VIEWS 'N' VIEWPOINTS

By DON GILLIS

Well, this article may not be good—but as the man said when he ate all the grapefruit except the skin, it's a-peeling. Unaccustomed as I am to public writing, I'm taking this opportunity to write about my favorite subject—the band. Now, of course, the minute I mentioned the band, a few of you glanced disinterestedly away. This is to be a different type of article on the band—a survey of the band's activities this year. And then, too, since it's "all opponent-picking time," I'm going to pick one—right out of our own band. And then, if the column isn't filled up, maybe we can think up a few old jokes like the one which opens this dithering dissertation.

The band this year has been as busy as a bunch of bees—or ants—or even uncles, for that matter. They have been called on for almost everything, as usual. There have been civic parades, trains to meet, trains to send off, pep rallies—and then, our favorite performance, the football games. It is unnecessary to point out that every band member is just popping with pride that the Horned Frogs are conference champions—for such a close relationship exists between team and band, that a definite personal interest between organizations has been created. The band is thoroughly proud of the football team—and for their glorious undefeated championship, offering them congratulations. They're undefeated in several ways—for not only are they gridiron gentlemen of great glory, but they're being fellows individually. No big heads among them—keen sports—fine men to be with. Again, congratulations to the '38 Horned Frogs.

The band has done several unusual things this year. In the first place, there were two girl drum majors, both of whom did an excellent job working with the band. And then, an unusual type of uniform was designed and given to the boys in midseason.

Swing Tunes To Aid Santa At Skiff Jam

Lang Thompson, His Orchestra and Miss Marjorie Knapp Will Perform.

Program to Be Dec. 9

Admission Will Be Anything From Cash to Old Shoes—Proceeds to Go to Needy Families.

By LOIS HERZ

Say, have you done your good deed today? If you haven't, the Dana Press Benefit program next Friday will give you a chance to do a good turn and have fun at the same time.

Lang Thompson and his orchestra, well known to most T. C. U.ers, will present an hour of popular tunes at 10 o'clock next Friday morning in the Auditorium. Miss Marjorie Knapp, 13-year-old vocalist with Thompson's orchestra, will also be on the program.

Admission price can be anything from an extra piece of clothing, (you know that sweater or pair of shoes you've outgrown), to some groceries or perhaps that extra dime that's jingling around in your pocket.

All proceeds from the program will be used to help "Ole Santa" take care of some needy families at Christmas time. The contributions of clothing, food, money, or toys will be turned over to the Star-Telegram Goodfellows and the Fort Worth Press Santa Pals for distribution to the families.

Senior Class to Sponsor Skating Party Thursday

The senior class will sponsor a skating party to be given at the rink located at the corner of Vickery and Galveston Streets, at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. Those going will meet at the rink, where they will be admitted at 25 cents per stag or couple.

"The party will be open to all classes and we invite them to come and have a good time with us," says Miss Anne Whitley, secretary of the class.

"All for You"

"Horned Frogs, we are all for you..." So runs a line in T. C. U.'s Fight Song. The Skiff wants to take this opportunity of telling the greatest football team in the nation, the "swellest" bunch of collegians ever to take the gridiron—those "Fightin' Froggies"—that it is for 'em all the way.

In successfully completing a hard, 10-game schedule and in winning the championship of the Southwest Conference with a perfect record, the Frogs have received national attention and praise; they have brought honor to the University; they have made the nation "Fort Worth and T. C. U.—conscious;" they have helped Coach "Dutch" Meyer realize one of his greatest desires; and, most important, they have proved themselves to be, not supermen, but just ordinary, young sportsmanlike boys, who have always played a clean game.

More than this, the victorious 1938 Horned Frogs have set a standard of achievement and excellence that should be a goal which other departments of the University may strive to reach. So, to the new Southwest Conference Champions, we say: "Horned Frogs, we are all for you!"

Band Selects 'All-Opponent'

Baylor Rates High in Music and A&M in Drill in Poll Among Swingsters.

By BILL DOUGLAS

For the third time in four years the Baylor University Band has been picked by the Horned Frog Swingsters as the best all-around band encountered during the football season.

In the annual poll, all of the bands of the universities played by the Horned Frog team are rated according to their musical ability and their drill. Baylor received a large majority for first place in music and tied for second place with the band of Temple University in drill, making the Bear Band the "A-1 All-Opponent Band."

The Khaki clad hornblowers of A. & M. were unanimously selected as the best drilled band and S. M. U., the Purple bandsmen's closest rival in swing, received second place honors in music. The bands are tabulated according to their ranking in each division:

	Music	Drill
Baylor	1	2-3
S. M. U.	2	7
Temple	3	2-3
A. & M.	4	1
Texas	5	4
Rice	6	6
Centenary	7	5

Instrumental ratings in the bands were voted on by the Swingsters according to their respective instruments. The outstanding sections and the bands of which they are a part are:

Basses	Baylor
Drums	S. M. U.
Trumpets	S. M. U.
Baritones	Baylor
Clarinets	Baylor
Trombones	S. M. U.
Oboes	Baylor

The S. M. U. drum major was selected as the best the Frogs have seen this year.

Council Makes Exhibit Plans

James Matthews was named chairman of a Student Council committee this week to make plans to put up a permanent trophy and exhibit case in the Administration Building.

The Council named Walter Becker and Ed Brooke on the committee also.

"Dean Colby Hall has given his sanction to the plan," Matthews said. "We plan to build the case opposite the planetarium. It will not be exclusively for athletic trophies, but interesting exhibits from other departments will be shown, with the exhibits being changed from time to time."

The committee will meet with Business Manager L. C. Wright early next week to make final plans, the chairman said.

Tech's Tartans Return to Top

Carnegie Tech's Tartans, the Frogs' Sugar Bowl opponents, are an unusual team with an up and down history in the football world.

Football greats a decade ago, they dropped down into a low gridiron class in the early 30's as the result of a football de-emphasizing program. But concentrated effort to put them back into the limelight of the sporting world within the past two years has brought them back up to a high-ranking position.

This season the Tartans have been recognized as the champions of the East, having defeated seven of their eight opponents. They lost to Notre Dame, currently the nation's No. 1 team, 7 to 0.

Their season record shows a 49-to-0 victory over Davis and Elkins, 32 to 13 over Wittenberg, 7 to 6 over Holy Cross, 27 to 13 over Akron University, 20 to 10 over mighty Pittsburgh, 21 to 0 over Duquesne and 14 to 0 over North Carolina State. With the Notre Dame game, this brings their totals to 170 points, as against 49 for their opponents.

Here's some dope on the Tartans and their school: home is Pittsburgh... enrollment is 2200, of which only 400 are women... non-sectarian school... colors are tartan plaid... nickname of teams is Tartans or Skibos... band consists of 75 men and is known as Kilties... stadium seats 65,000...

Member of the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing and Basketball Conferences... head football Coach is Bill Kern... conference basketball champions in 1936.

Lady Katrine Fine Wins Hollywood Trip

Takes Prize in National Beauty Contest—Will Miss Christmas 'Favorites' Ball.

Miss Lady Katrine Fine, freshman popularity candidate for a page in the 1938 Horned Frog, is the latest Frogland product to "go Hollywood."

