

Editorially Speaking

By V. G. SMYLLIE

The Student Council-sponsored drive for more adequate lighting in the Library reaches a climax Thursday when trustees of the University convene for their annual meeting. At that time a Council committee will place the facts involved before the board, together with material and reports gathered during the past months. The fate of the drive will then rest in the hands of the trustees.

In these last few days before the settling of the lighting question, each student in Frogland can contribute in two ways to making the drive a success—

(1.) By signing the petition now being circulated by presidents of campus organizations to urge the trustees to act favorably on the matter.

(2.) By "taking it up" with fellow students, and not hesitating to voice an opinion when the matter is mentioned.

Mark down The Skiff as being in favor of the conversion of the Little Gym into a student union building. For years, such a center has been one of Frogland's most urgent needs. It is to be hoped that the relatively small financial barrier will not prove to be a stumbling block in the path of this effort to make the Purple campus a better place on which to go to school.

A move that will undoubtedly result in better financial returns from dances was effected this week by the Council when it voted to hold advance ticket sales.

This should result in a noticeable increase in sales, and also serve as an excellent medium of publicity for hops.

We haven't forgotten the traffic hazard.

That in front of the campus exits.

We've just been awed for the past two weeks.

By all the pedestrians the speedsters have missed.

Editorially speaking, this corner believes that those murmurings now being heard to the effect that T. C. U. should once again sponsor a lecture series are well warranted.

The Council and administrative officials would do well to ponder the proposal to levy a blanket tax of two or three dollars per student each year to finance the series.

And as a parting thought—Those students who hit golf balls, play catch, et cetera on the front campus apparently don't intend to let any grass grow under their feet.

'Representative' Selection Soon

Skiff to Start 1941 Search For Leaders

For the fifth consecutive year, The Skiff will soon launch its search for the "Most Representative" student in each department of the University.

The contest was inaugurated in 1937 as a means of rewarding outstanding students for extra work, added study and an increased amount of interest in their major department.

Interest in the affair has grown to such an extent that approximately 20 departments are now involved. Those included are the departments of art, Bible, biology and geology, chemistry, economics, government, history, home economics, journalism, mathematics, modern languages, music, philosophy and psychology, physical education, physics, public speaking and sociology, and the schools of business and education.

The "Most Representative" student is usually that rare campus specimen—a favorite of both the faculty and the students. The contest is conducted on the elective basis, with majors in each department voting. Only juniors and seniors are eligible for the honors, and they must be approved by the head of their major department.

Four of last year's winners are still undergraduates and are thus eligible for re-election. They are: Carl Poll, economics; Miss Adale Reiger, modern languages; Miss Ceville Moore, public speaking, and Don Ver Duin, sociology.

Complete rules for the contest and information regarding the dates of the voting will be announced later.

B. C. B. to Stress 'Fellowship'

"The Wider Fellowship" is the theme to be observed during February in the Brite College chapel services.

At 11 o'clock this morning the speaker at the chapel will be G. B. Winston, executive secretary of McDonald Junior Branch of the Y. M. C. A., which is a negro organization. Special music will be brought by the quartet from I. M. Terrell High School.

Next Friday a Jew from Germany will speak, and the following week G. A. Walls of the local Presbyterian Mexican Mission will address the group.

"These special services are for the purpose of emphasizing wider fellowship among racial, social and religious groups," says Dr. William V. Roosa.

Plans are completed for a series of four pre-Easter services Dr. Kelly O'Neill will be the speaker on each of these Fridays.

Varsity Show Cast Advertises

Junior C. of C., Rotary Club Sample Show

Last minute changes in the Varsity Show have already begun to appear. Miss Virginia Wilson is being given the role Miss Laura Jones had as "Mazie" and Miss Wilson's part in the waltz is being taken by Miss Martha Mellown. The solo number Miss Wilson had is being taken by Miss Betty Beckham.

A part of the cast performed for the Junior Chamber of Commerce at their luncheon Wednesday, and the same group is showing before the Rotary Club today. . . . The jungle scene and several songs will be on the programs.

The T. C. U. Chamber of Commerce had 850 bumper signs printed to publicize the show. These are available at the bookstore.

Title Still Doubtful

There is some discussions as to the title to be given this year's show. The title will be announced later. Tickets will go on sale Monday. The reserved seats are 85 cents and all other seats will be 55 cents. Anyone who wishes to buy or knows of a sale may get tickets from any member of the T. C. U. Chamber of Commerce.

The first act of the show ends with the cast enroute to Lima, Peru. One plane of explorers and another plane of pursuing females. In act two, scene one, the group has arrived in Peru and are in a hotel lobby there. Arrangements are being made for hotel rooms for Judy (Ruth Priest) and Becky (Floyce Baily), and to show them the true South American way of entertaining they have hired a gigolo played by George Hamilton.

