

Do You Want Another Vice Versa?

THE T. C. U. SKIFF

Official Student Body Publication of Texas Christian University

Congratulations, Mary Charlotte!

VOLUME 40 2733

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1942

NUMBER 27

350 Cast Votes in Election to Name Sims, Moudy, Faris Student Officers

Misses Cayce, Tomme Are Editors Elect of T. C. U. Skiff, Horned Frog--Student Council Places Go to Hardy, Mills, Allen, Waldron, Tipps--Mason, Hall, Westapher, Bundock, Williams to Lead Yells

By MARGARET RAMAGE

The storm is past, the halls are cleared of propaganda and back-slapping is useless, for spring elections are now a matter of record.

Approximately 350 students cast ballots at the polls Wednesday to elect student body officers, two editors, a business manager, five councilmen (with a run-off for Place 6), a head yell leader and four assistants. Seven of these places were secured without opposition.

Dunlap Augustus Sims, better known as "Dunny," junior parson from Paint Rock, will pound the gavel as president of the student body.

"I wish to express my appreciation to all the candidates for their co-operation in the use of the bulletin boards during their election campaigns," says Registrar S. W. Hutton.

Representatives were sent to Mr. Hutton to find what space could be used for posters, and the candidates did not use other space than that assigned.

during 1942-43. He topped his opponent, David McKee of Fort Worth, by a score of 195 to 149.

Dunny is a photographer for the Horned Frog, is editor of "The Timothy News" and sings in the Mixed Chorus. He is a member of Timothy, B.C.B., S.C.A., and Meliorist and is vice-president of the All-College Sunday School Class.

Moudy Defeats Miss Sinex
In the vice-presidential race, James ("Trumpet") Moudy, also a junior parson from Washington, D. C., came out ahead of Miss Dorothy Sinex of Fort Worth on a count of 257 and 97.

Jimmy is one of the "big basses" in the Mixed Chorus and plays trumpet solos on special programs. He finds time to be president of B.C.B. and belong to Alpha Chi, French Club, S.C.A. and Timothy. His preaching points are at Post and Wylie.

Miss Mary Charlotte Faris of Fort Worth, will keep records and call the roll at Student Council meetings next year. She was elected secretary-treasurer of the student body when voters cast 211 ballots in her favor, against 135 for Miss Betty Flo Baker of Justin.

Miss Faris is secretary-treasurer of the junior class and is a junior favorite for the 1942 Horned Frog. She is president of the Poetry Club, is in charge of the personality section of the annual and is social chairman of S.C.A. Other clubs of which she is a member include French Club, Sigma Tau Delta and Meliorist.

Skiff Editor Unopposed
At the helm of The Skiff next year will be Miss Lois Jeane Cayce, unopposed for "Skipper." Miss Cayce, a junior, is secretary-treasurer of the student body, co-society editor of The Skiff and is in charge of the class sections of the Horned Frog. She is vice-president of the Dana Press

Catalog to Be Completed by Last Week of April

The proof on the regular fall catalog will go out today, says Registrar S. W. Hutton. The catalog will be completed probably the last week in April.

The summer catalog is ready for the printer.

John Byron Cason, '41, Killed in Plane Crash

John Byron Cason, B.S., '41, was killed last week near the Corpus Christi Naval Air Base. He was attempting a forced landing in his plane. This spring he was to receive his wings. J. B. was a graduate of the School of Business and received his B.S. degree in commerce. He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

FUTURE LEADERS,

elected by the student body Wednesday were top row, Miss Virginia Williams, assistant yell leader; Ernest Allen, Place 3 on the Student Council; Derrell Tipps, Place 5 on the Council; Miss Barbara Bundock, assistant yell leader; second row, Miss Mary Charlotte Faris, secretary-treasurer of the student body; Dunny Sims, president; James Moudy, vice-president, and Marshall Mason, head yell leader.

WILLIAMS. ALLEN. TIPPS. BUNDOCK.

FARRIS. SIMMS. MOUDY. MASON.

Club, a freshman group leader in S.C.A. and is a member of the Poetry and French clubs.

Directing the work on the 1943 Horned Frog will be Miss Virginia Tomme of Fort Worth as editor, unopposed in the election. Miss Tomme is co-society editor of The Skiff and is in charge of the club section in this year's annual. She is president of the Dana Press club, vice-president of Sigma Tau Delta and a member of Alpha Chi.

LeRoy Schell of Fort Worth will handle the financial angle of the Horned Frog next year, having been elected its business manager. He received 184 votes, in contrast with the 160 tallied by his opponent, Earl ("Buster") Kirkpatrick.

Run-off for Place 6 Councilman
All but one of the Student Council members were elected. There will be a run-off for Place 6 between Horace Busby, Fort Worth, who chalked up 173 votes, and Miss Frances Armstrong, also of Fort Worth, who tallied 104. Bill Bock of New York City received 90 votes.

Places 1 and 2 went to Miss Ruth Hardy of San Antonio and Miss Marcia Mills, Fort Worth. Both were unopposed.

Ernest Allen, Jr., Fort Worth, scored a majority vote of 181 over his two opponents for Place 3. Ben White placed second with 124, with Miss Ruth Ridings running a third with 37.

For Place 4, Miss Mary Louise Waldron, Fort Worth, also tallied a majority vote. She received 205 scores against 91 for Miss Mary Lou Farmer of Fort Worth and 38 for Miss Dolores Ison from Houston.

Derrell Tipps, Haskell, freshman councilman, will return to the Council

Creative Writing Entries Must Be in by May 1

Deadline for entries in the creative writing contests is May 1. Material for these contests should be submitted to any English instructor on or before this date.

The Walter E. Bryson poetry contest, a short story contest and a freshman writing contest are the divisions to receive awards May 13 at the annual Creative Arts Day Assembly.

in Place 5 next year. He scored 207 votes over the 120 received by Jack Parker, Wichita Falls.

Mason Is Head Yell Leader
As head yell leader, Marshall Mason, Dallas, will be assisted by Bill Hall, Midland, and Clarence Westapher, Fort Worth. Each had no opponent.

Girl assistants will be Miss Virginia Williams, Dallas, who scored 169, and Miss Barbara Bundock, Fort Worth, who received 164 votes. Runners-up were Miss Martha Mellow with 143, Miss Katherine Waldron with 127 and Miss Bronson High with 57 votes.

Eight students who filed petitions were declared ineligible. These included Melvin Dacus for vice-president, Miss Shirley Hall for Place 1 on the Council, Winston Pritchard and Knox Scott for boy yell leaders, and four girl assistants: Misses Betty Bowman, Jane Connors, Geraldine McReynolds and Wilma Rutherford.

Mixed Chorus In 2 Concerts

Men's Quartet Will Be Featured on Programs For Cleburne, Olney

The Mixed Chorus, featuring the Men's Quartet, will present a concert at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the First Christian Church in Cleburne.

The Quartet, composed of Arthur Arney, Harold Atkins, Melvin Dacus and George Stephens, will sing "The Bells of Shandon," by George B. Nevins. The Chorus will be featured in several selections.

The same group will present a concert at 8 o'clock tonight in Olney. The concert will be sponsored by the city's Women's Federation of Music.

The Men's Glee Club presented a program Wednesday night at a meeting of the Men's Club of University Christian Church.

"Representative Student" Vote Begins

The voting for "Most Representative Student" is under way.

Ballots were passed out this week to 21 departments, the largest number ever to participate in the voting.

The ballot contains the names of 361 juniors and seniors who are eligible for the honor, and who will

Student Election Returns

Dunny Sims—President of the student body.

