

Voice of the Editor

Lois Jeane Cayce

Wednesday is Armistice Day. Above all other times, the significance of this day should be realized to its fullest extent in a war year.

Today, friends and loved ones are fighting for what their fathers and forefathers have done in the past.

The halls of T. C. U. are hallowed with the memory of her exes who are serving their country in various places and capacities.

A fitting tribute to them is a prayer in the heart of each and every student, a renewed effort to meet war-time needs without complaint—with the willingness to sacrifice and an unsurpassed part in essential work of such times.

Improved spirit was noted at the Baylor game last week. The yell leaders attempted to have students stand up in order to yell better. Their efforts were answered in part, but a football game is no place to stop the chatter and let the football team believe it has a silent partner.

A noble act in the opinion of this writer is the decision of the Mixed Chorus to take up a free will offering at the Mozart Festival and contribute the money to the "Frog War Fund." Here's to similar actions on the part of other groups.

Money for the service flag is still needed. A worthwhile cause like this surely will be supported further for the remaining $30 necessary to buy the flag.

Next week marks one of the largest events on the school's calendar—Homecoming. Plans are big, and all that is left to be done is for all organizations to co-operate in decorating the campus and in showing the exes that T. C. U. is just as grand as when they were here.

Frogettes to Build Steer To Be Burned at Rally

A Texas Longhorn, to be made of cheese cloth and stuffed with cotton, will be burned at the pep rally next Friday night. The Frogettes are going to make this steer and take part in several other phases of the Homecoming.

They will have charge of the coffee to be held in Foster Hall next Saturday morning, and they will collaborate with Leti members in decorating Foster.

President Nancy Dunkle also said in their meeting Sunday night that they would wear their freshman caps faithfully from now on.

A committee to make plans for the stuffed steer was appointed, consisting of Misses Dannie Danenburg, Mary Nell LeBus, Frances Alexander, Marjorie Walton, Judy Davis and Mary Maxine Jones.

TCU Writers' Exchange Will Be Out This Week

The T. C. U. Writers' Exchange will be out this week, reports Mrs. Artemisia Bryson. It will feature material which will be of interest to those who come back for Homecoming.

Mrs. Bertie H. Mothershead is assembling books and articles which have been written by T. C. U. students to put them on exhibition in the Library as a Homecoming feature.

Boost the Frogs, Wear Pre-Game 'Skin' em' Ribbons

Boost the Frogs! Those lapel ribbons worn by students before every game are sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Sales have a double duty: they are a means of supporting the T. C. U. football team, as well as a source of income which goes to sponsor Ranch Week, the School of Business Banquet, and, in past years, the Varsity Show.

"Support the Frogs," urges David McKee. "These ribbons may be hard to get in the future, but as long as they are available, the Chamber of Commerce will have them on sale before every game."

Prize of $25 To Go to Best At Decorating

War Bond Will Be Awarded to Group With No. 1 Welcome "Dress"

A $25 war bond has been announced as the prize for the best decorated place on the campus for Homecoming. This is being donated by a friend of the University. Judging will be done by a committee of ex-students next Friday and Saturday.

Assignments for Homecoming decorations are as follows: Front of the Administration Building—four classes; main hall—Brushes Club; south door—Sigma Tau Delta; north door—Mixed Chorus; Cafeteria—Home Ec Club; Auditorium—Poetry and Dramatic Club; Brite College—B. C. B.; Library—Los Hidaigos; Arch—Chamber of Commerce; Clark Hall—Clark boys; Foster Hall—Frogettes, Leti, Junior-Senior Club; Gymnasium—W. S. A.; Basketball Gymnasium—dance managers; north gate—Campus Club; Band House—band; Sterling House—Sterling boys; Gibson House—Gibson boys.

"This leaves Jarvis and Goode Halls. If anyone wants to decorate them or can think of any other place which could be decorated, please see me at once," requests David McKee.

An ex-students' luncheon has been added to the list of Homecoming activities. This luncheon will be held at 12 o'clock noon Saturday, Nov. 14, at the Colonial Country Club.

Tickets at $1 each may be obtained from Mrs. Alma Bailey in the School of Business office. Deadline for reservations is noon next Friday.

"More than 100 reservations have been made. We would like for any students to come, as well as the exes," says Miss Hazel Nelson, president of the Fort Worth Women's Branch of the Ex-Students' Association.

Other activities on the Homecoming schedule are a pep rally at noon Wednesday in the Auditorium, a large rally at 7:30 o'clock next Friday night at the same place, registering of exes Nov. 14, a coffee, the game, annual dance on Nov. 14, and special services Sunday, Nov. 15, at the University Christian Church.

A Homecoming sweetheart, who has been selected by members of the football squad, will be presented between halves at the game. Her identity will be revealed in next Friday's Skiff.

Members of the Student Council will sell war stamp corsages for the Homecoming Dance. These corsages may be purchased for $1.05, which includes 90 cents worth of war stamps, 10 cents for its preparation and 5 cents for the "Frog War Fund." If any corsages are unsold by game time, they will be sold by freshman girls at the game.

Chairmanships Accepted By Pres. M. E. Sadler

President M. E. Sadler has accepted the chairmanships of two committees appointed by the National Board of Education. These two include one for the "Study of Religion in Higher Education" and one for the "Study of War and Post-War Effects on Higher Education."

Grandbury to Hear Hutton On "Quit You Like Men"

"Quit You Like Men" will be the subject of the talk to be given by Registrar S. W. Hutton Sunday morning at the Methodist Church at Grandbury at a special union service. This service will be in honor of the American Legion.

TCU Writers' Exchange Will Be Out This Week

The T. C. U. Writers' Exchange will be out this week, reports Mrs. Artemisia Bryson. It will feature material which will be of interest to those who come back for Homecoming.

Mrs. Bertie H. Mothershead is assembling books and articles which have been written by T. C. U. students to put them on exhibition in the Library as a Homecoming feature.

Grads of Bygone Days Will Be Back, Gazing Curiously, Remembering When

The old grads will be back next week. They will be strolling around the campus and talking of days gone by. They will be seen wandering around the halls, searching for old desks with their initials carved on them and gazing curiously at the eds and coeds of today, and remembering back when...

The first official Homecoming was the week of Commencement in 1914. It started with a Chapel program. Then they had a parade, followed by a baseball game.

The first football Homecoming was in 1928. This was the first year to have a bonfire on the campus, which remained a tradition until 1933.

Many students witnessed Home-

24 Favorites Chosen for 1943 Horned Frog

PRINCIPALS in the freshman and sophomore plays Monday night will be F. L. Lucas, Misses Mary Nell LeBus, Virginia Thaxton and Vida Bevil, pictured below.

Nagged Husband, Dress Model Leading Roles in Play Contest

Smash! Bang! Boom! Crash! And the Freshman-Sophomore Play Contest is under way.

Both plays are going to be rip-roaring in action. They are to be given at 8:15 o'clock Monday night in the Auditorium.

F. L. Lucas takes the lead in the freshman play, "Utter Relaxation," with the part of a man who is nagged by his wife into staying home from the office for a rest cure for his cold. He's almost driven crazy by all the noise and bedlam that goes on in his home when he is supposedly at his quiet office working.

Miss Mary Nell LeBus is his nagging wife. The telephone repair man promises a hearty laugh from everyone. The cast also includes Miss Elizabeth Faguy-Cote, Bob Matheny, Clay Griffith and Miss Dannie Danenburg. Miss Doris Mahon is director of the play.

