Student Council Names Two Committees, Decides Against Date Bureau

A committee was appointed at the Monday Student Council meeting whose duty it will be to meet with members of the faculty in case any problem should arise which concerns co-ordinated discussions between faculty and students.

A representative from each class will make up the committee. Clyde Foltz is senior representative, Bonnie Hall, junior, Nina Elliott, sophomore and "Red" Cox freshman. It was decided that no representative of the August graduates would be necessary.

A committee was also appointed to start the Frog War and growing as soon as possible. His fund is used to keep the service flag intact, a portion is donated to the American Red Cross, World Student Service Fund and part of it goes into the buying of bonds for the University. The service flag, by vote of the council, has been replaced in the auditorium. It was taken down at spring in order to have the blue and gold stars added.

Miss Billie Jean Boney was appointed to head the committee and those working with her will be Ben White, Miss Betty Mae McConaughil, Jim Brown, Bob Brown and Clyde Foltz. The committee is responsible for sponsoring drives on the campus which will aid in raising money to swell the Frog War Fund.

The opportunities to be gained from a date bureau were discussed and it was decided that it would be an unfavorable gesture. The Navy men feel that they can make friends with the coeds easily enough on a campus as friendly as this one and that a date bureau would be an unnecessary move and perhaps an unwise one.

Dean Hall to Give Lesson for Student Bible Class

Dean Colby D. Hall will bring the lesson at the College Sunday School class at 9:45 a. m. Sunday in Brite Chapel.

Gilbert Grady will preside, and Miss Mary Rebecca Barrier will give the devotional.

Sadler Attends Meeting of Board of Trustees

President M. E. Sadler was present yesterday at a conference of the Board of Trustees in Dallas. The conference was called to discuss various problems which have arisen in the University program.

Campus Works at 'Beat Heat' 'Old Red' Has Right Idea—Move to Fish Pond

No sun-burned noses mark the Fort Worth heat wave. The reason is simple—when it's this hot nobody ventures out of the shade. The elements are enough to put the "swab-jockeys" in a state of mind wishful for the days when a cool ocean breeze will settle the old hot or cold question.

The professors are no dumb-clucks when it comes to being comfortable. They solve the problem by moving restless classes out-of-doors, where, although it isn't cool, it's cooler. Mrs. Artemisia Bryson says she now teaches all her "Bacon, Ibsen and Materlink 'neath the trees."

The occupants of the west wing of Foster Hall were three degrees closer to — than any of the other students Tuesday afternoon. A nice, big blaze was started just outside their windows. Someone decided that the grass needed burning off and proceeded to strike the match and get the work into progress.

QUEEN of the Ellington Field bombardiers this week-end is Miss Mitzi Tucker, freshman from Fort Worth. She will be honored with a dinner in Houston tonight and will be the "Queen of the Ball" at the bombardiers' graduation dance tomorrow night.

"Queen of the Bombardiers" is the title being worn this week-end by Freshman Mitzi Tucker.

She left yesterday for Ellington Field, where she will reign at the graduation exercises of the bombardier cadets tomorrow.

She will be honored with a dinner in the Empire Room of the Rice Hotel in Houston tonight, will make a tour of Ellington (Continued on Page 4)

TCU Makes Plans to Sponsor "Dollar Drive" Against Polio For Various Campus Groups

Jimmy Farrar Heads Drive, Aided by Chairmen Joe Wick, Ed Cornelius and Katy Day

By BILLIE JEAN BONEY

The Student Council, upon the recommendation and request of a number of students, will sponsor a "Dollar Drive Against Infantile Paralysis." The drive officially begins at 9 o'clock in the morning and will continue one week, closing at 12 o'clock noon next Friday.

"I am especially happy that the Student Council has inaugurated this $1 per person drive for the infantile paralysis fund," says President M. E. Sadler. "I'm confident that every member of the University group will want to participate in this most worthwhile undertaking. I should like to be the first on the campus to give a dollar toward the drive, but I suppose that several have already asked for that privilege."

BIBLE Professor Cecil F. Cheverton, who will join the faculty of Brite College Sept. 1. He comes to T. C. U. from Chapman College, Los Angeles, where he has served as teacher and president for more than 20 years.