James Moudy—Vice president.

Mary Charlotte Faris—Secretary-treasurer.

Lois Jeane Cayce—Editor of The Skiff.

Virginia Tomme—Editor of The Horned Frog.

LeRoy Schell—Business manager of the annual.

Council Seats—

Place 1—Ruth Hardy.

Place 2—Marcia Mills.

Place 3—Ernest Allen.

Place 4—Mary Frances Waldron.

Place 5—Derrell Tipps.

Place 6—Undetermined.

Marshall Mason—Head yell leader.

Bill Hall, Clarence Westapher—Boy assistants.

Barbara Bundock, Virginia Williams—Girl assistants.

4 Represent TCU at Meet

Dr. True, Norred, Newirk, Robertson Attend Pi Kappa Delta National Convention

Arthur Norred, G. L. Robertson, Bobby Newirk and Dr. C. A. True are representing the T. C. U. chapter of Pi Kappa Delta at a national convention being held in Minneapolis. The convention will close its six-day session today.

Newirk was entered in oratory and represented T. C. U. at a model legislative assembly of the convention.

Norred and Robertson entered debate contests, and Norred also participated in extempore speaking contests.

Dr. True is governor of the Province of the Lower Mississippi of Pi Kappa Delta.

Business Banquet Will Be Tonight

The annual School of Business banquet will be held at 7 o'clock tonight in the Crystal Ball Room of the Hotel Texas. Admission is $1.75 per person.

Bill Boren is to be the "Roastmaster."

Music for dancing will be furnished by Ed Daniels and his Orchestra. All of those who do not attend the banquet can come to the dance at 10 p. m. The admission for this is $1.10 a couple or stag.

The standing rule of no corsages for girls will be observed. Corsages, if worn, will be taken off and given to the "Queen," who will be announced at the banquet.

'Home Nursing' Course Will Begin Tonight

A Red Cross course in "Home Nursing" will begin at 7 o'clock this evening in the Gymnasium. The class will be taught by a trained nurse and will be open to all T. C. U. girls and faculty members.

"This course is essential to anyone who plans to go into Red Cross work or who plans to enter the nursing profession," says Mrs. Helen Murphy.

Choral Groups To Start Tour Wednesday

Men's Glee Club, Men's Quartet, Girls' Trio to Sing At Houston, Baylor-Belton

The Men's Glee Club, the Men's Quartet and the Girls' Trio will sing at 8 o'clock Wednesday night at the annual Disciples' Convention in Houston.

The group, with Prof. W. J. Marsh, director, will leave Fort Worth on a special train car at 7:30 a. m. Wednesday and will arrive in Houston about 4:30 o'clock that afternoon. There they will be the guests of the Central Christian Church during the two appearances at the convention.

Thursday morning, the group will go to Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton, where State Federation of Music Clubs will be in session. Miss Elsie Porter and George Stevens will sing in two of the contests, having won in the local contest. Both will be accompanied by Prof. Marsh.

The singers will stay overnight at the Mary Hardin-Baylor College dormitories, and at 4 p. m. Friday, the Men's Glee Club will sing in the Choral Clinic, to be held at the college. New ideas about choral work will be demonstrated by Henry Meyer of Southwestern University and Archie Jones of the University of Texas.

The annual banquet and concert of Texas composers will be held at 6 o'clock Friday night, with Prof. Marsh, chairman of the Texas Composers' Guild, presiding. At the banquet, the Men's Glee Club, the Men's Quartet and the Girls' Trio will sing.

The group will return to Fort Worth at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. "This is more than likely the only trip the club will get to make this Spring, because of war conditions," says Prof. Marsh.

"It is probable that we may not have another Men's Glee Club until the war is over."

Six Speakers Are in Contest

Contestants to Compete For Medal, $25 Reward In Auditorium Friday

Six finalists will compete in the 25th annual Gough Oratorical Contest at 8 p. m. next Friday, in the Auditorium.

Contestants and their topics are: Bill Heslop, "This Is Not Enough"; David Phillips, "Youth Looks at the World"; Bill Welsh, "Parallel Responsibilities—Today, Tomorrow: the Dead, the Living"; Arthur Norred, "Past, Present and Future"; Franklin Atkins, "Cities of Gold"; and Earl Kirkpatrick, "Do We Have Democracy?"

The first-place winner will receive a gold medal and $25 in cash. The second and third prizes will be given by the University.

Don Gillis' Suite Wins $100 Prize

Don Gillis' musical saga of West Texas, "Panhandle Suite," began paying dividends when it won first prize of $100 in a contemporary American music contest sponsored by the Young Men's Hebrew Institute Orchestra of New York City.

First written in 1935, when Gillis received his A. B. degree, it has been played frequently by the Horned Frog Band. Part of the suite was used by the band on its radio program several years ago. In 1939, it was performed by the WPA Orchestra of Dallas.

'Representative Student' Vote Begins

who are leaders in their scholastic work and departmental activities," The Skiff explained in '37.

Announcement of this year's "Representative Student" will be made by The Skiff as soon as balloting is completed and pictures secured of the 21 honored students.

Mary Charlotte Faris To Get Council Award

Miss Mary Charlotte Faris, smiling brunette, secretary of the junior class and newly elected secretary-treasurer of the student body for 1942-43, has been chosen to receive the Student Council scholarship of $50 next year. Each year, this amount is awarded to the one believed to have contributed the most to student welfare.

FARRIS.

Two weeks ago, the committees from the Council and the faculty met and made the selection. They decided to keep the vote secret until after the spring election. Those serving on the committee were Deans Herman Pittman and Elizabeth Shelburne and Prof. C. R. Sherer from the faculty and the senior councilmen, Harden Killian, Weems Dykes, Harry Rex Davis and Ros Covey.

The other two nominees for the most outstanding student of the year were Miss Lois Jeane Cayce and David McKee.

Mary Charlotte, aside from her secretaryship, is best known for being one of the favorites from the junior class for the 1942 Horned Frog. Still she finds time to preside as president of the Poetry Club, to act in plays for the Dramatic Club, arrange socials for S.C.A. and be in charge of the personalities section of the annual.

Other club memberships include Sigma Tau Delta and Meliorist. This has not been her first busy year. In fact, she was so busy last year that she was listed as one of the 10 most active students. That sophomore year, she was a group leader for S.C.A. and was secretary-treasurer of the Poetry Club, besides her membership in other clubs.

Even her freshman year was a busy one. Among the clubs she joined that first year were Meliorist, S.C.A. and Parabola.

Mary Charlotte is one of the best known personalities on the campus, enhanced by the fact that her smile and helping hand encourages many students to frequent the Library, where she is a staff member.

Her hobbies are writing poetry and planning picnics, and at either she is at her best.

She is the type of person around whom one always has a good time, perhaps because of her pet peeve, which, she says, is people who act stuck up, "and I believe in being just oneself and the best part will always

13 Journalists Attend Congress

Thirteen students from the department of journalism, accompanied by Prof. and Mrs. J. Willard Ridings, are attending the 1942 sessions of the Southwestern Journalism Congress, being held in Dallas today and tomorrow.

Outstanding newspaper men of the Southwest will speak before the Congress. The chief visiting speaker will be Palmer Hoyt, publisher of The Portland Oregonian.

Thirteen colleges and universities in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana hold membership in the Southwestern Journalism Congress.

Prof. Lester Jordan of S. M. U. is the 1942 president of the organization. Prof. Ridings is secretary-treasurer.