The girl in the blanket is the main topic of the sophomore play, "Model Behavior." Marcus Penney plays the part of a fashion buyer who tries to keep everyone from stealing his original creation of a dress model. Miss Virginia Thaxton is the girl, and when the two meet, action is assured.

Others in the play are Misses Vida Bevil and Ann Barham. Miss Annette Closter is directing.

Tickets are now on sale and may be bought from any member of the casts.

Veteran to Be Guest Speaker

World War I Hero, War II Chaplain to Give Armistice Day Addresses At Church

Chaplain Ellwood C. Nance, who will be the guest speaker at three services at the University Christian Church Sunday, will have as his subject for the morning worship, "Where the 'New Order' Begins." It will be an Armistice Day address.

Dr. W. C. Morro will preside at the service and the choir will sing "I Am Alpha and Omega," by Stainer, directed by Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote.

Miss Elizabeth Biser will preside and give the interpretive reading and invocation at Evensong at 7:15 p. m. Dr. Nance will deliver a short message of special interest to students.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker will give an organ and violin recital preceding the service. Melvyn Cobb will sing a solo, "Just for Today," by Seaver.

At Mellorist Club meeting after Evensong in the Mellorist Club Room, Dr. Nance will give a short address entitled "Why the Army Has Chaplains and the Chaplain's Duties." He will lead an informal discussion afterwards.

Chaplain Nance is serving the United States in his second war. He enlisted in the army at the age of 16 and went to the western front, both in Germany and France. He was also in the Army of Occupation in World War I.

Having been in many military engagements, he was awarded the Victory Medal, the Medaille de la Verdun and the Third Division Service Medal for heroic actions.

He is now stationed at Camp Howze. He is widely known as a minister, educator, lecturer and author, having been the pastor of the First Christian Church in Tampa, Fla., and Seattle, Wash.

Mozart Festival Adds Program

A third program will be added to the Mozart Festival, Dec. 13-15, it was decided at a meeting of the music faculty Tuesday afternoon.

The festival will be held at the University Christian Church. The added program will be given entirely by members of the music faculty at 8:15 o'clock, Monday evening, Dec. 14.

The other two programs are to be on Sunday, at 3:30 o'clock, Dec. 13, and on Tuesday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, Dec. 15. These performances will include selections by the T. C. U. Orchestra, directed by Prof. N. J. Whitehurst and the Mixed Chorus, directed by Prof. W. J. Marsh.

Dean Colby Hall to Speak At Thanksgiving Banquet

"If I Forget Thee, O Jerusalem" will be the subject of the talk by Dean Colby D. Hall when he speaks to the Melton Class of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church in Dallas Nov. 20.

This is the class' annual Thanksgiving banquet.

Homiletic Guild to Hear Rev. Patrick Henry, Jr.

"Making the Communion Service Significant" will be the subject of the Rev. Pat Henry, Jr., of the Preston Road Christian Church in Dallas, when he addresses the Homiletic Guild at 12 o'clock noon Wednesday in the Alcove of the Cafeteria.

Two Classes Planning Picnic Tuesday Week

Profits, 5-Cent Tax Will Be Donated for Benefit Of "Frog War Fund"

A junior-senior picnic is being planned for Tuesday, Nov. 17. Profit from all receipts, in addition to a 5-cent tax from each ticket, will be donated to the "Frog War Fund."

Tickets to any school event in the future will contain a 5-cent tax, which will be paid into the fund. This tax is payable to Miss Dixie Williams, Dunny Sims or David McKee. A free will offering will be taken at the Mozart Festival Dec. 13, 14, and 15 which will be given to this fund.

Several additions have been made to the cast of the "Girlesque Show," to be held Dec. 8.

Among them are Bertha Alford and Colonel Max Humphreys. Jenny Tinkle will be the silver voiced opera star. Ernie Allen, the great French comedian and accordionist, will perform. Dolores Cowin is to be Bill Hall's adagio partner. This is to be a daring, dashing event.

Father James Moody will lead the devotional at the show.

Service Flag To Honor 800

Presentation Is Arranged For Assembly Next Week As Part of Homecoming

A service flag, being purchased for the University by its students and ex-students, will be presented in a special Assembly program next Friday morning, as a part of the Homecoming program. President M. E. Sadler will preside.

This flag will contain stars representing more than 800 exes who are in some branch of the service. These stars are being bought through individual donations.

Approximately $120 has been promised already. Cost of the flag is near $150.

In charge of this special activity is a committee for recognition of men in the armed forces, composed of Dr. Rebecca Smith, Prof. J. Willard Ridings, Registrar S. W. Hutton, Dr. Gayle Scott, Miss Lois Jeane Cayce, Dunny Sims and David McKee.

Littlefield Has Information On Postoffice That Pays

Want to play postoffice? Well, maybe not exactly "play." But anyway, the Fort Worth postoffice will use a number of boys for work during the Christmas holidays.

"These are exceptionally good paying jobs," says Prof. C. L. Littlefield. "Boys willing to work throughout the holidays should make application to the office of the postmaster immediately."

Prof. Littlefield reports that there are also available a number of other part-time jobs. Those interested may obtain details from him.

Southwest Room Has Everything Pure Southwest

"The Southwest Room is one of the frequently visited rooms in the Library," reports Mrs. Bertie Mothershead.

The room is pure Southwest from the ironwork door, wrought with sunset on the yucca plant, to the cattle brands on the walls. Various Indian curios have been given to the Library by friends.

Pictures on the wall are: "Indian Boy," by Joseph Fleck from Taos, N. M.; "Scene From Big Bend Country," by Dwight Holmes, Fort Worth artist; "The Kiowa War Dancer" and "The Kiowa Sun Worshipper," by a Kiowa Indian artist. There is also an old map of San Antonio.

There are approximately 750 volumes in the collection of Southwestern literature. The latest acquisitions include: George Session Perry's "Texas, A World in Itself," the Siddle Joe Johnson's "It's a New Town in Texas," and Shine Phillips' "Big Spring: The Casual Biography of a Country Town."

Six From Each Class Are to Make Bows At Presentation Ball

Twenty-four favorites for the 1943 Horned Frog were elected Wednesday by 372 students who went to the polls. Each of these favorites will be given a page in the yearbook.

Listed alphabetically according to classes, and not necessarily the way in which they ran, the favorites are:

Seniors: Misses Lois Jeane Cayce, Mary Charlotte Faris and Jean Montgomery; Billy Blackstone, Derrell Palmer and Dunny Sims.

Juniors: Misses Gerlyne Schmidt, Mary Louise Waldron and Virginia Williams; John Bond, Melvin Dacus and Van Hall.

Sophomores: Misses Beverly Boswell, Dorothy Bryant and Barbara Bundoock; Clifton Caffey, Edwin Caruth and Derrell Tipps.

Freshmen: Misses Olga Atkinson, Nancy Dunkle and Elizabeth Glasscock; Jack Hight, Harry Knowles and Pete Stout.

The order in which these favorites ran will be revealed in the annual next May.

Skiff Editor on List.
Miss Cayce, a journalism major, is editor of The Skiff and assistant editor of the Horned Frog. She holds membership in the Dana Press Club, Les Grenouilles, S. C. A., Poetry Club and Sigma Tau Delta.

A second-time favorite, Miss Faris is a smiling worker in the Library. She is president of the Poetry Club, a member of Sigma Tau Delta, Amperand and S. C. A. An English major, her greatest ambition is to sing.

Miss Montgomery is a favorite for the third time. Hailing from Sweetwater, she is a member of the Bryson Club and is secretary of the new club for junior and senior dormitory girls.

Blackstone comes from Hearne and plays center on the football team.

"Jug" is vice-president of the senior class and a third-year favorite.

