

Students Roar for Roosevelt--Willkie Wins Second--Gracie Allen Scores to Tie Browder

Third Term Roosevelt
... He's the Student's Choice

President Franklin D. Roosevelt will win the presidential election Tuesday a two-to-one margin—at least he would if members of the student body were electing a president for the United States.

In a poll conducted this week by members of The Skiff staff, 122 students, or approximately 10 per cent of the total day school enrollment, were asked the following question: What candidate do you favor for the presidency of the United States in the election Tuesday?

Four party candidates and one independent were named, Roosevelt leading the field with 83 votes, Wendell Willkie, Republican nominee, was second, with 34 endorsements, while Socialist Norman Thomas topped third position, with two ballots, Earl Browder, Communist candidate, followed with one, Gracie Allen finished in a deadlock with Browder for fourth place, having garnered a lone tally.

There were as many reasons for the choices as there were votes. Bob Glaze chose Roosevelt "because I don't think the third term issue is of any importance. Roosevelt's experience is going to count more than a lot of intangible promises by Willkie."

Miss Helen Jane Thomas agreed with Glaze on the candidate, but gave as her reason for the selection the belief that Willkie is "corny."

Frank Boggeman favors Willkie because he feels sorry for anyone who gets eggs thrown at them, while Miss Frances Drennon, also a Willkie voter, offers the simple explanation that she doesn't like to look at Mrs. Roosevelt.

Tom Evans would vote Roosevelt because he claims that "once a democrat, always a democrat." Miss June Kittrell would also scratch off all names from the ballot but FDR because "Roosevelt is the only one who can get us out of what he's got us into."

Bill Lowden says, "I favor Willkie because I consider myself an intelligent person, too intelligent to vote for Roosevelt." Vardeman Shultz concurs, explaining that not yet being a socialist, he is for Willkie.

Miss Bernice Bell has a mercenary reason for favoring a third term—"If Roosevelt is not re-elected, I will lose my job in the post office, and I wouldn't want to do that," she says.

Chilli McKinney favors Roosevelt, because he thinks he is the greatest American alive and will come nearest keeping us out of war.

Jack Billingsley thinks two good terms deserve another, Miss Betty Williams believes Willkie's campaign is a "bunch of bull" and Miss Mildred Smith says the G. O. P. candidate is a windbag.

Back on the other side of the fence, David McKee claims he would much rather see an inauguration than a coronation next January, and George Towles says he favors Willkie because the Republican nominee will bring about real prosperity for the nation by the expenditure of private capital.

Favoring the "third party" candidates were J. P. Baze, Pat Steel and Jack Bauter. Baze would cast his ballot for Norman Thomas "because I really believe he has a good platform," while Steel would follow suit because he doesn't like either of "big boys."

Jack Bauter was the lone Browder supporter, offering as his reason the belief that the Communist would put America back on its feet to stay.

Miss Alta Wilderspin professes a deep rooted faith in the ability of Gracie Allen, founded mainly on the fact that the screen star says the "cleverest things."

Probably the most undecided student on the campus is Bobby

GOP Candidate Willkie
... He Ran Second in the Poll

Bunnell. Bobby was a staunch Roosevelt man until yesterday when his number was one of the first drawn for selective service. Now he isn't so sure whom he favors.

60 Aspirants Answer Call Of Fame Across Footlights At Varsity Show Try-Outs

Director Domina Pleased With Quantity and Quality Of Talent—Many Stars of 1940 Revue Return, Expressing Hope for Bigger and Better Show.

By GEORGIA RATLIFF

The call of grease paint and spotlights brought 60 aspirants to the auditorium Tuesday night for Varsity Show try-outs. Miss Maria Domina, director, was well pleased with the quality and quantity of the talent represented. There is room for more, however, and additional try-outs will be held for those who did not attend the first one, if they will contact Harold Caylor or Charlie Prior.

The desire for a bigger and better show was expressed when several members of last year's cast returned. More are expected to come out later and there are others who were unable to go to the try-outs, but had already indicated their wish to be in the show. There will be no necessity for dancing try-outs, the name of the student and type of dancing preferred is all that will be required.

Those trying out for singing included Misses Gloria Sadler and Mary Green, members of the '40 cast, Lucile Pawelek, Billie Linthicum, Charlyne Holland, Jean Vogtel and Becky Campsey. The boys who sang are Carter Murphy, Billy Jennings, Frank Boggeman, all in last year's cast, and Melvin Dacus, a freshman.

Girls who signed up for dancing are: Misses Jaunita Foster, Frances Mitchell, Sara Mae Sandifer, Laura McCleanor, Betty Simmons, Margaret Helen Pylon, Helen Jane Thomas, Billie Lithicum, Lucille Pawelek, Mary Frances Fitzgerald, Aline Lewis, Justine Moore, Gerry Sharp, Elaine Thompson, Frances Duckworth, Leola Myatt, Nancy Keller and Virginia Roberson.

The dramatic aspirants are Misses Mary Green, Lucille Pawelek, Gloria Sadler, Jeanee Vogtel, Becky Campsey, Ruth Priest, Dandy Holt, Jane Manning, Sara Ann Cabell, Margaret Annis, Helen Jane Thomas, Margaret Head, Julie Mayo and Elma Flo Alexander. The boys are Carter Murphy, Frank Boggeman, Billy Jennings, Clarence Easter and John Frank Lucas.

Juniors Plan Social at Lake

A picnic at Lake Worth is to be the first junior social of the year, it was decided Monday at a class meeting. The outing is being planned for Tuesday, with the price set at 25 cents per person.

"All students planning to attend, be at the Arch before 6:30 p. m. Tuesday," Phil Roach, class president, announces.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Misses Marjorie Stevenson, Maxine Shaw and Ethel Rae Cheatham, and Bill Boren and Woodrow Adams.

