

Homecoming Queen, Sherley Glasscock

400 Students Elect Class Beauties for Year Book

4 Old, 8 New Girl Favorites Will Be Presented Dec. 9 At Annual Presentation Ball

Approximately 400 students voted in the election Thursday morning that named the class beauties for the 1945 Horned Frog. Among the 12 girls who were elected, four have been annual favorites, before this year. Senior Beauties Sherley Glasscock and Joan Gardner and Junior Beauties Elizabeth Glasscock and Elayne Henderson are those who were renamed. Miss Sherley Glasscock was a favorite in 1942, Miss Elizabeth Glasscock was a favorite in both 1943 and 1944 and Misses Henderson and Gardner were both elected in 1944.

Miss Wilma Faye McGlothlin is the other senior who was named and Miss Betty Jean Schmuck was the other junior. Those from the sophomore class are Misses Peggy Glover, Peggy Snamburger and Janet Kroll. The freshmen are Misses Mary Evelyn Shepherd, Judy Evans and Barbara McPherson.

The three runners-up in each class were Misses Mary Gene Carter and Mary Lou Slay and Mrs. Dorothy Montgomery, seniors; Misses Ellen Becker, Jean Frost and Therylene Knox, juniors; Pat Craig, Polly Jones and Frances Williams, sophomores; and Elizabeth Davis, Betty Gillette and Ruth Morphis, freshmen.

All beauties will be presented to the student body at the annual Presentation Ball Saturday, Dec. 9, Editor Sherley Glasscock announces. Miss Glasscock has asked that all 12 girls meet with her in The Skiff and Horned Frog office at noon today.

23 in 'Invitation English' Taught by Miss Sherley

Twenty-three students have enrolled in freshman "Invitation English" class, reports Miss Lorraine Sherley, who teaches the class.

This class is open by invitation only, and only second trimester freshmen with an "A" or "B" average are eligible. Each year the class publishes an anthology, containing writings of the students.

Members of the present class include Katherine Allred, Jan Elaine Brooks, Ruth Bruckner, Roberta Brownlee, Judy Evans, Bruce Falis, Patsy Gillespie, Mary Gose, Patty Harmon, P. Held, Marilyn M. James, Frances Julian, Jean McCullough, Barbara Ann McPherson, Mildred Mellina, Arno Mueller, Julia Ann Morrow, Sammy Mortow, J. Michael Patison, Ann Richards, William Sarsgard, Elizabeth Smiley and Ormand Sykes.

Dr. E. K. Higdon to Speak At Special Assembly

Dr. E. K. Higdon will speak at a special assembly at 10 a. m. Thursday in the Auditorium. Dr. Higdon did education work in the Philippine Islands for many years. The assembly is for all students and classes will be dismissed.

Five Students File Petitions

Mrs. Donoho Is Senior Vice-Prexy—Ed. Hinson, Goode Representative

Mrs. Elizabeth Donoho is the new vice-president of the senior class and Edward Hinson has been named Goode Hall's representative to the Student Council. Mrs. Donoho filled that office by virtue of being sole petitioner. Hinson was elected at a meeting of Goode Hall men.

Misses Mayme Connor and Doris Hampton were the two students who petitioned for the office of senior class secretary-treasurer. Nominees for Clark Hall representative to the Council are Ransom Jackson and Hollis Manly.

These two offices will be voted on, along with the two constitutional amendments pertaining to yell leaders and girls' dormitory representative, at an election to be held from 9 until 12 o'clock Tuesday morning, Nov. 28.

"Man Against Himself" Walker's Sermon Topic

"Every Man Against Himself" will be the subject of the Rev. Granville Walker's sermon Sunday morning at the University Christian Church. For the prelude, Mrs. Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus will play "Reverie," by Dickinson, and for the offertory, "A Sonnet," by Granados.

The choir will sing "Lord, to Thee We Turn," by Lasso.

At Evensong, the message will be delivered by the Rev. Bayne Driscoll. Miss Lucille Montgomery will give the interpretative reading and Claude Mathis will sing "O Lord Most High," by Frank.

