Phil Baxter's Band To Play Wednesday

Four-Hour Hop Planned

Big Name Leader Is Composer of 'Piccolo Pete'

As Phil Baxter and his orchestra mount the bandstand for Wednesday night's dance, Frogland's social program will be going big time. The appearance of Baxter will mark the first time that a "name band" has ever played for a Purple Hop.

Baxter is a noted composer and is often called the outstanding novelty tune writer of the times. His most famous composition is "Piccolo Pete."

Along this same line are his tunes, "Harmonica Harry," "One Man Band," "Ding Dong Daddy," "There's Going to be a Wedding in the Band" and "I'm Running Around in Circles."

But his talents are not limited to novelty tunes, for he is also the composer of "Faded Summer Love," "Have a Little Dream on Me," "You've Done It Again" and many other tunes that have not reached hit proportions, novelty and otherwise.

Had Band 12 Years
He has had an orchestra for 12 years, and in this period he has played engagements ranging from the Sweets Ballroom in San Francisco to the Steel Pier in Atlantic City and the Merry-Go-Round in Miami.

A native Texan, he has returned to his home state, which he says is still his favorite, for a series of one night stands. He will bring with him for the Wednesday night dance his entire 10-piece organization and girl singer.

Not only will the dance be outstanding as the first to have a name band play, but it will set another record. It will be the first four-hour dance in Purple history.

The music will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will last until 12:30 a.m. For this major event, the Jarvis Saturday night rule will be allowed Wednesday, and dormitory girls will be able to stay out until 12:45 a.m.

Admission $1
Dance Manager Vincent Ziegler has also pointed out, "A big time dancing program for T. C. U. is on trial Wednesday night. Your support will mean its continuance this spring and on through next year. But there are still the skeptical who do not believe interest in dancing warrants such an occasion."

The admission charge will be $1 per couple, or stag. But, as Ziegler says, "This is below downtown prices, or any other place playing name band, yet it is our dance and not a public affair."

The Basketball Gymnasium will be specially decorated for the occasion. The bandstand will be rebuilt for the orchestra, and a new piano will be moved in.

Names of August Class Placed on Placard
A placard bearing the names of the graduates of the August class of 1937 has been placed in the wall by the side of the desk in the Mary Coats Burnett Library.

The placard, made by Eugene Haley, honors the class, which was the first group of August graduates to make a gift to the University. The present was a sum of money donated to the Library for the purchase of books.

The placard is made of parchment, with the lettering done in old English, bold face type, printed in brown ink.

Rev. Perry Gresham To Talk on 'Easter'
A talk on Easter will be made before the Homiletic Guild Tuesday noon by the Rev. Perry E. Gresham.

VIEWS 'N' VIEWPOINTS

By VINCENT ZIEGLER (Dance Manager)

Since last week's column discussed the dance situation, it is fortunate that I can answer this week, that, in reply to student demand, there will be a name band playing for our pre-Easter Hop Wednesday.

There is little I need say about this band. You will find ample information about it in the regular story in today's Skiff. The band, of course, is Phil Baxter's. He's the man who wrote "Piccolo Pete," and numerous other hits.

Now this is not Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey or any such name-band, but at least it is a step in the right direction. Such names as were suggested last week cost from $1000 to $5000 per night, and naturally such an outlay is not possible for our functions.

There are even some who do not believe we were justified in going as far as we did in hiring Phil Baxter. They say interest in dancing at T. C. U. does not justify it, but I do not believe this. My hope is that I have been right and that students really do want such a dance program. If they do, the only way to get it is to support Wednesday's dance.

Now, as to the blanket tax idea as discussed last week. Council minutes will show that I have been advocating this plan for next year's dances ever since I was selected as manager. It would give the dance manager a basic fund on which to work.

But the figures last week were slightly exaggerated. At a $1.50 per ticket, it would take the sale of 1,333 tickets to amount up to $2000, the figure discussed. This would mean that every boy and girl in school, and then some, would have to buy a season ticket. Now, it's obvious that no girls would buy tickets, and certainly not every boy would.

However, if Wednesday's dance is successful, and through it the students indicate that they want our dance program on a bigger basis, then the season ticket plan will probably be tried. Do not get too rosy ideas about what it will do, however. I have attempted at all times to paint the dancing situation as it is, and never exaggerate about what we can do or what we have done. In this way, there can be no disappointment.

And, I unhesitatingly say that Phil Baxter's band will provide the best music ever heard at T. C. U. next Wednesday night.

Guy Inman To Lecture

Latin-American Authority Will Speak April 22

Dr. Samuel Guy Inman, instructor and writer on Latin American affairs, will be the next speaker presented by the T. C. U. lectures committee. Dr. Willis G. Hewatt has announced.

Inman will speak on "Latin American Relations" at 8 o'clock Friday night, April 22, in the Auditorium.

Dr. Inman, who has lectured on Latin America as far away as Baghdad, was a student at T. C. U. in 1887-89. He is now giving a course in diplomacy and Latin American subjects at the University of Pennsylvania and also at the American University in Washington, D. C.

Lived in Mexico
For 10 years Dr. Inman lived in Mexico and was the director of the Christian Institute at Monterrey and the People's Institute at Piedras Negras.

Since last year he has been engaged in bringing his knowledge of Latin America, by radio, to the people of this country. Under the direction of the Department of Education at Washington, he has been directing the research and initiating the production of radio programs, entitled "Brave New World."

New York City, his present home, is where he began his social work. He directed this work for the First Church of the Disciples of Christ in New York from 1901 to 1904.

Written Dozen Books
He is an active Latin American adviser to many agencies, including the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. For 23 years he has been the secretary of the Committee on Cooperation in Latin America.

Dr. Inman has written more than a dozen books on his subject in English and in Spanish, and is the founder and director of a Spanish monthly magazine, La Nueva Democracia.

Negro 'Y' Worker Here

Herb King, negro Y. M. C. A. secretary for the South and part-time secretary for the Southwest, will speak on inter-racial problems in Texas at a meeting of the Student Christian Association at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening in Brite Clubroom.

3 Debaters On Tour Are Undeclared

Sandstorms, Snow, Torrential Rains Greet Travelers

With 10 debates behind them, and victories in all where decisions were rendered, the three Frog debaters completed the first lap of their two-week trip through eight states last Sunday.

Dr. C. A. True reports that "nice audiences" have greeted them at every debate.

Variety in weather conditions has met them, including sand storms in New Mexico, four inches of snow in Las Vegas and torrential rains in West Texas.

