

For Five Class Offices

Candidates for five freshman class offices should file their names with Miss Mary Claude Scott or Miss Bobbye Rheinlander in The Skiff office before noon Thursday, according to the Student Council election committee.

The election of freshman president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and Council member will be held on Oct. 12.

(if they have been in T. C. U. before this trimester.) There are no other requirements for candidacy. The student's name and the office he is running for is the only information needed on the petition sheet.

NEW STUDENTS have taken possession of the campus with the opening of the spring trimester. A group of those who have pushed enrollment figures to an all-time high was caught by the photographer as they were purchasing books. The four in the front row are (left to right) Ray Bristol, Marfa, sophomore; John A. Valamides, J. R. Lowry and Philip Hines, all Fort Worth freshmen.

Polls Are Held Open Again Today for Vote On Four Amendments

Because of light balloting in yesterday's amendment election, the polls are being held open until 12 o'clock noon today to get the required number of votes for the election to be officially counted, says Norman Hoffman, election committee chairman.

Yesterday's voting listed 198 students, which does not constitute 25 per cent of the 1133 students enrolled in the day school this term. Approximately 130 more votes are needed.

At the last tabulation of amendment election results, all the proposed changes for the provisional constitution are being carried by large majorities.

One hundred eighty-five students voted for the amendment concerning the division of money in the Frog War Fund. The proposed amendment would divide the Fund into five parts, the original four: War Bonds, Red Cross, War Chest and World Student Service Fund, plus the addition of another part for the Frog Memorial Fund. Twelve students opposed the issue, and one student did not vote.

The proposed change as to the number of hours needed to fulfill requirements for election to sophomore and junior class offices was voted for by 177 students, and against by 20. No vote was cast on one ballot.

The amendment concerning the number of freshman class representatives received 184 votes for its adoption and 18 votes against it.

One hundred forty-seven votes were cast for the amendment to abolish petitions that are now necessary for students to have signed if they run for student body or class offices. Fifty-five votes were against the amendment.

"Students who voted yesterday should under no circumstances vote again today," says Hoffman.

Concert Oct. 8 By Orchestra

Miss Stevenson, Flutist, Will Appear as Soloist With Symphony Group

The first formal Symphony Orchestra concert of the fall season will be given at 8:15 p. m. Monday in the Auditorium, under the direction of Dr. T. Smith McCorkle.

Miss Charlotte June Stevenson, new teacher of theory, will play a flute solo with the orchestra in Mozart's "Concerto, D Major."

The program will also include "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor," by Bach; "Symphony No. 1," by Beethoven; "Adagio Pathetique," by Godard; and "The Irish Washerwoman," by Sowerby.

A Choral Club concert will be given at 8:15 p. m. Monday, Oct. 15, in the Auditorium. Under the direction of Prof. W. J. Marsh, the club will present a program devoted to music from the medieval period.

Dr. Smith Substitutes While Miss Major Is Ill

Dr. Rebecca Smith, who has been on leave for the past two years to serve as a lieutenant in the WAVES, will meet the classes of Miss Mable Major during the remainder of the fall term. Miss Major, who has been ill, will resume her teaching at the opening of the winter trimester, Nov. 1.

World Student Fund To Get $800 From 'Y'

A two-day drive to solicit $800 in funds for the World Student Service Fund will be sponsored on the campus by the "Y" Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 16 and 17, according to Don Sellstrom, "Y" president.

There will be a booth in the main hall of the Administration Building, where students may give their donations, which will go toward the rehabilitation of students throughout the world.

The drive will be climaxed Oct. 17 with a play, George Kelly's "The Torch-Bearers," put on by the Dramatics Club, under the direction of Prof. Lew D. Fallis.

Girls Will Carry TCU Band Banner In Tilt With A&M

A large white banner, with the words "Horned Frog Band" printed across it in purple, will make its initial appearance at the T. C. U.-A. & M. football game Oct. 20, says Leon Breeden, band director.

It will be carried behind the band by three girls not as yet selected. The banner is being made by Bob White.

A new drum stand is also being made for the band, so that Bryce Davis and his drums may be featured at the football games.

Two new drum majorettes have been added to the band, Misses Jo Bradley and Dorothy Cline. Miss Jackie Clardy has resigned her position as drum majorette.

Final Exams Set For Oct. 24-25

Final exams for the summer-fall trimester will be given Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 24 and 25, according to Registrar S. W. Hutton.

