know the masculine opinion of the shorter skirt styles. So we asked 'em.

Most of the boys questioned had definite ideas on the subject. Skirts would have lengthened half an inch on their own accord if they could have heard the vehemence with which Herchell Gibbs said, "I am decidedly against knees showing, and I don't like real short skirts anyhow." Lots of the girls roll their hose, which makes it worse.

Don Hayes, on the other hand, said he liked them all right, for "they look more girlish than long dresses." Ben Bussey was the personification of tact. He refused to be specific but admitted that although they show some girls off to an advantage, some shouldn't wear them.

W. A. Welsh thinks them disgusting with rolled hose, while Coleman Sullivan declared, "I think they're cute. The girls look more comfortable."

New what's a girl to do about it? All in all, we don't think they have helped a bit. So just follow your own sweet will—and make 'em like it.

Nomination for champion egoist: A big-time announcer on the radio had just given his product the usual "colossal, super, super-super" build-up. Finishing his sales talk, he added, "When you make your will, remember who told you!"

Stool-pigeon reports: The organization of a girls' pep squad brings to mind the fact that a similar body was discontinued seven or eight years ago because the student body condemned the idea as "high-schoolish."

Personal recommendation for hall of fame: Miss Martha Cell Graves, Martha Cell studied in Chicago, Washington, D. C. and New York this summer under such masters of the dance as Ivan Tarassoff, Adolph Blome, A. Kotchetovsky and Charles Weidman.

Just to give you an idea of the quality of her dancing, we relay this incident on to you: An interested person inquired of Ivan Tarassoff (who received his training in the Russian Imperial School, by the way) the extent to which Martha Cell could go in her dancing career.

"Would two years of study with you prepare her for a real success," he was asked. "Two years?" Tarassoff was amused. "Let's say six months!"

And that about our Martha. Parting Shot: We'll see you down at the football game tomorrow afternoon.

4 Students Present Anglia Program

Four students participated in the program of the first meeting of the Anglia Club last night.

An accordion solo was presented by Miss Evelyn Woodley; a reading by Ceville Moore; caricaturing by Dan Morgan, and whistling, Vardaman Cockrell.

All the freshman and sophomore students taking English, regardless of scholastic standing, are invited to become members.

Mrs. Jean Shelley Henry announced the aims of the club as threefold: "To foster general acquaintance with literature, especially that of our own day; to encourage and develop creative writing; and to promote a well balanced program for freshman and sophomore English students."

Mrs. Henry, Miss Marjorie Sewall, Mrs. Angell and Paul Dinkins are sponsors.

Bonfire Program At "Y" Meeting

A program, followed by a bonfire and marshmallow roast, were features of the "Y" meeting Tuesday night.

Miss La Verda Sessions, accompanied by Miss Mary Frances Hutton, began the program. Prof. C. R. Sherer spoke upon the subject "Campus Woes." An accordion solo was given by Carl Fulpes and a short talk by Richard Poll, president.

Lamar Stuckert and Miss Pat Mackey gave their impression of T. C. U. Otto Neilson led members in a sing-song to conclude the program.

Modern Dance Course Is Being Offered

For the first time T. C. U. is offering a course in "Modern Dance." Miss Martha Cell Graves is the instructor.

She has studied for the past five summers under Erika Thimey, a pupil of Mary Wigman, and Agnes Jones in Chicago, Charles Weidman in Washington, D. C., and Sara Mildred Strauss in New York.

This year's work will be devoted to exercises designed to build up technique, with little emphasis on routines. "Such dancing gives a person grace, control, and complete freedom," says Miss Graves.

Those enrolled in the class, which meets at 1 o'clock on Tuesdays and Fridays, are Misses Clara Lee Jones, Julia Lee Simon, Dorothy Pope, Frances Edwards, Lois Herz, Sue Hazen and Jean Dornblazer.

Mrs. Sadie Beckham Home from Trip

Mrs. Sadie Beckham, former dean of women, has just returned from a two weeks' visit in Colorado with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. John Heard, and her sister, Mrs. H. B. Heard.

While there, the party completed plans for a cabin in Chipita Park, which they have decided to call "Heard Inn."

During the summer Mrs. Beckham made an extended tour of the southern states, including in her itinerary Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, Georgia and Alabama.

Mrs. Beckham says that while she enjoyed her 19 years at T. C. U., she is enjoying her retirement also. "It's such a good feeling to go to bed at night without having to worry about whether my 147 'daughters' will all be in by 11 o'clock," she says.

Dana Press Hay Ride Attended by 35

Thirty-five members, pledges and guests attended the first meeting of the Dana Press Club Wednesday evening—a hay ride and picnic to Inspiration Point, Lake Worth.

Paul Ridings, club president, introduced the officers and outlined a part of the year's activities. "Pop" Boone, sports editor of The Press, will speak at the club's next regular meeting, Oct. 27, he reported.

Ernest Peyton is vice-president and Miss Frances Taylor, secretary-treasurer of the club. Prof. and Mrs. J. Willard Ridings chaperoned the group.

Magazine Fashionist To Talk Styles

A McCall's Magazine representative from New York City will speak on "Style Trends" in the home economics department Friday afternoon, Oct. 15. The representative will bring a number of dresses with her and students of the clothing class will model them.