Dr. Cheverton New Teacher

Former Chapman College Head Will Be Professor of Old Testament Sept. 1

Dr. Cecil F. Cheverton has been named professor of Old Testament in Brite College of the Bible, effective Sept. 1, it was announced this week.

Dr. Cheverton has been connected with Chapman College, Los Angeles, since 1920, serving as president of the school for the past 12 years.

He holds the A. B. and M. A. degrees from Drake University, and the Ph. D. degree from Boston University.

"Dr. Cheverton has been the outstanding teacher of Bible in Chapman College for more than 20 (Continued on Page 4)

Jimmy Farrar has been named by the Council to head the drive. The committees which work under him are headed by Joe Wick, chairman of the committee in Goode Hall; Ed Cornelius, Clark Hall and Miss Katy Day, Foster Hall.

The naval officers of Jarvis Hall have expressed a desire to be included in the drive. A committee will be appointed to take the donations which these men wish to give.

Booth in Main Hall.

These chairmen and their committee members will attempt to contact every person on the campus individually. There will be a booth in the Main Hall of the Administration Building where town students may subscribe their dollars. There will also be a receptacle there for any pennies, nickles, dimes and what-not that may be loose in student pockets and need to be directed to a noble end.

The goal set in Tarrant County has been placed at $50,000.

"There will be no set goal in T. C. U. The wish is to exceed any height that might be described and give the Hill a part in this drive which is one of the most inspiring yet attempted," says Clyde Foltz, president of the Council.

Money Goes to Tarrant County.

The money which is collected through this drive will stay in Fort Worth and will be directed toward the care of Tarrant County paralysis patients. "The care of victims of poliomyelitis is an extremely expensive one," says Mr. A. B. Vera, secretary-treasurer of the Tarrant County Paralysis Drive. "Each iron lung costs $1600 and each respirator used (Continued on Page 4)

Prexy's Letters Come to Rescue Of Arts School

Recently the School of Fine Arts sent a notice down to the President's desk to the effect that a goodly sum of money was needed for improvements within the school, and to buy some new pianos.

The president pushed his cap back, scratched his head and got to wondering where so much money was to come from. The University funds having been imposed upon entirely too much, he thought it best to seek a new source.

The University has "good will men" scattered here and yon, and they drum up friends for the school who swear by their stars that they may be called upon for a helping hand.

The president pictured these friends and decided to give them a try. Six letters were written. Five responses have been made—all in the form of sizeable checks—and it is more than probable that the sixth party will be heard from shortly.

The president's ingenuity and the generosity of the "friends of the University" resulted in two grand pianos, a new recital hall and a deal of remodeling!

Sergt. Edward W. Phillips Killed in Bombing Raid

Sergt. Edward W. Phillips, ex '41, was killed in action in the "European Theater" of the war May 14, according to word received by Fort Worth relatives this week. He had previously been reported missing in action.

Sergt. Phillips was serving as a gunner on a Liberator bomber. He enlisted in October, 1941, and had been in England since November, 1942. He had been decorated for "valor and exceptional performance in action."

and that's proof enough!

The old red dog that dearly loves T. C. U. has shown students how to keep cool. Mrs. Bertie H. Mothershead has expressed an urgent prayer that the students will not follow his suggestion. Red spends the day in the fish pond and thinks it's "pretty hot stuff."

"Coeds Are Nutrition Conscious"—Miss Enlow

Another first on the campus is home economics. T. C. U. has never offered these courses in the summer before this year. Miss Bonne Enlow, head of the department reports that the classes are no more difficult than the winter ones and that she is glad to be able to offer them in the summer.

"More girls are nutrition conscious than I've ever know to be before. A number of them are thinking seriously of being married soon and they wish to get what background for home-making they can," says Miss Enlow.

There is less interest shown in the clothing classes than in the foods. Perhaps the coeds are thinking more of their stomachs than their appearance!"

There are about 15 in the department at present. An average winter session would have an enrollment of around 50 or 60.

"We don't have any trouble with rationing because every two months a certificate is issued to the department which provides all the points we need."

The classes are being taught to use substitutes for scarce foods as well as materials. Thrift is being taught to a greater degree than ever before, too.

"The heat handicaps me a great deal but it doesn't seem to bother my girls, so I don't like to admit it!" says Miss Enlow.

Use "Rush Hour" Manners

It was okay before the war to go into the Drug, order a coke and spend the next hour drinking it. Now it isn't. There are too many persons who want cokes for each to take an hour. The same idea applies to the University Cafeteria.