Co-captain of the football team, Palmer comes from Albany. Known around as "Big D," Derrell is a member of the Bryson Club and "T" Association.

From Paint Rock way comes Sims, president of the student body. Dunny is a ministerial student and is a member of just about every club on the campus.

Van's Steady Named.
Miss Schmidt is the new twirler for the Horned Frog Band. She is secretary of the Junior class, a speech major and a member of the Dramatic, Bryson and Junior-Senior Club. If this doesn't identify her, she's the steady of Footballer Hall.

A dramatics major, Miss Waldron is a local girl. She is a member of the Student Council and has participated in numerous campus productions.

Miss Williams, "Ginny" to her friends, hails from Dallas. She's a major in journalism and is one of the yell leaders.

Bond is the quiet, retiring fellow who is just the opposite with his football togs on. "Big Jawn" calls McLean home. He's a second-year favorite.

President of the band, Dacus is a favorite for the third time. He's a Fort Worth boy, whom everyone loves to hear sing.

Hall is also a third-time favorite. Coming from Kaufman, he plays half-

Glee Club Sees Shortage Of Boys As Does Campus

There is not only a shortage of boys on the campus, but a shortage of boys in the Glee Club. Boys do not have to be music majors to sing in the Glee Club, but any boy that enjoys singing may join, says Arthur Arney, president of the Glee Club.

Boys who wish to join, should do so soon enough to sing in the Mozart Festival.

Sergt. Jimmy Matthews Now Located in Gainesville

Staff Sergt. Jimmy Matthews, A. B. '39, is now stationed at Camp Howze, Gainesville. Sergt. Matthews is assigned to the public relations department of the camp and is on the staff of the camp newspaper, The Camp Howze Howitzer. He majored in Journalism at T. C. U. and was business manager of The Skiff from 1937 to 1939.

Give Degrees to Midyear Students

Never before has T. C. U. so desperately needed midyear graduation exercises. Until this year there has been no need for a February commencement, but with the greatly accelerated program and the increased number of students planning to finish in February, T. C. U. should present them with their degrees.

Why is this important? The answer is simple. When students turn in their applications for jobs, they find it difficult to explain that although their work will be complete in February, they are not graduates and can hold no degree until June.

Many places will not offer jobs unless the applicant has a degree. This means the student must sit idle for four and one-half months waiting for a mere commencement exercise.

They must explain their wait simply because T. C. U. does not see fit to allow them to have their degrees until June. They must wait futilely for the rest of their class.

It would not be necessary to have formal exercises. The presentation of a diploma would answer their needs and they could start making their ways in the world without delay.

Exercises are held in August, only three months after the June exercises. These should not be done away with, but it certainly seems logical that a jump of four and one-half months entitles the graduates to their diploma also.

We Can, We Will, We Must

Although the new enrichment program under way for the University includes funds for a student union building on the campus, there is need now of some kind of recreational center.

The logical place to house such a center is the Gymnasium. There could be dancing, ping pong, swimming, soft drinks and candy.

This is not an impossibility. In fact, a program outlining what could be done has been submitted to University officials.

A "nickelodeon" is to be purchased. A cover charge will be necessary for some nights, to purchase new records and meet other expenses. None of the equipment will be used for profit. No club or organization will gain any special rights. It will be for the benefit of the whole student body.

It will be a place on the campus where the "all" of the student body may go and find recreational facilities.

Gas rationing is just a few squares down on the November page of the calendar. With rationing, more and more students will be stranded on the campus. They will have no place to relax, dance, etc.

The Gymnasium can be made into a much needed recreational center. Now is the time to do it.

Have You Ever Seen A Shower Roaring?

(Sing to the tune of "Have You Ever Seen A Dream Walking?")
Have you ever heard a shower roaring?
Well, I have.
Have you ever seen a shower flooding?
Well, I have.

Have you ever had a shower ruin your clothes and good time?
Oh, it's so messy it'll give you a whine.
Have you ever had a day finished with a water gun squirting you in the dark?
Well, the shower that was roaring and the shower that was flooding and the water in your face was in Clark!

Football Fans Are Interesting

To look at the different types of personalities at a football game might be of more interest to some persons than the game itself.

There are several special types found among every crowd watching a gridiron battle. First, of course, is the girl, not always a freshman either, who doesn't know the difference between a football game and a style show, except that everybody yells instead of whispers to their neighbors.

Aroused by the pleas of the cheer leaders, she sometimes opens her pretty painted lips and omits a dainty little squeak. And she usually wonders out loud why the team always kicks on the fourth down when it would be so easy to make just that one little yard more.

Naturally, next in line is just the opposite character, the sideline quarterback. This guy calls all the plays from the stands and is in all of his glory when a touchdown is made on his unheard of suggestion. He knows every rule of the game and if one of the officials disagrees with him, the latter is a jerk.

If the coach won't substitute a player that the grandstander thinks should be put in, the coach ought to be fired. If the quarterback makes a mistake, he ought to be kicked out of the game. This strategist would, undoubtedly, make a good coach for a bunch of seven-year-olds.

Two other types of girls usually can be heard in the crowd. One is the freshman lassie who has just learned all the names of the players on the home team and lords it over her nearby first-year friends with exclamations such as, "No. 21. Oh, that's Charlie," or "That was Clyde making the tackle."

The other girl is the steady of one of the players. When her hero goes in the game or makes a spectacular play, she proudly gushes, "That's my boy friend." But when her little man pulls a boner, she quietly remains in her place and glares at the sideline quarterback just a few seats down when he hollers, "Kick him out."

One of the most interesting to watch is the fellow who gets his fun in razzing the opposing team or its coach. His antics come to a climax with the throwing of a bottle at one of them and then ducking into the crowd. This type is dangerous and should be allowed to attend a game only in a straight jacket, or, if not this way, chained to his seat. He is the most formidable of the lot, often causing considerable friction between the schools.

Among all of these bad persons, there are some good spectators, however, who help make football the clean and well-liked sport that it is by merely watching the game and yelling when called upon to yell, keeping their opinions to themselves and still enjoying the games as much as the others.

More Positions For Girl Grads

For years, the average girl graduate has looked forward to a career as a secretary or teacher, and considered herself fortunate to secure a steady position in her chosen field.

This June it will be different. Already, many employers are advertising for women exclusively, because of the expense of training men likely to be drafted. Three principal alternatives are open to women this year:

1. Defense jobs: To fill such a position, the girl would have to live near a defense center, and be physically capable, if the job were labor in a factory.

2. Civilian jobs: Many positions in schools and offices are now open to college graduates, because of the heavy drafting of manpower.

3. Women's organizations: Girls who wish to serve their country directly find interest in joining the WAVES or the WAACS.

All professions and paths of endeavor are being increasingly opened to women today. It is each girl's responsibility to decide which job she can fill best.

Joe and Flo Aren't Exceptions

Into the Library comes a sad and disappointed couple, especially Joe. This couple, Joe and Flo, are in the Library at night for one of two reasons. Either they are lost, or Flo had to study. They have books, so the latter must be the case.

They stop at the entrance, look around for another couple they know, find one and hurry over to bother them. Joe says, "If you two are sitting at the same table with us, there's going to be no talking. We came to study." All four laugh heartily and begin a conversation.

Flo starts to read, so Joe opens his book and reads paragraphs one and two. Tired, he looks up and spies a grasshopper, blinded by the lights, knocking himself out against the wall. This is too interesting to keep. Joe points out this important occasion to his three companions of study. Thoughtful, this Joe.

