Pep Rally at 7:30 Tonight Promises to Be Gala Event Full of Glamour and Color

Girl Cheerleaders, Swing Band, Snake Dance and Shirt Tail Parade Through Downtown Streets to Add Zest to Evening's Festivities—Boren Will Organize Pep Squad

By DUANE KELLAM

Two girl yell leaders for glamour, the Horned Frog Band for swing, new yells for variety and a snake dance and shirt tail parade to let off steam will highlight the opening pep rally at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Basketball Gymnasium.

Head Yell Leader Bill Boren, and his four assistants, Miss Mary Alice Ayres, Miss Martha Mellow, Dick Haden and George Hamilton, will open the show with some of the old yells to warm up on and some new ones to learn.

Immediately following the rally there will be a snake dance and shirt tail parade downtown.

"There will be plenty of transportation waiting in front of the Administration Building for the trip to town right after the rally," says Boren. Everyone will meet at Burk Burnett Park downtown where the yell leaders will take over and lead the parade through the streets.

Boren also reports that he will ask for volunteers for a boys pep squad at the rally tonight. The squad will consist of 40 boys whose part it will be to put a little "oomph" into the yells and assist the band on the field at the half period by taking part in formations and drills.

"We're going to make this squad one of the best in the South. Every boy in T. C. U. will be eligible, but we must limit the squad to 40 members," Boren says.

School spirit and color will be featured in the uniforms of the yell leaders this year. The boys will appear on the field tomorrow in purple slacks and white shirts; the girls will wear purple corduroy divided skirts with white blouses of the same material.

Bill Crossfield, vice-president of the student body and one of last year's yell leaders, will be the speaker at the rally tonight.

Sophs Adopt Constitution

Paul Dinkins Is Chosen Class Sponsor—Executive Committee Is Announced

A constitution was adopted by the class of '43 and Paul Dinkins, English instructor, was elected class sponsor at the initial meeting Monday.

An executive committee was announced which is composed of the four officers: president, Sul Ross McCown; vice-president, Blair Kirkpatrick; secretary-treasurer, Miss Lois Jeanne Cayce; student council representative, Miss Anne Hutton and Miss Millicent Moseley, Miss Jayne Maxon, Miss Suzanne Wood, Lloyd Whitley, David McKee and Lambuth Tomlinson. This committee will plan the publicity, entertainment and membership campaigns for the sophomores.

A second meeting is scheduled for Oct. 7. The main objective of this meeting will be to discuss details of the entertainment for October.

A bulletin board near the mathematics office has been obtained for various class announcements from time to time.

Baker, Walsh to Teach Remedial English Classes

The remedial English classes will meet for the first time Monday. W. P. Baker will teach on Monday at 11, Tuesday at 12 and Thursday at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Alice Walsh will teach Monday at 12, Wednesday at 1 and Friday at 1 o'clock.

"The department of English is offering these classes in the fundamentals of English for freshmen. This assistance to students in need of special drill has been a policy of the University for several seasons," says Dr. Rebecca Smith, head of the department of English.

Evening College Council To Hold First Meeting

A meeting of the Evening College Student Council has been called for 7 p. m. Friday, Oct. 4, in the men's lounge. Omer Dewa, president of the council last year, will preside at this first meeting.

Evening College classes are meeting according to schedule this week.

BAND MEMBERS will "swing out" tomorrow for the first time when the Purple squad tackles Centenary here. Below is the "slide horn" section which will see service, and a close-up of Director Don Gillis.

We'll Be Yelling for Those Frogs—'H.Y.L.' Boren Picks Girls To Glamourize Cheering

By VERNIE BARBER

Meet Bill Boren, Frogland's new head yell leader, a tall, good-looking, black-eyed lad from Memphis, Texas, with an insatiable liking for fried chicken, blondes and brunettes.

Next to fried chicken, Bill likes T. C. U.—everything about it. When asked to name his favorite band and song, the T. C. U. band and the school song was his quick reply, but he will admit that Dick Jergens is good, and "Till Never Smile Again" is a nice song.

Bill toots a mean tenor sax himself and played in his high school band. While in high school he also played guard on the football team, was a member of the bowling team, an honor student and was president of his freshman and sophomore classes.

About the only things Bill dislikes are gossipers and A. & M. with the stress on A. & M. He is majoring in business administration and is also taking the C. A. A. course in flying. He spends his afternoons working downtown at a men's clothing store.

His roommate, Bob Mecaskey, reports that when he measures his height he always wears his socks, as they might help get him a little nearer a coveted 6 feet, which he is shy a quarter inch. His 162 pounds would make good material for any draft board, and his toothpaste smile makes the ladies' hearts shake like Carmen Lombardo's voice.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Boren of Memphis.

Inaugurating a glamour policy, he has appointed two girls to the cheering brigade in addition to the usual two boys. New appointees are Miss Martha Mellow, Miss Yo Ayres, George Hamilton and Dick Haden.

Miss Mellow, a petite brunette from Fort Worth, stands a bare five feet, but can usually be seen in the center of a group of admiring boys. She was editor of the Arlington Heights yearbook as well as The Jacket-Journal. Boys that hate knee length socks are her pet peeve. She is crazy about steaks and french fried potatoes and goes in for tennis and dancing with unusual interest.