"The highlights of the journey so far have been the sight of the snow-covered Grand Canyon, Juarez, the Painted Desert, the Garden of the Gods, Look-out Mountain and Buffalo Bill's grave," Dr. True wrote to The Skiff.

Luncheons, dinners and open houses met them everywhere in this first part of their trip. Last week Truitt Kennedy and Byron Buckeridge upheld the negative of the unicameral question in a radio broadcast over an Arizona state hook-up. Rufus Whitley is the other member making the trip.

The four will complete this tour today with a final debate at Phillips University, Enid, Okla. They arrived in Oklahoma from Kansas State College yesterday.

Band to Give Concert

All-Bach Program Will Feature Gillis Arrangements

The all-Bach concert of the T.C.U. Concert Band Series will be given at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Auditorium.

Bach, who lived in the middle of the seventeenth century, wrote chiefly for the Lutheran Church. His chorales and fugues were sung and played at church services and even today the chorales are sung in the Lutheran churches.

"The program will be in the nature of pre-Easter services," said Don Gillis, director, "and I urge all ministerial students and faculty members to attend."

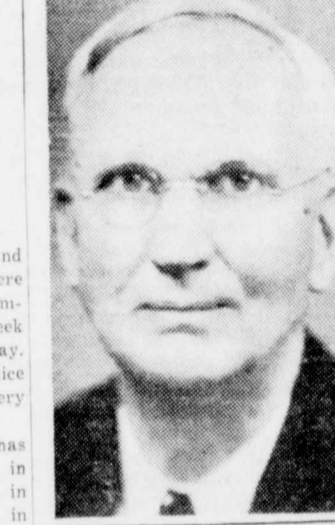

"The program will differ from the ordinary concert due to the nature of the music, and anyone interested in the work of Bach will enjoy the concert."

The program will open with the brass choir, featured last year in the series, playing six chorales, which were arranged for the choir by Gillis.

Following the choir will be the Pro Arte Quartet playing more of Bach's works, consisting of the "Fugue in B Minor on a Theme of Corelli" and "Prelude and Fugue in G Minor." Arrangements for the quartet were also made by Gillis.

The program will be concluded by the entire ensemble playing "Come, Sweet Death," a choral melody, "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" from "Cantata 147."

Dinner Honoree

PRES. E. M. WAITS - T. C. U.

Waits Dinner Is Tomorrow

"Outstanding citizen of Fort Worth for the year"—that is the title to be bestowed on President E. M. Waits at 7 o'clock tomorrow night at the annual "Golden Deeds Banquet" of the Exchange Club at the Fort Worth Club.

Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, and former president of Texas A. & M. College, and Texas State College for Women, will be the principal speaker.

Short talks will be made by Dean Colby D. Hall on "His Golden Deeds or Accomplishments"; Coach Mike Brumblow, "The Twelfth Member of the Football Team"; and Dick Poll, "Our Prexy." The Rev. Perry E. Gresham will give the invocation.

Court Plan To Try Cases

"Kangaroo" Set-Up Will Patch Up Differences in Fresh-Soph Rivalry

In an effort to "patch up" traditional differences and to prevent the "slaughterhouse" tactics employed in last year's freshman-sophomore rivalry, members of the two classes this year have fostered a "kangaroo court plan" to aid unofficially in class affairs.

Each class will be represented on the "court" by five students. Of this number, two—one freshman and one sophomore—will each time be chosen as judges.

The remainder of the court will act as the jury. The personnel of the court will remain constant, but no member will act as a judge on consecutive meetings.

Freshmen who will serve on the court are Bill Day, James Hampton, Clarence Alexander, Ed Moroney and Dick Everett. Sophomore representatives are Earl Clark, Mac Best, Dan Looney, Jack Reedy and Tom Swiley.

The court plan was originated by sophomores in a class meeting last week, following the general Clark Hall meeting in which all fresh-soph "kidnaping activities" and hazing was called off.

The purpose of the court, according to many, is a form of compromise between the two classes—"to keep the freshmen in their place," and "to keep the sophomores from making unreasonable demands."

Complete details of the authority of the student court and the penalties to be exacted by it have not been worked out.

Waits, Hall Will Be Busy Delivering '38 Addresses

President E. M. Waits and Dean Colby D. Hall will be busy this spring delivering commencement addresses. Already they are scheduled to deliver two each.

'Progressive Party' Led by 'Kingfish,' Formed on Campus

Backs Guy Daniel in Uncontested Race For Presidency — Frances Wand, I. B. Hale Run for Vice-President

STUDENT BODY CANDIDATES
President—Guy Daniel.
Vice-President—Miss Frances Wand, I. B. Hale.
Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Janis Stephens, Miss Martha Fallis.
Editor Skiff—Ernest Peyton.
Head Yell Leader—Jack Murphy.

By PAUL RIDINGS

The student body election really took on a political air Wednesday—petition deadline day—when interested students formed what they call the "Progressive Party."

The party is being led by Vincent Ziegler. Not all the candidates that have been put on the slate were entered by the party, but the new group did enter several candidates.

Among these is the new student body president, Guy Daniel. He will be elected to the student executive post for next year without opposition.

Another petition was entered for Paul Snow for president, and once for Snow for vice-president, but he was found to be ineligible as he lacked sufficient credit.

Purpose of the new party, which backed Daniel as its chief candidate, says the "Kingfish," its head, is to "get all the students to vote and to elect a Council that will have constant, solid, enthusiastic support of the students at all times next year."

"We have seen in the past," says Ziegler, "our student government suffer because it lacked such a backing."

The Progressives are supporting I. B. Hale in the vice-president's race. His opponent will be Miss Frances Wand. Hale was entered as a substitute by Paul's backers.

Miss Martha Fallis was placed in the secretary-treasurer's race by Ziegler's group. Her opponent is Miss Janis Stephens.

Two major officers, besides president, will be elected without competition. These are Ernest Peyton for editor of The Skiff, and Jack Murphy for reelection as head yell leader.

The petition deadline found competition in all Council races. All six posts, while classified by hour requirements, are subject to the vote of the student body as a whole.

The Council ballot will read:
Place 1—Miss Miriam Glaze, Miss Emajean Haggard.
Place 2—Landon Colquitt, James Matthews.
Place 3—Pete Becker, Clarice Rumph.
Place 4—W. O. Dewees Jr., Tom Swiley.
Place 5—Buster Reynolds, Harry Stiefel.
Place 6—Arthur Black, George Stroud.

While the Progressives entered only two candidates for Council posts, they have selected as their party ticket, Miss Haggard, Matthews, Rumph, Swiley, Reynolds and Black.

