Curtain to Rise on 'Village' Tuesday Night "Ladies in Retirement" Plans Will Be Under Way Before Current Production Goes On

With the aid of a whisky bottle, a couple of telegrams, 11 Life magazines and a fire siren, the Dramatic Club will present Carl Allensworth's "Village Green" at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday.

However, even before this three-act farce is staged, try-outs for the next Dramatic Club production will be held at noon Monday, when Prof. Lew D. Fallis will listen to lines of "Ladies in Retirement," written by Percy Smith and Reginald Denham.

Nine V-12 Premeds To Enter Medical School

Nine V-12 premedical students have been selected for further training at medical school.

They will be transferred at different times—some March 1, 1945, others July 1, 1945. The men are M. W. Brous, O. C. Brown, T. J. Brumfield, J. S. Dunn, C. B. Gibson, H. D. Hardie, B. T. Harter, G. E. Turner and R. Owenby.

WHEN GERMANY SURRENDERS

A policy for the campus observance of the surrender of Germany—whenever this takes place—was formulated at a meeting of the Dean's Conference this week. Two or three general policies were determined:

For one thing, any observance planned should be conditioned by the fact that the surrender of Germany does not mean the end of the war, but only one important step toward victory. We will still have a long, hard struggle before the war is over.

Second, because of the nature of our accelerated program, any observance should interrupt the regular activities of the University as little as possible.

Third, whatever observance we have should be carefully planned and orderly.

On the basis of these general principles, the deans decided that as soon as possible after the OFFICIAL announcement (no rumors will be accepted) of Germany's surrender, a general gathering of the entire University population will be called. The program for the special assembly will include several patriotic numbers by the band, an address by the president or Dean John Lord, a review and presentation of colors by the Naval Unit on our campus. A committee composed of Dean T. Smith McCorkle, Dean Lord, Dean Jerome Moore and Lieut. George C. Decker was appointed to work out the details of the program.

It is expected that numerous rumors will come from time to time concerning the surrender of Germany. Students are urged not to pay any attention to these rumors, but are requested to await the official announcement which will be relayed to them by our committee, and they will be called for the special assembly at the appropriate time.

M. E. Sadler, president.

Women's P. T. Starts Monday

Regular physical training classes for women begin Monday. They are compulsory for all undergraduate students in the day school, says Dean Jerome Moore.

Classes will be held at 8, 9, 10 and 12 o'clock on both Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. There will also be a class at 2 p. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Absences will be counted in physical training classes just as in any other course, Mrs. Helen Murphy says. The classes consist of a 15-minute lecture and exercise in body mechanics. This work will go on until November, when girls will begin taking sports.

Enough new floor mats have been purchased to furnish each girl with a mat for her exercises, Mrs. Murphy adds.

Rev. Walker to Discuss 'Bread and Birth Rights'

The Rev. Granville Walker will speak on "Bread and Birth Rights" Sunday morning at the University Christian Church, and Earl Bissex will speak at Evensong.

The Sunday morning prelude will be "Beneath the Rose Window," by Wilkes, and the offertory will be Schubert's "Ave Maria." The choir will sing "The Twenty-Third Psalm," by Schubert.

The Rev. Don Ver Duin will give the interpretative reading at Evensong, and Miss Betty Leeper will sing "Oh, Divine Redeemer," by Gounod.

Four V-12 Men Pass Physicals for Pre-Flight

Four V-12 men qualified physically for pre-flight training in an examination they took at Dallas Aug. 9. The men are A. A. Franklin, B. R. Neale, G. G. Parker, and H. L. Hackett.

Miss Porter Wins Award

Creative Writing Prize To Paschal Grad Who Will Enter T. C. U. Nov. 1

Miss Jenny Lind Porter, honor graduate of Paschal High School, Fort Worth, is the winner of the 1944 Creative Writing Scholarship for 1944-45. Miss Mabel Major, acting head of the English department, has announced.

This scholarship, formerly called the Poetry Scholarship, is awarded annually by the Dallas T. C. U. Woman's Club. It is given to a new student—freshman or transfer—on the basis of scholastic record as well as of writing ability.

Miss Porter, who will enter T. C. U. Nov. 1, was one of the top four graduates at Paschal in June. She won the Lily B. Clayton Latin Award for 1944 and was a winner in the Junior Historian Writing Contest. She was poet laureate of Paschal and editor of the Pantherette in her senior year.