The other half of the glamour is Miss Yo Ayres of Paris. She, too, is a brunette, possesses a shy smile, and wears a young lad's diamond studded football. She is a major in English, and her minor is speech.

Fried chicken is tops with her, and insincerity ranks anyone at the bottom of her list.

George Hamilton, a Fort Worth sophomore, goes in for porthouse steaks with a passion. He hopes to enter the insurance business upon graduating. He dislikes girls that wear knee-length socks. Glenn Miller's music helps him enjoy his idle time.

Dick Haden, the third boy leader, is a sophomore and hails from Galveston, where he was yell leader in high school and a lieutenant-colonel in the R. O. T. C. He is a major in art and a minor in English. Intramural athletics are his hobby, and about the only thing he dislikes is girls that wear turbans.

Miss Beckham, Boren Win

Miss Betty Beckham, freshman from Plano, and Bill Boren, junior from Memphis, Texas, were victors at the polls this week as 615 students cast ballots in the initial two elections of the year.

Miss Beckham was chosen band sweetheart for the freshman class yesterday, polling 44 of the 111 votes cast, as compared with 28 for Miss Julia Mayo, her nearest rival. Miss Patty Downs was third with 24 ballots, being trailed by Miss George Lewis who tallied 15. The four candidates were chosen on a nomination ballot Wednesday in chapel.

Boren defeated Guy Murphee for the head yell leader post by a count of 341 to 173 in an election held Monday.

The student body trip will be decided upon Thursday in a general election, the choice resting between Houston and College Station. The Aggie game is scheduled for October, while the Rice contest is slated to be played November, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Sophomores will elect a band sweetheart to be presented at the Arkansas game next week. The voting procedure Thursday will be the same as that followed this week, with a vote of nomination being staged Wednesday in chapel. The names of the four girls receiving the greatest number of nominations will appear on a ballot Thursday. Likewise, the poll will be open only to members of the class of '43.

Candidates for freshman class officers should have their petitions, containing at least 15 signatures of members of the class of '44, in the hands of Student Body President Malven Stevenson, Vance Gorman, Don Ver Duin or Skiff Editor V. G. Smylie by noon Thursday. Other vacancies to be filled at that time include the presidency of the sophomore class, provided Sul McCown does not return to school, the vice-presidency of the junior class and the graduate representative position on the Student Council. Similar petitions must be presented by these candidates.

The election will be held Wednesday week.

Dr. Anderson Is Speaker On First Chapel Program

"Life anchors are essential to human existence in this storm tossed world of today," Dr. L. D. Anderson, pastor of the First Christian Church, said in chapel Wednesday.

The anchors he named as the most adequate are basic principles, a holy purpose, a divinely approved policy and immortal hopes.

President E. M. Waits presided. The scripture and prayer was given by the Rev. Granville Walker. The orchestra played several numbers.

Waits Guest Speaker At Convention in Vernon

President E. M. Waits filled the pulpit of the First Christian Church in Vernon Sunday evening. He was guest speaker at the district convention of Christian churches Monday in the same city.

Yesterday he was on the program at the district convention in Terrell.

Kenneth Hay Meets With Ex-Students and Churches

Kenneth Hay, alumni secretary, has been attending district conventions of the Christian churches in Texas and meeting with ex-students for the past week. He has been in Borger, Slator, Midland and Austin.

New Student Constitution Now Ready for Approval

Document to Be Published In Skiff Comic Magazine And Distributed on Friday.

Gillis Will Direct In Civic Program

Horned Frog Band Director Don Gillis and several students and ex-students of T. C. U. will play important parts in a civic-sponsored program at Fort Worth's Municipal Auditorium at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Gillis will direct the orchestra on a program which will in part be broadcast coast-to-coast over the Mutual Broadcasting System.

"The program is extremely well-produced, and we will have the cream of Fort Worth's musicians," says Gillis.

The program is called "The Fort Worth Musical Varieties," and will present a variety of swing and serious music.

Among those from T. C. U. in the 45-piece orchestra will be George Campbell, an arranger, George Loudon, librarian and copyist, Walter Hopper, Blythe Harrison, David Montgomery, Leroy Milligan, and Evelyn Woodley, featured vocalist.

Former students who will participate will be H. C. Hudson, Harry Sandifer, Kenneth McGarrity, Jimmy Petty, Wayne Dunlap and Herschel Gibbs.

With final alterations having been made at the meeting of the Council Wednesday, the new student body constitution is now ready to be put to its final test—a vote of approval by the students themselves.

In order that everyone will have an opportunity to read and study the document, it will be published in the next issue of The Skiff Comic Magazine which will be distributed next Friday. The tentative date of the vote of approval has been set for Thursday week.

The only alteration made Wednesday was the erasing of the section in which the transferable system of voting was proposed whereby the runoff would be eliminated. Members present voted this portion out by a count of 7 to 2.

Ambassadors To Play Hop

D. M. Johnston Decries Informality as Keynote Of First Regular Dance

The first regular dance of the season gets under way tomorrow night in the Basketball Gymnasium with the newly reorganized and enlarged Ambassadors orchestra, a 12-piece aggregation under the leadership of Julius Winkler.

Members of the band, most of whom are enrolled in school, have been rehearsing daily in the Auditorium and their repertoire includes the latest from Tin Pan Alley. They play all kinds of music, to please everyone, Bob Johnston, dance manager, reports.