Debaters Are Beginning Tournament Activities

Students interested in debating are meeting at 1:30 o'clock each Monday afternoon in Room 203, Administration Building. The year's activities have not been definitely planned, but the school plans to send a team to a tournament at Louisiana State University.

Skinny, Age 60, Campus Favorite Of Last 25 Years

Skinny doesn't get around much anymore, but you can't expect a man who has several false ribs and a false sternum to cut the capers of a kid. Skinny was 35 years old when he came to T. C. U. 25 years ago. Some say he was a hobo before he came, but he never discusses his past—all he does is grin.

He has led a life beyond reproach at T. C. U. No one has ever seen him take a drink or heard him swear, although a cigarette will be seen dangling from his jaws once in a while.

Popular with the students, Skinny has shaken hands with thousands. On his frequent trips off the campus to scientific exhibitions and meetings, he often stole the show; scientists of note would crowd around just to get a glimpse of him.

Lieut. Schmidt Joins V-12 Unit

Recent addition to the campus V-12 unit is Lieut. C. M. Schmidt, who will serve as assistant commanding officer. Completing 15 months of duty as a gunnery officer on merchant ships, Lieut. Schmidt participated in six air raids and saw action at nine different bases of operation.

Lieut. Schmidt is married and has an 8-year-old son. He expects to move his family to Fort Worth within the next two weeks.

Prior to entering the Navy, Lieut. Schmidt was principal of Huber Elementary School of Findlay, O.

Sophs Choose Social, Publicity Committees

Members of two committees were named at a recent meeting of the sophomore class. Miss Phala Davis is new chairman of the social committee. Eddie Simpson and Miss Mary Maxine Jones will serve with her. On the publicity committee are Miss Janet Kroll, chairman, and Misses Alice Loudon and Jimmie Lynn Wilson.

Library to Be Closed 12-6 P. M. Tuesday

The Library will be closed from noon to 6 p. m. Tuesday in preparation for the Faculty Woman's Club tea, honoring Mrs. G. H. Wooten.

Day's Events Include Dance, Coffee, Registration of Exes, Ceremonies Between Halves

Presentation of Homecoming Queen Sherley Glasscock, registration of exes, a morning coffee and a formal dance are the events scheduled for the Homecoming Day celebration tomorrow.

The exes will register and receive identification tags at a booth in the Administration Building. Several students will be on hand to give them information about the campus and help them find the persons they want to see. The coffee will be given by the Leti Club in the parlor of Foster Hall from 9:30 a. m. until noon.

Three Plays Under Way

Freshman Contest Entry, Rose Million's One-Act Prize Production Cast

Casts for the sophomore production of the Freshman-Sophomore Play Contest and Miss Rose Million's one-act play have been chosen. The contest has been scheduled for the last week in November. Miss Million will direct her prize winning production early in December before an open meeting of the Poetry Club and Sigma Tau.

Tryouts for the freshman presentation, Margaret Mayagora's "When Charlott Comes Home," will be held at 1 p. m. today in Room 304. Miss Doris Mahon will be its director.

Sophomores F. N. Welmaker, Bonnie Osborn, Jake Swinford and Nancy McKinney have been chosen for the cast of Robert Kasper's "Echo," which will be directed by Jimmy Tinkle.

In Miss Million's "Tell Me Pretty Maiden," will be Peggy Faught, Richard Maloney, Dorothy Nuss, Katherine Allred, Alice Loudon, Roy Joe Cates and Jake Swinford.

Try-outs for Dramatic Club membership will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Room 304.

"Prospective members are expected to group themselves for the presentation of a scene from a play or to give individual monologs of about ten minutes length," says Miss Doris Mahon, president.

'Y' Members Discuss Campus Social Service

Student activities, the post-war world, recreation and campus social service were topics discussed Tuesday night at the weekly meeting of the "Y."

Still in the formative stage, this trimester's "Y" will keep its temporarily elected officers for one month. Dr. C. F. Richards was recently named as faculty sponsor of the group.

Flees Jap Terror, Enters TCU

Incidental to saving his neck, Harlan (Harkie) McCallum, 20-year-old senior philosophy major, left his home town of Nanking, China, in order to keep up his education. Another reason for leaving his home was the Japanese Army, which was but a hop, skip and jump behind him.

