The Skipper Sez ---

By MARGARET RAMAGE

FABLE OF THE FIRST EDITOR
Once upon an ancient time
When sea folk ruled the earth,
The first editor was elected,
Twas Master Turtle for his worth.

Softshelled and easily led was he,
With pride in each direction,
"The Salty Sheetrock" was his own!
No thought came of correction.

But one fine day a fish swam by,
And with a hurt intent,
Canceled his subscription
Since his name was not in print.

The next week other cries arose:
"We want more space!" wailed they,
"Why don't you smear the paper red?"

"Explain that news delay!"
"I don't see why you printed that!"
"My story must go in!"
"No, we did not give you the facts—Imagination is no sin!"

"If I'm impersonal," pleaded Turtle,
I hear 'it's hardened mush!"
And if I try to be sincere
They say I have a crush!"

"Am I to be sincere or not?"
Poor Turtle pondered how!
"But if I can be a success, Please, someone, tell me now!"

Just then Seagod appeared to him,
"Each time you fill the cup
With bitter draught, there's strength within,
You're learning to grow up!"

"But to be sure that you will live,
Your head you may draw in Within a hard shell and kind heart
When critics raids begin."

And so since that first ancient time
These habits never part:
Each editor tries his best to be Modest, hard-shelled, kind of heart.

'Christian Priorities' To Be Gresham's Topic Sunday

"Christian Priorities" will be the subject of the Rev. Perry Gresham at the University Christian Church services
Sunday morning.

The organ interlude will be "Intermezzo" from the third Sonata, by Borowski. The processional hymn will be "Lo, My Shepherd's Hand Divine," by Haydn. The offertory

At Evensong, Mrs. Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus will give an organ recital. Her selections will include "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan; "Andante," from sonata number six, by Mozart;
"When Thou Art Near," by Bach.

The Rev. Mr. Gresham's evening sermon will be "We Get Discouraged." Musical reflections will be "Evensong," by Schumann. Also at this service, Melvin Dacus will sing a solo,
"O Lord, Have Mercy," by Mendelsohn.

Sammis Elected President Of Texas Music Teachers

Prof. Claude Sammis has been elected president of the Texas Music Teachers' Association, succeeding Clyde J. Garrett of the N. T. A. C. fine arts department. Prof. Sammis has been a member of the association for 10 years and served as first vice-president of the group before his election as president.

The state convention will be in Fort Worth June 15-18.

Ampersand Will Sell
Mums for Aggie Game

Ampersand will sell chrysanthemums from 9 to 12 o'clock tomorrow morning in the main hall of the Administration Building. Small mums for 50 cents and large ones for $1 will be on sale.

"Boys, be loyal! Buy your girl friend a white mum with purple and white ribbons to wear at the game tomorrow," urges Miss Gerry Sharp, Ampersand president.

AMBASSADORS OF GOOD WILL

who last week personally invited the A. & M. student body to attend tomorrow's football classic were Miss Lois Jeanne Cayce, standing in front with the Aggies' head yell leader, J. O. Alexander, and from left to right, Marshall Mason, Harden Killian, Miss Shirley Hall, Joe Timmons, Miss Ann Hutton and Prof. C. H. Richards.

Student Train To 'Hit' Austin

"Special" to Leave at 6:30 a. m.—Frog Fans
Have Choice on Return

The stampede that is scheduled to hit Austin for the Texas University game Nov. 15 will arrive at the capital on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad.

Traffic Manager Moore of the railroad company spoke to the Student Council last week and expressed the conviction that the defense program would not delay transportation, except in emergency, in which case he believes that regular train facilities can be secured.

Frogland rooters will leave at 6:30
a. m. Saturday and will pull into the Austin station at 11 a. m. that day.

Game tickets will be at the regular student rates of $1.10. A victory dance "for whom it may concern" will be held Saturday night.

For those not remaining for the dance, the train will leave at 7:30 p.
m. and arrive in Fort Worth shortly after midnight, at 12:25 a. m. Sunday.

Trains leave Austin daily at 10:30
a. m. and 3:55 p. m. The latest train leaves at 1:30 a. m. Monday, putting the late comers back in Fort Worth at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning in time for classes.

T. C. U. was the first football commitment and has first choice ahead of all other colleges and high schools.
"I will see that the student body gets down to Austin, even if by a magician's stunt," grinned Mr. Moore.

Pres. Sadler to Speak
At BSU Meeting Oct. 27

Pres. M. E. Sadler will be the speaker at the Baptist Student Union meeting Oct. 27 in Brite Chapel.

From today through Sunday, T. C.
U. is being represented by Miss Wilma Rutherford, Nat. Wilson, Jr., and Miss Mary Lou Jordan at the 23rd annual state B. S. U. convention in Austin.