Johnston also states that this is a chance for those who were dissatisfied with their Prom dates to prove whether or not they can do better on their own. The D. M. has given the girls a break by requesting that they come informal, thus eliminating any dressing worries that would come in the after-game rush.

"The downbeat comes promptly at 9 o'clock, post meridian," says Winkler, "and we will still be going strong when the 12 o'clock deadline comes."

Sixty-five cents of United States wampum will admit any couple. As usual, stags—the wallflowers' blessing—will be admitted.

8 Sociology Placements Announced by Porterfield

Placement of all graduates of the sociology department in 1940 has been announced by Dr. A. L. Porterfield.

V. A. Leonard, former head of the criminal identification bureau in Fort Worth, is now a private special investigator in criminal identification.

Eulis Hill, William Wright and Chester Gleason are filling pastorates on Sundays and doing graduate work in Brite College.

Floyd Leggett is pastor of the First Christian Church in Huntsville. Miss Evelyn Watkins is teaching social studies at Grand Saline High School.

Misses Elma Cudlipp and Catherine McConnell are doing social service work in Fort Worth.

Registration System Proves Successful

"The new system of registration whereby students receive their admit to class cards when they pay their bills at the business office has proved successful," Registrar S. W. Hutton says.

"Since the students presented their cards to their respective teachers, fewer cards were lost and registration was speeded up considerably," Hutton added.

This new system was effected through the action of the classification committee, the cabinet and administrative officers.

Junior Class Meeting At 11 This Morning

A meeting of all members of the Junior class has been called for 11 o'clock this morning in the Auditorium. President Phil Roach has announced.

Editor Wants Student 'Snaps'

An appeal to all members of the student body to contribute snapshots for the 1941 Horned Frog is being made by Miss Mildred Smith, editor. Miss Smith says that these snapshots may be given to her or one of the staff photographers, or they may be taken to the Horned Frog office. It is her desire that everyone understand that all pictures presented become the property of the publication.

Beginning Monday, some member of the annual staff will be stationed in the main hall of the Administration Building to make appointments with the students for the time they wish to have their yearbook pictures made. The Horned Frog staff will hold a meeting today and discuss details of the appointment sheet system.

Miss Smith again wishes to remind all freshmen that the deadline for having their annual pictures made is Saturday, Oct. 5.

Light Up And Dirty Up

"Oh hello Bill, how's everything? Looks like you're working hard these days with that armful of books. I carry them around too, though. Nothin' like lookin' studious and making good impressions on the profs.

"What? Oh, yeah, I'm smokin' in the halls all right, but what of it? Everybody else does it too, look at the cigarette stubs all over the floor.

"Course it does kinda dirty up the place a little, but what does the janitor get paid for? Besides, he makes the rounds two or three times a day anyhow.

"Ya know, the other day I heard some guy say it looked bad to outsiders to see cigarette stubs in the hall. Isn't that silly? Guess if we can get along out here all the time with a few laying around, they ought to be able to stand it for a little while 'til they can get off the campus.

"Did you say somethin' about the fire hazard? Why fella, don't be childish. Anybody knows nothin' like that could happen here.

"And say Bill, get a load of that prof comin' down the hall. He's smokin', isn't he? Don't know why we students should stop if he can do it and get away with it.

"No sir, I know my rights, an' nobody's gonna discriminate against me."

Keep Up The Good Work

Frogland students got off on the right foot Monday as far as participation in elections is concerned. Some 514, almost half the total enrollment, decided it was worth the time and the trouble to voice their opinions in the selection of a head yell leader.

It was gratifying to see the balloting exceed by 200 the vote that was expected. The surprising feature of the whole thing was the fact that the "dragging" of potential voters to the polls by interested parties was conspicuously absent, in contrast to past elections when large counts were rolled up.

The fact that it is early in the year and students supposedly are not "warmed up" to voting did not influence participation, nor did the fact that only one position was at stake. Also, the freshmen turned out in large numbers, casting their share of the ballots and displaying interest generally.

More United We Stand

Closer co-operation between the Council and the student body in general is a point upon which considerable stress has been laid at the two initial meetings of the former so far this year.

One of the biggest steps toward the realization of this worthy end was taken Wednesday with the appointment of chairmen or co-chairmen of nine council committees, each of whom will be responsible for the discharging of duties which happen to fall within his or her particular scope, be it finance, good will, elections or otherwise.

The chairmen will choose their own committee members, not from among their few fellow councilmen, but from the student body at large. Thus some half a hundred other individuals will be brought into direct contact with the workings of student government, and the effect of their efforts can hardly help but be felt in a constructive way by the remainder of Frogland's population.

Soliloquy of a Student

"Now let's see. The Calvinists were the Pilgrim Fathers, and came to America in order to worship in their own way. . . . What in the name of John Doe is that racket? Oh, its one of those silver bracelets with the hearts hanging on it. Can't study until she sits down and stops the rattling. Now. . . the Calvinists. . . oh, blazes, here comes Bill. Bet he wants this book. Better put it in my lap till he gets by. Whew! He didn't see it. Now I can go on studying.

The Calvinists. . . that jingle again. Charm bracelet moved her arm. Getting jittery I guess. There goes that clock jumping again. Wonder why it moves backwards before it jumps up a minute? Must be perpetual motion or something.