Comedy and Rhythm

In the second scene of act two the "Professor," played by Billy Jennings, and Mazie make their first appearance together. They supply the comedy for this scene. As they are about to leave the night club, Judy, Becky and Ramon, the gigolo, enter. These three are talking and Ramon discovers that the party is looking for the 'lost race.'

He tells them that there is no 'lost race,' then promises to help them produce a 'lost race' by enlisting his relatives to form a fake race that will fool the explorers. When this is decided they all leave and the scene ends.

Pro-Arte String Quartet To Play Gillis Composition

The Pro-Arte String Quartet will play the "Quintet for Piano and Strings," by Don Gillis, tonight at the Woman's Club. Robert Louis Massingham will be soloist.

Dan Wray Named Frosh President

Class of 1944 Elects Towles, Glasscock, Hill

Dan Wray became president of the freshman class for the spring semester Wednesday by defeating Marshall Mason in a 47-to-42 vote. Johnny Haggard received 14 write-in ballots.

Miss Shirley Glasscock retained her position as secretary-treasurer by a 68-to-37 victory over Miss Virginia Williams.

George Towles was re-elected Student Council representative by defeating Frank Benton, 69-to-35.

In the sophomore election Monday Carter Murphy was elected councilman at large to replace A. J. Huffman, who has left school.

Also Monday the Juniors elected Miss Maxine Shaw secretary-treasurer, to fill the position vacated by Miss Marjorie Stevenson, who is no longer in school.

T. C. U. Budget To Be Decided

Board of Trustees Will Hear President's Report, Make Plans for '41-'42.

The Board of Trustees will make out the budget for the coming year and will hear the report of President E. M. Waits at the annual meeting Thursday.

The president's report will include the reports of each of the department heads. The report of the business and registrar's office will also be heard.

The meeting will be held in President Waits' office. R. H. Foster is president and Dean Colby D. Hall is secretary of the board.

The following day, the Brite College of the Bible Board of Trustees will meet. J. C. Brite is president and Dr. L. D. Anderson is secretary.

Debaters to Hold Tryouts For Pacific Coast Tour

Try-outs for the designation of members of the traveling debate squad will be held Sunday. Those selected will represent T. C. U. on a tour to the Pacific coast in April.

The following members of the debate squad will try out: Arthur Norred, W. R. Rucker, Rufus Garrett, Davis Ervin, Guy Murphree, G. L. Robertson, Bobby Newkirk and Ernest Finney.

Orator Norred Talks His Way To Debate Fame

'Tis said that women talk more than men. Presented as a doubt to this statement is Arthur Norred, junior from Fort Worth. Arthur is always talking. . . .

Before you jump to conclusions, the explanation is that Arthur is one of the T. C. U. debaters.

He's not only a debater, but holds the presidency of the Frog Forensic Fraternity as well.

While in Paschal High School, he was a member of their championship debate team. Last fall he won individual speaking honors at the San Marcos Forensic Tournament and the University of Texas Meet.

Arthur's major is government, history his minor. Although eligible for graduation this June, he has decided to extend his course of study and graduate with the class of '42.

T. C. U.'s Traveling Teacher—O'Neill Journeys 500 Miles Weekly to Teach One Class

Francis Bacon once said, "Travel is a part of education." The Rev. Kelly O'Neill, Texas Christian University's traveling professor, puts this idea into practice as he makes his weekly journey from Oklahoma City to Fort Worth to teach a class in "Church Administration."

"Surely, I'll be glad to answer any questions," said the amiable Rev. O'Neill, "but we will have to do it in a hurry, because I'm fixing to leave for my return journey."

The little Irish minister, who stands a few inches over five feet, had just finished his regular Friday class and was preparing for his return trip to Oklahoma City, where he is pastor at the Crown Heights Christian Church. "No, it is not true that I frequently travel to Fort Worth by airplane for my class," he laughingly said, "but it's a good idea and I might try it."

Most of his journeys are made by train. He leaves Oklahoma City at midnight and arrives in Fort Worth the next morning in time for his class.

"I drove down in my car this week," he said. "I frequently do that, but I find that there is less danger from cotton trucks on the railroad."

It seems that the Rev. Mr. O'Neill once had a collision with a cotton truck, while on his way to Fort Worth.

Picking up his brief case and his gray homberg, the professor started for his automobile and the return trip home via Dallas. . . . what's a few extra miles to a man who travels 500 every week to teach one class?

"See you next week."

Students Study Race Problems

In continuing their discussion of race relations, the freshman S. C. A. discussion group, headed by Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Sherer, will have two Negro speakers at their meeting next Tuesday.

"Student Government" was explained by Dick Jay last Monday when Dr. H. R. Mundhenke's group met at Dr. Mundhenke's home.

"Race Relations" was discussed Tuesday by Prof. Clifton Oliver's group.