String Choir Will Give
First Recital in Auditorium

"The Modern String Choir will present its first recital at 8 p. m. Oct.
29 in the Auditorium," says Prof.
Claude Sammis, organizer of the group. "The program will include light instrumental and solo numbers, and the complete list will be announced next week."

Second Formal to Feature Leon Breeden's New Band

Come one and come all dancers! Jive on down tomorrow night and be on hand at 9 p. m. sharp when Leon Breeden's Orchestra, a new band on the campus, gives the down beat at the second formal dance of the fall season.

"Breeden and His Suave Swing" are the most recent creation of good music in the Miller style. Sweet notes, perfect harmony and lilting rhythm are the keynotes of the band. Tomorrow night they will give all of the visiting Aggies a taste of music, T. C. U. style.

With new arrangements by George Campbell, on which the orchestra has been working night and day, with feature artists such as the girl vocalist, Nancy Jo Nolte, with energy, pep and vitality, this new band will be "something different, something new."

Tariff for swinging to and fro to the tunes, jiving, or what have you, will be $1 per couple plus 10 cents federal tax.

Streamers of purple and white, and maroon and white will be used for decorations.

"This dance will be the biggest thing in two years, much bigger than the Prom," says Dance Manager George Towles.

"Official groups have been sent to Denton and to A. & M., and have extended invitations to them to come and join us. So let's all be there and show them some of that good old T. C. U. spirit!"

'The Advancing Church'
To Be Topic at Convention

"The Advancing Church" will be the general topic at the district convention of Christian Churches, to be held at the University Christian Church next Wednesday.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. E. M.
Waits will talk on T. C. U. After a layman's banquet at 6 o'clock that evening, Dean Colby D. Hall will preach on "Advancing the Church Through Fellowship." The service closes with communion.

The Rev. W. H. Woolard, pastor of the Boulevard Christian Church, is district president. He will be assisted by Prof. W. A. Welsh in planning the program.

Freshman Class Sponsor
To Be Elected Monday

A meeting of three boards who are participating in the Emergency Millions Campaign will be held this morning in Brite Chapel. The boards were from the State Society, Woman's Missionary Society, and Religious Education.

All ministerial students and faculty members of Brite College attended.

'42 Favorites To Be Named Wednesday

Presentation Ball Scheduled
For Dec. 13—Editor Requests
Annual Pictures Be Made.

Celebrities for the Presentation
Ball Dec. 13 and for the 1942 Horned Frog will be nominated in the classrooms at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

These class favorites will be chosen by the entire student body this year, with each student naming a boy and a girl from each class.

The Presentation Ball date has been definitely scheduled for Dec. 13.
At the meeting of the Student Council Monday night, George Towles, dance manager, in charge of setting dates of dances, discussed the matter with the Council and was instructed to speak in behalf of the Council in setting the date.

"Inasmuch as the Horned Frog will stress informality in student life, snapshots of campus capers will be welcomed at any and all times," stress
Snapshot Men Karl Shirley, David McKee and Dunny Sims.

"Speaking of pictures," interrupts Editor Harry Rex Davis—between drawing cartoons and planning lay-outs, "Organ's Studio isn't over-swamped with students having their pictures made. No one need be afraid to smile for the birdie."

Band Will Give
Frogs 'Vitamin B'
At Aggie Game

While the Aggies and Froggies take their breathing spells Saturday, the Horned Frog band will take over with two new arrangements and several new numbers.

George Campbell's new arrangement of "The Volga Boatman" is said to be a solid tender. To balance the menu, Don Gillis' original tune, "The Vitamin B Blues," will be introduced.

Certain tunes that have been popular with the students in past seasons cannot be played this year because of the A. S. C. A. P. fracas with B.
M. I. The game will be broadcast, and band selections will be picked up from time to time.

The band will make a guest appearance at an Optimist Club meeting today.

Kay Kyser, of the College of Musical Knowledge fame, led the band in several numbers during an appearance at the national defense program at the Cotton Bowl Sunday. A part of the State Fair celebration, the program featured bands from the majority of colleges and high schools in the Southwest.

In competition with these bands, the Horned Frogs were chosen to give a special drill.

Leon Breeden and George Campbell are working on four new arrangements for the Baylor game.

Rally to See Style Show

Freshman Football Players
To Model Latest Clothes
For All Campus Occasions

A style show featuring the freshman football players, will be the main event at the giant pre-Aggie pep rally at 7 o'clock Friday night in the Basketball Gymnasium.

Tom Barber will be master-of-ceremonies when the Wogs model the latest clothes.

Head Yell Leader Jo Thompson promises this will be the biggest pep rally in the history of the school.
New yells will be learned and the seating arrangement for the T. C. U.
students will be explained. Talks will be given by members of the team.

As a climax for the students to "let go" with enthusiasm, the student body will go downtown for a snake dance.