Pilgrim fathers to worship. . . wonder if that girl would mind if I asked her to park the bracelet? Yes, I guess she would. Steady, old fellow, concentrate. . . Calvinists. . . There comes another heart girl in the door. We'll have a chorus in a minute. Oh, oh, well, hello, Bill. Sure you can have the book. I'd rather go sit on the steps than stay in the Library anyway."

It Pays To Play

You too can be the star of the game. Meaning you non-varsity athletes who have a desire to receive the plaudits of your fellow students and admiring glances from the fair coeds.

Somewhere in Prof. Tom Prouse's intramural program you will find a sport which will suit your particular ability. It is the aim of Prof. Prouse to present such a wide variety of sports that it will be possible for every boy on the campus to have a sport in which he can excel.

The primary purpose of the intramural sports program is to fulfill John Locke's philosophy—"A sound mind in a sound body is a short but full description of a happy state in this world." Students should welcome the opportunity to train with footballs and baseball bats instead of hand grenades and rifles.

A more material award is also offered in the intramural jackets which are given at the close of each year to those eight boys who have amassed the greatest number of points under the participation system. This system is worked out by giving points for participation in the various sports as explained in last week's Skiff.

Many students complain bitterly when they are forced to play, when they came to college to get an education. The intramural sports are not compulsory to any student, but anyone who knows the facts behind the setup will play. All large universities and colleges throughout the country have proven through intramural sports that "it pays to play."

Freshman Flag Is Removed by Sophs

There was a strange flag atop the flagpole Wednesday morning—not a Nazi or some other foreign banner—but according to a sophomore, it was a lowly piece of cloth all right.

It was the flag of the class of '44, and a very short lived flag at that. It was easy for the indignant upperclassmen to haul it down as the staff was minus the customary grease.

Long before classes had begun, students had hauled it down, set fire to it, and raised the flaming mass amid triumphant shouts.

Instrumental in retrieving the dignity of all upperclassmen were Brentz Wooten, Ross Covey, James Moore and two unwilling freshmen.

Serenade Satisfys Jarvis Sweeties

"Oh, this is wonderful!" a freshman coed, from her front row seat on the third floor of Jarvis Hall, was heard to say Tuesday night when approximately 200 students from Clark and Goode Halls serenaded Jarvis coeds with an impromptu pep rally and band concert.

Yell Leader, Bill Boren, and his assistants, Dick Haden and George Hamilton, summoned all freshmen from Clark Hall and, aided by recruits from Goode, held a short pep rally in front of Clark before going to Jarvis for a session. The spirit soon spread among the coeds and they returned the yells in a vigorous manner.

The band, made up entirely of Clark Hall residents and organized by Drum Major Tom Barber, responded to the coeds' requests and played a swing concert. They closed the rally by playing the Alma Mater and the "Fight Song."

Students Forecast Aggies As Conference Champs

Texas A. & M. will repeat as Southwest Conference gridiron champions this fall is the belief of approximately one-third of the members of the student body, according to a poll conducted this week by The Skiff.

One hundred persons, comprising a representative cross section of the 1200 enrolled, were asked the question, "Who, in your unbiased opinion, will win the Southwest Conference football championship?"

Girls generally favored the Aggies, while the male population chose S. M. U. in most cases.

Those who picked the Frogs claimed they did not base their choice on loyalty, but rather expect the "Meyermers" to really come along after a couple of games.

Complete results of the poll, with the percentage favoring each team, are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Team and Percentage. Texas A. & M. 32%, S. M. U. 24%, University of Texas 19%, T. C. U. 7%, Baylor 2%, Arkansas 0%, Rice 0%, Non Opinion 12%.

Frosh to Take National Tests

"A library and study skill test will be given to all freshman students sometime within the next few weeks," reports Dr. J. H. Dougherty, director of the testing office.

This will be the first time that the test has been given in this school. The object of the test will be to determine whether the new students know how to use the library and if they know the correct way to study.

The information found will then be put into the hands of the counselors, who will aid the individual student with what he needs.

Certain professors and instructors of science, literature, history and other subjects will help the students in their respective fields.

"This test is written and printed by the American Council on Education, which puts out almost all of the nationally known tests," says Dr. Dougherty.

The schedule: Oct. 2 Juniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 9 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 15 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 23 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 30 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 6 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 13 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 20 Seniors vs. Frosh.

Frosh, Sophs, Tie Thriller

Huffman, Thompson Star For Freshmen—Seniors Trounce Juniors 31-20

Featuring a thrilling game between the Freshmen and Sophomores which ended in a 13-13 tie, the 1940 intramural tag football season got under way Wednesday afternoon.

It usually takes the first-year men two or three games to catch on to the tag football system, but, much to the Sophomores' sorrow, this wasn't the case this year.

Elwood ("Little Itasca") Huffman made all 13 of the Frosh counters, with Jo Thompson tossing the pigskin.

Capt. Blair Kirkpatrick made both of the Sophomore scores and Homer Baughman the conversion. It was all the frantic Sophs could do, with their two teams of reserves, to hold their own against the hustling Frosh.

The Seniors played the Juniors to the tune of 31-20, and in doing so showed the reason they have been champions for three consecutive years. Spud Cason made the 20 points for the Juniors, with Capt. Richard Aiken doing the passing.