Get It Right!

Check with the registrar's office before Tuesday so that your correct name and address will appear in the 1940-41 issue of the Student Directory. The directory is being compiled and every effort will be made to make this year's edition the best and most accurate, so do your part.

Miss Maxine Shaw Is Band Sweetheart

Miss Maxine Shaw, junior from Brownwood, was chosen today for the second consecutive time to represent her class as band sweetheart for the T. C. U.-Baylor game tomorrow. Miss Shaw will march with the Horned Frog band during the half of the gridiron battle.

Winning over three opponents, Miss Shaw tallied 21 votes. The other contestants received votes as follows: Miss Marjorie Stevenson, 16; Miss Ruth Priest, 15, and Miss Gloria Sadler, 4.

Mrs. Hutton Will Attend Music Club Convention

Mrs. S. W. Hutton will attend the district convention of the Texas Music Clubs Association in Vernon Thursday.

'Welcome Dad' To Be Theme Homecoming

Students' Fathers to Come In Scores As Gigantic Week-End Is Planned.

By BETTY CLAIRE PRAY

There will be dads of students; there will be dads of prospective students. Hundreds of dads will descend upon the campus, to be honored at Homecoming. Every one of them will return home with a token of remembrance of the day that is going to be "their day."

Howard Carrell, president of the Ex-Students' Association, reports that a special invitation will be extended to every man who has a son or daughter enrolled in the University to attend the Homecoming celebration, Nov. 16. Prizes will be given to several—the oldest dad, the youngest dad, and many others will be specially honored.

Working With Student Council "The Ex-Students' Association is working in conjunction with the Student Council," President Malven Stevenson says, "and we will make every effort to make this day one that will not soon be forgotten."

There will be a luncheon in the Cafeteria at 12 o'clock Saturday for dads and for ex-students. There will be a pep rally just preceding the luncheon in the Auditorium, with yell leaders of former days making speeches and leading yells.

Stevenson reports that there will be a Council-sponsored bonfire Friday night near the Basketball Gymnasium and a gigantic pep rally. "We want to make this the largest pep rally ever held on the campus," he continued.

Classes Stop at 10 a. m.

Saturday morning classes will be dismissed at 10 o'clock. Each major club will have a booth in the main hall of the Administration Building where ex-students may register and meet present members of the club to which they belonged.

The Presidents Club which will hold its second meeting at 11 o'clock next Wednesday morning, will make plans for the welcome signs that are to decorate the campus for Homecoming. Definite plans will be announced following this meeting.

"The cooperation of every student in having his dad present, and in doing his part to make this Homecoming THE Homecoming is what we need," Stevenson and Carrell say.

Frosh, Sophs To Give Plays

Contest Set for 8:15 p. m. Monday—Charge 15c Person, or Two for 25c.

Final rehearsals are in progress and the freshman-sophomore contest plays will be produced at 8:15 o'clock Monday night in the Auditorium. The price of admission is 15 cents a person, or two for 25 cents.

The plays are directed by Harry Jennings and Clarence Easter. The freshman selection, "Only the Birds," has a cast consisting of Miss Julia Mayo, Miss Louise Bates, Fullerton Faguy-Cote, Vincent Winell, David O'Keefe and Ernest Allen.

"Bread," the sophomore selection, has Miss Sara Ann Cabell, Miss Janis Warren, Miss Peggy Greene, David McKee and Homer Baughman in its cast.

David O'Keefe, who is taking a role in the freshman play, is the brother of Winston O'Keefe, actor in several Leslie Howard productions and at present traveling in the troupe with John Emory.

Dr. Brown to Speak Wednesday

With appearances before both the faculty and the student body scheduled, Dr. Carleton Brown, noted author and authority on old English, middle English, and Shakespeare, will speak on the campus Tuesday night and Wednesday afternoon on the subject "Chaucer Through Six Centuries."

Only members of the faculty will be admitted to the first meeting, which will begin at 8 p. m. Tuesday, while everyone is invited to the second appearance at 4 p. m. the following day.

Dr. Brown started his career as a journalist, editing the Solida (Colo.) Mail. After retiring from the newspaper business, he was a Quaker preacher in Minnesota. He then became a professor of English, and has taught at Harvard, Minnesota, Oxford, Bryn Mawr and New York University.

Brown has written over 60 articles on scholarly subjects as well as 10 books. In 1920 he became secretary of the Modern Language Association of America, a position which he held concurrently with this teaching duties for 12 years.

Recently a book entitled "Essays and Studies in Honor of Carlton Brown" was published by New York University in collaboration with the Oxford University Press, and includes works by his friends, associates and students. Dr. Holdeen Braddy is author of a section entitled "Free Chaucer Notes."

S. C. A. Cabinet To Hold Retreat

S. C. A. cabinet members are planning a retreat to be held somewhere outside of Fort Worth on Nov. 9 and 10. The cabinet is composed of S. C. A. officers, faculty sponsors, and student leaders. About thirty people are expected to attend.

"The Presidential Election" was discussed Monday night at Dr. William V. Roca's group. "Morals" is the topic for the next meeting, scheduled for Nov. 11.

"How Shall We Keep Democracy" was the subject of Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Sherer's group last Tuesday. Dr. Edwin Elliott, regional director of the N. L. R. B., was guest speaker. "Person to Person Relationships,"

With the nomination deadline extended until Wednesday noon and the initial balloting scheduled the following day, 24 students have entered the Skiff class representative contest, the division winners of which will be sent to the Rice football game Nov. 23 in Houston, expenses paid.

The deadline was extended because only 11 entries were in Monday night, and because it was felt that a more representative group of nominees from each class would create more interest in the contest.