Field trips to be made some time in the future were planned last week by Dr. A. L. Porterfield's social service workers. The trips will be made in connection with probation work.

"Etiquette" was the topic for discussion last Thursday by Prof. Don Leonard's freshmen.

"The Racial Problem" will be the new topic for Prof. C. H. Richard's freshman group when it meets next week.

"Adjustment" was discussed Monday when Dr. W. V. Roosa's group met at Miss Nancy Cagle's home.

Former Skiff Editor Is Author of Recent Book

A former Skiff editor, Dr. Jerome Moore, A.B. '23, has recently published a book entitled "The Romancero in the Chronicle-Legend Plays of Lope de Vega."

Dr. Moore, now associate professor of foreign languages at Texas State College for Women, married the former Miss Ruby Scott, also a T. C. U. graduate.

Band Concerts Begin Tuesday

Music by Gillis, Orum To Be Featured—Miss Jackson to Be Soloist

Compositions of Don Gillis and Miss Dot Echols Orum will be featured on the program of the first of the T. C. U. Band concerts at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Auditorium.

Miss Ellen Jane Jackson will be soprano soloist. Two ensembles, the College Quartet and the Horned Frog Woodwind Quintet, will perform.

The program is titled "An Evening of Chamber Music" and will be as follows: "Three Sketches," composed by Gillis, will be played by the Woodwind Quintet; "Three Strands," by Miss Orum, will be sung by Miss Jackson; "Quartet No. 5," by Gillis, will be played by the String Quartet. The Chamber Ensemble will play "Four Moods in Three Keys."

"Three Sketches" is dedicated to Jimmy Petty and "Quartet No. 5," is dedicated to E. Clyde Whitlock. "Three Strands" is set to the poems of Miss Dorothy Parker.

Admission will be 10 cents for students and 25 cents for others.

The next concert in this fifth season's series will be an all-Bach program Feb. 26.

Ranch Days Gone---Not Forgotten!

Well, the big celebration has come and gone. For a week the campus whooped and hollered; now it's settled back to normal.

But it won't be forgotten in a hurry. All the various contests, the parade, the western show, the ranch dinner, the dances will forever be a part of T. C. U., '41.

Elmo Webb and Roger Neely are two who carry more pleasant memories of the past week with them, for they were the winners in the horseshoe pitching contest of last Friday.

Miss Nancy Keller and Bobby Miller will be remembered as having worn the first prize costumes. From now on the word "beard" will be synonymous with Billy Jennings' name, as this year proved him champion beard grower again.

Dave Wofford and Miss Katherine Kingsberry carried off the "Put Your Little Foot" honors. Miss Mary Green and Jimmy Leito claimed the same distinction in the schottische, Ronnie Brumbaugh and Miss Louise Lackland proved themselves the best square dancers.

It took a freshman to show them all how to roll a cigarette, though. From this ordeal Woody Hall emerged triumphant with first-place glory.

And the parade. What a parade! Horses, stage coaches, old-time and modern automobiles, chuck wagons, trailers! The procession was nine blocks long and looked like an old-time caravan hitting the western trail—if it hadn't been for those '41 car models. The Horned Frog Band even broke its tradition of marching in uniform, to don western regalia in honor of the occasion.

Looking back over it all, it was a grand affair. Everyone is in favor of the same next year, only more of it.

Speaking for the Chamber of Commerce, President Harold Caylor says, "Special appreciation is extended Mrs. Fay Kirkwood and Mrs. Hazel Reeves, who assisted in the parade planning; Clarence Easter and Mrs. Helen Murphy, who taught the dances; and Mrs. Georgia Harris, who served the ranch dinner. I appreciate everyone's cooperation and hope that next year's celebration will be as successful."

As a gesture of goodwill, Popper Sam Cunningham, who was invited to take place in the parade, invited the T. C. U. student body out to Crystal Springs last night to have fun and make merry.

A Suggested Fee— Why Wait
To Be or Not to Be? For a Miracle?

This week the Littlefield Ballet as well as the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra are being presented in college lecture series in Denton.

We, the students of T. C. U., cannot hope for such opportunities unless we do something about the situation ourselves.

This does not keep The Skiff from wishing and hoping for a more extensive educational series.

Here Are Fees Dad Sees

Webster defines a fee as "a payment or compensation made for services rendered."

The literary tuition includes the charge for instruction in regular classwork, matriculation fee and the privilege to attend all athletic events on the campus and various lectures throughout the year.

The Library deposit and room deposit, in the case of dormitory students, are not to be considered as fees since they are refundable.

Included in the fees paid is the publication fee, which entitles the student to a yearbook and a year's subscription to The Skiff.

A fine arts fee is also charged for special lessons in music or art.

This covers completely the list of fees which cause considerable comment among the students at the beginning of each semester.

