

Plaid Shirts 'n' Jeans Legion Dance Theme For Tomorrow Night

Blue jeans and plaid shirts will be preferred garb for the "swing-in' podners" at the American Legion's western dance tomorrow night.

"And you might even drag out your old Ranch Week boots," adds Bob Wheatley, publicity chairman for the dance.

The Gymnasium will become "the barn" from 8 to 12 p. m., with Kermit Huckabee in charge of western decorations.

Margaret Fifer's eight-piece all-girl orchestra will play for the "dress western, dance modern" hop.

Tickets are 75 cents, stag or drag. Bob Matthews is assisting Kermit Huckabee with the western decorations.

"It'll all be real barn-y," say the decorators. "There'll be harness, bales of hay and wagon wheels all over the place. And we're working on one big wagon wheel, to revolve as the center light-piece. A dummy will be dressed more western than Judge Roy Bean himself, to typify the West."

Adding to the ranch scheme of things will be the western costumes of dancers. Dean Elizabeth Shelburne has granted dormitory girls permission to wear blue jeans or other western costumes.

Soft drinks will be sold, under the direction of Huckabee. Maurice Langford, commander of the campus Legion Post, is in charge of ticket sales. Joe Tilley is vice-chairman of the Post.

Art Exhibit Opens Sunday

Baroque Spirit in Major Arts to Be Predominant In Class-Sponsored Show

An exhibit to illustrate the Baroque spirit in the major arts, sponsored by Miss Lorraine Sherley's "Interrelation of the Arts" class in connection with the annual Fine Arts Festival, will be officially opened at 5 p. m. Sunday after the Symphony Orchestra concert.

The exhibit, to be held in Room 310, Administration Building, will feature prints from the Metropolitan Museum, Fort Worth Public Library, and the T. C. U. art studio.

Every day through Saturday, the exhibit will be open from 12 to 1 p. m. Morning showings of the prints will be from 10 to 11 o'clock, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Afternoon hours will be 12 to 5:30 o'clock, Wednesday, and 4 to 6 o'clock, Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Leslie Baker and Miss Willard Hutchins are in charge of the architecture exhibit; Edward Smith and Raymond Scales, the sculpture; Miss Caroline McGown, Mrs. Cleo McKeever and Mrs. Anne Ryan, paintings; Brooks Morris, Jr., Misses Glenna Johnson and Betty Gaston, music; and Misses Betty Browder and Sammy Morrow, literature.

Evening College Has 1231 Students

Fifty-one teachers and 1231 students make up the Evening College personnel this semester.

Twenty subjects are being taught by the College of Arts and Sciences, with the greatest enrollment in English—244 students.

The School of Business lists five subjects, with accounting having the largest registration, 242.

Graduate courses in the School of Education are offered in three fields—elementary with 26 students, secondary with 47, and general education with 100.

Art is the only Evening College course being offered by the School of Fine Arts this semester. There are 38 enrollees.

A total of 98 courses are available, with 111 sections and an average of 19.03 students in each section.

'Conquest of Covetousness' Sermon Topic for Sunday

"The Conquest of Covetousness" will be the topic of the sermon by the Rev. Granville Walker at the 10:50 a. m. Sunday worship service of the University Christian Church.

The choir under the direction of Arthur Faguy-Cote will sing "Lift Up Your Heads," by Hopkins.

Evensong will begin at 7:15 o'clock with Don Ver Duin giving the interpretative reading. Stanford Barker will sing "A Song of Redemption," by Protheroe.

Chamber of Commerce Will Hold Barbecue

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a barbecue this evening in Rockwood Park. Members will meet at the Arch at 5 p. m. and transportation will be furnished.

The Chamber members were guests last Wednesday at a luncheon given by the Fort Worth Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Blackstone Hotel.

Vet Trainees Must Report Earnings to Guidance Office

Veterans who have submitted trainee earnings reports to the Veterans Administration since Sept. 1, need not send in another until advised by the V. A., reports John N. Watson, training officer.

To prevent being dropped from the subsistence list, veterans who have not made this report, and those receiving their first check, should turn in the accompanying report to the Veterans Guidance Center, Room 125, Clark Hall.