Joe then reads paragraph two over again before he realizes that his eyes have glanced over those same words before. This discourages Joe from studying further. And anyway he's thirsty. Despite his insistence, Flo is not thirsty, so Joe goes to the fountain alone.

Stepping back into the Library, Joe spies one of his pals. In this case there are three things to do. If the pal is looking, wave. If he's looking about the Library, cough to attract his attention. If he is studying, by all means go over and speak to him. In this case, Joe's pal is studying.

After a five-minute conversation consisting mainly of "Have you heard the one about?" . . . etc., the girl monitor starts over to stop the disturbance. Joe spies her coming. As she nears, Joe says, "Well, thanks for telling me the assignment." Turning around, he is surprised to see the monitor, of all people! He smiles and goes back to his table.

Flo is gone, so Joe sits down and reads paragraph two again. Curious, he asks where his date is. On getting an answer he says, "Oh."

Thinking it over, Joe decides it's not a bad idea. But, on second thought, it is a long way down those steps and back, so-o-o, he reads paragraph two again.

Why Not Have A Stamp Campaign?

Never let it be said that T. C. U. is lacking in patriotic spirit! Students are learning daily to help their Uncle Sam win the war, but somewhere in the fervor and excitement one important measure of strengthening the war machine has been overlooked.

Practically every other university or college in the country is or has been having a war stamp campaign. Such a campaign should prove to be successful on this campus.

Why not set aside a two or three-week period devoted to the buying and selling of war stamps? "Victory Shacks" or booths, could be located at various places, with campus organizations to take charge of them. A contest could be held to see which organization could sell the largest amount of stamps, and a prize given to the winner. Contests between the boys and girls or the different classes could be held also.

Then there are victory dances. A 25-cent war stamp could be charged as admission. This would serve the double purpose of cutting down on the student's "pocketbook" and at the same time benefiting America. And coeds could be "blossoming out" in stamp corsages, the only kind to be allowed at the dances. These corsages could be sold on the campus for the convenience of the students.

College Men Should Have Program To Prepare Both for War and Peace

There is a mistaken idea being passed around that male students entering college should take a full schedule of courses concerning war work, and nothing else.

This is merely some more propaganda. The armed forces are still offering a college deferred status to college students with no regard as to what courses they are taking. The deferment is even open to freshmen, with four years in front of them. Evidently, then, the armed forces have enough respect for college graduates to want more of them.

The problem of what courses to take faces every freshman student. Just because a deferred status is offered does not necessarily mean that they should not take the courses that will prepare them for some specialized work after they graduate. Even with a war going on, the nation must still have doctors, scientists, social workers and other nonmilitary men to keep the country going today and to insure the future.

What a mess would prevail if, when the war is over, all of the educated men would have knowledge only for the furtherance of militaristic activities. The scientists would be skilled only in making chemicals and other materials for the destruction of people instead of for the betterment of them. The skilled machinists could work only on airplanes and tanks instead of washing machines and refrigerators.

Dr. Harmon Lowman, president of Sam Houston State Teachers College, says that he believes it wise to draft 100,000 capable young men between the ages of 18 and 24, selected on the basis of ability, for rigorous college training. This might be a good move on the part of the government, if the courses offered this great army of students will include such general subjects as social science, language and biology.

Articles both the Yale Review and the School Review assert that two years of liberal art courses should be given to students just beginning college. Then, when the two years are completed, they should be allowed to follow whatever field they prefer, whether it be along a specialized training line for war work or along a line of general knowledge in preparation for the years to come.

The School Review also states that a good officer in the army must have the intelligence acquired by such training as a liberal arts course offers. Knowledge of language, including writing and speaking correctly and distinctly, is invaluable to anyone. Such sciences as psychology, philosophy and sociology can be of great benefit to an officer in helping him better to understand the men he deals with.

This does not mean that all students should follow a course of general study all the way through college. If a student desires to become a skilled worker, let him follow this line. There are plenty of schools which can train him to perfection in this desire.

But if he wants to major in business, English or journalism, let him get a thorough education in these. He might have to go off to war as soon as he graduates, but when he gets back, he will at least have a foundation on which to start building a better world for himself and for others.

Of course, the matter rests in the hands of the government. If the demand for manpower is so great that all able-bodied men are needed at once, then it is no more than fair that everyone should be considered equal. But if the problem is not now pressing, and the promises of the different reserves make it appear that way, many young men will be allowed to begin and finish a college education. If this is true, there should be no strings attached to their selection of studies.

Soldiers on Foreign Duty Welcome TCU Chaplain

Lieut. Rudolph Tatsch as a chaplain in the army is now conducting 50 services a month at his post on foreign duty. He is the only disciple minister in the country.

In a letter to Registrar S. W. Hutton, he says the camps are quite scattered and the men must stay near their posts.

The church services usually last about 20 minutes. He gets excellent response from the officers and hearty response from the enlisted men, he says.

All of the work in that country is interdenominational.

On The Go

Tonight's the night. The DEN'S place. Yessiree, tonight is especially set aside for T. C. Uites. EWEN HAIL and his orchestra will oblige with the kind of music you Froggies like.

Starting today at the HOLLYWOOD THEATER is "THE NAVY COMES THROUGH," with PAT O'BRIEN and GEORGE MURPHY. It's a swell treat.

"NOW VOYAGER," starting tomorrow at the WORTH THEATER, will be enjoyed by everyone. With BETTE DAVIS in the star role, it's great. BILLY MUTH and EWEN HAIL will present an organlog as an added attraction.

Today and tomorrow "TARZAN'S NEW YORK ADVENTURE," with JOHNNY WEISMULLER and MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN, will be showing at the PARKWAY THEATER. Sunday and Monday, one of the greatest shows of this or any other year, "MRS. MINIVER," will be the attraction.

THE SKIFF SALUTES GERLYNE SCHMIDT

By Martha Mellow

A 5-foot, 1-inch brunette, who weighs 105 pounds, stole the show at the half of the T. C. U.-Baylor game Saturday. This little brown-eyed junior from Yoakum is none other than Gerlyne Schmidt, new drum major of the Horned Frog Band.

Gerlyne felt at home on the field with a baton in her hand, having been drum major at Kaufman for two years.

"I might just as well take part in the activities since I've been a 'football widow' because of Van for six years," she laughingly said, after her debut.

But she has been doing more than keeping Van Hall on the line in her three years at college. The sophomore class made her vice-president. She is secretary of the junior class, the Dramatic Club and the Bryson Club this year.

Majoring in speech, with a minor in English, Gerlyne has had the lead in the sophomore play, "He Ain't Done Right by Nell," "Wonder Hat" and several others. She was elected to the honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, and is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity.

Besides acting and holding office, Gerlyne likes to keep scrap books, wear red and go to the Mexican Inn "at least once a week" to eat enchiladas.

Her soprano voice has been heard in the Women's Glee Club for two years. She is active in sports, belonging to W. S. A. She also is a member of the French Club, Les Grenouilles. Gerlyne's versatility, plus her personality, have made her one of the most active and popular girls on the campus. Being drum major of the band is just another display of her varied talents.

The Readers Say . . .

(Editor's Note—Signed letters, not containing over 200 words, will be printed when space so allows. These letters do not necessarily reflect the opinion of The Skiff.)

Dear Editor: Far be it from me to criticize human nature, but it does seem that a little will power might be exerted in certain instances.

I am referring to the failure of the cheer leaders to do their duty in the last quarter of the Baylor game. There was our team on the field, fighting and with little or no audible support from the stands. Who knows but what they may have snapped back and won!