"Everybody who can, bring a car and plan to make a lot of noise. We may be outnumbered in yelling, but we can yell LOUD!" screamed Thompson.

Hobgoblins and superstitions haunted the S. C. A. Cabinet meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. R.
Mundhenke Tuesday night as the members looked ahead to the all-S.
C. A. hallowe'en party scheduled to be held Oct. 31 in the Basketball Gymnasium.

"On this occasion there will be games and music, all conducive to a spooky and merry time," promises President Joe Timmons.

Nov. 19 has been set for the S.C.A. chapel day program. Robert C. Mackie, general secretary of the World Student Christian Federation, has been invited to speak at that time.
Plans are also under way by which
Mr. Mackie may speak to the S.C.A. group.

A luncheon cabinet meeting has been set for 12 o'clock Tuesday noon, Nov. 4. A vice-president will be elected at that time to take the place of Joe Timmons who ascended to the presidency in the absence of Dick Jay.

Miss Marie Seaberry and Timmons, councilmen of the North Texas area,
are making plans to attend the area council meeting in Dallas in November.

'Goal of the Ministry'
To Be Homiletic Subject

"The Goal of the Ministry" will be the subject of discussion at the weekly Homiletic Guild luncheon
Tuesday in the "Y" room.

Jimmy Duvall and Marshall Masters spoke on this same subject at the group's last meeting.

Prof. Charles R. Sherer,
Father Recuperating

Prof. Charles R. Sherer is recuperating at the Methodist Hospital after a major operation of last week.

Prof. Sherer's father fell in the hospital and suffered a brain concussion. Both are reported to be improving.

Total Registration of 1508 Slightly Under Last Year's

Total registration has now reached 1508, according to Registrar S. W.
Hutton. This includes both day school and Evening College enrollment.

In spite of the national decrease in college students, this is only slightly under last year's registration.

At 9 p. m. the second formal of the year will be held in the Basketball Gymnasium, honoring A. & M.
Decorations of purple and white and maroon and white streamers will be used. Leon Breeden's orchestra will play to a capacity crowd of T. C. U.
students, Aggies, and T. S. C. W.
girls. A dance for A. & M. exes will be held at the Hotel Texas.

At the half, the T. C. U. band will form a marching star, which is converted into an "A. & M." and then a "T. C. U." on the football field. Miss Dorothy Bryant, band sweetheart, marches with the band on the field.

The A. & M. Band, one of the best-drilled in the nation, will form a huge "T. C. U." on one end of the field and an "A. & M." on the other.
Then it makes a "T. S. C. W." and an "A. & M." which meet at an angle. Through the angle marches Miss Ashe, Aggie sweetheart, with her corps of honor.

Fort Worth Girl Is "Sweetheart"

Miss Ashe is a Fort Worth girl and a sophomore at T. S. C. W. She will occupy a place of honor in the reviewing stand for the morning parade. Her escort is Tom Gillis, colonel of the cadet corps, also of Fort Worth. Bob Russell, major of the A. & M. band, will present her with flowers between halves.

Gillis is the first cadet colonel to lead the corps parade in the city in which he resides.

Miss Peggy Fite and Miss Dorothy Bryant are on the hospitality committee of the department stores to welcome T. S. C. W. girls when they arrive in town. Also on the committee is Miss Mary Margaret Mc-Carthy, a former T. C. U. student who was Aggie sweetheart at the Aggie-S. M. U. game in Dallas last year.

Speech is Free And So Are We

"College students make a lot of unnecessary noise, sometimes."

At least that was one criticism overheard concerning a recent student-faculty committee meeting to consider the seating arrangement for the Aggie game. Unless it can be considered unnecessary to defend rights presumably accorded the students under a student body form of government, that criticism is not valid.

In certain other sections of this turbulent world, the word "student" connotes rabble-rouser, and radical. When there is unrest and discontent concerning politics or economics in these countries, particularly Spain, groups of students can be found, wide-eyed and shouting, at the head of protesting mobs.

In totalitarian countries, students subscribe to the theory of survival of the fittest. From their ranks will come the future Hitlers and Mussolinis.

In fact, wherever there is youth, there is enthusiasm. The most important thing to consider is the outlet for that enthusiasm.

Instead of being too critical of American college students and their campus reform movements, one may well rejoice that they let off steam in passive pursuits.

Have You Heard This One—?

Have you heard the story behind that immortal football game with A. & M. in 1927, when T. C. U. tied the Aggies the year A. & M. won the championship. Do you know about the time Sammy Baugh's friends framed up on him in the Cafeteria to embarrass him? Or the story of the player who started the T. C. U.-A. & M. jinx by kicking a field goal and winning the game?

If you aren't familiar with the folklore, tall tales and anecdotes about T. C. U. athletes, you've missed one of the most interesting things about T. C. U. Your football heroes—the Davy O'Briens and Cy Lelands—have left stories behind that have become campus legends. Maybe they happened that way, and maybe there was a little added in the telling, or perhaps they're just something that should have happened, but you have them.

