Honest Bill Gets Put "On the Spot" In Work, Exams

Bill Hall was "on the spot" last Friday, and it required the help of Miss Margaret Ann Coffey to rescue him.

Bill does all the school's mimeographing and turns out many a batch of examination questions. Friday he was called on to mimeograph the questions for the class in "Christianity in History."

But Bill is taking "Christianity in History," and that created a problem. Bill couldn't tell if the copies were clear, or if they needed more ink, or what, without looking at the questions.

So Bill told his tale of woe in the registrar's office. Margaret Ann was appointed a committee of one to see that Bill put enough ink in the machine. Then she gathered up the copies, put them back in their envelope and sealed them up.

Bill didn't have to look at the questions, and Margaret Ann is pleased.

"At last," she says, "I have found an honest man."

Meliorist Club to Have Mother's Day Program

A special Mother's Day program will be held by members of Meliorist Club at the meeting after Evensong Sunday night at the University Christian Church.

In the Spring—Recitals!

In the spring a music student suddenly turns to thoughts of his recital.

To most persons recitals mean a time for a few students to strain their vocal chords, wear down a violin's strings or tickle the ivory of a piano. But they are a presentation of a student's accomplishments in his particular musical field.

Formerly such presentations were attended by fond parents, faculty friends, loyal roommates and a few brave souls that didn't care if others knew they like the type of music I played.

But recitals are not attended only by these now, for it is no longer a sin for a student in other fields such as economics or a person who likes Saturday-night jazz to also like Chopin or Debussy. Nor does he have to stand outside the door while their compositions are being played and pretend he's waiting for a friend.

Good music is being accepted by everyone now.

T. C. U. has a schedule of recitals to be given in the next weeks that will please the varied tastes of all lovers of music. Programs for these recitals are posted in the Administration Building.

Those who have a taste for good music will find them a pleasure and those who haven't tasted might find they like it.

Colleges "Go to War"

Colleges throughout the country are now opening their portals to Army and Navy trainees. This undoubtedly will prove to be a three-way boon: to the colleges, to the boys themselves and to the Army and Navy.

The colleges again will be assured of students that were taken from them by the 18-19 year old draft. Too, the college finances will be aided by the government-paid-for recruits. The boys themselves, who took entrance examinations last month, will be given an opportunity to become commissioned officers, and at the same time receive a college education provided by the government. Moreover, the armed services will be receiving great benefits in that they have discovered already-established institutions that can produce officers.

Colleges now are busily rearranging schedules and credits in order to conform with Army and Navy needs. In their own way, colleges are "going to war."

Mother's Day

Sunday marks a nationwide celebration of Mother's Day. Perhaps in the busy days of college and the awareness that childhood and adolescent days are only a dim memory, one may be prone to overlook the rich symbolism of this particular day.

Perhaps a conception has arisen that it is childish or sissy to feel sentimental on such an occasion as this. But forget that.

Every day when you reflect upon the blessings that are yours remember that the family is the strongest tradition and bond of these United States. Remember with sentiment and thankful heart your mother—the force of that staunch tie.

Sunday is the day when you will outwardly show your feelings. But inwardly possess an omnipresent respect, love and admiration for this country's outstanding heroine—the American mother.

This writer will probably get slugged for this by the faculty or Registrar S. W. Hutton or both but the seniors got gyped this year and how.

Senior tests are from May 24 to 27. Those dates are from Monday through Thursday before Commencement exercises on the following Monday. In other words the seniors have only Friday, Saturday and Sunday before graduation for activities. Thursday night could be thrown in.

Now don't try to say that this is the way it has always been because it is NOT. Take last year for example. Examinations had to be finished by the Tuesday before the Monday graduation. That was a full six days.

Some senior activities were in the mornings last year. In all, nine activities were held. This year the seniors had planned to start senior week on or about the Tuesday before graduation on the following Monday. NO, they did not ask about the schedule before planning senior week this year. Why should they? No one dreamed with an "accelerated" program on that tests would be moved back on the Class of '43.

Please, Mr. Hutton, can't you give us a break and have tests over by Tuesday noon as in years past!!!