There is no loss of time in going through the food line and in getting to a table. But students are selfish in picking over their food for 30 minutes before eating it. The coeds have to stay and watch the sailors file in. That's okay, but just use 15 minutes to look—and keep eating. There are too many hungry students for each one to sit in the limited Cafeteria space and carry on eye-to-eye courtships.

The boys do much better. They aren't interested in the Navy and how short so-and-so's hair is cut or is not cut. So, eat and scram. Make room for your buddies. The same thing applies at the Postoffice during rush hours. Don't hang around. Wait until the mail is up, get yours and leave.

"Extracurricular activities have in common the value of constituting a laboratory in the fine art of co-operation. Benefits gained apply interchangeably to men and women in both the armed forces and civilian life."—Dean Charles Maxwell McConn, New York University.

Help Serve The Readers

It is the intention of The Skiff to cover the entire campus, to get all the news on every thing that happens. This is a small campus but the news is big. The Skiff has a small staff but the news is still big! If you know of anything that has happened or will happen that The Skiff staff does not know, tell them.

There are a lot of exes, friends of yours, who would like to see a paper some time and know what is going on. Why not subscribe to The Skiff so that it may be sent to them each week and cheer them up with the news of "what's cookin' at home"?

If you can write, how about contributing a little copy? It's fun to see your name in print once in a while. And if not that, it's fun to see something you wrote come out for everybody to read and enjoy.

Mental narrowness, intolerance, zeal to choke somebody else's belief or theory are out of place in an institution of learning. A university should be a sanctuary of intellectual freedom."—New York Times.

"Fighting Horned Frogs"

"Texas Christian University is wholly committed to co-operation with our national plans and program for winning the victory in war."

That is a statement made months ago by President M. E. Sadler. Excellent testimony to the truth of that statement is given by the survey of CPT trainees published in The Skiff.

Two-third of those who took CPT work at T. C. U. are serving in the nation's air forces. Another 20 per cent are in the armed services but not flying.

Such a record provides direct evidence of T. C. U.'s co-operation with the war effort. It's still the "Fighting Horned Frogs."

Keep T. C. U. Friendly

T. C. U. has long been noted as a friendly school. The opportunity to exercise that friendliness was never greater than it is today.

Some 240 men are gathered together from 20 states in the V-12 unit. Nearly five hundred additional boys and girls are enrolled, representing Fort Worth, Texas and many more distant points. All of these are learning to say "Howdy" and to look upon fellow students as friends and not strangers.

Even faculty members are friends of the students at T. C. U.. If given half a chance, they'll lend a helping hand with any student's problems.

Sure it's hot. School work is intensive. Everybody's busy. But that's merely all the more reason to keep friendly.

Don't Shout, Professors!

The all-time heat record has been broken once in the past week and will likely be broken again. That suggests that it is too hot for classroom doors to be closed. Teachers and students should have this fact in mind and keep their voices lowered.

The chances are that if the professor forgets the size of his classroom and raises his voice more than is necessary, the teacher across the hall is going to shut the noise off instead of shutting himself off.

Remember the heat and your neighbors, teachers. Don't shout.

6 Enter T. C. U. On Scholarships

Scholarships have been awarded to two girls and four boys entering T. C. U. for the summer-fall semester.

V-12 Identification Cards Issued to Navy Enrollees

Identification cards were issued this week to all V-12 men. After being photographed a few days earlier, each man was given the small card which is an integral part of his identification as long as he remains in the Navy.

Contained on the cards are the man's picture and other information which will be sufficient to identify him at his home station and when he is on liberty. The V-12 candidate must have this card on his person always, for his own protection as well as the Navy's.

SPORTS FORUM

By Richard Moore

The victory of Spud Cason in the Glen Garden Invitation Golf Tournament last week was quite a surprise to most circles here. Spud had played no golf since he reported for duty July 1 in the Navy V-12 Unit.

Even the best golfers must play a round or two every week, usually more often, to keep their game down to par. Spud's victory was especially significant in the fact that he defeated some of the top local shooters, yet had not picked up a golf club in more than three weeks.

A real money player, Spud is at his best when the chips are down. He is one of the best match players around. This is one reason why he is such a successful tournament player.