'Importance of God' Gresham's Topic Sunday

"The Importance of God" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Perry E. Gresham at the University Christian Church Sunday. The anthem will be "The Twenty-Third Psalm," by Schubert.

The Evenson message will be "Restored Vision." Mrs. Q. Zella Oliver Jeffus will present a Tschalkowsky organ recital. A trio, composed of Miss Mary Alice Pier, Miss Elizabeth Faguy-Cote and Miss Elaine Russell, will sing "Legende," by Tschalkowsky.

Prof. C. A. Burch will be the speaker at a Meliorist Club meeting at 8:15 p. m. Sunday.

The Young People's Class will be in charge of a coffee at 9 a. m. Sunday in Erite College for the All-College Sunday School Class.

come out." She practices what she preaches. "Mary Charlotte," comments Miss Shelburne, "has been the outstanding student of the year, not only because of her student activities, but because of the cheerfulness she radiates, making college life really worth while."

'42 Annual Due About May 15

14 Students Prepare Copy For Horned Frog—Cards To Be Exchanged for Books

All 1942 Horned Frog material probably will be submitted next week for printing, and copies of the annual will be ready for distribution about May 15 or 20, it has been announced by Harry Rex Davis, editor.

Numbered cards, which will be exchanged for annuals, are soon to be distributed in the main hall of the Administration Building.

It is still possible for students to have their names embossed on their copies for a 25-cent fee. Orders for the work may be placed with Ros Covey, David McKee, Miss Virginia Tomme or Davis.

The 1942 annual, which is bound in white, purple and copper cover, has been prepared by the following students:

Davis; editor. Covey; business manager. Miss Lois Jeane Cayce; class sections. Miss Margaret Caskey; administration and faculty. Miss Mary Charlotte Faris; personalities. Miss Mary Lou Jordan; special copy. Miss Margaret Ramage; special copy. Marshall Kemp; photographer. Dunny Sims; photographer. McKee; photographer. Miss Betty Claire Pray; society. Miss Marie Seaberry; clubs. Karl Shirley; snapshots. Miss Tomme; features.

Vice-Versa Dance May Be April 18

A Vice-Versa dance, tentatively scheduled for April 18, has been approved by the Council.

"There is a possibility however," says Harden Killian, "that the dance may not be held. We will reopen the matter for discussion at the Council meeting Monday. Unless the girls are as interested in having a Vice-Versa as they first seemed to be, the dance will not be held."

A Vice-Versa dance, tentatively scheduled for April 18, has been approved by the Council.

"There is a possibility however," says Harden Killian, "that the dance may not be held. We will reopen the matter for discussion at the Council meeting Monday. Unless the girls are as interested in having a Vice-Versa as they first seemed to be, the dance will not be held."

Climax of the Victory Book Campaign is today and tomorrow.

"Faculty members have responded well to this campaign, but we need more donations by students, of any type of books they might have," says Dr. Rebecca Smith, chairman of the campus campaign.

Depositories for the books are the Mary Couts Burnett Library, English office, education office, Jarvis Hall and the School of Business office.

Through—The Spyglass

Have You Read—
Page 1: Who were elected Wednesday? Who is to receive the Council scholarship? When the annual is due? Where the Mixed Chorus will sing? When the Vice-Versa will be?
Page 2: To whom and in what way does The Skiff pay tribute this week? What The Skiff has accomplished in past years?
Page 3: Who the Frogs are to play it baseball? Who escaped injury in a recent accident? How the Intramurals score rates?
Page 4: What takes the spotlight these days? What students took the matrimonial lead? What group will serve at the USO Center?

SKIFF EDITORIALS

John B. Cason, First Casualty

T. C. U. suffered its first personal loss in World War II last week when John B. Cason, B. S. '41, was killed, as he attempted a forced landing in his plane near the Corpus Christi Naval Air Base.

"J. B." was one of the boys who frequented the School of Business office. He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce and took part in Ranch Week last year. He had made a wide circle of friends in his 23 years and was acclaimed by them to be a "hail fellow well met."

John Byron Cason walked across the purple and white festooned stage at commencement last June to receive his Bachelor of Science in Commerce. His next diploma was to be from Uncle Sam.

Though he did not die in action over there, he gave his life for his country while in training to save it. The Skiff and T. C. U. pays tribute to the memory of John B. Cason.

War Brings Weddings Galore

Wartime 1942 has brought to this generation its generous quota of war marriages. Every time a nation goes to war, out of the dilemma comes thousands and thousands of weddings.

Maybe it's the stress of the times when youth looks to close companionship for comfort; maybe it's the glamour of the uniforms that thrills the girls or maybe it's that age-old philosophy of live today for tomorrow we may die. At any rate the war has come and so have the marriages.

There's a certain amount of romance attached to being a war bride, so the girls go headlong into these weddings with too little thought of the sadness and heartbreak that is bound to result in many cases. The fact that many of the young men who go to war will come back injured, or perhaps come back not at all, cannot be denied or ignored.

Little thought seems to be given to the generation that will be borne out of these wartime marriages. Instead, a selfish attitude is taken by those involved. They seem to think only of today, with little reflection on what the future will bring.

Maybe this attitude tends to raise morale. But will it in the long run? Will the post-war problems be more serious because of these hasty war marriages? Those which come as the result of long courtships have a more stable basis for post-war life. But those which result after whirlwind courtships which give neither the boy or the girl a chance to know one another will bring tragedy to the lives of those involved.

The war bride today is a romantic figure. Tomorrow she may be one of pity. A little more thought, a little less haste may make America's future a happier one.

Fountain to Remedy Third Floor Thirst

Puff! puff! "I've just been down to the first floor to get a drink, and the walk back upstairs makes me thirsty again," pants the student on third floor.

In a short time, this situation may be remedied. The Student Council has sent a recommendation to the administrative committee, asking that a water fountain be installed on the third floor.

Something to Gripe About?

Every year, girls howl about being in the annual spring pageant. They said it was silly, the dances were meaningless, the costumes were too expensive and could never be used again. No one would possibly want to be in a pageant if they could help it.

Everyone confessed to be overjoyed last year when there was no pageant. That was what they had always wanted.

But this year, another pageant was announced. Participation was to be entirely voluntary. So what happened? Just as many girls as usual were easily signed up for parts. They didn't fuss over the costumes, and it has taken few practices to learn their parts.

It is just another of those things that prove college wouldn't be college without something to gripe about.

Activity Points Aren't Practical

Harrassed students think that, compared to the intricacies of the rules for activity points, Einstein's theory of relativity is simple. Twenty points is the maximum any student may have, yet campus leaders invariably have more. The number of offices a student can hold is limited, but this is not checked before he runs for office.

Persons with excess points do not want the positions for prestige. They are competent persons, the few who will work dependably. They do not neglect their studies for extracurricular activities, as most of them rank high scholastically.

To solve the problem, the entire idea of points could be shelved, with students holding as many offices as they are elected to. Or, a "B" average might be required for further activities, after 20 points have been reached.

Certainly, a check on points should be made at the beginning and not the end of the school year. If clubs submitted lists of members and officers at the first of school and notified the activity committee during the year when changes were made, part of the trouble would vanish.

If a club should find it necessary to elect a new president at midyear, names of prospects could be submitted to the committee. Those with too many activity points could be declared ineligible, before the election. This would at least do away with the embarrassment of having an officer told, after he has been active some time, that he cannot hold office after all.

Fewer angry faculty members and disgruntled students would be complaining about a cumbersome system that doesn't work.

Grain of Salt Is Suggested

The wrong type of influence is exerted by college professors who try, through the advancement of so-called radical ideas in their classes, to direct student opinion. Two widely different effects are produced, varying with the degree of gullibility of the students.

