Council Opens Dance Position

Tuesday Made Deadline For Petitions—Dick Geib Voted Saturday Hop Chief

Petitions for dance manager are now in order and will be accepted by any member of the Student Council until 12 o'clock noon Tuesday. Only one petition has been submitted as yet, that of Dick Geib.

Geib was appointed temporary manager for the sport dance to be held after the Tech football game. The dance is strictly informal, begins at 8 p. m. and costs 50 cents per couple, 75 cents stag.

The Council voted to continue the tea dances in the Basketball Gymnasium which were originally designed to help beginning dancers improve their steps. The dances became so popular that they have been widened to include not only dance pupils but those who enjoy dancing, and are already efficient in the art.

Special Yell Section Tomorrow

The decision to rope off a section of the east stand for T. C. U. students who wish to yell at the Saturday football game was made. All students are urged to take their places between the ropes and help give the team some encouragement.

Blair Pryor resigned as Clark Hall second deck representative and a new man will be elected to replace him on the Council.

The Student Council will meet at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday instead of 12 noon Monday as in the past. All students who are interested in student government are invited to attend the meetings and voice any opinions which they think will be of value.

Ribbon Money for Ranch Week

The request of the Dramatic Club for the football ribbon concession was discussed. The Council decided that since always in the past the money made from the ribbons has been used to promote Ranch Week, that the organization which takes the concession will be under agreement to sponsor Ranch Week and the ribbon money will be used for it alone.

The decision of the club will be read at the next Council meeting. In the event the Dramatic Club does not favor this plan, the Council will take over the concession and sponsor Ranch Week with the proceeds.

Walker to Speak Sunday On "Concern of Infinite"

The Rev. Granville Walker will speak on "The Concern of the Infinite with Our Finite Lives" at the Sunday morning service of the University Christian Church.

The choir, under the direction of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote, will sing "O How Amiable Are Thy Dwellings," by West.

At Evensong at 7:15 o'clock Sunday night, Dr. Cecil F. Cheverton will speak on "How Well Can You Fight?" Miss Dorothy Jean Nuss will sing "Soft Were Thy Hands, Lord Jesus," by O'Hara. Mrs. Fred Parker will play a brief organ recital before the service.

President M. E. Sadler will teach the College Sunday School Class meeting at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning in the Recital Hall of the Administration Building.

Worship Hour Proposed Here

"A program of early morning worship for both faculty and students is to be projected on the campus," says President M. E. Sadler. A committee composed of Sadler, the Rev. Granville Walker and a group of students met Tuesday and discussed the value of such a program.

Dean Moore and Miss Frances Alexander were named co-chairmen of the committee. Next week a group of tentative programs will be presented to the committee for approval.

It has been proposed that the services be held from 7:30 to 7:50 a. m. Monday through Friday in the parlor of the University Christian Church. The services will be led mostly by students.

"Definite announcements concerning the services will be announced after the committee meets next week," says President Sadler.

New Marine Group Tests V-5 Pilot Training Course

A new experimental pilot training course is being tested this semester by a detachment of Marines now stationed in Jarvis Hall and enrolled in the 44-E class of the V-5 training program.

The detachment is divided into two groups. One is engaged in elementary pilot training. The other group is testing a special intermediate pilot training course which is still in the experimental stage. Approximately a half-dozen schools throughout the United States are now testing this course prior to its possible acceptance as a standard course.

The Marines in the recently arrived detachment were formerly training in the Marine glider program. Many of the group have seen combat duty overseas.

No Regular Assemblies Scheduled This Winter

"There will be no regularly scheduled Assemblies for the winter trimester" was the announcement made by President M. E. Sadler yesterday.

"Only special Assemblies will be held. The students will be expected to attend these called meetings as they are considered of enough importance to merit breaking into classes," he reports.

Christmas Holiday Dates, Dec. 23-Jan. 3, to Stand

The Christmas holidays will be held as stated in the catalog. The vacation period begins at 1 p. m. Dec. 23 and classes resume at 8 a. m. Jan. 3.

V-12 students will be required to return the night of Jan. 2.

Memorial Service Will Be Held For 16 Exes at 5 P. M. Today

Pres. Sadler to Read Names Of Honored Dead—Col. Cohee To Speak at Night Program

A special memorial service for T. C. U. ex-students will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the University Christian Church. All students and faculty members are invited to attend.