Out of these tall tales comes the color that adds to T. C. U.'s richness of background and tradition and helps make you realize what a great place it is.

Football or Turkey?

Choosing between Turkey dinner with Mom and Pop and seeing the Horned Frogs clash with the Mustangs from S. M. U. again becomes one of Frogland's student problems.

Everybody from the president to the governor to T. C. U. has agreed to celebrate Nov. 27 as Thanksgiving. The Smu game is Saturday, Nov. 29. So there will hardly be time for that trip home and back before the kick-off at that final game of the season which will also be Homecoming Day.

It has been a long time since the homefolks had a visit, but then it's only once a year that T. C. U. plays S. M. U. a game of football.

Maybe the best solution to the problem would be to get Mom and Pop to take a short vacation and come down to spend the weekend in Cowtown.

Don't Ever Forget Student Council!

"Hey, freshman president and representative, are you going to every Student Council meeting this year?" asked the upperclassman as he strolled down the hall past the green caps.

And right here, Green Caps stopped to ponder the situation. They really should go, they supposed. So hurrying down the steps they just had time to make the meeting at 6:30 o'clock on a Monday evening.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. (They certainly accomplished a lot, think Green Caps.) The members are allowed to criticize the minutes, but of course no one does.

"Old business and new business." . . . Green Caps were all eyes, eagerly watching parliamentary procedure.

Class representatives who have been chosen . . . Why, that refers to them! Greenies sat up straight and tried to look important!

More business . . . vote completed.

Dances! Is there to be one and when? The dance manager gives the financial report of the last hop. This council works like clockwork, officially, too.

Council chapel programs. Two each semester! The students and administration certainly must respect the student government on THIS campus!

Improvement of the campus buildings. This Council thinks of future generations, rather than selfish motives.

Discussions, questions, answers, motions made, seconded, voting, decisions. Official and concise. And the Council is adjourned.

Green Caps' initiation is complete. The Student Council meets in behalf of the entire student body.

Certainly they will attend every meeting!

Students Rate Their Teachers

At Harvard University, the Crimson annually puts out a 25-cent booklet called "Confidential Guide to Freshman Courses." This publication rates professors and their courses, meeting out both praise and blame. Teachers have often been known to change their subject plans and grading because of the comment in the booklet.

Remarks are sharply critical and to the point, such as, "French F. Avoid it if you possibly can."

One, presenting both good and bad qualities, says, "History I. Cram, star of the staff, gives you an inspiring workout if you are up to it. . . Thompson, dull in section meetings, is better in conference, a ruthless marker. This candid booklet, while difficult for the professors, helps prevent their becoming stale and dull, or dictatorial, or even too easy on the students.

The teachers' grades express an opinion of the students receiving them. Such a service as this gives the students an opportunity to express their opinions in turn, in what amounts to a pertinent grading of the teachers.

All section meetings will be open to students.

Student Council Communique

An almost perfect attendance was recorded at the Student Council meeting Monday night. Roll call is being held each week now.

Discussion of the dance situation was the principal topic during the session. George Towles reminded the Council of the A. & M. dance for tomorrow night, when Leon Breeden and his orchestra will play.

Harry Rex Davis asked for Dec. 13 as the date to set for the Presentation Ball when the Horned Frog favorites will appear.

Towles, who sets the dance dates, asked the Council for discussion on the question and was asked to speak in behalf of the Council as he saw fit. The date was granted.

David McKee, president of the Junior class, was promised the privilege of choosing the spring date for the dance to be given by the Junior class in order to raise funds for the Junior-Senior banquet.

An election committee to include Miss Lois Jeanne Cayce, Miss Shirley Hall, Joe Timmons and Weems Dykes was appointed.

Letters were read from A. & M. and T. S. C. W., thanking the Council for the invitation extended in person at each of the two schools last week.

Explanation of the tax that must be levied at all dances hereafter, was given in a letter from the Internal Revenue Office.

The chapel program, given by the Council Wednesday, was discussed at the Monday night meeting.

Dr. H. R. Mundhenke is acting Student Council sponsor in the absence of Prof. Charles R. Sherer.

ILLTOPICS
By Virginia Tomme and Lois Jeanne Cayce

If you see a lot of worn out shoes and new gray hairs on the campus, they are a result of the nerve-wracking game with Indiana last Saturday.

As this week-end rolls around, many Frogland hearts will be turned over to uniforms. Among them is MARTHA ANNE CARROLL.

ED HENNERSDORF is another who has been called by Uncle Sam . . . Dallas, though we hate to say it, attracted several Froggies over the week-end, RUTH MORRISON reported a swell time there.