It seems that the band must not only be our musical mainstay, but must also serve as the cheering squad when the going gets too tough for our otherwise capable cheer leaders. I'm for more and better yellin'—through ALL the game. How 'bout it?

Sincerely,
DISAPPOINTED

A series of war week programs are being given on the T. S. C. W. campus this week. Purpose of the programs is to enable students to realize how they can help in the war effort. An army nurse, representatives from the recruiting offices of the WAACS and the WAVES, faculty members and guest speakers will address the students.

For the first time in the history of the University of Texas, redheads had a separate registration. Rho Eta Delta, the redhead club, sponsored the registration as a means of securing a list of potential members. Before, just having red hair qualified one for membership and payment of dues made them a member, but this year the membership is being limited and qualifications made stricter.

"Meatless day," the first gesture of voluntary student aid to the Citizens Civilian Defense Corps without request, was inaugurated as a program this week at the University of Mississippi. Though shortages of meats are not too acute at present, it is believed that a surplus of meat should be accumulated to protect people against any contingency which might arise unexpectedly.

Blue jeans, plaid shirts and gingham dresses were the appropriate costumes when T. S. C. W. held its annual Corn Huskin' Bee last week. Hog calling, chicken calling, corn husking, husband calling and a dormitory sing-song were the headline attractions.

"Advice to Freshman Number 1,000,000" in THE SKIFF, Texas Christian University paper, states that the Library with its fluorescent lights is no place to "shoot a line to the cutest freshman girl." Whether or not we of Lehigh agree is beside the point, but of much interest is the fluorescent lighting. Some day it is hoped Lehigh too will be able to use "fluorescent lighting" in a story about its Library.—Lehigh Brown and White.

Mo's Musings

by Elmo "Mo" Webb

This writer's nomination for the most improved player on the T. C. U. team goes to Charlie Conway. This senior right halfback now runs with drive and speed and seems to have gained the confidence that is needed of a good back. No longer is he a start-and-stop runner, but one that drives into opposing tacklers for those few extra yards.

On the defensive side of the picture, Charlie has become one of the deadliest tacklers on the squad. Rarely does a ball carrier pull away, once Charlie grabs him. His great improvement over his playing last year, which was plenty satisfactory even then, has given his teammates confidence in the lanky North Sider. Several have openly expressed the opinion that they feel safe that the right half spot will be well taken care of when Charlie is in there fighting.

Anyone can pass out bouquets when the team is winning, so here goes another pat-on-the-back while the Froggies are down. This time Trotter Adams comes in for the praise.

Last week Trotter played 60 minutes of bang-up football. Pictures of the Baylor game proved this more than the average eye could see during the game. Always known to be a fine pass-receiver and now having proved that he is an able punter, Trotter has been used mostly on offensive, with Drummond Slover playing defensive end. In the Bear game, it was Trot's defensive work that surprised most of the folks. During the running of the Baylor film, Coach Dutch Meyer was continually complimenting him on his work on some particular play. And, back to his pass receiving—what a catch he made as he leaped high in the air to snag one of Emery Nix's passes.

Jumping over to basketball, since practice started Monday night, comes this item. Players of the team got together and signed a petition to the effect that they want Floppy Blackmon to captain the team during the 1943 season. This petition was given to Coach Hub McQuillan and Hub says they will get their wish. This is the first time that the players have elected a captain in such a manner.

For the past few years, a captain was named after the season as an honorary gesture. Hmm-m, looks like North Side week for this column. Congratulations, Floppy. No one deserves an honor of this kind more than does this good-natured fellow.

The first week this corner predicted games, the T. C. U. victory over U. C. L. A. was the only one right. Last week the tables were turned, and the Baylor defeat of the Frogs was the only one wrong. Now is the time to quit, but the bug has bitten, so here goes for tomorrow.

Texas to down Baylor and take the conference lead. That Texas-T. C. U. game still will be a deciding battle.

Texas A. & M. to whip S. M. U. in a close one.

Rice to keep Arkansas' record clean of victories in conference play this year.

AND . . . T. C. U. to whip Texas Tech, but that noise being heard is someone knocking on wood.

This corner made a crack at Coach Homer Norton's conduct at the Aggie game. After seeing Baylor's Coach Frank Kimbrough in action, an apology should be given Norton. Several fans have asked that something be said about his actions. Not one play went by, good or bad, that Kimbrough did not rise up beeping about something. He spent most of the time on the sidelines shouting to his team. This, by the way, is not supposed to be allowed, but nothing

Frogs Bound Back for Try at Raiders

T. C. U. Still Handicapped by Injuries—Tech Rated Much Stronger in Recent Games

By ELMO WEBB

With higher spirits, the Horned Frog eleven moves to a higher altitude to play the Red Raiders of Texas Tech in Lubbock tomorrow.

The Frogs are better, both physically and mentally this week, although there is still a touch of madness over the Baylor game. Bruce Alford and Bob McCollum are again on the doubtful list, and, although they will not start, both will probably see action if needed. J. C. Oneal missed early-week practice with an injured shoulder.

The Red Raiders have already lost to three Southwest Conference teams this season. They went down in defeat 19 to 0 to the Aggies, 14 to 7 to Baylor and 19 to 7 to Rice. Except for the Texas A. & M. game, the Tech team has played good football and might have turned the tide except for bad brakes. The game tomorrow with the Frogs is the one they have been waiting for, however, and they are determined to beat one Southwest team this season.

Sparkplug of the Raider backfield is J. R. Callahan, hard-running 180-pound half back. Speed wizard is Don Austin, senior wingback. Kenneth Robbins or Jess Ballew at quarterback and Walter Schlinkman or Pete Blanda at fullback will round out the Tech backfield.

Tech Tackler Hefty Tech boasts of two hefty tacklers, E. W. Gillenwater at 210 and Clyde Hall at 240 make up the pair. Starting guards are Doyle Caraway and either Gerald Nash or Capt. Will Allbright. Billy Hale will open at center.

In Harold Crossen and Vernon Ray, the Lubbock team has two ends at the height of 6'2". Roy Williams, another 6'2" end may start for Ray. In any case, the Raiders will have plenty of height.

So far this season, Coach Dell Morgan has leaned toward the running game over a passing attack. However, the Raiders can throw the ball. They gained 89 yards that way Saturday against Rice.

On the T. C. U. side, the Frogs are naturally none too excited over the contest. The Southwest Conference race is still uppermost in their minds. But never fear that the Purple team will not try to bounce back in that victory column tomorrow.

The T. C. U. Line-Up Varies As usual, the matter of kicking off or receiving will influence the starting line-up for Coach Dutch Meyer's eleven. Starters will probably be:

Backs will be Ralph Porter at fullback, with a slight possibility of McCollum starting; Don Ezell and Charlie Conway at halves; Dean Bagley, Beecher Montgomery or Emery Nix all have a chance of getting the opening assignment at tail back.

The game will be broadcast direct from the field in Lubbock.

more ought to be said against the officials. If he knew the bad impression he left behind at T. C. U., maybe Mr. Kimbrough wouldn't fidget and fuss quite so much.

Lipstick Letters, Jeep, Join Two In New Friendship

Not every girl is fortunate enough to be followed by a staff sergeant in a jeep. No. It's not the usual thing, but it did happen to Miss LaVerne Feeny last week as she returned to Fort Worth from Temple.

It all began when the soldier in the jeep waved. A conversation by a spur-of-the-moment sign language ensued. Before long, he knew that Miss Feeny was a student at T. C. U. (this she wrote on the back window in lipstick), and she knew that he was from Illinois.

They even managed to exchange addresses. He had to write while driving, resulting in a zig-zag route of which the law would not have approved. He pulled up alongside her car, and a trade of the pieces of paper was achieved.