Spring — the time when a young man's fancies turn to love. And anyone interested in Frog athletic squads turns to the loss side of the sports ledger to see how the Purple is doing.

The remedy is not to be found in sitting back and hoping for a miracle. The only intelligent solution of the problem is for the athletic department to give scholarships in these sports.

That this procedure is not an impossible myth can be seen by the fact that other conference schools have employed it and in turn have made track pay and baseball and tennis almost self-sustaining.

The Varsity Show Needs 2 "Angels"

Texas Christian University's Varsity Show for 1941 already has one "angel," but it needs another one badly.

Since prices are down this year (55 and 85 cents), with more than 3900 seats available in the Municipal Auditorium, it is obvious that the show can be a success.

Not to Be Overlooked

Ranch Week, with its blank firing, its court trial and its cowboy regalia, has come and gone for the second time—a bigger success than ever.

And what made it a success? To a large degree, the students and organizations which contributed time and energy so generously; but, to an equal degree, a more basic element—a desire on the part of students to "let their hair down" and have a carefree, good time in the realm of the supernatural.

And this desire to unfasten stiff collars and get away from scholastic tribulations is not peculiar to T. C. U.

This welcome an opportunity to expell excess energy by escaping from actualities.

Six Football Boys Enroll For Preliminary Course In Civil Pilot Training.

Among the 14 T. C. U. students already accepted for the preliminary course in the Civil Pilot Training, are six who are going to try their hand at the flying field as well as the football field.

Harmon Hightower, James Measkey, Jack Odle, Bill Ramsey, Connie Sparks and Ray Standley are enrolled along with eight other T. C. U. students and four from elsewhere.

"Three more applications have been received besides the 18 that have been accepted in the preliminary course," Dean Colby Hall says.

Others from T. C. U. taking the preliminary course are: Bill Boren, Raymond Ed Hendricks, George Hill, Harden Killian, Jr., W. A. Nance, W. F. Rankin, Jr., Jack Sikes and Eugene Ziegler.

Amusements

GENE BEECHER, the musical teacher, and his students of rhythm are still the current attraction at the DEN.

Be there when the bell rings for class any evening of the week and especially Friday, which is T. C. U. night.

See lots of your fellow classmates enjoying BEECHER'S clever and different arrangements of melodies both old and new.

Don't miss the DEN roll call!

OPEN FORUM---

Dear Editor: It seems that most of the letters written to you are all complaining about something that someone has said or something that has been done.

We want to congratulate the T. C. U. Chamber of Commerce, the members of the Ranch Week Committee, and every individual who took a part in the celebration for the fine work that was done in making the past week-end, the Ranch Week climax, such an enjoyable one.

Bob Johnston, Harold Caylor, and all the Chamber of Commerce members should feel proud over the success that their hard work brought. We have heard nothing but compliments from both young and old on the fine parade that was staged last Saturday.

T. C. U. received some good publicity and almost every student co-operated in going western in their garb. Congratulations to all and here is hoping that everyone co-operates as much in making the coming Varsity Show a success.

Dear Editor: While the efforts to gain adequate settlement of the lighting question in the library and to gain sufficient recreation facilities for the student body through remodeling the little gym are in full swing, it seems appropriate to take this opportunity to suggest another action which many of the student and faculty members of T. C. U. would like to see taken.

First may it be said that this not merely a new "something for nothing" request, but rather a change which, while it undoubtedly has its weaknesses, would seem to be sound and constructive as well as desirable and pleasant. The proposal is that next year T. C. U. institute a "five-day-week" on the campus.

Those of us would support this plan do so for the following reasons:

1. We think it practical. Either

Posin' Ain't No Pushover—TCU Art Department Could Be Taken for Greenwich Village

By HELEN RUTH VERHEYDEN

If you should wander into the T. C. U. art department, you would think you had stumbled into a Greenwich Village studio, or the basement of the Art Institute in Chicago.

Throughout the studio are plaster casts which are used in black and white pencil or charcoal drawings. They are replicas of famous statues, and you stand impressed before Angelo's "Dawn," or "David," or Greek casts of various periods.

Prof. S. P. Ziegler explains to you, if you're curious, that each of the articles in the room represent different textures—earthenware, glass, metal. Backdrops are different colors and textures, too, and there are all sorts of pots and pans and bottles.

Summer Term Begins June 3

The Summer Session will begin June 3 and end Aug. 22, according to the January Bulletin which gives the preliminary announcements.

A new course, "Reading and Guidance Workshop," will be offered for one week, June 3 to June 7, and will be under the direction of Dr. W. B. Townsend of Butler University, Indianapolis.

Other summer school courses will be offered in art, Bible, biology and geology, business administration, chemistry, economics, education, English, modern languages, history, government, mathematics, music, philosophy and psychology, physical education, physics, public speaking and sociology.