SUE CONNERS from Ohio has pictures of some 75 famous orchestra leaders on the walls of her Jarvis room. These pictures are personally inscribed to her since she has met the musicians at a dance hall her father owns. That's doing all right, we'd say.

No, Alcatraz hasn't taken over the campus—that's merely the hair styling of upperclassmen which is being modeled by freshman boys. BARBARA BUNDOCK is consoling PETE CLIFTON over his shaved head.

Show-Time

There's a midnight show on tonight! "Shadows on the Stairs" shows at 11:30 p. m. at the PARKWAY Theater. This is the second regular Friday midnight movie.

It is a bundle of joy in the shape of a parachute in which Bette Davis lands in "The Bride Came C. O. D." James Cagney is as efficient in looking after the poor little rich girl. The PARKWAY Theater shows it Sunday and Monday.

With a technicolor background of the Arkansas hills, superstition and romance take interests in the filming of Harold Bell Wright's book, "Shepherd of the Hills." John Wayne, Betty Field, Harry Carey, and Marjorie Main are the main characters in this movie coming to the TIVOLI Theater Sunday and Monday.

The HOLLYWOOD Theater features Robert Montgomery and Irene Dunne in "Unfinished Business," beginning today. The story is that of a playboy New Yorker who finds himself married to a beautiful girl who is in love with his brother. Complications and comedy make the picture a success.

LOUISE LEWIS of T. W. C. to all the dances here. What's wrong with the home girls, CLIFTON?

If you think a lot of flies are attracted to honey, you ought to see how many boys are attracted to pretty BEVERLY BOSWELL as she sketches on the campus. Among them are BEECHER MONTGOMERY, DICK HADEN and many others.

"Still going strong" romances: PAT WINNE and REX CULBERSON, ex; NATALIE HOUTCHENS and TROTTER ADAMS; RONNIE BRUMBAUGH and JEAN TEW, of N. T. S. T. C.; JUDGE DICKSON and BUDDY BARRON.

A cute freshman couple are BETTY WILLIAMSON and WHITEY COX. She's Jean's sister.

Attention, JACK PARKER! Why don't you ask LOUISE LACKLAND for another date? We like the combination.

The heart of CAROL BUSH, transfer from Monticello College, belongs very definitely to BILL RILEY, brother of JACK.

VERSE Or Worse

By David McKee

Word reaches us that the Army has made a new rank for Dick Jay—Jaybird, one rank below Yardbird.

Oh, my only love has left me,
Oh, he said he loved me dear,
Oh! I hear some one behind me!
Oh, my gosh! Are you still here?

Time was when love was new,
But then Adam and Eve got old too,
Humor:
"I wish we could stop all this fighting,
Instead of just stopping the lead."
Just then a shell came and called him by name.
He laughed at his joke and fell dead.

Chapel Notes for Girls:
Men to reap,
Get things over, get things done, Help them get their uh-sleep.

Chapel Notes for Boys:
There'll be no chance for sweet romance
This week—perhaps some other,
But be free-lance, Bird-dog the dance,
Or, maybe, bring your mother!

Then there was the crowd that gathered around the Big Gym, thinking there was going to be a Barfire, "B" for Buildings! Keep 'em rollin', Froggies!

HIGHLIGHTS

By Duane Kellam

An air of tenseness hangs over the campus today as the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University clear the deck for some fancy fighting with the Texas Aggies at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The largest crowd to witness a battle in the Purple bowl since the '35 S. M. U.-T. C. U. "Rose Bowl game" will be on hand to see the game of the week in the Southwest Conference pennant race. It's a sell-out.

Just what does A. & M. have? That's what every Frog in Frog-land would like to know—especially the coaches.

The mighty Aggies are undefeated in three starts, as are the Frogs. Though the Ag opponents haven't been as tough as the Frog foes, any team that can roll up such impressive scores is bound to have a fine ball club, no matter how weak the opposition.

If pre-game predictions are true, it won't make a lot of difference where the T. C. U. students sit because they'll be standing most of the time anyway.

Billy Blackstone, injured first-string center, is unlikely to see any action at all tomorrow. A. C. "Red" Odell and James Woodfin will be given the difficult task of carrying on for the Hearne boy. Neither Odell nor Woodfin have a great amount of experience but both lads are great ball players and are expected to do a good job against the Farmers.

Odell, who will start at the center slot, is a rugged line-backer and as fast as any center ought to be. He played some fine defensive ball in Indiana.

Billy says that the Aggies have him jinxed. He's never had a chance to play again them. Last season "Jug" broke his leg in a scrimmage session a week before the A. & M. battle. Last week he picked up a twisted knee from being clipped by one of the Hoosier boys.

Indiana fans liked the way Kyle Gillespie played football, if the ovation for a player when he leaves the field has anything to do with it. Kyle was "front page news" in Indiana last week and sports critics in that part of the country hailed him as a "probable all-American." We agree.