Last spring a large cosmetics corporation sponsored a nation-wide beauty contest in which four prizes were to be given to the winners in the different types of complexions. Entrants submitted pictures of themselves to be judged. Last Tuesday a representative of the corporation was here to see Miss Fine, and Wednesday she received a wire from the company informing her that she had won.

The prize is to be a round-trip to Hollywood via United Air Lines and one week's stay at the Ambassador Hotel. The trip is to cover Dec. 12 to Dec. 18, which will necessitate her missing the Christmas Presentation Ball Dec. 17. However, the brunette beauty decided the trip to California was too much to pass up. She will receive a screen test while she is in Hollywood, which will be the second for her.

During her stay in Hollywood Miss Fine will be provided with escorts for the evenings' entertainment, when she will get to attend all the famous "night spots" frequented by the stars and the higher-ups in the motion picture industry.

She will also get to visit the large sets and see some of the actors and actresses in action.

TCU to Send 'Honor' Maid To Bowl Ball

Students to Vote on Coed to Attend Queen in Annual Winter 'Carnival.'

Dance Is Dec. 30

All Nominations Due in By Noon Tomorrow—Final Voting to Be at 10 o'Clock Wednesday.

T. C. U. will be represented in the annual Sugar Bowl classic by more than the football team.

Besides the Horned Frog Band and the Purple fans who will accompany the team will be Frogland's representative to the annual Sugar Bowl Ball—a coed who will participate in the entertainment as a maid of honor to the second Sugar Bowl Queen.

The ball will be held at New Orleans' Municipal Auditorium Friday, Dec. 30. Girls from many southern universities and colleges will be maids of honor in the queen's court.

The Student Council voted Tuesday night to send a T. C. U. coed as our representative. "As we are playing in the Sugar Bowl we naturally want T. C. U. to be well represented," said Student President Guy Daniel. "Because of the short time we have in which to select a representative, all nominations must be in by noon tomorrow, Saturday."

A ballot has been printed in this issue of The Skiff and all students have been requested to place their nominations in the ballot box in the main hall of the Administration Building before noon tomorrow. Final voting in the contest will be held during chapel hour next Wednesday, Ernest Peyton, election committee head, has announced. Ballots will be given to all those attending chapel, with others voting in the main hall.

According to information received from the New Orleans Mid-Winter Sports Association, the Sugar Bowl Ball will be a glamorous affair, similar to the Mardi Gras, for which the city is noted. A floor show and other feature attractions will be presented, with the crowning of the queen as the climax of the ball.

The coed representing Frogland will be provided with a seat to the gridiron battle in the Sugar Bowl and to other sports events included on the association's calendar, according to Irwin Poche, member of the executive board of the association. She will also be presented with a favor for the ball. Constant entertainment for her will be provided by New Orleans debutantes and members of the association, Poche said.

Title For Ball Is Announced

Fairy Tale Motif to Be Used as Theme for Annual Beauty Revue.

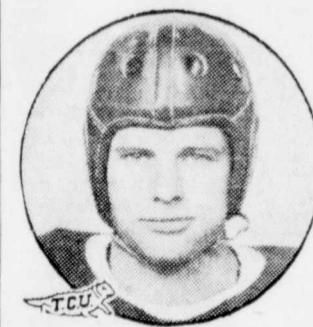

Presenting! The Horned Frog Popularity Contest—The Horned Frog Christmas Presentation Ball.

All such titles for the annual presentation of the popularity candidates are dead. This year the revue will be called by a different name—The Cinderella Ball.

Castles 'n' knights on black chargers and maidens in distress—or, in other words, the presentation will follow the fairy tale motif. The date of the Cinderella Ball is Saturday, Dec. 17.

All Popularity candidates are requested to meet Miss Frances Taylor, editor, in the Horned Frog Office at 10 o'clock Monday morning to make final plans for the Cinderella Ball Dec. 17.

"The deadline for having the annual pictures made has been extended to Dec. 15, but this is positively the latest the student may have his photo made for the annual," Miss Taylor announced today.

O'Brien Wins High Awards

Davey Will Fly to New York for Heisman Honor—Gets Two Other Trophies.

For the first time in history, a Southwest Conference football player will receive the highest award given to an individual, when T. C. U.'s own son, David O'Brien, has the coveted Heisman Memorial Trophy presented to him Tuesday in New York.

Davey will fly to New York Monday as a guest of Amon G. Carter, with school officials.

Following the Heisman award came the Robert W. Maxwell trophy and the Walter Camp Memorial trophy which will be presented to the 150-pound all-American at a January date. O'Brien was first notified of the awards Sunday night.

He is the second player in history to receive both the Heisman and Maxwell trophies. Clint Frank of Yale received both last season.

The trio of awards climaxes what has been said to be one of the greatest football careers in the history of the game. O'Brien has made every all-American team released to date and is expected to be unanimous choice for quarterback on the mythical elevens.

Soph 'Champs' To Be Honored

With its champion intramural football team as honor guests and everyone in school invited, the sophomore class will hold an informal party in the Basketball Gymnasium tomorrow night.

The celebration will start at 8:30 p. m. and will continue until 11:30 p. m. Malven Stevenson, class president, has promised dancing to "all the best orchestras—on the latest recordings." Stevenson also announced that those who don't care to dance may play ping pong.

The party definitely will be informal, he said. "Girls—just wear that 'old thing' you've been planning to throw away. And boys—wear overalls, coveralls, denim or anything else you want to. But don't wear a suit. 'Cause if you do, you will be hastily escorted from the party!"

The fee for being allowed to attend a dance in "comfortable" clothing will be 25 cents for couples, with stags paying "two-bits."

T.C.U.'s 20-to-7 Victory Over S.M.U. Mustangs Gives Them 3rd Conference Championship.

By BILL HAWORTH

In the course of a few hours over the week-end the Purple and White footballing Christians of T. C. U. became champions of the great Southwest Conference, near-Rose Bowl players and, finally, Sugar Bowl invitees.

Football has been the talk of the campus for several weeks and it has definitely been the apex of interest during the past week when the gridiron world was agog with the doings of the mighty Frog warriors.

Thousands of Purple supporters hailed the Frogs after their victory over S. M. U., 20 to 7, in Dallas last Saturday. That victory over the Mustangs made them the third Frog championship team in history, the first

Following the Christmas holidays, school will resume at 8 a. m. Wednesday, Jan. 4, instead of Monday, Jan. 2, as stated in the catalog. This action was taken officially by the Cabinet yesterday afternoon.

Since 1932, the first in Coach Dutch Meyer's coaching regime and the third eleven in conference history to defeat all other six opponents.

Close on the heels of the championship came an invitation to play in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans Jan. 2, as the feature of the Mid-Winter Sports Carnival.

Sugar Bowl to be No. 1 Game

Players, students and fans agreed that the game in the Sugar Bowl with Carnegie Tech of Pittsburgh as opponents would be a worth while one, in fact, it is now being called the No. 1 post-season classic, rating above the Rose Bowl affair to which the Frogs were so close until Monday.