SPORTS SHOTS

By JACK BILLINGSLEY

While the Frog basketballers have five more games on their schedule, the cage season has just about drawn to a close for the Purple. All five of these contests will be played within the next 12 days. Early Monday morning Coach Brumbelow will load his 11-man squad into a bus and head for College Station, where Monday night the Frogs will attempt to wipe out that 52-to-50 loss of this week. Then the Purple moves over to Houston and engages the Rice Owls Tuesday night. Wednesday morning they hurry back to Fort Worth to prepare for an invasion from the mighty Razorbacks from the hills of Arkansas. The title-bound Hogs will be in Fort Worth Friday and Saturday. After this series, only a single game with S. M. U., on the following Tuesday, is left. The boys admit they haven't much chance against the Razorbacks, but they firmly believe they will still break into the win column against the Aggies, Owls or Pones, or all three.

Officials of the Texas Relays announced last week that Lawson Robertson, former Olympic track coach, will be honorary referee of the gigantic track and field meet to be held during early April. It is hoped that T. C. U. will be represented at that meet. The Frog tracksters haven't as yet started official workouts, but several of the candidates have begun on their own. This group is headed by Capt. P. C. Taylor, the fine distant runner. P. C. should prove one of the best milers in the conference this spring and is eager to test his speed against the star-studded field that the Texas Relays will draw. Robert Groselose, the star basketballer, is also a fine hurdler and high jumper and was the Purple's high-point man during last season. He also may enter the meet in Austin.

Activity has begun on the baseball field during the past warm afternoons. The crack of horsehide and wood can be heard as the Frog baseballers get in some pre-season training. Only the pitchers and catchers are supposed to be working out under the direction of Freshman Coach Don Looney. However, some of the outfielders and infielders can't wait and are on hand to shag flies and take their turn in batting practice. The moundsmen who are going through daily conditioning include Preston Thompson, Ross Vanderkolk, A. J. Brumbaugh, Trotter Adams and Paul Lander. The only catcher out at present is Russell Whitley. Thompson may be slow in rounding into shape as he suffered a split finger in an intramural basketball game Wednesday.

Qualifying for what appears to be the best golf team in the history of the school will begin Monday at Rockwood Golf Course. Coach Tom Prouse has a group of niblick swingers that can stand up before any collegiate group in the Southwest. Heading the list is Capt. Bobby Sikes, who has won numerous tournaments in the state. Then there's Benton Beasley, Ed Revercomb, Kyle Gillespie and Wallace Fitzgerald from last year's team. Brents Wooten, Jimmy Moore, Forrest Black and others trying out for the first time. No matter who qualifies, the Frogs will have a potent links squad on hand.

Ride 'Em, Cowgirl!— Round-Up Time Calls Louise To Saddle on Bull Head Ranch

By MARY ALLENE INGRAM
Riding in rodeos, taking part in round-ups, fox and deer hunts is no novelty to Miss Louise Moss, freshman from Llano, who returned home recently to help with the quarter-annual round-up at Bull Head Ranch. Miss Moss has owned her own cowboy outfit, horse and saddle since she was 3 years old, and has only missed riding in one round-up since she was 5. The ranch, which covers 28,000 acres, has been in the family since before the Texas Revolution. During round-up time, work starts at 4 o'clock in the morning. About six days are required to drive the cattle in from all the pastures, and another day or two is necessary for brand-

Roundballers Play 4 Tilts Next Week

Like the old maid who almost got her man, the Horned Frog cagers came within two points of winning their first conference game Monday night. However, at the end of the contest the Texas Aggies were out in front of our Frogs 52 to 50.

It was a wild and woolly scramble from the first. Both teams were unusually rough and both officials were kept busy tooting their whistles throughout the game. The Purple jumped into a quick lead and were out in front seven to four after five minutes of play. However, the Farmers, led by Bill "Jitterbug" Henderson, knotted the count at eight all and even pulled to a 10-9 lead. From then until the half the Aggies stayed in front and led 22 to 16 at the intermission.

Henderson and Bill Dawson pushed the tally to 25 to 16 soon after the second period opened. Then the Frogs began to climb slowly back into the ball game. Robert Groselose and Leonard Cannaday sparked a rally that left the score 39 to 38 with the Cadets still ahead. L. A. Monroe then canned a hard try from the free throw circle to put the Purple out in front for the first time in the second half. However, the lead was short lived as Henderson pushed in a one-hander from far out. Buddy Barron then took charge for the Frogs and fired in three beautiful baskets within two minutes. The Aggies also kept scoring and the score was 52 to 48 with only one minute to play. Monroe and Floppy Blackmon sank free throws, but the Farmers froze the ball during the remaining seconds. Henderson and Dawson led the scoring with 12 points each. Barron made 11 for the Frogs, while Groselose and Billingsley rang up nine each.