Graduating seniors must have completed all work, including exams, by Monday, Oct. 22.

Registration for the winter trimester will be Thursday and Friday, Nov. 1 and 2, in the Library.

"All students who have not declared their major subject should consult their major professors before registration, to avoid confusion," Hutton adds.

Official student body cards must be obtained in the Library by each student to complete his registration for classes. Students will be required to show these cards to vote in general campus elections and to get special student rates for plays, dances and so forth, says Norman Hoffman.

Mundhenke Substitutes For Welfare Chairman

Dr. H. R. Mundhenke is serving as chairman of the student welfare committee during the absence of Dr. J. Laurence Whitman, who is ill.

Bena Sellars, Polly Terrill Petition for Vice-President

Norman Hoffman will be the new president of the student body for the winter trimester, by virtue of his being the only petitioner for the office, if a technicality regarding the number of hours required for presidency can be straightened out by the judiciary committee.

Other students who will take office by virtue of being the only petitioners are Miss Ellen Becker, vice-president of the senior class; Mrs. Betty Jane Sims, secretary-treasurer of the senior class; Miss Mary Jo Jackson, junior class representative to the Student Council; Miss Charlotte

Two Classes To Give Picnic Juniors, Seniors Will Meet Monday to Make Plans for Weiner Roast

Plans for a junior-senior picnic for next Friday will be made at a joint meeting of the two classes at 12:30 p. m. Monday in the Amphitheater.

"We think we will have a wiener roast," says Lanelle Butterfield. "The place hasn't been decided as yet but will be either at Rockwood Park or Forest Park," she adds.

Tickets will be sold by Lanelle, Nel Epperson, Alice Loudon, Sterling Bell and other members of the classes. The picnic will be open to juniors, seniors and their dates.

"We're trying to keep the price under 50 cents," says Lanelle, "but that will be determined at the meeting also."

Those attending will meet at the Arch at 5:30 p. m. and transportation will be furnished to the picnic site.

Freshman Prom Hits Top With Large Attendance

The swish of taffeta skirts and the swirls of the organdie dresses of over 175 girls helped make the Thursday night Freshman Prom one of the largest that the campus has ever seen. In the Grand March, there were so many couples that the march got a bit tangled up at times.

The hep-cats really had a night of it, for Leon Breeden's orchestra played all the jump numbers dear to the hearts of jive-fiends. The music was loud and hot, and there was plenty of it.

Pres. Sadler to Speak In Church Conventions

President M. E. Sadler will speak on "Rebuilding the World Through Fellowship" in a series of district conventions of Texas Christian churches, beginning Monday in Brownwood.

He will speak in Austin Tuesday, San Antonio Wednesday, and Brownsville Thursday.

Lt. Looney Joins V-12 Unit As New Dental Officer

Lt. Billy Looney reported to the V-12 unit recently as dental officer. Lt. (jg) Douglas R. Daniels will be detached soon. He will report to the Commander Service Force, Pacific Fleet, for duty in the CinCPac Dental Officer Pool.

Childress, sophomore councilman; Bob Matheny, graduate Council representative; Brown Chiles, Goode Hall councilman; Miss Therylene Knox, Foster Hall representative to the Council; Miss Mary Crites, Jarvis Hall representative; and Miss Mary Claude Scott, town student councilman.

Miss Mary Bena Sellars and Miss Polly Terrill are running for vice-president of the student body. Miss Betty Jo Gamble and Miss Peggy Glover are petitioning for student body secretary.

Miss Janie Coffin and Roy Tomlinson are running for president of the senior class. Petitioners for Senior Council representatives are Misses Libby Duncan, Betty Mae Davis, Alice Loudon and Janet Kroll, and Clifford Taylor.

Miss Dorothy Lewis, Jack Bean, Lawrence Bridges and Bob Young are petitioning for freshman class president. Miss Betty Jo Donovan, Miss Pat Timbes and Thomas Condon are running for vice-president of the freshman class, and Misses Ann Zimmermann, Doris Knight and Ellen Johnson for freshman class secretary-treasurer. Petitioners for the position of freshman class Council representative are Misses Mary Ann Newman, Billie Louise Rippetoe, Pat Perkins, and Vivian Johnson, and Hal Cohen and Robert Thornton.

The deadline for petitions for offices that do not already have candidates is 12 o'clock noon Thursday. Petitions should be turned in to Miss Betty Jean Schmuck, Council secretary, or put in the Council suggestion box.