So far as is known, this is the first political party in Purple history. But, as Ziegler points out, it differs from a regular party in that most of the candidates entered on their own, most of them do not know they are being backed by the party, there is no unification of platform, and alignment is only because a group of interested students are seeking to have them elected because of the aforementioned purpose.

"Even," says Ziegler, "some of our candidates may oppose the election of some other Progressive man."

Not only did a political party develop in the current campaign, but Miss Haggard's petition for the Council came in marked "Service Drug Entry."

The election will take place from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Wednesday, with the polls in the door to the Auditorium. Regular election procedure will be used, and each student will be entitled to one vote.

Each candidate was given a chance to express his or her platform, and the statements of those who desired to make one will be found on the back page.

Dr. Morro Speaks To Brite Students

Dr. W. C. Morro spoke this morning in the University Christian Church on "He is Risen." This was the last in a series of pre-Easter Brite College Chapel programs.

Amos Melton Is 'Honoree'

Amos Melton, sports editor of The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, will be the honoree on the T. C. U. "Personality" broadcast over KTAT at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. He will be emceed by Coach Dutch Meyer. Miss Beverly Vaughn will be presented in a violin recital to conclude the program.

"Knick Knacks," a skit by Miss Mege McClinton, will be given over the regular 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon broadcast over KTAT from the T. C. U. studio. Members of the cast will be Misses Katherine Tucker, Frances Withers, Gwendolyn Mann, Betty Boyd and Ernest Peyton.

"Mornings at Seven," by Charles Cope, will also be presented by Miss Florence Parks and the author. The program, presented by the "Radio Technique" class, will be concluded with the weekly presentation of "Campus Notes," by Ernest Peyton.

Sammis Will Judge Festival and Contest

Prof. Claude Sammis will turn judge for a week when he will be required to make the decisions in the Junior Competitive Music Festival, April 9, and also in the Interscholastic Music Contest, April 14.

The Music Festival will be sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs and will be held at the Oklahoma College for Women in Chickasha.

The interscholastic contest, sponsored by the University of Oklahoma, will be held in Wilson, Okla.

To Haze Or—

"Frosh-Sophis Make Peace," "Freshmen and Sophomores Bury Hatchet," and many other such statements were used to headline the story of the truce made last week in Texas Christian (or any college's) traditional freshman-sophomore rivalry. In the eyes of The Skiff, such a step is indeed a commendable one. That is, with certain limitations. And this discussion refers to more than simply the truce at "swiping presidents." It refers to the hazing ban entered into by both classes.

It is the sincere hope of The Skiff that the true opinion of the students was represented when such a ban was adopted, and that the ban did not come through faculty coercion.

Why? Because while The Skiff feels that promiscuous hazing is out of place and unnecessary, it also contends that there are certain duties that go with being a freshman. Not only that, it believes that the first year student expect such an arrangement, and in the long run will enjoy college more because of it.

For example, and this includes girl "slimes" as well as boys, there are rooms to be swept, odd tasks to be done, errands to be run, etc. These tasks are handed out by tradition to the freshman, and he expects them.

In the long run, the "greenie" will be glad to do such things for one year so that he may, in return, get such things done for three years for himself.

Here to The Skiff, is where hazing should enter into the life of the freshman. If he refuses to perform these tasks, he should be punished, so that he will do them the next time.

Now, no "black list, no hangaroon court," nor similar items will ever achieve this "punishment" experience has shown this. So here is where hazing has its place.

Yet if such a policy were adopted there would be no hazing, because there would be no need. The Skiff hopes that the truce will bring about this understanding between the classes.

A "Piccolo" Decides

"Did you ever hear Pete go tweet, tweet on his piccolo?"

If you have not, then you will have your chance Wednesday night, as Frogland dances go big-time and hire a name band, Phil Baxter and his orchestra will play for the pre-Easter dance.

Needless to say, the music he and his orchestra will provide for the Hop will be the best ever heard at a Frogland dance. It is the first time that a real professional dance band has ever been hired for a Purple social.

But the Wednesday night affair is more than just a dance or the biggest social ever held at Frogland. It represents an attempt to put Purple socials on the "big name band" basis.

Any attempt to do so in the past has been sneered at by the "blue noses," for just straight small dances were losing money (except during the football season). This year such has not been the case. Not only have all dances shown a slight profit, but three out-of-town bands have been brought here.

But the skeptical still say that the student body's interest in dancing does not merit a big-name band, nor any attempts at such a program. With the successful record behind him, Dance Manager Vincent Ziegler has succeeded in overcoming these arguments to such an extent that next Wednesday's dance was scheduled.

A big time dancing program is on trial next Wednesday night. If you want such a schedule, support it. If you fail to support it, the skeptical and the "blue noses" will say, "I told you so," and it will be a long hard struggle to get such an occasion again.

Ours for Us

"Varsity tennis courts for varsity players." A few weeks ago, Coach Tom Prouse made this request.

Despite the fact that the request has been ignored, The Skiff has an amendment—"T. C. U. tennis courts for T. C. U."

Yes, there are signs on the net grounds that tell the story that these requests make, but seldom, if ever, have they been enforced.

But such has not been the case in anything else under Athletic Director Howard Grubbs' reign. In fact, he achieved the difficult task of putting "teeth" in the rule to keep people from climbing over the fences at football games.

For this The Skiff praised him, so it does not hesitate to call the tennis court situation to his attention. Certainly, it should not be nearly as difficult.

The plan used at Missouri University would solve the Purple troubles. There a certain number of varsity tennis players are assigned to the tennis courts as their job.

Being naturally interested, they take better care of the courts. This would solve the item of care of the courts.

These boys, who are on the courts most of the time anyway, would check the courts to see that only students and faculty play, running all others off.

That is, with the exception that local people are permitted to buy permits, similar to the summer swimming tickets at Frogland, that lets them play. This additional revenue goes towards the expenses of the courts.

Why can not some real meaning be put into the signs on the tennis court?

You Must Answer

What do you want Texas Christian to do next year? What student body functions would you like to have next year? What projects and reforms do you wish on the campus?

Each student will have a chance to answer these questions next Wednesday morning at the polls in the annual student body election. At that time the student leaders, whose actions will determine the actual answers to the questions, will be elected.

Because of the new constitution, a new angle has come into the annual political race. This is the "progressive ticket," a group of students who are urging all to vote for a complete line of candidates, who, they feel, will constitute the most progressive Council ever elected.

It is the aim of this group to arouse student interest in next year's Council and overcome past comment that the Council does not really represent the students and is a group of "blue noses" and "do nothings."