The difficulty and apparent lack of interest was probably due in part to a misunderstanding regarding the fact that students do not have to be nominated by someone else, but should feel free to nominate themselves. The idea behind the contest is not to have anyone drift in as winner, but to award the spoils to the person who "hustles" hardest.

The winner in each class will be given a round-trip ticket on the special train to Houston, a ticket to the Owl-Frog game, expense money, and will probably be admitted free to the dance Saturday night and presented on the field at the half.

Entry blanks will be found on Page 2, and should be dropped in the Student Council suggestion box in the main hall of the Administration Building.

The freshman class leads the field, as far as entries are concerned, with nine already submitted. Candidates include Misses Margaret Porter, Jean Wray, Elizabeth Epperson, Eileen Day, Jean Vogtel and Sarah Mae Sandifer, and George Towles, Preston Stedman and Dan Wray.

Seven candidates are entered for the class of '43 position, six girls and one boy. They are Misses Lois Jeanne Cayce, Dorothy Wingo, Janis Warren, Marcia Mills, Georgia Lee Norris and Peggy Greene, and Loyd George Whitley.

Four juniors and an equal number of seniors round out the list of entries. Third-year candidates are Miss Helen Stallings, Miss Kathleen Parker, Vardeman Shultz and Jack Bauter.

To elect a sponsor will be the main item of business at the freshman class meeting at 11 a. m. Monday in the auditorium, reports Marshall Mason, class president.

Also included in this meeting of the class of '44 will be a discussion of social plans, the selection of various committees and the outlining of a program for the year.

Dr. True, Debate Coach, Will Represent T. C. U.

Dr. Allen True, debate coach, will represent T. C. U. at the province of lower Mississippi meeting of the Pi Kappa Delta, debate fraternity this week-end.

Romp Round to Anti-Baylor Rally Tonight

Everything from trick roping to a pajama parade downtown will highlight the anti-Baylor rally at 7:30 o'clock in the Auditorium tonight.

The Horned Frog Swing Band will open the program with plenty of rhythm and a new swing number called Jazzocracy. The cheer leaders will then take over and "belittle" Baylor and lead the vocal exercises. After the band has blown itself away and the student body can no longer talk, Howard Collier, the "West Texas Terror," will demonstrate some trick and fancy roping that will keep the students speechless.

The rally will reach its climax when the students gather at Burk Burnett Park downtown for a snake dance and pajama parade. Hot or cold, wet or dry, the freshman boys will be required to wear their best pajamas and give the citizens of Fort Worth a look at the latest thing in collegiate nightwear.

"Everyone with a car meet at the Arch so that we can get as many as possible to town," says Head Yell Leader Bill Boren.

After everyone has had a good night's sleep, the rally will be continued tomorrow morning when the student body goes to the T. & P. station at 10:15 o'clock to meet the special train from Waco carrying the Baylor students and band.

As soon as the Baylorites have detrained, the T. C. U. and Baylor bands will lead the students in a parade down Main Street to the Blackstone Hotel, where the bands will have a swing contest and the students a yelling spat.

Both sides will then adjourn until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when the Frogs skin the Bears.

A Little Effort, A Big Reward

A trip to the Rice football game Nov. 23 in Houston, all expenses paid, presentation on the field at the half, plus several other honors and courtesies and a world of publicity certainly should provide enough incentive to merit the output of a little effort.

Assuming that members of the student body would arrive at the same conclusion, it was decided that this year The Skiff would give four students a chance to partake of the spoils as winners in an annually sponsored contest.

But the class representative idea decided upon seemingly hasn't "caught on," as the deadline for entries announced in last week's Skiff was reached with but 11 students entered in the four divisions.

The deadline has therefore been extended until Wednesday noon with the hope that a really representative group of students will participate, and that interest will be built up to a high pitch.

If the reward seems sufficient to warrant the output of a little energy, don't hesitate to enter and to campaign in your own behalf. Clip the entry blank on this page now, fill it out and drop it in the Student Council suggestion box in the main hall of the Administration Building.

You may be the member of your class to make the student body trip to Houston, expenses paid!

Date For Your Health

"University Students have too few dates for their psychological health," John W. Hughes, psychoanalyst, recently told a student audience at the University of California. He also stated that lack of an adequate so-called "sex-life" will permanently warp an individual's character.

This statement can apply to the T. C. U. campus, with, of course, certain exceptions. The question then arises—is the cause for such situation the absence of initiative on the part of the students themselves or the lack of social activities provided. At the beginning of the year, a freshman coed was heard to say, "The male situation here is terrible." But the blame should not be placed on the male students. True, some undoubtedly lack initiative. But the principal reason for the lack of dates is small number of social activities.

T. C. U. has her Saturday night dances, but outside of these few occasions provide an opportunity for closer acquaintance between the male and female students. The various clubs on the campus hold occasional socials throughout the year. But the average student does not belong to more than one campus club, thereby affording few opportunities for social contact.

More campus-wide socials should be sponsored by the University to afford more contact between the eds and coeds, for the betterment of their psychological health.

Attitude—something that won't do you very much good on a quiz over the four chapters you didn't read.

Did You Know!

The Horned Frogs play the Baylor Bears at the Stadium tomorrow. A fact that most students know only after looking it up on the schedule. The student spirit behind the football team seems to have reached its peak for the A. & M. game, and then, after the Frogs dropped a hard fought contest, fell to an all time low.

No signs, banners or "Beat the Bears" ribbons have heralded the coming of this Saturday's game. Where is that old Frog fight? Just because the last three games have been entered on the wrong side of the ledger—are YOU students going to forget all the spirit which you had after the Arkansas game?