Things have been happening so fast on the Frog football picture for the past week that everything is in more or less of a whirl. Coach Meyer, after the Frogs received the Sugar Bowl bid, left for a hunting trip in South Texas. Workouts will be resumed in about 10 days.

The ticket situation for the day-after-New Year's game is more or less of an unknown quantity. As late as Wednesday afternoon the athletic department did not have any information from New Orleans officials as to the number, kind or price of tickets the school would have for sale.

It is not known whether student tickets will be sold at a cut-rate or not.

Special Train to Run

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram is planning special trains for the game but arrangements are in the preliminary stage and details as to fares, schedules and so forth have not been announced yet.

The announcement of the Tartans as opponents pleased everybody as they are currently rated as the No. 1 representative in the organization.

Punts, Passes, Victories Are Tops in Grid Thrills

"Beating S. M. U." "Aldrich's stopping Todd at A. & M."

"Stomping Baylor." "Davey's passes."

The answers came fast and furious on the campus this week as students were polled concerning "their biggest moment" in the football season just concluded.

The majority seemed fairly well divided between the defeat handed Baylor, the victory over Rice and the final trouncing of the Mustangs.

Bobby Bass and H. B. Burr agreed that their biggest thrill of the season came a few weeks ago, when T. C. U. was rated first in the football world.

Paul Tankersley says: "The climax of this year's football season came when Earl Clark took one of Davey's passes and ran 58 yards for a touch against Baylor." Homer Tomlinson, Miss Grace McClenney and Miss Marjorie Gibson agreed with him.

"The outstanding moment in my mind," says Bud Taylor "was after the S. M. U. game, when I realized the Frogs were the undefeated Southwest Conference champs, and when Dutch made his speech to the team afterwards. I guess it was one of his happiest moments and I know it was mine!"

And to Lacy McClanahan, the high spot of the year came "when I finally got my nose over that pay line!" Puster Reynolds also found this moment a big one.

O'Brien's lateral pass in the Arkansas game was "the prettiest play I ever saw in a football game," says Wayne Wadley. Guy Baird believes topping the Aggies was "tops."

Jimmy Morris remembers best Don Looney's catch of the first touchdown pass in the Centenary game for the opening Frog score of the season.

Erle Powell and Jack Fry agreed that the block K Aldrich put on Todd to stop the latter's long run in the Aggie game was outstanding. And to Miss Jeanette Mantooth and Milton Atkinson the high point was the time-out called for Davey in the Texas game.

Jimmy Matthews and Ernest Peyton both thought O'Brien's pass to Johnny Hall and the resultant touchdown in the all-important Mustang game was the 'top' moment. Don Looney got his "biggest kick of the entire season when the final gun sounded in the S. M. U. game."

Prof. J. Willard Kidings thinks the whole thing was summed up for him when Coach Meyer observed, after the S. M. U. game: "It's in the books now, and nobody can take it out!"

And Jack Hudson is looking into the future a little: "I hope the Sugar Bowl game will be the outstanding moment."

Write on the line below the name of your selection to represent T. C. U. at the Sugar Bowl Ball in New Orleans during the Sugar Bowl classic there.

Students First!

COLLEGE football entertainment for the outside public or for the students of the schools?

This question is in the minds of T. C. U. students when they consider the handling of their tickets for the Frog-Mustang clash last week-end.

Many students were unable to secure ducats for the championship game, and had to be content with radio broadcasts, because the athletic department reported a sell-out of tickets several days before the tilt. In the past, T. C. U.'s enrollment has been amply supplied with tickets, and has been given more time for purchasing. Then, too, those who were finally able to secure the pasteboards, were forced to sit in the end zones, apart from the rest of the student body and its yell leaders. Many outsiders occupied choice seats almost directly in the center of the cheering section. It might be argued that more students demanded tickets for the all-important contest, but it would be foolish to think that the added number brought about the shortage.

It seems that the rights of the students were trampled upon, and unless some move is made, more of this same action may take place!

Christmas Jam Session

Again we pause to await Santa Claus, and all the nice things he brings, but many an infant and mother will never hear the Good Angel sing. The Skiff Christmas Party, with Lang Thompson's Band, is trying its best to lend a hand. So bring your canned food, or maybe a dime, to help the needy have a merry Christmas time. Share your good fortune with some poor soul that lives down on the river, dirty and cold. Here's a thought that you should heed, give today, for tomorrow you may need. The Skiff Christmas party is lots of fun, swingy music and sometimes a pun. Last year's party was a howling success, let's make this one bigger yet. All the proceeds go to the poor. You won't get swindled you can be sure. You all know Lang with his jivin' gang, let's all attend, make it go over with a bang. Come on, students, and bring a friend, canned food or a dime will let you in. So here's a chance to show your good side, attend our show and bring the poor a happy Yuletide.

Champion Faculty

We have a champion football team. Yes, and we have a champion faculty too. But did you know that?

Many of the teaching staff are well known authorities. Most of them have at one time or another published scholarly articles, and a few have written books. But their abilities are usually recognized, on the campus, only among the other faculty members.

The college student who rubs elbows with a professor for four years and graduates without ever having plumbed the depths of his experience and knowledge outside the class room curriculum, has missed one of the greatest returns for the money and time invested in an education.

If shyness prevents personal contact, at least an opportunity to review the articles by and comments on the various faculty members should be offered. For this purpose a reference index should be kept in the library listing all books or articles published by, and papers given by and all mention made of the professors. Such an index is kept at many universities.

No one should leave T. C. U. unaware that Dr. Gayle Scott is a foremost and internationally known authority on paleontology, some of whose writings have been translated into French; that Prof. S. P.

Ziegler is one of the outstanding painters in the South and has been referred to in a number of recent books; that Dr. Rebecca Smith and Miss Mabel Major have written a textbook on southwestern literature; and that Dr. Josiah Combs and Keith Mixson collaborated on a book of Allegheny folksongs, the first ever to be published. Dr. W. J. Hammond, Dr. Allen True, the Rev. Perry Gresham, Dr. Haldeen Braddy and Dr. Clinton Lockhart are others who have published pamphlets, discussions, or articles on subjects in which they are recognized for their interest and knowledge.

To fail to know of T. C. U.'s champion faculty is to miss part of the pride and glory of Alma Mater.

"After the Ball"

As the Pigskin Parade proudly marches into its hideout to await another season, let's take inventory.

First, you'll have to put away that chrysanthemum on your lapel. It dates you as old-fashioned. A stiff white collar to keep your chin up, slightly wilted in spots to show you've been burning the midnight oil, is all the rage for the season following football's demise.

Next, the pennant you've been waving for the past weeks in your defenseless opponents' faces. The place for it to hang is just above your desk. The restful purple color will soothe tired eyes and inspire blank minds to greater effort.

The greatest problem is what to do with your tiny arm-band colors. The answer is: Use them for a book-mark. You will be reminded of the magnificent achievement of your team every time you open the book to do something about your personal achievement.

Finally, there's the snazzy hat with the feather that is suitable only for a football game. You can't throw it away; it cost Dad $5. You can't wear it next season; it will be out of style. So hang it on the bed-post. Every time you make an "A" pin on a fuzzy bon-bon. By the time spring comes you should have a new spring bonnet, striking in its individuality. Let's hope you don't have to take the feather off and wear it without ornament.