Now it is not the aim of The Skiff to support any candidate, party or similar thing, but The Skiff does feel that some dissatisfaction with the Council could be overcome by everybody voting and electing a Council that each student will feel is representative, rather than waiting until next fall to gripe.

To really realize reforms or projects, the Student Council must have the solid, enthusiastic backing of the students. This support for next year's leaders can only come about through the election of satisfactory leaders Wednesday.

Wednesday's election is to elect student body leaders. Let each of the students go to the polls and vote, in order that a true student body will be spoken.

Snooper Sorry Space Sliced

By SKIFF SNOOPER

THE political campaign has taken most of the space this week, and the editor has asked me to make it brief, very brief, this week. . . and so it shall be.

Highlights of the recent geology field trip were Abe Walker's eternal whistle, which announced lunch each day. . . and Tom Barber's matador act with a contended cow. Some of the students apparently took advantage of the passes to the Roller Derby handed out with last week's Skiff, for seen there opening night were John Moyer, Nell Guerne, Catherine McConnell and Gwen Brower.

LOVE bouts are 'oft heard of things. One was taking place Wednesday on the campus. . . south of the Gym. Wilbur Mendel and Jessie Van Horn were holding a horseshoe match. . . Mendel, being the true gentleman that he is, was letting Jessie pitch (not woo) from five feet closer.

The vogue in Fort Worth this year is to get your phone number for a license plate. Perhaps then, the Jarvis girls (and the boys who have to phone Jarvis so often) will be interested in who has license No. 4-0190.

SNOOPIN' up by the court house the other day, I sighted this old Pontiac coupe with the aforementioned license number. . . on the inside there was a driver's license attached to the wheel. . . so the owner of the Jarvis Hall phone license is Garland Armstrong. . . but he's starting a little late, the license said he was 68 years old.

Charlton McKinney, "Chilli" to you, adds an answer to "So They Say."—"I'm going home to see that swell gal from East Texas."

AND his ex-love of Jarvis, Dorothy Finlayson, was pulling a fast one on the steps of Jarvis Wednesday night. . . she and her latest heart-throb were standing at the south end of the porch and they were pitching woo, under the protection of an umbrella. . . yes, it was raining outside, but they were merely shutting out the rain of eyes.

For the weekly item from Service, before awarding the mails, here is an exact reproduction of a note written by Mr. Elbert Taylor (Spud to you) to Miss Patsy Foster. The note, while torn to bits by Miss Foster, was pieced together by our Service stoooges and it follows:

MY dearest Patsy: I'd go through mud for you, I'd go through fire for you, I'd fight for you, I'd do anything for you if it don't rain. If your folks don't come up Friday night I'd love to see you if it don't rain.

All of my love,
Little Spud.

GUY DANIEL

"Duties of a student body president?" echoed Guy Daniel. "Well, he'd have to know the difference between right and wrong and do his best to do what is right."

And that just about gets it said. With that idea of his job behind him, together with the belief of his many friends in him, Guy foreshadows a good year of efficient government.

Guy comes from the land of eternal sunshine, where oranges are as big as grapefruit and grapefruit as big as watermelons. (Sounds like a Chamber of Commerce ad.) The place is Mission, in the Rio Grande Valley. Daniel has lived on a ranch all his life. In vacation he takes over the management of his father's 35,000 acres. Ranching is his hobby and his most absorbing interest. Every summer he takes half of Goode Hall down to the Valley for hunting and riding.

An ardent football fan, Guy followed the team to Ohio and Centenary last year, and would have gone to New York. "Only I couldn't leave my duties as monitor in Goode Hall." He also is a laundry agent in the Hall.

He is a geology major, a biology minor. He likes to talk about geology and ranching. He has trained one of his horses for rodeo work, but it's just one horse-out of 250, "and they're all fine animals," says his proud owner.

Bookstore Is Now Featuring Overcoats

Spring is here and overcoats have seen their day.

But that doesn't solve Miss Laura Shelton's problem. She has two overcoats in search of an owner in the "lost and found" department of the Bookstore.

"The coats were turned in a month ago, and I wish someone would claim them as they are in our way," Miss Shelton says. "And, anyway, we might have more cold weather!"

Both overcoats are small in size and are men's coats.

"This song, with words in Latin, will be included in our group of sacred numbers," Director Marsh says. "It will be sung a cappella." (Without accompaniment—to you.) "Adoramus Te" will be published this month by McLaughlin & Reilly, Boston.

This week we hand it to Rice for giving its students really practical knowledge. Recently a routine French class turned a corner and became an hour in "catch your man" (and like it) psychology.

Although the original topic of the classroom discussion was the reading of the Greek classic "Andromaque" (or something like that) the girls demanded a more modern version.

Some of the more experienced coeds expounded long and loud on the theory of "catch 'em and kiss 'em." During this time the lone male member of the group was chewing his fingernails and cowering in a corner, fearing that his 22 female companions would pounce on him in an effort to make him the human guinea pig on which to experiment. Results: unknown.

Gal Goes Goofy.

Recently a girl was standing with her senior cadet at A. and M. while the corps marched into the mess hall. Unacquainted and unbeknowning of the proceedings in the male camp, she asked, "What's that little bunch of boys out there in front?"

Whereupon the patient male character answered, "That's the battalion staff."

Quaintly (pick your own expression) the girl then asked, "Which one is the editor?"

Murky Waters in Dorm.

Swirling waters rapidly pouring into the room of seven frightened girls, a line of friends on the stairs anxious to help, a sleepless night, postponed tests. These are a few of the things the victims of the flood in the freshman girls' dorm at C. I. A. will remember for some time.

Malibu Beach never saw wetter nor more scantly clad maids, for the five feet of water allowed them little time to figure out what the well-dressed lass of the flood country should wear.

Windows broke under the surging pressure of muddy water. Hysteria cropped up as the girls saw treasured objects float away on the "bounding main."

Some plunged into the icy depths of the dining room "swimming pool" to swim after floating shoes, hat, love letters, wrist watches, etc. Imagine seeing dining tables, fully set for breakfast, out for a swim.

Other Swingsters who are members of the National Guard Band are Jimmy Petty, Adkins and Herschel Gibbs, Earl and Ellis Henderson, Don Hayes, Robert Spencer, Wayne Dunlap and Jack Harrell.

Holidays are made for travel. That must be the idea of T. C. U. students, for just about two out of three are planning to go somewhere during the four-day Easter holiday.