The rivalry between the Frogs and the Bears is as hot as any in the conference. Most upperclassmen can remember when, for a week before the Baylor game, freshmen were "urged" to guard the campus from invasion by the Baylorites. When these hostilities got out of hand several years ago, the two schools agreed to call a halt to the campus "painting." It is to be regretted that a group of over zealous students carried this too far. It added something to this traditional battle.

But even though you cannot paint the Baylor campus, you can still add to the spirit at home. Let's get behind the Frogs and BEAT BAYLOR.

It is evident Tchaikowsky had never been around a charm bracelet when he wrote "None But The Lonely Heart."

Are You Man or Miss?

This is a man's world and the coeds are beginning to realize the fact if the present trend on college campuses is any indication. This fall many collegiate cuties have become exact carbon copies of Joe College.

This trend in female dress started a few seasons ago but has really reached its peak at the present with the girls emulating the eds in such masculine attire as crew neck sweaters, formerly a mannish monopoly, moccasins, gabardine raincoats, short socks and sports coats, including handkerchief peeking out of breast pocket.

There was a time when pajamas were worn by men only, but the daring damsels of the early twenties put a stop to this. It was once a sign of masculinity to smoke cigarettes, but no more.

The women of this country—led by the coeds—have invaded manhoods last stronghold—his manner of dress.

Ambition—what freshman have plenty and what senior has any.

A bad quarter always comes back. With the T. C. U. football team it seems to be the second quarter.

Radio Show On Air Today

"Three Little Fishes" Skit And String Trio Included On Initial KFJZ Program.

"Three Little Fishes" a University of Michigan skit based on the song of the same name, will open the first of the 25-minute radio programs to be called "T. C. U. Varieties," at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon over KFJZ. "T. C. U. at a Glance" will be a feature of the program throughout the series. It will give a thumb-nail sketch of President E. M. Waits as its first presentation. Different members of the faculty will be featured from time to time.

The T. C. U. String Trio is to be the permanent musical organization of the program. It is composed of Preston Stedman, violinist, Miss Mary Louise Martin, cellist and Miss Virginia Roberson, pianist. They will offer two numbers by Zamecnik, "Habenera" and "River Jordan." Miss Ann Coles is the soprano soloist.

Members of the "Three Little Fishes Cast" are: Miss Frances Coats, Miss Wanda Robbins, Paul Nelson, John Frank Lucas, Billy Jennings, Miss Dorothy Howze and W. A. Nance.

The next program will be Nov. 22, and after that every other week.

SPORTS SHOTS

by JACK BILLINGSLEY

A gang of very determined Horned Frogs will take the field against the Baylor Bruins tomorrow afternoon. It was not so long ago (just one year, in fact) that most of these same Frogs journeyed down to Waco and received, at the hands of these same Bears, a most humiliating trouncing. The final score last year was 27 to 0, but most of the Frogs felt that it was something like 87 to 0, the way the Bruin supporters crowded. And the Waco backers had something to get excited about, because for that day those Bears were great. Led by Jack Wilson, who is out for the season with a kidney injury, they ran through, passed over and sprinted around the surprised Christians. It was the worst trouncing that a Baylor team had handed a modern T. C. U. outfit, and this year's Frogs are determined to make amends.

Talking about Baylor, those same Bruins have a guy on their club who comes as near to our dear old Ki Aldrich as a football player can. His name is Bob Nelson and he is just about the class of the centers in the conference. Some critics say Nelson is the outstanding pivot in the nation. Like Aldrich, Nelson is the backbone of the Baylor defense. When he is not in the game (and this is seldom) that "good ole Baylor line" is just so-so, but when the confident Bob is in there backing up the forwards, the Bear defense gets plumb ornery. Besides being an ace defensive center, Nelson does his part on offense and does all the team's extra point kicking and kicking off.

The Frogs will have a new face in their starting lineup. At the left half this week Gus Bierman, the speedy soph from Handley, will get his big chance. Gus has been playing fine ball this fall as understudy to Nolen Sparks, but with the team needing more speed in the secondary, Coach Meyer decided to put Gus in the starting position. Gus is the boy who just about single handed beat the S. M. U. freshmen last year in that water-logged battle in Dallas. Bierman took a pass from Dean Bagley and slipped and slid through the entire Colt team for one touchdown and then he lateralled to Bill Ramsey for the other Wog tally. This year Bierman has tallied one Frog score. That was in the Arkansas game when he made a fine leaping catch in the end zone of one of Bagley's tosses. So get used to Bierman's name in the Frog lineup because it is liable to appear there quite often during the next three years.

If anybody stars at the left guard post for the Purple tomorrow, you can bet it will be a North Side High graduate. At the present writing the top three boys at this position are from the Stock Yards district. Leonard Pugh, the converted tackle, is slated to start, with Bill Crawford, the injured regular, about ready to resume active duty. Next in line comes still another North Sider, Ennis Kerlee, who went down with a badly damaged ankle last week. All three of these boys played on the same team at North Side. The odd part of it is, that none played guard in high school. All were tackles. So it will be "North Side Day" at left guard tomorrow.

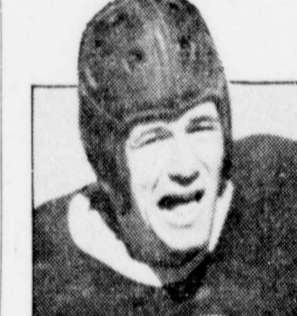

Don't let it get around, but there is just a hint about the campus that the Horned Frogs are going to come out of the cellar in the basketball race this winter. Of course this rumor gets out about this time every year, but this season it is none other than Coach Mike Brumbelow who started it. "It's about time we quit kidding about basketball on the T. C. U. campus," the Irishman insists. "This year we have enough good boys that we can beat any team in the league. The trouble with us is that we don't

Both Teams May Be 'Red Hot' Despite Injuries--Gillispie and Bierman Will Start Game

By JACK BILLINGSLEY
"That Good Ole Baylor Line" and a flock of good backs to run behind it will pull into town this afternoon for final rehearsal for the gridiron battle between the Bears from Waco and the T. C. U. Horned Frogs at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The Bears will take their final workout on the Stadium field at 2 p. m. today and the Frogs will do their last polishing up about an hour later.