Gus Bierman, the most pleasant surprise of the bunch in the Indiana game, will likely be out of action for several weeks from the knee injury he received Saturday. Gus lugged the leather in a lethal sort of way against the Hoosiers and was one of the main cogs in the Purple offense.

Leonard Pugh, stellar guard-tackle, was out of scrimmage Tuesday and Wednesday because of food poisoning. He has been on a soup diet all week he says he never wants to see another bowl of the stuff.

The Skiff department of strategy and prediction is getting a little more confident each week and each week we crawl further out on the well known limb. This week there was a variety of opinion and the following scores resulted: Elmo Webb says the Aggies will take the tilt by a score of 14-to-13. Leroy Schell says the Aggies will take the tilt by a score of 19-to-13. Kelly will string along with the poor little Frogs. The Purple should win by a score of 14-to-7.

Miss Elizabeth Baldwin spent the week-end in the home of Miss Gerry Sharp in Vernon.

Miss Jane Chalmers visited friends in Hico last week-end.

20,000 Fans Watch Frogs Take Hoosiers

Christians Stave Off Drive In Final Minutes—Bierman, Blackstone Worst Injuries

By DUANE KELLAM

More than 20,000 Indiana fans saw why the Christians are called the Fightin' Frogs Saturday when the big Purple team plowed under the Hoosiers by a score of 20-to-14.

Indiana's Hoosiers teed off on the Frogs the first time they got possession of the ball early in the initial quarter, and drove 67 yards through the surprised T. C. U. eleven for the first tally of the afternoon. The Hoosier score was made on a long pass from Dolloway to Hillenbrand, who took the pigskin out of the air on the Frog four-yard line and out ran Kyle Gillespie and Nolan Sparks to the goal line. Hoosier Capt. Eugene White converted and the score was Indiana 7, T. C. U. 0.

Kring Makes First Score

That made the Frogs mad. Bruce Alford took the kick-off on his 21 and lugged it to the Purple 34. Then the Frogs proceeded to take the impudent Big Ten team down a notch or two by moving the ball from their own 34 to the Hoosier 27 in two pass plays. After dropping two passes incomplete, Gillespie lofted a bellingering to Frank Kring.

Phil Roach's conversion tied the score at 7-all and the Frogs ran the Hoosiers ragged for the next 45 minutes of the game.

Twice in the second quarter, the Frogs drove deep into Indiana territory only to lose the ball on fumbles.

Frogs Score Twice More

The Frogs took the second-half kick-off in the third quarter, and before the Indiana team knew what was happening, they powered the ball the land route from their own 22-yard line the length of the field and across the Hoosier double-stripe for their second tally. Roach's try for point was low and blocked, and the score stood T. C. U. 13, Indiana 7.

After the ball had exchanged hands a couple of times, Frank Medanic intercepted a pass deep in Hoosier territory and was downed on the Indiana 16-yard line. Bierman, Medanic, and Gillespie moved the ball to the 2-yard line in a carry each just as the quarter ended. On the first play of the final period Gillespie smashed through the middle for the last touchdown of the afternoon for the Frogs.

Hoosiers Cut Down Lead

Immediately after the final tally a flock of Frog subs scurried into the game. This added insult to injury and the Hoosiers got mad. They wound up on their own 33-yard line, and when they were through unwinding, they had scored and converted, and the stunned Frogs found themselves with a slim six-point lead.

The regulars were rushed back into the tilt and kept the entire gallery on their feet the last few minutes of the game with their gallant goal line stand. The big Purple team managed to stop the Indiana drive on the T. C. U. 5-yard line.

Two Receive Knee Injuries

When the badly battered Frogs began to count their injuries, they found they had paid a high price for their well earned victory. Bierman, the lad who starred at his halfback post, was barely able to walk on his injured knee. Billy Blackstone, the sparkplug of the Purple line, was also nursing a bum knee while several of the other boys were a bit groggy from a little unnecessary roughing from the Hoosier gang.

Colby D. Hall, Jr., who is doing graduate work at Northwestern University, attended the T. C. U. and Indiana game last week with his uncle, Gordon B. Hall, '08, Detroit, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Laud, English, Ind.

AGGIE SPARKPLUG is 177-pound Marshall Spivey, quarterback and signal caller for Texas A. & M. He is one of the few senior two-letter men on the Farmer squad. He is a fellow citizen of Drummond Slover, having played his high school string at Lufkin.

Injuries Hurt Wog Eleven

Seven Players Laid Up By Injuries—Oneal and Polzin Due to See Action

By ELMO WEBB

Burred heads and injuries seem to be running a close race on the Wog squad as it continued to scrimmage with the varsity during the week.

Chief set back was that of Barney Carroll, who was operated on for appendicitis. With Jimmy Castledine still limping on a bad right ankle, Jack Tackett was again moved to center to help Emmett Sherrod, the only able bodied pivot man.