Robert Groseclose led the Senior tallies with 12 points, followed by Jack Billingsley with 7, Bill Crossfield 6, and Capt. Malven Stevenson with 6. Billingsley made the only conversion for the Seniors. Leonard Hoyle did most of the passing.

All four teams showed plenty of strength for the first game of the season, and Manager Ed Revercomb thinks there will be plenty of thrills and spills in the games to follow.

The schedule: Oct. 2 Juniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 9 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 15 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 23 Seniors vs. Frosh, Oct. 30 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 6 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 13 Seniors vs. Frosh, Nov. 20 Seniors vs. Frosh.

Tomorrow afternoon when Capt. Lefty Alexander trots onto the field to meet the Centenary leader, it will be the twelfth time that the Frogs and the Gentlemen have met on the gridiron. Their first encounter was back in 1923, when Centenary soundly trounced the Christians 23 to 0. However, over the span of time, T. C. U. has won six games, while the Gents have emerged victorious four times and one tilt ended in a scoreless tie. The Frogs hold a big edge in scoring, having scored 153 points to Centenary's 74. For the past two years the Purple have held the Maroon and White scoreless.

Heading the Gents' attack this year will be James "Cotton" Barnes, whom Centenary followers believe will attract all-American mention before the season is over. The big 6' 2", 180 pound blond lad from Vivian, La., is a fine runner and kicker, but his main feature is passing. Barnes hits his receivers with amazing accuracy and is especially deadly on long "home run tosses. Frog defenders will have to be on their toes when "Cotton" grabs the ball.

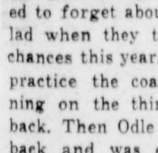

Three cheers for Don Looney! A recent dispatch from Philadelphia, where the former Frog star is playing for the Eagles, shows that Looney is leading the pro league in scoring, passes received and total yardage. Smilin' Don has tallied four touchdowns already, nabbed 15 passes for a total of 142 yards. Eastern sport writers are saying that Looney is as good an end as Don Hutson, former Alabama wing, who for the past several seasons has been the outstanding professional end while playing for the Green Bay Packers.

LOONEY

Although the freshman footballers have been working out only a few days and have met the varsity in only one scrimmage, it is already evident that the "daddy" of the Wogs will be big Frank Medanich, the tall halfback from Pecos. Frank gave the varsity trouble throughout the scrimmage Tuesday afternoon with his bruising defensive play. Time and again the big boy would come up from his half position to stop varsity ball carriers for losses. Besides playing a whole of a game on defense, Medanich displayed rare talent at kicking off. Both of his efforts sailed over the goal line and out of the end zone. Coaches Meyer and Brumbelow will watch with interest the actions of the West Texas lad when the Wogs meet N. T. A. C. Oct. 9.

Hats off, this week, to a guy that has more real hustle and fighting spirit than anyone at T. C. U. in a long time. His name is Jack Odle. Remember, he was the boy who was touted to be better than Sam Baugh or Dave O'Brian. Well, Jack had a little hard luck last season. He broke his thumb and was out of action for a long time. People seemed to forget about the tall McKinney lad when they talked of the Frogs' chances this year. Even during spring practice the coaches had Jack running on the third team at blocking back. Then Odle was shifted to fullback and was down on the fourth string. This would have broken the spirit of most boys who had won two varsity letters, but Odle kept right on plugging, always trying to master the fine points of his new post. A few days ago "Bullet" seemed to find himself and surprised even Coach Meyer with his plunging in scrimmages. Now Odle, the forgotten man, is back again and will see lots of action in tomorrow's fray.

Each year The Skiff sports department goes out on a nice long limb by trying to predict the score in Horned Frog football games. This year is no different so here goes: Duane Kellam, intramural writer—T. C. U. 14, Centenary 7. Wallace Fitzgerald, assistant sports editor—T. C. U. 19, Centenary 7. V. G. Smylie, editor—T. C. U. 20, Centenary 7. Jack Billingsley, sports editor, T. C. U. 26, Centenary 0.

CENTENARY GENTLEMEN WILL SEE PLENTY OF PURPLE AND WHITE FROM THESE FROGS TOMORROW

2:30 Kick-Off to Open Frog Season

Gillispie, Cowart, Ware Head Injury List—Purple Awaits Centenary Clash Tomorrow

The zero hour is approaching! At 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Horned Frog football fans will have their first opportunity to view the 1940 edition of the Purple and White. The opposition will be furnished by the Gentlemen from Centenary, who usually manage to give the Frogs all they can handle.

T. C. U. backers are hoping that their favorites can turn out a season's record this year that will compare to the one established the last season that was started against the Gents. In 1938 the Frogs opened against the Louisiana club, defeated them 13 to 0, and proceeded to march through 10 other games undefeated to the national championship.

This will not be the first encounter for the Gentlemen this season. Last week-end they opened against the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys and were defeated 15 to 13. However, Centenary put up a great fight and was defeated in the final three minutes by a field goal.

Pacing the Maroon and White attack this year is a 180 pound 6' 2" senior, James "Cotton" Barnes. This lad was a standout in the Cowboy game last Saturday night and was especially successful with his passing. Coach Jake Hanna, Centenary mentor, has built his offense about the Vivian, La., boy and expects him to attract national attention during the season.