The Bears are slight favorites in the game tomorrow, but the contest should be a tight brawl all the way. If the Bears can continue to play the type game that they turned in at Waco last Saturday against the Aggies, the Frogs will have their hands full indeed. Those who witnessed the Bruin-Farmer battle say that, with a little luck, Baylor could have easily ended the Aggie winning streak. On the other hand, the Purple performance against an inspired Tulsa outfit was anything but encouraging.

Both teams are pretty hard hit by injuries. Dame Fortune dealt the Bears a stiff body punch up in Denver when Jack Wilson, one of the greatest backs in the history of the college, went out for the season with a kidney injury. It took the Bruins about two weeks to get over this shock, but since then they have managed to get along pretty well without the big Paris boy, Max Gandy, big 230 pound reserve tackle, is also out of the Frog tussle with a bruised knee.

Bear Defense Tough
As usual, the outstanding feature about the Bears is their stubborn defense. Last week, time and again the Bruin forward wall stopped the great "Jawn" Kimbrough cold. Heading this big line is All-Conference Center Robert Nelson. Nelson has been having his best season this year, and if the Green and Gold can win some more games the big senior will make many all-American selections. Aiding Big Bob in stopping the enemy is Jack Russell, big sophomore from Cleburne who holds down right end, Jack Anderson, giant tackle, and the two guards, Don Haley and Lewis Self.

Two shifty light-heavyweights, Jimmie Witt and Dwight Parks, have taken over the job of leading the Bruin offense since Wilson's injury. Witt handles most of the team's passing and punting and he and the eluthink we can win. And that goes for the players as much as the students. Every afternoon much activity is going on in the basketball gym as the cagers are already getting ready for the coming season. Thirteen boys are working out under the direction of the lettermen. Brumbelow meets with the team two nights a week. If practice and hard work mean anything, watch out for the downtrodden Frogs this winter!

Since The Skiff "Department of Prediction" has quit operating, the Frogs have lost the neck of winning football games. So, in response to numerous requests, that group of authorities will again go into a huddle and issue forth: V. G. Snylie, editor, T. C. U. 20, Baylor 13; Duane Kellam, intramurals, T. C. U. 14, Baylor 7; Wallace Fitzgerald, assistant sports ed, T. C. U. 21, Baylor 13; Jack Billingsley, sports ed, T. C. U. 13, Baylor 14 (TRAITOR)!

FULLBACKS boasting plenty of power and speed will face each other tomorrow in the Frog-Bear grid contest. At top is Frank Kring, ace Purple plunger, while below is Milton Crain, Baylor's sophomore ace.

Frank Kring and Milton Crain

The freshman game between the Polliwogs and the Baylor Cubs, scheduled for yesterday in Waco, has been postponed until next week on account of rain.

"The definite date will be set Monday," says Walter Roach, freshman coach. This action was taken yesterday morning when the Waco officials contacted Roach by telephone.

Lettermen to Be Barred From Tennis Tournament

An intramural tennis tournament will start Monday, reports Manager Ed Revercomb, and there will be no holds barred.

All entrants must sign up at the Gymnasium today or tomorrow. Varsity men or lettermen in tennis will not be eligible.

Guard Slot Jinxed

In the Horned Frog camp, Coaches Meyer and Brumbelow are about ready to call for volunteers to fill in the troublesome left guard slot in their lineup. With Bill Crawford and Ray Standley injured, the coaches shifted Tackle Ennis Kerlee to the guard hole. Kerlee lasted exactly 20 minutes at the post before going down with a badly damaged ankle. With a sigh, Brumbelow reached over into his rapidly diminishing group of tackles and drafted Leonard Pugh to fill in. So now, Pugh, who has never played a down at guard, will start with the cripples, Crawford, Standley and Kerlee, held in reserve.

The rest of the lineup will be about the same that started the Tulsa game, with two exceptions. At left half Gus Bierman, speedy Handley soph, will get the starting call and Kyle Gillespie will start at quarterback. These two give the Purple offense more speed and Gillespie will add experience to the signal calling division.

The Starting Lineups:
Baylor—Lummus, le; Anderson, lt; Self, lg; Nelson, c; Haley, rg; Godbold, rt; Russell, re; Merka, qb; Witt, lb; Parks, rh; Crain, fb.
T. C. U.—Roach, le; Adams, lt; Pugh, lg; Alexander, c; Sherrod, rg; Palmer, rt; Sparks, re; Gillespie, qb; Ware, lb; Bierman, rh; Kring, fb.

Hurricane Tallies in Initial Quarter to Register First Victory Over Horned Frogs.

By JACK BILLINGSLEY
After the smoke had cleared away from over the playing field in Tulsa last Saturday afternoon, the T. C. U. Horned Frogs found themselves once more on the short end of the score. This time it was a gang of inspired Tulsa Hurricanes that outfought and outplayed the Frogs by a 7-to-0 score.

It was the first Tulsa victory over the Purple. However, this win was no fluke for the Tulsans. They were clearly the better team for the afternoon at least. They outblocked the Frog linemen on every occasion and their hard running backs were almost always good for three or four yards a try. No sir, those Hurricanes won that ball game the hard way.