This week end is an eventful one in the future of the Southwest Conference. Meetings are to be held in Houston today and tomorrow to decide what is to be done.

Titles might be "frozen" and no official conference competition held next season. Schools in the conference could plan among themselves if they cared to meet in any football, basketball or other sports events but it would not go into the conference records.

This seems a logical thing to do. If any athletics are carried on by the schools, the players participating would not really be representative of the schools. Schools under a service program would have many boys that had never before attended the school in which they would be enrolled. Almost all players would be new names to the school with a limited time to stay in one place. It would not be like T. C. U., S. M. U., Rice, Texas and the rest playing each other, but first one group of service men after another competing under the various school colors.

The outcome of this meeting in Houston should be of interest to all sports fans and athletes.

Four-Man Golf Team, Led by Cason, Plays Houston Finals Today

Today winds up the 1943 Southwest Conference golf meet in Houston in which the Frogs have a four-man team for their only participation in a spring sport this season.

No. 1 on the Purple squad as a result of last week's qualifying is Spud Cason. The other three in their order of rank are Robert Lowe, Jim Ted Ramsel and Bob McHenry.

The team left Fort Worth Wednesday, accompanied by Hub McQuillan, in time to play the Brae Burn course that afternoon. The first day of the tournament was yesterday.

All competition is based on medal play. Lowest individual 72-hole total wins the medalist honors. Team standings are determined by the total scores of the 72 holes played by each of the four players on the squad.

Ripley Material: Belknap Protests At Army Neglect

"I think maybe they have forgotten me!"

Nine out of ten times if you ask Barton Belknap why he hasn't been called into service, he will give you the answer above.

Barton has taken his physical, passed it and thought he would be called in a few days. Well that few days was about a month and a half ago, and he is still at T. C. U.

When the group of boys was called last week, he thought he would surely be among them, but he wasn't. If you don't think Barton has tried to be helpful to Uncle Sam then you must know this.

Barton has even written a letter to those in charge of the drafting and asked them if they hadn't forgotten him. He tried to get into the Navy, but was too late, so now he is 1A "draft bait" waiting to be hooked—and he's beginning to wonder when that hooking time will come.

News'n Views From Other Schools by Beverley Wade

Certain colleges and universities throughout the country have discovered recently a new way of making the sale of war bonds and stamps pay "greater dividends."

Milwaukee State Teachers College in Wisconsin is one of the latest schools to be added to the growing lists. Students at the college plan to purchase an Army jeep from their present bond and stamp campaign. The campaign will last for three weeks and then succeeding ones will be carried on.

Journalism seniors at Montana State University will wear Eaton polka-dot ties for three days beginning next Monday. The wearing of the tie is a custom at the University and is done in connection with the school of journalism's annual Dean Stone week. Stone is dean emeritus of the school. The senior boys will wear the ties with white shirts while the coeds will appear in starched white collars and the tie.

Dormitory students at T. S. C. W. recently competed in a singing contest. Each dormitory was represented by a group of not less than 20 members. No group was allowed to sing for more than four minutes, and the individual group songs remained a secret until the contest actually began.

T.C.U. Tennis Team Wins 3 Matches

The T. C. U. tennis team under the direction of Coach Dutch Meyer broke even with the United States Public Health Service Hospital last Friday. Each team won three matches.

Lively Social Calendar Not Stunted by Exams

By EDLEEN ARMSTRONG AND MARY ALLENE JONES

The time has arrived when you should get out your "little red book," not for your numerous telephone numbers and addresses, but for the socials you will attend in the coming days. You will be extremely busy with dates, dates, sleep and more dates, as school draws to an end. Exam-time will remain vague until "the night before," when some fancy cramming will take place.

There were big plans for a Christian Endeavor "star-gazing" party and a Phi Sigma Iota picnic for tonight, but as a journalist's luck would have it, both events have been cancelled. Although the social calendar is undergoing revisions, it still remains rather crowded.

The last luncheon of the Woman's Branch of the T. C. U. Ex-Students Association will be held tomorrow noon at the Colonial Club. All coeds graduating this spring are invited to attend.