Spud, who captained the Frog Varsity team last year, began to swing a golf club about the time he was learning the alphabet. His first championship was the junior city title.

In 1941, Spud became the youngest champion ever to capture the city tournament, acquiring the title at the age of 16. Last year, he walked off with the Press-Worth Hills Tournament, and finished third in the Southwest Conference meet at Houston.

Spud is no champion when it comes to distance from the tees, but his approach shots are little short of sensational, as also is his putting. This was proved Sunday, when he used his short game to overwhelm a top golfer.

He will be the mainspring of the Frogs' links squad again next spring—that is, if he is still around. Along with Charley Mount and Jim Ted Ramsel, who also were in the championship flight of the Glen Garden contest, the Frogs could field a top par-bursting team.

Floyd Chronister, captain-elect of the Frogs basketball team, left Monday night for the Naval Hospital in Oklahoma. He will be there for about six months for treatments for stomach ulcers. Zeke expects, though, to be back in time to lead the T. C. U. eagles.

"Bed Sure Feels Good!"

V-12 Men's Daily Schedule Runs From 0545 to 2200

Civilian students have a schedule of two or three classes a day, but the men of the Navy V-12 program have a schedule that includes far more than classes.

Their day starts at 0545—practically the middle of the night for the civilian student—and ends at 2200 (10 p. m. to civilians.)

The Navy day includes physical exercises, classes, chow, room inspection and study. The schedule for a typical day runs something like this:

0545: "Hit the deck!" Time to get up, and on with gym shoes, scribe shirts and trunks. Make the bed; clean the room.

0600: Muster and then march to the track for cal, a try at the obstacle course, a few laps around the cinder path or a combination of all.

0630: Back to the room to clean up (both the sailor and the room) for inspection.

0700: Muster again. Fall in for chow. And does that breakfast taste good!

0800: Four hours of classes.

Kenneth B. Mattson Makes High Score In V-12 Fitness Tests

Don A. Culwell Second in Exercises—Only 33 of 245 Classified as 'Non-Swimmers'

Champion of the Navy's "Standard Physical Fitness Test" is Apprentice Seaman Kenneth B. Mattson, transfer from San Francisco Junior College, who made the highest score on the tests.

Mattson is a sophomore and a major in aeronautical engineering.

Second high was Don A. Culwell of Dallas, a transfer from the University of Texas, who is a senior in accounting.

Each man in the V-12 program participated in five exercises—the squat-thrust, the sit-up, the push-up, the squat-jump and the pull-up. Each man did just as many of each exercise as he possibly could.

Only 33 men were classified as "non-swimmers" as a result of the Navy's "Standard Swimming Test." These are men who find it impossible to swim a minimum of 50 yards. They are now enrolled in special swimming classes, from which they will graduate as swimmers.

Cason Wins Golf Tourney

Spud Cason, captain-elect of the Frogs' golf team, annexed the Glen Garden golf crown Sunday, defeating Royal Hogan, 6 to 4. Displaying an accurate short game, Spud was only five strokes above par for the 32 holes. Two of these strokes came on the No. 8 hole in the afternoon round, when he drove his tee shot into the lake. He had five birdies on the back nine.

Spud qualified for the championship bracket with a three-over par, 75. He received a $100 war bond for the winner's prize.

First Company Gets 5-4 Victory Over Second In V-12 "Grudge Battle"

HURLER Bob Savage made the difference that brought victory to the First Company in the baseball game played Wednesday afternoon.

The long awaited grudge softball battle between the First and Second companies took place Wednesday afternoon. The First Company came out on top, as was expected, but only after pushing a run across in the last frame of the game to eke out a victory, 5 to 4.

Bob Savage was the winning twirler, chalking up 10 strike outs, and allowing but two hits. Only one of the Second Company's runs was earned. The remaining runs came through errors and walks.

After the Second Company tied the score in their half of the fifth, the First 10 pushed across the winning run on a walk, stolen base and a single. Oscar Lindemann walked, stole second, advanced to third as Ed Kline grounded out, and crossed the platter on John Carlson's single to right. That was the game.

Second Team Gets Jump

The Second team jumped into a short lived one-run lead in the first inning, registering a tally after two were down. Upton Giles was issued a pass, stole second and scored on a two base error.

The First Company scored four runs in its half of the second frame, to take a commanding three-run lead. Four hits, a walk and an error accounted for the tallies.

