VIEWS 'N VIEWPOINTS

By LEROY GIDEON (New Student Dance Manager) My appreciation and gratitude is extended to those who selected me for student dance manager...

There has been a tendency in the past for our school dances to start off with large attendances and then gradually fall off...

It is our desire to have an outstanding dance orchestra for our Homecoming dance after the T. C. U. Texas game...

We are going to cooperate with the administration in carrying out our school dances. We are all aware of the restrictions...

Any suggestions anyone has to make that will better our programs will be appreciated...

Let's all pull together and enjoy every dance. Remember that your cooperation will play a great part in the success of our efforts...

New Students Must Have Physical Examinations

All new students who have not taken their physical examinations will be notified within the next 10 days of the time for it...

New class sections are being made in a number of departments to accommodate the extra students...

Prague Copies America, Faculty Travelers Say

"Prague, in July, was very confident about its support from France and Great Britain, so far as we could tell," says Mrs. Ruth Angell...

"In fact, we got the impression that they were almost cocky in their attitude toward Germany," added Miss Sewall...

"We were impressed by the Czech toleration of the Jews. They were proud to show us the old Jewish cemetery in the old Ghetto..."

"The people are also proud of their modernism," said Mrs. Angell. "Shop windows are filled with chromium ware and other things that denote their interest in keeping up with

Two Students Seek Position As '42 Prexy

Westbrook, Reader File in Frosh Contest—No Other Petitions Received.

Voting Wednesday

Martha Ceil Graves, Miriam Glaze Candidates for Student Body Secretary-Treasurer.

Activity on Frogland's political front began to form this week as two candidates announced for the position of secretary-treasurer...

Students will vote on these candidates next Wednesday. The polls will be open from 8 a. m. until noon in the old Y. M.-W. Y. C. A. room...

All students will vote for the secretary-treasurer, while only freshmen will be allowed to ballot for their class president.

As no petitions were turned in for any other freshman offices, the class president will be asked by Guy Daniel, student body president...

Orchestra Gets Network Spot

The Texas State Network has decided to put the T. C. U. orchestra and other musical groups on programs twice a month over the 23 stations of the network.

Music will be the major offering but there will also be short, popular talks from some member of each department.

Coeds Wanted to Model For Company Advertising

Opportunity will knock next week for T. C. U. girls interested in modeling for commercial advertising.

The Texas Electric Co. will take pictures of coeds, then choose those who photograph best to pose for action pictures to be used in their newspaper advertising.

The girls will be paid for each sitting for which they are chosen. All interested should see Dean Elizabeth Shelburne as soon as possible.

War in Europe Soon, Is Opinion of Students

Although believing that war in Europe is inevitable T. C. U. students are optimistic concerning the chances of U. S. staying out...

Miss Jo Ann Roberts thinks that public opinion in the U. S. is too strong against our entry. She says: "Regardless of what happens in Europe, I don't think the United States will get into war because the people won't stand for it..."

Johnny Estill doesn't think "the United States will be involved for at least two years—maybe permanently."

Charles Zlatkovich says, "War could be avoided but it won't be. We'll stay out if it lasts less than a year."

On the other hand, Jimmy Pratt is rather pessimistic about the whole thing. Says Jimmy: "I think it's a very tense situation. Instead of carrying footballs, we will be carrying guns within six months..."

And "Lefty" Alexander has already made his plans if war does come. "Lefty" says, "I think the whole cause of this trouble is Hitler's greed. If the United States goes into war, I'm going to hibernate."

Miss Elwyn Espy is definitely a pacifist. "If there just has to be a war to crush Hitler's undiluted egotism, I only hope they leave our boys out of it," she states.

Jack Billingsley says, "I only know what I hear over the radio and read in the papers, but, as far as I'm concerned, I am not mad at anybody."

Sam Jackson and Jack Barr are on opposite sides of the question. Jackson says: "War is inevitable because the nations involved have spent too much and have said too much to back down."

On the other hand, Barr believes "there will be no general war in Europe because the people do not desire it; they are not ripe for another disaster such as the last war."

Pat Steel believes "Czechoslovakia will come to Hitler's terms and stave off war," while Dan Lane presents another view. Says Lane, "War is up to Hitler. If the U. S. is drawn into it, I believe it will be through the South American countries..."

Miss Gwen McSweeney thinks "Hitler has gone so far that he can't back out now." George Cuthrell believes "there will be some fighting in Europe, but it will be very localized. The U. S. will not enter sooner than a year, if then."

Guy Baird says war is "inevitable," but is of the opinion that "it will create a financial boom in the United States."

Rudolph Tatch and Rawlins Cheryhones agree that an "undeclared war" will soon be raging in Europe.

Concerning the causes of the present crisis, Doyle Fine says: "I believe the state of affairs in Europe today is the direct result of our last war—which was never settled."

Miss Laureigh Jones prophesies that "Czechoslovakia will fight to get out from under tyranny of Hitler." Kile Miser states definitely that "Germany should not have any Czech territory 'cause it doesn't belong to them!"

Bobby Bass and Arthur Moseley are definitely on the side of the "underdog." "It seems that Czechoslovakia has such powerful backing in England, France and Russia that she can afford to stand up for her rights," says Bass.

Moseley believes "the Czechs are in the right, and that Germany should be taught a lesson before she grows more powerful and more difficult to subdue."

But, there is no doubt that Miss Betty Giles expressed the opinion of many students when she said, "Don't mention the European situation, because it scares me to death."

New Study Groups Organized by S. C. A.

Upperclassmen Sponsor Freshmen—Plan to Bring Famous Lecturers.

Plans for five separate study groups set up by the Student Christian Association at a business conference Tuesday night, when the officers and cabinet members met at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Charles R. Sherer, sponsors.

This new type of organization will consist of three freshman groups and two upperclassman groups. Each of the former will be sponsored by two upperclassmen, one boy and one girl, and one faculty member and his wife.

The faculty members who will be sponsors are Dr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Mundhenke, Prof. and Mrs. Sherer and Dean and Mrs. Otto Nielsen. Upperclassmen who will sponsor the freshman groups are Landon Colquitt, Joe Pritchard, Leonard Rosenthal, Betty McGoffin, Frances Porterfield and Evelyn Watkins.

One of the two upperclassman groups will have for its interest social welfare, while the other will have meetings of general discussion.

The association is contemplating contacting various famous lecturers for the coming year but no definite plans have been made. Arrangements have been made for the cold drinks concessions at dances.

A meeting of the sponsors of the freshman groups will be held at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Sherer next Friday night.