Offices that are as yet open for petitions are treasurer of the student body; junior class president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and one Council representative; and sophomore president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and one Council representative.

The general student body election will be from 9 a. m. till 12 o'clock noon Thursday, Oct. 18, in the main hall, Administration Building, says Hoffman, chairman of the election committee.

Cafeteria Breakfast Hour Will Change Tomorrow

Beginning tomorrow, breakfast will be served in the Cafeteria from 7:15 till 8:15 a. m. instead of the former serving time of from 7:30 till 8:30 a. m. The change in serving time will be permanent, except on Sunday, when breakfast will be served at the usual hour, according to Mrs. Helen L. Orbeck.

This time change has been made because some of the students have been having difficulty in eating breakfast and getting to 8 a. m. classes on time, Mrs. Orbeck says.

Walker, Ver Duin, Scott, On Church Programs
"On Getting Along With Those With Whom We Disagree" will be the subject of the Rev. Granville Walker at the University Christian Church Sunday. The prelude will be "Largo," from "Symphony From the New World," by Dvorak, and the offertory will be a Norwegian "Folk Song." The choir, under the direction of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote, will sing "The Twenty-Third Psalm," by Schubert.

There will be a baptismal service and Evensong at 7:15 p. m. The Rev. Don Ver Duin will bring the message on the subject "How Far Are We Responsible for Other Students?" Miss Roberta Waltermire will sing "By the Waters of Babylon," by Speaks.

The Melorist Club will present Mrs. Gayle Scott, who will talk on "Speaking of Books."

Patricia Isbell, Paducah, Wins TCU Scholarship
Miss Patricia Isbell is enrolled in T. C. U. this trimester on a high school scholarship, along with 16 other freshmen. She is from Paducah and was valedictorian of her graduating class.

Our Dear Professors

Back in the good old days it used to be that college professors were semi-prisoners of their students. They had to get permission from their scholars in order to give "Walks." Worse than that, they were put to the torch if they tried to skip the royal domain without permission. Lighter punishment was meted out to those profs who got off the subject or gave bad lectures.

But the Renaissance trimmed off its rough edges and began to putt along in second gear. However, the wires got crossed when the shift was made and student-teacher relationship found itself scooting along in reverse. The student has been working for the teacher ever since that fateful day.

It isn't hard to see that the royal ax-swinger would be drawing time-and-a-half if some of today's profs were sent back for a ninth century trial. Current professors are prone to tell corny jokes, brag on their off-spring, require textbooks that they themselves wrote, narrate their European adventures of 1920, or the glories of their own student days, and generally wander off the subject.

It could be that these professors realize that it is impossible for the present generation to contain themselves throughout an hour of unbroken instruction. The student is grateful for the brake, for nobody outside of seniors takes college seriously these days.

The world is going to the dogs.

Strictly Out of Esquire

Only the coeds are restricted in their campus dress. Not that it pays to be anti-female, but this seems to be a good idea when the facts are considered. For example, the girls are confined to the tennis courts or to the sun deck of Foster Hall when they are sporting shorts. And slack, praises be, are strictly taboo outside of the dormitories.

However, coeds are apt to don their best set of hurt feelings and break into an oration on persecution, slavery and maltreatment of the female species if one is tactless enough to express himself in sympathy with the University's dress requirements.

An object lesson on the absence of these restrictions may be seen at practically any time on the front steps of Goode Hall. Not that it makes any particular difference how one dresses—it's just that the mode of student dress creates definite impressions on visitors and passersby.

All of which is another way of sticking the old neck out and saying "Long may the women of the campus be subjected to the rules of garb."

Nov. 1 will be a welcome date to Dr. Fred West, who has been keeping the home fires burning, trying to write a book, and teaching classes while Mrs. West is in Virginia. For a whole month he managed to hold the fort, but Monday finally had to give in and ask for helpful hints on how to be a good housewife. "I didn't mind it when a couple of screws fell out of the vacuum cleaner, or the door slipped off its hinges. Even when I couldn't find a clean plate in the house, I didn't mind it. But when the ice-box stopped running when I had two steaks in it—well, what do I do now?" Then came the question, "When was the last time you defrosted it?" "I hadn't thought of that," Dr. West answered. "I wondered how I was going to get those three inches of ice off."