Could We?

Last year the Student Council spent some time on the project of an exhibit case in the Administration Building, for our interesting school exhibits.

The administration, which has the last say in all things that concern the campus, voted to have the case installed, but the council, because of opposing political forces did nothing to advance the project.

A brief review of the matter has brought to light the fact that the administration still is in favor of the project, but not for the exclusive use of one department.

T. C. U. has many interesting objects of science and art. Displays of these could and should be presented to the students and visitors through the medium of an "all departmental" exhibit case.

Naturally, the current athletic trophies would have a place in the case, but the monopoly of the entire case by the trophies would be unjust to the other departments.

The answer is "Yes, we can and should have educational and sports exhibits in the light."

Our Neighbors Say

Fifty Every Friday

So the old folks think that they should get $30 every Thursday do they, just because they are over 50?

What about the young folks under 50? We believe that it is absolutely necessary for the well-being of the country (and the young folks) that those under 50 should get $50 every Friday. What a swell scheme!

Just think $30 every Thursday and $50 every Friday. In that way everyone would have money and no one would suffer. Every one under 50 and over 50 would have plenty of money to spend and that would aid purchasing power.

The young folks ran into difficulty from the beginning when the old folks resented the fact that the young persons might get $50 instead of $30. But the young folk immediately showed reasons.

1. Younger folks have more occasion to use money.

2. If they got the money when they were younger, they would have something to do until they became eligible for the old folks' pension. Besides it would keep them off the PWA and that would mean that more persons which do not fall in these age limits (0-50 and 50-0) could work in the PWA.

3. It is more democratic to give everyone pensions.

4. Young folks eat more.

5. It costs money to go to night clubs. It would seem that the young folks have plenty of good, common sense behind their scheme. They have it well worked out. Now if they can avoid contempt of court, they may have a chance to put it into effect and wouldn't that make Townsend jealous?

This $30 every Thursday plan for those over 50 is all right, but the Daily Athenaeum heartily endorses the $50 every Friday for those under 50.

Not that we have an ax to grind. —Daily Athenaeum

THE SKIFF

Around and About

And here is the final, authentic (?) version of that great big party tossed by AMON G. for some several little lads and gals in Dallas as a victory celebration: Besides bringing his own dinner and radio with him, the No. 1 Frog booster told a part of the student body assembled in the ballroom—including many of the feethallers—to order up—on him. 'Tis said the champagne flowed so fast and so deep that they were feeding it to the cat and washing their hands in it. Total damage—$110. Mo-ore fun!

And it must have been a treat to see JIMMY MORRIS giving out his autograph that night along with DAVY and KI and the rest.

TOM ROBERSON says thanks to the thief who took his books and then made it possible for him to find them, with the aid of a Prof. . . . Maybe the rat read the open letter to rats that ran in the last issue of The Skiff . . . anyway 'tis a sad state when one can't study when one wants to.

And don't forget the big musical show featuring LANG THOMPSON and little MARGIE KNAPP in the Auditorium one week from today. Sponsored by THE SKIFF and the DANA PRESS CLUB, the affair is for the benefit of the needy. Price of admission will be old clothes, food, canned goods, money or anything you want to contribute. We've seen one of these before, and so help us, they're cke.

This is known as the process of digging skeletons out of the closet, but things should be cleared up. Several campus characters have been wondering why ERLE POWELL, WILEY ALLISTON and JOE ASHLEY try to change the subject whenever Mexico is mentioned in their presence. The general opinion is that there seems to be some rather personal regrets connected with their trip to our southern neighbor last summer. Of course, if we knew, we wouldn't tell—much.

Getting a late start in celebrating last Saturday night at the DEN, but apparently making up for it were Brother POWELL and Sister STUBBS (or is it a purely Platonic affair?) with PEYTON and the one-and-only from Dallas. Is that why Sunbeam has been sooo happy lately? Also seen demurely picking their way amongst the characters on the crowded floor were ED ETIER, SUE HAZEN, TOM RUMPH, OLIVE THOMAS, HELEN MOODY, GAIL SMITH and MARGARET HARRIS. Also present were DR. and MRS. TRUE, running around with a batch of big shot banker friends. 'Twould seem that "Doc" is coach of the Fort Worth Bankers debate team and that his men had just whupped the Waco team—for the first time.

And ROGER MCLELAND, publisher of the new University directory which appeared today, has asked for a plug in The Skiff. So here it is—"Plug in The Skiff." Sho' nuff, tho, that directory will save you lotta time in finding the phone number of that "cute little blond in the drug yesterday."

Is the breed of swingers on the campus getting weaker? Last year, it was all the intramural laddies could do to eke out a win over the Band boys in a rough game of tackle football. But this year, the jamsters were shellacked sumpin' awful. Maybe they ought to stick to swing.

To the numerous honors that are being bestowed on the BIGGEST little man in the history of the Southwest gridiron, we wish to add our humble bit. Stand up, DAVEY, KI, L. B. KLINE, ALLIE, CLARK, SPARKS and all the rest. The rest of the nation knows you for your football—here at home on the hill we know you for the swell bunch, individually and collectively, that you are. So, congrats, and here's to the grandest bunch of players ever to tear a sweatshirt!

An Arkansas State College freshman has discovered the plan of Shakespeare's titles. It is—the lovers were ROMEO AND JULIET, and they had a courtship like a MIDSUMMER'S NIGHT'S DREAM. Her answer to his proposal was AS YOU LIKE IT, and on the TWELFTH NIGHT of the month they were married, buying the ring from the MERCHANT OF VENICE.

ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA were best man and maid of honor and THE TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA were the ushers. A reception was given by the MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR before the couple went to live in HAMLET.

Her disposition was like THE TEMPEST so his chief occupation after marriage was TAMING OF THE SHREW. Their first quarrel was MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING and their courtship proved to be LOVE'S LABOR'S LOST.

Their married life resembled A COMEDY OF ERRORS but they gave each other MEASURE FOR MEASURE so their friends said ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

Every college paper but The Skiff has printed it, so we'll just have to let you know that: a lot of girls look like a million, but most of them are only 18 or 20.

There's a Denton coed who solved a big problem with a little red wagon. "Cyclone," the wagon, carries all the things an art major has to cart around much better than a pair of arms. Miss Daphne Parker recommends this book "perambulator" to all students. However, she plans several improvements for her next one. It will be in the covered wagon style so supplies will be protected, will have non-skid tires, built in cabinets, and an extra long handle. Maybe a trailer would help.

Mary Hardin Baylor observed a tennis day in honor of Mrs. Helen Willis Moody, who lectured there. All girls attended chapel with tennis raquets in their hands. Mrs. Moody always wears skirts on the court rather than shorts, and is said to attribute a slight weakness in her back to another matter of feminine pride—wearing high heels.

Recently compiled statistics on the 13 co-operative houses at the University of Texas show that more than three hundred students are living on $17 a month for room and board.