Frogs End Up in Frying Pan But S. M. U. Gets Skillet

"Well, it was their idea; we had to be nice to them and let them keep the skillet the first year."

That was one T. C. U. Council member's philosophical comment after the S. M. U.-T. C. U. Student Council dinner, Saturday.

T. C. U. Council members were guests at the S. M. U. Council dinner at the Italian Village in Dallas after the football game. Highlight of the affair was the presentation of the "skillet trophy" to the winner of the T. C. U.-S. M. U. game.

Buddy Forbis of S. M. U. explained how their Student Council, wanting to better student relations between "our great schools—We're all at least agreed that one of the two is the finest school in the United States"—had launched the "skillet trophy tradition." Each year the winner of the game is to hold the trophy for a year.

Derrell Tipps, T. C. U. student body president, made the presentation speech, allying that "We thought the game's result would be different and my acceptance speech is the one that's really good." Bill Harris, president of the S. M. U. Council accepted the skillet.

All the council members were introduced by their president, and "the skillet," be-ribboned and engraved, made the rounds of the banquet table. The inscription on the aluminum skillet reads: "Presented in token of southwestern friendship to the winner of the annual T. C. U.-S. M. U. football game. Student tradition sponsored jointly by the student governments of the universities."

Legion Petitions Regional V. A.

A letter to the American Legion State Department adjutant requesting action with the Veterans Administration for better co-operation in adjusting slow payments of veterans subsistence checks was drafted by the campus Legion Post in a meeting Wednesday night.

Dr. Hilton B. Sheppard spoke on "Business Outlook of 1947," and movies of the annual Salvation Army "Christmas Cheer" drive were shown. Fifteen members of the Post will participate in this year's two day drive.

Maurice Langford was installed as Post Commander and Joe Tilley, Vice-Commander, at an installation banquet at the Westbrook Hotel Nov. 20. Other new officers are Don Pierson, adjutant; Bob Matthews, finance; Kermit Huckabee, sergeant at arms; Barbara Bingham, historian.

Remaining treasury funds of the disbanded Frog Vets club were presented to the Legion by Bob Matthews, former president of the Frog Vets.

Gandy Extends Time Limit On Horned Frog Contest

The time limit for the Horned Frog snapshot contest has been extended to Tuesday by Perry Gandy, editor.

Regularly enrolled students may enter as many snapshots as they desire. Name of the contestant, subject matter and the place the snapshot was taken should be written on the back of each entry. The winner will be awarded two tickets to the Presentation Ball—and the winning entry will be given a full-page feature in the annual.

Fine Arts Festival to Present 5-Day Program on "Baroque"

Tickets to Ball To Go on Sale

Annual Presentation Bids Cost $1.50, Couple or Stag At Booth in Main Hall

Bids to the annual Presentation Ball at the Rivercrest Country Club, Monday, Dec. 16, will go on sale tomorrow morning in a booth in the main hall of the Administration Building, reports Perry Gandy, Horned Frog editor.

Price for the affair, which features the presentation of the class favorites and the ugliest man chosen by vote of the student body, is $1.50, couple or stag. Leon Breeden's orchestra will furnish the music from 8 to 12 p. m., and special late permission has been granted by Dean Elizabeth Shelburne for dormitory girls.

Transportation and date bureaus have been set up to aid those in need of such facilities. Students with cars who are planning to attend the ball, and have room for other couples, are requested to contact Sammy Morrow, Carol Loafman or Janet Jackson to register the space.

If a date is needed (either sex), contact Chris Rotton, Eugene Robertson or Juanita Dean. Special consideration and care will be exercised by the date bureau to satisfy personal requirements, Gandy says.

Basketball Tickets Will Be Allotted

Howard Grubbs, athletic director, was given unanimous approval by the Student Council, Tuesday, to proceed with the allotment of student tickets for home basketball games.

The body also voted to investigate the finance handling of the Homecoming Revue, with Dick Brickley being asked to appear before the Council next Tuesday.

Mr. Grubbs' plan to allot tickets is to allow 1100 students to exchange one number from the student activity book for tickets. The first 1100 to apply will get tickets. Then, others will be given preference at the next game.

The policy of other conference schools was not followed, however, in allowing only students to attend games. There will be approximately 350 tickets sold to the general public.