"We are exceedingly anxious for all members of our group to be constantly aware of the sacrifice others are making for our American way of life," says President M. E. Sadler, who will read the names of those honored by the service.

"These memorial services will be held from time to time as they are needed to honor those exes who have lost their lives in the service," he continues.

Dean Colby D. Hall will bring the address and the Rev. Granville Walker will preside.

Colonel Ora J. Cohee will speak in the University Auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight at a special academic convocation for the opening of the winter trimester.

"He has had a marvelous experience and was decorated in the last war," says President Sadler. "He is one of the foremost leaders at the present time." The convocation will be very brief.

The memorial service will honor the following men:

John Bryon Cason, killed April 3, 1942, when his plane crashed into a power line.

William Thomas Chesser, killed Aug. 16, 1942, in Southwest Pacific in plane crash.

Edward Everett Cobb, killed Feb. 12, 1943, in plane crash at Reno, Nev.

Lemuel E. Day, killed Dec. 23, 1942, in action near Buna.

John Adam Finklin, killed in service Dec. 30, 1941.

Charles C. Johnson, killed in plane crash, Feb. 1943.

Philip David Lissner, killed in action, Nov. 28, 1942.

John J. McGraw, killed in action during raid on Ploesti oil refineries.

Murray Charlton McKinney, killed in action July 7, 1943.

George C. Malmberg, killed July, 1943.

Wilbert Prenton Matthews, killed in plane crash, May 3, 1942.

James Meanskey, killed in action, Oct. 24, 1942.

Walter Ralph Pridemore, killed in plane crash.

James Peek Roberts, killed in plane crash, Oct. 1, 1942.

Jack Day Sikes, killed in plane crash.

Louie Homer Talley, killed in bomber crash, Aug. 14, 1942.

Meeting Set For Nov. 13

T.C.U. Leaders to Take Part in Inter-American Relations Conference

An Inter-American Relations Conference will be held at T. C. U. Nov. 13. It is sponsored by the state department of education, T. C. U. and the public schools of supervisory district No. 10.

"This conference held on our campus is indicative of the feeling the University has in regard to inter-American good will," says Dean Jerome Moore. "We are behind our leaders all the way in supporting a friendly feeling with Mexico and our other neighbors to the South."

In addition to Dean Moore, others from T. C. U. will lead various parts of the conference. Some of these are Dr. W. J. Hammond, Miss Eula Lee Carter and Mrs. Bethell Cannon.

Mrs. Murphy to Get Girls' P. T. Under Way

Girls' classes in physical training will get under way this week under the direction of Mrs. Helen Murphy. Mrs. Warren McKeever will assist her.

There will be no Saturday classes this year. All girls will report on Friday to classes in posture, health, and corrective exercises. Upperclassmen may participate in W. S. A. rather than in regular gym work.

Student assistants this year are Misses Connie Green and Barbara Bundoek, and Mrs. Dorothy Bryant Montgomery.

V-12er Coleman Awaits Orders, Also "Serves"

"They also serve who only stand and wait."

In that case, Charles Coleman, V-12 man, has done quite a bit of serving since the end of last semester.

Charles, being a senior medical student and making the required grades, has been waiting for his orders to be sent elsewhere—but no orders were given to him.

Going home for the few days' vacation, Charles felt sure that when he returned to U. S. S. Clark he would have orders to shove off. But again, no orders!

Monday morning everyone was attending classes or registering—so Charles marched into the registrar's office and followed suit.

Since Monday, Charles has been faithfully attending his classes—but he still would like to know—"where are those orders?"

Soloists Chosen For "Creation"

Student soloists for the performance of the oratorio, "The Creation," to be given during the Haydn Festival, Dec. 5-7, have been announced.

Soprano soloists will be Misses Margie Mae Luxa, Max Helen Pickens and Dorothy Forrester, and Mrs. Ann Coles Tomlinson. Prof. John Brigham will take the baritone solo part, and Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote will be tenor soloist.

Joint rehearsals of the Mixed Chorus and Orchestra for the oratorio began Wednesday and will be held twice a week, in addition to the regular separate rehearsals, says Dr. T. Smith McCorkle.

Summer Student Work On Exhibit at Art Show

A student show, including paintings, drawings and water-colors selected from student work that was done during the summer, is on exhibit in the Little Gallery of the art department.