"Fine Arts Revue," McCorkle's "Baby" May Be TCU Product

Texas University has its "Round-Up," and S. M. U. has its "Pigskin Review." Now T. C. U. will have a chance at a similar production—for Dr. T. Smith McCorkle is throwing the entire school of Fine Arts into high gear to bring into being the long promised "Fine Arts Revue."

First definite action will be taken at 7 p. m. Monday in Room 306, when an open meeting will be held in an effort to determine whether the proposed revue can possibly be presented sometime before Christmas.

Tumbling Act Wins Favor For 2 Girls

Miss Elayne Henderson and Miss Betty Jean Schmuck will serve as girl yell leaders, as a result of Wednesday's election, while a recall election will be held next week for boy yell leaders.

Two petitions were turned in last week for boy yell leaders, instead of one, as was previously announced. The petitions were those of Jake Swinford and Bill Bassett, V-12 man. Since this filled the two boy yell leader offices, Swinford and Bassett automatically took office.

However, after Tuesday night's pep rally, a petition bearing 73 names was turned in to Student President Kenneth Womack, requesting that there be a recall election of boy yell leaders. The student body constitution provides for such election on the petitioning of 50 students.

Twelve o'clock noon Tuesday has been set as the deadline for the new petitions, and election will be held from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon Thursday.

Miss Henderson and Miss Schmuck copped the girls' election with their tumbling act at the pep rally. Both are experienced yell leaders, Miss Henderson having served as T. C. U. yell leader last year, and Miss Schmuck having two years of experience in high school. Both girls are juniors. Miss Schmuck transferred at the beginning of the fall term from Little Rock, Ark., Junior College.

Defeated girl candidates are Misses Skeeter Bollinger, Jean Cole, Dorothy Kraft and Betty Wilkes.

4 Girls to Lead Band Formations

Appointment of a drum major and three majorettes for the Horned Frog Band was announced this week by Prof. John Woldt. One more majorette is needed, according to Prof. Woldt.

Miss Frances Hall was named drum major, and Misses Gloria Bushon, Rosemary Darby and Jackie Clardy were appointed majorettes.

R
rialize depends upon the student turn-out for the Monday meeting," says Dr. McCorkle. Though no definite acts have been decided upon, Dr. McCorkle says that they should fall in line with the "music hall" type of skit. Organization of a "jive" band, a dancing chorus and a boogie-woogie act has been suggested so far. Having directed such productions while on the faculty of the University of North Carolina, Dr. McCorkle points out that there is no reason why T. C. U. cannot have a successful production—perhaps (Continued on Page 2)

Let 'em Eat Cake!
Warning to a Freshman
Hit Parade

A test, an assignment and chocolate cake were served to Miss Ina Mae Bramblett's 8 o'clock "Calculus" class Monday morning. Of course, Miss Bramblett was responsible for the first two, but it was Miss Robbie Gene Rutherford who foresaw the sad reactions to a Monday morning test. So she came to class with a chocolate cake, prepared for the worst. "I probably didn't help anyone's grade," she observes, "but everyone had a brighter look on his face anyway!"

Navy blues have been issued to the V-12 men. Soon the campus will have seen the last of the whites (?) for this year. "Cooler weather and no washing uniforms—no wonder Christmas comes in the winter time," one gob commented.

Jaime Ortega doesn't think cigarettes are scarce. Jaime had a sudden attack of appendicitis (was there ever any other kind of attack than a "sudden" one?) about a week ago and was rushed to the hospital. Now, as he is about the business of recovering, his friends visit him and always bring along something to help him pass away the hours. The "something" is quite often cigarettes—nine packages in three days, in fact. There's only one thing wrong with an otherwise perfect situation. Jaime isn't allowed to smoke for another week!

Almost everything has been lost in the swimming pool, including rings, watches, bracelets, money and various other items. But Monday, A/S M. C. Roberts added a new item to the list. He lost a false tooth. M. C. came up from a dive with a decidedly empty feeling in the front of his mouth. But he determinedly dived again, for his missing tooth. After several attempts, he came up with a smile on his face and the tooth in his hand. "Just plain lucky to find it!" exulted M. C.

Some of the freshmen seem to be a bit sensitive about wearing their green caps downtown. An upperclassman, walking down Main Street Sunday night, spied a parked car with a freshman cap hanging in it. He stopped to leave a note of warning—but someone had beat him to it. There was already a note of warning stuck on the windshield.