The restrictions on purchase of tickets will not apply to the game Monday night, or Dec. 19.

The Council also voted to donate $50 to the WSSF drive. Members of the body will also sell Tuberculosis Seals in behalf of the Fort Worth campaign.

Rev. Mr. Brown to Speak At Brite College Chapel

The Rev. Harold Brown, associate minister of the East Dallas Christian Church, will be the speaker for the 11 o'clock service Wednesday morning in Brite College Chapel.

Connie Mac Hood will be the leader for the service.

Dr. John Lewis was the speaker this week on "Christmas hymns."

Business Class to Keep Individual Information Files

Students in the "Introduction to Business" classes are now maintaining individual information files on business material. Each file will be retained by the student to serve as the beginning of a personal library.

Recitals, Exhibits, Ensembles, Chorus, Fallis Players Listed As Features of Presentation

The second annual Fine Arts Festival, combined with the seventh annual Music Festival, will open at 3:30 p. m. Sunday with a "Recital of Keyboard Music" in the Auditorium. Following the recital, Dr. Michael Winesanker will speak on "The Baroque."

The Festival is devoted to Baroque works. The program is under the general direction of Michael Winesanker, associate professor of musicology, who also compiled the program annotations.

The Newhouse Galleries of New York City have provided an exhibition of Baroque paintings which will be open to the public in the Little Gallery on the third floor of the Administration Building after each program during the week.

The "Interrelation of the Arts" class, under the direction of Miss Lorraine Sherley, has prepared an exhibit illustrating the influence of the Baroque spirit in all of the major arts. The exhibit will be housed in the Recital Hall, third floor, throughout the week.

A recital of vocal solos, vocal ensemble and instrumental ensemble will be presented at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Auditorium.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening in the Auditorium, the University Choral Club, directed by William J. Marsh, will present "Missa Secunda." The chorus will be assisted by a double quartet. The University Symphonic Strings will play Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 in G Major," and "Brandenburg Concerto No. 5 in D Major." Brooks Morris is the conductor.

The Fallis Players will present a five-act comedy, "Tartuffe," by Moliere, at 8 p. m. Thursday in the Auditorium.

He holds seven ground instructor ratings, including civil air regulations, navigation, meteorology, engines, aircraft, instruments and parachutes. He recently resigned as director of ground school at Southwest College of Aeronautics at Meacham Field. A ground instructor for two years at Army Secondary Flight Instructor Schools at Wichita Falls and Ardmore, Okla., Stimson taught courses in aircraft engines, and code to a Marine flight group stationed on the campus in 1944.

Mrs. Verna W. Wyatt, A. B. at TWC '40, will be a part-time teacher in the English department. She will receive her Master's degree from NTSTC in the summer. Mrs. Wyatt is a former teacher in the Fort Worth schools.

Mrs. H. S. Renshaw, A. B. '26, will also be a part-time teacher in the department. She has taught here previously.

Miss Betsy Feagan, who will complete work on her A. B. degree this semester, will receive a teaching fellowship and instruct beginning English classes and work on her Master's degree here.

The English teachers will begin work with the spring semester in January.

The Caravan will move on to Walnut Springs for the Singpiration service at 3 p. m. Albert Mikuta is student-pastor of the church. Eugene Brink will preach.

Rosemary Adams, Flying Flapper From Ft. Stockton

"Flying comes easier for me than driving a car," says Rosemary Adams, whose flying days began when she was 13.

"I even got my pilot's license before I got my driver's license. And, too, my dad is an ardent flying fan."

Students in Fort Stockton high school, her home town, gained interest in flying through several scholarships given by the school. All the students took their training together and have continued their interest after high school graduation.

"Last Christmas," says Adams, "all of us got together and had an air show of our own at home. I don't get to fly much while I'm here at school, but I make up for lost time whenever I'm home."

The pilots on the airlines that go to San Angelo got so well acquainted with Adams last year, from her frequent trips home by plane, that they let her ride in front and take the controls several times.

"In fact," she says, "last year the pilot even wanted me to land the plane, but I talked him out of it because I wasn't familiar with a plane of that size."