He disappeared at Waco, when Miss Feeny and her family stopped for lunch. Altogether, she counts it as a novel experience—and besides that, he was cute!

BACKFIELD man for the Texas Tech Raiders is Jess Ballew, former teammate of Mike Harter at Arlington Heights High School.

Froggies, Raiders Meet Tomorrow For Seventh Time

Texas Christian and Texas Tech meet in Lubbock Saturday for the seventh series of gridiron contests that originated back in 1926.

The two teams have not met since 1936, when the Red Raiders won their first victory over the Frogs 7 to 0 in a night game played in the mud.

The two schools have played four times in Fort Worth, twice in Lubbock. The Frogs won all but the '36 game, but most of the contests were played before Tech had built up to top-flight grid competition.

Saturday's game will be the second with Tech since Coach Dutch Meyer took over at T. C. U.

The record by years: 1926—T. C. U. 15, Tech 16, Fort Worth. 1927—T. C. U. 16, Tech 6, Fort Worth. 1928—T. C. U. 24, Tech 4, Fort Worth. 1929—T. C. U. 22, Tech 6, Lubbock. 1930—T. C. U. 26, Tech 6, Fort Worth. 1936—T. C. U. 0, Tech 7, Lubbock.

Baylor Makes Clean Sweep

Wins From Polliwogs 13 to 7 After Scoreless First Half in Waco

Baylor made a clean sweep of the football picture as far as T. C. U. was concerned when the Cubs downed the Wogs in Waco Monday afternoon 13 to 7.

After a scoreless first half, the Cubs scored twice before the Wogs got moving. Behind 13 to 0, Martin Jerrell started throwing the ball.

He hit David Bloxum, who carried to the Cub 13. A moment later he hit Logan Ramsey for the score. Bloxum converted.

The Cubs scored first in the third period on a pass. Hamon Rowe to Wayne Franks, from the Wogs' 5. The fourth quarter touchdown came after a 52-yard march, with James Jackson carrying over. George Harecourt converted.

Coach Leonard Pugh's boys were outplayed, according to the statistics as well as the score. The Cubs made 12 first downs to 4 for the Purple. They gained 224 rushing and 19 passing, as compared with 40 and 97 for the Wogs.

Pete Stout, Jarrell, Bishop and Bloxum stood out in the Wog backfield. Several of the first-year Frogs were injured during the game—a hard-fought battle throughout.

'Terrible Swede' Defies Tradition, Acquires 'Name'

"Swede the Terrible," they call him. "Swede the Terrible" is better known to most students as Swede Pelto, but to those around the Gymnasium, he's "Swede the Terrible." Here follows the tale of how he won such a name.

It's a standing tradition at this school that on the day of a big football game, when students are nervous and excited, that there will be no physical education class for boys.

But Swede doesn't believe in tradition, and Saturday his physical education class met as usual. What was more astonishing, more than three-fourths of his students were present.

But, the tale goes further! It's also a tradition that it's right on useless to argue with Miss Winnie Crump, for she always has the last word. But Swede broke this tradition also, for he "jumped" Miss Crump the other day for giving boys in his class excuses for what he called "baby colds." And he left Miss Crump "flabbergasted" and without the last word said.

So Swede's pupils have stuck the nickname of "Swede the Terrible" on him and would like to recommend him as a top-sergeant to the United States Army.

4 Lettermen, 7 Others Are On Cage Five

Squad May Go to Oklahoma Dec. 28—Coach McQuillan Hopes for Service Games

Since Hub McQuillan has nothing to do around the campus but scout the Frogs' opponents each week and coach the big Purple line, he has started spending his evenings instructing the basketball team, which started practice Monday night.

The squad boasts of 11 men this year—four lettermen, two squadmen, a junior college transfer, two prospects from last year's freshman team and two volunteers.

Lettermen are Floppy Blackmon, Max Humphreys, Swede Pelto and Bob McHenry. Squadmen are Jimmy Pattee and Bill Conrad. Floyd "Zeke" Chronister is the transfer, from Coffeyville, Kan. Al Rroller and Doug Kenney are the sophomores, and Homer Baughman and Scott Mooring the volunteers.

The Frogs, transportation permitting, will play in the Oklahoma City tournament beginning Dec. 28. Games with North Texas State Teachers and several other colleges are planned before Christmas, but definite dates have not been set.

Coach McQuillan hopes to schedule several games with service groups in San Antonio and Corpus Christi, but again transportation is a problem.

Members of the Frog team are either far from or near home. Kansas, Idaho, Minnesota, New York and Fort Worth and Dallas are represented on the 11-man squad.

PASSER, punter and runner for the Frogs is Quarterback Emery Nix who has been a standout in every game.

Baylor Wins 10 to 7! No More Need Be Said!

By ELMO WEBB

Baylor won 10 to 7! That in itself is enough said, but a few details of Saturday's gridiron battle are needed.

It was a determined Bear team that for the second straight week held off its opponents with its back to the goal. The Frogs failed (?) twice to score, once from the one-inch line in three downs. The other time the ball went over on the 1-yard line.

The Frogs had the edge in every department but the score and goal-line stands.

T. C. U. scored first in the opening period. Ralph Porter intercepted a pass and ran to the Bear 20. Six plays later the Frogs scored, with Emery Nix carrying over from the 1. Clifton Patton converted.

It was Kit Kittrell who put the Bears back in the game in the second quarter. He ran two identical plays, one for 48 yards and one for 16 and the touchdown, around the left side of the Purple line. Bert Edminson converted—and that's not all he did.

Besides this conversion and his punting, that good right leg of his booted a difficult field goal with the ball being placed down on the 17-yard line in the third period.

Then came the series of unanswered knocks by the Frogs at the Baylor goal—unanswered or unseen, as the case may be.

In the third, Nix called for a pass play on fourth down with 1-yard to go. He was rushed, started to run, changed his mind and ended up by tossing the ball toward an ineligible receiver. From high up it looked as though Emery could have made it if he had kept on churning toward pay dirt or passed to Bob Balaban who was open. But that is one of those second-guess "ifs."

In the fourth quarter, with the ball on the 7, Nix passed to Bob McCollum. Bob drove for the goal, with Balaban leading interference. "Bull" Baly and a Baylor man all fell at the goal. Field Judge Bud Price raised his fist in the air and referee Harry Viner raised his hands as though a score had been made, but

Seniors Win Football Race

"Davy" Schell Completes 15 Of 22 Passes—Juniors Down Sophomores 7-to-6

By RICHARD MOORE

Riding in on the pitching arm of LeRoy "Davy" Schell, the Senior intramural team muddled their way to a 34-to-7 victory over the Freshman eight Wednesday afternoon.

The victory enabled the Seniors to take the football championship as the Juniors waylaid a scrapping Sophomore bunch 7-to-6 in the other game and eliminated the only team that had a mathematical chance at the title.

The Freshmen won the toss—and that was all they won.

Behind the slingshot arm of General Schell, who pitched for four of the Senior's first touchdowns and completed 15 of 22 passes for an average of .681, the Seniors scored in the first, second and third quarters, and twice in the final quarter for their victory and the championship.

The Seniors scored the first time they came into possession of the ball. General Schell drew back his arm and pitched a strike to Jarmo Pelto who lateraled to Scott Mooring who scooted down the side lines for the remaining 20 yards and a touchdown.

The Seniors tallied again in the second quarter when Schell passed to tall Max Humphreys for a score. The Freshmen got back in the game scoring on a pass from Gene Garrison to Ralph Garrett in the second quarter with the half ending and the score reading 14-to-7.