Hey! All you jitterbugs—here's your chance to pick up a little extra coin. Truck it on down to the Worth Theater a little before 11:30 o'clock tomorrow night and enter the big Jitterbug Jam Session and Contest. Frogland's own Jimmy Petty and his band will play, with Nick Stuart, currently seen at The Den, as the emcee. Several Purple couples have already made plans to enter. Among those expected to compete are Bill Douglas and Mary Harding Dillin and Woody Lipscomb and Margie Foster.

The feature picture for the eve will be "Garden of the Moon," a whacky film about a bunch of screwloose musicians, starring Pat O'Brien, John Payne and lovely Margaret Lindsay.

Worthy causes seem to dominate the film fare for a while. At the Majestic Theater starting Saturday and showing for five days will be that grand picture "Boys Town," starring Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney. Everyone has seen or heard about this swell picturization of a humanitarian's efforts to aid homeless boys.

And in about 135 Interstate Theaters in Texas next Thursday's receipts will be turned over to help German and Austrian refugees from the "Ratzis." In furthering this most excellent cause, the Parkway Theater will show "Four's a Crowd," with Olivia DeHavilland and Errol Flynn. And, if you get there at 9 p. m., you can see two feature attractions for the regular admission price. Both the regularly scheduled film and "Stand-in" will be shown. This is another of the pictures that take Hollywood for a ride. It stars Leslie Howard, Humphrey Bogart and Joan Blondell. The week-end feature at the Parkway will be "Marie Antoinette," with Norma Shearer. This is the story of the sins of a royal bad girl.

The Tivoli Theater will do its part in the benefit by showing exotic Hedy Lamarr and Charles Boyer in "Ali-giers." The regular week-end feature will star everybody's favorite, Dopey, in "Snow White."

Southwest Texas State Teachers College and Trinity University to Meet Frogs

Three debates with representatives from John Tarleton Agricultural College will be held Monday afternoon in Rooms 201, 203 and 205 of the administration building. T. C. U. debaters for the occasion are Doyle Pine, Rufus Whitley, Joe Day, George Stroud, Miss Maxine Hopkins and Miss Margaret Biser, with Truitt Kennedy as alternate. The subject is: "Resolved, The United States should cease the use of public funds for the purpose of stimulating business." Last Thursday T. C. U. was represented at the Southwest Texas State Teachers College Second Annual Intercollegiate Forensic Tournament at San Marcos by Arthur Norred, Scranton Jones, Miss Maxine Hopkins and Miss Margaret Biser, with Truitt Kennedy as alternate debater.

Joe Day, George Stroud, Arthur Norred and Scranton Jones debated Trinity University debaters on the campus Monday.

Carmen Schenck, a recent graduate of T. C. U. visited his parents and the T. C. U. campus while on Thanksgiving leave from Randolph Field where he is enrolled.

A BLOCKED punt kept the Frogs out of the Rose Bowl. Yes, if Pitt's punter, Chickeneo could have gotten that kick off a split second sooner against Duke in the Panther's tilt with Wallace Wade's lads, the game would have undoubtedly ended in a scoreless draw and the Frog fans would now be making arrangements to head west. With a tie to blot its perfect record, it is hardly feasible that the Dukes would have been selected over the mighty Frogs.

That's all past, however, and the Frogs are now facing a new task—and from indications it is going to be a tough one. It seems that the Tartans of Carnegie Tech are one of the nation's really great teams, but unusual circumstances have not allowed them their full share of the glory. For one thing, they are in the same city with Pitt and from the beginning of the season were overshadowed by the Panthers. A tough loss to Notre Dame hurt their standing some. It was only after they socked Pittsburgh down, 20 to 10, that they began to receive their full share of attention.

Frog fans might be interested in what Sam Baugh has to say about the Tech Tartans. Baugh made the statement, after he saw them whip Pitt, that it was unbelievable the way Tech outplayed Pitt. Sam said, "They smeared Pitt's best running plays and they tore through Pitt's line as if the Panthers were 1-to-4 underdogs. Those Carnegie fellows were really vicious. Never have I seen such fierce tackling or such hard charging by the line."

"In George Muha and Merlyn Condit, Carnegie showed me a pair of backs who have been overlooked all season. Goldberg, Cassiano, Stebbins and Chicerno have been great backs all year, but on Saturday they weren't in a class with Condit and Muha."

Yep, Rose Bowl or not, it looks as if the Frogs will play in the No. 1 game on the day after New Year's. And the $50,000 expected "take" won't hurt the situation any either.

To the numerous "all" selections coming out now, the Frog varsity has added its all-opponent team. The eleven is representative of every team played this year, except Temple and Marquette.

At ends the Frogs put Billy Dewell of S. M. U. and Sam Boyd of Baylor; tackles, Joe Boyd of A. & M. and Cal Thomas of Tulsa; guards, Jack Rhodes of Texas and Matt Landry of Rice; center, Robert Nelson of Baylor; backs, Billy Patterson of Baylor, Dick Todd of A. & M., Kay Eakin of Arkansas and Jake Scheuhle of Rice.

The second team consisted of Peterson of Texas and McKibben of Tulsa at ends; Myers and Jack Sanders of S. M. U. at tackles; George Sanders of S. M. U. and Akin of Baylor at guards; center, Woodell of Arkansas; backs, Bynum of Centenary, Davis of Texas, Kimbrough of A. & M. and Lukac of Temple.

Intramural All-Stars Win Over Band Team

The annual football game between the intramural all-stars and the band that was played Wednesday ended in a one-sided victory of 58-to-0 in favor of the intramural stars. The intramural team was composed of members from all of the classes who were outstanding during the season. Almost everyone on the intramural team had a hand in the scoring with Ed Brooke scoring 31 of the points. For the "horn blowers" Walter Bradley and Cleland Early led the scoreless attack.

WSA Team Sports Group Begins Volleyball Season

Members of the team sports in the W. S. A. began their first games of the volley ball season this week. Later on they will form teams for intramural play in basketball and baseball. Miss Helen Arensmann, manager of team sports, asks that all girls who have signed up for this club meet her at 4 p. m. every Thursday.

Skiff Places 6 From T.C.U. On S.W. Team

10 Seniors, One Soph Picked by Sports Department on Mythical "11."

Team Big, Versatile

Rice and Arkansas Only Teams Not Represented—Six Men Repeat From 1937.

By BILL HAWORTH
Ten seniors and one sophomore, from five Southwest Conference teams, compose The Skiff's 1938 all-conference eleven as selected by the sports staff. Six members of the champion Horned Frogs landed spots on the mythical team. Every team except Rice and Arkansas was represented.

There was a terrific battle at some of the positions for the honors, while six positions were veritable cinches. The Skiff sports staff, composed of Charley Graves, Keith Guthrie and Bill Haworth, saw every conference team play at least once, and the opinions of players, coaches and sports writers representing all of the schools were considered before the final selections were made.

The team has everything a great eleven should have—experience, size, speed, versatility. Six of the all-conference players are repeaters, having made the 1937 team.

ENDS—This year, against the Purple, Sam Boyd of Baylor was only mediocre in his performance, mainly because the Frogs were playing one of their greatest games and because Boyd was being watched carefully. A player cannot be picked on a single game's performance, but his season's play must be considered. A tower of defensive strength and great pass catcher, Boyd can play on our team any day.