Early this fall Adams learned of the death of one of her college friends in a plane crash while he was home for the week-end. This was the first time that she had ever doubted her ability to fly, or the safety of it. During the Thanksgiving holidays while she was home her dad renewed her faith by quoting figures about flying being more safe than riding in a car.

W. S. S. F. Drive Sets Goal of $1 per Student, $5 per Teacher

With a $50 gift from the Student Council, $25 from the American Legion, and a student assembly with all freshman classes dismissed as "first down," W. S. S. F. is driving towards its new goal—$1 from every student and $5 from every faculty member.

The Inter-Club Council Monday outlined a complete new W. S. S. F. program to last, with the drive, through Wednesday.

Clubs are playing leading roles in the new program. Presidents of all clubs will ask a $1 gift of every member, to be donated at the Main Hall booth or through the club presidents.

Each club on the campus will sponsor the hall booth one day during the drive.

Bottles for donations at crowded and popular spots on the campus, such as the Book Store and Brite, and more poster publicity are aiming at making the Hill W. S. S. F. conscious.

Lapel cards, proudly declaring "I gave $1 to W. S. S. F.," will become "the first fashion for students for the next two weeks—we hope," says James Standridge, Chairman of the I. C. C.

"If clubs are unable to contact every T. C. U. student," says "Long John," "a big all-school social, with benefits for W. S. S. F., will climax the drive."

Prof. C. A. Burch, President M. E. Sadler, James Standridge, and David Bunn were speakers at the assembly which launched the "$1 campaign." Charles Jones was emcee. Prof. Burch, in telling the students of Chinese needs, stressed "understanding, sympathy and a helping hand" for the world's students.

President Sadler emphasized that a gift to needy students now is an insurance policy on our own future, since "what happens there determines what happens here."

He told the assembly how he, as well as Prof. Burch, had seen students in the Orient jam book stores after school to read the books they could not afford to buy!

"Their enthusiasm for learning matches ours for football," he added. David Bunn, who talked with other students interested in W. S. S. F. at the recent Oklahoma City "Y" conference, stressed that "it's a student proposition—W. S. S. F. And each one of us at T. C. U. is important to it. We decide the success or failure of the drive."

Degree or Not Degree

One of the smartest men I know went to college with complete disregard for degree or grades...

A college graduate with a Master's degree said this. He also expressed the opinion that he would have been better off had he done the same thing.

As it happens, a comparison of these two men and what they are now doing is simple. They both work for the same firm in Fort Worth.

The one without the degree has a mediocre job at mediocre pay and there is every reason to believe he will remain mediocre the rest of his life.

The one with the Master's degree is the head of the department. His future is bright.

Then why does the college graduate feel that way? Perhaps his subconscious is still resenting required courses...

It is perfectly natural to resist requirements of this nature, and, obviously, a college degree assures no man that he will be a success in life.

But what the college graduate quoted above missed entirely is that a whole is made up of many parts. Even though he is unaware of it, his degrees, with all their required courses, have given him mental stature he would not have gained otherwise.

The People Still Remember

"I'll never forget it—we had just returned from having Sunday dinner at Grandma's and had turned the radio on...

"We were out driving. Had the radio on in the car. The program was interrupted..."

"I'll never forget..."

Time: Dec. 7, 1941. Scene: Your Town, U. S. A. Excited radio announcers blared out the news from coast to coast.

But only for a short time, because the bombs that rained down on Pearl Harbor burst into white crosses on Pacific islands and across the face of Europe...

And now, tomorrow, five years later, people still remember that the roar of the bombs soon blended with the sound of marching feet, the rumble of artillery, the drone of planes.

Five years, and that chapter is ended. But today and tomorrow the people will still remember.

Frog lashes

By RICHARD MOORE

"Wait until next year!" was the cry of one T. C. U. student—and how right the rooster may be. If tradition means anything, the Frogs should either win the conference next year, or get into some bowl classic one. It's the three-year tradition time again.

Way back in '29, T. C. U. took its first football championship and repeated in '32, '38 and '44. In '35 the Frogs were nosed out by S. M. U., but went to the Sugar Bowl, and in '41 journeyed to the Orange Bowl. It will be no time to start to break a 17-year tradition next year.