The thing that hurt the Frogs' chances most was the terrific punting of the Tulsa backs. Whenever the T. C. U. team would threaten, boom—a Tulsa kicker would plant a high spiral about 60 yards downfield and the threat would end. They said before the game that Glenn Dobbs, the big sophomore tailback, was the leading punter in the Nation, and before the game was more than two minutes old Frog supporters were ready to concede that title to him.

Tulsa Boots Hurt Frogs

His first boot carried 69 yards and died on the one yard line. This blow set up the only touchdown of the game because the Purple's return punt was only about half as lengthy and the Frogs never got out of that hole. And Mr. Dobbs didn't stop after that first boot either. With the wind, against the wind, it didn't matter to this big boy, he would still kick them out of the lot. The Frogs breathed a sigh of relief when Dobbs left the game in the third period, but his replacement, Calvin Purdin, kicked almost as well.

T. C. U. kicked off to the Hurricane and after two plays Dobbs swatted a punt 69 yards to the one yard marker and the Purple was against the wall. Connie Sparks' return boot was returned by little Jimmie Vickers to the Frog 29 and a few plays later Dobbs fired a running pass to Vickers on the goal line for six points. Ken Gibson added the extra point and that was the ball game. The Tulsa outfit continued to threaten throughout the game. Big L. D. Moore, the Hurricane fullback, gave the Purple forwards trouble all afternoon with his plunging. The big fellow time and again plowed through the middle for seven, eight and 10 yards.

The only Frog offensive gesture of the game was seen just before the end

Seniors Outclass Frosh In Championship Trek

The undefeated and untied Seniors continued their trek to their fourth consecutive championship Wednesday by running over a badly outclassed Freshman squad by a score of 53-to-6.

Only one other time in the history of intramural football has this many points been tallied in one game, and that was when the Seniors ran up 59 points this year in their first game of the season against the Frosh.

Billingsley was high-point man in the Senior scoring festival, with three touchdowns and a conversion. Crossfield was next in line, with two touchdowns and as many extra points, while Groschke, Stuck and Sorrels made the remaining tallies with Lacy and Stevenson making an extra point apiece.

Huffman tossed a pass across the of the first half. With only two minutes to play the Purple, led by Rusty Cowart, began a march from their 30 that was cut short by the gun. Cowart completed seven consecutive tosses to carry the oval to the Tulsa eight. There, on fourth down, Gillespie replaced Cowart, and a fourth down pass was short and the half ended.

Throughout the second half the kicking of Dobbs and the plunging of Moore held the Frogs bottled up deep in their own territory. About midway in the final period T. C. U., with Bagley and Ware leading the way, marched to the Hurricane 27, but a fumble ended the threat.

Tulsa had some great players on the field. Up in the line Ken Gibson, Don Grey, Dick Morgan and Capt. Wayne Holt outcharged the Purple line all the way and opened gaping holes for their backs to speed through. Dobbs and Moore were the offensive sparks, although Vickers, Lee Gentry and Ray Muchowich helped out.

Although he didn't play long, Cowart looked to be the lad who caused the Frogs to go when they did get started. Dean Bagley almost broke away on several occasions and Big Frank Kring turned in a fine game before going out with a bruised leg.

The team standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Seniors	4	0	0	1.000
Juniors	4	2	0	.667
Sophomores	1	4	1	.250
Freshmen	0	5	1	.000

Politics, Conscription Steal Social Limelight

By BETTYE WILLIAMS
Politics and conscription—these two topics are so important this week that they have even grabbed the campus limelight away from social functions for the time being. Republican, Democrat, Communist or Socialist? This is the question asked next to what's your number? (registration, not Leavenworth).

However, the arguments will be over Tuesday, and since the draft numbers have already been pulled out of the fish bowl, early ones will be able to wait until July to do any military maneuvers. Speaking of maneuvers, the best place for that at present is the Basketball Gymnasium tomorrow night for the big dance following the game. The Ambassadors will be there, as well as possibly some of that good old Baylor line. Girls should come formal. This is one of those dances, which is termed "plain vanilla," and, which incidentally, usually turns out to be the best of all.

Last week's free recording rumpus turned out to be a very successful dance, according to the consensus of those who shook a leg over that way. As a good will gesture of Dance Manager Johnston, it was so impressive that the students want more of the same.

In its history, T. C. U. has had almost every variety of dance imaginable. In 1937, for example, the students attended a bowery dance. One of the vice-versa variety, a gaitch or merry-mix-up dance, a W. A. A. prom, at which a queen was crowned, as well as the Presentation Ball. Once some of the students suggested that the school have an old-fashioned dance, and play nothing but waltzes. Once it was even mentioned that the Library would be an excellent place to have a dance. This really would look like a scene from a movie extravaganza, but think of the havoc it might bring to the building.

What the girls are going to do in retaliation if the ambitious boys who want to save on cleaning bills succeed in starting that overall movement is a grave problem. It might be argued, especially by the eds. that after borrowing suits from the boys, knee length skirts from Scotchmen, and coming out in cowboy boots and perk pie hats, the coeds have done enough. There ought to be another trick in the bag somewhere, though. The other day, there was a picture of a hat decorated with a real, actual corn cob pipe in the paper.

New Business Club Has Luncheon

The newly organized Collegiate Business and Professional Women's Club had its first luncheon at 12:30 o'clock yesterday. Miss Ruth Townsend, president of the downtown organization, was the speaker for the occasion.

The club has been formed for the purpose of promoting and furthering the best interests of the School of Business and of T. C. U. It will serve as a training unit for future civic and business leaders and foster closer relationships between college students and the business world.

Meliorist Club Has Hallowe'en Party

Apple bobbing, fortune telling and spooks in various forms were in order last night at the Meliorist Club Hallowe'en party. All weird events took place in the Gymnasium.