Rev. Perry E. Gresham To Be Chapel Speaker

The Rev. Perry E. Gresham will be the speaker in next week's chapel. His subject has not been announced. Dean Colby D. Hall will preside.

Seating arrangements and chapel attendance will be handled as it was last year, President E. M. Waits said. Attendance for seniors will be optional.

'Yells' Begin At 8 Tonight

Leaders Are 'Ready to Go,' Says Swiley—Rally to Be 'All-Campus' Affair.

"Beat Arkansas" is the cry of the week, what with freshmen making it known to the world at the top of their voices at each entrance or exit through an outside door on the campus, and at the Cafeteria.

The cry will be taken up at 8 o'clock tonight in the Basketball Gymnasium in an all-campus pep rally, in preparation for the first conference game of the year.

Yell Leaders Tom Swiley, Kile Miser and Stanley Wilson are enthusiastic over the fine response given by the student body at the Centenary game last Saturday. They report many compliments from outsiders concerning the yelling of the students.

However, Swiley has one complaint. "It seemed to me that the brunt of the yelling was carried by the dormitory students, and especially the freshmen," he declared. "I want to make a special plea for the town students to come out tonight and learn these yells. They are a little different from the ones used last year. I believe with a little practice, our yelling volume can be doubled."

Feature of 1939 Annual Will Be Colored Pages

"Color" will be the distinguishing feature of the 1938-39 Horned Frog this year, with colored pages to divide the various sections, Miss Frances Taylor, editor, reports.

The cover for this year's annual was selected this week, and another new feature added. It will be a section devoted to a "Hall of Fame" or "Who's Who."

"The freshman deadline for annual pictures is just around the corner," and so far only 30 pictures have been made," Miss Taylor says.

Leroy Gideon Dance "Boss" For Frogland

'Jew' Selected Over 6 Other Applicants by Council in Wednesday Session.

Dance Tomorrow

Petty's Orchestra to Furnish Music for First Hop Under New Manager's Helm.

"All I can say is that I'm very glad to get the appointment and that I will do my best to give the students the kind of dances they want," said Leroy "Jew" Gideon when told of his appointment yesterday as student dance manager.

"Jew" was elected to the position by the Student Council over six other applicants.

Jimmy Petty's orchestra, formerly the Dictators, will play for the first dance under Gideon's management tomorrow night. Tariff for the affair will be 50 cents for couples and stairs. The music will begin at 9 p. m. and will last until midnight.

Because of the short time in which he had to arrange for the Arkansas dance, Gideon said he had not been able to plan any special attractions.

The Council, in a called meeting Wednesday night, also urged all students to vote in the election for a secretary-treasurer next Wednesday, and also went on record as urging strong support of the freshman football team's first affray next Wednesday night. The time for Council meetings was changed to Tuesday nights.

41 Freshmen Eligible For Invitation Class

'Members of Class Are Quick And Clever Bunch,' Says Dinkins, Instructor.

Forty-one freshmen are eligible for the invitation English class, according to Paul Dinkins, instructor. The class is made up of the students who make the highest grades in the English placement examination.

The teaching of the class is a revolving matter, each teacher in the department having the chance to teach it a year. Dr. M. D. Clubb, formerly of the T. C. U. faculty, taught the class last year. It is taught differently from the regular freshman course in that the work can go faster, and consequently, more work is taken up. It has more freedom from the prescribed schedule.

"At the end of the school year," said Mr. Dinkins, "the class brings out an anthology of its best writings for the year. It is usually made up entirely by the members of the class, including the binding, mimeographing, etc." A copy of the book is given to each member of the class and of the staff of the English department.

"Altogether," commented Mr. Dinkins, "I have observed that the members of the class are a quick and clever bunch."

Those students eligible for membership in the class are: Lucile Ayres, Elizabeth Baldwin, Florine Beheler, Elise Bogue, Camille Carmichael, Madeline Dobbis, Harry Rex Davis, Katherine DeVal, Ambrose Edens, Thomas Elliott, Mrs. Walter H. Griswold, Jesse E. Hardin, Charles Horan, Lucile Horner, Jeanne Hufstutler, Edward Jackson, Dick Jay, Elizabeth Johnston, Peggy Johnston, Raymond Mack, Dick Maxwell.

Frances Nell McGee, Arthur Norred, Margaret Owens, Kathleen Parker, Patricia Ann Pearson, Elsie Porter, Rosella Porterfield, Betty Claire Pray, James Rosenthal, H. V. Shultz, Mary Simpson, Helen Stallings, Naomi Stanley, Marjorie Stevenson, Katherine Stockton, Homer Tally and Mary Von Zuben.

Students whose names are on this list should report immediately to Mr. Dinkins. If they have conflicts in their schedule, they should consult Dr. Rebecca Smith in the English department in order to make the necessary changes to join the class.

Wogs Will Mimic Varsity; To Have Cheer Leaders

The freshman class will have a chance to yell exclusively for their class, with freshman yell leaders, next Wednesday night when the Wogs meet Weatherford Junior College at LaGrave Field. The freshman hand members who do not make the trip to Philadelphia will likely play for the occasion.

Tom Swiley, head yell leader, has announced that he will appoint three of the freshman boys to lead the class cheering section.

All T. C. U. students are urged to sit with the freshmen and help them out. All will be admitted on their student activity books.

2500 Invited To Reception

36 Students to Aid Faculty in Welcoming Parents at Annual Affair.

Thirty-six students will be on hand to assist in welcoming fellow students, their parents, and friends of the University to the President's Reception to be given from 8 to 10 o'clock Tuesday night in the Mary Couts Burnett Library.

Approximately 2500 invitations have been sent out this week. Members of the faculty and their wives will make up the receiving line of 150.

Misses Virginia Barkley and Miriam Glaze and Guy Daniel and Woodrow Lipscomb will be the students at the door.

Misses Martha Ceil Graves, Emma Jean Haggard, Katherine O'Gara, and Virginia Simons will assist at the punch table.

The following students will compose the general hospitality committee:

Misses Nancy Barnes, Ruth Clark, Dorothy Farrington, Dorothy Jordan, Mary Porter, Margaret Sayles, Clara Shelton, Billy Stoker, Frances Taylor, Hazel Thompson, Carolyn Webster, Anne Whitley, Marion Mackey, and Constance Clark.

Prints Go on Exhibit In First Art Show

Artists of 7 Nationalities Give Interpretations Emphasizing Modern Social Aspects.

Sixty prints from the Chicago Artists' Group emphasizing the modern social background go on exhibit today in the galleries of the art department.

Picturing largely the lower masses, the group includes works of Polish, Spanish, German, Ukrainian, Yugoslavian and Austrian born artists, as well as native Americans. Many of the prints border on surrealism and the subconscious.