The second big purpose in life for vacationing college students is Sleep (yes, spelled with a capital "S"). Just to give you something of the idea, Ralph Tankersley puts it:

"I'm going to bed Thursday evening and not get up until Monday evening."

Most out-of-town students are planning a trip home, of course. Many boys and girls who live in Fort Worth will visit in other cities.

One group of 17 will take a biology field trip to Galveston, thus combining travel, study and recreation.

Members of the baseball squad will spend most of the holiday on a South Texas trip. The Frogs meet the Aggies in College Station Thursday and Friday, and the Rice Owls in Houston Saturday. The tennis team will be host to the Aggie netters here Friday of the holidays. Coach Mack Clark may enter some of the track men in the Kansas Relays at Lawrence, Kan.

Miss Jo Martin has planned such a busy four days—with time in Abilene (home), Colorado and Jacksboro—that she says she will be glad to get back to the campus "for a rest."

Miss Dorothy Finlayson imparts: "My Easter vacation will be spent in Sabinal seeing the sights I have heard Evelyn Woodley tell about for the past seven months!"

If you're interested in learning more about how various students will spend the holidays, read "They Say."

PURPLE baseballers will tangle with the Baylor Bears tomorrow in Waco, while the tracksters will meet S. M. U., Baylor and Texas in a quadrangular meet in Austin.

Thursday morning, Prof. Tom Prouse, who is director of the meet, had 153 boys already entered.

Speaking of track, Coach Puss Clark, who is taking his entire squad to Austin, is hoping that he can find some way to take his mighty shot-putter, Puss Erwin, to the Kansas Relays, a week from tomorrow.

And Possum gives an inside tip that he is hoping to add a home meet with Baylor to the track schedule. He hopes to bring the Bruin tracksters to Fort Worth for a dual meet next Wednesday afternoon.

Since there is little other news on the Purple sports front this week, today's column will be devoted to a series of shorts on Frog athletics—you may know them and you may not.

M. B. Short, the Polliwog slugger, was the leading hitter and home run knocker in Dallas' major city league last year.

T. C. U. won its first Southwest Conference championship in 1927 in golf, Jimmy Wilson won the conference individual championship.

The Horned Frogs have finished in second place in the Southwest Conference standings every year (four) since Dutch Meyer became head coach.

Varsity "T" awards will total about 65 for 1937-38 when competition closes late in May. About the same number of freshmen will have won their numerals.

"Do your football playing in Texas," is the slogan preached by Coach Dutch Meyer every time he addresses a high school athletic banquet.

Boys can participate in girls' athletics next year. The Women's Sports Association has made provision for a "Coed Club," in which boys and girls will team together—in tennis at least—for competition.

T. C. U. and L. S. U. have met on the gridiron three times and neither team has made a touchdown. T. C. U. won 3 to 0 in Fort Worth in 1931; the 1932 meeting in Baton Rouge ended in a 3 to 3 tie; T. C. U., in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game, won from L. S. U. 3 to 2.

Fred Cahoon, violinist and head of T. C. U.'s school of music at the time, was head football coach for the Horned Frogs in 1918 and 1919. He won six and lost eight in the two seasons.

Sam Baugh's three-year passing record was 599 attempted; 226 incomplete; 59 intercepted; 109 completed for a total of 1371 yards and 39 direct touchdowns; an average of 458 for completions.

18 Trackmen Go to Austin Tomorrow

Frogs, Texas, Baylor, S. M. U. to Compete in 4-Way Meet

By BILL HAWORTH
About 18 varsity track and field men will journey to Austin tomorrow with Coach Puss Clark to engage in a quadrangular meet with Texas University, Baylor and S. M. U. at Memorial Stadium.

Although Texas, winners in the Stock Show meet last month here, will be highly favored to win the meet, the Frogs are gunning for an upset and are expected to finish second.

Probably the Clarkmen's best bet for a sure victory will be in the shot put, in which Puss Erwin and Bob Cook will be entered. Erwin will be the meet favorite here.

Ward Wilkinson will be up against the competition in which he has failed to place on two previous occasions. Gilliam, Graham of Texas and Doc O'Neil of S. M. U. will be his strongest rivals.

The sprint relay team (440 yards) will be looked to for a good showing, also. Made up of Capt. Pat Clifford, Johnny Hall, Brad Snodgrass and Erwin, the quartet might develop into a real point-gathering outfit.

Clark indicated early this week that he would probably take along two of his freshman standouts, Bobby Roberts and Robert Groseclose, who may compete if fresh competition is available.

Frog Netters to Meet A. & M. Here Wednesday
Texas A. & M. is on the Frogs' schedule for the next matches the Purple squad will play, which will be Wednesday on the home courts.

After the Aggie encounter, the tennis team will disband for the holidays and will not play again until Wednesday, April 20, when S. M. U. will be met.

Last Saturday the Abilene Christian College netters played several informal matches with the Purple. The Abilene players were on a practice tour.

Yesterday the Frogs met the University of Oklahoma team here without the services of Tom Keplinger, regular No. 3 man. Keplinger was injured in an intramural soft ball game Wednesday afternoon, suffering a dislocated knee.

The seriousness of the injury is not exactly known yet, but he may be able to go against A. & M. next week.

28 Girls Enter W. A. A. Tennis
First matches for the W. A. A. tennis tournament were played yesterday. Twenty-eight girls have entered the competition.

Lu Ellen Evans, Christella Yaggy, Eleanor Jennings, Anita Louise Stewart, Marjorie Gibson, Gretchen Kahn, Louise Flack, May Helen Ede, Florence Parks, Shirley Jenkins, Billy Darter, Lottie Jo Tourneis and Clemence Clark.

Miss Fenton Clark, manager, has announced that four awards will probably be made. The schedule for second matches has not been made.

Sophs Lose To Freshmen

INTRAMURAL STANDINGS
Fresh 2 1 750
Juniors 2 1 467
Seniors 2 1 567
Sophs 2 1 600

The Frosh were victorious in their softball battle with the Sophs Wednesday afternoon by a score of 7 to 3. Melvin Stevenson was the starting pitcher for the winners but he was soon relieved by Jack Billingsley. Ed Brooke was behind the plate. The losing battery was Guy Baird and James McWhorter.

The Junior-Senior tilt was postponed until this afternoon, if the weather permits.

Table with columns for SOPHS and FROSH, listing players and their statistics.

Frog 9 Weak In Field Play

Deficiency Causes Purple To Bow to Longhorns To Tune of 13 to 5

Haggard play in the field and air tight pitching by the opposition were the main reasons the Frogs dropped the second of their two-game series with the Texas University Longhorns, 13 to 5, in Austin Saturday.