The show will continue through next week.

Seniors to Elect President in Amphitheater Today

The senior class will meet at noon today in the Amphitheater to elect a president.

'College in Wartime' Horned Frog Theme; Snapshot Contest to Be Held, Reports Editor

"College in Wartime" is to be the theme of the 1944 Horned Frog, Editor Bettye Flo Baker reports.

As there will be no art work in the 1944 yearbook, the task of presenting T. C. U. in the midst of a wartime atmosphere will be the responsibility of staff photographers, other staff work and snapshots sent in by those connected with the campus life.

Further details of a snapshot contest will be announced later. As yet, the only decisions made along this line are that the contest will be open to those engaged in the campus military program as well as the regular students, and that the winning photo will be the division sheet of the snapshot section.

Another contest connected with the yearly publication is that in which the campus favorites are elected by popular vote of the student body.

Tomorrow is the final date for students to have their class pictures made. This also applies to military personnel on the campus.

Military personnel will be grouped according to scholastic standing unless a sufficient number have their pictures made and thus warrant a special section. To date, approximately 60 Navy men have had their pictures made.

Individual pictures are made at Orgain's, Sixth and Houston Streets, in downtown Fort Worth. The price is 75 cents.

The Horned Frog staff is sharing office with The Skiff staff in the balcony to the right of the Auditorium.

Moore, Hutton, P'Pool To Attend Convention

Three members of the University administration will take part in the convention for registrars which will be held at Hotel Texas Nov. 23 and 24. They are Dean Jerome Moore, Register S. W. Hutton and Mrs. Sterling P'Pool, assistant registrar.

Dean Moore will give the invocation Nov. 23, and Registrar Hutton will preside at the Wednesday conference. He is also chairman of the executive committee for the convention. Mrs. P'Pool is a member of the committee in charge of local arrangements and registration.

Military Clique?

In the recent student election, the results were considered by some as a portent of political power at T. C. U. being seized by a Navy V-12 clique.

Voting in a bloc presupposes a highly organized political machine; blind allegiance due to ignorance or fear of oppression, or desire for the success of a member of the in-group.

A high degree of efficient organization in school politics cannot be accredited to the V-12 unit when it is realized that the majority of men were unaware of the election until approximately one hour before the polls closed. In men considered officer-material for the United States Navy, such a thing as ignorance seems a remote possibility. Fear of oppression likewise may be discounted because of its absurdity in this situation. Possibly the desire for the success of members of the group is the answer to the solid vote.

People in a strange environment, under strange conditions, in certain instances will react in a manner different from that in which they ordinarily would. One thing that may be considered certain is that each Navy man cast his ballot only after much cogitation proved to him that his vote was an intelligent one.

"The bells of education are as important as the bugles sounding the call for technical skill. Without the latter the war could not be won; without the former the victory would be worthless."—Hamline University Oracle.

New Crew Boards T. C. U.

The good ship T. C. U. has a new crew aboard, and she's ready to sail again.

After a successful summer-fall voyage, the ship is in tip-top shape for the winter expedition. Her timbers are strong and her sails are set. She has a new staff of officers, too, headed by her new skipper, Capt. Zeke Chronister.

There are lots of members in the crew who went with the T. C. U. on her last voyage. The job of these old sea dogs is to show the new crewmen what's what on the ship. It's their task to see that the new men are comfortable, that they feel welcome.

Some of the newcomers have never been to sea. The voyage to the port of Success is sure to be a safe one with a friendly, co-operative crew. And every sailor has his own job to do to keep the T. C. U. sailing smoothly.

Aye, mates, we're glad to have you aboard!

"There will be a gigantic era of sports following the war. The government will take a more active part in sports than it ever has before, for it foresees an America in the future which will have shorter working hours and many more hours of leisure for its people."—Los Angeles City College Collegian.

Friday Is Convocation

Friday will be convocation day for Texas Christian University. It will be a day of memory for the students and faculty of those who have gone from the campus to give all for the right.

At 5 o'clock Friday afternoon there will be a Memorial Service in the University Christian Church. Dean Colby D. Hall will give the address, President Emeritus E. M. Waits will give the prayer and President M. E. Sadler will read the names of those graduates and ex-students who have given their lives.