The rest of the Gent team is something of a question mark. Gone from last year's squad are Weenie Bynum and Ed Whitehurst, two of the finest backs in the history of the school,

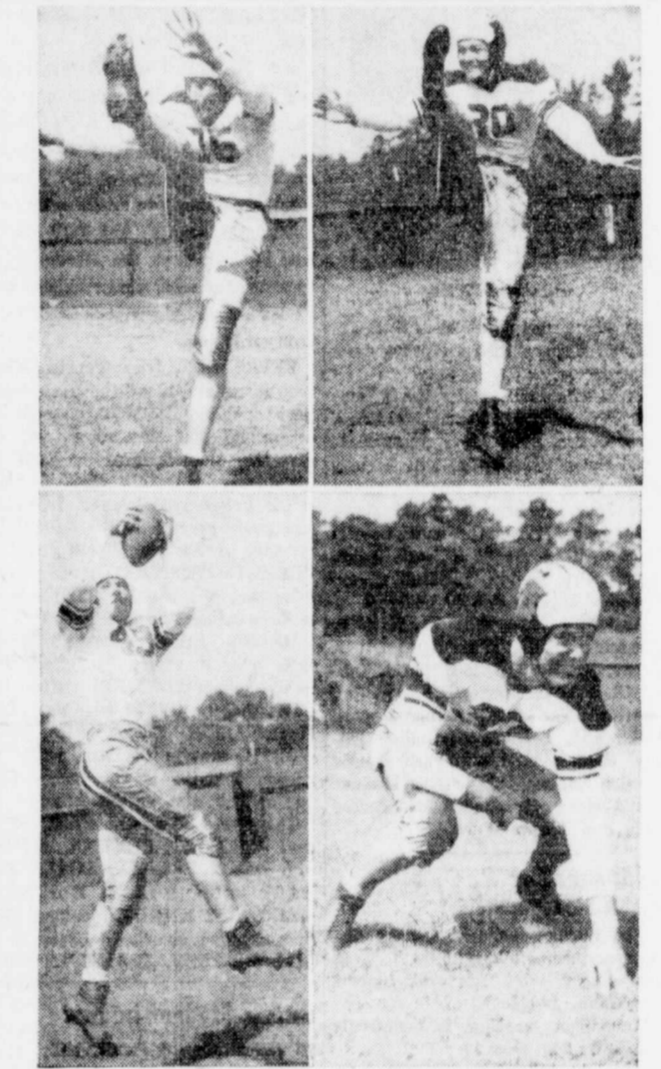

Mike Brumbelow

Nedd Looney, star end, and 13 other lettermen. However, Hanna received several promising freshmen and will have to depend upon many of the inexperienced lads at key positions. Delmar Hamby and Mayo Faith are two of the outstanding newcomers and will be depended upon to handle the punting chores.

Physical Condition Fair
The Frogs will enter their initial fray in only fair physical condition. Kyle Gillespie, depended upon to be the sparkplug of the team, is still bothered by that balky knee and is not expected to see any service tomorrow. Rusty Cowart, another letterman quarterback, is also on the shelf due to knee trouble. Co-captain Logan Ware has been bothered by a bruised shoulder but is expected to be in the lineup at the opening whistle.

Up in the line, the situation is a little brighter, except in the tackle

Tennis Tourney Set For October

Frogland's Tildens and Budge will have a chance to show their stuff in an all-campus tennis tournament to be sponsored by the intramural department.

"The tournament will start the first part of October," says Ed Revercomb, intramural manager.

Every boy on the campus will be eligible to enter, including varsity players, and must sign up at the Gymnasium before Oct. 1.

"We wish to make it clear that this is not an intramural tournament. This is for everyone. However, an intramural tennis tournament will be held immediately following the all-campus contest," says Revercomb.

slots. Line Coach Mike Brumbelow has only three experienced heavyweights available at this position and one of these, Darrell Palmer, is a soph. He, with Woodrow Adams and Leonard Pugh, will have to handle the position tomorrow. Pugh knows the assignments at both left and right tackle and will be used for relief.

The rest of the line-up is set. Willie Roach and Connie Sparks, lettermen, will open at ends. These boys are as good as any wings in the conference. Ronnie Brumbaugh and Bruce Alford can also go in without hurting the Frog strength whatever. Adams and Palmer will man the tackle berths and will probably, through necessity, play most of the game. The guards, considered the strongest position for the Frogs, will be handled by North Side's Bill Crawford and Bobby Sherrod. Mike Harter and Joe Rogers will also see action at this post.

Capt. Clarence Alexander will start at the center position. Billy Blackstone and Dave Wafford will relieve the Purple leader if necessary.

The starting backfield will be made up of two lettermen, a squadman and a sophomore. Frank Kring, at full, and Logan Ware, at right half, are the letter winners, Nolan Sparks, right half, the squadman, and little Dean Bagley, who will pilot the team, is the sophomore. The No. 2 quartet of Beecher Montgomery, quarter, Bill Ramsey, right half, Gus Beirman, left half and Jack Odle, full, will also see lots of service.

Connie Sparks will drop back from his end position and handle the punting for the Purple. The big blond is really booting the ball in practice and should give the Horned Frogs an edge in this department. Jack Odle will punt when he is in the game. Bagley and Montgomery will do most of the passing, with Kring and Odle tossing a few also.