Clifton Patton rehurt his shoulder in scrimmage Tuesday. Hatcher Haskins has a badly bruised leg. Clifton Caffey is still bothered with his shoulder injury and Kenny Baker, although playing outstanding ball in scrimmage, is still limping badly on his swollen ankle.

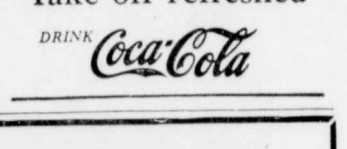

Pete Click's knee still has water on it and Speedy Johnson has left school after being told he would play no more football this season.

Horace Scott has been moved from half to fullback, and is running that position on the first string at present. Ralph Porter, mainstay of the backfield, is running tailback altogether. Billy Houtchens and Glenn Chadwick, who will play safety on defense, round out the number one backfield.

J. C. Oneal, who missed the first Wog game, has been coming around nicely at guard and will see lots of action in the Baylor game week after next. Another cheerful note is the improved play and fine hustle of big John Polzin, 250-pound tackle. He flat ran over several of the varsity blockers during pass scrimmage.

With the offense improving and those boys not injured getting in good shape the Wogs should make a more interesting and better played game out of the forthcoming Baylor Cub struggle than they did in the opener against Weatherford.

The game will be at Farrington Field Tuesday, October 28.

Ags Down Frogs 48 to 0—Ah, But That Was 1919

Extra! Extra! Aggies defeat Frogs by 48-to-0 score!

No, don't get excited! You haven't missed the game. It is still going to be played tomorrow at the Horned Frog Stadium. And these headlines were taken from a 1919 sport page, not from the Sunday paper (we hope).

Yes, indeed, A. & M. chalked up its all-time high score against the Frogs in 1919, when the team was coached by T. E. D. Hackney. That year the Purple and White only won one game, so maybe the Aggies were not as tough as the score sounds.

That was also the year Coach Dutch Meyer was lost to the team, leaving a hole at one of the ends and ruining the chances for a good season.

So, maybe the headline will be reversed this year, for the 1941 T. C. U. team has won three straight and the Dutchman would like to lick the team he couldn't play against in 1919. Anyway, lay your bets on the Frogs and come out and watch the battle.

Seniors Hit Top In Tag Football

The Senior tag footballers went well into the lead in season standings Wednesday as they trounced the Juniors with a stiff second-half offensive, winding up on the heavy end of a 19-to-14 score.

The Freshmen upset the Sophomores in the second game, 12 to 6, showing a world of defensive strength.

Seniors	4	0	.1000	92	42
Juniors	2	2	.5000	92	52

When the Horned Frogs and the Texas Aggies tangle at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the T. C. U. Stadium, the student body will see "the game of the week" in the Southwest, no matter where they are sitting.

Mighty A. & M. will bring along 6000 Aggies to lend moral support to their powerful "second half" ball club. The Farmers are undefeated in their first three starts, and in all three games they have rolled up huge scores—mostly in the second half. The Ags' first three opponents have not been first-class competition, as the scores indicate, but any team that can score like that is bound to have something.

The old cry of "We are a lot weaker because of injuries" can be heard at College Station. Remember back in '35 when S. M. U.'s injured team licked the Frogs and went to the Rose Bowl?

However, after a tough first half against N. Y. U. Saturday, the Aggies did leave the East with a lot of ailments. End Jim Sterling suffered a twisted knee, Back Tom Pickett is out with cracked ribs, and Guard Roy Bucek and several others came out with severe bruises. Most of these boys will probably be ready to play Saturday, however.

Stars in Backfield

Jackson "Jake" Webster, the lad who looked like a great ball player against N. Y. U. Saturday, Derace Moser, a left-over from Kimbrough and Co., and Marshall Spivey are the outstanding stars in the Aggie backfield.

The Maroon and White will receive plenty of good line play from Tackle Martin Ruby and Guard Robert Tullis. The ends, James Sterling and Bill "Jitterbug" Henderson, need no introduction. Everyone knows they are two of the finest in the conference.

In the Frog camp, everyone has been busy recuperating from the trip to Indiana. Lost to the Frogs tomorrow by the injury route are Billy Blackstone and Gus Bierman. As there is a plentiful supply of fine backs, Bierman will not be missed as much as the aggressive Blackstone. A. C. Odell and James Woodfin will fill in at the center post and do a good job of it, but neither have the experience of Blackstone.

Medanic to Start

In the backfield, Big Frank Medanic, the Pecos terror, has earned a starting berth since his ailing leg has healed. Nolan Sparks, who holds Harter, Bruce Alford, Phil Roach, Woodrow Adams, "Red" Odell, Capt. Bill Crawford, Bob Moss and Derrell Palmer, the foundation of the powerful Frog defense, will all be ready to go.