Hard-driving Otis McKelvey racked up No. 1 honors as the backfield man with best average per ground try. Otis' average was 6.1. Little Lindy Berry, however, gained the most ground, 376 yards on 112 tries, for a 3.4 average. Pete Stout also had a 3.4 average, with 250 yards in 69 attempts. Here's the final rushing record for the backfield men:

Player	TC	YG	YL	NG	Avg.
McKelvey	8	49	6	49	6.1
Jackson	15	96	19	77	5.3
Berry	112	376	105	376	3.4
Stout	69	250	87	239	3.4
Bishop	14	57	3	24	3.3
Lucas	37	127	36	79	2.1
Knox	39	131	54	75	1.9
Bloxom	58	69	17	42	1.4

McKelvey also had the best pass receiving average. He grabbed one pass in the Oklahoma A. & M. fray which was good for 50 yards. His average was just that, 50 yards. Jim Lucas was second, with a 30.3 average for 65 yards on two passes. Capt. Fred Taylor was third, with 127 yards on the receiving end of 10 passes, for 27 yards a catch.

Average for all receivers are:

Receiver	No. C.	Yds. G.	Avg.
McKelvey	1	50	50
Lucas	2	65	30.3
Taylor	10	127	27
Webb	2	50	25
Berry	2	22	11
Turner	2	32	16
Jackson	6	67	11.2
Lipscomb	8	69	8.6
Bial	2	17	8.5

Pete Stout was the fair-haired lad when it came to crossing the double stripe. Pete scored four touchdowns, to pace the Frogs with 24 points. Berry finished second, with three counters and 18 points. Lucas, Webb, Knox, Edwards, Hale, Lipscomb, Bloxom and Bishop each had six points. Bishop's points were accumulated by conversions.

In the final figures released by the Southwest Conference this week, Berry finished third in the ball carrying race. Pacing him were Carl Russ of Rice, with 690 yards, and Ken Holland of Arkansas, with 397 yards. Leon Joslin finished ninth in the contest for leading passer.

Knox ended in seventh position for the conference leading kicker. Carl had a 35.5 average. Lucas was in ninth place with a 35.3 average. Berry scored again, finishing fourth in punt returns. Ahead of Berry were Frank Guess of Texas, Frank Payne of S. M. U. and George Walmsley of Rice. Berry finished with the top yards, 321 yards on 23 returns.

The play that really set the sport scribes to raving in the Rice game was Charley Jackson's dash. All were particularly impressed by the way the play was set up. But again, as in the Texas contest, the "out-fronters" failed to take out the safety and forgot to look back. The question is, if T. C. U. scored, would the extra point have been kicked? Hateful thought, isn't it?

McKelvey did not receive much credit from the public announcer at the S. M. U. game. As McKelvey continually ripped off short gains, the man would say, "Rogers carried for 10 yards." Then Randy replaced McKelvey and the P. A. man was silent.

Why not a word, too, on the B team? The boys really pulled a major upset against the Colts. Particularly impressive were Bill Sweet, Skeet Quinlan, Don Narrel, Foy Gaddy, Doyle Malone and W. P. Knapps. The receivers couldn't drop Bill's shot-gun passes, and Knapps kicks were continually going over the safety man's head.

So the football season comes to the "30" mark, and immediately Coach Hub McQuillan's basketball lads take over. The game Monday night against Loyola will probably decide if the students of the school will be rationed in the number of games they will see this year. And if one thinks this should not be, just consider Texas, where students will be allowed to see one out of three games, and Arkansas, where the quota will be one of two games.

Frogs Will Face Sooners in Cage Debut

Roundballers Meet O. U., Loyola in Dallas, Latter Here Monday

With high hopes of having his most successful season since coming to T. C. U., Coach Hub McQuillan's cagers will make their 1946 debut tonight against the Oklahoma five in the Joe Perkins Gymnasium in Dallas.

The game will be the first half of a doubleheader, the second contest involving S. M. U. and Loyola. Saturday night, the Frogs will take on Loyola.

Frog fans will be unable to see the Purple roundballers in action until Monday night when they meet the Loyola team here in the Basketball Gymnasium. There are no tickets available for students for the game tonight in Dallas.