However, the Purple cagers will have four more chances to break into the victory column. Probably their best chance will come Monday night when the Frog squad meets the Aggies at College Station.

Tuesday the Frogs journey to Houston to play a final engagement with the Rice Owls and Friday and Saturday nights they remain in Fort Worth to close their season and meet the potent Arkansas quintet.

The hapless Frogs ran into their sixth conference defeat in Austin Saturday night at the hands of the Texas Longhorns. The final score was 58 to 39. The Steers jumped into a huge lead in the opening minutes and were never in danger. Capt. Chester Granville paced the Texas team in the first half drive by firing in 10 points. However, in the second half he was held to two points by Ralph Tankersley, Frog defensive ace.

The Purple starting five were never able to hit their stride and were on the short end of a 39 to 16 score at the half. Coach Mike Brumbelow sent his "second" team into the fray at the start of the second half and this quintet looked much better. At one time these boys whittled the score down to within 13 points of the Steers. Dennis Tankersley paced this drive and was high point man for the Frogs with seven points. Four other Frogs rang up six points. Tommy Nelms took scoring honors for the Longhorns with 12 points.

Mrs. J. O. Shelburne from Virginia, aunt of Miss Elizabeth Shelburne, visited here last week.

Leo Moore of Electra visited his daughter, Joan, Wednesday.

Dare-Devil Dutch Defies Disaster In Diamond Duel

"I have never been scared but once in an athletic encounter in my life." Those were the words of Coach L. R. "Dutch" Meyer as he sat on the Gymnasium steps after giving some pitching pointers to several T. C. U. baseball hurlers.

"That one time came," he continued, "when I was pitching for Sulphur Springs and we were playing Greenville on their home grounds. We had knocked Bob Neyland, now head coach of Tennessee University, out of the box and their relief hurler insisted on pitching a 'mudball.' That is, he put mud on the baseball so it would give an extra hop.

"We finally agreed to this if I could pitch an 'emeryball.' With that I roughed up a ball with a little piece of brick I found and the game went on. The first pitch I threw the batter swung at and the ball hopped up and nearly hit him in the face. I still believe that I was more scared than the batter who had missed completely.

"The Greenville fans then began to line up on the field shouting, 'We're going to get you when this game is over.' By the way they shouted I believed them, too. With that I noticed one board missing out of the center field fence and I decided then that if they came for me there was going to be a new exit made in that fence.

"Neither team got a loud foul for the rest of the game, but when it was over the fans had calmed down and no trouble was started. Yes, sir, when those fans got hot under the collar, though, I was plenty scared and ready to leave that park."

With that the Dutchman grinned, wondered if he was going to be sore from the pitching he had done that afternoon and left the Gymnasium to get a haircut.

Swim Squad To Work Out

Team's Initial Practice Today—Fry to Instruct Divers, Mooring to Coach.

Frogland's swimming team will take to the pool at 1 o'clock this afternoon for the initial workout of the year under the direction of Jack Fry, who will be diving instructor, and Scott Mooring, who will handle the swimming instruction.

"Everyone interested in swimming is eligible to try out for the squad and should see me at the Gymnasium as soon as possible," says Mooring. Reporting for workouts today will be Walter Miller, Fry, Bill Padon, Harden Killian, Homer Baughman and Lloyd Stevens.

If a strong squad can be assembled there will be meets scheduled with several of the Southwest Conference schools.

"With a little interest we can form a good team that will give plenty of worry. Everyone has the same chance," says Coach Mooring.

Miss Dora Louise Cockrell, came today from Missouri to spend several days with her mother, Mrs. Dura-Brokaw Cockrell.

Miss Leslie Lewis and Miss Claire Nell Gleason spent Sunday in Wichita Falls.

Baseballers Start Training

Six Pitchers 'Winding Up' For '41 Season

Moundsmen for the 1941 edition of the Frog baseball team started workouts this week under the direction of Coach Walter Roach.

The Purple nine has only one letterman returning to the pitcher's box this season, Preston Thompson. However, Thompson will have plenty of support from Ross Vanderkolk, another letterman who earned his "T" at third base, Trotter Adams, A. J. Brumbaugh, Paul Lander and Jack Billingsley.

Billingsley, the only southpaw on the mound, has good control and should be a great asset to the Frog diamond squad.

Several warm-up games are being contemplated but as yet no definite information has been received. The official conference schedule, however, is complete, as follows:

- March 28—S. M. U., Dallas
- March 29—S. M. U., Dallas
- April 4—Texas, Fort Worth
- April 5—Texas, Fort Worth
- April 9—Rice, Fort Worth
- April 13—Baylor, Waco
- April 15—Baylor, Waco
- April 19—Texas, Austin
- April 21—Texas, Austin
- April 22—S. M. U., Fort Worth
- April 26—A. & M., College Station
- May 1—Rice, Houston

League Champs Clash March 7

The Red League roundballers enter their two-out-of-three playoff between the Sophs and the Seniors next Wednesday, to determine which quintet will play the Blue League champs March 7 for the Intramural Open House championship.