One type of student, without any investigation of his own, accepts all the professor says, without challenge. Somewhere in his previous education, he has heard that the present order is leading to a H. G. Wells "Things to Come" state. He has heard that many evils exist in the present system. Thus he is led to believe that the ideas of Prof. I. M. Radical, being the direct opposite of the existing order, offer the logical solution.

Lack of information regarding the more conservative suggestions for the world of tomorrow only add to his conversion to the instructor's ideas. Often even professorial sarcasm is considered the teacher's opinion and becomes the student's "opinion."

This thoughtless reaching of conclusion could be avoided, and radical classroom remarks could be beneficial, by making the student study both sides of any question. His own opinion will result from careful weighing the advantages and disadvantages of both systems.

The other type of student also fails to benefit from the professor's proposals. Several factors cause his lack of investigation. He may already be prejudiced against any "new order." He may not understand the theories recommended. He may have no opinion of his own, and the professor may not convince him that there is a need for his study of both sides of the problems.

But the non-radical professor offers disadvantages, as well as those whose extreme doctrines easily sway the class. His rehashing of accepted dogmas does not inspire active thinking. His students, too, may not get both sides of the question.

What is needed for a clear analysis of the problems of the day and their solution is fairness-mindedness on both sides of the teacher's desk. The professor must either present both sides of any issue in his lectures or he must guide student thought into channels of discovery of all facts at issue.

The student must not jump at conclusions. Prejudice must not color his learning, for an open mind to all sides, of all problems is one step toward intelligent decisions.

Tolerance and fairness must be encouraged in the college classroom.

America Has Got the Gimmes

There's been a lot of talk lately about "America, the gimme-gimme land," and about the people who've got the "gimmes."

Unfortunately, it seems the college campus is the breeding place for these folks who've got the gimmes. It may be that most students who go to college come from rather well-to-do homes where most of their desires have been fulfilled without much effort.

There are exceptions, but the majority of students have found life very easy, with little effort needed to acquire the things they want. So, when they want something, they just say "gimme." It gets to be sort of a habit after a time and they tend to regard the word "gimmie" a substitute for a magic lamp.

This gimme-gimme idea isn't a good one. If it is firmly imbedded in the minds of the college youth of today, it will not disappear, but will grow strong and great. It will grow and grow and grow, until America will really be the Gimme-gimme Land.

It's too bad the gimmes can't be cured by scientific method. But it can't. And anything that has grown up out of the American way of life as this idea has isn't going to be cured overnight. The solution of this problem lies with the college youth of today.

A little less thought of self might help!

Uniforms, Pledges, Add-Rann Rulings T. C. U. Memories

School catalogs published during the days of Add-Ran College and young T. C. U. contain many rules and regulations which would be classed as odd and needless by students today.

Regarding students' privileges, the catalog stated that, since "the judgment of girls cannot be relied upon in making judicious purchases, all their shopping will be done under the supervision of the matron."

"Everyone is required to attend chapel daily and one regular church service, besides Sunday school, on the Lord's Day," is another stipulation. A students' "Volunteer Band" was organized originally for young men and women to meet for the purpose of devotion, an intelligent study of mission fields and for increasing missionary interest.

At one time, boys and girls on the campus had to wear uniforms. Boys were required to wear the cadet uniform of the United States Army ($13.50 was the cost of the complete outfit), while the girls attired themselves in navy blue broadcloth skirts, with lighter blue velvet waists and Oxford caps for winter, changing the velvet waists for a white shirt-waist, and Oxford cap for sailor hats in the spring. The cost of a girl's uniform usually ran about $10 or $12.

A few other unusual facts include: When Add-Ran opened its first session at Thorp Spring in the fall of 1873, 13 students enrolled the first day; average enrollment was once 350; a course in telegraphy used to be offered; voluntary military training was in order until 1912; the early catalogs listed the county from which the student came rather than his home town; students once furnished their own napkins and napkin rings in the Cafeteria; in 1914-15 there was a student, Matio de Alvarez Molina, from Valencia, Spain, enrolled in T. C. U.

Students once had to subscribe to an agreement stating, "I solemnly promise, on my truth and honor, to observe and obey all the laws of the University."

Yessiree

ERNEST ALLEN, JR., plays the piano, saxophone, clarinet, pipe organ and accordion. . . VIRGINIA TOMME was a dancer at Pioneer Palace in the summer of 1939. . . Dr. W. C. MORRO once preached in Australia. . . FLO BEHELER went to Alaska last summer on a tramp steamer. . . JANE CONNOR was rescued by rangers when lost on a mountain in Yellowstone National Park last summer. . . CONNIE FAIR-LAMB was a champion high school ping pong player in Evanston, Ill. . . LORNA CULP never had a haircut until she was 14 years old. . . RUSSELL CAVANESS collects Indian relics. . . HUB MCQUILLIAN is the first member of the Horned Frog coaching staff since Francis Schmidt left in 1934 who is not a T. C. U. graduate. . . PROF. J. R. MAC-CEO was born at sea. . . DOROTHY HARTUNG attended grade school at Thurber, now a "ghost town". . . VELMA POOLE collects costume jewelry from South America. . . PROF. C. A. BURCH has a piece of the bomb that destroyed his home in China.

There's been a lot of talk lately about "America, the gimme-gimme land," and about the people who've got the "gimmes."

Unfortunately, it seems the college campus is the breeding place for these folks who've got the gimmes. It may be that most students who go to college come from rather well-to-do homes where most of their desires have been fulfilled without much effort.

There are exceptions, but the majority of students have found life very easy, with little effort needed to acquire the things they want. So, when they want something, they just say "gimme."

It gets to be sort of a habit after a time and they tend to regard the word "gimmie" a substitute for a magic lamp.

This gimme-gimme idea isn't a good one. If it is firmly imbedded in the minds of the college youth of today, it will not disappear, but will grow strong and great. It will grow and grow and grow, until America will really be the Gimme-gimme Land.

A little less thought of self might help!

Win or Lose, Skiff Editorials Continue To Campaign for Campus Improvements

Year after year and issue after issue, the advocacy of improvement at T. C. U. continues in the editorial columns of The Skiff. Often these repeated efforts for action on some campus ill are successful; occasionally they fail.

A more successful Skiff campaign was obtaining late permission for the girls of Jarvis Hall. In an editorial stating the facts and suggesting a remedy, The Skiff moved that Jarvis girls be allowed to stay out until 12:15 a. m. on Saturday nights. The request was granted. That was as early as 1932. Not many schools were that liberal with their co-eds, and a real victory for The Skiff and T. C. U. was brought about through that action.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

Year after year and issue after issue, the advocacy of improvement at T. C. U. continues in the editorial columns of The Skiff. Often these repeated efforts for action on some campus ill are successful; occasionally they fail.

A more successful Skiff campaign was obtaining late permission for the girls of Jarvis Hall. In an editorial stating the facts and suggesting a remedy, The Skiff moved that Jarvis girls be allowed to stay out until 12:15 a. m. on Saturday nights. The request was granted. That was as early as 1932. Not many schools were that liberal with their co-eds, and a real victory for The Skiff and T. C. U. was brought about through that action.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

Year after year and issue after issue, the advocacy of improvement at T. C. U. continues in the editorial columns of The Skiff. Often these repeated efforts for action on some campus ill are successful; occasionally they fail.