Committees in charge of arrangements included: Games, Miss Mary Ruth Scott, Paul Kennedy, Melvin Dacus and Dunny Sims; decorations, Miss Ruth Hardy, Miss Mary Dee Rowland and Harry Rex Davis; refreshments, Miss Nellross Hiestler, J. P. Baze and Karl Shirley; publicity, Lloyd Stevens, Miss Orma Lee Shelton and Miss Velma Poole; music, Dick Jay and Arthur Army; clean-up Dunny Sims and Burton Roosa.

New Recording Club Elects Officers

The Recording Research Club, a music study club, was organized Tuesday morning. The club was formerly called Francis MacMillian Club.

Meetings will be held every two weeks at 1:15 p. m. on Monday, beginning Nov. 18 in Prof. Claude Sammis's studio.

Programs of the records to be played will be printed and posted on the bulletin boards before each meeting.

Officers who were elected for this year are: Miss Jeanette Hopkins, president; Miss Evelyn Woolley, vice-president; Miss Jane Adams, secretary-treasurer; and Julius Winkler, business manager.

Varieties Show Lauds Locals

A number by "Knocky" Parker, "boogie-woogie" pianist, and a new arrangement by George Campbell will highlight Sunday's Musical Varieties Show, at the Fort Worth Municipal Auditorium.

Parker will be featured in a piano number called "Little Rock Getaway." Campbell's new arrangement is of the number "Old Black Jo Swing." Director Don Gillis will direct the orchestra in a composition of his own, "Stampede," from his "Panhandle Suite."

Others featured will be Cody Sandifer, former student, who will play drums in a drum feature number, Gail Laughton, swing harpist, and Red Stanley, vocalist.

According to Gillis, an audience of 2600 was present last Sunday. "This was a marvelous attendance, and we will this Sunday be producing our sixth edition of the Varieties, when we thought there would be only one," he says.

Walker's Sermon to Be On "Victorious Living"

"To Live Victoriously is to die triumphantly."

This quotation will be given meaning in the sermon by the Rev. Granville Walker Sunday morning entitled, "Resources for Victorious Living." The anthem will carry the theme, "Blessed Jesus, We Are Here," by Dvorak.

Evensong will feature Miss Jeanette Hopkins singing, "God Will Wipe Away All Tears," by Rob Roy Peery. The message of the evening is to be "The Christian Way."

Midsemester Exam Grades To Be Sent Home by Nov. 25

"All midsemester examinations must be over by Nov. 14," Registrar S. W. Hutton has announced. "Grades must be in the registrar's office by Nov. 18 and they will be mailed to the student's homes by Nov. 25," he added.

"Teachers will give the exams at their own discretion just so they comply with the Nov. 14 deadline," Hutton says.

Miss Yokley Recovering From Appendectomy

Miss Sydna Yokley is recovering from an emergency appendectomy in Cook Memorial Hospital. She became ill after attending the T. C. U.-Tulsa football game and was operated upon Sunday night.

Misses Peggy Green and Connie Barbour will have five guests in Jarvis Hall this week-end. They are Misses Bobbie Jo Bradford, Kate Jones, Tommie Mitchell and Helen Fay Morton of Baylor University, and Miss Dorothy Westerman of N. T. S. T. C.

Miss Lillian Earl Mahan from Ennis will be the guest of Miss Elizabeth Story for the football game tomorrow.

Miss Sara Neville of T. S. C. W. spent last week-end with Miss Beverly Thaxton of Jarvis Hall.

Miss Lillian Walker of Palestine will visit Miss Frances Stevens this week-end and attend the Baylor game.

Miss Ruth McKissick attended the home-coming of Weatherford College last week-end.

Mrs. Munroe Veale of Breckenridge visited her daughter, Mozelle, the past week.

David Handy, freshman, visited his brother, a sophomore at Texas A. & M. last week-end.

Miss Jeannie Ayres of Paris, Tex., will visit her sister, Mary Alice, this week-end.

Glee Club Takes 'Six Year Man' For Quite a Ride

Running Director W. J. Marsh a close second in the number of consecutive years in the T. C. U. Men's Glee Club is Colby D. Hall, Jr. This will be his sixth straight season with the club.

During this time he estimates that he has spent more than three months on tours, not counting the numerous short trips the club has made.

Hall has traveled almost 10,000 miles with the club, including the New York World's Fair tour in 1939. He was president of the club that year.

HAPPENINGS ON THE HILL

By MILDRED SMITH

There is an old saying that when the cat's away the mice will play. This certainly proved true in more ways than one the past week-end, especially from HOBBY STUCK'S corner. He ribbed BOB JOHNSTON about going to Tulsa and claimed to have a date with JEAN RAPHAEL. When he got back, what should he find but BOB stepping out with GEORGIA LEWIS. And here's where the rub comes in. HOBBY is supposed to be taking care of GEORGIA for former student GEORGE STROUD. But HOBBY should cry. He had a good time in Tulsa with a N. T. S. T. C. girl.

Still more about the Tulsa trip. ELMO WEBB was trying to forget a quarrel with the one and only. Was doing a pretty good job too. He and ROGER NEELY got on a ferris wheel in Davis, Okla., and the thing broke down. They rode for at least an hour (on one ticket).

There was still plenty going on in Fort Worth, my scouts report. The C. of C. had a private party Friday night. EX-Student BILL PATTON came over for it and to see HELEN HALE. There was the usual crowd. I'll give you fifteen guesses. Right the first time.

TOM MORRISSEY had hard luck Saturday. Had a wreck in his car, then went out with BURNS CROTTY and had another collision. J. B. CASON showed up at the C. of C. party with LIZ FIELDS.