Coach Hub is still undecided as to his starting five against the high-scoring Oklahoma quintet. The two forward positions probably will be filled by Bob Hendricks and Frank Kudlaty, lettermen from last year's squad. Another sure starter is Mutt Pasco, two-time all-conference guard.

Bob Condren, 6-5 freshman, and Julius Dolines are battling for the center post. Dolines, only 6-3, appears to have the edge in practice this week. Although the oldest member on the squad, the Indiana player has plenty of spring in his leg, and has looked good at the pivot post.

3 Look Good at Guard
Contesting for the other guard position are J. W. Brothers and Gene Wardynski. Both have been impressive in workouts. However, they are being pushed hard by little Skooter Cameron, who is a deadly two-handed push-shot artist. Both Brothers and Wardynski are especially fast, and can sink the ball with regularity.

Coach Hub will probably give his 17-man squad plenty of time against the opposition in the next three games. He wants to get a look-see, too, at his two tall centers in action, Glenn Harry and Don Siegelau, 6-8 and 6-7½ freshman lads. Both boys show a need for a little more polish and will see a lot of service in the 12 exhibition games T. C. U. will play before opening against Texas University, one month from today.

Due to see service tonight are Lettermen Bob Young and Ernie Lackland, and Bruce Craig, freshman.

O. U. Has All-Americans
The Frogs will run into stiff competition the next three nights. Two former all-American cagers will be playing for the Oklahoma team. One is Gerald Tucker, who won national honors in 1943 at center. Tucker holds the Big Six scoring record of 175 points for 10 games. The other player receiving recognition, is Allie Paine.

Completing the starting fivesome will probably be Kenneth Pryon, all-conference forward, last year; Dick Reich, who lettered in '42, '43 and '46; and Paul Court, another '46 all-conference forward. The Sooners notched both of their starting games this week, defeating Warrensburg Teachers and trouncing Texas Tech Wednesday, 60 to 37.

The Loyola five will field an impressive team also. Paced by Jack Dwan, senior forward whose 436

DEFENSE is something of a problem when LeRoy Pasco, 5-9, takes on the job of guarding Don Siegelau, 6-7½. LeRoy, a junior and twice all-conference, and Don, a freshman, are leading cogs in the Frog basketball machine.

Napps' Punting Paces 'B's' In 9-to-6 Victory Over S.M.U. for Season Finale

Scoring all of its points in the opening half, the "B" team was content to play defensive ball in the final 30 minutes and rely on the good right foot of W. B. Napps to keep the S. M. U. Colts at bay, and to dump the hitherto unbeaten Dallas eleven, 9 to 6, last Friday in Dallas.

It was the season's finale for both teams, and left the young Frogs with a record of four victories, three defeats and one tie.

Again it was the rugged, hustling Frog forward wall, along with the (phenomenal) punting of Napps, which led Coach Walter Roach's boys to victory. Early in the first quarter, after a drive by the victors had

Ponies Gallop, Frogs Sputter To Give S. M. U. 30-13 Victory

Returning to early season form, the T. C. U. Frogs handed their last pigskin fray to the high-scoring Mustangs Saturday in Ownby Stadium, as they literally fumbled and passed S. M. U. to victory.

Taking advantage of each Frog miscue—three fumbles and five interceptions—the Mustangs came roaring back in the second quarter to overtake a 13-to-6 Frog edge, and score four times to win, 30 to 13.

In losing, the Frogs had no concrete alibi. After the first period, they were never in the game. Out of the chaos only Lindy Berry's 64-yard dash, plus the defensive play of Scratch Edwards and Billy Hale, left a good taste in the Purple rooster's mouths.

Bell Dominates Meyer

Thus, Matty Bell continued to be the only coach to dominate Coach Dutch Meyer since 1935. In the last 12 games, S. M. U. has been victorious seven times. One game ended in a tie.

The scoring parade started in the early minutes of the game, as Frank Payne took Carl Knox's boot and returned it 65-yards for the touch. Unprepared, the Frogs took the ensuing kick-off and marched 85 steps, with Berry crashing over from the 2. Tom Bishop converted.