All works exhibited are offered for sale, most prints being priced at $3, Prof. S. P. Ziegler said. Others, having fewer prints made from the original plate, are priced slightly higher. Every etching and lithograph and woodcut is an original work bearing the signature of the artist.

This exhibit is the first in a series of art shows to be hung in the T. C. U. galleries during the year, and will be left for two weeks.

Typical Coed Will Be Given Football Trip

Girl Selected in Contest to Make Student Body Trip at Expense of Skiff.

3rd Annual Affair

Students Will Decide Requirements and Give Ballots to Staff by Wednesday Noon.

Everyone in the nation knew who "the Ugliest Man" was; everyone in the Southwest knew the identity of T. C. U.'s "Most Representative Couple" last year; but WHO knows Frogland's "Most Typical Coed"?

Is she a "lowly" freshman or a "dignified" senior? Is she a blase sophomore or a studious junior?

Tall girls, short girls, blond girls, brunet girls (and redheads)—all are eligible. In fact, the only eligibility ruling is that the nominees be coed students of T. C. U.

The students will decide on what they consider the requirements of "Miss Typical Coed," and will choose the coed they believe best fulfills these requirements.

"Miss Typical Coed" will be sent, at The Skiff's expense on the official student body football trip, to be chosen later. She will be the representative, not only of Frogland's coeds, but all of T. C. U.

All nominations must be made on the ballot form provided on the bottom of this page. These nominations must be turned in to any member of The Skiff by next Wednesday noon. All nominees will be announced in next week's Skiff.

I. R. C. Plans Election Of Officers Oct. 12

Speaking Engagements, Convention, Radio Program Are Discussed at Initial Meeting.

Officers of the I. R. C. will be elected at the second meeting of the club this year Oct. 12.

Plans for the annual convention, and a tentative 15-minute radio program each week were discussed by the old members this week. A boycott of Japan by members is to be considered at the next meeting.

A date has not been set as yet for the speaking engagement at Keene Junior College to be given soon. Other engagements have not been determined.

Membership may be increased from 25 to 28 this year. Continuing a 10-year custom, meetings will be held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

Miss Laura Campbell, associate member, was appointed acting chairman.

Soph Social Committee Discusses Picnic Plans

Plans for a picnic were discussed at a meeting of the sophomore class social committee last week in Jarvis Hall. The committee is composed of Miss Florrie Buckingham, chairman; Misses Louise Flack, Elizabeth Hager, Virginia Berry; Bill Crossfield, Lon Baker, Rex Howard and George Stroud. Malven Stevenson, president of the class, presided at the meeting.

Men's Glee Club Appoints Inlow Business Manager

Hartford Inlow has been appointed business manager of the Men's Glee Club since Harrell Rea, elected to the position last year, resigned.

Jack Shirley was elected assistant to Inlow.

For T. C. U.'s "Most Typical Coed" I suggest Miss..... Signed.....

—Congratulations to All

Congratulations are in order. They are due Vincent Ziegler, who acted as dance manager for the Freshman Prom; they are due President Waits and members of the faculty for their co-operation; they are due Jimmy Petty's orchestra for its fine music; and they are due the student body for one of the best turn-outs in the history of dancing at Frogland.

More than 1000 students attended the first University social last Saturday night. Of these, more than 500 were freshmen, who deserve credit for the manner in which they entered into the spirit of the evening—an evening honoring them.

Despite the crowded conditions of the dance floor, there is no doubt that the 1938 Freshman Prom was one of the most successful in the University's history. Everybody enjoyed themselves, and the dance showed a profit.

Previous to the Prom of 1937, each new Student Council and dance manager had to start off the year with a deficit, because of the Prom. Last year, the Council decided to charge a small admission fee for all upperclassmen, with the result that the dance showed a slight profit.

This year, thanks to excellent managing by Vincent Ziegler and to the unusually large attendance, the dance made a profit of more than $40. Therefore, The Skiff says Congratulations! to everybody connected with the Prom.

—Students and Religion

Do the majority of college students believe in God, or are they a godless generation with no more than a profound belief in their own ability?

The student who thinks out his religion usually enters his sophomore year with a feeling of disillusionment. He is beginning to evaluate the adult opinions around him, to question blind obedience of vested authority. He is no longer under parental restraint. If a comfortable bathrobe and the Sunday paper appeal to him more than church-going, he can always go next Sunday.

In general, the student finds he can get along without religion. When, later in life, he meets problems that require a definite faith to be successfully met, then, he reasons, will be the time to worry about it.

Some are not certain there is a Supreme Being. They know practically nothing about the Bible. Their moral code is similar to the Ten Commandments simply because it is worthy on general grounds. The average student doesn't talk about his religion. He has a silent, individual faith in God. It isn't that he is ashamed of his beliefs, but that he considers it nobody's business but his own.

It is more important right now to Joe College to be in tune with the times than to straighten out his unformed religion. He finds it easier to express himself in action rather than beliefs. He will live a good life for its own sake rather than to be in line with any creed or denomination.

The comfort of a common faith, of a common worship during hardships and trials has no meaning to the average student. Some day he will probably find his religion inadequate to meet his problems and put his faith in a greater power than himself.

But today's collegiate generation will never return to the narrow, creed-burdened beliefs of their fathers. They have been taught the beauty of science and truth. They have been taught to evaluate adult opinions, to arrive at their own conclusions. They are looking for a freer conception of life and of religion.

—“Memories Sweet?”

“MEMORIES sweet.” So runs a line of Texas Christian University's Alma Mater, our Alma Mater.

The implications of this line, of course, are that we will have pleasant memories of T. C. U. long years after we have graduated. But will we?

Is it logical that students who lack enough respect during their undergraduate days to pay any attention to their Alma Mater should, in later years, have “memories sweet” of their life here? We think not.

There have always been, and always will be those students at football games who completely disregard the playing of the Alma Mater song at the close of our games. But not in three years has there been such an almost-total disregard of the “Alma Mater” as there was at the close of the Freshman Prom last Saturday night.

A generous estimate of the number of students standing at attention at the close of the Prom would place the number at 20. In other words, less than 2 per cent of those attending the dance had enough respect for their University to pay attention to their “Alma Mater.”

The question of whether the close of a football game or dance is the proper place to play our “Alma Mater” does not enter in this discussion. Regardless of the conditions under which the “Alma Mater” is heard, one should have enough respect for T. C. U., enough reverence for the song, to stand at attention until its conclusion. And this should be done voluntarily, not through a sense of duty. It is a duty, but it should be one in which every student enjoys participating.

—The Point of the Point System

Do YOU know what the point system is? Do YOU know its purpose?