The fame of T. C. U.'s camp shows has spread far and wide, but there are two sailors who are probably still puzzling themselves as to whether the members of the

Fans in Groove! Baylor Trip OK In Spite of Rain

In spite of the rain, crowded buses and mud, the Baylor trip was a great success. Around 550 students, plus the band and several hundred other fans attended. Umbrellas were not opened, for as the game started the rain stopped.

"That T. C. U. band is really on the beam!" was the remark of a lieutenant fan who was yelling for the Frogs with all he had. In fact, he practically had a pep squad of his own with his pilot buddies from Blackland Army Air Field.

The students in the camp show were able to attend the game and, as Sanye Ziegler puts it, "We wouldn't have missed it for the world." Jimmy Shields practically lost her voice but "It was worth it! We certainly have a team!" she remarks.

Cheerleader Therylene Knox and an unidentified student entertained the Christians as well as the Baptists with a bit of jitters-bugging that was hep in the groove. Elaine Henderson did her part too, with an exhibit of flips that wouldn't quit.

Lt. Fullerton Faguy-Cote, Don Ver Duin, Betty Flo Mason, Lt. Don Ezell, Helen Ziegler and many other exes and alumni gave out with their all on those yells.

Frog fans stood while the Baylor school song was played, but the Bears walked out on the T. C. U. Alma Mater, which Frog students never quite considered a marching song!

Frog Flashes

The Frogs haven't played in Fayetteville since the war started. The last journey to the hills of northern Arkansas was made for the game of Oct. 4, 1941, which T. C. U. won 9 to 0. The points were earned on a 31-yard touchdown pass, Kyle Gillespie to Phil Rouch, and a 26-yard field goal by Frank Medanich. The Frogs that day held the Razorbacks to a net of 6 yards rushing, just as the current edition did the Baylor Bears in Waco Saturday.

Three GI's who joined the squad this fall are certainly setting a fast pace for the rest of the squad. Outstanding on the field Saturday were Norman Morrill, left guard; J. C. Oneal, left tackle; and Beekie Ezell, right end. There are a host of other Frogs in service, with eligibility left, who plan to come back to school as soon as they are civilians again. If they perform like these three, the '46 eleven ought to be something!

Five best passers in the Southwest Conference (maybe in the nation) could be available for Coach Meyer next year. There's Pete Stout, freshman sensation of '42; Jim Lucas, another freshman, who looked brilliant in '43 with a very poor team; Joe Kucera, V-12er, who was a big factor in '44 Frog victories until he was transferred Nov. 1; Johnny Sherrod, who came along nicely in the four '44 games in which he played before Uncle Sam called him. Fifth passer is, of course, the current Leon Joslin.

Joslin, after only two games, has completed 17 out of 23 attempts, for a percentage of .739. Kucera, in five games, connected with 29 of 47 tosses, for a .617 figure. Sherrod, in four contests, threw 39 passes, 17 of which were completed, to give him a .436 percentage. Lucas, in the eight games of '43, got 45 completions out of 133 attempts, for .338. Records for Stout, who competed only as a freshman, are not available.

It seems there are still iron men around after all. Morrill and Ezell both went the route against the Bears Saturday. Chances are at least Gibson and Joslin would also have played 60 minutes if it had not been for their injuries.

The Razorbacks will throw the "T" formation against the Frogs tomorrow afternoon, as did the Bears last week—and do the players like it! The Frogs just don't believe the "T" can be made to click against them. It certainly didn't as Baylor ran it!

Those Arkansas teams, though, can pass with the best of them, and when the Hogs and Frogs get together the air is usually filled with pigskins. Back in 1936, with Sam Baugh pitching for T. C. U. and Jack Robbins for Arkansas, the two teams tossed 71 passes in the 60 minutes of play. The Frogs completed 12 of 30 attempts, and the 'Bacs 22 of 41. But Baugh and Company came out on the long end of an 18-to-14 score.

Arkansas '11' to Give TCU Busy Afternoon Is Scout Hub's Report

If the Frogs found it hard to get Bear meat last Saturday, just think what they're going to be up against tomorrow afternoon, up in the hills of Arkansas, when they go after a little Razorback bacon!

Minus the services of Capt. Merle Gibson, and with one or two other players physically on the doubtful side, Coach Dutch Meyer left with his squad of approximately three teams just after lunch yesterday.