A more successful Skiff campaign was obtaining late permission for the girls of Jarvis Hall. In an editorial stating the facts and suggesting a remedy, The Skiff moved that Jarvis girls be allowed to stay out until 12:15 a. m. on Saturday nights. The request was granted. That was as early as 1932. Not many schools were that liberal with their co-eds, and a real victory for The Skiff and T. C. U. was brought about through that action.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

There, too, was the time when the flag in front of the Administration Building was so worn by wind and rain that it was 6 feet shorter than it was when raised for the first time. Shortly after calling attention to the situation, The Skiff saw a new flag waving over the campus, and better care was taken of it than had been of the previous ones.

From the beginning of time, there seems to have been a campaign in progress for keeping the students from walking on the grass. At one time and another, the campus has been re-laid and signs posted, but the next fall the same situation would occur and it was all to do over again. That is one thing about a constantly changing editorial staff and a constantly changing group of readers.

In 1937, The Skiff decided that it would be appropriate for the class of '37 to present the school with a public address system. This was certainly a good idea, because the senior class was having difficulty in deciding its gift and a P. A. system was definitely needed. Before the year was out, the class of '37 brought and presented the school with a public address system, the same that is being used now.

The Skiff has suggested and, with the co-operation of the Student Council and the Administration, obtained for the students and school a yearly school directory, the Varsity Show, keeping the Library open at night, dances on the campus and a parking lot behind the Administration Building.

In more recent years, the death trap behind the Administration Building that served as the campus speedway was closed. Lighting the Library with fluorescent bulbs was a long, hard-fought battle that was begun last year by Editor V. G. Smylie and finished this year by Editor Margaret Ramage.

Now the old story is here again. The Skiff is trying to revive the interest in dances, keep the students from walking on the grass and maybe make another attempt to name the Stadium.

SPORTS

HIGHLIGHTS

By ELMO WEBB

Some day people may learn to keep their mouths shut. At least this corner will. After stating that the usual chief worry of the Frog baseball team, pitching, seemed to be solved this year, the Purple hurlers allowed 41 runs and 38 hits in three ball games. Against the Hornsby Boys, Sheppard Field and in intrasquad hits, the hurlers looked great, but something went haywire when they started meeting conference competition. Watch out, though, because they'll get started before the season is too old. Was there something said about keeping mouths shut?

When it comes to using the willow, the Frogs have not done bad themselves. In three games, they made 32 runs and gathered 36 hits. Eleven of those hits went for extra bases, four for home runs. At the request of Bruce Alford, while he is getting his share of the hits, here are the batting averages of the Frog squad.

Player	AB	R	H	Avg.
Charlie Conway	15	4	3	.200
Bill Conrad	15	4	3	.200
Lonnie Dowell	14	6	6	.429
Richard Allen	12	6	7	.583
Bruce Alford	12	4	5	.417
Bob McHenry	12	2	0	.000
Jerma Peltz	11	1	8	.727
Bob Balaban	9	2	2	.222
Bob Louder	2	0	1	.500
Eugene Willford	6	1	1	.167
Russell Whatley	3	1	1	.333
Trotter Adams	2	1	2	1.000
Max Humphreys	2	0	1	.500

Conway, Dowell, Allen and Alford have made at least one hit each game. Dowell leads in extra bases, with a double, two triples and a home run. Alford has one. Balaban has two doubles and Allen and Adams have home runs, to wind up the number of extra base knocks. McHenry is the only one with no hits. In defense of Bob, it might be said that several of his outs have been long drives or sharp liners, but each time they were right in the fielder's hands, or a beautiful running catch brought the ball into the mitt.

T. C. U. followers who saw the movie, "The Fleet's In," may have recognized an old Frog star in the news reel. It was Johnny Vaught, who is now in training to become a physical instructor in the navy, the same as Mike Brumbelow. In showing some of the coaches in the news reel, it listed Vaught at North Carolina, where he was line coach under Bear Wolf. Johnny was guard and captain of the championship Frog team of 1932.

According to the schedule, Rice may be hard to beat on the gridiron next season. Because of the war and the saving of tires, the A. & M.-Rice game has been moved to Houston. This gives Rice five conference games on its home field.

The Pacific Coast Conference has given its o. k. on the 1942 schedule of its teams. Permission from the government to have crowds of more than 5000 at any one event is still needed, however. That this permission will be given, the conference feels fairly sure. This is an important item to Frog fans, since T. C. U. opens its 1942 season with U. C. L. A. in Los Angeles.

If the Frogs should take Texas Monday, after upsetting them on the football field and taking two games on the basketball courts, Coach Walter Roach and his boys had better be careful when they journey down Austin way later in the season. After all, the Purple basketball squad nearly got mobbed by the Longhorns after whipping their team in Austin. But as long as there is a jinx started, why stop it now?

Jimmy Pattee New Head Of Chamber of Commerce

Jimmy Pattee was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce for the new year at a meeting held Wednesday morning.

Other officers elected are Doyle Monaghan, first vice-president; Ernest Allen, Jr., second vice-president; Charles D. Mays, secretary, and Harry Ward, treasurer.

A board of directors will be elected at a later date.

Jinx Battle to Be Monday at 3 P. M. Frogs to Meet Texas Longhorns Here Aggies' Power Crushes Purple

Falk's Team Is Favorite To Win Game

By ELMO WEBB

Those perennial baseball favorites, the Texas Longhorns, move into Fort Worth Monday to take on the Frogs on T. C. U. diamond at 3 p. m., weather permitting.

Coach Bibb Falk's team has won two games and lost one so far this season and are scheduled to play S. M. U. today and tomorrow in Dallas. The Aggies, behind the pitching of Charley Stevenson, who beat the Frogs before the holidays, won the opener from the Longhorns 4 to 1.

Following that set-back, the Texas boys bounced back with two victories over the Rice Owls, 9 to 6 and 10 to 5. Bill Dumke and Bob Strelsky were the winning pitchers, but both entered the game in relief roles.

Veterans on Squad

Back on the Longhorn team this year are such veterans as Jack Stone, captain and second baseman; Grady Hatton, shortstop who made the all-American semi-pro team last summer with the Waco Dons; Speedy Houpt, hard slugging first sacker who also has the makings of a fine pitcher; and Catcher Wilson Deutsch. Jack O'Reagan, sophomore, seems to be giving Deutsch a run for the catching duties however.

Sophomore Joe Randerson is holding down third base, and Clint Grell, a squadman, roams the center pasture. Various shifts have been made in the other two outfield positions.

Other members of the pitching staff are Jim Collins, Sterling Price and Charley Tankersley. Starting pitcher against the Frogs will depend on who will have to work against S. M. U. Collins or Dumke will probably be due to work here, however.

Adams Or Dowell To Start

Coach Walter Roach will start either Trotter Adams or Lonnie Dowell. Lefty did some good work before tiring against the Aggies. Richard Allen will again be at third as the Frogs take the field with the hope of keeping that T. C. U. jinx over Texas athletic teams.

The next Frog game will be April 21 in Waco against the Baylor Bears. Six out-of-town games and a make-up game with S. M. U. in Dallas will all be played before the Frogs play another home game May 8.

Bond, Flowers Escape Serious Accident Injuries

John Bond and Clyde Flowers are luckier at escaping injuries in automobile accidents than on the football field.

At least they were Monday morning, when a car collided head-on with Clyde's car two miles the other side of Quannah. John came out without a scratch or a bruise. Clyde was cut on the head and at the corner of the eye, but neither required any stitches.

Clyde's father, Calvin Flowers of Perryton, received cuts on the face and head, one cut on the nose requiring seven stitches. After receiving medical attention, he returned home, and John and Clyde came on to school.

The accident occurred when an oncoming car hit a crab, which threw it into Clyde's car.