A sizeable crowd stopped to watch the V-12ers drill to the music of their band last week. The band improved the marching morale of the men, as well as their ability to keep step. The surprise of the afternoon was a trumpet obligato by Glenn Baxter when the "National Emblem" march was played. The scuttlebutt has it that the unit may put on an exhibition drill at one of the football games.

Most popular juke box platters at the Drug this week are "Estrella," by Harry James; "G. I. Jive," by Louis Jordan; and "I'll Be Around," by the Mills Brothers. Least played record is Sammy Kaye's "If I Knew Then." Workers in the Drug say that if the students want to take pity on them they will play Sinatra's "Night and Day" less. That's the tune they're most tired of. Working and swooning at the same time just can't be done adequately!

Harmon Joy's sea bag has traveled more than 100,000 miles since it was issued to him four years ago, he estimates. It was with him all over the United States and the South Pacific. It was at Pearl Harbor on the day of attack—Dec. 7, 1941.

The Mary Couts Burnett Library got itself into a plight the other night when its door jammed—wide open. Seeking any old port in a storm, Miss Ruth White frantically sent out a telephonic SOS to Goode Hall. "Somebody opened the door too wide and one side jumped over to the other side!" she reported hysterically. The Goode Hall resident grabbed a witness and sped to the rescue. What Miss White meant was that the door catch had slipped out of joint and reversed itself. With the aid of a screw driver and a skinny freshman, the Goode Hall boys unhooked the door, enabling Miss White to lock up for the night.

Juniors Plan Senior Social

Plans for a social for the October graduating class were discussed by officers of the junior class at a meeting yesterday.

George Gartner, president of the class, appointed a committee for the social, composed of Miss Hattie Stanley, Miss Joleen Hanrahan, Kenneth Womack and Bob McWheny.

All students who will graduate in June, 1945, are requested to turn in their orders for class rings to any of the above mentioned persons.

Fine Arts

He also points out that the small Auditorium stage might be a limiting factor, but adds that the productions would give the students a head start on the new post-war Fine Arts Building.

Purpose of the revue will be to provide an outlet for the more popular types of entertainment, Dr. McCorkle says.

Big Sisters'

If any girl town student wishes to change the arrangements made for her, or if any upperclassman girl wishes to have a "little sister" and is not on the list, she is asked to see Miss Barbara Bundock or Miss Mary Claude Scott.

Orgain's to Start Making Annual Pictures Monday

The photographer will start making class pictures for the 1945 Horned Frog Monday. Miss Shirley Glasscock, annual editor, reports.

Every student should have his picture made by Oct. 15, and this deadline will not be extended, says Miss Glasscock. The pictures will be made at Orgain's Studio, 700½ Houston Street.

Donald Chandler, ex '43, is stationed with the infantry in New Guinea.

Stop That Scuttlebutt!

The Navy calls it scuttlebutt, and the government warns against it. Propagandists use it, and anyone can be its promoter. It's evasive, easy to start but hard to stop.

Maybe you call it rumor—which the dictionary identifies as "an unverified report." Maybe, too, you are one of those who often has difficulty distinguishing it from fact, but who doesn't see any harm in spreading a story around when he's not quite certain on which side of the fence it belongs. Maybe you make the mistake of regarding it only as something which diabolical minds think up to hamper the war effort, forgetting that there are rumors which affect you, too.

The campus is full of rumors. Sometimes they're ridiculous ("Someone told me that a flash just came over the radio, saying that the war was over"). Sometimes they're nice, even if disappointing when they turn out to be rumors (like the one last year: "Robert Taylor is going to be stationed in Jarvis Hall"). And sometimes they're serious—sometimes they sow seeds of discontent, alienate friends, arouse feelings of distrust between students and faculty.

It's your job to get smart enough to tell a rumor from the truth. If you conscientiously seek correct facts and refuse to pass on to your neighbor what you do not know to be facts, you are doing a service to your friends and to your campus community.

Stop that scuttlebutt!

Joiners are those people who go around collecting club memberships as if they were stamps.

Joiners are usually freshmen who have the delusion that this is the way to be a "big hit" on the campus and make a lot of friends.