At 8 o'clock Friday night there will be a Convocation Service for the entire student body and the faculty. An honorary degree will be awarded Col. Ora J. Cobee, who is head of the chaplains of the Eighth Corps Area.

It would be a good idea for students to attend these services of memory and honor.

"The national manpower problem is not primarily one of numbers. It is a problem of skills and ability."—Capt. Harry A. Badt, U. S. N.

Student Government Marches On

A forward step in campus administration will be made in the near future when a student representative sits in on conferences to help decide future Assembly speakers.

Such a move is an added advantage to the regular student. It gives him a chance to have his say about the type of program presented to him in Assembly periodically. As for the administration, such a plan keeps them in tune with student opinion and assures a more representative student audience . . . and a more appreciative one . . . when Assembly time rolls around.

Student government marches on!

Band to Attend Austin Game

Sadler, Wright Make Trip Possible—Group To Execute Special Drills

The Horned Frog Band will go to Austin for the game with the University of Texas, Nov. 13.

"President M. E. Sadler and Pete Wright made this possible for us," says Prof. W. J. Woldt. "The University is going to take care of our train fare. Otherwise we could never make the trip."

Approximately 50 members of the band will go. They will travel as individuals, not as a group. The band will leave at 11 p. m., Nov. 12, arriving in Austin early the next morning.

All the girls in the band will make the trip together, with a chaperone. Hotel rooms will be provided in Austin so that the band players may change into their uniforms.

There will be an unofficial parade to the field house at the University. The band will march before the game and at the half. The students will return on the midnight train Saturday.

"We hope to be able to execute some unusually good drills," says Prof. Woldt. "We are going to have extra rehearsals to make this possible."

They Served in World War I
H. R. MUNDHENKE
(One of a Series)

Fifteen months in the infantry is Dr. H. R. Mundhenke's record for World War I—15 months of working and drilling.

At Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Dr. Mundhenke was head of the noncommissioned officers who prepared the insurance papers for service men in that area.

Then he was sent to Officers' Training Camp at Camp MacArthur, Waco. He had been there but two months when the Armistice was signed.

"All work and drill was suspended," he recalls. "But the candidates didn't mind, for the rainy season had just set in and the training grounds were a mess."

The air corps was his first choice, Dr. Mundhenke says, but because of an eye injury he was turned down.

"The infantry wasn't so bad after all," he says.

N. T. A. C. Leads in Transfers—

92 New V-12ers Represent 13 States, 29 Universities

Thirty-one of the men who joined the T. C. U. V-12 Unit Monday at the opening of the winter semester are attending college for the first time, a survey taken this week shows.

Twenty-nine different colleges and universities are represented among the 61 other men who make up the total of 92 who have joined the unit.

N. T. A. C. leads, with 14 men among the transfers to this campus. There are nine from the University of Texas, four from S. M. U., three each from North Texas Teachers and Oklahoma A. & M., and one each from 24 other schools.

Two California schools are included, one Oregon and one Massachusetts.

About two-thirds of the new men live in Texas. Ten call Oklahoma home, four are from California, two each from Michigan and Oregon, and there is one each from Arkansas, Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio and Virginia.

Included among the new men are some twenty who have been on active duty with the army some at shore stations and some in combat areas.

Men to Meet, Arrange P. T.

"All civilian men will be invited together within the week to arrange the type of physical training program which will be maintained for them during the trimester," says Prof. Tom P. . . . director of men's physical training.

"As far as possible without at a hardship on any . . . will be our purpose to comply with the requests of the government that physical training be available to all civilian men," Dean Jerome Moore.

"Physical training for those students who have had two years ready will be placed on a basis," Dean Moore continues. "is still required of first and second year men under the old regulations."

New Semester Brings 33 More to Foster Hall

The new semester brought 33 more girls to Foster Hall. Eleven of them are old girls returning, the others are freshmen and transfers. Among old students returning are Misses Eileen Wood, who has been going to the University of Colorado; Barbara Nelson and Helen Williams, who have been in Wisconsin; Nancy Barnard from New Orleans and Connie Green back from Indianapolis.

There are six new girls from states other than Texas. They are Misses Betty Lou Beak of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mary Hoffman of Jersey City, N. J.; Marjorie McKinney of Winfield, Kan.; Catherine Winterberger from Atlanta, Ga.; Edith Bull who has been attending the University of California and Elaine Dybvig from Dayton, O.