Kline drove a single into center field to open the big inning. He advanced to third on Dick Smith's two-base blow, and both men scored on Bob Moller's short single. Gene Hicks walked. Another two-bagger by Phil Weinkrantz tallied Moller and Hicks.

In the third frame, the Second Company added a run to make the score read, 4 to 2. Two walks and Roy McElhancy's whistling double registered the run. Giles walked to fill the bases with but one down. Here, though, Savage put on the steam and set the next two batters down via the strike out route.

Triple Ties Score

A walk and a ringing triple by Giles in the fifth inning tied the score. Then came the First team's winning frame.

Don Culwell was the losing pitcher. Using a change of pace effectively, he kept the First 10 well in hand. He allowed seven hits, fanned one, and issued no walks.

The defensive play of McElhancy and Giles were outstanding for the losers. Frank Benton and Hicks stood out on the defensive side for the victors.

11 June Grads Get Navy Call

Eleven June graduates have received their orders from the Navy Department to report to Columbia University Aug. 1.

The boys who go to New York are Trotter Adams, "Floppy" Blackmon, Charlie Conway, Houston Foster, Buster Kirkpatrick, Bob McHenry, David McKee, Scott Mooring, Jimmy Moore and Harry Ward.

They have already had their "burr cuts" and are anticipating this "promotion" to the revered position of "swab jockeys." They will probably put some Texas into New York and make a real city of the metropolis!

Drawing Students Learn ABC's—the Hard Way!

Students in mechanical drawing have been learning their ABC's again—the hard way.

They have had to chart the alphabet, with numerals to boot, in free-hand, block-letter style.

"I'm drifting south to shop in Air Conditioned comfort at Striplings. It's always cool there!"

From The Crow's Nest

By Virginia Churchill

"Tain't football season, basketball season, or Christmas. Supposed to be baseball season but nobody plays baseball—and if they did it's so hot nobody would care. There are no dances planned, and the picture shows and swimming pools are out because of polio.

If you go outside you have heat exhaustion, and if you stay inside you die of boredom. If you stay at the Drug all day you get the drug habit and a bad reputation, if you don't go to the drug you never see anybody and you are classed with the don't-get-around-much-any-mores.

But in spite of everything, there's always a spot of gossip for the fellow who keeps his eyes and ears open—and that's EVERYMAN. What about Fleeters WHARTON and DUKE and their mutual harem? Incidentally, the harem eats it up.

LEWIS SHAW is bragging all over the campus about the brunette beauty on his dresser, while the reasonable facsimile of said picture gloats over the latest addition to her rogue's gallery.

PAUL LACY claims to be straight from the slums of Dallas but his roommates swear he came in from Scotland on the last boat. He ate an order of hot cakes at the Drug some two and a half weeks ago, and is still bleeding about the outrageous price of thirty cents they charged him. They say he saves burned matches and tries to sell them back to the lumber yard!

The girls of Foster are now threatening to beat the heads off the men in Jarvis for complaining that "the girls are very unlady-like for leaving their shades up at night." They say it's hot as all git out, and besides "they are up pretty high in Jarvis to be able to see in the Foster windows."

JUNE CHAMBLEE just has scads of pictures of P I T T S CRUDGINGTON all over her room. Honest, they are everywhere . . . even under her pillow at night.

Have you heard something lately that makes you think "oh, well, what's the use of living anyway?" It's probably JAKE ROARK . . . she's learning how to play the cornet. Doug Carter Late to Class, From Week in Sick Bay!

Douglas Carter, V-12 apprentice seaman from Waco, was as eager as any of the men to get into the swing of everything. But on his first day of active duty the thing happened!

Complaining with a sore foot, he reported to sick bay and was put to bed because of an infection. There he stayed through his first days of Navy life, a temporary invalid.

His only glimpse of a coveted uniform was through the window beside his bed. No uniform, no drill, no waiting in line for chow! Just rest, rest, rest!

Classes started, but Doug was absent. A week of work in physics and such can cover a lot of ground when you're not there!

But all this finally passed. Doug was issued his uniform—fitted in bed, incidentally—given inoculations and released from sick bay.

A happy sailor trudged around from classroom to classroom finally—a little dizzy, perhaps, from his week in bed, but happy at last to have stepped out with the other V-12 men on the campus.