Khaki Lads, Denton Dolls Take Over TCU Tomorrow

By LOIS JEANE CAYCE and VIRGINIA TOMME

With a shine on their shoes, and a line if they choose, some 5400 khaki-clad Aggies will invade Frogland tomorrow with a reserve of about 1000 T. S. C. W. girls. WOW!

Led by the A. & M. "Sweetheart," brown-eyed brunet Anna Ruth Ashe, competition with those Denton dolls will run high as they'll be out to show everybody the latest styles for collegiate wear.

After a day of shouting, boosting and rooting, give the throat muscles a chance to rest and let the "dogs" have their day. Yes-sirree, Leon Breeden's orchestra will be swinging to sweet strains tomorrow night at the usual starting mark of 9 o'clock.

Three hours of genuine good time are promised to all who attend. Breeden's orchestra, though new, has already become widely known. Composed of several Froggies, it's that orchestra you liked so well in chapel Wednesday. Remember?

Along with football spirit comes that chrysanthemum scent. Keep up the white mum tradition and pin one on your shoulder. If the boy friend doesn't take the hint from this column, go out and purchase one yourself!

Invitation committees have been liberal with welcome signs at T. C. U. If the Aggies and their Denton sisters respond accordingly, there will be plenty of happy visitors on the Hill.

A. & M. as usual will present a gigantic spectacle at the Horned Frog Stadium. Their enormous cheering unit and band are both famous.

All that's left to make the scene complete is for the T. C. U. co-ed to don a purple dress, purchase a white mum tied with purple and white and shout till she is purple in the face.

School spirit has hit a new peak and, from all indications, tomorrow is ONE day that should be circled on the football and social calendar. What do you think?

"All this and heaven too," sighed the green-capped co-ed as she gazed across the stadium to the east stand filled with Aggies and a smattering of TSCW. Then Old McDonald came to town to see the game and sang "An Aggie here, an Aggie there, here an Aggie, there an Aggie, etc." Which all adds up to the game to be played here tomorrow.

YEAH
You all have tried driving out of the parking field after a game, but you ain't seen nuthin' yet! The punishment your car will get can easily be remedied by heading it into the SCHELL and HAMILTON service station. There you get the most prompt and courteous service given on the hill. LEROY SCHELL, one-half of the company, asks that you girls be notified that if you are looking for a "CUTE KID" he can't be beat!

FROGS
BRONSON HIGH will especially adore the brown velvet two-piece suit by JON MCCAULEY at GAN'S. There are Red Corduroy ones too, the kind PATRICIA TALLEY would make a hit in. These are suits you can wear apart or together and with shirts and sweaters from GAN'S. Those Aggies won't be able to watch the game because you are so much more attractive. There is one plaid suit there that is the cutest thing in town. The plaid is red of course and the blouse and skirt may be bought separately or together. BAND SWEETHEART DOROTHY BRYANT will probably choose this one.

PLOW
There will be several minutes between the 12 o'clock class and kick-off time and BENNETT'S is just the place to spend them. You will probably find PAT PRIDDY, NELLIE PAUL or MARGARET RUNGE there sampling that new French meat dish BENNETT'S is featuring. JACK RILEY and SARA MAE SANDIFER can be found there almost any time, game or no game. And that is just the way it goes, if you are ever looking for any one your best bet will be BENNETT'S.

THROUGH
"V" may be for 'Let's win the war,' but it's also for 'Come on down the field, boys.' The place to whip up the old Fighin' Frog Spirit tonight is in the DEN of the TEXAS HOTEL. It's T. C. U. NIGHT there every Friday you know and TONY DI PARDO and his band have learned all the T. C. U. songs and every one gathers 'round to give out in grand style. Besides group-singing that may pop out any time there is a beautiful vocalizing in the form of ANNE RYAN who does a little thing to put on the things-to-keep-my-Aggie-away-from-list, but I expect you all will enjoy it very much. TONY dear children, is his rendition of "Ridin' to Glory on a Trumpet." The way he plays that trumpet is enough to guarantee him a box seat in paradise.

THOSE
It may be saying the obvious thing, but boys, you are sure going to have to become supermen over night to keep your girl this week and One sure-fire method is to call WOODY ADAMS or PHIL ROACE and order through them, from the BAKER FLORAL CO. a mum with purple and white streamers. When it arrives you can be sure she will say "MUMMMMMMMMM!" EVELYN WEISSENBORN was sporting one the other day, certainly was a beauty.

FARMERS
JO ED HILL is now the proud possessor of a pair of MEXICAN HURACHES from ANDERSON'S. It seems only fitting, and they do fit, but well, that all advocates of our good-neighbor policy patronize the STORE ACROSS the STREET. MRS. ANDERSON has got everything in the way of dorm room furnishings too.