Joiners rarely do big things or hold important offices in clubs, because they soon find they're "too busy" being members of a number of organizations to get anything out of being a member of one. They have a finger in a lot of pies, but they rarely come up with a plum.

Joiners are plentiful at this time of the year, when clubs are reorganizing and sending out calls for new members.

Joiners, fortunately, usually recover after one year of flinging, and settle down to two or three clubs in which they're really interested.

Joiners are just misinformed. Don't waste your time being one.

Frog Flashes

Practice was really the order of the day at the Stadium last Saturday. The Frogs, of course, held a practice scrimmage. Coach Hub McQuillan sat up high in the stands and practiced taking scouting notes. And Ray McCulloch, Southwest Conference official, put on his "uniform" and practiced refereeing.

Edwin Wright, freshman back from San Angelo, wears jersey No. 13. He's superstitious, all right, but the number doesn't worry him, because he belongs to the school of thought (?) that holds that 13 is a lucky number. Many football squads refuse to have a No. 13 jersey, but the Frogs issue the number more or less regularly.

There'll be a few Frog rooters in the stands at Kansas City Sept. 23. Word comes that John Ballard, former head of T. C. U.'s School of Business, is rounding up all the Texans in the Kansas City region and there are more of them than you might think.

There's even a Fort Worth man on the Jayhawker team. James Weatherby, 160-pound back, is rated as a starter for Kansas in the advance information that has come through. Coach Henry Shenk has 12 lettermen and a squad of 60 — including many V-12ers — from which to build a team that is said to "look pretty good."

Nearly half of the Frog squad consists of 17-year-olds. There is even one 17-year-old letterman — Bob Garren, who earned his varsity "T" at end with the 1943 outfit. Last year's squad started the season with about a dozen civilians. This year's has around 30, what with the youngsters, the V-12ers and those with medical discharges from service. There are eight of the latter, by the way — Mason, Cox, Cooper, Kohler, Rose, Murphy, Chronister and Gibson. It would be a pretty good bet that every one of these men will earn "T" this year.

There's a lot of talk about another game being scheduled. The scuttlebutt has it that the game will be with an Army air field eleven at Savannah, Ga., if the deal goes through, filling in the Nov. 4 open date.

Could be that 1944 will turn out to be a big year for Coach Meyer's boys. T. C. U. grid success has been operating on a three-year cycle for a long time, and the eye says that the Frogs are due again in 1944. Take a look: 1929, Frogs win their first championship; 1932, second championship, Frogs defeating all other conference teams, first time this had been done by any school in the history of the league; 1935, T. C. U. defeats L. S. U. for Sugar Bowl championship, to rank No. 5 in nation; 1938, Frogs are national champs, rating No. 1 on almost everybody's list; 1941, Frogs knock off high-flying Texas Longhorns (what fun!) and are picked for Orange Bowl (but Sinkwich was too much!). Now 1944 — well, it's up to the men who are wearing the Purple. It can be done!

WSA Award Members To Meet Monday Night

A meeting of the W. S. A. members who expect to receive awards in November will be held at 7 p. m. Monday in the Basketball Gymnasium, according to Lois Aucoin.

Meyer Makes Shifts In Varsity, K. U. Team Hepped Up for Frogs

Coach Dutch Meyer has two first teams—at least that's the way it looks after four weeks of practice.

And that's all to the good, for such a situation means lots of potent reserve material.

The Dutchman has said early and often that every position on the team is wide open, and may the best man win! Competition for starting berths has been terrific and there have been numerous shifts up and down. And there may be more before the Kansas City kick-off.

New names on the first-string eleven this week have included Johnny Sherrod at tail-back, Randy Rogers at flanker-back, John Cooke at tackle, Zeke Chronister at end and Jim Cooper at center.

The Purples (second team) pushed the Whites (first team) all over the field in last week's intrasquad game, so it was no surprise when Coach Meyer decided there should be some changes made.

Skull Practice Again

The Frogs this week have been studying their books again, there being long sessions devoted to blackboard drill and rules discussions.

Word comes through that the Kansas Jayhawkers are dreaming of getting revenge for the 41-to-6 pasting they took from the Frogs in Fort Worth two years ago. Stories in the Lawrence Journal-World and publicity coming out of K. U. indicate that Coach Henry Shenk believes his squad is due to come up in the world.