The Purple nine made no less than seven errors and were set down with only four hits in dropping its third conference game of the season.

Still the biggest mystery of the Frog team is its obvious weakness on the defense, the department in which it was highly rated earlier in the season. The miscues made Saturday were responsible for nearly half of the Texas team's runs.

Soph Woodrow Duckworth opened on the mound for the Christians and weathered the storm of 13 runs and 11 hits for six innings. At that stage of the game, Coach Howard Grubbs sent in Paul Tankersley, who set the Steers down with a pair of bingles in the three innings he pitched.

Don Looney was the best Frog of the day at the plate. Looney laid the Hickory to the pill twice in the game for hits. In the first half of the first he singled, to score Davey O'Brien and Robert Forte.

In the fifth inning Looney smashed out a triple and a moment later scored on Ben Dyess's long fly. Wildness by Steer furler Kirven Fields and a Texas error allowed the Frogs to score twice in the sixth.

The game saw Ki Aldrich back in harness for the second time this year (he played Friday) since he injured his catching mitt. Aldrich was batting in the cleanup position but went hitless.

Wanta Job? Scissors Fly As Costumes Start

Needles and pins, scissors and thimbles are being flourished wildly about the Gymnasium as the more than 1000 yards of material required for making 212 costumes for the pageant are parceled out to the girls.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vaughan is "presiding" over the rosebud hats. Pink crepe paper, rolls of wire, and a needle and thread are her constant companions.

Mrs. Helen Murphy spends half her time looking for the scissors and the other half using them, while she lends an ear to the complaints of the girls who "just aren't seamstresses."

Other assistants in the department fix programs, take turns at the sewing machine, and run to the drug-store for a paper of pins ever so often.

Stacks of material in all shades of solid colors and prints are scattered about, and the office is filled with girls scrambling for patterns and coming in with dejected faces to have some knotty problem ironed out.

Nine Seeks Lost Victory

After Dropping 3 Games, Purple Meets Bears Tomorrow in Waco

By BILL HAWORTH
Still seeking a victory in the Southwest Conference baseball race, the Frogs travel to Waco tomorrow to meet the Baylor Bears in their fourth loop game of the season.

Baylor, victor in two out of three starts this year (the Bears lost to S. M. U. and beat A. & M. twice), is rated in the upper bracket of the conference this year, so the Frogs will again be the underdogs.

Coach Howard Grubbs will have three pitchers ready—Paul Tankersley, Durward Horner and Woodrow Duckworth. Because of his showing against Texas last week, Tankersley, the only letterman of the trio, may start, although either of the other two will be ready.

Although chances for anything like a winning season are slim, Grubbs has dropped some of his usual pessimism and believes he can get one or two good games out of his team before the season ends.

In order to strengthen his pitching, he has been trying long-armed Ben Abney at pitching this week. Abney has plenty of speed and might develop into a valuable hand on the mound.

Horace Carswell has been filling in at Abney's old position at third base. Ki Aldrich might return to his catching chores soon. He may not get into tomorrow's game behind the plate, but is sure to play some in the outfield.

17 Biologists Plan Trip

Seventeen advanced biology and geology students from both the evening and regular college, accompanied by Dr. Willis Hewatt, John Forsyth and Eugene Jones, will make their annual trip to Galveston during the Easter holidays.

The purpose of the trip, Dr. Hewatt says, is to study marine life on the Texas coast.

The students making the trip are: Rex McFall, Bobby Bass, Fred Nemitz, John Wallace, Russell Hensch and James McBride, all of the advanced zoology class; Miss Sue Hazen, Miss Thelma Culbertson, Miss Ann Ogden and Clifton Cowan of the paleontology class.

The Evening College science students who will make the trip are: Misses Marnie Drain, Winnie Droy, Dola Kerr, Bess Simpson, Lucy Boyd and Vivian Hewatt and Clyde Kirkland.

Mixed Chorus To Sing Monday

The Girls' Choral Club and the double quartet of the Men's Glee Club will sing at the Weatherford Junior College next Monday night.

The Choral Club, under the direction of W. J. Marsh, and two quartets, consisting of Harrell Rea, Vincent Ziegler, Colby Hall, Jack Shirley, George Cherryhomes, Barry Hill, Hartford Inlow and Ernest Jones, will present a program of varied music.

Also featured will be a duet by Charles Mosshart and Charles Musgrave.

Wog Niners Play Today

In their second scheduled game of the season, Coach Walter Roach's Polliwog baseballers are slated to hook up with the Fort Worth Tech nine this afternoon on the latter's diamond.

This week's practice for the Frosh was featured by their 11-to-5 victory over the varsity Monday. The heavy hitting of the Wogs was the bright point of the game, and their power with the war clubs is expected to bring them victory this afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon they dropped a close 3 to 2 scrap to the Frogs. Jack Odle's football passing arm was working in fine fashion and the lanky lad turned in a nice hurling job. Odle will probably start this afternoon and Don Thompson may work some.

Monday the Frosh will meet the Riverside High School team and will finish out the week by taking on the varsity in intersquad games.

Golfers Meet S. M. U. Soon

The first golf match of the season with S. M. U. was postponed to a later date because of cold weather.

The team will be accompanied by Coaches Dutch Meyer, Mike Brumbelow and Tom Prouse.

Elimination for the purpose of selecting members of the team was held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon at the Glen Garden Country Club course.

Jimmie McBride and Gilbert Jackson made the best showing in the first day of the three day elimination for the team last Tuesday.

McBride came out ahead by shooting a 77, seven over par. Jackson came to the front by outshooting Bob Sikes. He birdied the 6th and 16th holes and eagled the 5th to come in with 81 strokes.

Those who competed in the elimination matches were McBride, Jackson, Sikes, Bob Jordan, Gordon Fitzgerald, Ed Cobb, Lacy McClanahan, Willis Lowe and Otis Henry.

C. of C. Chooses Miss Hutton

For the second time within three weeks, Miss Mary Frances Hutton has been chosen to represent Fort Worth in affairs out of the city.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has chosen her to be "Miss Fort Worth" at the annual convention of West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Wichita Falls April 25 through April 27.

A contest will be held the first night of the convention at the Wichita Falls Memorial Auditorium to select the "Queen" of all West Texas. The audience will do the selecting.

The "Queen" will be awarded a trip to Chicago, by air.

Wiburn Page, convention manager in Wichita Falls, says that approximately all of the 174 members of the West Texas C. of C. will have beauties in the contest.

Miss Hutton will be accompanied to Wichita Falls by Miss Martha Cell Grays.