That's enough of that for the present. BETTY BECKHAM, who is supposed to go steady with a boy in Austin, will be visited by a little Aggie in the near future.

That dance Saturday night really must have been something. At least for LUKE SIMMS and WEBB WALKER. One of the two is reported having run off with the other's date. Ex-Student JIMMY McGALLIARD dropped off for the dance on the way to California to a job with the Douglas Aircraft. WILSON BAUGH and COURTNEY WRIGHT came late to the dance.

DUANE KELLAM went to Wichita Falls the past week-end supposedly to visit his aunt and uncle. Could be something else, but as yet I don't know her name.

Have you ever noticed just how much VERNIE BARBER, the avid Roosevelt supporter, looks like Wendell L. Willkie? Take a gander sometime when his hair's not combed.

Parting job: Will someone take it upon themselves to educate DOTTIE STUBBS? She is going around trying to find out why they don't feed chocolate to cows so they will give chocolate milk. And CHARLIE PRIOR says he has some STUBBS down in his throat poisoning his system. Isn't that awful?

Miss Mary Jane McKay of Dallas will visit Miss Jean Walker this week-end, and attend the Baylor-T. C. U. game.

2 Frosh Uniforms Termed 'Project' By Director Gillis

After having dickered with half of the tent and awning companies in the state, Band Director Don Gillis announces that he has received uniforms for his two "Big Boys," Curtis Kinnimouth and Jack Whitehurst. "We've had 'em ordered since the first day of school," sighs Gillis.

"I wouldn't risk a guess on how many men and women were employed on the 'project' of making the uniforms, but I understand there's a heck of a boom on in the textile industry!"

Curtis is a trombone player, and Jack is the boy whom spectators have trouble telling from his bass horn (Jack admits that even he gets a little confused himself at times.)

Gibson Girls Make Tour Of Chest Agencies

Mrs. Henry Bowden took the girls residing at Gibson House on a tour of Community Chest Agencies yesterday.

They visited the Light House, the Baby Hospital, and others.

On their return they attended a tea at Gibson House.

Those present were Misses Dorothy Heard, Margaret Ramage, Irene Arnold, Ruth McKissick, Harriet Runge, Clada May Jones, Martha Singer and Jean Lightfoot.

Miss Mary Jane McKay of Dallas will visit Miss Jean Walker this week-end, and attend the Baylor-T. C. U. game.

Frog Band Will Display New Formation at Game

In keeping with the presentation of the junior class band sweetheart at tomorrow's game, the band will form a big heart on the field during the ceremonies.

According to Director Don Gillis, the band will play several new numbers.

Gillis "scouted" the Baylor band at the Baylor-A. & M. game last week-end, and reports that Baylor has a very good organization this year.

'True Art of Singing' On Brite Chapel Program

From tin-pan key "histing" to true gospel singing! This will be included in the discussion of the true art of singing when Registrar S. W. Hutton speaks to Brite chapel at 11 o'clock this morning in the Brite Club Room.

The occasion is the monthly educational program, of which Eulis Hill is chairman.

Secondary Course in CAA Continues Registration

"The primary C. A. A. course is now full and we are working on the secondary course registration," Dean Colby D. Hall reports.

The last three registrants are J. W. Mosely, Robert James Tuohy, and Carbin West Hubbard, Jr.

"The class is progressing rapidly and several of the students are soloing," the dean says.

James Phillips, former student, is author of the book, "The Inheritors," which went on sale here Monday. The book is written under the pen name of Phillip Atlee.

Phillips dedicated his book to Miss Lorraine Sherley, who helped him with the book while he was a student here.

Bob Belzner, editor of the 1938 Horned Frog, is now working in Sherman as a chemist for Kimball Milling Company.

Water Boy Needs Assistant To Carry Out Varied Duties

Although known generally as the water boy, the student manager of the football team has many more duties and tasks than just carrying water to the team. In fact, one boy can not manage the squad by himself, and so an assistant is employed to aid him.

Preston Thompson, student manager, and LeRoy Schell, assistant, find it a hard job taking care of the boys.

The title of manager also covers the titles of doctor, trainer, financier, and all round laborer. Five days a week their work consists of carrying two 250 pound boxes full of head-gears, up and down the hill to the practice field, shagging balls, keeping the players full of water, and acting as official in the scrimmages.

On the home game days they have to see that everything is in readiness for the game, get all the equipment on the field and easily at hand, and the head manager has to keep the time of all players that play in the game.

When on road trips, it is the job of the manager to keep track of all the players so that none are left at any of the stops. He and the trainer have to do all the packing of the equipment and see that nothing is left in another town when the team leaves.

President Waits to Speak To Longview Ex-Students

President E. M. Waits will be the guest speaker at the regional meeting of the East Texas Ex-Students Association meeting Monday night in Longview.

Mrs. I. B. Hale, Ted Brown and Sidney Latham are in charge of the meeting which will be a dinner. Ex-students from several east Texas towns will attend the meeting and plans for attending Homecoming Nov. 16 will be discussed.

Timothy Club Preachers To Be Barker, Snowden

Preaching from Texas and Florida will be contrasted at 7 o'clock Monday night when Claude Snowden, Texas, and Aaron Barker, native of Florida, will preach at Timothy Club. Frank Ward is to give the devotional.

The second monthly social is to be held shortly and plans for it will be discussed at the meeting.

THE WAY TO MORE SMOKING PLEASURE

Today, more than ever, people are taking to Chesterfield because Chesterfield concentrates on the important things in smoking. You smoke Chesterfields and find them cool and pleasant. You light one after another, and they really taste better. You buy pack after pack, and find them definitely milder.

For complete smoking satisfaction you can't buy a better cigarette