Jimmy Farrar Named Church Youth Director

Jimmy Farrar is the new youth director of the University Christian Church. He is working in junior high and high school departments and in the Scout program. A scholarship for this work is provided through Brite College of the Bible.

The Rev. S. W. Hutton filled the pulpit at the Mineola Christian Church the past two Sundays. He is the former minister of that Church.

Frog Eleven Weakened

Moore Compares Gridmen To Sally Rand Without Fans; Only Four Firsts in Line-Up

By RICHARD MOORE

When the Frogs take the field against Texas Tech at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow, there will be only four men in T.C.U.'s starting line-up who opened against Arkansas at the start of the season.

These starters are Capt. Clyde Flower, Jim Lucas, Bill Marshall and Walter Harrison. Gone are Dick Smith, Billy Hale, Harry Gardner and Doug Carter. The other positions on the eleven have been replaced by men formerly on the second team.

Graduation and shipping out of Navy men have taken care of most of the outstanding men with which Coach Dutch Meyer began the season. In fact, the Frog eleven tomorrow will resemble somewhat the renowned Sally Rand without her fans.

It was a gloomy Dutchman who began this week's preparation for the Tech battle with only 25 men on the roster and three main positions to fill. However, Tuesday eight men reported to booster his squad some, although only four have had much football experience. Bright star of the new men is Bill Squires, V-12 transfer from S. M. U. Squires was going great guns for the Mustangs this season when he injured his knee. He has been out the past three weeks, but Meyer has hopes of getting him ready for the Texas game. Squires has been running in the tailback spot in practice this week.

The Texas Tech team that the Frogs will meet is another squad made up of civilians—17-year-olds and deferred boys. The manpower shortage at Tech resembles what Coach Meyer has had to face throughout this season.

Only twice had Coach Dell Morgan's eleven tasted victory this year. The Raiders reached a new low last week when they lost to the previously victorless Rice, 13 to 0. Tech failed to cross the Owl's 40-yard line against the Rice first team.

Coach Meyer expects to use most of his players tomorrow trying to find a combination that may be used against Texas next week.

Tech has lost to Oklahoma A. & M., 13 to 21 and Texas A. & M., 0 to 13; defeated by Tulsa 7 to 34; won over the Lubbock Army Air Field 26 to 13, but lost the return engagement, 7 to 10. The Raiders' other victory was over the South Plains Army Air Field, 14 to 12.

Starting line up for the teams will probably be:

Texas Tech	Pos.	T. C. U.
Rechtal	L. E.	Garren
White	L. T.	Roberts
Read	I. G.	Thomas
Williams	C.	Lease
Partle	R. G.	Harrison

A&M Is Helpless Against Frog Machine—Lucas, Carter Star in Victory

Resembling a baseball manager's "dream" team, the Frogs, as "loose" as any team could be with no worries in the world, cut away at the Oklahoma A. & M. eleven Oct. 23 in Oklahoma City from the first gun and when the fireworks were over, T. C. U. was away ahead, 25 to 0.

Showing a very versatile attack, the Christians struck on both land and in the air to tally four times against a hapless Aggie congregation. In the final quarter, the Frogs simply toyed with the A. & M. team, thrice turning them away from the double stripe.

Lucas and Carter Lead Attack

Jim Lucas again was the spearhead of the Frog attack, but he received a lot of assistance from Doug Carter. The Aggies' threat, Bob Fenimore, sparkled only one play, and on that play he again injured his leg and was forced to the sidelines.

Lucas and Carter scored twice each, the Frogs scoring a touch in the first and third periods and two in the second. The line, sparked by Dick Smith and Billy Hale, held the Aggies to a mere 63-yards rushing.

Frogs Use Wind to Score Twice

The Frogs, with the wind in their faces, climaxed a 46-yard march with Carter going over. Using the wind to their advantage in the second quarter, Coach Dutch Meyer's eleven struck twice for tallies, Lucas carrying over both times. The final score was made by virtue of a pass from Lucas to Carter.

Connie to T. C. U. But Trunk Stays In Indianapolis

If you're tired of seeing Connie Green wear that same green and yellow plaid skirt every day, just keep it to yourself, willya?

Connie is the innocent victim of the transportation problem — though, she admits, her own absent-mindedness helped.