The Horned Frog Band will also make the trip, to be presented on an "All-College Revue" program.

Miss Fenton Clark spent last week-end visiting Miss Elma Cudlipp in Lufkin.

Frogs Show In Relays

Erwin Wins Shot Put, Smith, Hall Look Good In Medley Event

Performances in two events at the Texas Relays in Austin Saturday were a big help in chasing a lot of the gloom out of the Frog track picture which has been more or less muddled for several weeks.

The chief reasons for the brightening in the outlook for the future of Puss Clark's cindermen were Puss Erwin's victory in the shot put over a hand-picked field, and the performance of Johnny Hall and Gail Smith in the one mile medley relay.

Erwin shoved the 16-pound ball 48 feet 5 1/2 inches to defeat such stars as big Ben Friend, Louisiana State University giant who has been predicted to fill the shoes of world's record-holder "Tiny" Torrance, one-time great of that school.

Smith Anchors Team
Hall, running the opening leg of the medley race, burned up the track with a 50 second flat 440. Two 220-yard sprints by Capt. Pat Clifford and Brad Snodgrass followed and Gail Smith anchored the team to a victory in its heat with a 1:57.3 half mile.

Smith is competing as a varsity man for his first time this year, and with the improvement which can normally be expected, he should easily be one of the Southwest's classiest middle-distance runners before he hangs up his spikes in 1940.

Even with the top-notch running of Hall and Smith, the Frogs finished in a tie for fourth place in the medley race, the finals of which were based on a time comparison of the two heats.

Tie for Fourth
Waples-Platter sends out, on the average, 400 pounds of sugar every week... that's 14,400 pounds every year. Then the "training table" uses all kinds of jellies and preserves.

Of course the cupboard is never bare, as there are at all times 100 cases of corn, 100 cases of canned beans, about the same of string beans, 125 cases of sliced pineapple, 75 cases of tomatoes and 25 cases of spinach on hand to prepare for any occasion.

When the menu calls for beans, 30 pounds are used at a meal. The main kind being baked navy, with pinto style running a close second.

Another item that Frogs go for in a big way is canned peaches... to the tune of about four gallons per setting, when and if.

Easter Time Is Joyful; Greeks Had A Word

By FRANCES TAYLOR

Of all the holidays of the year, Easter is, next to Christmas, the most joyfully welcomed by us, because it gives us four days in which to sleep, sleep and sleep. From of old it has been known as "the happiest of days," "the bright day," "the Sunday of joy" and the "festival of festivals."

The Greeks had an idea about Easter that is beautiful and romantic. "Eostre" was the name of a goddess, the personification of the spring, of the rising sun, of all things new and fresh and full of hope.

We have learned that Easter eggs and Easter rabbits have a heathen origin. When you blossom out in your bright spring colors at Easter, you are obeying a heathenish impulse, an outburst of jubilation over the reawakening of nature after her long, death-like sleep. And how impulsive some of us are!

One of the oldest and most widespread of Easter superstitions is the one which says the sun participates in the general felicity by dancing in the heavens. The question whether the sun really did dance was solemnly discussed and debated by grave old scholars, who took the trouble to demonstrate that while the sun might sometimes shine more brightly on Easter morning than on another, it was simply by accident, and that there was no dancing.

In Scotland the sun was even more active, for there it was expected to whirl round like a mill-wheel, and give three leaps.

It is considered by many unlucky to omit wearing new clothes on Easter Day. That's a good argument to give Dad when you bring up the subject of allowance.

To see a lamb on first looking out of the window on Easter morning is a good omen, especially if its head is turned in the direction of the house. This is because of the ancient notion that the devil can take any form except that of a lamb or a dove.

The idea of illuminating the buildings comes down to us from the old custom of lighting Easter fires on the tops of mountains. In pagan days these fires blazed to celebrate the triumph of spring over winter.

In Christian countries the spirit of Easter finds its most perfect expression in the Resurrection story of Jesus.

As we labored last Monday at the Wichita Falls Record-News, "putting it out," you know J. C. Smith found one story that kept the copy desk in hysterical tears. Take it from him, Easter rabbits will not be dived this spring. "Because," the story said, "the children get excited and squeeze them to death!"

If a petition for Dopey (the pig-tail in the Dwarf line-up) for president of the student body were drawn up, he could get the required signatures by picking a place on the highway and stopping coeds going down to the A. & M. Cotton Ball.

Tomorrow's classes will be better represented at Agrieland than at Frogland. One of our coeds, Miss Ruby Faye Jones, will take part in the pageant preceding the dance.

7 Girls to Attend Outing Today

A ham fry, followed by bicycling and tennis, will be attended by seven girls this afternoon.

They are Misses Minnie Urusla Frank, Catherine McConnell, Gwen Brower, Ruth McKee, Florine Rosenfelder, Margaret Frost and Oveta Steinmetz.

Timothy Club to Go Bicycling

The Timothy Club will have a bicycling party for members and their dates next Tuesday evening. They plan to meet at the Arch at 6 o'clock.

Tom Brittain and Jack Sherley spoke at a meeting of the club Monday night.

"Tren Espanol" Highlight Of Los Hídalgos

A comic skit in Spanish, "Tren Espanol," and a program of Spanish music were highlights of the Los Hídalgos meeting Wednesday evening.

The next meeting of the club is planned for April 20, Guy Daniel, president, announced.

Elbert Haling Addresses Dana Press Club

"Opportunities in Radio" was the subject of a talk by Elbert Haling, A. B. in journalism '32, before members of the Dana Press Club Wednesday evening.

Haling, who was radio editor of The Skiff and student assistant in journalism during his senior year, is now publicity director of WBAP.

Dames Club to Have Coffee Monday

The Dames Club will entertain with a coffee at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the parlors of Jarvis Hall.

Montgomery to Play Violin Recital

David Montgomery will present a violin recital at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the University Christian Church. His accompanist will be Mrs. QZella Oliver Jeffus.

"Sonata in A-Major," by Franck, and Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E-Minor" will make up the first two parts of the program. The third part will consist of "Estrellita," by Ponce-Hieftz, Scott's "Gentle Maiden" and "On Wings of Song," by Mendelssohn-Achorn, Kreisler's "Liebesfreud" will be the concluding number.

Montgomery won in the artist division of the Texas State Music Teachers' contest last Saturday. He was awarded grades of 97 in violin and 100 in theory.

Mavericks to Picnic Tomorrow Afternoon

The Mavericks will have a picnic near the Botanic Garden in Trinity Park at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This picnic will be the last activity before the Easter holidays.