Billy Dewell, the lanky Kansan who plays a lot of end for S. M. U., gets the call at the other wing post, after a red hot scramble with the Frogs' great junior, Don Looney, and Dewell's fellow teammate, Charley Sprague. Dewell has been tabbed as the Southwest's greatest offensive end, which is a matter open for discussion. His great size makes him a valuable asset to a passing team and he is hard to get around on defense, as the Frogs will verify after the great game he turned in against them this year.

TACKLES—Capt. I. B. Hale of the Christians, all-conference and all-American last season, was a cinch for one tackle. "Hale does everything right," says Line Coach Mike Brumbelow of I. B. U. "Nuff said. At the other tackle a hot fight took place between Joe Boyd of A. & M. and Allie White of the Meyermens. Long one of the under-rated players of the conference, Allie was due for a break and earned it this year by his steady all around play. The husky senior was a big factor in the defensive strength of the Frog line.

GUARDS—Any of his opponents will tell you that "Bushes" Kline is all-conference if anyone ever was. Overshadowed by other members of the team last year, Kline came into his own this fall and helped in a big way to make the Frog offense click—was almost immovable on defense.

The Texas defense gave the Frogs' running game more trouble than most other teams. Some credited it to the Texas defensive formation, which no doubt had something to do with it, but a big 200-pounder in the center of the line was troublesome also—Jack Rhodes.

George Sanders of S. M. U. played a brilliant game against all opponents and Matt Landry of Rice, Leonard Akin of Baylor and the Purple's own Bud Taylor were among the conference's better guards.

CENTER—Anybody who put anything else opposite the word "center" in the Southwest Conference but Ki Aldrich would be lynched, slaughtered, tarred and feathered or be given some other severe punishment, so unanimous is the mighty Ki's right to the pivot post. "Probably the greatest defensive center in history," says Life Magazine of Ki.

Sophomore Robert Nelson and Lloyd Woodell of Baylor and Arkansas, respectively, were runners-up in the center race with Kenneth Whitlow of Rice getting some mention.

BACKS—Davey O'Brien, the nation's outstanding player for 1938, the mightiest of football's "mighty mites," and A. & M.'s great Dick Todd made the team with ease. Billy Patterson, a member of last year's eleven and Connie Sparks round out the backs.

Patterson is one of football's finest passers and punters and was 50 per cent of the Baylor attack. Sparks, the

Honors Pile Up On Dave and Ki

More honors for Davey and Ki! Following the Frogs' Southwest Conference championship and David O'Brien's selection as most valuable player in the United States, announcement came this week that the diminutive Irishman and his teammate, Ki Aldrich, have been selected as the most valuable back and lineman in the conference this year.

The Houston Post annually awards a trophy to the two who are elected by a poll of sports writers representing cities of Southwest schools.

But honors for the pair of gridiron stars do not stop here. Yesterday and today the United Press and Associated Press all-American elevens were announced and Davey and Ki made both.

Champ Frogs Keep Record

Remain Untied, Undefeated by Virtue of 20-to-7 Defeat of S. M. U.

It was no easy task the Frogs had on their hands over in Dallas last Saturday, but they slowly and surely went about their work and blasted their traditional foes, the S. M. U. Mustangs, 20 to 7, to win the Southwest Conference pennant and remain undefeated and untied.

The Ponies improved fast with every game this season and were at their peak for the Frogs. Mustang Coach Matty Bell, master defensive tactician and former Frog mentor, threw the Methodists with all their resources at the Frogs in an attempt to knock off the Christians, but it was a hopeless task.

The Frogs' passing attack did not function as smoothly as in the past, but their ground game worked beautifully most of the time with Earl Clark and Johnny Hall picking up nice yardage on reverses and Connie Sparks butting the Pony line for gains.

In the line Allie White, Forrest Kline, Ki Aldrich and the Frog ends, Durward Horner and Don Looney stood out. In fact, the entire Frog defense was almost impenetrable in the first half. S. M. U. had a net gain on running plays of two yards for the first two quarters.

The Frogs' victory was the tenth they have won over the Ponies in the 23 year old feud. S. M. U. has won seven in the series.

Many Frog followers and the players themselves were disappointed over the outcome of the game. A bigger margin of victory was wanted and expected by some, but it must be remembered that S. M. U. was fighting all the way—playing its game of the season.

Purple Five to Open With Denton Cagers

Judy Truelson Will Coach Frogs in First of Season—Ten Players on Roster.

Ten Frog cagers who have been working out in the Basketball Gymnasium in preparation for the near-coming cage season, had their first scrimmage last night against Wolf & Klar's five.

The Frogs' official schedule will begin next Friday in Denton when they meet the North Texas State Teachers team.

Feature of this season's schedule is tournament play during the Christmas holidays at Oklahoma City, where the Frogs will meet leading teams from the South and Midwest. On their way to the tournament the Frogs will dedicate a new gym at Comanche, Okla., where Scott McCall, former Frog athlete, is coaching. Their opponent is unknown.

The Frogs will be coached by Judy Truelson, present Riverside High coach and ex-Frog cage star. Basketball Coach Mike Brumbelow will be busy with football duties in connection with the Sugar Bowl.

Men working out at present are Capt. Slim Mabry, Jack Reedy, Ben Abney, Woodrow Duckworth and Mack Best, lettermen; and Bob Childers, squadman, and Dennis Tankersley, Robert Groseclose, Jack Billingsley and Warren Collins, sophoms.

One sophomore on the mythical team, led the conference in scoring with 60 points and was by far the best line plunger in the loop.

Of all the other backs in the conference T. C. U.'s own Earl Clark was the hardest to leave off.

Four of the champion sophs, two seniors and two juniors make up the first team of the all-Campus Intramural team as picked by the team captains, managers and game officials. The first year men, who won only one game during the intramural football season, failed to place a single man on the first team, but managed to place one on the second team.

The nine game inter-class intramural football season was brought to a close last Wednesday with a close game between the Frogs and Sophs in complete charge, having won every one of their starts. The Juniors were runner-ups, having dropped three games. The Seniors and Frosh followed in that order.

Gridders to Don New Satin Suits For Bowl Game

"T. C. U. has the sorriest uniforms I ever saw on a football field!"

Words that hurt but they have been heard many times this season and in the past in criticism of the apparel the Frogs wear on the gridiron. Only last week a Dallas sports scribe made the identical crack, but no longer will such statements be true. The Christians will deck out in the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans.

The new gear will be of the shiny type that has been the gridiron fashion rage for several seasons. However, the Frogs will be original as their new equipment is made of santex, a new glistening material due to set a new mode in football wear.

White stars and miniature Horned Frogs will decorate the purple-shouldered white jerseys. The pants will be cream satin.

Brysons to See Pictures Of Big Bend Country

The Bryson Club will have a program meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Men's Club Room. Bobby Bass, Gay Daniel, Russell Hensch and David O'Brien will show moving pictures taken while on their geology trip in the Big Bend country last summer. Refreshments will be served.

Polliwogs Take Colts 14-13 in Annual Tilt

Thompson, Winters, Reese, Everett Outstanding TCU Frosh—SMU Attack is Led by Miller.