The talk and style show are especially for the home economics students, but Miss Enlow invites anyone else who is interested.

Experiments Shown By Science Club

Actual demonstrations were the features of the Natural Science meeting Monday night.

Earl Barnes produced for the group light without heat. Following this, blood-pressure tests were given by John Forsyth. Earl Nichols demonstrated the use of the x-ray machine.

Jimmy McBride presided over the meeting, after which refreshments were served.

Brushes Will Elect President

A committee to nominate a president to fill Eugene Haley's place in the Brushes Club will be named at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Haley resigned from the position because he had too much other work to do.

The constitution of the club will be voted on and the social calendar will be discussed at the meeting also.

The first concert of the Pro String Quartet has been set for 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 2, at the Woman's Club. Prof. S. P. Ziegler plays the cello with the quartet.

Candy for Chaperones At All Future Dances

The line forms on the right! Boxes of candy will be given to the chaperones of the dances in the future, Byron Buckeridge has announced.

The gift is needed to buoy up energy, for with dance contests to be judged and other duties, the job is not so easy!

F. F. F. Debaters Prepare For Opening Contest

Members of the Frog Forensic Fraternity are preparing for their opening debate of the year Dec. 11 at the Oklahoma State College for Women at Chickasaw, according to Truett Kennedy, president.

T. C. U. debaters are now working on the Pi Kappa Delta question: "Resolved: That the national Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes."

"With the F. F. F. boasting the largest membership in its history, we are expecting this to be our biggest year," Kennedy said. "In addition to debating, the organization will study oratory and extemporaneous speaking this year."

Members of the F. F. F. are: Rufus Whitley, Byron Buckeridge, Carl Fyne, George Stroud, Joe Day, Miss Vera Williams, Richard Poll, Truett Gillentine, Lamar Stuckert and Kennedy. Dr. Allen True is sponsor and Harry Roberts is coach of the debate team.

Glee Club to Record Three School Songs

Science will take a hand in the T. C. U. radio programs.

In the near future, the Glee Club will make recordings of the school songs. Instead of having all of the club appear at the broadcast, the technician will substitute the electrical transcription.

Prof. Claude Sammis says that this will insure the program against any irregularity in quality and will be a time saver to the members. The records can be bought by any one interested.

The three songs to be recorded are the Fight Song, the Alma Mater and the march written by Congressman Fritz Lanham.

Dr. Smith, Miss Major To Attend Institute

Dr. Rebecca Smith and Miss Mabel Major will attend the meeting of the Texas Institute of Letters in Austin next Saturday and Sunday.

Stanley Walker, editor of the New York Herald-Tribune, will headline the program. Other speakers will be Karle Wilson Baker, Walter Webb and John O. Beaty, who will review books of their own authorship.

Frosh-Soph Plays Will Be Oct. 19

The freshman-sophomore play contest has been postponed to Tuesday, Oct. 19, according to Miss Janis Stevens, director of "Thanks Awfully" the freshman play.

The sophomore play "The Woman Who Understood Men" is under the supervision of Miss Florence Parks. The directors of the two plays announced that rehearsals would get under way this week.

Jack Buys Can of Paint; Now Frances Can Study

Miss Frances Buster and Jack Murphy could not study in the library, so they built themselves a laboratory where they could.

The laboratory is located behind the home of Mrs. Helen Murphy, in a storeroom. The idea originated last year, but they were unable to develop it further than a dream until this summer, when Jack bought a can of paint at an auction sale and painted the storeroom. Then gradually they added to it until now they have a small but complete laboratory.

On the agreement that they would not spend much money, they sold old

Wayne 'Caruso' Dunlap Is Frosh Idea of 'Tops'

As far as the freshmen in Mrs. Artemisia Bryson's class are concerned, Wayne Dunlap is "tops" when it comes to singing.

In the themes that Mrs. Bryson received, entitled "My First Impression of Chapel," the majority laud Wayne. They use such expressions as "the Caruso of T. C. U.," "the Everett Marshall of T. C. U.," "the Golden Voice of T. C. U.," and others.

Race Conference To Be Held Here

75 Delegates to Meet Sunday From North Texas Region.

About 75 delegates from negro and white colleges of North Texas will gather on the T. C. U. campus Sunday for an all-day meeting of the North Texas Area Inter-racial Conference of the Student Christian Association.

The theme of the conference will be "The Student and Campus Living." Dick Poll, president of the T. C. U. Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. has announced.

Dean Fred Replogle of Oklahoma City University will be the chief speaker. Dean Replogle will speak on "Eliminating Barriers to Personal Fellowship on the Campus."

Poll also announced that Miss Ruth Johnson and Tom Currie, secretaries of the Student Christian Association in the Southwest, will be present.

The meetings will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in Brite College of the Bible.

The registration fee, which includes a lunch at the University Christian Church and a box supper, is $1. A fee of only 25 cents will be charged if lunch and supper are not included, Poll said.

Did this ever happen to you?

You might be standing right next to the most attractive person you ever met, but you don't know it until you are introduced... until you get acquainted.

And you don't know how much pleasure a cigarette can give until somebody offers you a Chesterfield.

Certainly this is true: Chesterfields are refreshingly milder... they've got a taste that smokers like.