True, Hammond to Attend Pan-American Conference

Dr. C. A. True and Dr. W. J. Hammond will attend a conference on Latin-American culture at the University of Texas Tuesday and Wednesday.

This conference is sponsored by the Institute of Latin-American Studies of the University of Texas, with the participation of the southwestern committee on Latin-American culture, the Associated Art Instructors of Texas and the Inter-American Association.

Dr. Hammond is a member of the executive committee of the southwestern committee on Latin-American culture.

Mrs. Henry Bowden, Gibson House mother, visited friends in Austin during the week-end.

Frogs to Meet Bear Tracksters

The game scheduled for Tuesday with S. M. U. was canceled because of rain. It will be played either April 27 or May 2, says Coach Walter Roach.

Cadets Grab 13 Base Hits, Four Homers

Thirteen hits, including four home runs, was too much power for the Frogs, as A. & M. won 12 to 6 on the Purple's diamond before the holidays, April 2.

Frosh Down Sophs 7 to 5 To Keep Perfect Average

In the intramural softball games played Wednesday, April 1, the Frosh retained their lead by downing the Sophs 7 to 5. They now have a perfect average, with three games won and none lost.

In the other game of the afternoon, the Seniors whipped the Juniors in a hard-fought battle, 10 to 9.

The scheduled games for Wednesday were rained out.

Homiletic Guild Discusses 'Christ's Teachings'

A discussion of "What Christ's Teaching Means to Me as an Individual" was held at a meeting of the Homiletic Guild Tuesday.

The discussion was led by Prof. W. A. Welch and George Farmer. "A similar program will be presented at a meeting of the Guild next Tuesday at noon," says Dr. W. C. Morro.

MONNIG'S
THE FRIENDLY STORE

Sketch, 14.95

GIRLS!
Wear a Pretty PASTEL from our Budget Shop!

Fresh as April showers... and designed to set you right with the world and your budget!
8.95 to 14.95
THIRD FLOOR

"Scared? Naw!" Says First CPTer To Take Solo Hop

Flying Freddie O'Donnell was the first of the current primary C. P. T. students to take that step that comes once in a pilot's career—a solo flight.

Band Scheduled For 4 Programs

Four programs in one week are lined up for the Horned Frog Band, which is to give a concert at Carter-Riverside High School today, at Polytechnic High School Wednesday and to assist in the opening of the Fort Worth baseball season by playing at La Grave Field Sunday.

Business School to Issue Employment Cards

All graduating seniors who are majors or minors of the School of Business are requested to fill out "Employment Readiness" cards today if they have not already done so.

Prof. Witt Blair to Speak To North Hi-Mount P.T.A.

Prof. Witt Blair will be the guest speaker Monday at a North Hi-Mount Elementary School P.-T. A. meeting.

Miss Shook Spent the Holidays with Miss Marguerite Gray in Crowley, La.

Miss Shook spent the holidays with Miss Marguerite Gray in Crowley, La.

T.C.U.'s Service Honor Roll

- (The following names of boys in service have come to the attention of The Skiff since the second list was published March 6. Having published three lists of boys in service, The Skiff realizes that there are still many T. C. U. men in service whose names have not appeared on any of these lists. The cooperation of everyone on the campus is needed to make this Honor Roll as complete as possible.)
- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| U. S. Army Air Corps: | Bill Hart, Fort Benning, Ga. |
| Charles Bardin, Brooks Field | Dr. Gene House |
| William Ross Bauman, Kelly Field | A. P. Lowe, Camp Polk, La. |
| Linden Binion, Tulane, Calif. | Major C. B. McKissick, Ireland |
| Stanley Blount, Randolph Field | Lieut. J. T. McKissick, Fort Mills, Philippines |
| Horace Carswell, San Angelo | Albert Klein, Camp Lee |
| W. T. Chesser, Australia | Don McLeland, Houston |
| Burns Crotty, Jones Field, Bonham | Roger McLeland, Pennsylvania |
| Joe Day, Kelly Field | Bobby C. Roberts, Fort Sill, Okla. |
| Robert Forte, Brooks Field | Leonard Rosenthal, Camp Wolters |
| Harmon Hightower, Coleman | Thomas Taylor, Hawaii |
| Byron McGinney, Randolph Field | Rufus Whitley, Camp Wolters |
| Marvin Mills, Phoenix, Ariz. | James D. Wilmeth, Camp Polk, La. |
| John Mood, Turner Field, | U. S. Navy: |
| Albany, Ga. | |
| Bill Morris, Bonham | Melvin Beavers |
| Richard Oliver | Mike Brumbelow, Norfolk, Va. |
| Walter Pridemore, San Antonio | Herman Clark, Norfolk, Va. |
| Horace Rice, Chanute Field, | Billy Halliday |
| Dave Roberts, Moffet Field, Calif. | Don Looney, Norfolk, Va. |
| C. P. Rumph, Jr., Panama Canal Zone | Carter Murphy |
| Eddie Walker | W. R. Myers, San Diego, Calif. |
| John Whittmayer, Lowry Field, | Bill O'Gara, San Diego, Calif. |
| Denver, Colo. | L. C. Pritchard, San Diego, Calif. |
| Vincent Ziegler, Merced, Calif. | Blanford Spearman, Norfolk, Va. |
| U. S. Army: | Dr. Wendell Sumner, Pensacola, Fla. |
| Benton Beasley, Camp Wolters | Ross Vanderkolk |
| Rex Beene, Camp Wolters | U. S. Marine Corps: |
| Forrest Black, Camp Davis, N. C. | Buster Adams, San Diego, Calif. |
| Byron Buckridge, Camp Wolters | U. S. Coast Guard: |
| Marvin Coleman, Fort Sill, Okla. | James Ditto |
| Lon Davis | R. C. A. F.: |
| Bill Douglas, Camp Davis, N. C. | Bill Wilson, Toronto, Canada |
| Maurice Grove, Camp Berkeley | |

I'll have a new dress from Striplings or know the reason why!!

WANTED

For VICTORY

Waste Paper
Old Rags
Scrap Metals
Old Rubber

GET IN THE SCRAP

SELL TO A COLLECTOR OR GIVE TO A CHARITY

Plays Take Spotlight On Activity "Stage"

By Lois Jeane Cayce and Virginia Tomme

The stage is set, and as the curtain of after-Easter activities rises, plays come into the spotlight.

The public will be invited to attend productions by the junior class and the Dramatic Club.

The juniors will get controversial when they give the play, "Yes and No." Dramatic Club productions will be in the villainous and comic vein when they put on "He Ain't Done Right by Nell" and "Jazz in Minuet."

Plays that have been given "free of charge" were two plays by the play production class and one by the Dramatic Club for Assembly Wednesday.

Opportunity knocks twice this year for girls to do the dating. That's right, another Vice-Versa will be given Saturday, April 8. Time and place will be from 9 to 12 p. m. in the Basketball Gymnasium.

Tariff will again be 75 cents couple or stag.

To be formal or to be informal will be decided by the coeds themselves next week. Dance Manager George Towles is still undecided as to who will furnish the music. Don't let opportunity knock without taking heed. Join the crowd, date the favorite beau or come stag and dance with them all, but come!

When spring comes, the old baseball spirit comes too, but on the campus the spectators just don't come. Why not give our baseballers a break and start them out with a home "hit" by a large attendance.

Other events to take the spotlight on the activity schedule are the freshman banquet April 25, the sophomore banquet April 27, the senior girls' tea April 21 and the annual poetry recital, the date of which will be decided soon, not to mention the numerous student recitals given in the Auditorium by music students.