T. C. U.'s Polliwogs led the way for an all-victorious Frog week-end last week, as they turned back S. M. U.'s first-year men here by a count of 14-to-13.

Displaying vicious blocking and tackling, the Wogs seemed almost a different team from that of their previous games. Led by Floyd Thompson offensively, and Dick Everett defensively, the Frosh piled up much yardage, while holding the Colts to little gain.

The Wogs started driving early in the fray. After a series of nice gains by Thompson had put the ball in scoring distance, Danny Reese shot a pay-dirt pass to Ronald Brumbaugh. Thompson converted and the score stood 7 to 0 in the Wogs favor. On the first play after the kickoff, S. M. U.'s Dick Miller scampered off the Wogs' tackle for 54 yards and a touchdown for the Colts. A successful conversion made the score even once again. The remainder of the first half saw several Polliwog threats but no actual scoring.

Coming back after the half intermission, the Purple and White Frosh went to work, but it was not until late in the third quarter that they scored again. After a series of running plays had taken them to the Colt 15-yard marker, Hank Winters skirted and for six points, and again Thompson converted.

The Colts came back with a vengeance in the fourth quarter and scored a touchdown on a 45-yard sprint by Preston Johnson. However, the point after score was ruled no good, and the Wogs led by a single count.

With only a few minutes of play left, the contest saw the Mustang Frosh drive to the Wogs' one yard line. Here, three plays netted the Colts a seven yard loss, and the stage was set for a field goal attempt. But Lady Luck was on the Polliwogs' side, and the ball hit the cross bar and bounced back. The game ended a few plays later.

The statistics sheet favored the T. C. U. Freshmen, with first downs being 12 to 7. This victory marked the first for a Frosh team over the Colts since the beginning of their rivalry.

WHY NOT 10¢ FOOTBALL GAMES?
How does your school feel about "over-emphasis on athletics"? Here's one answer to an old college problem, by a university president who says the trouble with football is, nobody wants to give up the gate receipts. THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Sophomores Stress Informality for Hop

By FRANCES TAYLOR

The sophomore informal dance tomorrow night will honor the intramural champion football team. Miss Florrie Buckingham, secretary of the class, urges that everybody come, "date or no date." There will be ping pong tables, a nickelodeon for dancing and refreshments for the hungry.

The girls will save their formal evening dresses for the Cinderella Ball, and wear skirts, sweaters and anklets. Boys will be correctly attired in slacks and sweaters. The price will be 25 cents for both couples and stags. The time is 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.

The "champions" who are being honored include Malvin Stevenson, captain, H. A. Withers, co-captain, Paul Sorrels, Ed Hennesdorf, Buster Reynolds, Robert Groselose, Bill Trust, L. G. Lacy, Jack Fry, Ed Brooks and John Goodspeed. It would seem that the dance will be a good place to relax after a strenuous football season.

SLUMGULLION: After driving the telephone operators faintly mad with pert remarks when their best girl's number couldn't be found, somebody has found a solution. The T. C. U. student directory was sadly lacking in telephone numbers. Today a pocket-size school directory goes on sale that contains a complete list of names and telephone numbers. Now he'll have to find another excuse for not calling.

NAMES IN THE HEADLINES: Miss Lady Katrine Fine, freshman nominee for a beauty page in the Horned Frog, received a telegram Thursday that confirmed your choice in nominating her. She was judged one of the four winners in the Elmo Charm contest, selected from among contestants all over the country. The prize is a round trip to Hollywood via United Airlines.

THEY CAN'T TAKE IT: Quietly following the old adage of minding our own business, we decided to play in the Sugar Bowl and everybody was happy—we thought. But it seems, according to Dallas in general and S. M. U. in particular, that we have committed an eighth deadly sin.

According to Dallasites, the significance of our acceptance will extend even into the third generation. Not only have we insulted Dallas, but Texas, the Dallas newboys, the great Southwest, the Far East, and all the little piglets from which future footballs will be made.

We received one protest from a "used-to-was" Frog fan, typed over an editorial clipped from a Dallas newspaper. Let the pathos in the mixtive speak for itself. "What, I wonder, has Louisiana and New Orleans ever done for you? The big, the fine, the decent and patriotic thing for you to have done Saturday, immediately after the game, was to have invited some team to the Cotton Bowl, instead of whining around begging for an invitation to some other bowl."

Well, it looks as if the only thing left for us to do is invite Dallas over, en masse, to look at the Sugar Bowl trophy. And we might have a pink tea.

Seven Students Attend S.O.S. Dinner-Dance

Seven T. C. U. students attended the dinner dance given by the S. O. S. sorority at the Blackstone Hotel last Friday night.

Those who attended are: Misses Mary Catherine Anderson, Patricia Winn, Ruth Priest and Betty Claire Pray, and Messrs. Earl Dyess, Ed Jackson and Stan Wilson.

Dames Club to Have Tea Monday

The Dames Club will hold a tea at the home of Mrs. T. J. Cross, 2424 Lofton Terrace from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Gayle Scott and Mrs. Artemisia Bryson will pour. "All wives of students and all married women in the University are invited" says Mrs. Oakley Morrison, president.

Frogettes Will Give Vice-Versa Party

The Frogette Club will entertain its members, their dates and the freshman boys of Clark Hall with a vice-versa party at 8 o'clock tonight in the parlors of Jarvis Hall.

Miss Alpha Kirby is in charge of arrangements.

Thanksgiving Visitor Entertained

Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, house mother at Sterling, has as her guest Mrs. E. A. King of Los Angeles. Mrs. King was here for the Thanksgiving holidays and was honored at a party at Sterling cottage last Friday afternoon and evening.

Brushes Club to Hold Social Thursday

Carrying out the Christmas motif in decorations, the Brushes will have a social meeting at the home of Miss Georgia Fletcher Thursday.

Sherley Girls and Dates To Have Dinner-Dance

The girls at Sherley House and their dates will be honored with a dinner-dance tonight in the Hotel Texas Den by their house mother, Mrs. E. E. Cox.

Amon Carter Honors Members of Team

More than twenty members of the football team and their dates were entertained with dinner and dancing by Amon Carter at the Baker Hotel in Dallas after the S. M. U. game.

Archery Discontinued By Weather Conditions

"Wanted, warm weather so that the girl archers may again take the field in their modern Robin Hood shorts."

This sums up Miss Pat Patton's, W. S. A. archery manager, order to discontinue archery until the weather is warmer and there isn't so much wind.

For this, Mr. Amon Carter may be thanked—for this and many other things that happened during the year (including two high priced new bass horns). At first some of the students didn't like the plumes—they thought it looked just a little "too-too"—I think most of them have been won over to this very snappy looking bit of bandmen rigging. Yep, the bandmen are proud of their new uniforms. And they'll go to the Sugar Bowl all the prouder for their fancy dressing up!