It is the system by which, along with the consideration of scholastic standing, Who's Who Among College Students of America is determined.

It has as its purpose the equalizing of the honor, responsibility and training which participation in such activities promotes.

In order to increase the efficiency of the point system, the Student Council of last year requested an investigation, which resulted in several changes.

First and most important, regardless of the number of activities, only 20 points will be credited to any one student. The student societies committee will try to prevent any student's having more than 20 points.

No points hereafter will be given for holding jobs or for being chairman of committees, as the amount of work done cannot be satisfactorily determined. Point awards to be made for participation in intramural sports and women's athletics will probably be raised, but this has not been definitely decided.

No person at any one time is to hold more than two presidencies, or one presidency and two other offices, or three other offices. This provision is meant to distribute the honor and work of campus activities.

In keeping with the new provisions for better management of the system, a change in the selection of the committee to be in charge has been made. The faculty members will be assisted by committeemen appointed by the student body president from the Student Council.

Honor for a greater number rather than “publicity” for a few has been the purpose of the system since its beginning. Now a number of weaknesses have been strengthened. Under the leadership of Mrs. Artemisia Bryson, more vigorous enforcement of provisions should lead to wider participation in campus activities.

—U. S. Support Desired

Human beings may be likened to sheep, when the observer staps by and watches both being led to the slaughter. A Judas goat leads his woolly followers to their doom, yet remains untouched by the executioner's axe. And a Judas goat of another form leads humans to their unhappy fate by merely starting a nationalistic-imperialistic movement; then he settles back to enjoy the struggles as his deluded flock fights to prove his actions right or wrong.

Recently, a speaker on this campus struck a ringing note in this present-day chaos of war-like actions when he said, “If America could be depended upon to foot the bills, Europe would have a war every five years.”

Europe, everything considered, was the Judas goat of the other nations in the last war. Americans were led to untimely death or injury, with American money financing the destruction! And for twenty years the war debts that Europe owes America have not been paid.

Were this country ever to enter another war, it would not only be obliged to sacrifice men for a cause that does not concern it, but also would be asked to foot the bills. American citizens should realize that without the support of their government—financial, military, etc.—there would be less opportunity for war.

MOVIE PROGRAMS

By ERNEST PEYTON

A dramatic, human interest picture, based on facts, will make its appearance at the Worth Theater this week-end. Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney clash in a battle of wills in “Boys Town,” a picture dedicated to the real-life Father Flanagan who became intensely interested in the problems of homeless, underprivileged boys and decided to dedicate his life to helping them.

The real Father Flanagan's Boys Town is a real community, located near Omaha, Neb. Spencer Tracy plays the role of the Father in the picture, with Mickey Rooney in the part of a boy who disturbs all of Boys Town with his refusals to conform to their ideals. Many reviewers are hailing Spencer Tracy for an Academy award for his excellent acting in this picture—a real “picture of the heart.”

The first movie quiz picture to be shown at the Majestic Theater will play there this week-end. “The Texans,” a saga of a cattle drive from Texas to Kansas during “the good old days” when the “Law West of the Pecos” prevailed, stars he-man Randolph Scott and lovely Joan Bennett. All those interested in the movie quiz contest will be given the answer to the question on “The Texans” because the question was not right as first given.

Frou-Frou makes her lovely appearance at the Parkway Theater this week-end in a dramatic piece entitled “The Top Wife.” The Academy award winner, Luise Rainer, is convincing in her role as Frou-Frou, a frivolous, fun-loving Southern belle who marries Melvyn Douglas, but fails to change her ways or her nature. She carries on a flirtation with Robert Montgomery, while her household affairs become hopelessly entangled. A costume drama of the antebellum South, “The Top Wife,” is reminiscent of “Jezebel.”

The following, upon proper identification at the box-office, will receive a pass to the Parkway Theater. This offer is good for one week only. Miss Mary Frances Lancaster, Lory McCasahan, Miss Elvyn Espy, Jimmy Morris, Miss Constance Clark, Bob Becker, Miss Earle Frost Road, Tom King, Miss Margie Foster, Guy Baird.

And many will receive a laugh, probably mixed with a reminiscent tear, when they see the Parkway's revival of “The Son of the Sheik,” starring the most romantic screen lover of all time, Rudolph Valentino, with Vilma Banky. The picture, of course, is not a talkie, and this, together with some of Valentino's violent love-making, combines for hearty laughs from this movie-bred generation.

The successful screen adaptation of that very successful Broadway play “Having Wonderful Time,” plays at the Tivoli Theater this weekend. Ginger Rogers, as a hard-working typist on a long-planned-for vacation, and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as an independent combination waiter and gigolo, are the stars. The action centers around these two and their experiences in a summer camp.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

By GWEN BROWER

Some hitchhiking! Two Oklahoma Aggies have really gone modern. “The boys, standing in the middle of the highway adjoining the Amarillo municipal airport, with thumbs pointed northeastward, were surprised when Pilot James L. Wheeler of the aviation department of the Shell Petroleum Company obligingly circled the field, picked up the travelers, and resumed his flight to Oklahoma.” The Daily O'Collegian says. By taking to the air, they made the last 400 miles of their trip in two hours and 15 minutes. Speedy even for an Aggie.

Oklahoma AggieLand also complains that the last of the men students' strongholds has been invaded. “The registrar isn't sure yet, but there must be in the neighborhood of 15 girls who have somehow slipped into the engineering school. Stars of the group are a couple of aeronautics students; and then there are chemical engineers and civil engineers and architects.” Now, it seems, girls juggle a slide rule instead of dishes.

Of course it's so far it's not catching, but at Miami University Eds and Coeds are not allowed to sit together at football games. A recent survey on the campus gleaned a variety of reasons for changing the custom and one lone statement in its defense. One sophomore girl dared to say she thought it was a good idea. “It makes Miami different from other schools,” she said. “The students don't think about dating for games.”

Millsaps College at Jackson, Miss., has a new idea. They'll try a co-operative laundry system this year. “The plan in outline includes payment, six weeks in advance, of a standardized fee, with laundry to be collected weekly in each dormitory by NYA students.”

Red Nichols' Hot Trumpet To Swing Out With Band

“Say, listen to that hot trumpet!”

There will probably be many such exclamations by startled swing fans at the game tomorrow, for the Horned Frog Band may be entertaining one of the best known trumpet players in the nation. He is none other than Red Nichols, and he may have with him all his Pennies.

Nichols, stopping in Fort Worth for an engagement, has asked permission to “sit in” with the band at the game. No objections have been voiced by the members.