Amperand Will Hold Silver Tea Monday

Senior girls and graduate women will be the honorees Monday afternoon, when Amperand holds its annual Silver Tea in Jarvis Hall. Calling hours will be from 4 to 5 o'clock.

The receiving line for the affair includes the officers: Misses Gerry Sharp, Helen Stallings, Ruth Priest and Marie Seaberry, and the sponsor, Mrs. Gayle Scott.

Mrs. Colby D. Hall and Miss Elizabeth Shelburne will pour tea. Assisting will be Misses Emogene McBride, Frances Nell McGee and Mary Simpson.

Members of the silver committee are Misses Kathleen Parker, Ethel Rae Cheatam and Evelyn Weissenborn and Mrs. Rosella Porterfield Chastant.

Campus Club to Give Dance Tomorrow

The Campus Club will give another dance from 9 to 12 o'clock tomorrow night for men in service. The dance is to be at the Elks Club.

Chaperons are: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Helm, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hester, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pier, Dr. and Mrs. Gayle Scott and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Willeford. The club sponsors, Misses Rita May Hall and Eleanor Morse, will also attend.

Two M. P.'s have also been invited to the dance.

Rosella Porterfield, Lieutenant Wed

Miss Rosella Porterfield and Lieut. Waldo J. Chastant were married Sunday in a sunrise ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Porterfield. Dr. Porterfield read the rites.

Mrs. Chastant will join her husband in Columbus, Miss., in June, after she receives her degree. He is stationed at Kaye Field.

Crawford to Wed Miss Starnes

Miss Dorothy Nell Starnes and Bill Crawford will be married at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at the Boulevard Christian Church.

Crawford will leave Monday to become a physical director in the navy.

Miss Shelton Is Wed To Ensign Zlatkovich

Miss Clara Shelton, B. S. '39, and Ensign Charles T. Zlatkovich, B. S. '38, M. B. A. '39, were married Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Shelton, 1204 Madeline Place.

B. S. U. Banquet to Use Western Theme

A western theme will be carried out at the annual Baptist Student Union banquet, which will be held with T. W. C. at 7 p. m. Saturday, April 18, at Polytechnic Baptist Church. Miss Lou Tucker, Nat Wilson and Miss Jeanne Moore are in charge of ticket sales at T. C. U. Price of tickets for the ranch style banquet is 35 cents.

Ed Carruth and Johnny Hinds comprise the program committee. Miss Ruth Taulbee and Miss Nancy Shulkey are in charge of decorations, and Misses Wilma Rutherford, Ruth Tucker and Leta Person head the food committee. Special features will be included on the program after the banquet.

"There will be a council meeting at 6:15 p. m. Monday in Brite Chapel, to make further plans for the banquet," says Miss Mary Lou Jordan, president.

Senior Girls Will Be Honorees at Tea

Senior girls will be the honorees at a tea from 4 until 5:30 p. m. Tuesday, April 21, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Sadler, 2409 Medford Court, East.

This affair is being sponsored by the Faculty Women's Club, with Mrs. Bertie Mothershead as chairman. Other members of the committee in charge are Meses. H. R. Mundhenke, Howard Grubbs, C. R. Sherer, W. J. Hammond, Leo Meyer, Claude Sammis and R. M. Rowland, and Miss Eula Lee Carter.

Invitations have been extended to 82 members of the class of '42. Also expected are 77 members of the club.

The club's officers, Meses. Artemisia Bryson, Colby D. Hall, S. W. Hutton, Ralph Garrett and Cortell Holsapple, will receive the guests.

B&PW Hear Report On Possible Officers

A report was given by the nominating committee at a business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at noon yesterday. Plans were discussed for a tea to be given for new members. The group met in Room 1 of the Administration Building.

Albrecht Will Speak To Record Society

Ten selections from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde" will be played on the 11th program of great operas, at the Recorded Musical Research Society meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Room 307, Administration Building. Miss Jean Albrecht will be the lecturer.

Miss Jo Wingo Wed To Josiah D. Ellis

Miss Jo Wingo, former student, and Josiah Dixon Ellis were married last Friday at the home of her parents in Wills Point.

Her sister, Miss Dorothy Wingo, also a former student, was maid of honor.

Bryson Club Invites 8 New Members

Eight new members, to be initiated next fall, have been voted into the Bryson Club. They are: Misses Jean Baggett, Thomasine Standley and Nancy Keller and Curley Broyles, Mike Harter, Billy Gupton, Frank Medanich and Joe Rogers.

Home Ec Members To Plan Party

Home Ec Club members will make plans for a spring party at a meeting at 11 a. m. today in the Home Economics Laboratory.

ACS Student Affiliate To Meet April 22

The student affiliate of the American Chemical Society will have a meeting April 22 at the home of Miss June Reddy, 4003 North Main Street.

Mavericks to Hold Supper Meeting

Members of the Mavericks Club will have a supper meeting at 5:30 p. m. Monday in the alcove of the Cafeteria.

Poetry Club Members To Plan Recital

The Poetry Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in Brite Club Room. Plans for a recital will be discussed.

EDITORS for the T. C. U. publications in 1942-'43 were unopposed. Studying their prospective work are Miss Lois Jeane Cayce, editor-elect of The Skiff and Miss Virginia Tomme, editor-elect of The Horned Frog.

Mrs. Voegeli Remembers Pearl Harbor—Commander's Wife Attends TCU As Husband Fights in Pacific

Mrs. Clarence Earl Voegeli, wife of Commander Voegeli, gunnery officer on an admiral's staff on a ship somewhere in the Pacific, spends much of her time as a T. C. U. student telling other curious students about her stay in Honolulu during the Pearl Harbor raid.

Mrs. Voegeli went to Honolulu about five months before the raid and spent about a month there after it, leaving on Jan. 1 with many other American wives and children who had been ordered to leave. She, along with her daughter, Virginia, 15, and her son, Fred, 12, were among one of the first large groups to be evacuated.

On that Sunday morning, Dec. 7, when the Japanese began the bombing, Mrs. Voegeli was sleeping in her home in Honolulu.

"It woke me up," she said, "but I was used to hearing target practice from there and thought nothing about it. It was while we were having breakfast that the little boy next door came over to tell us about it. It didn't seem real to us at all."

"Then we turned on the radio and heard orders being sent out for the civilians to stay in their homes and to keep all cars off the streets. From then on, Honolulu was entirely under control of the government, with the streets being patrolled day and night. The people were remarkably calm."

There was very little bombing done in Honolulu itself while Mrs. Voegeli was there. It has been reported since, however, that several buildings have been bombed, including the Roosevelt High School, which her daughter has attended, and which has undoubtedly been turned into a hospital, since all schools have been turned over to the government for such purposes.

Following her return to the United States, Mrs. Voegeli made her home in Fort Worth, where she is taking three history courses and one education course at T. C. U. She has received her A. B. degree from Goucher College in Baltimore.

Also with her here are Virginia, a student at Arlington Heights High School, and Fred, a student at Stripling Junior High School.

At present, Commander Voegeli is on a battleship somewhere in the Pacific. He keeps in touch with Mrs. Voegeli by sending her letters on ships bound for some United States port. Mrs. Voegeli tells of receiving one letter from him, in which he described a battle at sea, when the ship he was on was attacked by 18 Japanese bombers. All but two of the planes were destroyed by anti-aircraft guns. He wrote of this after he was informed that an account of the battle was being published.