On the first play after the kick-off, the Seniors scored on the old hide-away play, with General Schell passing to Jimmie Pattee for six points. The champs scored their final two touchdowns also on passes. Lloyd Stevens passing to Humphreys, and Schell tossing his last touchdown pass to Pelto.

Besides Schell, Humphreys, Pelto, Pattee and Bob McHenry played good ball for the winners.

In the Junior-Sophomore tilt, the game was decided when Frank Benton passed to Lloyd Stevens for the extra point. Benton had passed to Stevens for the six points. Their score came in the third quarter.

The Sophomores scored late in the fourth quarter when Whitey Cox passed to Ralph Garrett who ran the remaining 30 yards for the Sophs only score. The Sophs threatened again a few plays later, but this drive was stopped when Harold McLeRoy intercepted a Soph pass.

Next week the champion Senior team meets the Juniors, and the Sophomores engage the Freshmen. The Junior, Soph and Freshman teams are all tied up, with two victories and four losses each.

TCU Picks Mrs. Murphy For War Effort Merit

By EDLEEN ARMSTRONG and MARY ALLENE INGRAM

The magazine, Mademoiselle, is offering an opportunity to women to receive merit for their contribution to the war effort. In addition to receiving personal satisfaction for work they are given a chance for public recognition.

Beginning with the January issue, a national winner of the "Award for Practical Patriotism" will be announced. The successful candidate will be given a certificate of honor, and a pin designed by Cartier of New York, in the form of a "M" set with small square-cut sapphires, and backed by a gold "V."

Each month's winner will have her name placed on a roll of honor in the editorial offices of Mademoiselle. In addition to the selection of a national winner, three other women will be given certificates of honor. Several pages of each issue of the magazine will be turned over each month to the government for dissemination of vital war womanpower information.

When Mademoiselle asked T. C. U. for a candidate for national competition for a winner, the natural choice was Mrs. Helen Murphy, who is "the mother of a son who is a pilot in the Army Air Corps, and an energetic worker in the Red Cross, O. C. D., U. S. O. and many other civilian defense projects... and is a conspicuous example of a person who is carrying on her own vital work on the campus and also giving an incredible amount of time to war work."

Social activities have slackened down on the campus this week, but everyone is looking forward to a full schedule of activities for Homecoming next week. The sophomores are having a hayride Wednesday night, with a wiener roast and dancing afterward. The annual Freshman-Sophomore Play Contest will be presented Monday evening.

Music Groups to Give Program in Foster

The University Place Music Club will join with the T. C. U. Music department in a program to be given at 2:30 p. m. Monday in Foster Hall. Mrs. R. L. Emerson is president of the University Place Music Club.

Mrs. Bard W. Paul, state president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, and other state officers will attend.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Smith McCorkle will play for the meeting. Dr. McCorkle will give a short greeting. Melvin Dacus and Miss Virginia Ulrichson will sing some of Don Gillis' songs.

Miss Monk Marries Orville C. Frye

Miss Dorothy Monk and Staff Sgt. Orville C. Frye of Tarrant Field were married Saturday afternoon at the bride's home, 2805 Princeton Street. A reception for friends and relatives was held following the ceremony.

Sergt. and Mrs. Frye made a trip to Waco, after which he returned to his post. Mrs. Frye will remain at her parents' home for a time.

'41 Graduate Weds In California

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Womack, A. B. '41, to Joe J. Brelsford, U. S. N. R., Oct. 17, in San Francisco.

Mrs. Brelsford was a member of The Skiff and Horned Frog staffs and Sigma Tau Delta. The couple is living in San Francisco.

Three Are Initiated Into A. C. S.

M. C. Smith, Ray Greene and Cortell Holsapple were initiated into the student affiliate of the American Chemical Society last Friday.

The initiation was held in the home of Quentin Needham, 1434 Pruitt Street. Miss Gayle Kissinger spoke on "Alcohols of the Methane Series."

Miss Russell to Give Voice Recital

Miss Elaine Russell will give a voice recital at 4 p. m. Nov. 22 in the University Christian Church.

Miss Mary Louise Harwood, pupil of Miss Jeanette Tillett, will accompany her.

Miss Russell is a student of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote.

Phi Sigma Iota Holds Initiation For Five

Five new members were initiated into Phi Sigma Iota, Thursday night. They are Trotter Adams, Misses Anne Faris, Mary Helen McClenden, Mamie Shaw and Blanche Zihlman.

President Ernest Allen, Jr., presided. All old members took part in the initiation.

Miss Kissinger Heads Parabola Club

Miss Gayle Kissinger was elected president of the Parabola Club Wednesday. Miss Mozelle Rankin is the new vice-president; Mrs. Edith Morgan, secretary-treasurer.

The revised constitution was adopted and a meeting scheduled for next Friday.

Members of the Parabola club are: Misses Gladys Cain, Kissinger, Lois Puckett, Rankin, Dorothy Sinex, Dorothy Sheets, Mrs. Morgan.

Brushes Club to Plan For Homecoming

The Brushes Club will hold a business meeting at 7:30 o'clock Monday night in the Art Studio. A called meeting will be held sometime this week, to plan decorations for Homecoming. The club is in charge of decorating the main hall of the Administration Building.

"The club plans to take over the U. S. O. at the Texas Hotel for one day," says Miss Elizabeth Patterson, secretary.

A bingo party for the club was held at the home of Miss Patterson Tuesday night.

Dramatic Club Issues Membership Cards

Membership cards were given out at the Dramatic Club meeting Monday night, for the first time in several years.

A radio play, "Wind in the Dark," by Miss Doris Mahon, was presented.

The next meeting of the club will be Monday night, when the Freshman-Sophomore Play Contest will be held. The club is now working on a group of five plays from which one will be chosen to be given at the next regular meeting.

Los Hidalgos Invites New Members

A called meeting of the officers of Los Hidalgos was held Thursday for the purpose of deciding who would be invited to fill the quota for new members this year.

"We are a little slow in getting started," says Miss Eula Lee Carter, sponsor, "but we will have written invitations in the mail this week, and the names of initiates will be ready for publication next Friday."

Faculty Women's Club Elects Secretary

Miss Ella D. Hogan has been elected secretary of the Faculty Women's Club.

The members voted to meet the third Tuesday in each month. The meetings will be in the form of luncheons, reports Mrs. Artemisia Bryson, president.

Long Line of TCU Athletes Now Fighting on USA Team

By ALEX JOINER

College athletes from all parts of the country have been welcomed additions to the armed forces of the nation. The spirit of co-operation instilled in them through their work on the various athletic fields and the experience they have gained as leaders have proven valuable assets to Uncle Sam.

A long line of T. C. U. athletes are fighting on their country's "team"—the most popular branches being the Army and Naval Air Corps.

Lieut. Roy "Bud" Eury, Frog back and captain of the '29 basketball team, is flying with the Eagle Squadron of the Army Air Corps in England. Lieut. V. M. "Boss" Clark, former assistant athletic director and varsity track coach, is in the Army Air Corps, stationed at Tarrant Field.

Others in the Army Air Corps include Bobby Bass, Linden Binion, Ronnie Brumbaugh, Horace Carswell, Glenn Chamberlain, Bobby Childers, Dick Everett, Guy Holt, Clifford Kellow, Forrest Kline, Elliott Phares, Dan Salkeld, Fred Shoek, Connie Sparks and Dennis and Ralph Tankesley.

Also in the Army Air Corps are Elmer H. Jordan, track and tennis letterman '37-41, who is at Goodfellow Field, Paul Tankesley, basketball letterman, and Gail Smith, football man.