Tomlinson Girls to Go ‘Visiting’ and ‘Barbecuing’

Around and About

The Freshman Prom has come and went, leaving a trail of conflicting emotions, broken hearts, new loves and sore feet in its wake. The unanimous proclamation of the crowd is, however, that there never was a bigger crowd in the ole basketball gym (360 paid admissions and over 1000 present), and that JIMMY PETTY's rejuvenated band, the former Dictators, was terrific! And we'll personally clip the first guy that starts yelling “Name Bands” at the top of his leather-lined lungs.

The T. C. U. patrons of the Den in the Hotel Texas are dropping a silent tear for the departure of their prime favorite, BOB MCGREW, who has to answer the call for other engagements. A smooth showman and a gentleman throughout, FIDDLIN' BOB made T. C. U. nights what they are. The noise you hear is the applause from last week's crowds at the downtown night spot given MCGREW'S gorgeous Miss JUNE KEMP for her versions of “Small Fry,” “Weekend of a Private Secretary,” and such numbers. When BOB announced her as a Scotch lassie, we immediately got half-way proud of our Scotch-Irish lineage.

But while the crowd is mourning the loss of MCGREW and the crew, they're heralding the advent of one BOB CHESTER, recently of the Booke-Leland in Detroit. It may be recalled that he was here, and was such a hit that he was called back after an engagement in Shreveport. He opens today at noon, and will officiate at the Frog Nite festivities this evening.

VIRGIL CLOER and DOT FINLAYSON were the first victims called on to try the “Lambeth Walk,” but they went through it like old stuff. The simple little routine has caught on like a housefire. CHARLIE COPE, T. C. U.'s maestro of the light fantastic, reports.

Also Denning it were ERNEST PEYTON and SUE HAZEN, JIMMY MATTHEWS and JO MARTIN, GUY BAIRD and SHIRLEY JENKINS, BILL DOUGLAS and MARY HARDIN DILLIN (shag specialists), HARRY KNIGHT and BETTY DYER, GEORGE STROUD and EVELY WOODLEY, HAL GARDNER and LOUISE LUTON, ERLE POWELL and P. A. T. ROGERS, WILEY ALLISTON and MARY M. MCCARTHY, COLEMAN CALLOWAY and ADALE REIGER, HERSCHEL GIBBS, JACK WIGGINS, SYBIL LAVY and feller, ALLAN KYSER and MARGE FOSTER, CLYDE SCOTT and nineteen beautiful blondes, JIMMY MORRIS and ELWYN ESPY, C. T. WARE and BETTY DAVIDSON, JIMMY PETTY and CO., JACK HARRELL and ditto, SWILEY-MISER-WILSON and NITA SHEERMAN, PRISCILLA BOYD and VERNON LEWIS.

Guess DUTCH EHLERS really will give TOM BARBER that threatened trouble with GRACIE MCKINNEY since he bought those two new suits. DOONEY MALONEY is also talking the drum major into a sweat. DICK CREWS hasn't wasted much time mourning the missing QUEENIE STEPHENS. Sorry we haven't her name, but he sent her flowers on her recent birthday.

Don't forget the voice lesson in the Big Gym tonight at 8 o'clock. ‘Bye, now.

Listen Frogs!

By BILL HAWORTH

Early this week The Skiff sports staff, Charlie Graves, who covers the Wogs' athletic activities, Keith Guthrie, the intramural reporter, and the writer, went into a huddle over tomorrow's Frog-Hog game. After much cogitating and calculating the following predictions were developed:

Graves: Frogs 20, Arkansas 6.
Guthrie: Frogs 19, Arkansas 7.
Haworth: Frogs 26, Arkansas 7.

The accuracy of Skiff scribes in this matter of football forecasting remains to be seen, but no one can say that we do not have confidence in those Frogs. If not hooded off of the scene we will continue to give our predictions in this column from week to week.

In giving due praise to Tackles I. B. Hale and Allie White this year, sports writers in general have perhaps overlooked Bob Cook, 220-pound junior who dealt one Weenie Bynum and other Centenary backs plenty of trouble last Saturday. Cook could play first string on any other conference team, which gives one a fair idea of the strength in that big forward wall of Mike Brumbelow's.

For the latest inside dope on the Frogs, tune in on KGKO at 10 P. M. Mondays and Wednesdays and hear it from none other than Earl Clark. Earl has four minutes in which to tell about the latest Frog frolics.

Prof. Tom Prouse and his assistant, Tom Keplinger, started the intramural ball to rolling Wednesday with the interclass football games. Prouse and "Kep" are planning bigger and better activities in all intramural sports this year and will soon have finished plans for all of the various tournaments, ping pong, boxing, swimming, fencing, badminton, track, basketball, softball, tennis and golf.

Keplinger, incidentally, is the first intramural assistant to hold that position as a junior. Olin Jones held the post last year, and after graduating became coach of the Rosemont Junior High School here.

Basketball is still months off, but inasmuch as cage practice will start in about two weeks it might be interesting to check over the Frog set-up. Nine letters were awarded last year. Capt. Jay Smith and Clifton Cowan are lost by the graduation route and Pat Clifford will finish his eligibility at mid-year. Blond Brad Snodgrass, counted on as being an integral part of the Frog team this season, cannot return to school this year.

Snodgrass was secretly married last spring and according to a University discipline rule must remain out of school for at least one semester, perhaps a year. This particular case parallels the Adolph Dietzel case back in 1932. Dietzel, all-American basketball center and then holder of two conference scoring records and end on the Frogs' eleven, met the same fate as Snodgrass.

Brumbelow is planning to enter the annual college tournament at Oklahoma City this year instead of touring during the Christmas holidays, as has been the custom. He will have Capt. Slim Mabry, Ben Abney, Jack Reedy, Mack Best, Woodrow Duckworth and last year's frosh material to work with. Up from the Wogs will be Robert Groseclose, Jack Billingsley, the Tankersley twins, Bud Smith and others.

The outlook for basketball (and all other Frog sports) this year is excellent. The Frogs may not win any championship on the hardwoods, but they are sure to be greatly improved. Baseball and track teams will be stronger. Only one letterman and one baseballer are gone from last year's teams.

One angle on tomorrow's game: Arkansas has managed to score on the Frogs in every year since 1931, although the Frogs have won three of the six games since then, while losing two and tying one.

The Texas Christian University Horned Frogs and the University of Arkansas Razorbacks meet on the gridiron in Fort Worth Saturday, Oct. 1, for the first Southwest Conference game of the 1938 season. The two elevens battled to a 7-to-7 tie in Fayetteville last year. Pictured are the captains of the two opposing teams.

Frogs Ready For Anything In Hog Game

Razorbacks' Famed Overhead Attack Is Main Problem for Meyermen.