Fourteen pledges of Ampersand will be honored with a breakfast at 8:30 a. m. Sunday in the Mexican Lounge at Foster Hall. This is an annual affair, with Dean Elizabeth Shelburne as hostess.

An all-S. C. A. picnic will be held Tuesday afternoon in Forest Park, with dancing afterward. Officers for the coming year will be initiated.

Horned Frog staff members and their guests will get the first look at their work on the yearbook at their banquet Thursday evening. It will be held at the Original Mexican Cafe, in keeping with the southwest theme of the book.

Lieut. George DeMontrond, tactical officer at N. M. M. L. and Buddy Rodericks, also of N. M. M. L., visited Miss Therylene Knox this week.

Tea to Open Exhibit By Brushes Club

A tea in the art department Sunday, May 16, will open the Brushes Club spring art exhibit.

Calling hours will be from 3 until 5 p. m. Members of the club will receive guests. All students are invited to attend. Election of officers for the coming year will be held after the tea, says Miss Margaret Gilbert, president.

The paintings, which will represent the best of the members' work for the year, will be on exhibit until school closes.

Mavericks to Hold Supper Monday

A supper will be held by the Maverick Club at 6 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Artemisia Bryson, 2917 Princeton Street.

Officers for next year will also be elected at this meeting.

"All members who wish to attend must let either Miss Dorothy Knight or Miss Gail Huckabee know if they are going," says Mrs. Pauline Longfellow, president.

Phi Sigma Iota to Plan Picnic Monday

Plans for the last picnic of the year will be made when Phi Sigma Iota meets Monday.

Jeanne Moore Heads Campus Club

Miss Jeanne Moore was elected president of the Campus Club when it met Wednesday. She will serve during the July to November term.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Miss Arf Fulker; son, recording secretary; Miss Claudine Jarvis; corresponding secretary, Miss Martha Campbell; and treasurer, Miss Betty Jean Smith.

Sponsors will be Dr. and Mrs. Gayle Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Prouse.

Dramatic Club Elects Ann Barham Head

Miss Ann Barham was elected president of the Dramatic Club for next year at a business meeting and picnic supper at Miss Barham's home Wednesday night.

Miss Gerlyne Schmidt was elected vice-president, Miss Nina Elliott, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Bettye Flo Baker, reporter and publicity manager.

Ex-Students to Honor Girl Graduates

All 1943 girl graduates of T. C. U. are invited to attend the final luncheon of the season of the Women's Branch of the T. C. U. Ex-Students Association at 12 p. m. tomorrow at the Colonial Club.

The entertainment will be furnished by students from the School of Fine Arts.

Next Timothy Meeting Senior's Farewell

A farewell meeting in honor of senior members will be held by the Timothy Club at 4 p. m. Monday in Brite Chapel.

Seniors will make their farewell speeches.

No dance is scheduled for tomorrow night, but no one can complain since there were two successful "fling-dings" given Saturday in the name of T. C. U. Eds and coeds that don't stay at home to work on term themes will be out doing the town in their own individual ways this week-end.

The choicest bit of news that could be found in the DRUMMOND SLOVER-NANCY TANNER wedding. Now we know they are firm believers in short engagements! OLGA ATKINSON is the proud possessor of a ring on "the" finger from MIKE HARTER. This column is being written on Tuesday, therefore, we are not responsible if they decide to take the vows before you read this.

JEAN MORRISON is sporting a new ring, also, but JEAN wants everyone, (meaning males), to know that she is still "foot-loose and fancy free," since the ring was given to her by her family.

FRANCES MITCHELL is in Louisiana visiting "HIS" folks. This sounds as though she has deserted the Navy for the Army. WANDA YARDANOFF and NANCY CAGLE will stick to the Marines though. They report they had a super time at the Casino Saturday night.

Friends of ex-ELECTRA PEARSON will be interested to know that she has joined the WAAC. LORNA CULP has had experience as a hack driver, since she drove a cab here from Tulsa last week.

Someone has suggested that BETTYE NAIL'S theme song should be "Don't Get Around Much Anymore." Speaking of songs, why is it that JIMMY PATTEE recently has been singing "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life?"

We have been informed by BOB MATHENY that all boys in Gibson House have decided to be confirmed bachelors. Why is that?