Pres. Sadler to Attend Dinner in Austin Tonight

President M. E. Sadler will attend a dinner tonight honoring Dr. Eugene Campbell Barker, professor at the University of Texas. The dinner will be at the Driskill Hotel in Austin and will be given by the Texas State Historical Association.

Dr. Sadler was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the Rotary Club last Friday. He is vice-president of the club.

He spoke Wednesday night in a Religious Emphasis Week meeting in Hillsboro.

Next week, he will attend a convention of Christian Churches in Texas. The convention will be in Houston, and he will preside and speak in one of the sessions.

Jean Albrecht to Give Senior Recital Sunday

Miss Jean Albrecht will give her senior piano recital at 4 p. m. Sunday in the Auditorium. She is a pupil of Prof. Keith Mixson.

She will play compositions by Bach, Beethoven, Liszt, Chopin, Debussy and Dohnanyi.

HILLTOPICS

Current campus interest of late has been, of course, the annual spring elections. Congratulations are in order to the new student body officers, DUNNY SIMS, JIMMY MOUDY and MARY CHARLOTTE FARIS. Orchids may also be handed appropriately to the new members of the Student Council, LEROY SCHELL, business manager-elect of the Horned Frog, and the five yell leaders.

Wedding bells have been sounding again: ROSELLA PORTERFIELD and LIEUT. WALDO CHASTANT became "Mr. and Mrs." Easter morning. He's stationed at Kaye Field, Miss.

Taking the leap tomorrow night will be Footballer BILL CRAWFORD and DOROTHY NELL STARNES. This is the climax of a long-time romance. BILL will soon be a physical director in the navy.

The gleam in MARY KATE McCUSTION'S eye is the result of a visit this week from "the" boy friend, CAPT. SIDELL STEVENS, from Tucson. Incidentally, since his pro-

BSU Girls to Serve At USO Tomorrow

Eleven girls from the Baptist Student Union will serve refreshments at the Hotel Texas U. S. O. Center from 6:30 until 9:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Those participating include Misses Nancy Shulkey, Ruth Taulbee, Frances Nell McGee, Charis Hogue, Wilma Rutherford, Mary Lou Jordan, Jeanne Moore, LaVerne Milligan and Ruth, Sue and Lou Tucker. Mrs. Alma Bailey, club sponsor, will assist.

Sadler Tells of Year in Tokio—Educational System Played Part in Japanese Successes

"The educational system in Japan played a great part in the present Japanese successes," comments President M. E. Sadler.

Well qualified to make such a statement is the president, who spent a year in Japan, studying the educational set-up. He was sponsored in this research in 1930-'31, by the Institute of Social Research connected with the Rockefeller Foundation.

President Sadler traveled to the East with others doing research in such fields as industry, religion, agriculture and womanhood of Japan.

"The Japanese soldier does not question the right of his country, or have the least doubt but that his country will win, because of his training. From early elementary schools, he has been assured the most glorious honor attainable is to die for his country in war. To this end, he will fight without reservation."

"What kind of an educational system does Japan have?" repeats Dr. Sadler to the question put to him. "The quantity is good and the quality is bad."

Education Is Compulsory Dr. Sadler explains that in Japan, education is compulsory for all between the ages of 6 and 14. Because the country is so small and the government so thorough, a careful check is kept on every person between these ages. The result is that 99 per cent of the population of Japan is educated.

"Their schools, like those in other totalitarian countries, are centered about militarism. Besides having military training as a requirement from elementary school onward, each Japanese boy is required to attend summer military camps. This action, too, is kept as a record by the government."

"Their school system, using different terms, is similar to the set-up in the United States. There is an eight-year elementary system, where the militarism begins. This is followed by the "middle school" of five years, comparable to our high school. Their "higher school" includes three years of work. The "university" comes only after these three divisions are completed.

"Despite the fact that the 'university' is so far advanced, it is as popular as in the United States. In fact," says Dr. Sadler, "figures show that in Tokio there live 100,000 university students."

"It is because of the severe militaristic control that the schools of Japan are so inadequate from the quality viewpoint."

"Other than physical training, every student, boy and girl, studies a course called 'military science.' This includes the history and folklore of Japan."

When asked about the attitude of the university students to the militaristic doctrine, Dr. Sadler observed that due to its strictness of control, the majority favored it.

"But that does not mean that none was against it," he added. "While I was there, I saw groups of students in mass meetings on college campuses. When it was learned that these congregations were to protest against the government control of education, the leaders were arrested."

"It is only natural that some of the students would come to realize that such suppressed learning is a hindrance. They hear only 'canned' lectures. There is no place for comment, and creative thinking is strictly forbidden. Even parts of their libraries are nailed up!"

"There are many of the professors in the Imperial University at Tokio who exchange professorships with teachers of the larger universities in the United States. Undoubtedly, they see the difference. A few have remonstrated and have suffered the consequences, grave as they may be."

"What do the youth of Japan think of the United States?"

"Their interest in the English-speaking countries has been so marked that every boy and girl of Japan must study five years of English!"

"In 1931, they were certain that the U. S. A. was on their side. Didn't they export most of their silk to her, and receive in return great quantities of scrap iron? But now it is different."

3 New Officers Elected by S. C. A.

Three officers for next year were elected at an S. C. A. meeting at noon yesterday. Miss Ruth Hardy, who was elected president, took office immediately, because of the resignation of Harden Killian. Other new officers are Ben White, vice-president, and Miss Clara Marie Denham, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Hardy, accompanied by Dean and Mrs. H. R. Pittman, will attend a "Y" conference at Glen Rose this week-end.

"Other S. C. A. members wishing to go should see Miss Hardy before 10 a. m. Saturday," says Dean Pittman.

Plans were discussed for an all-S. C. A. picnic May 8, at Ernest Allen's farm. Committees will be announced next week.

Miss Georgia Lee Norris visited friends in De Queen, Ark., during the holidays.

Poetry Club to Present Program at Dallas YWCA

Members of the Poetry Club will present a program at a meeting of the Texas Poetry Society at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the Y. W. C. A. in Dallas.

Those who will read some of their works are Miss Mary Charlotte Faris, Miss Betty Simpson, Harry Rex Davis, Larry Nesin, David McKee and Franklin Adkins. Dr. Rebecca Smith and Miss Mabel Major will accompany the group.

Miss Siddle Joe Johnson, A. B. '38, is secretary of the society and will participate on the program. Dr. Smith is a councilor of the society.

Hutton, Quartet to Attend State Church Convention

Registrar S. W. Hutton has been made chairman of the worship committee for the 56th annual state convention of Texas Christian Churches to be held in Houston Monday through Thursday. A male quartet from T. C. U. will attend the convention also. Members are James Duvall, John Hughes, Rawlins Camp, homes and James Moudy.

Your collar need not be a PAIN IN THE NECK

OH, THAT SHIRT COLLAR! With most men, that's the most sensitive point. You won't know how well a collar can look on you until you've worn a Manhattan shirt. Because Manhattan makes a collar that looks best on you. We have six different Manhattan collar styles, specially designed for special types. They'll fit and stay fit because Manhattan shirts are Size-Fixt and every collar is measured by hand. The collar is the most conspicuous part of your shirt—make it the smartest by wearing a Manhattan.

Manhattan Shirts

WITH COLLARS STYLED FOR A MAN LIKE YOU

Manhattan Products Exclusively at . . .

WASHER BROS.

Leon Gross, President

TOPPER

Excels in Price
Quality — Service
"Tops in Eats"
2901 W. Berry

Choose Your Favorite
Release By Glenn
Miller From Complete
Stocks in
OUR NEW RECORD SHOP
• First Floor
ELLISON'S