Southwest Opener

Charlie Williams and Bobby Sherrod Due to Break Into Line-up—Hall Will Be Ready to Play.

By BILL HAWORTH

Whether or not there will be any pork on the Frogs' dinner table tomorrow night depends mostly upon their ability as pass defenders, if advance reports of the Arkansas Razorbacks' overhead game mean anything.

For the Hogs, who will test the Purple's gridiron greatness in the year's first Southwest Conference game here tomorrow, are sure to fill the ozone with flying leather.

Paced this season by one Kay Eakin, the Hogs' hope for another Jack Robbins in the backfield and Capt. Lloyd Woodall, center, in the line, the Mountaineers have all of their artillery in shape to bomb the Meyermen into defeat.

Hogs Have Strong Running Game. But in praise of Arkansas' passing game, its running play must not be under rated. While they were bowling over the Oklahoma Aggies at Fayetteville last Saturday, 27 to 7, the Porkers were doing lots of running, gaining over 200 yards on runs alone.

In the Frog camp, the latest pregame development indicates that Bobby Sherrod and Charlie Williams will start at right guard and right end, respectively, in place of Bud Taylor and Russell Hensch who started last week.

Taylor has been hampered by a shoulder hurt gained in scrimmage last week and Sherrod, who as a soph promises to make the Frogs outstanding first-year lineman, has shown so much in practice this week that he will probably get the nod from Coach Dutch Meyer when the Christians take the field tomorrow.

Williams, always a consistent performer, will in all probability be in there at a wing post because of his agility and sure defensive work.

Running Attack Due to Improve. It's no secret that the Frogs are eager to make a lot of yards through the line tomorrow, just to prove to themselves that they can do it. Some of the first string veterans were disappointed with results against the Gents.

The Frogs' running game should show much improvement tomorrow, partly because the Arkansas line isn't of the calibre of the Gents' line, but mainly because the Frogs are determined to make an improvement.

Worry that Johnny Hall would not be able to play much or that the speedster might not be able to start has been banished. Johnny will be ready to go and looks as fit as ever.

Purple Whips Gents Handily

Frogs' Passes Are Pleasing to Coaches, but Ground Game Disappoints.

By BILL HAWORTH

Last Saturday afternoon, down on the Frogs' field, a throng of young Gentlemen surged with wicked intent in their hearts. Two hours later a throng of ragamuffins straggled out. The Gentlemen were whipped down.

Yes sir, those Horned Frogs changed those Gents' big ideas considerably, and the Centenary crowd went home on the short end of a 13 to 0 score.

Coaches Dutch Meyer and Mike Brumbelow were, of course, pleased with the Frogs' showing, but they also had occasion to frown. The smoothness of the Purple passing game was lovely to look at, but the ground game did not function consistently.

Veterans Show Improvement

All of the stars from the 1937 team back this year indicated that they will shine again this season. Then, there is a newcomer who cannot be overlooked, Connie Sparks, the Pounder from Panhandle, who turned in a swell job of punting and did some valuable work in his lineplunging role.

Davey O'Brien displayed all of his old passing skill and looked greatly improved on his long shots. Earl Clark stood out, along with Sparks and Davey, in the first string backfield because of his chilling blocks and tackles, and for at least one nifty bit of ball-toting on which he made the Frogs' longest running gain of the day.

Reserves Prove Capable

One point of the game in particular that was satisfying to the Christian fans was the showing of the second team. Substituted as a unit, the understudies to the big first team filled the bill in every way. In fact, most of the time it was hard to tell the difference, so effective was the blocking, charging and execution of plays by the reserves.

The Frogs finally paid back Ed Whitehurst, hardhitting Gent line-runner, for the misery he dealt them in Shreveport last year. The Gent fullback's ball-carrying average for the first half was nil, and was little better over the entire game.

Brumbelow said that the first string line blocking was not quite what he thought it should have been, but the play of Ki Aldrich, I. B. Hale, Allie White and Forrest Kline was excellent.

In respect to the Frogs' failure to gain through the Gents' forwards, it must be remembered that the Centenary line is no pushover. That line of Louisianians must average almost what the Frog line does, and it's experienced too. Then, Coach Curtis Parker had his boys playing a seven man line much of the time.

'T' Association Plans First Meeting Soon

Announcement of the first meeting of the "T" Association will be made soon, according to Forrest Kline, president for 1938-39.

Kline was selected as president at the close of the 1937-38 school year, along with I. B. Hale as vice-president, Ward Wilkinson as secretary-treasurer, and Pat Clifford as sergeant-at-arms.

Juniors, Sophomores Victors in Football

Bradley, Stevenson, Westbrook and Estill to Be Captains of Intramural Teams.

Intramural football got under way again Wednesday as the Sophomores defeated the Frosh, and the Juniors downed the Seniors.

The Junior's 37 to 26 victory over the Seniors was due mainly to the play of Perry Gandy, Tom Keplinger, Ben Abney and J. B. Cason. For the Seniors Jim Nicol, Bill Ewell, Slim Mabry and Woody Lipscomb did the scoring.

The Sophs took the first year men by a top heavy score of 41 to 7. Edwin Revercomb made the lone Frosh tally while Edward Hennesdorf, Malven Stevenson and Paul Sorrels combined to make the going easy for the Sophs.

Walter Bradley was elected by the Senior team as its captain while John Grimland will act as manager. The Juniors chose John Estill as captain and Bob Parker as manager.

Malven Stevenson was named to lead the Sophs while Bonnie Westbrook will captain the Frosh.

The annual tennis and horseshoe tournament will get under way Oct. 4, according to Prof. Tom Prouse. All interested are urged to sign up now.

History Lends Edge To Frogs Saturday

T. C. U. Has Won Nine Games Out of 14 Played With Hogs Since 1920.

Historically, the Horned Frogs are better than the Razorbacks on the football field, but whether or not history will repeat when the two meet here tomorrow afternoon is another matter.

T. C. U. and Arkansas have met on the gridiron 14 times dating back to 1920. The Frogs have won nine of these, for a total of 176 points, while the Razorbacks have run up 123 points in winning four contests. Last year's game was a 7-to-7 tie.

In 1930, at the dedication of the new T. C. U. Stadium, the Frogs piled up against Arkansas the greatest score ever made against a conference foe—40 to 0.