Amos Melton, member of the Horned Frog football team in '28, '26 and '27; L. D. Meyer; Durward Horner and Capt. J. W. "Grassy" Hinton, who played his last season in '31 and will be remembered as one of the best half-backs T. C. U. ever had, are in the Army Air Corps.

The Navy list includes Mike Brumbelow and Walter Roach, former coaches and football players and Clarence Alexander, Vance Woolwine, quarterback of '31 Horned Frog team who is stationed at Norfolk, Va.; Noble Atkins, who was rated on two all-conference teams and had all-American mention as center 10 years ago; Herman Clark, Glen Cowart, Robert Glaze, tennis star; Tracy Kellow, Paul Smith, Blarnd Clure, football players and Gus Bierman, Jr., football and baseball stars.

Others in the navy are Otha Tiner, Johnny Vaught and Allie White, all stationed at Norfolk, Va., and Dr. Wendell Sumner.

Cy Leland, famed T. C. U. half-back, whose 100-yard dash mark of 9.5 still holds the Southwest conference track record, is in the army at Valparaiso, Ind. Another notable in the army is Derrill Lester, first all-American football player at T. C. U.

Others in the army are Benton Beasley, golfer; Forrest Black, Charles Mabry, Mason Wayne, Don Looney, L. A. Monroe, Don McLeland, Bobby Sherrrod and Bob Sikes, varsity golf.

Jimmy Lawrence, army man and all-conference halfback of the '35 championship team, is somewhere in Australia.

In the Coast Guard are James Ditto, Robert Groseloco and Frank Kring, who is in Norfolk.

In the U. S. Naval Air Corps are Jack Billingsley, A. J. Brumbaugh, Mitchell McGraw, Bill Ramsey and Raymond "Bear" Wolf, football players. Bill Padon of the '41 track team is at Athens, Ga., and Gene Bryan, golfer, is at Corpus Christi.

Bill Crawford, captain of the last year's Horned Frog football team, is in the navy, stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Base.

Athletes in the Marine Corps are Phil Roach, Woodrow Adams, Kyle Gillespie, football players, and Buster Adams, golfer, the latter somewhere in the Pacific.

Buster Brannon, former T. C. U. quarterback, is a member of the Pensacola Naval School coaching staff, the team that the Frogs defeated two weeks ago.

Mouly Leads Programs On Education at Brite

Jim Mouly had charge of the "Educational Day" program in Brite Chapel Wednesday.

The first Wednesday in every month is devoted to this subject. Mouly is the chairman and leads the discussion for each program.

Other dating being done these days is CLYDE FLOWERS and MIRIAM CLARK; OLGA ATKINSON and MIKE HARTER; PETE CLICK and JEAN MORRISON; EUGENE WILLEFORD and MAXINE MIDDLETON.

GEORGIA LEE NORRIS caused quite a sensation when she went through the halls of Foster Wednesday night wanting to know who would accept a date with a lieutenant waiting downstairs.

Yankee Accent, Always Smiling; That's Judy Davis

Beware, teachers and laboratories of T. C. U.!

Miss Judy Davis is the bombshell who blew up the laboratory three times at Arlington Heights School in Massachusetts. That bombshell is on the T. C. U. campus this year, and living in Foster Hall.

Judy, while using some chemicals, forgot to burn the remains and they exploded, three times in succession. Her eyes were burned. When she yelled for help, the professor turned and when he saw excited Judy, he had a heart attack from which he never recovered.

Judy is a 16-year-old freshman with a yankee accent, light brown hair and hazel eyes. While talking to her, one will note her pleasant disposition and ready smile.

Surprisingly, but sensibly enough, Judy is majoring in business administration.

Of all the things for Judy, a true T. C. U. ite, to say when asked what she liked best of all, was, "I just love those Aggies!"

Beware of a bombshell, Aggies!

B. C. B. Retreaters Shout "Gimme That Football!"

"Touchdown for the preachers!" was a familiar shout between every lecture at the B. C. B. Retreat last week-end. "And we won every game, too," proudly reports Paul Kennedy.

Hugh Baker directed the recreation for the meeting. Discussions were led by various members of the Brite College faculty, and were "very successful," according to Jim Moudy.

Registrar S. W. Hutton led the consecration service. The closing friendship circle was directed by Dean Colby Hall.

Dr. Porterfield to Speak At St. John's Evangelical

Dr. Austin L. Porterfield will speak on "Scientific Perspective for the Race Problem" to the Young Peoples' Department at St. John's Evangelical Church Sunday.

He will also speak at the fellowship dinner next Friday night at the First Christian Church.

Miss Martha Campbell left for her home in Canyon Wednesday, where she attended the Homecoming of West Texas State Teachers College.

Toad Tattler

by Mary Allene Ingram and Edleen Armstrong

A blackout, instead of a dance, will be held in the Gymnasium tomorrow night, and the Frogies have gone up Lubbock way to "raid" the Red Raiders. This will cause a lull in doings on the Hill this week-end, but T. C. U.ites will be dating as usual. Speaking of dating, there seems to have been a lot of this sport going on lately.

PAUL ADMIRE is giving RUTH ANN KING a "big rush." BETTY JO LEWIS was all aglow over her out-of-town boy friend coming to see her. TINKA ATKINS went to the Wog-Cub game at Waco to see "Fish" TOM BISHOP play.

New couples seen around on the campus: MARGARET HOPKINS and SAM WEATHERFORD; JANE DUNKLE and LLOYD STEVENS; POLLY GEAN and MELVIN DACUS; DORIS ROGERS and BRUCE ALFORD. MARTHA MELLOWN is playing her trump card by dating FRANK MEDANICH.

HARLAN GREMLIONN is looking sad since HAPPY ELLIS is leaving for the Marines.

SHIRLEY HALL has been dating Cadet EARL DYESS, who is stationed at Hensley Field. GLYNN DEEN BUTTERFIELD is going steady with a cadet there. BOBBIE HOLMES and FRANCES STEARNS are dating ensigns from Jarvis.

DEE EZELL apparently is enjoying his practice teaching. His one trouble, says DEE, "is that the girls in my class like to flirt with me!" JOE ROGERS is the "heartbeat" of more than one girl in Foster Hall, and this bit of "info" is strictly first-hand.

One of the most excited girls on the campus was MYRA JEANE TOMPKINS when her "one and only" came from Mississippi this week to see her.

The Halloween dance was very successful with a lot of dating being done: CARL MEHAFFEY with VIRGINIA WILLIAMS; JIMMY PATTEE and MARGARET CORBETT; VIRGINIA FULKERSON with HOUSTON FOSTER; MARGIE LEWIS with BLAKE HAMMOND; LEROY SCHELL and LORRAINE FIELD.

WILMA FAYE McGLOTHIN and BUD FULTZ; PAT ALLISON and HOMER BAUGHMAN; JIM WOODFIN with a T. S. C. W. coed. There was a notable absence of freshman caps at the dance, also.

Other dating being done these days is CLYDE FLOWERS and MIRIAM CLARK; OLGA ATKINSON and MIKE HARTER; PETE CLICK and JEAN MORRISON; EUGENE WILLEFORD and MAXINE MIDDLETON.

GEORGIA LEE NORRIS caused quite a sensation when she went through the halls of Foster Wednesday night wanting to know who would accept a date with a lieutenant waiting downstairs.

Marshall, Snowden to Give Sermons at Timothy Monday

Otto Marshall and Claude Snowden will give the second group in the series of Thanksgiving sermons at Timothy Club meeting at 4 p. m. Monday in the Brite College Club Room.