I said I'll try to pick an all-opponent "band" right out of our own organization. I'll do that now—with only one position to be indicated—and that's the far-infamous "draw-back." There are men in the band whose definition of co-operation means doing just what the organization desires as long as it pleases them personally. Otherwise they'll chart a new course for themselves. There are those who won't practice correctly at rehearsal, but consider it a time for laughing and having a good time. Some of the worst draw-backs are the men who resent correction over minor details, who sulk a week or so at being asked to sit up straight, or to march on the right foot. The draw-backs turn in their uniform late—or have on green socks instead of the customary white. And they are late for rehearsals, act silly in parades, want to star on every play by some individuality—or the type that brings a date to sit with the band at games after specific orders are against it. Yes, there are quite a few fellows who would make that all-opponent team. Thank goodness there are enough left to make an overwhelming majority of the real honest-to-goodness "backs" instead of draw-backs. Then of course one might even suggest that the insufficient critics of the band among teachers and students might even be placed on that all-opponent team.

After four successful broadcasts from the band house at 10:30 p. m., WBAP, Sunday nights, the bandmen read with eagerness the many fan letters they get. Why not listen next Sunday night—see how your favorite band sounds. If you like us, write us a note. If you don't, write anyway.

Don't forget—the third annual concert begins week after next—and you'll be passing up something if you don't attend. It's just another way for the band to let its student body know that they are really working toward a definite goal. So do come out to hear the band in serious music. The teachers are also cordially invited. I'll bet you'll be surprised.

So don't think I'm a communist if this column is widely read—I was just looking for

The End.

Casts Will Include Members of Both Day and Evening Play Production Classes.

Two O. Henry skits will be presented at 9 o'clock Tuesday night over station KTAT by the play production class.

The first skit entitled "Girl" was dramatized by Miss Christine Smith and the characters will include: Miss Constance Clark, Miss Smith, Bill Douglas, Pat Steele, Earl White and Stanley Wilson.

The second skit to be presented will be "A Service of Love" and was dramatized by Miss Florence Parks, a student of last year. The cast will be taken from students of the play production class of the Evening College but have not been selected.

The musical portion of the program will be furnished by the T. C. U. string trio.

SCA Presents Authority On German Reactions

Dr. Ewart Turner, presented yesterday by the Student Christian Association, reviewed Hitler's activities and the reactions of the German people to him.

Dr. Turner, a graduate of Boston University, has been in Germany for several years as pastor of the American Church in Berlin. He visited in German concentration camps and is now touring the United States as a lecturer. He is considered an authority on Nazi affairs.

This was the first in a series of lectures planned by the S. C. A. for the year.

String Trio to Entertain Inter-Racial Commission

The string trio will play at a meeting of the Texas Commission on Inter-racial Co-operation at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the First Christian Church.

"Two-Gum" Kelly Held on Charges By "Cop" Taylor

Failure to provide the class with chewing gum has caused no end of trouble to Guy Kelly, the defendant in a campus lawsuit. Marvin Coleman is the plaintiff, who is forcing Kelly to appear before court at 10 a. m. next Friday in the Amphitheater on the above charges. There is no reason for excitement, however, as this is an annual affair in the business law class. This case is the first to arise this year.

"All students are invited to fill the courtroom and to watch the following students act as court officers: Judge, Gordon Fitzgerald; prosecuting attorney, Dave Williams; sheriff, Bud Taylor; bailiff, Glenn Chamberlain; and matron, Henry Swain." Dr. A. L. Boeck of the school of business, announced.

Gresham to Recognize Woman's Day Sunday

With the sermon, "Woman and the World Community," the Rev. Perry Gresham will recognize "Woman's Day" at the University Christian Church Sunday morning. The choir will bring the special music, an anthem by Gaul, "O God, Who Hast Prepared."

Rev. Mr. Gresham's evening topic will be "Where Crossed the Crowded Ways of Life." Weldon McIver will present a solo, Harker's "Come Ye Blessed," at the evening service.

Dramatic Club to Hold Tryouts for Two Plays

Tryouts for two one-act plays to be given by the Dramatic Club will be held at 7:30 o'clock in room 304 in the Administration Building. A business meeting of the Dramatic Club will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Brite College Club Room.

10 Faculty Members Go to TSTA Meeting

Miss Carter is Toastmaster at Luncheon and Prof. Ziegler Leads Art Discussion.

Ten members of the faculty attended the Texas State Teachers' Association meeting held in Dallas during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Prof. S. P. Ziegler led a panel discussion on art, and Miss Eula Lee Carter served as toastmaster at the Delta Kappa Gamma luncheon. Registrar S. W. Hutton was chairman of a committee to arrange a meeting of high school and college registrars and was appointed to a committee to form a new section of the association, to be composed of registrars.

Professors F. E. Billington, B. A. Crouch, J. H. Dougherty and R. A. Smith, and Miss Frances Coldwell, Mrs. J. E. Mothershead and Dean Otto Nielsen also attended.

Two T. C. U. graduates, Miss Natalie Goran, librarian at Wichita Falls, and Miss Donna Billington, daughter of Prof. Billington, attended.

Sammis Will Rehearse 'All-Southwest' Strings

Prof. Claude Sammis has been appointed to select and rehearse the string players for the all-Southwest orchestra, to be chosen from high school students, sponsored by the Music Educators' National Conference.

Prof. Sammis attended a meeting in Dallas last Friday of the directors of music departments of all Texas accredited schools.

3 Books to Be Donated By English Department

Copies of three books will be presented to the Library by the English department within a few days. They are: "The Letters of Lincoln Steffens," Virginia Woolf's "Three Guineas," and I. A. Richard's "Interpretation in Teaching."

Frogs Greet

6 team in the nation. They lost only one game the past season, that to top-ranking Notre Dame, and defeated mighty Pitt. Everybody agrees that the Tartans will be a real test for the Frogs, and a national championship might be the Frogs' prize if they win.

With their schedule over and 10 victories, no defeats and no ties behind them the Frogs can now look back on what may go down in history as the greatest season ever enjoyed by a Purple eleven. Only one other team in T. C. U. history won all of its scheduled games.

Football authorities the nation over have acclaimed the Frogs as the team with everything that makes up a truly great eleven. With their marvelous record against tough opponents in the strong Southwest and the nation's greatest football player Dave O'Brien, all-American quarterback, and another all-American in mighty Ki Aldrich, the Christians make up one of the most colorful aggregations of the decade.

Miss Bonnie Jean Adams of S. M. U. will be the guest of Miss Kathryn Johnson this week-end.

6 Church Leaders To Be Here Dec. 9

Team Composed of One Jew, Catholic and Protestant Will Be Brite College Speakers.

Representatives of the National Conference of Jews and Christians will visit on the campus next Friday, and a team composed of one Protestant, one Catholic and one Jew will speak in Brite College of the Bible chapel at 10 o'clock.

Members of the team are Dr. Edwin McNeil Potote, Baptist minister from Cleveland, Father Michael J. Ahearn, Jesuit Catholic priest of Weston, Mass., and Rabbi F. Fibelman of New Orleans.

Other members of the party are Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, national director of the national conference, Rabbi Julius Mark, Nashville, Tenn., and Hastings Harrison, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Tulsa, Okla.

Mrs. C. A. Worthington of Jackboro has been visiting her daughter, Vineta, this week.

Miss Alpha Kirby spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Bobby Davison at the latter's home in Grand Saline.