The picnic will be held jointly with the boys' division of the club. After the picnic, the members will go bicycling in the park.

Miss Dorothy Ridings, president of the girls' division, is in charge of arrangements.

Class Will Assess Juniors for Banquet

Starting Monday, 15 "collectors" from the junior class will assess each junior 50 cents in order to pay for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

This plan was decided upon at a meeting of the junior class last Monday when it was found that the funds in the treasury were insufficient to finance the banquet.

"The money must be in by May 14," says Miss Anne Whitley, chairman of the social committee, "and I would advise the juniors to pay early and avoid the rush."

"Each junior must pay if he expects to get fed gratis next year. Those who do not pay during this campaign will have to pay when they pay for the banquet ticket," added Miss Whitley.

Dr. A. L. Boeck to Speak To Presbyterian Group

Dr. A. L. Boeck will address a Presbyterian Sunday school group on "What the Future Holds" next Sunday night, Monday evening he will go to Mineral Wells, where he will speak on "Current Economic Conditions and Trends" at a Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Last night Dr. Boeck delivered the opening address at the Fort Worth Retail Credit Men's Association School. His subject was "General Application of Psychology in Credit Work."

Earlier in the week he spoke at a Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting in McKinney on "Agriculture and the A. A. A."

Ridings and Nielsen To Travel for School

Prof. J. Willard Ridings and Dean Otto Nielsen will act as field representatives for the University this summer, it has been announced.

Prof. Ridings will work in West Texas and Dean Nielsen in East Texas.

New Catalog Ready About April 15

Road Riders

Take journalism and see Texas! The Skiff boys and girls have run up nearly a thousand miles of travel in the past two months, with visits to Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Cleburne, Dallas, Waco and Wichita Falls.

A day's edition of the local paper was "put out" by a student staff in Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Cleburne and Wichita Falls.

In Dallas, the group visited the plants of Holland's Magazine and the two newspapers.

The annual meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress was the attraction which drew 12 of the students to Waco for two days.

Shoe leather mileage was not kept, but some of the reporters complained mightily of tired "dogs" and offer well-worn shoe soles as testimony. The walking record will be considerably increased when the students edit The Fort Worth Press May 3.

Hale, and ask that you give him your support in the interest of good student government.

Secretary-Treasurer

MARSHA FALLIS.
The office of secretary-treasurer demands a person who is able to fill the needs of the office. I feel that the student body should have an officer upon whom they can depend to carry on the duties of the office. As a member of the progressive group, I am in favor of being sympathetic at all times toward all the groups, and at the same time work in harmony with the administration.

The dances should be made better by establishing some sort of fund which will enable T. C. U. to have well known dance bands play for our dances. I will perform all duties to the best of my ability if I am elected to the office.

EMAJEAN HAGGARD.
We who back Emajean believe that the Student Council should have some girl members. One of her main qualifications should be knowledge as many students as possible and a willingness to work for T. C. U. For this reason we submit Miss Emajean Haggard as the senior girl best qualified for the post.

Council Place 2

LONDON COLQUITT.
I am running for the Student Council, Place 2, and am soliciting the

JANIS STEPHENS.

My observations during the last two years have shown me that the greatest qualification of any student officer is the ability to maintain co-operative relations between the administration and the student body. If I am elected, I think I can do no better than to emulate the policies of the present secretary-treasurer of the student body, Ann Day-Jarvis.

Skiff Editor

ERNEST PEYTON.
As editor of The Skiff, I will attempt to carry on the fine tradition of fairness and democracy always held by The Skiff—the STUDENTS' newspaper. In this effort, I hope that I may be as successful as both the present and past editors of the paper have been.

Council Place 1

MIRIAM GLAZE.
Platform statements don't mean a great deal, but I promise to work to the best of my ability for bigger and better student government in T. C. U. If I am elected to the Student Council, Place 1, I intend to do what I feel is best for the student body as a whole, but as a girl and as a town student I solicit particularly the votes of those two groups, which I feel should be adequately represented in the council.

W. O. DEWEES, JR.
Most of you know my attitude toward campus issues and questions, I have no intention of making an active campaign for a post on the Council.

As always, I stand for the students' welfare, and I am ready at all times to better student life in all possible ways.

That statement is the extent of my campaign. If you see fit to vote for me, I'll appreciate it.

TOM SWILEY.

votes of the student body upon the following platform:

1. A definite interest in making student government a powerful influence on this campus.

2. A real intention to devote my time and energy to all projects which I feel are for the best interest of the student body.

I promise that, whatever else may be said, I will not merit the name of "do-nothing" during my term of office.

JAMES MATTHEWS.
Co-operation.

Council Place 3

PETE BECKER.

CLARICE RUMPH.
Believing that there is a need on the Student Council for a student who will work, yet is closely connected with the social minded students, or shall we say "drug store cowboys," Clarice Rumph has been nominated for the Council. Co-operation is the keynote of the campaign, and Rumph will make possible co-operation with students who were never before reached by the Council. His efficiency has been well proven, as besides being a working student (at Service Drug) he is a hustling member of The Skiff staff.

Council Place 4

W. O. DEWEES, JR.

Being only a freshman this year, I'm not in a position to advance any constructive platform. I'm not a radical. I don't want to reform the student government or change students' life, but when any new questions come up, I promise to vote to retain the good in the old and accept only the best in the new proposals.

If elected, I will try to do this. You that signed, thanks for the petition.

TOM SWILEY.

Council Place 5

HUSTER REYNOLDS.
I solicit the votes of the student body for Place 5 on the Student Council upon the basis of the following points, which I pledge myself to work for to the best of my ability:

1. Co-operation between administration and students on chapel programs.

2. Better relationships between dormitory and town students.

3. Co-operation between administration and students to keep halls and classrooms cleaner and more conducive to real scholarship.

4. Better class activities.

HARRY STIEFEL.
Several things have come to my attention that could be altered slightly to benefit the individual student and the school. I would like to be a councilman so as to push forward an earnest effort to make some of these alterations, such as a revised chapel plan, including optional attendance for seniors and juniors and programs more to the student liking; a revised dance program, with prices suitable to the average student; closer fellowship for town and dorm students; and an active date bureau by September, 1938.

Council Place 6

ARTHUR BLACK.

GEORGE STROUD.
I'm not in a position to advance any constructive platform. I'm not a radical. I don't want to reform the student government or change students' life, but when any new questions come up, I promise to vote to retain the good in the old and accept only the best in the new proposals.

If elected, I will try to do this. You that signed, thanks for the petition.