Born in Nanking, McCallum first came to the States when he was but a year old. He then returned to Nanking after his fifth birthday and remained for eight years. He again came to America in 1939, only to return to China in 1940. His third and most recent voyage to America was in 1941. McCallum now calls Pasadena, Calif., his home. His ambition is to go back to China as a missionary.

As to guessing the length of the war, McCallum refuses to comment, other than saying, "It will be a long time—a very long time."

Dr. Gayle Scott Returns From Trip to California

Dr. Gayle Scott, professor of biology and geology, returned Sunday from a trip to California, where he addressed the Pacific section of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists on "The Problems of Wartime Publication." On the outward trip, he spent two days at the University of Arizona and was taken on a tour of the mining district in the Bisbee sector by members of the university's geology department.

An Ex Needs a Friend

Sergt. Johnny Jones, ex '39, will be a "Collegiate Joe" again for one day. Tomorrow!

Tomorrow, Sergt. Johnny and other T. C. U. exes, both military and civilian, will return to the campus, reliving the days when "they" were all excited about the Texas game. They'll be prepared to sing the "Alma Mater," to join the clapping throng when the "Fight Song" is played. They'll want to see their old chemistry prof, to talk with that English teacher. The exes will want to peek into the auditorium, to see the dean, to walk along the Honeysuckle Arbor again.

But Johnny and his fellow exes will be at a disadvantage. The campus has changed. Offices have been transferred from floor to floor, some moved to other buildings. Teachers will be in different classrooms, the whole atmosphere will be changed.

So the Student Council is providing an information booth for their use, and little white identification cards. But Sergt. Johnny and his buddies won't feel at home unless a little of the T. C. U. spirit they knew in their day is still raging on the campus.

That leaves things up to present-day Froggies. No one has to tell a T. C. Uite that his school is synonymous with the word "friendliness." It was that way back in 1939 too. So the exes will be looking for friendliness. A helping hand extended to a lost ex, who feels left out, will leave such pleasant memories that the remembrance of 1944 and Homecoming Day will always be a happy one.

The real Frog spirit! That's what the school is getting, with the inspiration furnished by the Horned Frog Band. Two weeks ago today a pep rally was held with more school spirit than had been shown in years—that's what the old timers were saying. It was the first appearance of the band under the direction of Leon Breeden.

Last trimester there were 35 persons in the band; now there are 60. They are giving out with swing, and students are saying, "That sounds like our old band." After the band's first appearance at the pep rally, five more students came to the stage and told Director Breeden that they wanted to join.

Tomorrow that organization will take part in the Homecoming ceremonies. The director has written a new tune for the occasion, calling it "Horned Frogs on Parade." That title could mean several things. Not only will the football players, the band and the student body be on parade, but so will a large number of exes who will be back for the day. The Skiff feels that when they hear that band, they, too, will get that old Frog spirit once more.

PICKED UP PASSING BY

New Jingle Writer
Double Threat Dorm
Just Call Him B.G.

The Swan soap $10.00 jingle contest has invaded the campus—but with the results the sponsors would appreciate. Avis Hadden, at a recent meeting of the Poetry Club, contributed her four-line masterpiece to the Swan cause: Mary had a little lamb, But now he's dead, poor dope, For Mary washed her little lamb With extra-rich Swan soap!

Residents of Goode Hall refer to the north wing of the first floor as the "double threat" corner. The corner, composed of Rooms 113, 114 and 115, fell victim to a freakish chance of mathematical possibility at the opening of the winter trimester and came up with three sets of "twins." Jim Grady and Jim Simmons live in Room 113, Ed Gorum and Ed Norris live in 114; David Smiley and David Graham are in Room 115.

They're either too long or too short! Any girl heard singing that particular line may be identified as a coed who is taking swimming in P. T. Navy regulations do not permit the girls to wear their own bathing suits in the pool, so special suits have been issued. Getting these the proper size is something of a problem. "They're not exactly from Vogue," reports Lanelle Butterfield. "They have the modern drape-shape, all right. The trouble is that the drape is never in the right place!"