Civilian members of the Frog squad will leave Fort Worth on the Rock Island "Rocket" next Friday morning. Navy V-12ers, limited by the 48-hour travel rule, will not shove off until Friday night. All will be back on the campus Sunday night.

Work-Out in Kansas City

Coach Meyer hopes to be able to arrange a work-out under the lights at Ruppert Field Friday night for the first contingent.

"The principal idea will be to give the boys a chance to get the feel of the lights and to go over the layout of the field," Meyer says.

Headquarters in Kansas City will be the Phillips Hotel.

Part Time Jobs Available For Students, Says Hutton

There are still a number of downtown jobs available for those students who wish to work part time, Registrar S. W. Hutton says.

Among the latest requests are for qualified students to work as a secretary in a jewelry store, in a filling station and as clerks in department stores.

V-12 Footballers Line Up League

The V-12 intramural football league began to take shape Wednesday afternoon when two practice games were played. C. T. Keffer's squad beat L. L. Harris' men 18 to 6, and Harmon Joy's eleven ran up a score of 15 to 6 over the team captained by Billy Neil and Raymond Doyle.

Still in formation, the league has one more team—that of C. A. Fagan. Fagan's men have yet to play a game.

Schedules and real competition are expected to begin this week. Bob Crow and R. C. Hunnicutt are laying the groundwork in the formation of the league.

Come Hard, Go Easy, Verdict on Money

They say it's the root of all evil. They say it "ain't everything"—but don't you wish you had some more?

"Just how do you get your money?" By working, allowance, from Uncle Sam or just begging? LIBBY DUNCAN adds substantially to her allowance by working at the Drug. Most of it, we're proud to point out, Libby puts into War Bonds. BEVERLY BERRY gets some of her "filthy lucre" by tutoring—then she turns around and spends it on records.

BETTY GENE ROSAMOND works in the book department at Stripling's, and she confesses much of her salary goes into clothes. WEEEMS DYKES gets his money by "spreading the gospel"—and a lot of it goes right back into the cause. PHALA DAVIS, who is secretary at the University Christian Church, says her money just makes a path from the church to school.

JIMMY HALL is one of those on allowance—and he tries to save it for that Saturday night date. LOIS AUCOIN, JEANNE LENNARD and MARY CLAUDE SCOTT are others who have learned how to pinch that allowance and make it go where they want it to go.

FRAN CLAPP says she has that old trouble that plagues so many on an allowance—she spends a lot on odds and ends when she first gets it, then doesn't have enough to eat on until the next allowance comes in. DOROTHY FORRESTER, on the other hand, says most of her money goes for food. JESSIE FAY PUCKETT also spends lots on food—but shows come in, too.

JANET KROLL says most of her money goes for shoes—when she can get stamps. MARGIE MAE LUXA finds that her greatest financial trouble is "Myrtle," her green Plymouth, which literally eats gasoline. LANELLE BUTTERFIELD burns the cash from her parents, but she confesses she doesn't know where it all goes.

NOW DE WITT STEWART is a surprising case. Says Dewitt, "I get it different places, but I save most of it."

POLLY RUTH GEAN says that stationery and stamps (mostly for writing to PFC. MELVIN DACUS) take lots of cash. DOROTHY NIES finds her money going into painting and sketching materials, books and cables overseas to "that" lieutenant, as well as clothes.

MARY LOU MORROW is spending all of her money these days on her trousseau. She and ED CORNELIUS plan to be married near Christmas, and Mary is filling up her hope chest.

Observed: ED GOROM, selling a book to get some of the stuff.

The sailors find their finances pretty well regulated—that is, as far as the income goes. R. A. CONNER says those trips home to California really chop up the savings, but BILL SILMAN is called the financial wizard of Clark Hall. No shortage of cash at all, they say of Bill.

The money situation in Clark is most acute after the first two week-ends in the month, but BILL ROGERS says he never worries, as long as his roommate RAYMOND SCALES will stake him. R. D. CARLYON doesn't let the problem bother him, because he can hit the home folks in Dallas for a little cash on his week-end visits.

HAROLD STEVENSON finds it easier to keep money around since cigarettes are scarce, but people keep having birthdays, he discovers—and there go his savings. BOB CLOW finds it's nice to have a big brother to call on in time of need. And ROGER LARIMER has a little "reserve" packed away from the money he saved while at sea.

Lieut. (jg) E. S. Irby, ex '38, is assistant gunnery officer aboard a destroyer stationed in the Southwest Pacific.