The party, traveling in the school's two busses, spent last night in Atoka, Okla., following a light work-out on the high school field. Arrival in Fayetteville is scheduled for shortly after noon today. The players will arrive back on the campus sometime Sunday evening.

Defense Looks Strong

Scout Hub McQuillan brought back word of a first-class Arkansas eleven that will be plenty tough to handle. The Razorbacks bowed to the Oklahoma Aggies by only five points (14-19), and kept the Sooner Farmers from completing a single pass.

Those Okies took care of the '44 Frog outfit 34 to 0 in the Cotton Bowl, and they have a lot of the same players back. So it seems evident that the 'Bacs generated considerable power to hold the margin to only five points.

The two teams will have about the same poundage—193 to the man. Jim Smith, right tackle who weighs 230 pounds, is the heaviest Arkansas man slated to start, but Coach Glen Rose has one tackle who goes 270 pounds and another that carries the astronomical weight figure of 305!

T. C. U. hasn't lost to Arkansas since 1939. Last year's game, as most remember, was a 6-to-6 tie. Meyer-coached teams have taken seven out of 11 contests and tied two, dropping only two games since Dutch took over in 1934.

Razorbacks Are 'Dark Horse' That demonstrates that there has been something of a Frog famine for Arkansas, and those Razorbacks—named before the season opened by many sports writers as the dark horse of the '45 race—will be playing for keeps!

If T. C. U. wins this one, the Frogs will be promoted to a share with Texas in the favorite's seat. Some of the state's sport writers who saw the Baylor game are already touting the T. C. U.-Texas contest in Austin Nov. 17 as the one that will decide the championship.

Coach Meyer, however, doesn't know there is any other game on the schedule except the one up in Fayetteville tomorrow afternoon.

"We have our work cut out for us, and don't you forget it!" he told the players this week. "Let's meet these opponents one at a time and not be thinking about some game in November, when we have our hands full here and now!"

Two Games Wednesday To End V-12 Mural Play

In the final week of play in the V-12 intramural football league, Harry Geiss' team will play Lester Messer's men and "Andy" Anderson's eight will take on Jim Davis' team Monday afternoon. On Wednesday Messer's men will play Anderson's team, and Davis' charges will test Geiss' team.

Game scores for this week are: Tuesday, Messer 12-Geiss 6, Davis 18-Anderson 0; Wednesday, Geiss 8-Anderson 6, and for the third time in as many games, the game between Messer and Davis ended in a tie, 6 to 6.

The league standings are:

Messer	2	0	2
Davis	2	0	2
Geiss	2	2	0

Akin, Pasco Winners In Civilian Mural Play

In the civilian intramural football games this week the team of Charles Akin won over James Porter's freshmen 19 to 18, and Leroy Pasco's men beat Dearn Richardson's Preachers 32 to 7.

T. C. U. Touch Comes on Pass, Joslin to Ezell—Mullins Adds Point That Means Victory

It's 95 miles from the campus to Municipal Stadium in Waco, and then it's 285 yards to the Baylor goal line.

The Frogs soundly trounced (285 yards to 36) a surprisingly ineffective Bear eleven Saturday afternoon, but won by a score of only 7 to 6.

During the first half, T. C. U. pushed the heavier Baylor team all over the field, but managed to cross the double stripe only once.

All the scoring took place in the second quarter, the Bears counting first on an intercepted lateral which Joe Joiner ran back 95 uninterrupted yards. Sammy Pierce missed the extra point try.

Frogs Score in 6 Plays

A few minutes later, from their own 42-yard line, the Frogs scored in six plays—two on the ground and four in the air. The pay-off was a 15-yard heave from Joslin to Beekie Ezell, the latter going to take the pass only about a foot off the ground.

Harry Mullins, who place-kicks best when the heat is on, booted the ball high through the uprights to add the winning point.

Bear supporters, encouraged over their team's showing in two set-up contests, were really surprised when the Frogs handled Baylor with the greatest of ease. The Bear offense totaled 36 yards, both rushing and passing, all afternoon. The ground game netted 0.

The Frogs showed great improvement in their defensive work, as compared with the Kansas game. End play, with Capt. Merle Gibson, Beekie Ezell and Joe Ryan, was well nigh perfect. Co-Capt. J. C. Oneal and Norman Morrill played outstanding games.

Rain Cuts Crowd Rain which fell right up to kick-off time cut the crowd from an expected 15,000 to less than 5,000. The rain also produced the second muddy field in as many weeks for the Frogs, but didn't seem to affect their play particularly. There were only three fumbles in the game—and Baylor made all of these.