Leon Breeden really gave the student body the hot foot with his version of the football band. With just a little encouragement, Helen Richardson and a hundred others would have danced in the aisles at the pep rally. The band director already has enough fans to form a large "Leon B. G. Club." The

Dr. Lord discovered in a government class a student who didn't know whether it was "ic" or "al" as used in the sentence, "The principle of English government." So the Lord sent him to the blackboard, to write three sentences using "principle" and "principal." "If I haven't taught this government class anything about government, I hope I have at least taught it something about grammar," Dr. Lord commented. Next year "Government 326" will probably be listed in the catalog under English courses!

cessible, but this is not the case. Anyone can see him. Skinny is in the biological laboratory all day. Just walk in and look for—a skeleton.

Skinny cost T. C. U. about $50. Now, since the price of skeletons has gone up, he would probably cost about $75.

He was a white man, 5 feet 6 inches tall, about 35 years old when he died. Absence of muscle scars on the bones of his arms and hands indicate he did little manual labor. The presence of well developed muscle scars on his legs indicate he did much walking. These clues, coupled with the fact he was bought from a commercial supply house, lead one to believe he may have been a tramp or hobo.

Handel Festival to Be Given by Groups From Two Schools Dec. 17-19

The annual musical festival of the School of Fine Arts will be given Dec. 17, 18 and 19, on the music of Handel. T. C. U. and the Baptist Seminary will cooperate in the programs this year.

"The Messiah" will be sung by the Seminary Chorus, accompanied by the T. C. U. Symphony Orchestra. Choruses from the two schools will combine to sing "Judith Maccabaeus," also accompanied by the orchestra.

Other special Handel programs are being arranged and will be announced later, according to Dean T. Smith McCorkle.

Private Richard Stubbs, ex '43, obtained a furlough just in time to see the T. C. U.-Texas Tech game. He is now stationed in Harrisburg, Pa., with a transportation unit.

Ensign O. B. Rutherford, ex '42, is a flight officer and an instructor at Cabanis Field, Corpus Christi.

Kirk Stewart, V-12 ex '44, is at sea on the USS Dakota. He is a seaman first class.

Jim Cooper, if he continues to perform in the next three contests as he did Saturday against Tech, should get the call as the finest center in the Southwest Conference. Cooper, whose work was somewhat erratic in early season games, appears to have hit his stride. If he goes against Texas, Rice and A. U. as he did against the Raiders Saturday, he'll stand a good chance to make the all-conference selection in his freshman year. Those Longhorn passes give him a good work-out tomorrow, which will be followed by strong Owl running game the following week.

Taylor, the Tech end who injured in Saturday's play, has his hurt on a muscle in his back which he pulled playing ten days before. When he tackled, the joint hurt his back in his instinctive response to pain and his attempt to protect the hurt, he fell tight and hard, banging his head on ground. He says he was not in any pain while lying on the gridiron (while spectators cheered), for the simple but obvious reason that he was not conscious. Taylor came to at the hospital about dinner time and ate a hearty meal. "Nothing the matter with my appetite!" said the nurse.

Harry Mullins is really playing end position particularly well in stellar performances against Chatham and Texas, which, if continued, will help the Frogs in their campaign to come out on top in the race. Against Tech, Harry seemed to have his educated toe going o.k. again too. He has 10 out of 16 attempts for points after touchdown, which is a too good a record, but in only one game has it made any difference. A successful goal kick would mean victory over Arkansas.

Leading ball carrier for the season is Jesse Mason, with 190 yards to his credit. Cox has 146 yards, Ruff 115, Ruff 104. Mason has completed 8 out of 18 passes for a 77-yard pick-up. Ruff has connected with 8 out of 14 tries, for 154 yards. Gibson is way out in front receiving, having snagged 17 passes for 342 yards. Mason is the nearest competitor, with 10 passes for 94 yards.

If you get steak you gotta have points! If the Horned Frogs enjoy choice bits of Longhorn meat tomorrow, they've got to register in that point column—probably several times.

It doesn't appear impossible that the Frogs will score. They haven't been shut out this year. But can they score more than the visitors?—that's the question.

T. C. U. defense has been formidable, generally speaking. The Frogs have stopped running teams and they've stopped passing teams. But they didn't stop the Oklahoma Sooners, who had both a running and passing attack. The Longhorns, too, strike by land and air. Can the Frogs stop them both ways?