Wog "11" Shows Promise In Contest With Varsity

By WALLACE FITZGERALD

The Wog eleven made their first appearance in a scrimmage with the varsity Tuesday afternoon as the Centenary Gentlemen, but were certainly no gentlemen, as evidenced by the rugged brand of defensive ball they played.

In spite of the fact that the bigger varsity line opened wide holes in the scrimmage, the Wog eleven held their own and gave a good account of themselves. When they left the upper practice field at sundown, they had had their first taste of college football. They liked it and were eager for more.

With Coaches Walter Roach and Linden Binion spurring them on, the first year Frogs held the big white team the required four downs on several occasions and by playing heads up ball managed to stop two marches by intercepting passes.

The Wogs were given little chance to show what they could do offensively as the purpose of the scrimmage was to test the varsity against the Centenary defense. Frank Medanich, the prize package from Pecos, opened proceedings by kicking off over the goal line.

The battle was on with the Varsity beginning one of their frequent goalward marches, with occasional interruptions by such lads as Medanich, who seemed to come from nowhere to make jarring tackles. Those two Yankee linemen, Robert Kirk and Ted Reeves frequently crossed the varsity line with as much ease as they crossed the Mason-Dixon Line on their trips south. Eugene Williford, the Houston center, and Bob McCollum, the Waco blocker, who is said to be a fugitive from several Southwest Conference Schools, did good jobs of backing up the line.

Don Ezell, the halfback twin, was the life of the Wogs with his constant chatter. He seemed to like it when the going was the roughest. Hoyt Casteel and Carson Kincaid, the two ends broke up several touchdown-bound plays. Casteel, the North Sider, and Kincaid, a Kerrville product, seem to have first call at the wing posts.

Alan Pike started at the other guard position and Flowers started at tackle with Reeves. Both of these boys look promising as do Joe Ed Elliott and Dee Ezell, who relieved them. Roach displayed two fine tailbacks in Fred Taylor and J. T. Webb.

A late addition to the Wog eleven is Big John Bond, a 195-pounder from McLean. He is 6 feet 3 inches tall and plays in the backfield. He got in the scrimmage early Tuesday and can go. Van Hall was on the giving end of about as many good tackles as he was on the receiving end of vicious blocks from the varsitymen.

Others who showed up well in the first scrimmage were James Woodfin, center from Crane; J. E. Clark, Dublin; Walter Strittmatter, the rugged North Sider; and Spec Sims, the rough and ready red head. Bert Moody, the Poly star, was on the side lines with an injured shoulder—and Bob Looney watched the tussle from crutches.

The following freshmen were given the starting call against the varsity: Webb, quarterback; Medanich and Don Ezell, halves; McCollum, fullback; Williford, center; Kirk and Pike, guards; Reeves and Flowers, tackles, and Kincaid and Casteel, ends.

Post-Game Hop to Bring Sport Clothes to Spotlight

By MILDRED SMITH

Lay away the new formals, gals. The Saturday night dance will be informal "to make the Centenary 'kids' feel at home in street clothes," says "Cactus Kid" Johnston, new dance manager.

The newly organized Ambassadors, fronted by Julius Winkler, will hold forth on the band stand. There will be tantalizing arrangements of all the latest songs, both sweet and hot.

And speaking of decorations, a bouquet to Johnston for the swell job of dressing the Gymnasium for the Prom. The purple and white streamers from the center were quite effective, but the photographers had a time getting a good shot of the dancers, and the little streamers came down and got in the way of the jitterbuggers.

New fall sport clothes will get their first showing at the game tomorrow. Also the old standby, the paper eye shades, will be prevalent if the old solar system decides to glare out at the occupants of the east stand.

Next formal activity on the campus will be the President's Reception, to be held in the Library next Thursday night. All the freshmen are advised to make their best showing because the faculty and the administration will get a chance to look them and their parents over outside the classroom.

Now for a word about your fall wardrobe for campus and football games. The cool splash of weather brought forth all the corduroy skirts, dresses and jumpers. Angora sweaters will also be very good this year. The jumpers are made mostly of all colors of velveteen.

If you really want to be patriotic, you can get one of the white sweaters with T. C. U. buttons adorning the front. Cardigan sweaters with the sleeves pushed to the elbows are back and holding their own among the coeds.

In the shoe department, it is found that the wedges are definitely on the wane, the brown and white moccasin is taking the place of the saddle oxford so popular on the campus last year.

The hats are all off the face, which won't help a bit if the sun does decide to shine tomorrow.

In the boys' department, anything is being shown. Especially good this year are the slough slacks and open front sports shirts. Of course the footwear is the same. House shoes for the lunch room and the 8 o'clock classes, and comfortable shoes for all other occasions.

Men's hats are made old plantation straw style with loud plaid or dotted bands. These look best when worn if you have a date with a girl to go to a formal dance. Also for evening wear are featured the loud striped or plaid socks, especially with evening clothes.

Pet peeve of the week, particularly with the male sex, is the style that the girls are so "crazy" about—the fad of the heart bracelets. To make a good impression, girls, if you have one, leave it at home, and if you don't have one, leave well enough alone.

See you down at the stadium tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock.

Seniors to Aid At Reception

Annual Event Scheduled For 8 o'Clock Thursday Evening in Library

"Forty seniors—20 girls and 20 boys—will assist at the President's Reception to be held from 8 to 10 o'clock Thursday evening in the Library," it was announced today by Dean Elizabeth Shelburne.