After another exchange of kicks, Berry faked a hand-off and broke through the Mustang right tackle for 64 yards for the last Frog touchdown. Then the avalanche of Mustang scores began. Payne handed off to Eugene Wilson on an end around, and the end waltzed 25 yards for the counter. The play had been set up by an intercepted pass.

Wilson Scores Again

The identical trick worked again, with Wilson going 14 paces for six points and putting the Mustangs in a 20-to-13 lead. Berry's fumble was the miscue in this score. Then Pete Stout fumbled and on fourth down, Wayne Campbell, who proved to be quite a specialist in kick-offs, booted a field goal.

Another interception paved the way for the final Pony touchdown. From the T. C. U. 31, Payne pitched a pass into the end zone, where Randy Rogers and Gene McClintock contested for the ball, the S. M. U. lad coming out the winner.

T. C. U. started out as if it meant business in the second half, Knox leading the team to two consecutive first downs. But here Knox switched to passes and his second one was intercepted. Most of the remainder of the game was played by subs from both teams.

Frogs Tie for Fifth Place

This defeat, coupled with the Rice loss the previous week, left the Frogs in a deadlock with the Mustangs for fifth place in the Southwest Conference.

Hard Blocking, Running Wins First Game—Second Tilt Set for Wednesday

Roaring in like a West Texas sand-storm, the Seniors, with brutal blocking, timely passes and alert playing, literally "blew" the Preachers "8" off the gridiron Tuesday, as they swept to a 47-to-7 victory in the first of a two-out-of-three series for the championship of the Intramural League.

Spotting the Ministers one touchdown in the first period, the Seniors, paced by big Jim Woodfin, stormed back to tally twice in the second quarter, four times in the big third, and once in the last period. Woodfin, who was a ball hawk backing up the line, intercepted three enemy aerials and crossed the goal line twice.

The second game will be played at 3:45 p. m. Wednesday.

It was the inability of the Preachers' passers to hit the right player that aided in the Senior victory. Of 18 aerials attempted, eight were nabbed by the last-year men, and three were returned for touchdowns.

A long pass from Connie Mac Hood to Jim Farrar was good for 68 yards and the only Preachers tally. Then the roof fell in on the Ministers. On the first play of the second quarter, Sam Weatherford passed to Woodfin for a counter. Van Hall converted.

An intercepted pass set up the second counter. Blair Kirkpatrick grabbed the Preacher pass on his

Long and Short of Basketball Is Glenn Harry, Don Cameron

Out with the old, in with the new—that's the motto of sports fans, as the football season ends for T. C. U. and basketball takes the spotlight. The only dark spot on the horizon is the ticket rationing threat, but the cager line-up promises to give every fan his money's worth at every game.

The first home game Monday night, against Loyola, will give FRANK KUDLATY and ERNIE LACKLAND, both lettermen from last year's squad, a chance at revenge. They haven't forgotten that T. C. U. lost to the Chicago boys by one point in 1945.

LEROY PASCO boasts seniority on the team both as an upperclassman and in number of years on the squad. A Junior, Pasco was captain in 1946 and all-conference in '45 and '46.

"Seniority" in height goes to GLENN ("SHORTY") HARRY, who stands 6-8 in his stocking feet and is still growing. A close second is DON ("BROOKLYN") SIEGELAUB, who resembles a misplaced Brooklyn skyscraper as he looks down from his 6-7 1/2. "And they are both freshmen!" is Coach "Hub's" glib comment.

ORVAL HUTTO ranks third. He's working out with the squad although he will not be eligible until February.

GLYNN SLAYDON, 6-4, is a little on the long side, too, and on the short side of the ruler is DON CAMERON, from Sheboygan, Wis. (Ask him how the town got its name.) Don was stationed at Sheppard Field, decided to pay a visit to T. C. U. and "Hub" — and here he is.

Center BOB CONDREN hails from Muldrow, Okla., which is a basketball town, but not from choice. The town fathers discovered that the football team couldn't pay its way!

BRUCE CRAIG, only hometown boy on the squad, isn't worried about his courses—that is, except one: Coach McQuillan's classroom examination on basketball!

J. W. ("RED") BROTHERS was voted all-conference guard in 1941-'42, when he played for Kilgore Junior College. He was enrolled at T. C. U. in '43, and returned after an extended game with Uncle Sam's Marine team.