- The complete record of former games:
- 1920—T. C. U. 19—Arkansas 2
  - 1921—T. C. U. 19—Arkansas 14
  - 1924—T. C. U. 0—Arkansas 20
  - 1925—T. C. U. 3—Arkansas 0
  - 1926—T. C. U. 10—Arkansas 7
  - 1927—T. C. U. 3—Arkansas 10
  - 1930—T. C. U. 40—Arkansas 0
  - 1931—T. C. U. 7—Arkansas 0
  - 1932—T. C. U. 34—Arkansas 12
  - 1933—T. C. U. 0—Arkansas 13
  - 1934—T. C. U. 10—Arkansas 24
  - 1935—T. C. U. 13—Arkansas 7
  - 1936—T. C. U. 18—Arkansas 14
  - 1937—T. C. U. 7—Arkansas 7

Weighty Line Wog Feature

Frosh Team Meets Coyotes Here Wednesday Night at LaGrave Field.

By CHARLIE GRAVES

The "biggest line in the conference," T. C. U.'s varsity line, is almost overshadowed by the hefty first-year Polliwog forwards—in the matter of weight, at least.

From tackle to tackle, the Wog's starting lineup against Weatherford next Wednesday night at LaGrave Field will average slightly better than 200 pounds, and the ends will weigh only a few pounds less.

After eight days of intensive practice, the tentative starting lineup stacks up in the following manner: ends, Ronald Brumbaugh and Phil Roach, Fort Worth; tackles, Dick Everett, Dallas, and Woodrow Adams, Midland; guards, Bill Crawford, Fort Worth, and Billy Lowden, Dallas; center, Buster Nicks, Dallas.

Quarterback, Dan Reese, Fort Worth; halves, Nolan Sparks, Panhandle, and Dave Wofford, Midland; and fullback, Frank Kring, Fort Worth.

Coach Walter Roach is disappointed at losing the services of Ruel Hoffman, former Paschal quarterback, who broke his ankle last Friday, but is highly optimistic about some of the other backfield men.

As a whole, the team should present a strong defense against the Coyotes Wednesday night, as their main menu of practice has been defensive scrimmage with the varsity.

Dr. Cortel Holsapple will address members of the all-college Sunday school class at a breakfast at 8:45 a. m. Sunday in the Cafeteria.

A vice-president will be elected at a meeting of the Timothy Club at 7 o'clock Monday night in Britte College Chapel.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Hop, Prexy's Reception Highlight Frog Society

By FRANCES TAYLOR

By this time the freshmen should feel thoroughly and definitely welcomed. They have been feted, introduced and officially led into the collegiate fold with appropriate pomp and ceremony. And, incidentally, they have proved they can take it, including the wearing of "Beat Centenary" cards around their necks and cheerfully accepting the command of no make-up and un-curl hair.

Tuesday night, heralded by rich traditions, the President's Reception will take place. The Library, festive with flowers and soft music to create the atmosphere associated with one of the most impressive of the traditional social affairs of the year, will be the scene of the reception.

This is your chance to be formally introduced to your professors and see how they look all dressed up.

FASHION NOTES: The latest thing in midday's evening wear is a hoop skirt borrowed from the days of the minuet. How the cord will look shagging in lavender and old lace will be something else again.

STALE NEWS: Gardenias led the list for the most popular corsage at the Freshman Prom Saturday. More than 1000 students flocked to the first hall of the season, making dancing slightly inconvenient. Fresh girls, after a nose-up, blossomed out into one of the prettiest crops we've had since last year. (That's being tactful.)

Just so you won't forget, the dance tomorrow night will celebrate a football victory to the music of Jimmy Petty's band. Of course, we all know whose victory. (Please cross your fingers.)

The new dance manager, Jew Giddens, will take over this second dance of the semester. For 50 cents you can dance from 9 until 12, which is 15 cents you can put in the savings bank. Last year the tune of admission was 45 cents.

Sterling Open House To Be Thursday

Residents of Sterling House will hold open house Thursday, from 4 to 6 and 7 to 10 p. m.

Misses Margaret Sayles, Billie Stoker, Lenora Salmon, and Lillian Stuermer will have charge of the refreshments and decorations. Miss Ora Shelton is chairman of the finance committee.

Miss Stoker will receive at the door in the evening, and Miss Virginia Barkley will receive in the afternoon. Miss Jeanette Mantooth will be in charge of the guest book and Miss Vivian Bell will preside at the punch bowl in the afternoon; Miss Salmon will have the guest book and Miss Hazel Thompson the punch bowl in the evening.

Misses Sayles, Wynette Storey, Marjorie Gibson and Jessie Van Horn will assist in the serving. Misses Marjorie Beetham, LaVerne McKinney, Eleanor Owen, Alice Lindley and Mary Louise Craven will be in the receiving line.

"All students, faculty members, and friends of T. C. U. are cordially invited to attend," said Mrs. Dora B. Cockrell, housemother.

Miss Marion Mitchell Is Married

Miss Marion Mitchell, a freshman last year was married Sept. 8 in Eagle River, Wis., to Martin Heiburg. The couple returned to Dallas, home of the bride for a visit before leaving for Los Angeles, where they will make their home.

New A.A.U.W. Members To Be Entertained

Members of the Fort Worth chapter of the American Association of University Women will entertain its new members with a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the parlors of Jarvis Hall.

Autumn flowers will be used to decorate the table.

The program will consist of several songs by Miss Jessanda Gilbert and Miss Alish Reeves will read some original poems.

Miss Janet Andrews and Mrs. Otto R. Nielsen are in charge of arrangements, and the following will be in the house party: Miss Andrews, Mrs. Nielsen, Misses Bernice Armstrong, Anne Coopersmith, Nannette Nelms, Annabel Sparger and Oriet Wren.

Brysons Will Vote On Members

New members will be voted on at a meeting of the Bryson Club at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of Miss Lorraine Sherley, sponsor of the group.

A reception was held at Colonial Hills Club last night honoring old members of the club, the faculty, and prospective members. Miss Hazel Smith was in charge of invitations, Miss Ann Goodner, decorations and Miss Martha Cell Graves, entertainment.

Russell Henoch is president of the organization; Miss Hazel Smith, secretary; James Merritt, vice-president and Miss Helen Connor, treasurer.

Coffee Will Honor Transfers

Transfer students will be honored at a coffee given by the Ampersand Club at 10 a. m. Monday at Sterling Cottage. This is an annual affair.

Miss Victoria West has been elected to membership, to complete the required number of members.

Miss Frances Wand was elected project chairman at the first meeting of the year last Friday at the home of the sponsor, Mrs. Gayle Scott. She will fill the vacancy left by Miss Janis Stephens, who did not return to school. Plans for the coming season were discussed.

Music Lovers Form Record Club

Fourteen music lovers met to form a Record Club last Wednesday evening at the home of the sponsor, Don Gillis, and to listen to a program of "good music."