Visit to Math Office Uncovers This 'n' That

If you've got a coupla minutes, how about a quick look-in on the math office (during one of its quieter hours, of course, when all good little math students are busily counting fingers in class, or guzzling a short coke at the Drug, or, better still, just hanging around the office trying to catch forty winks.)

There's MARILYN ELLIS and DINK KISSINGER in the corner, puzzling over the solution to Einstein's theory of relativity. A second look, though, discloses that they are only trying to figure out Sunday's crossword puzzle. Right now they need a six-letter word meaning a geometric figure.

The desk over there by the window—no, the one on the left side with all the papers on it—belongs to PROF. L. W. RAMSEY, the man with the personality! If you lift the papers up and sorta move them to one side, you might run into the engineering instructor. Before you leave, though, you'll just have to hear the one about the man with the halo. That's a Ramsey favorite.

Now right across from Prof. Ramsey's desk you'll find INA MAE BRAMBLETT'S scratch pad. She's the one with all the post-war ideas on how a math office should look.

CHARLOTTE CHILDRESS asks MRS. "Advice to the Lovelorn" JOSEPHINE MORGAN what she thinks about chaperons. The discussion that follows is not being printed . . . by request.

JIMMIE SHIELDS comes in with a note from the office, and the telephone rings at the same time. The chemistry class gets out early and in walks some of the aspiring young chemists who have a math class next period, and simply couldn't understand that third problem, and would someone please show them how to work it because everybody got a different answer and none of them checks.

MISS CHARLIE NOBLE comes into the office just as the bell rings, and drops into a chair for a few seconds' rest before fighting it out with a class of algebra fiends. Prof. Ramsey scoops up a handful of papers and dashes out the door for his next class—and, by the way, isn't it about time you did the same? Let Grand Central Station worry, the math office can take care of itself.

Frogs Win

Marle Gibson is out this week with a bruised knee. He hopes to be back in shape for the Texas Aggies Oct. 20. Harry Mullins, also with a leg injury, certainly will be below par for some time. Center Jim Cooper hurt his ribs but has kept going. Joslin was knocked out for most of the third period, but seems to be entirely o. k. now. Jesse Mason, also badly shaken up for a while, is back in form again.

Eddie Tulley, S 2/c, ex '45, has been assigned to hospital duty in Hawaii.

Presenting

LEON BREEDEN

The clarinet-playing director of the Horned Frog Band, Leon Breeden, celebrated his 24th birthday Wednesday.

Leon has recently been chosen faculty sponsor of the Frog Vets, and a fitting choice it was, too, Leon being a discharged Army infantry veteran.

While in the Army, Leon was librarian and wrote arrangements for the 69th Division Band, which, incidentally, was the first American division to meet with the Russians in Europe. Leon now "fronts" and arranges for an orchestra he and Gene Hall have recently organized, and which played for the Freshman Prom.

As for favorites, Leon's "favorite wife" is the former Bonna Joyce McKee, ex '44. They've been married seven months, and he doesn't have to stop and figure it up to tell you, either.

His latest hobby, besides playing the clarinet and writing music, is watching the progress of the new house he and Bonna are having built.

TCU Versus Arkansas— Conference Passers DeLuxe Due to Put on "Air Show"

Texas Christian, the team with the top passing record in the Southwest Conference, tomorrow goes up against Arkansas, the eleven with a well-nigh perfect air defense.

The Horned Frogs have completed two out of every three passes thrown in their two games this season. The Razorbacks, on the other hand, have held their two opponents to one completion out of every four attempts.

That situation ought to produce some fireworks!

There have been an average of 43 pass attempts in each of the last 10 games between these two clubs. Back in 1936, with Sam Baugh pitching for the Frogs and Jack Robbins for the Razorbacks, there were 71 forwards tossed in the 60 minutes of play. The elevens bothered to run with ball only 65 times!

The Frogs outpassed the Razorbacks in all but three of those 10 games, amassing an overall completion percentage for the decade of .447 against Arkansas' .344. T. C. U. passers complete 85 of 190 attempts; Arkansas passers, 83 of 241 tries.

Coach Dutch Meyer's lads have six of the 10 games, lost two tied two.

All of which proves exactly what we've been saying about tomorrow's game—except that the customers may undoubtedly see a few fireworks!