18 Candidates Guests Of Pi Gamma Mu

Candidates for membership in Pi Gamma Mu were guests at a meeting of the society Wednesday night at the home of Dr. Herbert Mundhenke.

The candidates are: Jimmy Farrar, Lois Aucoin, Catherine Lesok, Nina Elliott, Mrs. H. E. Sailey, Katherine Wittmayer, Betty Sue Petty, Estelle Brooks, Karl Tuttle, Mrs. M. Matthews, Ruth Taulbee, Joan Gardner, Helen Anderson, Dorothy Rhea, Frances Sinex, Bill Hall, Edward Hinson and June Dameron.

Next month's meeting will be held in the home of Dr. A. L. Porterfield, and the discussion will be led by Tuttle.

Miss Rankin Speaks To Parabola Club

"Gamma Function" was the subject of Miss Mozelle Rankin's talk to the Parabola Club Sept. 7. After the meeting, the club went to Forest Park for a watermelon feast and games.

Six honorary guests were present for the occasion. They were R. R. Nunn, W. E. Ball, C. G. Kotselas, J. W. Weaver, Lee Gallagher and H. R. Joy.

Brushes Club Officers To Be Nominated

Nominations for Brushes Club officers for the winter trimester will be made at a meeting of the club officers in the Little Gallery at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The present officers are: President, Miss Jessie Fay Pucket; vice-president, Miss Lou Ann Peery; secretary-treasurer, Miss Alice Louden.

Sigma Tau to Initiate New Members

New members will be initiated and programs for the fall and winter will be planned at a business and social meeting of Sigma Tau at 7:30 p. m. Monday. The meeting will be held at the home of the faculty sponsor, Miss Mabel Major, 2814 West Lowden Street.

Miss Reineke to Wed Lieutenant Sept. 16

Miss Mary Jane Reineke, ex '44, will be married to Lieut. William W. Spears tomorrow at the First Methodist Church. Pat Hogan will sing for the wedding.

Science Club Dance At Colonial Club

The Natural Science Club formal dinner dance will be held tomorrow night at Colonial Country Club. Bids are $3.50 a couple.

Bryson Club Initiation Wednesday Night

Bryson Club will hold formal initiation at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at the home of Miss Lorraine Sherley, sponsor.

Frosh Follies Has Cast of 80

Show Boasts 2 Bands, Chorus—"Long John" To Have Starring Role

The Freshman Follies of 1944 will feature not one, but two swing bands, reports President Jimmy Greenwood.

It was earlier reported that the Navy band, led by V-12er Glenn Baxter, would play the background music for the acts. Greenwood has obtained an additional band, one led by Harvey Anderson, a freshman. This band will share honors with Baxter's. The Navy band will play a couple of "kick" tunes and will be used as an opener for the show. Anderson's band will play the incidental music.

No less than 50 freshmen, and possibly 30 other students, will participate in the Follies. Twenty acts have been scheduled from this personnel. Some of the previously scheduled acts have had to be taken out of the Follies, or altered to fit new specifications.

"Long John" Standridge, who had been previously reported working on a drunk act, has been shifted to one of the top numbers of the production. It will be a double act in a new version of "My Rocking Horse Ran Away."

Jim Davis, who will be featured in the production, has been arranging for a male chorus from the V-12 unit. Prof. William J. ("Uncle Billy") Marsh has agreed to furnish numbers for the group and to help in the production.

Pat Morrison, V-12 ex '44, is company clerk of his boot company at Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Pres. Sadler to Leave On Extended State Trip

President M. E. Sadler will leave Saturday for an extended tour of the state.

Saturday and Sunday he will be in Plainview, where he will speak at the First Christian Church Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon he will conduct a conference with supporting friends of the school. This conference is for the purpose of launching a campaign to establish a memorial project at T. C. U. The leaders in that area believe that between $100,000 and $150,000 can be secured in cash for this project.

Among the other places to be visited on his trip are Lubbock, Big Spring, Marfa, Laredo, McAllen, San Antonio, Austin and Waco. The president will return to the campus Friday, Sept. 29. That evening he will go to Dallas to speak to the Dallas T. C. U. Club.

Registrar's Office Mails Religious Survey Cards

Cards for all the students who stated church preferences upon registration have been sent to the churches of their selection. Registrar S. W. Hutton reports.