Before she left her home in Indianapolis, Ind., last week, Connie took her trunk and extra suitcase to the station to be checked. She gave the luggage to a redcap and received a baggage check. But she never thought to complete the transaction with the railroad office.

So when Connie arrived in Fort Worth, her luggage was still in Indianapolis. The railroad wired Indianapolis for the bags, but trains are mighty slow these days.

However, things are looking up. Connie has learned that her suitcase has arrived, which is a big help. It contains a jacket, a pair of old saddle shoes and two evening dresses.

Anyway, she's glad she had two sweaters in her overnight bag. Sorta lends variety, you know.

Intramural Play To Begin Nov. 10

The intramural program that is conducted each year will begin Wednesday, Prof. Tom Prouse announces. The first intramural football games start then.

Because of the shortened schedule, there will be only a double round robin in football this season instead of the usual triple round robin. There are to be four teams in the league.

Play will also begin at a new time. Because of the Navy schedule, the first football game begins at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday; the second at 4:30 o'clock.

The schedule calls for the Senior team to meet the Frosh and the Juniors to take on the Sophs. Wednesday boys must report to get the program under way, Prouse adds.

L. S. U. Tigers Outman Frogs

Meyer's Team Holds Out During First Half—Lucas, Van Buren Stars of Game

A half dozen reasons could be named telling why the Frogs went down into defeat before L. S. U. for the first time in the Frog-Tiger relationship, but the main cause was that T. C. U. was simply outmanned. The manpower that Coach Bennie Moore's team had was too great for the Frogs, who simply played themselves out in the first half.

The score might have been a different tale, though, if the Frog receivers could have held on to the tosses of Jim Lucas. Time and again the butter-fingered pass catchers would drop Lucas' aeriels. Three times the receivers were behind the Tiger defensive backs but dropped the heaves that might have meant touchdowns for the Frogs.

Frogs Hold Own

It was all T. C. U. the first half, with Coach Dutch Meyer's team holding the ball most of the time. The unusual accurate punting of Steve Van Buren, L. S. U.'s great runner, kept the Louisiana team

Invitations have been sent to prospective members. Everyone is invited to attend the first meeting next Wednesday night, Dr. Hammond says.

"Y" to Hold Mixer Next Week

Plans for a "Y" mixer where new freshmen will mingle and get acquainted with upperclassmen are under way now. Tentative plans schedule the mixer for sometime next week.

Two groups of the "Y" met Tuesday night. Upperclassmen, with Frank Crow as group leader, met with Dr. A. L. Porterfield to discuss "Race Relations." The freshman group, led by Miss Janice Conley, met at the home of Dr. H. R. Mundhenke to discuss "Boy-Girl Relationships."

The "Y", recently known as the Student Christian Association, changed its name so as to indicate its affiliation with the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., as well as to indicate that it is interdenominational.

in the game. Twice when the Frogs had the Tigers deep in their own end of the field, quick kicks by Van Buren erased the T. C. U. gains.

Another time, Van Buren laid his toe into the pigskin, and when the ball stopped rolling it was on the Frog one-foot line. However, T. C. U. came out of this hole a short time later when Quinton Lawrence, who played an outstanding game, intercepted a Tiger heave.

The battering that the Frogs took in the first half showed up in the first series of plays the Tigers had the ball. Starting on their own 37-yard line, L. S. U., led by the one man offense of Van Buren, marched 63 yards for a tally on 10 plays.

The touchdown was set up, however, by a pass from Van Buren that carried from the Frog 26-yard stripe to the 4. There, Van Buren, after being momentarily stopped behind the line of scrimmage, broke loose from three would-be tacklers to go across.

Coach Meyer's eleven, really tired then, was an easy target for the Tiger second team that scored the final touchdown. A long punt returned by Red Knight to the 26-yard line of the Frogs and a series of plays to the 7-yard stripe set up the last tally. Knight, a real speed demon, out-ran the losers in an end sweep.

The Frogs kept plugging along and had the ball on the Tigers' 8-yard line when the game ended.

Lucas Stars for T. C. U.

Lucas, who improves as each game goes by, played 60 minutes of ball that kept the Frog machine a threat throughout. He had the Louisiana fans holding on to their seats with his long passing and brilliant running. Only his punting, which before this game had been superb, failed.