At the initial meeting, the following were present: Misses Gwendolyn Mann, Victoria West, Mary Porter, Eileen Gillis and Rhoba Strube and Walter Hopper, Don Brant, Eugene Dawson, Eltinge Porterfield, Jimmy Petty, Wayne Dunlap, Julius Winkler, Rex Beene and Charles Horan.

"All students who like good music are invited to attend the weekly meetings," says Gillis.

Dana Press Picnic To Be Oct. 11

A hay ride and picnic will be held Oct. 11 by the Dana Press Club as the organization's first social activity of the year.

The picnic was decided upon at a meeting of old members called by President James Matthews last Tuesday. All students interested in journalism and desiring membership in the club, whether taking a journalism course now or not, should see Matthews or Miss Lois Herz.

Misses Priscilla Boyd, Helen Conner and Herz compose the committee to make arrangements for the picnic.

Los Hidalgos to Hold Open House

Los Hidalgos will open its activities with an open house to be held at 7:30 o'clock the night of Oct. 12 in the Brite College Clubroom.

"The purpose of the open house will be mainly to welcome the new members," according to Miss Eula Lee Carter, faculty sponsor.

A musical program will also be included in the activities of the evening, and refreshments will be served.

Huttons Entertain 'Office Girls'

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hutton were hosts at a luncheon given in their home last Tuesday for the nine girls working in the registrar's office.

The girls are Misses Helen and Dorothy Stubbs, Margurite Harris, Mildred Sutton, Nell Ruth Wallace, Lillian Reed, Mary Margaret Womach, Grace Miller and Rose Helen Porterfield.

Brushes Initiation To Be Oct. 13

The Brushes Club has announced that initiation of new members will be Oct. 13. Tentative plans for future meetings include round table discussions to be led by Paul Dinkins and William J. Hammond on subjects pertaining to great artists and painting.

Committees for the year have been announced by Miss Beth Lea, president, as follows: Program, chairman, Vincent Ziegler, Eugene Haley, Misses Martha Murray and Lea; Refreshments, chairman, Miss Lea, Miss Frances Ward, Miss Floyd Herring, John Goodspeed, Ziegler; Poster, Goodspeed; Telephone, Miss Kitty Ernest.

Director, Don Gillis announced Tuesday that two girl drum majors will perform with the marching band tomorrow and with the approval of the students they will become a permanent feature of the band.

The two girls, Miss Joan Thatcher, freshman from Dallas, and Miss Bobby Davidson, freshman from Grand Saline, will not make trips with the band but will appear only at the home games. This new idea will necessitate a postponement of plans for the election of a band sweetheart.

The band is making its first trip of the year today. The swingsters left at 9 o'clock this morning to appear at the 25th anniversary celebration of Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

In preparation for the coming trip to Philadelphia the band has had pictures made for publicity purposes and several night rehearsals have been scheduled.

The annual smoker, with entertainment by freshman members, will be held after tonight's rehearsal.

Miss Wilma Creager visited at her home in Mineral Wells Sunday.

Mrs. Cephas Shelburne has been visiting in Sherman this week.

Party Compliments Laureigh Jones

A surprise birthday party was given for Miss Laureigh Jones Monday night in Gibson Cottage. All the girls and the housemother, Mrs. S. H. Jenkins, attended.

Mavericks to Meet In Cafeteria

Old members of the Mavericks Club will meet in the Cafeteria, at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Clothes 'Take' Jarvis After Style Showing

"Clothes" seems to be the topic of conversation around Jarvis Hall these days—that is, since Jackson's presented a showing of new fall suits, coats, fur jackets, afternoon and evening dresses, housecoats, and slacks in the parlors of Jarvis last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jessie Milstead Fry was in charge of the style show and Misses Forest Dennis, Adale Reiger, Frankie White and Lois White modeled during the evening.

Band Makes Trip to SMU

Two Girl Drum Majors Will March Saturday With Frog Swingsters.

The Horned Frog Band may introduce a new and permanent feature tomorrow when the band takes to the field between halves of the T. C. U.-Arkansas game.

Director, Don Gillis announced Tuesday that two girl drum majors will perform with the marching band tomorrow and with the approval of the students they will become a permanent feature of the band.

The two girls, Miss Joan Thatcher, freshman from Dallas, and Miss Bobby Davidson, freshman from Grand Saline, will not make trips with the band but will appear only at the home games. This new idea will necessitate a postponement of plans for the election of a band sweetheart.

Freshman Star Breaks Record As Ankle Snaps

When Ruel Hoffman, freshman football star, broke his ankle in scrimmage last week, it was the first time that he had ever been injured seriously enough to miss a practice. Ruel has played football for five years, two years in junior high school and three in high school, and until last week his most serious injury was a badly skinned nose.

Hoffman started at Paschal High School where, during his senior year, he was captain and all-district quarterback. Although the heaviest that he weighed during his high school career was 147 pounds, Ruel always more than held his own against much heavier opponents.

Coach Walter Roach says that Hoffman will be out for the remainder of the football season but expresses hope that Ruel's ankle will be well by basketball season.

The Baptist Teachers Union, composed of Baptist seminary students, T. C. U. students, and members of the University Baptist Church, went on a hayride last night.

Miss Jean Lipps is planning a party for the Baptist Student Union in October.

Baptists Have Hayride; B. S. U. Party Planned

Richards Is Assistant In Department at Duke

C. H. Richards has been awarded a graduate assistantship in the government department at Duke University. Dr. John Lord said that as yet no one has been named to take the place of Richards in the government department here.

Pridemore Employed By San Antonio News

Walter Pridemore, A. B. '37, former editor of The Skiff, will leave tomorrow for San Antonio where he will be employed on the San Antonio Evening-News.

Pridemore formerly worked on the Houston Press.

Less Noise, New Books Better Library Study

Study with less noise is now possible in the Library as a result of the old typewriter being replaced with a new noiseless machine.

Several new fiction and drama books, which include J. M. Barrie's "The Greenwood Hat" and "The Boy David" have been added to the shelves.

Two theses which were written by Mrs. Jean Shelley Henry and Mrs. Caro Beth Williams on Andy Adams and Edith Wharton have been bound and are at the disposal of students.

Mrs. Douglas Tomlinson and Mrs. R. V. Woolwine have donated a number of magazines to the Library.

Miller Taste Better

Straight to more pleasure . . . that's where Chesterfield makes a solid hit every time

. . . gives smokers what they want . . . refreshing mildness and better taste and here's the big reason . . .

It takes good things to make a good product. That's why we use the best ingredients a cigarette can have . . . mild ripe tobaccos and pure cigarette paper . . . to make Chesterfield the cigarette that SATISFIES.