Layne to Start
Word from Austin is that Bobby Layne, Texas' backfield ace, will start Saturday. He was laid up with injuries Saturday when the Oklahoma Aggies tumbled Texas 13 to 8. Can the Frogs stop Layne?

The Texas line is the toughest in the conference, listing three lettermen and averaging 210 pounds. That's at least 25 pounds per man more than the T. C. U. line weighs. Can the Frogs outcharge this mass of flesh?

Those questions can't be answered finally until the mix-up on the field tomorrow afternoon. Meyer-coached teams of other years have faced such heavy odds — even heavier—and have come out on top.

Do Figures Lie?
Texas beat Oklahoma 20 to 0, and T. C. U. lost to the same team 19 to 34. Texas beat Arkansas 19 to 0, and the best T. C. U. could manage for was a 6-to-6 tie.

Figuring from the Oklahoma, Arkansas results, the Longhorns are 54 points better than the Frogs—if you want to look on the dark side.

Yet Rice beat Texas 7 to 0. Texas Tech beat Rice 13 to 7. T. C. U. beat Tech 14 to 0. That makes the Frogs 27 points better than the Longhorns—if you want to look on the bright side.

Best way to settle it all is to be in the Stadium from 2:30 p. m. to about 5 p. m. tomorrow. Those Frogs will give a good account of themselves—and they might get enough points to enjoy Steer meat!

Cage Squad Works Hard

Coach Hub Lacks Height So Works for Speed as League's Dark Horse

Tempo continues to increase day by day as Coach Hub McQuillan sends his basketball squad through pre-season drills. From the 20 boys now reporting from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. daily, McQuillan plans to put one of his best cage teams on the court.

Looming as the conference dark-horse, the Frogs will field a team of small but speedy boys.

Sauer Showing Well
One lad to watch in particular when the season rolls around is elusive George Sauer, an all-state bey from Richmond, Ind. Sauer has been catching the eyes of both coaches and spectators at the practice periods. He's an uncanny dribbler and a good floor man. McQuillan also announced his plans for the 10-day Eastern tour. A traveling squad of 11 civilians and himself will arrive in Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 30, for a game with Canisius. The Brooklyn College

Frogs Shut Out Tech 14-0, to Give Meyer First Raider Victory

T. C. U.'s Horned Frogs just didn't believe it about Texas Tech's "Dumas Dynamo." Instead, they cooked up a few explosions of their own and left the field on the long end of a 14-to-0 score. It was the first time this year that Tech had been shut out, and the first victory of a Meyer-coached team over Tech in four tries.

The two teams feinted for position during most of the first quarter, neither side gaining possession in enemy territory until after some 11 minutes had passed.

Then Ransom Jackson raced down field, got behind Schlinkman the Great, who was defending and made a great running catch of Red Hadaway's pass. Schlinkman caught Jackson from behind on the Tech 6. The play was good for 43 yards.

Cox Scores From 1
Four plays later Norman Cox bashed across from the 1-yard line and Harry Mullins added the extra point, to put the Frogs ahead 7 to 0.

The Raiders tried hard in the quintet will be their opponents in Madison Square Garden Jan. 1. Two days later, the Frogs meet Valparaiso in Valparaiso, Ind. Conference Play Jan. 5

They will arrive back in Fort Worth Jan. 5, to begin their conference schedule here that night with the University of Texas. Several V-12 men also will be used if proper plane connections can be made.

second quarter, with the wind to their back. Recovering a T. C. U. fumble on the Frog 30, Tech drove for a first on the 9. Four plays later, they were still on the 2. Schlinkman had done his best and it wasn't enough. The Frog defense handled all the dynamite he could muster.

The Frogs were backed up pretty well the remainder of the second quarter, the Raiders driving to the 10 and later to the 13, but the defense was so entirely adequate that Purple and White fans were never worried.

Midway of the third quarter, Hoot Gibson recovered Schlinkman's fumble on the Tech 24. From there the Frogs drove over on sheer power in 10 plays, Cox and Mullins again dueting for the touchdown and the extra point.

That was the ball game. The fourth quarter, like the first, was played largely between 30-yard lines, neither team threatening.