Mrs. Gayle Scott, chairman of the invitation committee, reports that more than 2000 invitations have been issued.

The students selected were chosen by a faculty committee composed of

President Waits

Miss Shelburne, Mrs. Dura B. Coekrell and Herman Pittman, acting dean of men.

Girls who will assist are Misses Sue Bass, Florrie Buckingham, Frances Drennon, Betty Dyer, Susan Earhart, Helen Farrington, Nell Gurnee, Helen Hale, Jeanette Hopkins, Clada Mae Jones, Laura Jones, Elizabeth Ann Jordan, Margaret Kunds, Ceville Moore, Mary Frances Neal, Adale Reiger, Ora Shelton, Elizabeth Story, Moselle Veal and Betty Williams.

Assisting boys will be Clarence Alexander, Bill Crossfield, Tom Evans, Jim Gean, Kyle Gillespie, Robert Glaze, Dan Jarvis, Bob Johnston, Charlton McKinney, Arthur Norred, Jack Odle, Leonard Rosenthal, Edgar Shults, V. G. Smylie, Connie Sparks, Malven Stevenson, Hosmer Stuck, Homer Tomlinson, Don J. Ver Duin and Logan Ware.

Sponsors for S. C. A. To Be Selected

The faculty sponsors and the discussion group leaders of the S. C. A. are being selected this week, reports Jim Gean, president.

A cabinet meeting is tentatively scheduled for today.

Any upperclassmen interested in belonging to the S. C. A. should see Miss Jewel Dillinger, Leonard Rosenthal, or Jim Gean.

All freshmen are eligible to become members of the freshman discussion groups. These groups are being organized this week and will probably begin meeting next week.

HAPPENINGS ON THE HILL

By BETTYE WILLIAMS

Its in the air again—football, we mean. The good old T. C. U. spirit seems to have taken over already what with the "Beat Gents" ribbons, and the determined looks of the footballers.

Choice one of the week: "MRS." BILL CAUDLE and "MRS." CLARENCE EASTER are starting a sewing circle. It seems when the boys moved into their apartment they received letters addressed this way, each of which contained something very useful to all good housewives—a package of needles.

BILLYE JENNINGS is enjoying greater popularity with the girls than ever now. He is quite good at translating third-year Spanish and all the girls, especially MARCIA MILES, JUSTINE MOORE and PAT WARNOCK flock around him to straighten out their mistakes.

In the library: GEORGE LOUDEN, NANCY FINDLEY, JACK ROLLO and MARY HOPE McCAMMON, very studiously trying to find all about a fellow named PATH-AGORAS . . . DORIS KING and TANCE NEAL, studying something or other . . . ED SHULTS and JEAN SISSON sitting together . . . DON VER DUIN, all alone at a table for two . . . RUTH RIDINGS behind the desk.

Ask BETTY FLO BAKER about her pet peeve—it's boys in white socks . . . Ask RUTH ANN BALL, boys, if you want hints on how to make a hit with the Jarvis femmes—she says they prefer sincerity to a line a mile long . . . Ask BOB SIKES how he influenced the election of a sponsor for the senior class last Friday . . . MALVEN STEVENSON is in on it too.

KEITH COX, from Topeka, Kan., was an employee of the advertising firm which handled Willie's publicity before he was nominated, but he says that doesn't mean he can't be for Roosevelt. DORIS MAE OLSON is the brown-eyed brunet freshman who made several of the dorm boys say they prefer Fort Worth girls . . . VIRGINIA HILLYARD, a senior, has something of a record. She has been to three colleges besides T. C. U.

HELEN JANE THOMAS is all agog over a rhymed telegram she received from AL SHEPPARD to the effect that he will be here Saturday. Former Skiff Editor BILL HAWORTH, now in El Paso, writes to friends that he is the homesickiest guy on this side of the Atlantic.

They were all at the Prom Saturday: MAXINE BENDER dancing with DEAN BAGLEY, SUSAN ERHART with BOBBY BUNNELL, MARGARET KUNDT, looking regal in a fringed shawl, she came with BILL RAMSEY, JEANETTE HOP-

Miss Wilma Creager, junior from Mineral Wells and a resident of Reed House, was visited the past week-end by her mother, Mrs. Logan Creager of Mineral Wells, and her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Evans from Coleman.

And if the WITTLE BITTY WABBIT doesn't get lost down in his dark hole and forget to come up to heckle the hurter and if we all don't get blistered at the game Saturday, HAPPENINGS ON THE HILL will be back next week at the very same time.

Frog Musicians Go to Top With Top-Flight Music

Several ex-students and alumni of T. C. U. believe that you have to "toot your own horn" to get ahead in this world. By doing so, they have advanced in their chosen profession—music.

They are members of that ever growing group of Frog musicians who are now playing with musical organizations throughout the country.

Probably the most noted of this group is Clyde Hurley, who has played trumpet with Ben Pollack,

The newly organized Robie Love band boasts two ex-Frogs in Gene Scrumham, saxophonist, and Vernon ("Smoky") Walker, who plays a hot base fiddle. Scrumham left school last year to join Ernie Palmquist's band. Both he and Walker played with the Dictators while they were in school.