The Seniors won the right to enter the playoff by defeating the Frosh 45 to 8, while the Sophs won a 23-to-15 victory over the Juniors.

In the Blue League, a strong Junior squad canned a 45-to-33 victory over the hustling Parson five. Immediately following this game, the Sophs and Seniors battled it out in what might be called the championship game on the schedule, as the winner is expected to win the Blue League pennant. The Sophs won the thriller by the narrow margin of 23 to 21.

The Antiques dropped their tilt with the Frosh 23 to 31 in the battle for the cellar spot.

A genuine golden glove is awarded the winner of the contests that decide the campus champs in their respective weight divisions.

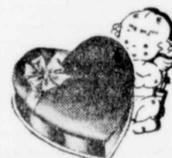

Workouts for the pugilists will start next week under the direction of Jo Thompson and all entrants should report to him at the Gymnasium as soon as possible.

Those who have signed up include Richard Allen, Eugene Minor, Bob Milling, Bill Heslop, Johnny Covanes, Jo Thompson, Blair Kirkpatrick, Aaron Barker and Darrell Palmer.

Vice Versa Dance Nears, So Grab Your Partner

By MILDRED SMITH

Now that Ranch Week and its strenuous activities are gone, the student body is looking forward to the next major event on the campus—the vice-versa dance. So all the girls are, or should be, making their dates and saving their nickles and dimes to show the boys a good time.

There are two schools of thought on this idea. One that the girls now have a chance to show the boys how it feels to wait until 6 o'clock Saturday night to be asked for a date for 8:30 o'clock the same evening. Then there is the idea that the girls have a chance to repay the boy who has been nicest to her during the other part of the year. Both have their good points.

But there is still another reason why the vice-versa dances usually go over so well. For an entire year the girls have been waiting for the chance to show a little independence toward the "stronger" sex, and at this time they have the opportunity. Only one time a year can a girl do as she pleases with no thought of causing eyebrows to be raised.

Of course, the dance will put many a boy in hot water, especially those boys who always stagg the dances. But usually these are the ones who are asked first, which doesn't seem quite right, because after the vice-versa affair, they will go back to their old tricks and leave "Jane" to get to the campus activities with someone else, or the best way she can. But that is enough of that for one time.

Now for the Varsity Show and its progress. There has been some argument as to whether the show shall be called "The Lost Race" or "Truth is Stranger Than Fiction," but the title is a minor part of the production. The elaborate scenes will be something to look at with wonder.

The plot this year is more connected, which should make for more entertainment on the whole. One of the major interests in the show is the expectation of the students of George Campbell's new tunes. All are hoping that they will be just as good as those of last year. Janie Womple's song is to be featured, too.

The cast for the show is having difficulties. They nearly freeze to death in their scant costumes when they go out to the Municipal Auditorium to rehearse or to have pictures made. But all these things will be ironed out, and we will be looking forward to a successful Varsity Show of 1941.

Just one more thing. Spring has come, and the new fashions are hitting the campus with full force. Maybe we'll have something new to talk about for awhile now.

Parting Shot: Girls, make your plans now to attend the vice-versa dance, 'cause the boys are being dated up fast! (Oh, yeah?)

Coeds to Be Guests At Cadets' Dance

"All girls are urged to go to this affair, for there will be refreshments and dancing. It promises to be a lovely evening of entertainment," says Mrs. Helen W. Murphy.

Killing of Wolves Was Progenitor Of Valentine's Day

Lupercalia, an ancient Roman festival named after lupus, a wolf, seems to have been one of the legendary beginnings of St. Valentine's Day. Back in the days when Rome was a city walled in, the wolves came around at night and howled. While this generation may think that anything short of having wolves at your door is all right, the Romans hated this. Therefore, once a year they went out and slew great numbers of them.

Thus the festival, held in the early spring, came to be called Lupercalia, from lupus, a wolf. After these wolves were slain, there were huge celebrations, no doubt replete with wolf steak and stew galore.

Gradually this festival began to be mixed up with the custom of choosing one's partner for the year. This custom was held at the same time and was confused with the older custom of wolf-killing but the latter apparently died out. While many moderns will question the possibility of mixing two such different customs, still there are features common to both if you look closely enough at today's ways.

Then during the Middle Ages the English people revived the celebration in honor of bishop Valentine who was born in Umbria in February. However, the festival seems to have had little real connection with the good bishop except his name. Then in the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth centuries all of the literary wits wrote verses for this occasion. Even Shakespeare, in Hamlet has Ophelia say,

"Good morrow, 'tis Saint Valentine's day,

All in the morning betime,
And I, a maid at your window,
To be your Valentine."