Two Injuries in Game
Two hospital casualties—at least for a short time—resulted from the day's mixing it. Jim Taylor, Tech end, was knocked out from a blow on the head and was carried off the field on a stretcher. However, three hours later, at Methodist Hospital, he was feeling fine and ate a hearty dinner.

Arval Cohagan, Frog guard, refused to let Tech take any honors for the day. So about 7 p. m. he passed out and he, too, was taken to Methodist Hospital. Verdict was that he likewise had received a blow on the head.

Oldtimers, New Exes To Be "Frogs" Again

Oldtimers as well as recent exes will be on hand for the festivities of Homecoming this year. For example there will be MRS. LOUIS DOMINGUES, A. B. '27, and MRS. JESS WARD, ex '18, who will not only be coming back to visit her alma mater, but will also visit her daughter Moizelle, now a student. Then there will be recent exes and alumni such as RUTH ANN BALL, who is working in Houston, BETTY SUE PETTY, TRICIA McDANIEL, BETTY MAE DAVIS, MARY FORD, MARY HELEN McLENDON, and JUNE DAMERON, who all left T. C. U. in 1944.

Some of the students will be sort of "on the fence" about whom to holler for tomorrow. RITA STEWART, NINA ELLIOTT, HANNAH GROGINSKI, DAVE RANDALL, NEL EPPERSON, MAXINE MORTENSON and DOROTHY ROYAL, all exes '44, are now students at the University of Texas. At least one is going to be true to her "first love" though. Nina says, "I hope T. C. U. wins, really I do." Then one student has exactly the opposite problem. She is MOIZELLE WARD, who is a transfer from the University of Texas.

Others not quite so new, yet not quite so old, who will be back to see friends on the campus are MARY BETTY MILLER, LUCILLE HAIGH and FRANCES DUCKWORTH, all exes '43.

WALKER MOORE, ex '43, is hoping his duties as announcer for KFJZ won't keep him from attending the game tomorrow. NANCY SHUGART and MAXINE SHAW, both ex '42, plan to be here to get in on all the excitement.

MRS. JANE WILLIAMSON, A. B. '35, is an early homecomer this year. She visited on the campus last week. WALTER SHORT will be journeying up from Houston for the week-end before he reports to Northwestern University for midshipmen's school.

Yelling their lungs out for the Frogs will be GENEVIEVE SCHNEIDER, KATHRYN DAY, MARTHA CAMPBELL, CAROLINE ROBERTS, ELLEN AYRES RICE and MRS. DEE EZELL, all of whom received their degrees in 1944.

LEON STREALLY, B. S. in Commerce '44, will be around to cheer the new band on. He played in the band before graduation.

ACS Members Hear Laboratory Head

"Some Problems the Student Faces in Preparing for Work" was the subject of a talk before the student affiliate of the American Chemical Society at its meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. J. Laurence Whitman.

Harry M. Bulbrook, head of Industrial Laboratories of Fort Worth and president of the Dallas-Fort Worth section of the A. C. S., was the speaker.

TCU Women to Honor Mrs. Wooten

The annual Faculty Woman's Club "Guest Day Tea," to be held in the Library from 3 until 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, will honor Mrs. Goodall Wooten of Austin.

Mrs. Wooten, who gave the Wooten Collection in the Library to T. C. U., will be the house guest of President and Mrs. M. E. Sadler from Sunday through Tuesday.

Those in the receiving line will be the club officers, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Gayle Scott and Mrs. Colby D. Hall, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the tea. Among those rooms to be opened to visitors will be the Wooten Room, Southwest Room and Disciples Room.

The 12 student library assistants will serve as junior hostesses.

22 to Be Initiated By Alpha Chi

Twenty-two students elected to membership in Alpha Chi at the close of the summer-fall trimester will be initiated at 3 p. m. Tuesday, Dr. John Lord, faculty sponsor, reports. Ceremonies will be held in the Brite College Club Room.

New members are: Seniors, Gladys Cain, Joan Gardner, Mrs. Nettie Payne and Jerry Marie Turner; juniors, Lois Aucoin, L. S. Botts (V-12), Bettye Brown, Owen C.