BOB HENDRICKS, honorary captain and forward on the Indiana all-star high school team in 1945, in the scramble for a spot on this year's first string, is also quite a scout for the Frog cagers. He convinced JULIUS ("CEASAR") DOLNICS, Gary, Ind., that T. C. U. is the place for him. Julius played in high school, and for one year at Indiana Central College.

Although it has little connection with basketball, geology is PAT WRIGHT'S major. He spends his leisure time bird hunting near his home in Bowie.

GENE WARDYNSKI will meet Loyola's Jack Dwan for the second time Monday night. The first time was in their Army days, Gene at Great Bend, Kan., and Jack at Alexandria, La. GENE hopes to make use of his prowess as a rabbit hunter in the game Monday night, and BOB YOUNG thinks he might practice his major, pre-surgery, by turning out a neat operation against the Chicagoans.

Club Activity Varied In Coming Week

The B. & P. W. Club will vote on adoption of a new constitution at a luncheon meeting at 1 p. m. Wednesday in the Cafeteria.

A panel discussion on the Inter-Seminary Movement will be held at the noon luncheon meeting Wednesday, Dec. 10, of the Homiletic Guild.

"Super-Conductivity" will be the topic of Bill Flowers' talk to the Physics Society 1 p. m. Monday. Iva Helen Lee spoke on "Gradient Wind Equation in Meteorology" at last Monday's meeting.

"Types of Sermons" will be the topic of the address to be given by Prof. C. A. Burch to the members of the Timothy Club at the 4 p. m. Monday meeting in Brite Club Room.

A Lakeside Christmas Party is being planned by the Natural Science Society for Dec. 20.

Brushes Club will discuss the pictures and act as hosts for the Baroque Festival art exhibit Sunday afternoon. Members are requested to meet at 4:30 p. m. in the Little Gallery.

Plans for the costume ball to be held Jan. 11 will be discussed at a meeting of the Fine Arts Council at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday in the faculty room of the Cafeteria.

The Horned Frog staff will meet today at 1 p. m. in the office. All students are requested to return their annual picture proofs to Orgain Studios.

Miss Lindsay Weds Nathan Stedman

Miss Gracia Jane Lindsay became the bride of Nathan Alexander Stedman Saturday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The couple left immediately after the reception for Austin, where Stedman is attending Texas University. Mrs. Stedman, A. B. '45, served on the faculty last year. The bridegroom attended T. C. U. last spring.

Los Hidalgos Initiates 26 New Members

Twenty-six students were initiated into Los Hidalgos at a meeting in Brite Club Room recently.

bogged down on the Colt 2, the T. C. U. line stormed through to block a Colt kick. S. M. U.'s Merle McCracken fell on the ball for a safety.

The Wogs increased the lead to 9 to 0 in the second period. From the Colt 36, Horace Bostick hurled a long aerial to End Pierre Roberts standing alone on the 5, and Roberts went over. Harry Mullins made the conversion.

It wasn't until the second half that the Colt machine, which had been victorious in seven previous frays, could move. The lone S. M. U. counter came on a 60-yard pass play, Guy Proctor tossing to Lloyd Parker, who cut to the east sideline and scooted all the way for the score.

However, the Colts continued to move into Frog territory in the last quarter, but the Frog line stopped each drive and the booming punts of Napps would send the home team reeling back. The most serious march was broken up on the Frog 6 as Doyle Malone, whose defensive play highlighted the game, broke through to down the carrier for a loss.

Phi Sigma Iota Elects New Officers

Pat Gillespie was elected president of Phi Sigma Iota last week. Other new officers are: Margie Lee Guber, vice-president and program director; Ernest Allen, treasurer. Miss Eula Lee Carter was named corresponding secretary and Miss Chita Sheppard, recording secretary.

own 20 and returned to the Preacher 3. From there, Weatherford scooted around end for the tally.

The third touchdown came as Kirkpatrick swept end from the 3. A pass from Hall to Woodfin was good for 6 points, and Woodfin scored again on an intercepted pass. Hall dashed 28 yards for the sixth score on another intercepted heave, and Wendell Towery tallied the final touchdown on an end around.