In later years the English people have given this holiday up, but we Americans still keep it in spite of our vaunted modernism. Perhaps you don't get that beribboned, belaced, pink and white valentine with the cherubs, the painted figures, and the extremely tender sentiments that Grandfather sent to Grandmother back in the 1880's, but you still send out cards beseeching people to be your valentine for that year.

Maybe the catch is that we don't expect anyone to be quite that faithful for a whole year, at least not on the campus.

Mixed Chorus, Band To Be on Lions' Program

"Your Flag and Mine," and the "Soldiers' Chorus" from Faust will be sung by the T. C. U. Mixed Chorus in combination with three other singing groups at Will Rogers Coliseum Thursday on a program sponsored by the Fort Worth Lions Club.

The whole choral group includes the O. L. V. Chorus, the First Presbyterian Church Choir, Swift's Choral Club and the T. C. U. Mixed Chorus making a total of more than 200 voices. Don Gillis and the Horned Frog Band will play the accompaniment," says Director W. J. Marsh.

This mass chorus will also lead the audience in singing "God Bless America" on the program, which is the coronation ceremony for Tarrant County's "most nearly perfect baby," following a free clinic elimination contest sponsored by Fort Worth organizations including the Lions Club.

She's Just "Mrs. J"— "Girls Are My Hobby!" Says Mrs. F. L. Johnson

By MARY LOUISE JORDAN

To many people on the campus she is Mrs. F. L. Johnson, but she is known as just "Mrs. J." to the residents of Tomlinson House. Speaking with a soft southern accent in a motherly fashion, Mrs. Johnson mothers "her girls," as she calls them. She has been Tomlinson house mother for four years.

Besides rearing three daughters, graduates of T. C. U., Baylor and

T. S. C. W., she has much of her spare time taken up by her grandson, Gordon Baskett. Her T. C. U. daughter, Kathryn, A.B. 1940, is now teaching at Itasca. The others live in New York City.

Fort Worth is just one of the many cities where Mrs. Johnson has lived. Her other "home towns" are Dallas, Waco, Corpus Christi, San Angelo, San Marcos, San Antonio and New York.

For all her moving around, she has become more than adept in the art of cooking and sewing.

"It's just like having your own mother to sew on your buttons or make your birthday cake," say Tance Neal, Florrie Buckingham, Elizabeth Ann Fields, and all the Tomlinson girls. They claim that her middle name is "Be-in-by-11-girls!" "Mrs. J." never goes to sleep until all her girls are in, and she shares many of the secrets of their "bull sessions."

A member of the University Baptist Church, Mrs. Johnson is an integral part of the Missionary Society. She is very fond of reading and driving, and thinks nothing of hopping into her Plymouth and taking off for Pecos to see her sister.

When asked what her hobby is, Mrs. Johnson replied, "Girls are my main hobby!"

HAPPENINGS ON THE HILL

By Betty Williams

On the heels of Ranch Week and exams, the Varsity Show, with only about three weeks to go is having "big doings" in the little Gym every night. The boys who will appear in the waltz number were brought in the other night, and really learned their routine fast, according to Director Maria Domina. In the group were footballers KYLE GILLESPIE, WOODY ADAMS, LEONARD PUGH, BILLY BLACKSTONE and WATER BOY ROGER NEELY, besides BOB JOHNSTON, ROSS COVEY and about eight more. JOHNNY "TARZAN" ELSTRAND will dance with VIRGINIA ROBERSON . . . while BILLY goes on with SAMMIE MARIE COOK . . . after the rehearsals, GUY HOLT is often found waiting for MARTHA MELLOWN, and FLO ALEXANDER has an admirer, who used to go to Paschal with her at the door.

At a picture-taking spree last week, all the Varsity Show cast was seen freezing to death in the Municipal Auditorium, as they posed in costumes and practice clothes . . . MARGARET HELEN PYRON, in white shorts, posed glamorously . . . RUTH PRIEST, as the American heiress posed in the dress she wore to the Presentation Ball, then changed to another evening dress . . . PAT WINN got so cold she had to wrap up in the curtain, while JIMMY MOORE posed in two bath towels, then donned his makinaw . . . all the waiters were comparing chill bumps . . . MARTHA had her back padded where it was raw from being picked up in the adagio number . . . she posed with NANCY KELLER, whose feet were blue with the cold . . . FLOYCE BAILEY quipped, "You don't mean we can really go home when the rehearsal finally ended."

RANCH WEEK left several reminders this year after the smoke from blanks and Bull Durham had all cleared away . . . witness the mustaches of BILLY AMOS and BILLYE JENNINGS . . . the boots and the colds from riding in the parade . . . but it was better than ever, and plenty of credit goes to C. of C.
